Chapter 286: Human face

"Stand up, who is coming?"

When the * captain of the city government saw someone coming, he immediately shouted.

"This is the younger sister of your lesser city, and I also asked the big brother to give a briefing."

Ye Xuan directly replied, and his heart is also very surprised. This team has a total of ten guards. This captain is the first to enter the land, and the rest are also Dacheng Dacheng, and Zhongzhou really deserves Zhongzhou.

"Sister?"

The captain of the * frowned and said: "What kind of jokes, there are no gates for our city owners, where are the sisters? You are so bold, you dare to pretend and leave them!"

"No door, no faction, is it wrong?" Ye Xuan gave a slight glimpse, but he still believed in the ability of the Wanshige. In this case, it must be that Pang Xing lied that he did not have a martial art.

At this point, the team guards have all been dispatched, ready to take Ye Xuan two people.

"I come."

Just as Ye Xuan was prepared to teach the group of dogs to see the low guards, Lin Xueer was a sneak peek.

In less than half a minute, these guards were all fell to the ground and could not be played by Lin Xueer.

"You actually resisted, know where it is?" the * captain said evilly.

"You can't believe it, but if we are really friends of your lesser city, then you have to offend him. Are you sure you don't want to report it?" Ye Xuan kindly reminded.

"This....."

The * captain was silent for a while and said, "What is your name?"

"Lin Xueer, you only need to report this name to Shaocheng, he will know." Ye Xuan replied.

"Well, then you are waiting here, if not, you are waiting to be wanted!"

The * captain absolutely believed that this time, he turned into the city government.

He was only looking at Ye Xuan two so young, so did not care, but after Lin Xueer defeated one, they understood that Ye Xuan is not an ordinary person.

Soon, the * captain is back.

"How?" Ye Xuan asked with a smile.

"Two, I am sorry, please here." After the captain of the guard appeared again, he was holding back the painful smile on his body.

It seems that this Pang Xing is the master of the Yuan Yuanzong Pang Xing.

Then, under the leadership of the * captain, Ye Xuan and Lin Xueer entered the main city of Guangjin City.

"Two, the little city owner has something to do now, so the little city owner asked me to arrange a place for you, and later the city owner will come."

After the * captain finished, he arranged an adjacent yard for Ye Xuan and Lin Xueer, and then left.

After two days of driving, Lin Xueer was tired, so Ye Xuan went back to the courtyard next door to rest.

Now, his mission has almost been completed, escorting Lin Xueer to Guangjin City. Next, he is going to the main city of Shenzhou to find Zhengzhou, the leader of the China Alliance, the first in the list of the sky.

He has decided to take a rest and start tomorrow.

"The owner of Guangjin City is Xiaocheng in Tiandan. I must have a top-grade device. It should be able to deal with the giant of the green source. However, if Lingxiaofu and Tianyuanzong want to fish from the water, they cannot be alone. Must call more people..."

Ye Xuan plans some things in his own house. Now, he has nothing to do with planning the future.

However, at this time, suddenly a footstep passed into his ear.

"Well, the footsteps are subtle, it is a master, it should be the day of the Yuanzong master Pang Xing."

Ye Xuan just felt a little, not much care.

However, after a few minutes, his brow was wrinkled, and he heard the quarrel.

He was adjacent to Lin Xueer's yard, so close to his voice could not escape his ears.

"Snow, you still don't know my heart, I really like you. Now I am taken over by the city owner, you follow me, and when I will take over as the city owner, you are the wife of the city..."

This is the voice of a strange man, no doubt, it must be that Pang Xing.

"Brother, how can you do this? Now that Tianyuanzong is destroyed, everyone is temporarily living in the Lingxiao House. Do you want us to be like this forever?"

Lin Xueer's voice sounded.

"Tian Yuanzong, hey, but it is only a small sect. I will be able to destroy it when I am a father. Now I am the owner of the city of Guangjin City. I will return to the Yuanyuanzong, Cher, don't go back. I will live here with me in the future." Pang Xing continued.

Hearing this, Ye Xuan's brow was crumpled, and it felt a bit wrong.

Tian Yuanzong cultivated Pang Xing, and Pang Xing was ungrateful. He did not put Tian Yuanzong in his eyes. It was a white-eyed wolf.

"No, the master is very kind to me. I can't care about Tian Yuanzong. Brother, you can say that you can't help."

"You can help, but you have to promise to marry me first, or why should I help?"

"Brother, you..."

"Oh, my righteous father's son died in the hands of the sectarian disciples, so he hates the sects most. It is precisely because of this that there is no sect in the territory of Guangjin City. If I want him to send a master to help, but no It's that easy. Of course, as long as you agree, then I will definitely help you to convince your father..."

"I can't promise you!"

Lin Xueer did not want to answer, her character is like this, the least like to be forced or threatened.

"Sister, when you came to Tianyuanzong, I already liked you. In the past two years, I have been paying attention to you all the time. Your talent is very high, and your future achievements will definitely be above me. So I ventured away from Tian Yuanzong and came to Zhongzhou to practice, in order to become stronger, so that I can deserve you."

"Now, I have done it. My righteous father is a small and strong person in Tiandan. I almost stood at the peak of Tianshui mainland. As long as I follow me, you will definitely become a strong player in Tiandan, and even surpass it. My righteous father, even if it is a miraculous environment, you..." Pang Xing began to make a long story and tried to convince Lin Xueer.

"Don't say it, I won't agree. Brother, since you don't help, then I will leave."

After Lin Xueer finished, he turned and left.

At this time, Pang Xing suddenly grabbed her wrist and said: "Snow, if you don't agree, I won't let you go."

"Brother, don't force me to do it." Lin Xueer suddenly took out the punching sword.

Pang Xing's eyes condensed, flashing a greedy color, said: "Snow, even if you have a top grade, I am afraid it is not my opponent, you still swear."

"Huh!"

His voice has not yet fallen, and there is a broken sound.

Lin Xueer finally couldn't bear it, and started.
