Chapter 289: Kill the heavens!

"boom!"

A dozen meters of area was cleaned up, and the trees inside were directly smashed.

"No, come again!" The middle-aged man flashed a flash of light, his hands slammed out and attacked wildly.

The trees in the forest were broken, and after more than ten palms, Ye Xuan was not found.

At this time, the middle-aged people are about to land.

But at this time, the middle-aged people suddenly had two cold lifts from the 100 meters.

"call out!"

The arrow ran across the head of the mount and the head of another mysterious beast, killing them instantly.

Now, Ye Xuan can already escape, but he does not, because he is fascinated by the middle-aged people.

"Zhongzhou is rich in oil, and you don't even see the four major domains. Then I will take a look at how many nets you have in this day!"

Ye Xuan's heart is a dark sentence.

At the same time, the middle-aged man is also based on the singularity of the genius, and the insight into the approximate location of Ye Xuan, now, he is using the palm of the way to open the road, all the trees blocked in front of the fly.

"You kid, it has the potential to be a killer. The district first entered the Dantian territory and was able to fight with me. I was run away by you yesterday, and I was beaten by the city owner. Today, I have to take you. Kill, take sin and make meritorious deeds."

The middle-aged man said a pass after talking to himself, and launched a crazy attack again.

There are trees in the forest and there are fogs, so he has to remove the obstacles around him.

But at this time, Ye Xuan, who was hiding in the dark, was enough to make a confident smile.

"Tread!"

Suddenly, a trace of wind and crisp grass fell into the ears of middle-aged people, and the middle-aged immediately turned and banged a punch.

"It's now!"

At the moment when the middle-aged man shot, Ye Xuan, who was hidden ten meters away from him, suddenly came out with a lot of Dan Yuan and condensed it on the Eight-Day Sword.

At that time, a big sword was condensed, and then with Ye Xuan's hands, he turned to the middle-aged.

"what?"

The middle-aged man was shocked. He suddenly remembered that there were two people in the other side, and he immediately turned around. At this time, the Eight Great Swords had already come, but fortunately, the middle-aged people also had refining bodies, and the speed of the shots was extremely fast, and they used their hands to shoot the Eight Swords in their palms.

"It's a bit tolerant, but can you pick it up?"

Ye Xuan's heart was cold, and the next moment, the Eight Great Swords suddenly burst, and then the middle-aged people felt the pain in the eardrum, and the whole person was forced.

Not only that, but this loud noise still echoed in his ear, constantly stimulating his head. Two seconds later, he was weak and weak, planted on the ground, his eyes white.

Upon seeing it, Ye Xuan also directly threw out the Eight-Dangered Sword in his hand. In a snoring sound, the Eight-Dangered Sword split into eight parts, and then formed a sharp cone and suddenly stabbed.

Eight wild winds killed, the sky broke!

"Oh!"

The middle-aged man's chest was broken out of a basin-sized blood hole, and it was instantly killed.

He couldn't think of it, he would fall into the hands of a kid who first entered the land, but this is a difference of three levels.

After his death, Ye Xuan came out of the darkness and sneered: "Unfortunately, I died on the big idea. Don't look at me three levels lower than you. If you give me a chance, I can kill you. A does not stay."

"However, the echo array matched the eight-day-shocking sword, and almost messed up Laozi himself. Fortunately, there is an echo array, otherwise I am really hard to kill you."

After talking about himself, Ye Xuan said that the relics and bodies of the middle-aged man were collected.

On the same day in the bamboo forest of Lingxiaofeng, the great elder Lin Wenyue laid a soundproof array, but this time Ye Xuanbu is the echo array. If someone talks inside, it will be like yelling in the valley, and it will continue to produce echo.

This arrangement of the array is extremely complicated. Fortunately, Ye Xuan has arranged it in advance. If it is in battle, he will not be able to lay it out.

What I have to say is that this middle-aged man seems to have a refining body, and his constitution is stronger than the average person. Moreover, this person has rich experience in combat, and always uses some Dan Yuan to protect his ears. This time, if there is no echo matrix, Ye Xuan alone relies on the eight-story earthquake, it is absolutely impossible to kill him.

As for the only ones who attracted the attention of middle-aged people, it was not Lin Xueer, but Ye Xuan released some of the hustle and bustle hidden around.

"Zhongzhou may also have some sounds, so he will habitually protect."

Ye Xuan thought about it, and then he looked at the things in this ring.

"A top grade, there is a lot of sundries."

He swallowed everything, got fifty points to swallow, and Zhongzhou really was rich in oil. This thing in the ring is probably more than the entire Lingxiao House. Of course, it was before. Lingxiao House.

Before he used fifty points of phagocytic crystallization to exchange a top grade martial arts, and now earned 50 points to devour crystallization, it is earned back.

Then he just left.

Lin Xueer only saw the middle-aged man jump into the forest, and his heart was very anxious. After the middle-aged man fell, she did not hear a trace of sound, which made her more nervous.

However, at this time, suddenly a person came out and scared her to rush to pull the sword, but after she saw the person, the tight nerves suddenly suddenly released.

"Great, you are fine." Lin Xueer exclaimed, and then she hurriedly licked her mouth, after all, there were other people in the forest.

"Nothing, that person is dead." Ye Xuan said with a relaxed face.

"What? Dead? You killed him?" Lin Xueer heard the words again and exclaimed again.

Ye Xuan nodded: "Dead, but can't stay here for a long time, you must leave quickly."

The middle-aged people can catch up, and there may be other people chasing them. Although the middle-aged people said that they want to wear sin and meritorious deeds, they are still careful. If the owner of Guangjin City catches up, then he will die. deal.

When he finished, he immediately picked up Lin Xueer and rushed over to Shenzhou City.

Ye Xuan's worries were superfluous. At the dawn of the dawn, they finally arrived at the main city of China.

At this point, the gate was just opened and the two men walked in the first time.

Before going to Guangjin City, they went to find Pang Xing, the master of Tian Yuanzong. This time, they were the masters of Ling Xiaofu, Zheng Zheng.

Ye Xuan has a Zheng Yi's address in his hand, and now they are looking for the past.

In front of a residence in the southern part of Shenzhou City.

A man was cleaning outside Zhengfu. After seeing Ye Xuan, he also curiously asked: "Well? Who are you looking for?"

This location is relatively remote, and only one of the yards has a resident nearby, so he only has this question.

"Excuse me, is Zheng Zheng living here?"

"You look for the young master? The young master went out a few days ago and hasn't returned yet."
The cleaned man replied.
