Chapter 285: Cityism?

"What, there are people in the corner?" Kong Quan was shocked. With his realm of Dacheng Dacheng, he did not find anyone. How is this possible?

Lin Xueer was also stunned, and immediately rushed toward the coming. At this time, she was shining with hope in her eyes.

The person who shot the hand is Ye Xuan.

He slowly walked out of the corner, and the moonlight shone on his face, and he succeeded in identifying Lin Xueer.

"You are also very powerful, sneak into a family, even wearing clothes at night." Ye Xuan looked helplessly Lin Xueer.

The latter glanced subconsciously and found that Ye Xuan was also in white, and immediately turned his eyes.

"Kid, where did you come from?" Kong Quan looked at Ye Xuan.

"It's you?"

Kong Rong on the side was recognized.

However, Ye Xuan is not prepared to nonsense, directly open the bow of the Chinese product, and raising his hand is an arrow.

call out!

The arrow was as fast as lightning, and did not enter Kong Rong's eyebrows.

"what?"

Kong Quan was shocked and hurriedly rushed toward Ye Xuan, holding a sword in his left.

"The eight wild winds kill, the sky breaks!"

"Hey!"

Lin Xueer only saw the eyes swaying, Kong Quan's body shape was slowed down, and then directly fell in front of Ye Xuan.

I saw that Kong Quan's back was already opened with a big blood hole.

Ye Xuan quickly tidy up the mess, put everything in, and then took Lin Xueer to leave.

"I am not letting you not follow up..." After leaving the Confucius, Lin Xueer could not help but ask.

Ye Xuan reluctantly said: "I don't follow, you should be able to imagine yourself in the end, do you want to fall to that kind of end?"

Lin Xueer simply did not speak, after a long while, said: "Thank you!"

"This thorn city can't go on, let's go straight."

Ye Xuan said directly.

"But now the gate has been closed." Lin Xueer frowned.

"How can it be difficult to get me a few tens of meters from the city wall? And with your realm, the whole city wall can be removed, your mind is too limited." Ye Xuan is preaching.

Lin Xueer did not refute, her time to join the WTO is still too short, and she needs to practice more.

The two soon came to the bottom of the city wall. They had already killed the top of the Confucius family. At this time, the Confucius must be furious, so they could not be amazed.

Ye Xuan did not say hello to Lin Xueer, but directly picked it up and then jumped.

The 60-meter-high wall was really easy for him. He jumped to the wall easily, then ran a few steps before he jumped out.

Suddenly a pair of wings condensed and appeared on the back of Ye Xuan. He held Lin Xueer and glided in the air.

Lin Xueer felt the feeling of the evening breeze touching her face. The mood was very complicated. She had already dismissed her contract with Ye Xuan. Secondly, Ye Xuan already had a fiancée. Third, she was rescued several times by Ye Xuan. .

The two flew in the air and then fell into a forest.

"You should treat it first, so as not to leave scars." Ye Xuan put down Lin Xueer and said one.

"Yeah." Lin Xueer nodded, then went to a tree and untied the belt to heal the wound.

Ye Xuan Fang is also feeling a bit, Lin Xueer's two swords are small injuries, does not affect the action.

Therefore, they have to continue on their way tonight, leaving the thorny city to say, lest they be wanted.

Lin Xueer handled the wound well, and then he followed Ye Xuan. At their speed, probably one or two days later, he could reach the main city of Guangjin.

Two days later, outside Guangjin City.

"finally reached."

Ye Xuan relieved with relief. He rushed for two days, but like a half-month, he had to say that the military without refining was really bad. You need to take a break after a few hours.

If at his own pace, I am afraid that I will be able to rush from Guangzhou City to Guangjin City for a long time. It was already at night, the gates were about to close, and they just caught up with the last bus.

"Well, where is your master?"

After entering the city, Ye Xuan couldn't help but ask, as long as Lin Xueer was sent to Master Tian Yuanzong, he could set off to find Zhengzhou, the leader of the China Alliance.

"He has a house in the west of the city."

Lin Xueer said.

Then she left with Ye Xuan.

Guangjin City is the main city of this area. The city owner is equivalent to an emperor of the empire. It is said to be a super strong person in Tiandan.

This Guangjin City is also extremely large, and it is already more than the area of Tianyuanzong. The population of life is in the millions.

The two took some time to find the house of Master Tian Yuanzong, Lin Xueer knocked on the door, but did not get any response.

"Are you sure you are here?" Ye Xuan asked.

"It is here." Lin Xueer pointed to the plaque above the gate.

Pang!

"The place is right, but it is empty inside, not even one person." Ye Xuan said faintly.

Lin Xueer was shocked. He turned over the wall and swam quickly inside. It was as if Ye Xuan said that no one was there.

"how do you know?"

After coming out, Lin Xueer could not help but ask.

"How can the secret tell you?" Ye Xuan rolled his eyes and said: "Let's go, he should be moving, go to Wanshige to find."

Wanshige is a major feature of Zhongzhou. It can find people, buy things, and even kill people. If they give money, they can do it.

Ye Xuan and Lin Xueer came to the Wanshi Pavilion. Then, Lin Xueer filled out a form.

But this time, Ye Xuan noticed that the waiter's face twitched.

"The information of this person, we have the Wanshi Pavilion now, only need a hundred fine spar." The waiter of the Wanshi Pavilion said.

Lin Xueer pays directly.

Then, the waiter went out for a trip, returned in less than a minute, and submitted a sheepskin roll.

"Pang Xing, who was accepted as a son of Guangjin City by a month ago, is now the owner of the city of Guangjin City. The strength has reached Dacheng Dacheng..."

When Ye Xuan and Lin Xueer read it, the figure could not help but tremble.

On this day, the master of the Yuanzong was actually accepted as the son of the Guangjin City, and the strength was broken into the Dadan Dacheng. This is something that the two would not have thought of.

"Small city owners, then live in the city of Guangjin City."

Ye Xuan slowly said.

The city owner of Guangjin City, but the super strong person of Tiandanjing Xiaocheng, Pang Xing can be regarded as a step into the sky.

In this case, as long as you let Pang Xing recommend it, then when you join other forces, you should be able to kill Tian Yuanzong and kill the Luyuan giant who is at the peak of Tiandan.

At the moment, Ye Xuan and Lin Xueer are heading towards the main city of Guangjin City.
