

Super D. S 2901

Chapter 2901: You said that you are not jealous.

The man who suddenly laughed loudly was one of the two royal guardians who had left Zuo Licheng a few grievances in the forbidden valley. At this moment, he always had a face with him, while he spoke and took the initiative. And Ye Xuan is close to each other, and one side is also walking straight!

The latter stunned for the first time, and then, the middle of the squad was the next moment, and the sorrowful color of the suspicion was revealed. The old man who was going to face him was looking up and down.

This matter, clearly reveals a strange feeling of familiarity!

Suddenly, he suddenly found a man with a very smiley smile. Opening his mouth and shutting his mouth was not what he meant. He was talking about his mouth and mouth, and even blatantly said that he had a relationship with him...

This is clearly the hint and seduce of the red fruit!

What happened to me recently? Why are you always entangled in this kind of freak? This one behind the body has not been completely sent away, and this cold is actually another one!

Could it be that it's not finished yet...

As these thoughts flashed rapidly in my mind, Ye Xuan's face immediately gloomy, and the light in his eyes was instantly cold, and even the wretched old man who was coming to the front of his face turned his eyes and snorted. He said: "Hey, come here less, don't think that I will give a face with a smile, I will not eat hard, you better die this heart, don't bother me!"

The reason why this kind of rhetoric and attitude is really because there has been a painful lesson in Haofangfang before, this is a wretched face, but is it almost the same as the original Haofangfang?

If I had never dealt with him at the beginning, I might have retired after a few touches of nails. I wouldn't have become more familiar with myself now, even if I want to be cold, let him Interest is no longer entangled, and obviously it is impossible.

In front of this wretched old man, it is clear that he and Hao Fangfang use the same trick. For this reason, he has already learned the lesson from Hao Fangfang, and decided to be a bit harsh from the beginning, absolutely can not let the other party see even if There is a chance that you will have a chance to win. Otherwise, it will be late in the future...

"I don't want to eat soft or hard? Hahaha... Wonderful! It's even better than the old man imagined!"

Unexpectedly, Ye Xuan's words just fell, and the wretched old man immediately laughed. Not only did Ye Xuan's previous words and attitudes not be annoyed, but he also took the station to praise the wonderful!

Sure enough, it is an old fox! It's not much more stable than Haofangfang. It's still not dead, still testing...

As soon as I read this, Ye Xuan secretly bite his teeth and pondering the old man's thick cloth. Even if he is not a servant or a servant, he will not be able to go anywhere, and now he is actively provoking. I am only slightly stricter in terms of words, and I should not make any mistakes that are not good.

Such a thought, Ye Xuan heart can not help but a certain, the original gloomy face will reveal a few points of meaning, even the dawn is out of the fierce, the words are even more polite, staring at the station In addition to the opposite director, I still looked at myself with a smile, and there was a wretched old man who looked more and more happy. He shouted loudly and shouted: "What is your old man? Don't understand people." Is that right? If you have no face and no harassment, I will be embarrassed..."

"Hey, hurry up... Hahaha, the old man wants to hear a few words now, the more fierce the embarrassment, the more happy the old man is, the hurry, what are you still swearing?"

When I saw Ye Xuan's disapproval, I turned my face directly. I was more happy with the forbidden guardian who was more satisfied with him. The palm of the hand rushed to Ye Xuan's mouth and said:

"The stupid kid is hurrying, both I am dying to death, I just found the feeling, I haven't waited for it, how come you are?"

This time, Ye Xuan is really awkward!

The dead old man is even thicker, and he wants to use this trick to wrap himself up, but... isn't it too thick? This is clearly the rhythm of the brain! Not only wretched, but still crazy! If you have a lot of Fangfangfang, at least ten times more difficult..."

One thought of this, Ye Xuan suddenly depressed, a crazy and wretched old man, and what entangled with him? It doesn't matter directly!

When he was in the middle of the conversation, he was too lazy to snoring. He turned and walked to the side of the valley. He couldn't afford it, and he hid the head office.

In the face of the absurd scene of the drama, another guardian of the Forbidden Valley, the High Priest Wenxing, and the two ancestral temples behind him, although they all sneaked at the beginning, they all shook their heads. Sighed.

It seems that this has long been used to the general, this is clearly the rhythm of hidden inside!

As for Zuo Hongwu and Zuo Licheng, people have been thoroughly dumbfounded.

Zuo Licheng and the other seven testers of the Sons, after a few moments of sighing, immediately floated the face of enlightenment. Obviously guess what!

This old prince, clearly a psychologically distorted masochist, and still a serious level of existence, are actively seeking to find someone in front of you!

Actually, I still said that what is not enough, I just found a little feeling and I didn't have it. I almost didn't die... I'm really a skeleton!

However, I was stunned by the evil spirits of a guy who had reached the limit without a limit.

One thought of this, Zuo Licheng only felt the blood in his brain, almost opened his mouth subconsciously, and screamed in disgust: "You are a bone-wracking Lao Wang Ba, people are not jealous, you actually still smashed? "

"Tell you, the Millennium Green King, are you not looking for you? Come, I promise you to be comfortable,"

"What are you doing? This time, I don't think I can't make it? You said that you are not guilty? Looking for a cockroach is still picking up three..."

"Ugly such a veteran king, do you still want to learn how to dress up?"

After four sentences, one sentence is more than a sentence, Zuo Licheng is more and more stunned and full of comfort. Before this, because of the hot face, the cold buttocks of the other side are full of anger, and finally completely vented, so count it, oh old Although the Wang Ba Yidun is not very good, but at least not lost, even!

Quiet!

Dead silence!

With the arrogance of the mouth, Zuo Licheng suddenly realized that the atmosphere was a bit strange. All the people around him looked at themselves at the moment, and their faces were sluggish and shocked.

Under the slight trepidation of the heart, Zuo Licheng seems to be aware of what, the whole person feels bad, his face is even more white, and the scalp subconsciously looked down at the old prince who chased Zhang Wuji. past.....

At the same time, the other party is also a slap in the middle of the killing, and the anger is abruptly laughed: "Good! Very good! One did not pass the old man's consent! Two did not meet the requirements of the old man... actually opened his mouth and dared to scream the old man's People? For nearly 10,000 years...you are the first!"

Chapter 2902: One mind is evil

What?

Still have to agree first?

Zuo Licheng was thundered on the spot, and the face was full of grief and indignation: I have never heard of being abused into a madman, and what kind of conditional triggering mode is involved. This is clearly a pothole...

In the heart of mourning, Zuo Licheng's entire body shape was not swayed slightly, and there was endless horror on his face.

At this moment, his repentant intestines are all over!

Obviously, this royal ban guard who was killed by Zuo Licheng has obviously moved his heart. This is even the most clear feeling of Ye Xuan.

In the end, the other person could not see the forbidden guardian and the high priest Wenxing at the same time, and he pleaded for it, and he finally pressed the matter temporarily.

However, although he can stay in Zu Li for a while, he must promise to help him do one thing.

It's such a time, Zuo Licheng obviously has no choice, even when he nodded, then the lips of the famous Guardian of the Ming Dynasty's high priest called Mo Qigong's forbidden guardian Moved up, but there is no sound at all, this is not ordinary timbre, otherwise it is impossible to smash the other people present.

It should be something similar but more mysterious.

Mo Qigong's voice is obviously only heard by Zuo Licheng, even another Ye Xuan still knows his name, but he knows his identity as the royal forbidden guardian and the high priest Wen Xing. At this time, they exchanged their eyes for a look, and then they frowned slightly.

When he came to Zuo Licheng, he listened and nodded from time to time. Later, he subconsciously glanced at Ye Xuan. Although his eyes quickly moved back, Ye Xuan's heart jumped. There is a faint feeling of faintness.

This guy is listening to the instructions of the seven-year-old, how can it suddenly come to himself suddenly?

The only explanation is that the words that Na Moqi is telling him at the moment are related to himself!

With this in mind, Ye Xuan's heartfelt vigilance suddenly rose up.

There was a brief conversation between the high priest Wen Xing and another royal custodian guardian for Zuo Licheng.

Through these words, Ye Xuan now understands that Mo Qigong is not the same problem as Hao Fangfang. He was misunderstood before he first entered the main.

And he later glared at his own pleadings, and it was really not a madness. This incident obviously has some cause and effect. It seems to have been left behind by a certain thing in the past seven years. Obsessed or said that the mind is related.

And he took the initiative to ask people who have certain conditions to insult him, and the purpose should be to understand the devil left in the past.

It's just that the details of this are in the end. Just a few simple conversations by three people, Ye Xuan obviously can't analyze it. He doesn't even understand what exactly he is in line with the requirements of this.

However, although the previous matter has been clarified as a misunderstanding, it does not mean that Namoqi will not remember himself anymore. According to Ye Xuan's estimation, this time he will secretly confess Zuo Licheng. Discourse, I am afraid that most of it will be related to myself.

However, the surname left and the old have their own gaps. It seems that after entering the banned land, they must double their guard against this person...

"Okay, time has been delayed, you immediately enter the forbidden area!"

Just as Ye Xuan's heart was suspicious, it's already said that he had already told him to go straight to Ye Xuan and other quasi-sons, and then he once again said the rules for judging the results of the trial of the Son. And also added a few words: "The trial time is one month, but after you enter from the entrance void channel, it may not be together, the location of the transmission is random, so even if you are alone, you don't have to panic. As soon as time arrives, as long as you have not fallen into the void of the forbidden land, even if you have only one breath left, it will be delivered on time!"

Then, after a moment of briefing, I finally sighed again: "Remember, although there are opportunities and opportunities in the forbidden land, but more is still dangerous, everything, see your own heart and blessing, in addition, The only experience experienced by the old man is that there is only one sentence: the forbidden land is not in our universe, and it does not even belong to our endless galaxy. Therefore, do not use your inherent cognitive habits to rob yourself. Everything you encounter, you can't believe it, remember to remember..."

After that, Mo Qigong suddenly raised his hand with no warning.

In the next moment, a total of ten trials of the sacred sons, including Ye Xuan, were under the stagnation of the body, and the whole body was uncontrollably wrapped in a vast invisible force. Directly to the statue of the 100-meter * sacred beast in front of the bottom of the valley, facing the broad front of the sacred beast, quickly approaching!

"call out....."

Among the ten people, the figure first touched the piece of gray-black transmission light film covering the forehead of the huge blood beast, but it was actually Haofangfang.

Just as his body shape did not enter the same moment of gray light transmission film, Ye Xuan faintly heard a faint sound of broken air quickly disappearing, at the same time, just in the body of Ye Xuan just touched On the occasion of this layer of gray-black light film, the voice of Mo Qigong's words suddenly came from the valley. It was clearly said that he said: "Bad boy, give you a golden saying, and realize it yourself: a bad thought, a lifetime evil! It's awkward..."

"call out!"

I don't know if the so-called golden saying of Mo Qigong was finished. In the end, Ye Xuan only heard such a few words. In the next moment, his body did not enter the gray film, with a weak break. When the sound started, Ye Xuan only felt that he seemed to fall into a strange vortex with infinite suction and force in all directions. The whole body was uncontrollably drifting, and even the sense of direction was lost. Everything was imitation. It seems to be covered with a layer of dreamlike illusion...

"boom!"

I don't know how much, as a heavy object slammed into the ear, Ye Xuan had no idea when it fell into a confused consciousness, and finally completely restored the Qingming.

Jier, there was a tingling sensation in the back of his waist. He realized that the muffled sound that he had just heard was actually the movement of himself falling from the sky and squatting on the ground.

This is a trouble!

Although there were no ones, Ye Xuan still felt a lot of guilt, and the black lines on his forehead were rushing out, and then it was easy to shake his head and smile and quickly get up and turn to the surrounding environment.

Everything around me, in fact, there is nothing too strange: the mountains of the mountains, the rolling hills, the sky is high, the vastness is boundless!

But Ye Xuan almost only took a glance at it all, his face was steep and stiff, and then quickly stunned a stunned color...

Chapter 2903: Frozen sea

It is clearly in the surface of a star. Although it is a void in the forbidden place that he originally understood, it is not enough to make Ye Xuan so overwhelmed.

The reason why he was shocked was because this day, the land, the mighty undulating mountains and the endless plantings... all of this clearly reveals a rich and simple meaning.

Even the invisible breath in the void is like this, when he sees the starry giant tortoise and the ancient gold dragon from the two inheritance pictures when he is practicing the hole and merging the immortal ancestral blood. The breath is exactly the same.

This gives Ye Xuan a illusion, is it true that the dream is back to ancient times?

After squatting for a while, Ye Xuan gradually calmed his mind, and then he swept his eyes to the distance.

It was also at this time that he suddenly realized that there was a very strange situation, that is, he was in such a wilderness without hate, but in the ear, he did not hear even the most common bird song or The voice of the beast.

It is as if this piece of innocent mountains, even this side of the world, is a place of complete silence.

As soon as I read this, the look on his face was slight, and then, in the line of sight, he captured a huge peak standing in the distance. When he looked far away, it seemed to be like a Tianzhu.

Under the blessing of the soul, Ye Xuan quickly set off and quickly swept toward the place where the giant peak was inserted.

In the air, it was discovered by looking down that the giant peak was actually a volcano, with a huge hollow crater, and its interior was hollow, like an endless abyss.

Previously, Ye Xuan was too far from this huge peak, so it was not true and clear, but now, as he approached him, he discovered that the ring-shaped crater of the peak of the giant peak is about a thousand miles in diameter.

If you go to the foothills of the Kyoho, look at the side of the crater on the opposite side, you can't see the end. If Ye Xuan had previously fallen from the sky, at this moment, let the mountain pass at this peak, because the sight can only be seen. Seeing the endless depths in the mountain's abdomen is a place that is too much to think that you are at the moment. In fact, it is the edge of an abyss...

Such a magnificent circular volcano, Ye Xuan had not seen it before.

However, this moment is already at the foot of his giant peak. Although the peak is like a volcano, it is a ring-shaped mouth, and the mountain is hollow, but it is not a so-called volcano.

Because even an extinct volcano, the magma activity in the depths of the mountain's abdomen has disappeared for many years, but even if it is no longer hot, it will never be as it is now, and it will be completely fascinating. Extremely chilly.

This feeling, not only is not like a volcano, but it is the same as the atmosphere of Jiuyi Hell.

This strange situation, I do not know whether to sink Ye Xuan's curiosity.

After a little hesitation, he quickly made a decision, and his body jumped up and fell directly to the bottom of the endless dark mountain ridge.

As the figure falls, the distance gradually approaches, and at the same time, because of the gradual accustomed to the ambiguity of this dark environment, more importantly, because of the decline of Ye Xuan's body shape, all the way through a large number of layers of floating The black mist caused by it.

So, shortly after, when Ye Xuan's figure fell by 70,000 to 30,000 meters, this bottom scene, like the endless abyss of the crater, gradually became clear in his sight.

It is also with the rapid clarity of this vision, Ye Xuan's face, but once again changed.

This time, he even trembled with ecstasy, seeing the scene he saw in the eyes, how the earthquake sighed his heart.

As we all know, the mountain belly of the crater is generally more and more wide.

The same is true of this huge crater. Before he was still at the crater of the foothills, he could not see the opposite. At the moment, even though he had not yet reached the widest bottom, Ye Xuan still felt that it was turned into all directions. There is no endless void.

From this, we can see the bottom of the mountain at the bottom, how it is vast and innocent.

And this vast form of innocence, but it is actually an endless ocean... black ocean!

Ye Xuan has never heard of an innocent sea at the bottom of the mountain volcano, but in fact, this is not the most bizarre part of this huge crater.

In the darkness below, there is a vast expanse of chilly ocean, and there is a dense black mist.

Before the fall of Ye Xuan all the way, the layer of mist that passed through the road was obviously slowly swaying from here.

At this moment, as Ye Xuan's figure slowly descends toward the innocent Black Sea below, gradually his line of sight becomes clearer and clearer.

At this time, through the black sea space that is shrouded in the black sea, occasionally there is no wind and waves, and the black mist gap Ye Xuan clearly sees the black inky sea surface below, and sees countless different forms, but all look Very horrible and squatting.

These floating corpses are basically all kinds of creatures, but all of them reveal the meaning of the quaint mulberry. Ye Xuan even saw a black ball with a diameter of about 100 meters in the corner of the sea not far away. I wondered what kind of life species it was, but as he gradually approached, the ball also moved with the slight ripples of the black ocean. Gradually, Ye Xuan finally discovered that this is clearly a head, one The five senses are the same as human beings, but the head is magnified by the head...

It's just a skull. It's actually a hundred meters in diameter. Is this a giant, or is it the * of the ancient times?

As the thought flashed in his mind, Ye Xuan suddenly realized something, and then his face changed again and again.

In this vast expanse of the Black Sea, only a variety of floating bodies floating on the surface, almost covering more than 80% of the sea area within his sensory sensing range.

So what about under the sea? Deeper sea bottom?

Obviously, these endless corpses floating above the sea are simply a few of them, because if there are no more endless corpses, then the bottom of the mountain is a vast expanse of black ocean, and it is impossible. By gradually accumulating more and more, and finally gathering into the sea...

These black sea waters are clearly corpse fluid... from a body with a corpse, slowly oozing out the corpse!

After realizing this truth, Ye Xuan's whole person was completely cold, and even the soul could not be shuddered!

terror!

Unspeakable big horror!

The corpse liquefaction sea!

This kind of masterpiece that can't be imagined, who is the masterpiece...

Chapter 2904: Corpse flower

Looking at everything in front of him, Ye Xuan was completely caught in an unspeakable shock.

If this sacred forbidden land does exist, then this piece of emptiness, this world, is probably a place that has been banned since the legendary ruins of the ancient times, as if it was forgotten in the Qixing River and became The freeze of a certain time piece of the endless years!

No matter the environment and atmosphere of the world, or the appearance of the creatures in the horrible endless corpse of the moment, there is a deep and ridiculous atmosphere, which is not the only time in the Xinghe time and space that Ye Xuan has experienced.

If this is the case, then, in this wilderness, the heavens and the earth were cut and banned before the endless space of the Qixing River. What happened here?

With such shocks and thoughts, Ye Xuan lowered his figure again until he was only about a kilometer from the height of the horror corpse below. He stopped, and then he was thicker or lighter on the surface of the pool. But everywhere, the fluttering black corpse swayed around...

After half an hour, Ye Xuan has been rushing in one direction, but has never reached the edge of this black corpse, which shows its vastness.

Up to now, in the black corpse below, there are still a lot of dead bodies, some of which are sacral, but some have some flesh and blood.

Some of the estimates are that the blood is special or too strong. It can keep the body intact, but it reveals the meaning of the thick body, so that Ye Xuan does not dare to approach.

Here, the kind of bones or corpses, he saw too much, and at the end, it was almost numb.

As Ye Xuan gradually deepened in this horrible corpse, he quickly saw some islands in his sight.

Yes, it is an island... but it is the island of the bones.

A large number of cockroaches may be caused by the force of the internal flow of the corpse, and they slowly gather together and become more and more like each other. The squeezing is getting tighter and tighter, and the gap between the bones and the sputum It is getting smaller and smaller, and at the end, it has become a piece, so that this strange, pure island of endless corpses is formed!

Ye Xuan bravely fell to one of them, and then his face was shocked and slow.

The ground under the feet, and everything in the visible islands, whether it is like a small peak or an occasional pore like a cave entrance, all of which are made up of shin bones. On the island of such a bone, even if you use Ye Xuan's heart, you can't give birth to a feeling of trepidation.

There is also an inexplicable sentiment about life, which makes him suddenly bright and not afraid to say that it is an epiphany, but at this moment, his state of mind does have a general effect similar to sublimation.

The realm of the realm can be improved, but the cultivation of the state of mind is dependent on the opportunity. Just by this kind of inexplicable understanding in the mood, Ye Xuan this time, it is not white.

I can't see anything at the moment, but I will benefit a lot from it in the future!

"Booming!"

"Boom..."

.....

It was also at this time that the infinite corpse outside the island of the sacrum, but suddenly there was a burst of boring and roaring sounds at the moment. Ye Xuan was shocked and subconsciously turned around.

Through this endless black sacred pool face, Ye Xuan clearly saw that an invisible whirlpool is raging. In addition, the pool of the corpse pool also inexplicably gave birth to a powerful airflow. The black corpse above it was completely smashed.

All of this has directly led to the corpse of the dead and nowhere in the past few years. Numerous souls and corpses that have been floating in the meantime have actually lived like this at all, and the horrible body and skeleton are in the dead body. Under the tumbling of the liquid pool water, various actions were made, which made people inexplicably shocked!

This moment, the boundless corpse pond seems to have come alive!

The inexplicable airflow, while stirring up a turbulent corpse and wind and clouds, is accompanied by a roaring roar and fierce voice.

This is the invisible airflow that passes through a sacral gap during a violent flow.

But in such an environment, these roars and screams, can't it be the countless creatures who are ups and downs in the whole endless corpse, unwilling and angry?

"Booming!"

"Card..."

Just as Ye Xuan was surrounded by this innocent black corpse, suddenly he was born with such a change and suddenly disappeared. He was stupid on the island of the bone, and there was no reaction.

Just in front of the farthest line of sight, the rushing waves, the pool of water formed by the endless black corpse, but rushed out of a group of black circular objects of the diameter of Mi Xu.

It looks like a black thunder ball. The interior is extremely unstable. It can be seen that the black energy in the ball is spinning and stirring. After rushing out of the pool surface of the corpse, it flies.

Until the height of about a kilometer, it was blasted up!

When it exploded, it instantly exploded into a power grid and quickly spread around it.

Sure enough, it is a thunderball, but its energy is not the power of lightning in nature, but from the bottom of the pool. If there is no accident, it should be a lot of corpses and even the mourning of the death of these creatures. Under the squeezing, they gradually gathered together and were condensed inward under the pressure of the pool water, and the density became larger and larger, and finally formed.

"boom!"

"Boom..."

"Card..."

.....

Just as Ye Xuan's thoughts flashed through these thoughts, the corpse of the area's corpse, once again rushed out of the corpse Leilei ball, there are big and small, I do not know because of what power is motivated, actually They rushed toward the surface of the pool, and after reaching a certain height, they suddenly exploded and smashed the body.

Although the corpse is large and small, its color is all dark.

However, although the corpse of these corpses was blown up, although there were strong and weak, there was a clearer difference. This quickly caused Ye Xuan's interest.

That is the color!

The autopsy that was thrown out after the initial blast of the corpse was black, but among the large number of corpses that were blasted, there were some lightnings that were other colors.

Red!

Green!

Even golden!

Just as Ye Xuan was puzzled by the discovery of this strange phenomenon, and faintly felt that there was something hidden in it, the sky was also suddenly brightened at this moment.

In that area, about a hundred kilometers away from the area, the black corpse in the face of the pool was finally blasted by a corpse, and the corpse was scattered and ignited!

It is the burning of those corpses that bring light, but reveals a strange light color!

It was also at this time that Ye Xuan suddenly saw a beautiful flower under the venom of the sky, and in this moment, the prompt sound of the phagocytic system also quietly sounded.

"Hey, congratulations to the host! I found a lot of mourning crystals! Level: 9th grade, Jiuyi Jinjing! Whether to pick..."

Chapter 2905: May you have more than one

Jiuyi Jinjing?

Picking?

Ye Xuan's whole person was suddenly sluggish, and his mind was roaring.

Unknowingly, I recalled the words that the mosquitoes explained to him at the beginning.

Many chanting crystals refer to those magical stars that have a halo. Ordinary magic star crystal is just a translucent black crystal, the crystal is empty, nothing.

And more chanting crystals, in the crystal can see a layer of halo like a pupil. From one to one, the other is nine, the more halo, the higher the grade!

Therefore, if you read the crystals, you can call it a single 瞳晶, 瞳瞳、, until the last gossip, nine!

If the mosquitoes are right, Jiuyi, isn't it the most esteemed in the middle?

Is this luck a little better?

You know, according to Ye Xuan, even in the entire demonic group, those real high-level, the ruthless crystals in the hands are very few, even if it is a single chanting, it is only a dazzling Nian Jing, he is a treasure.

Because the spiritual power in this crystallization is different from the ordinary glare of the enchanting star, it is more advanced. Therefore, many seniors of the devil's group are breaking through in spiritual strength or feeling their own spirit. When the source nucleus seems to be changing, it will take advantage of the high-level spiritual power of the mourning.

Through its effects, it broke through in one fell swoop.

Even so, according to the news that Ye Xuan obtained in the star network database of the black mosquito star, among the entire group of demons, the highest level of mourning crystals ever discovered is only one. I miss the crystal.

Because of its color, it is called the Eight Diagrams Silver Crystal, which is regarded as the treasure of the ethnic group. It is collected in the Temple of the Holy Devil.

Even the Emperor is reluctant to use it!

Now, I am inexplicable, actually encountered a nine-golden crystal?

Gossip is silver, and Jiuyi gold, which is also in line with the law, but I am afraid that except for Ye Xuan, there are countless strong people among the entire group of devils, no one knows, it turns out that Jiuyi Nianjing is actually golden. .

Because they have never seen it at all!

Unexpectedly encountering a top nine gold crystal, this really shocked Ye Xuan, but he is even more shocked at this moment is not this.

But this is more than the crystallization of the crystal, it was actually produced in the corpse, and it is a kind of fascinating plant in the corpse, perhaps a plant that can be called a corpse flower, after the baptism of the corpse of the corpse The flower is formed as a fruit.

This fruit is more than a crystallization.

All this is simply incredible, Ye Xuan thought that this kind of thing is mostly a kind of mineral, at most, the place of production must be special.

And at this moment, everything that is in front of his eyes, but clearly confirmed the strange reality of the corpse flower condensate fruit!

"Booming..."

"boom!"

"Card..."

Just as Ye Xuan's whole person is as sluggish as he looks at the front, but his mind is quickly turning his mind and thinking about everything.

In the corpse area in front of the square, the corpse of mine in the depths of the pond, still rushing to the sky, blasting, and then smashing out the corpse, immersing in the large canopy covering the entire area of the mile In the venom of the pot of the face.

However, the area where the corpse flames burned in the sky is just the corpse of the corpse, and it has not spread out, affecting the entire innocent black corpse.

Because the corpse of the entire pool is not a whole, they are like clouds. There is a small canopy here, there is a large canopy, and there will be some gaps between them.

When the corpse of the mile was blown up, the invisible airflow that was drawn out invisibly pushed the corpse of the sky above the edge of the area away.

In this case, when the corpse above the area is ignited by the corpse, the corpse burns to the edge along the corpse, and when it encounters a separation belt that no longer has a corpse, the flame of the corpse is like this. Suspended.

The edge of the corpse is pushed by the invisible airflow to the circle around which there is no corpse, just like when the forest fire broke out, the trees were cut off outside the fire, and the isolation line constructed is the same.

In short, the flaming corpse flames only raged in the sky above the square, and did not spread to the entire corpse. Otherwise, Ye Xuan now has no need to escape from the corpse fire. Any choice.

At this moment, as the fire that spread out finally stopped, it was confined to the sky above the corpse of the hundred miles. At the same time, Ye Xuan's heart was suddenly loose, and the line of sight was swept away in the area under the bonnet. The whole person is excited again in an instant.

Corpse flower!

See also the body flower!

And there is more than one!

Before the hole in this area, he clearly had a glance, not to mention more corpse flowers. In fact, even the corpse flower that he had seen before that he had just condensed the golden quince fruit was inexplicable. appeared.

Ye Xuan thought that he didn't pay attention to seeing it at the time, but now it seems that with a large number of corpse flowers captured by his sight, the first corpse flower, which clearly did not exist before, it appears now Like the large number of corpse flowers in sight, they are inexplicably suddenly appearing.

The reason why these corpse flowers appear, the reason is not to have too much entanglement, clearly because of the corpse flame caused by these corpse corpse.

As if they had to go through the baptism of this corpse, in order to finally condense the fruit in the flower buds.

Therefore, before the appearance of the corpse, even if there is a corpse flower in a corpse, it is hidden and will not easily rise. Only when the corpse bursts, they will take the initiative to undergo the baptism of the fruit. Appeared in the ground.

Although the truth of the fact may have other details, according to Ye Xuan's analysis and scrutiny, it should basically be the main tone.

Of course, what facts and truths are there, as well as reasons or principles, and those are actually sidelines, and it doesn't matter if you don't understand.

For Ye Xuan, the most important thing is that this time, I am afraid that I have to make a big harvest!

At first glance, the corpse of flames in the sky is burning in the area of the mile, and the demon corpse flower appearing above the surface of the pot has at least a hundred flowers, except for the original golden corpse flower. Xuan also saw three golden corpse flowers, and about seven or eight silver corpses.

Other than the other hundred, all are the same black!

A small area of a hundred miles, there are more than a hundred giant demon corpse flowers, all of which are now bathed in the corpse flame above, with some invisible airflow from the burning of the corpse. Swinging slightly.

This scene reveals a fascinating sense of enchanting beauty, which makes Ye Xuan's mind suddenly think of a very interesting language...

I hope that you will pick up!

Chapter 2906: The secret of crystallization

More than a hundred beautiful corpse flowers, so that Ye Xuan people are excited.

The reason why he worked hard and spent a lot of troubles has to come to this place to ban the land, the only purpose is to find more chanting crystals, so that as the core of their personal star network communication system intelligent super brain A corner of the starry sky super brain fragments quickly grew up.

Only in this way can he obtain a broader information surface through the increasing power and function of the personal space communication system and the function, so that he can grow up rapidly in the background of such a starry sky.

Of course, finding one has become the source of the engulfment of the phagocytic system, and it is one of the purposes. However, as long as the information becomes wider, it is more secure to find the source of devouring. Therefore, this purpose is actually included. of.

Before, he had worried that even if he entered the forbidden place of the holy demon, if he could not find more chanting, he would have to be depressed.

After all, this sacred forbidden place is a void in the Qixing River. It must be a vast area. It is necessary to find a multi-faceted crystal with only the size of a fingernail.

In fact, according to Ye Xuan's understanding, there are not many chanting crystals in the entire devil's group. Even some real royal high-levels have a few hands.

It can be seen how low the probability of its production!

However, all these worries and worries are now gone, and the fruit of the crystallization of more than one hundred enchanting corpse flowers, even if it does not allow the immortal level of the starry sky to grow directly into the immortal level of the complete form. Starry sky super brain.

At least it can make its quality and level jump once or twice?

This has at least ensured that Ye Xuan has not come to this time. In addition to other unexpected gains, such as the previous state of mind inexplicable improvement, in the original main purpose of this, it is quite rewarding.

Of course, it's hard to come once. It's obviously impossible to say that Ye Xuan has not been able to capture more thoughts about Jingjing. However, when this idea appeared, he was immediately thrown behind him.

Now is not a time of greed, you have to be greedy, at least you have to wait until you have more than one hundred more mourning crystals that appear in front of you. Otherwise, you have to think about other things before you see them. Silent.

With this excitement, Ye Xuan's figure stands on the edge of the island of the cheekbones under his feet, but his eyes are always condensed on the face of the corpse of the square.

Soon, as time went by, the corpse flames in the sky gradually weakened. After all, when the corpse was thick and there was always exhaustion, the corpse was gone, and the corpse was naturally destroyed.

At the beginning, Ye Xuan also worried that after the disappearance of the corpse, these enchanting corpse flowers that appeared only because of the corpse will once again go back to the depths of the corpse pool. If that is the case, Ye Xuan is no different than empty, a waste. Expression, white excited.

But at the moment, when he saw a few corpse flowers on the edge of the area, after the corpse flames that were facing them were extinguished, they still swayed slightly and remained firmly in the edge of the pool, and did not disappear. After that, Ye Xuan faintly hangs some hearts, and finally finally fell back quietly.

If you don't run, don't run, you don't have to worry, you don't have to bear the unknown danger that may exist under the corpse, and immediately pick it.

Time has passed for another ten minutes. At this moment, the corpse flame in the sky above the corpse has been reduced by more than half. The diameter of the corpse is only one-third of the previous one, burning in the center area. .

Ye Xuan endured for a long time, after all, he still stood up at this moment and rushed toward the area. After all, there was no corpse on the edge of the whole area, but there were thirty or forty beautiful corpse flowers there. Gently shaking, the swaying Ye Xuan heart is really itchy.

Soon, with the excitement of the heart, Ye Xuan finally came to the edge of this piece of the corpse.

The first thing he rushed to was a golden corpse flower.

In this area of a hundred miles, the golden corpse flower now has four, while the silver one is eight.

Among the four golden corpse flowers, the other three are in the center area, and there is a burning corpse in the sky, so Ye Xuan did not pay attention to it, first let the peripheral one get it.

With the thought turned around in my mind, Ye Xuan's rapid figure is finally approaching.

But it was also at this moment that his speedy figure was suddenly shocked, and the whole body was stunned with a sigh of relief.

Too unexpected!

If his timidity is OK, change his courage to a small point, I am afraid that just this time, in all likelihood, it will be scared to fly away from the sky!

Previously, because the distance was too far, Ye Xuan could see the corpse flower. After all, every corpse flower and flower stem had rice stalks up and down, belonging to a large flower.

Although the flowers can be seen, but the roots under the stems are not clear enough because of the distance.

But now, when I am close, I can see it naturally.

It was because of this that he was shocked by the cold.

Because this golden corpse flower is not drilled by the water in the sacred pool below the air, but... it grows out from the mouth of a living body with a face up.

Its roots are deeply immersed in the mouth of the corpse, giving the impression that it is like after the death of the corpse, a person throws a flower into his mouth, and now, the flower species, from It sprouted in its mouth, not only grew into a sacred nectar of the size of a rice, but also produced a golden crystal fruit of the size of a pigeon...

The speculation in the mind flashed, and Ye Xuan's whole person shivered slightly.

He subconsciously looked around and saw every sacred corpse flower that he saw in his eyes, all of which grew out from a corpse with a face up.

One is an accident, and two of the three strains can still use this to lie to themselves, but now every single crop is seen, then... Is there a need to deceive yourself?

Undoubtedly, these corpse flowers are grown from the mouth of the soul in the pool!

Ye Xuan did not see them before, not because they were not hidden under the water, but because they were not born yet.

They are, after the corpse of the sky is turned into a corpse, because of some unknown reason, it suddenly grows up from the mouth of a corpse and blinks out of the crystal fruit.

This is a fact, no doubt.

But why is this all?

It is these corpse-like creatures that have a certain speciality, or this horrible corpse, which is really a certain existence. In order to plant corpse flowers and collect crystal fruits, it is collected and even made by hand. How many countless souls have been thrown into the pool, and regard them as fertile soil?

In the mind, I figured it all out. At this time, Ye Xuan suddenly gave the golden crystal fruit of the golden corpse flower in the center of the big flower, and gave birth to a mysterious feeling.

What are the secrets of these crystallizations?

Chapter 2907: Huge harvest

Suddenly, after discovering that these enchanting corpse flowers were grown from the mouth of a ruined ancient corpse, Ye Xuan's whole person was somewhat disoriented. Suddenly, he felt inexplicably a mysterious and strange atmosphere, seemingly shrouded in The sky above the endless corpse, hidden in the shape of his body, made him inexplicably feel a sense of restlessness.

Just like a suspicious ghost, Ye Xuan at this time, how to look at everything around, how to feel surprised, the whole heart is a little crazy jump.

However, this ups and downs of change in mind, with his own great comfort, quickly disappeared.

Then, Ye Xuan took a deep breath and opened all kinds of mixed thoughts in his mind. He reached out and took the golden crystal fruit in the center of the golden flower bud.

No matter what is hidden inside, I have already come, and I have already seen more mourning, even in front of me. If I don't take it, what is the truth?

As for whether there are any other consequences, or whether there are hidden dangers hidden under the ruthless crystals, these are not things that need to be considered now. I will slowly ponder over them and first get things to say...

Thinking like this, Ye Xuan had pinched the golden crystal in the finger at the next moment. When he mentioned it lightly, he got rid of the flower disk of the demon nectar, and was taken by Ye Xuan and looked carefully.

First of all, it is golden, the size of the pigeon egg, the prismatic shape, and the surface has numerous small prismatic refracting surfaces, just like polished diamonds. Therefore, it is now taken by Ye Xuan in the hands, and it is really beautiful to make him feel beautiful. outrageous.

Among the prismatic golden crystals, Ye Xuan counted a few times. There are indeed nine layers of halo, the outer layer is the largest, the first layer is covered with a layer, and the innermost ninth layer is a small one. Clicked.

If you are cold, you will feel like you are looking at the eye with a nine-layered halo. There is a kind of dazzling fascination. It seems that under the gaze, the mind is immersed in the illusion of entering.

In addition, Ye Xuan has not found any other abnormalities or special colors.

It was also at this time that when he was about to take this precious Jiuqing Jinjing into the immortal world, an unexpected discovery made him suddenly open his mouth after a slight shock.

In the line of sight, the giant demon flower that he had taken away from the golden enamel in the disk was quickly dissipated in a disillusioned manner.

This process obviously started just now. It should be the next moment after he took down the nine gold crystals. It was just that Ye Xuan looked at the Jiu Jin Jin Jing in his hand, and he did not pay attention.

At this moment, the whole body of the enchanting corpse has dissipated half.

It is not withering, nor is it a collapse, but it is directly from the real object, into the illusory golden light point, from top to bottom, gradually and quickly spread out and disappear...

This magical disillusionment quickly reached the roots and spread to the mouth of the corpse with its big open mouth.

However, everything did not stop because of this. Soon, the corpse began to disillusion, from the face, spread to the whole body, and quickly turned into golden light spots to dissipate...

I don't know if it is an illusion. Ye Xuan clearly found that the original mouth was very open, and it seemed to be incomparable. It seems to have a scorpion-like bloodline, but there is a pair of huge scorpion creatures behind it.

In the process of this disillusionment, the corpse flower was transmitted to it, and after the face began, its original look seemed to be serene, and even the original mouth was closed, as if it had been freed. Relieved...

Soon, in Ye Xuan's gaze, a whole corpse in the height of Zhang Xu, in less than a minute, has completely turned into a golden light spot, disappeared!

Looking at the space where the original pothole was located between several corpses, Ye Xuan was suspicious in his dreams, everything was too unreal!

After fixing the gods, Ye Xuan took the nine gold crystals in his hand into the body and placed them in a pure crystal box to avoid its energy dissipation.

There are still a lot of such pure crystal boxes, Ye Xuan, which are obtained from the warehouse area of the Black Wind. It should be a special object prepared by the Demon Scouts to hold a certain kind of energy. The total is exactly one hundred.

Immediately afterwards, he did not continue to delay, and turned and plucked the other corpse flowers around him. This time, he did not hesitate and hesitate too much. After that, he directly took the meditation of the center of the flower buds. Next, the immortal world of income, put it in the small box of crystals, and then go to the next one.

In the next plant picking, Ye Xuan occasionally turned back to see the demon corpse flower that he had just picked the crystal fruit.

Sure enough, after discovering that the corpse flower was picked by him, the crystal fruit will be disillusioned from the corpse flower, from the bottom to the bottom, and finally to the root, and then pass the disillusion to the gestation. The body of the dead body that nourished the growth of the corpse flower, and finally, the corpse of the corpse is completely disillusioned with a breath of relief and relief.

This is true after every pick.

The only difference is the color of the small spot that dissipates quickly when it is disillusioned.

Golden corpse flower, when dissipated, there are countless golden light spots.

Silver corpse, when dissipated, the numerous small spots that appear are silver.

As for the more numerous black corpse flowers, the large number of small spots that appear when this disillusionment is a light black with a semi-transparent time...

Just after the harvest, the corpse in the area of the corpse of the corpse is finally only a small piece of a dozen meters, and will soon be completely extinguished.

With a little light source, Ye Xuan immediately speeded up. After a few moments, all the crystal fruits in the central area were picked.

Then, in the middle of the air, he took a turn around and determined that there was no omission, and then he let go of his heart. As soon as he was swayed, he swept away to the island of the bone that had previously settled.

Without waiting for it to reach the island, the light behind it has quietly glimpsed, and the corpse has finally extinguished.

The whole corpse pool is once again plunged into an endless darkness. Fortunately, whether Ye Xuan's spiritual strength or the power of the gods can be spread out in this extreme darkness, instead of the naked eye, everything is gone, so even if it is gone Light source, but for him, everything around him is still a candle!

After falling down on the cheekbones, Ye Xuan took out this harvest and began to count.

The gold nine gold crystals were placed in four crystal boxes.

Eight silver gossip silver crystals are also packed in eight crystal boxes.

In addition, there are some other grades of black crystals that are black and translucent. According to the number of internal halo layers, the grades of these crystals should be from three to seven, for a total of one hundred and three. a piece...

So harvested, this time it is really big!

Chapter 2908: Bow name

The 103 black semi-transparent forms from the three to seven levels are adorned with crystals, and are housed in five crystal boxes by Ye Xuan according to different grades.

There are more than thirty of the three and four.

The seven are the least, but there are also twelve!

These five crystal boxes were quickly taken into the immortal world by Ye Xuan.

Then, after playing the eight crystal boxes with eight gold crystals, Ye Xuan also took it into the body.

Right now, there are only four crystal boxes that are in front of him, each with a nine-inch gold crystal.

Ye Xuan carefully distinguished it, only to find that these four grids of gold crystals, in fact, are also nuanced. Of course, it is basically the same. If you don't carefully analyze it, you won't see those subtle differences.

This difference is reflected in two aspects.

One is the color depth. The second is the number of tiny prismatic folds on the surface of the gold crystal.

Color: Although all four are golden translucent crystals, the one that Ye Xuan first picked is obviously more golden, and the other four are all slightly lighter.

In terms of the number of folds: the same one that Ye Xuan first picked, the largest number of tiny prismatic refractions on the surface of the crystal, there are thousands. The other three have thousands of such refractions, but under the fine numbers, they are all less than the first one.

Even the one with the largest refraction of the three nine-inch gold crystals has more than six hundred small refractions than the first one!

Although Ye Xuan can't understand the difference, at least one of them can still be determined. That is, among the four Jiu Jin Jin Jing, the one he picked first is definitely the best and the most perfect. !

With this kind of speculation, Ye Xuan will soon be loaded with three other crystal boxes of nine gold crystals, all of which have been harvested into the immortal world. Then, the first nine gold crystals picked from the crystals are small. The box was taken out and played for a while, which was directly collected into the body and thrown into the phagocytic system for identification!

Soon, the system's prompt tone rang in Ye Xuan's mind.

Slow!

This sentence is Ye Xuan's subconscious mind in his mind!

Then he realized that he was a little too responsive. As long as he did not give a positive response, the system would not arbitrarily do anything.

But at this point he couldn't take it anymore, and the whole mind fell on the system sounds that just sounded in his mind.

This is expected.

The quality of the perfect nine is not unexpected.

But what does the attribute of this attribute of the identification of the wilderness of the wilderness mean?

Actually, I asked if I would immediately collect it and get the inheritance of the ancient gods.

Can you get the inheritance of a magical technique after you have collected this nine-golden crystal, and it is still an ancient level?

Is this a bit too joke?

If you really want this, there is a lot of strong people in the entire group of demons who have this ancient level of magical techniques?

After all, although many chanting crystals are rare, some high-level hands of the devil's group still have two or three pieces!

Without knowing this, Ye Xuan is obviously not free to move. What if there are any hidden dangers or even dangers?

Thinking about it, he even took out the other three Jiu Jin Jin Jing and threw it into the phagocytic system for identification.

As a result, he once again glanced at the results of the identification of the three Jiu Jin Jing Jing, which were exactly the same.

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Get one of the nine gold crystals! Identification is complete! Grade: ninety-nine grades! Quality: ordinary ninety! Attribute: Spiritual source crystal! Do you start collecting immediately?"

Basically, it is similar to the first one, but in terms of quality and attributes, it is a different day!

In terms of quality, the first one is perfect, and the three are ordinary nine!

In terms of attributes, the first one is the inheritance of the ancient gods, these three are the spiritual source crystal!

In terms of the last inquiry content of the prompt tone, these three are just asking to start to extract immediately. It is estimated that what they have learned is only the source of the spirit. Of course, it is far from the general source of ordinary spirit. The quality of the 9th and 9th grades is here.

But these three, obviously not like the first one, the thing that is learned, in addition to the pure and high-quality spiritual origin, can also obtain a heritage of the ancient level of magical techniques.

This kind of contrast, Ye Xuan is basically in the heart.

It seems that not all of the many chanting crystals contain some kind of supernatural inheritance from the ancient times.

Only in the grade of ninety-nine grades, and in terms of quality, is the perfect nine-level Jiu Jin Jin Jing, within which there will be such a mythical inheritance from the ancient.

Therefore, those who are in the hands of those who are strong in the hands of the devil can get some high-quality spiritual power!

The three pieces in the hands of Lian Yexuan have reached the grade of ninety-nine, but they are not perfect in terms of quality. They are just the nine-nine gold crystals of the ordinary nine-inch, which are not concealed in their hands. Not to mention the goods on the street!

After basically confirming this result, Ye Xuan suddenly let go of his heart.

The perfect quality of Jiu Jin Jin Jing can not be found, although this piece of corpse is infinite, if there are gold nine gold crystal appeared, which may not have perfect quality, but even if there is, there are not many!

In addition, the proportion of Jiu Jin Jin Jing appears to be very low, such a superposition, the perfect quality of Jiu Jin Jin Jing, basically waiting for the event can not be met!

From this point of view, the value of this perfect nine in your hand... is it incalculable?

In addition, what is the perfect quality of the Jiu Jin Jin Jing, the mythological heritage contained in it?

The ancient supernatural powers, just think about it and make people move.

As these thoughts flashed in my mind, Ye Xuan became more and more stunned. After all, I still didn't press it. After all the other three Jiu Jin Jin Jing were put into the crystal box, the income was in the immortal world. He finally Or to the devouring, immediately took the first nine-inch Jinjing, accepting the instructions contained in it.

When this order was issued, Ye Xuan had already sat down on the ground of the cheekbones, and closed his eyes and entered the state of cultivation.

The confirmation tone of the system has already sounded, and then the process of capturing this perfect nine-gold crystal has begun.

Soon, the golden energy source of the spirit was sent to Ye Xuan's mind and was automatically drilled into the purple-black spiritual core of the sea.

This process continued for a long time. In the end, Ye Xuan, who had already sunk into his mind, was awakened by the system sound that suddenly sounded in his mind.

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Get it done! Get the wild magical powers: soul bow..."

Chapter 2909: a broken arrow

Suddenly heard these three words, Ye Xuan is a moment, the first reaction is this will be the system is wrong, or ... I have heard the wrong?

The three characters of the bow of the sky are clearly a magic weapon of bow and arrow.

Although the name of the bow is so beautiful, it sounds like it is quite intentional and aggressive. But this little Jiu Jin Jin Jing is not a space magic weapon. How can there be a bow and arrow named Hao Tian?

What should I get from it, isn't it a kind of powerful supernatural power from the ancient times?

Just as these thoughts flashed through my mind, Ye Xuan suddenly felt that the sea was shocked. It seems that something was directly transmitted into the system.

Is it the law of the nine-year-old Jinjing that contains the ancient magical powers?

With this in mind, Ye Xuan was excited.

This kind of thing, he did not have mastered this before, but the big environment in which he was at that time was different.

The magical techniques are closely related to certain laws of heaven and earth.

For example, the void that was previously used in the black hole of the life to suppress the supernatural power, it belongs to a magical use of the law of the void, but the void control of the virtual master is obviously not complete. There is a deficiency, otherwise the power of the void rule will not only be so powerful.

Ye Xuan had mastered some magical skills before.

But whether in the fairy world or in the realm of the gods, the magical techniques he mastered are actually enlightened in the inner narrow environment of the single star of the nine stars, although each magical power is indeed with some kind of The law of heaven and earth is related, but the law of heaven and earth mentioned here is the extremely narrow law of heaven and earth on the inner and outer levels of the Nine Stars.

Nowadays, Ye Xuan has already stepped out of the Nine Stars and entered the vast expanse of the Xingxing River. The big back of the world where he is located is no longer the inner world of a single star, but the background of the vast vast sky. .

In the context of such a starry background, the law of heaven and earth inside a single star is no longer applicable. Therefore, the magical technique that Ye Xuan had mastered before, to the Starry World, is useless!

I can't do it at all!

At the moment, the magical technique obtained from this nine-golden crystal will be his first magical technique in the background of the stars, and this magical power is still derived from the distant and ancient times in the sacred, only this One point, we can expect it to be extraordinary.

When thinking of this place, Ye Xuan can no longer press the shackles. When he even immersed his mind in the sea of knowledge, he will first master this ancient sacred power, even if he can only display a small amount of power. With its transcendental level from the ancient times, it should be enough for Ye Xuan, who is still at a low level.

With such a strong expectation, Ye Xuan consciously entered the sea of knowledge very quickly, and then saw the golden bow hanging over the sea!

Previously, his knowledge of the sea has already hanged two foreign objects.

One is to hang on the spiritual core of the sea in the east.

The second is the vacant mother crystal hanging in the west of the sea.

At the moment, this golden small bow hanging from the northern part of the sea is obviously the third foreign thing.

The state of this golden bow is clearly defined as the energy form. It is extremely small and compact. It is only the size of the thumb. There is no bow and no arrow, not to mention the arrow. There is no one, it is a naked bow!

However, its shape is quite an ancient servant secret, and the bow body consists of three parts.

In the middle of the bow is a double-headed monster. The wide mouth of the bow is facing the upper and lower directions, and the upper and lower parts of the bow are two humanoid creatures licking the body. The broad-mouthed mouth of the two-headed monster swallowed the feet and part of the calves of the two humanoid creatures. The joints of the bows were just their painful heads. The mouth was the place where the strings were held. It seems to be awkward, and the expression is inexplicable...

Seeing this small and strange golden bow, Ye Xuan stopped at the first time.

Is this the one that I got from the nine gold crystals? Some kind of magical power from the distant and ancient?

Is this too boring?

A good old-fashioned magical power has turned into a weird little bow?

The key is still a defective product. If you don't have an arrow, you can count it.

In the depression, Ye Xuan sighed and confessed that he would extend the power of the gods to the past, and soon touched the golden bow hanging in the northern part of the sea!

The next moment, a burst of sound suddenly came without warning, like a thunderstorm in the dry weather, and immediately turned Ye Xuan's consciousness into a stunned, almost on the spot into a sleep.

"boom....."

As this huge roar blew open, Ye Xuan's consciousness shook, and when he finally recovered, he suddenly discovered that the surrounding environment had completely changed. It was no longer his knowledge of the sea, but an innocent The starry sky is empty.

What surprised him even more is that this strange and vast starry sky has faintly given him a feeling of deja vu, revealing the simplicity and endless solitude of the wild.

Seeing the starry giant tortoise with him, and the two stars of the galaxy as the backs of the golden starry dragon when he merged with the immortal ancestors, the breath is surprisingly consistent!

Is this golden bow really derived from the ancient?

Otherwise, when the gods know how to touch, how can they immediately trigger the horror explosion of the suspected rumbling sounds, and then see this piece of the clear sky is the ancient river?

"Hey!"

"Roar!"

.....

Just as Ye Xuan's * was on the verge of the endless distance of the vast expanse of the endless sky, suddenly there was a strange and loud noise.

There is a fierce and fierce screaming!

There is a roar of the power of the swallowing star river!

There are also sorghum dragons that seem to be able to tear the entire universe...

Ye Xuan's body shape suddenly violently shocked, subconsciously turned to the head and followed the sound.

The next moment, he was at the end of the endless starry sky, and saw a fierce battle.

The whole piece of endless starry sky is the battlefield.

In this endless battlefield, there are countless powerful creatures that are invisible today. Even though there is no end to the endless starry sky, Ye Xuan still seems to be able to clearly sense the horror of the body.

This kind of breath can't describe it. I don't know what kind of realm it is. But Ye Xuan has no doubt that even the supernatural existence of the cave of the madness, the face of this kind of breath can only be reduced to ants. .

As for even the ants are not as good!

"call out....."

Just as Ye Xuan was stunned, with the sound of a high-pitched scream, the innocent * battlefield in front of him suddenly burst into a dazzling and intense gold mans.

A golden arrow spurt at a speed that transcends time and space, and instantly rushes to the end of the sky, destroying everything along the way, even the starry sky is cut into two...

An arrow, broken sky!

Chapter 2910: Blurry and ridiculous

This power can tear the golden arrow of the starry sky to rush, and when the sky is washed away, Ye Xuan's figure is once again violently shaken.

It is not the supreme power of horror, but the acquaintance of this golden man...

Subconsciously, Ye Xuan's line of sight followed the horror of the horror of the golden arrow, and swept away from its source. Soon, a figure that was not very tall was reflected in Ye Xuan's line of sight. .

Body type, face... like a night fork!

Although the figure is only about the left and right, but behind it, there is a pair of huge wings, slightly fluttering, and its body is lightly held in the void.

This is clearly that when Ye Xuan picked the first piece of Jiu Jin Jin Jing from the corpse, the * that grew up and screamed with wide mouth and bred, will give birth to the corpse of the golden nectar from the root, the corpse growing from its mouth!

At this moment, this figure in the left hand, which is raised high, is gradually disappearing from the disappearance of a huge and strange quaint golden bow, which obviously confirms this!

This moment, Ye Xuan suddenly realized.

It turned out that the reason why the corpse flower grew out of its mouth was not someone who was pregnant.

From the golden crystal fruit condensed by the corpse flower, it is the birth of the sacred bow, the birth of this corpse flower, and the condensation of the nine gold crystals in the disk, clearly because of the existence of the sinking in the corpse Only after the shackles of obscurity are affected can it be realized!

However, is such a powerful and absurd existence finally degraded?

So who is it, throwing its corpse into this innocent corpse?

In addition, all the other dead bodies in the corpse are endless with the same level of it?

It's also what I saw at the moment. Although it's incomparable, it's actually happening in this horrific war before the endless years... is it fallen?

So what is the significance of this war? What is the source? Finally, what is the result?

As the questions in my mind rise and fall one after another, Ye Xuan is confused. The dawn is gradually blurred, and the line of sight is removed from the supreme powerhouse who left the soul of the soul. It was so blunt, and slowly and squintly scanned the battlefield.

A piece of endless killing land with the sky in the sky!

Ode to the ground, Ye Xuan's pupil slammed fiercely, and the original stagnation of consciousness was also sober in this moment. Even the figure was violently shaken, and the back was vaguely like a cold sweat.

It is also a familiar figure, and even this figure is still entangled with him, even now, it is unpredictable, but it has always been uneasy, such as the entanglement of mans in the back!

In the land of the battlefield of the Galaxy, a region with few brutal and deadly creatures, Ye Xuan clearly saw a figure of red blood like a whole body, lurking behind a huge dead star.

The imaginary energy body state is huge like a small meteor, and its shape is almost the same as that of an ordinary ape. It only has a strange * corner at the top of the head. All this is the case. The ground is familiar.

This is clearly the statue in the valley of the royal family in the Forbidden City, embedded in the deep bottom of the valley!

This is clearly the owner of the * corner of the soul that has always been relying on Ye Xuan's body, but in any case can not find the trace!

This is clearly a giant blood horn soul beast!

These thoughts flashed through my mind, and Ye Xuan felt that the whole person was not good at all!

This * horned soul beast is actually derived from the supreme existence of the ancient times! It is no wonder that even the nine-star sculptor in the black hole of life, in the face of its breath, can not afford the slightest rebellion.

But these are not the key.

The key point is that in the wilderness of the ancient times before the endless years, other wild animals seem to have fallen, including the original owner of Ye Xuan's sacred bow and the power of the sky. Nothing exists, the same is true!

But this * horned beast is clearly an exception!

Even if its original illusory body may have dissipated, the inside of the * corner of the soul that is left behind is clearly hidden. Otherwise, how can this corner be so strange that it can freely enter and leave the leaves. The immortal world in Xuan's body? Even killing the nine-star scoop, taking the body of its energy crystal and turning it into its own use?

Was the war of the year, the * horned beast really not fallen?

Is it together with all the strong corpses that were smashed in this battle, and was banned to the Forbidden City where the corpse is located?

Then, what about the statue embedded in the wall of the mountain in the depths of the Forbidden Valley?

Is it imprisoned by its body?

Is it being perceived by a certain force when it wants to escape from the Forbidden City, and is directly sealed in the cliff?

Then, what happened to the * corner of the soul in the underground cave of the Black Mountain Star?

Who set the altar and sealed the blood of the soul?

In the madness of the body, Ye Xuan's line of sight has always been locked in the corner of the distant corner of the empty corner of the soul, but in his mind, in an instant, it flashed through this series of tangled Question.

All of this, let him just think a little, then he gave birth to a feeling of a headache, as if the sea of knowledge had to be blown up.

confusing!

He also thought about it and even hoped that all of this was just his own heart, but in fact it was impossible.

Open up everything that has already appeared in reality, such as the statues in the valley of the Forbidden City, such as the * corners of the underground sacred caves of the Black Mountain Star, such as the stagnation of the nine-star scorpion, such as the body found but there is no trace. That * soul horn...

Even if all of this is temporarily opened, but this strange scene in the eyes of Ye Xuan is still enough to prove from one side that the * horns are unpredictable!

At the moment, in the vast expanse of the starry sky battlefield, countless ancient creatures are killing the * battle. Only it is like a small meteor-like blood-horned beast, but it is quietly hiding. On the back of a huge Death Star, the ghosts admire the entire land of * battles.

That kind of demeanor and movement clearly reveals a deep peep!

Why is it not fighting?

So hidden in the ghost, its purpose or plot... What is it?

Looking at it all, Yu Xuan suddenly felt that the numerous movements of countless wild animals in the sky around the starry sky and the * horns and soul beasts were silently hidden in the remote corner of the battlefield. The ultimate silence.

At the same time, the two are in the eyes of the sharpness and contrast, so inexplicably let him in the heart, suddenly gave birth to a chill!

It was also at this moment that the blood horns and soul beasts hidden in the shadow of the huge Death Star in the sights seemed to have a general feeling, and slowly turned to the side of Ye Xuan.

A fascinating smile, floated on its lips!

At this moment, Ye Xuan clearly felt its strange dawn, and actually looked at his own eyes...
