

Super D. S 2921

Chapter 2921: Horrible harvest

"Booming..."

"Boom!"

.....

A huge roar sounded loudly. From the two space bastions of the Black and Black Wind, a team lined up neatly through the black light curtain channel and appeared in the underground corpse.

This team includes five Devils and Thousands of People, 100,000, the sixth largest realm of the Nebula above the Nebula, and 100,000 Void Soldiers!

Ye Xuan and the hole in the virtual shuttle have been sacrificed, and the inside of the sea is the same as the one of the thousand demon slaves.

At the moment when people are using them, Ye Xuan must use the first point of force as much as possible and use it on the blade.

Soon, the task of picking up many chanting crystals was clearly assigned to all the teams by Ye Xuan, and six squadrons led by six captains such as Hai Yidao and Cang Qing corpse, from the foot. The corpse of the corpse began to pick up and go all the way to the depths of the corpse.

And that 100,000 black mosquitoes and 100,000 emptiness soldiers, the same divergence and open, divided into a thousand people squad, quickly go in all directions, because of their strength and speed, so they can arrive as soon as possible The edge of the corpse, then, start from there, toward the road, and go back all the way.

Both ends are picked at the same time and contracted inward, which minimizes time consuming.

At the same time, the two space fortifications, the Black Mosquito and the Black Wind, were handed over to the command of Buck and immediately rose to the mountain pass of the huge shaped mountain. The hidden array method was opened, and the surrounding movements were closely watched. Once any living beings were found, immediately In the first time, contact the Dong Xuan, which resides in the central area of the corpse below, and listen to the next instruction of Hou Yexuan...

With the order of Ye Xuan, 100,000 mosquito beasts and 100,000 soldiers and scoops, as well as six thousand magic slaves, the first time they have started the journey, and quickly spread to the surrounding divergence, all the way to pick.

At the same time, the two space fortifications, the Black Mosquito and the Black Wind, also opened the concealed array method for the first time. They quickly lifted off and floated to the huge mountain pass of the crater. After the air, they began to follow the instructions of Ye Xuan. The pre-charge of the Super Star Cannon!

This time, Ye Xuan's instruction to Buck was to adjust the diameter of the smashing horn to the maximum of 300 meters. As a result, in the case of unprepared defense, a starry beast that was originally repaired as a target, was shot down. Basically, at least it can be seriously injured.

If the black mosquito number and the black wind number join hands, two 300-meter-diameter super-star-killing guns will be blasted one after the other, even if it is to kill a star-studded beast that was originally repaired, I am afraid that it is not difficult. !

Before that, the four-year-old Bi Qinghu let Ye Xuan feel a huge crisis.

According to his estimation, even though the corpse in the entire corpse of the corpse has been extinguished, and more than 100,000 manpower dispatched by him, the efficiency of maximizing the picking of the crystals is maximized by the way of both sides. Because the area of the whole corpse is so vast, even in this way, it takes at least half a day to pick up all the sacred crystals in the whole corpse.

If it is said that within this half-day, the outside world will not appear again with a starry beast, it is obviously impossible.

Everything Ye Xuan is doing now is a rainy day.

At the same time, in the previous battle with the head of the four 冀晴虎虎的的的蚊蚊蚊蚊蚊叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶叶Level resources, all of which are good for restoring their injuries, have all thrown some for them.

This is the only two of Ye Xuan's hands that have the ultimate strength of the original point of view. Their existence is crucial for Ye Xuan. Must always be at the peak of the combat power.

After doing all this, Ye Xuan was finally able to put the hanging heart down.

Then, he began to pick the singularity of a flower in the central part of the corpse of the huge mountain pass of the crater.

Previously, the six thousand demon slaves who were responsible for picking up from the distance and diverging from the distance, Ye Xuan did not let them pick directly from the corpse of the corpse, but from the edge of the corpse The strip begins.

After all, he himself intends to sit in this area, so that the two space battalions that can be used for the first time to guard against the perimeter will be able to respond promptly and correctly in the first place.

Therefore, this corpse is reserved, and Ye Xuan is planning to leave time for himself.

In this central area of the corpse of the corpse, Ye Xuan's power of knowledge extends to cover the whole territory.

Under the guise of his gods, among the blossoming nectars that Ye Xuan captured, there was a golden awn, which represented that the condensation on the disk was the existence of a nine-gold crystal. There are dozens of others, and other gossip silver crystals and ordinary singular crystals below the gossip are more.

This time, Ye Xuan is not anxious to stare at the dozens of golden demon corpse flowers, and can't run anyway, no need to go back and forth.

Next, he picked it up from the position he had taken under his feet...

In the whole area of the corpse of the corpse, Ye Xuan has collected nearly a hundred more mourning crystals, including Jiuyi Jinjing sixty-six, but unfortunately, the sixty-six pieces of Jiujing Jinjing have no grade. The piece reached the perfect quality, Ye Xuan tried to identify it one by one. Sure enough, this quality did not reach the perfect level of Jiu Jin Jin Jing, all without inheritance, which shows the one he had previously collected. It is rare and precious to have a piece.

But for Ye Xuan, this time the harvest is equally huge, and, in his view, the whole vast corpse is so vast, even if the perfect quality of the Jiu Jin Jin Jing is not too much, but absolutely impossible Only the one that has been collected before.

The powerful power of the sacred bow and the ancient mythology, Ye Xuan has already seen it. This level of no treasure, as long as you can harvest one or two, in his case, it is completely satisfied.

He believes that this vast corpse will not let him down, just one or two perfect quality Jiu Jin Jin Jing, there will be.

Time passed slowly, I don't know, I was half a day passed.

The two space bastions of the Black and Black Winds above have never been moving, which makes Ye Xuan feel grateful.

Even if he didn't expect that things would go so smoothly, right now, the whole work of picking up the corpse of the corpse has come to an end, even if there is a starry beast that wants to pull the peaches at the moment, for Ye Xuan, It also has little effect.

Soon, the two Mosquito and the Black Wind Fortress were summoned from above and ordered to split into two different directions to the depths of the corpse, which will be spread out for the picking work. All the magic slaves, as well as the mosquitoes and soldiers, all come back...

Chapter 2922: Corpse stun

After a small half day, the black mosquito number and the black wind number returned.

Ye Xuan dispatched all the magic slaves, black mosquitoes, and the Void Scoops that had been sent out to pick up many chanting crystals, and all of them had been picked up. At this moment, they were all summarized here.

The total is an extremely terrible number!

The number of crystallizations below the gossip reached one hundred and ten thousand!

The number of gossip silver crystals has reached more than 30,000!

Although Jiuyi Jinjing is the least, it has more than 2,000 pieces!

Among them, the same as Ye Xuan's previous one, the nine-golden crystal with perfect quality, as many as nine, far beyond the one or two estimates of Ye Xuan!

These nine perfect quality Jiu Jin Jin Jing, Ye Xuan all thrown to the phagocytic system one by one to identify.

The result is no suspense, and the nine perfect quality of the Jiu Jin Jin Jing, all contain a mythical heritage of the ancient times.

In other words, plus the already-sacred 弓天弓神通, Ye Xuan's hands now have a total of ten kinds of wild magical powers. This is definitely a horrible number. Think about the power of the scorpion bow. A horrible and ridiculous supernatural power, no matter who can master ten kinds, is destined to sweep a star field.

Of course, with the ancient magical powers, you still have to have enough strength and strength to display them. In the case of Ye Xuan's current micro-end of the meteor, it is basically unnecessary to think too much.

It is just a kind of wild magical power that is a kind of sacred bow. For him, it is enough to use it now.

In fact, even if this sacred bow is wild, the current Ye Xuan simply does not show the true power of others. It is really limited in power. Once it is displayed, all the forces in the body will be taken out in an instant, but in the end, The power that is displayed is still only a small part of the **** death of this ancient magical power.

Therefore, although Ye Xuan was excited, she did not intend to take all of the nine perfect quality Jiu Jin Jin Jing immediately and accept the wild heritage.

He still understands the truth that greed is not bad.

Anyway, Jiu Jin Jin Jing is in his own hands, and he is not afraid that they will fly with their own wings. In the future, they will wait for the cultivation to improve their strength. When they need it, they can always take it and accept the second or even the third and more ancient heritage. .

Now, just a sacred bow, he is already a bit overwhelmed, and it is enough to use it. So, after some excitement, Ye Xuan finally put these nine perfect quality Jiu Jin Jin Jing, respectively. In the nine crystal small boxes, the income of the body is properly absorbed.

At the same time, the other more than 30,000 pieces of gossip silver crystals and more than one million pieces of gossip crystals under the gossip were all earned by him.

At this point, Ye Xuan's purpose of coming to the forbidden land of this holy demon was completed satisfactorily and excessively.

However, in the one-month period of the trial of the Son, it took only four days to go. There are still twenty-six days, and Ye Xuan did not know how to send it.

"Hey..."

"Roar!"

Just as Ye Xuan hesitated and tangled, outside the huge mountain pass above the crater, there were two different roaring sounds coming from this moment.

A sharp scream.

A majestic encounter.

But all of them are full of anger.

At the same time, there were two star-studded beasts rushing at the same time, and listening to the static, it seems that the strength is not weak, all of them are the original point of the supremacy, even if there is no previous four-year-old Biqinghu strong, but the difference will not be too much.

Ye Xuan felt a little faint, and then his heart immediately rejoiced.

Fortunately, these two starry beasts came a little later. Otherwise, if time is pushed forward one or two hours, then the task of picking up many sacred crystals in the corpse below is not completed. At the same time, there were two star-studded beasts that were repaired by the original point. The situation was almost unimaginable.

But now it is different.

All the chanting crystals in the whole corpse have been picked, and Ye Xuan has no need to guard the place here. It's just two starry beasts, even if it's ten heads and twenty heads, for now For him, there is absolutely no impact at all.

Can't beat it, can't you escape?

He can completely absorb the two space fortresses, Black Mosquito and Black Wind, into the immortal world, and then directly into the hole, open the hidden array, quietly pull out the mountain pass of the huge crater, and then quietly grow up And go...

However, just as Ye Xuan's heart was moving, and he wanted to do this, an unexpected accident that made him unsatisfactory, but at this moment, suddenly occurred without warning.

"call out!"

.....

Originally silent and silent, the entire corpse of the corpse, at this moment, but suddenly smashed a fierce hurricane, the invisible corpse breath constantly spread from the raging corpse pool waves, in an instant, Let this whole piece of corpse above the sky, once again covered with a layer of rich black corpse.

Previously, because of the fire of Ye Xuan, there was almost no corpse in the vast expanse of the corpse, but now everything has returned to its original state.

After all, the so-called corpse was originally dispersed from the endless black corpse in the corpse below.

In normal times, the ancient wells in the corpse are not waved, so the corpse that has been dispersed from the interior of the corpse is very weak. It takes a long time to accumulate in a certain scale on the surface of the pool, forming a large black that covers the entire corpse. Corpse layer.

But now, the whole corpse of the corpse is roaring and screaming, and the inexhaustible black corpse is so turbulent that the black corpse that has spread out of it is accumulating at a faster rate than when the ancient corpse is not in the past. How many times faster.

In just a few moments, the entire vast expanse of the corpse, it has once again restored the state of the previous corpse, and Ye Xuan clearly has a feeling that it is now in a short time This large piece of corpse, which accumulates over the corpse, seems to be more intense than before.

Faced with all this, Ye Xuan is completely dumbfounded.

An extremely unpleasant feeling suddenly came to my heart. He faintly gave birth to the illusion that the entire corpse of the corpse below seemed to be completely angry.

Because Ye Xuan's cockroach picks up countless rumors of crystallization, this piece of corpse that has been quietly like a dead object, finally angered.

Previously, Ye Xuan had been subconsciously thinking that this vast corpse was a dead object, but now, with the sudden shock of the corpse, he finally stunned, and his heart gave birth to a kind of enlightenment. The corpse is alive and it is also conscious.

It was because of everything he had done before that the entire corpse was irritated.

Then, with the anger of the whole piece of innocent corpse, what will happen next, although no one knows, but there is no doubt, it is not a good thing...

Chapter 2923: Headless baby

"Booming..."

"boom!"

.....

At the bottom of the huge mountain belly, the vast expanse of the corpse is like the black ocean where the tsunami has occurred. Countless waves are coming up, black corpses are overwhelming, and there are a lot of ruins of ancient animals. With these corpses The liquid tumbling, all of them seem to be alive.

The scene of this scene is like a group of magical dances, directly seeing Ye Xuan dumbfounded, and the mind can not stop shaking, he does not know, what kind of horrible existence will follow.

But there is no doubt that it is absolutely not easy to control the existence of this whole corpse, and the other party is far from being able to resist it. Even if Ye Xuan does all the power of his squat, it may not be Can resist the power of its power.

You must know that even the wild magical power of the sacred bow that he got is only one of the hundreds of thousands of ancient corpses in this vast corpse.

Then, in order to control the existence of this whole corpse of corpse, it is a terrible situation. Just think about it and you will have a general understanding.

"Roar!"

"Hey..."

On the outskirts of the huge crater, the two starry beasts that are coming unexpectedly are still screaming and roaring, but listening to their howling, distinctly different from before, it seems that there is somewhere in this huge crater in the crater. The unknowable changes made them suspicious and even frightened. Although they were not willing to leave, they did not dare to fall directly into the corpse.

In the sound of screaming and roaring at the moment, there is clearly a sense of unwillingness and temptation.

At the first time, Ye Xuan waved the two space bastions, the Black Mosquito and the Black Wind, into the immortal world, and even the hole was taken over by him.

Because he knows that in the face of this existence of the vast corpse, the power of the Black Wind and the Black Mosquito has no meaning at all. Instead of attracting the attention of the other party outside, it is better to shrink as much as possible. Goal, I hope that the other party will shift their attention from the weak one to the two powerful starry beasts that are screaming and roaring outside the huge crater.

In addition, Ye Xuan actively took all the powers of his own, but there is also a meaning, that is, a statement, a way to look at the **** corner of the immortal world hidden in his body.

It is clear to tell the other party, this time, I have no intention of rebelling, you better not to hide, otherwise, once the other party really shot me, then you have no good fruit to eat.

This is a kind of persecution, using the facts to force the **** corner of the soul to have to come out.

However, even if the other party comes forward, is there any use? In the end, can you leave the upcoming offensive that controls the horror of the entire corpse?

For this, Ye Xuan also has no certainty.

After all, even if this **** corner of the soul is really seen in the inheritance picture of Ye Xuan in the bow of the sky, the strange **** beast hidden in the edge of the **** battlefield of the ancient starry sky.

Then, in the vast corpse of the corpse, the congested ones are at the same level as the corpses that existed in the same level of the ancient starry sky war.

The existence behind the corpse can control so many ruins of the ancient ruins, and these sacred creatures belong to the same level of sorrowful blood beasts, can match this mysterious existence?

What's more, today's sorrowful blood beasts are only left with a **** corner, which is far from being comparable to the original heyday.

In fact, for this point, Ye Xuan has nothing to grasp.

He even thought of escape at the first time, but unfortunately, all this is obviously impossible, because just before the catastrophic change, he has already sensed a kind of sigh and firmly put him. The figure is locked.

It is because he has no change, so the other party has never shot.

However, Ye Xuan has no doubt that if he moves under his feet, he will show his willingness to take away. Then, the other party must immediately take the shot, and this level of supremacy exists. Once the anger is shot, what are the consequences? Obviously there is no need to doubt.

"Now, my only vitality seems to have fallen to the **** soul of the blood, and even if it is the power of that guy, this time seems completely useless, but the same thing, but the same, but I still can't help but hold it in the middle of my heart. This... is really speechless!"

Realizing his current embarrassed situation, Ye Xuan could not help but sigh. This time, he is really desperate, but the other side can even kill the black hole, the singer's blood corner of the singer may have a cup of supreme existence. He is only a small third-order meteor, what is it?

Just as Ye Xuan's heart was in a terrible moment, the depth of the vast and infinite sacred corpse below, also suddenly came a fierce and fierce voice.

This whistle statement is stern and horrible, but I don't know why. At this moment, Ye Xuan has heard a kind of innocence and a pure joy from the whistling sound.

This feeling made him feel ridiculous. He even wondered if he had some illusion.

"Giggle..."

"Hey!"

Just as Ye Xuan was suspicious, a cheerful and innocent smirk was clearly introduced into his ears, and after this smirk, he clearly followed a fierce fierce.

Although completely different, it is clearly the same voice, from the same existence.

Ye Xuan's figure was mad, because it was in the next moment, the deepest part of the corpse pond roaring under the undulating corpse of the corpse, and it was clear that there was a purple-colored secluded mangling from the corpse below, and it appeared.

The rushing corpse wave is automatically separated, and it is very ingenious. It resembles this mysterious purple-gold ray, which is the same as the rule of the whole corpse.

This should basically be the truth.

Because, with the appearance of this mysterious Zijin ray, the entire vast corpse of the corpse that had been raging was completely quiet in the blink of an eye. Everything returned to the previous scene, and the whole corpse was calm and incomparable. Innumerable ruins of the ancient ruins of the ancients...

In this moment, the depth of the immortal world in Ye Xuan's body, the perfect hidden hidden blood corner, trembled with excitement, but it seems that because of fear, the breath converges more perfect, half of the points are not afraid to leak come out.

As for Ye Xuan, the whole person feels bad at this moment.

Because he clearly discovered that this purple gold stalker suspected of being in charge of the entire corpse of the corpse was actually spurred from the distance of the corpse in the distance to his location.

As the other side gets closer, Ye Xuan clearly sees the other's existence.

A corpse, to be precise, this is a baby corpse, purple gold baby corpse, headless baby corpse!

Ye Xuan's entire body suddenly became cold...

Chapter 2924: There must be a demon in the abnormal situation.

"Giggle..."

"Hey!"

A naive and romantic chuckle, a violent scream of screaming, the front and back of the foot all broke out from the body of this headless baby corpse, while drilling into Ye Xuan's ear, the headless baby corpse also came to him. Recently, across the distance of a few feet, stand firmly in the void!

This baby corpse, as large as an ordinary baby, seems to have not reached the full moon, more like the existence of a death in the abdomen before birth.

And, not only the whole body purple gold, but also no head...

Well, it's not that there is no head, but that its head is not above the neck in the middle of the shoulder, but it is used as a toy, so it is held in the hand, turning from time to time to play.

And playing with this kind of rotation under the play, the eyes above the skull, but always stared at Ye Xuan.

Ye Xuan clearly felt a more intense feeling that the air machine was locked.

He suddenly realized it. Sure enough, the mysterious atmosphere that locked himself was from this headless baby corpse. That is to say, this headless baby corpse in front of him is the master of this vast corpse.

There are countless kinds of ruins in the whole corpse, and Ye Xuan even saw a lot of body like the horror of small meteors.

But in the end, the one that controls this corpse is a small, headless baby.

This is eccentric to the extreme, and even more bizarre is that, at the moment, the corpse master, after his own proximity, actually did not shoot for himself, and no angry atmosphere revealed, but let Ye Xuan give birth An illusion, the other party, seems to be selling to yourself, is causing your own attention!

God, when this intuition appeared, Ye Xuan couldn't wait to raise his hand and slap himself.

Call you narcissism!

The master of the corpse of the corpse, selling in front of you? Get your attention?

Can't you be more arrogant?

This is the true thought of Ye Xuan at the moment.

Yes, he didn't believe it at all, and he couldn't accept it, but he had to admit that... his heart, this is really the instinct at the moment.

The other party, this is a terrible horror, although it is just a dead baby corpse, but it can surpass all other powerful wild animals and become the master of the entire corpse, it stands at the opposite of Ye Xuan. Outside, it seems that there is no malice, and it is really attracting your attention.

Even if all of Ye Xuan can't believe it, it is even more unacceptable, but intuition is instinct, can't lie to himself!

What's more, before the headless baby corpse had been screamed twice before, it seems that there was a chuckle with a naive sense, which is enough to explain the problem.

The other party will not be bored here, suddenly encountering this outsider, and treating himself as a playmate who is very interested in the moment?

If this is the case, this headless baby corpse should not be too malicious for himself.

But because of this, Ye Xuan suddenly felt that he should leave immediately, the sooner the better. Who knows when it suddenly gets tired, feels boring, and then clicks on it, twisting his neck and becoming the same as it?

This kind of imp, is the most difficult, and the most difficult to speculate on its heart, the only way is not to provoke.

"Oh, this... In fact, I really have something to do, so if there is no other problem, would you like to take a step first?"

Feeling the other pair of purple gold eyes without pupils, just looking at myself, it seems to be waiting for their response, Ye Xuan's entire scalp is numb, secretly biting his teeth, will want to leave immediately The meaning of it is revealed.

He really didn't dare to stay here again, and everything was really weird.

"Giggle..."

"Hey!"

Responding to him, it is still the same two different voices as before, the first is a giggling innocent language, followed by a screaming shout, the two are so different, but at the moment It sounded immediately afterwards, but gave Ye Xuan a feeling of perfect fit.

"call!"

"Booming..."

Just as Ye Xuan had a headache because of the other side's voice again, the whole piece of the vast corpse of the corpse, but under the wave of this headless baby corpse, once again stirred up infinite waves, one The corpse of the ridiculously wild and fascinating body has emerged.

What makes Ye Xuan stunned is that in this sacred corpse, it is clear that a beautiful demon corpse is growing rapidly.

Initially it was still a small sprout, and then it quickly grew up at a speed visible to the naked eye, until the last one meter high, and began to bloom.

Then, in the disk, it quickly began to condense a piece of 瞳瞳晶.

The ruins of the ancient ruins in the vast corpse of the corpse are endless.

But before, even if Ye Xuan fired the endless black corpse over the entire corpse, it was only part of the ruins of the dead body.

The ratio is about half of the top.

But at this moment, people don't even need to ignite the corpse. This headless baby corpse is just under the sway of the hand. All the dead ancient creatures in the entire corpse of the corpse below, without exception, all from the mouth. I gave birth to a demon beautiful corpse...

This scene is really too much.

Looking around, the surface of the entire corpse is almost full of enchanting corpses, one with a single, spectacular to the extreme. It's a sight to be seen.

In such a scene, even Ye Xuan has a point that he doesn't want to leave at this moment. There are so many, so a lot of chanting, it is clear that it is a soft rhythm.

Obviously, in the face of this headless baby corpse, I have already understood the meaning of the words I have just said.

It is also after the master knows that he has the heart to leave, the other party will make such a move and reaction. It clearly knows that he has been picking up many sacred crystals in the corpse, and knows that he is interested in this kind of thing. Therefore, after knowing that he wants to leave, this headless baby corpse does not say anything, directly As for the action, it is a certain ability possessed by the whole corpse, and under the wave of the hand, it directly makes all the ruins of the ancient sacred corpses in the pool below, all of which have produced a sacred flower.

This is clearly the temptation to temper yourself and want to keep yourself.

If the other party does not fail to do so, Ye Xuan may be forced to persuade himself. In order to imaginary and arrogant, he can only stay temporarily and then wait for an opportunity to escape.

But now, the more the other party does, the more uneasy feelings in his heart are more and more intense.

Nothing to be diligent, no traitor is stealing!

In addition, there must be a demon in the abnormal situation!

Is this scene in front of you now anomalous? It's just a matter of thought, Ye Xuan is not afraid to wait for a second...

Chapter 2925: Little devil is difficult

"I said Dao, don't play with me. Is it good? I really have something very important. I can't wait any longer here, or I will delay the big event..."

At this moment, Ye Xuan, I just can't wait to turn around and ran off.

But on the one hand, the other side has done this to the extent that, even so, the conspiracy behind it is more horrible, but at least on the surface, people have done quite the same thing, knowing that you need these many crystallizations, no When you export the buzz, you have prepared so much.

In this case, it is too intimate to give face again.

Of course, these are actually secondary. The most important thing is that the other party's terrorist strength is here. Although Ye Xuan can't feel it, it's hard to know what the other side is, but only from the people's hands. The whole piece of the vast and innocent corpse has responded instantly, and countless ruins of the ancient and dead spirits are rushing to give birth to a beautiful demon corpse from the mouth...

Only then, you can see that it is powerful, at least, in Ye Xuan's view, the **** corner of the soul can never do this, and it is far from being able to do so.

One such strong presence, even if the other party has not turned his face now, is still retaining himself in a superficially good attitude, but Ye Xuan did not dare to shake, even though he could not wait to fly immediately, but now, I can only talk carefully with the other party, at least to see that the other party has the meaning of letting go, he dare to test what to move.

Otherwise, even if he just lifted his foot, he would not dare!

"Giggle..."

"Hey!"

In the face of Ye Xuan's tentative words, the headless baby corpse once again smiled innocently, followed by another horrible scream.

Then, just as Ye Xuan was desperate, the other party was waving at the moment.

"call out!"

"call out....."

"call out!"

.....

A large number of faint sounds of emptiness sounded, and the glory of the general glory, from the pool of the corpse below, spurred on this side.

This road is brilliant, it is precisely the number of chanting crystals on the disk of countless demon corpse flowers below.

At this moment, all of them actively turned into a stream, and spurred in the air.

In the end, countless mourning crystals were gathered together to form a huge crystal sphere with a diameter of more than ten meters. This sphere consists of countless many sacred crystals, with black below eight inches and eight The silver of the enamel, and the golden things of the nine cymbals, mixed together, colorful.

Right now, it's just that the body looks like only two slaps. It's really a headless baby corpse that sticks out of the eye. It's a small arm, so it's so imaginary, standing opposite Ye Xuan. In the middle of the air.

At the same time, the other hand held the other hand in the golden skull of the chest, and also found a glimpse of a slap in the face. It seems to be saying: I will help you all pick it up. Just in front of your eyes, do you want to, follow you...

This moment, Ye Xuan suddenly wants to cry!

Enchanting!

It is said that the little devil is difficult, and he is fully aware of the true meaning of these four words today!

Originally, I saw that there were so many above the sacred pots and lakes. It was a huge number of enchanting corpses, and he was already a little bit stunned.

The reason why I can say that I can't wait for a long time is really important, and I have to leave the words. It is already the words that Ye Xuan has endured with heartache and disobedience.

But now, the other party not only did not loosen the mouth, but also directly concentrated all the sacred crystals in the whole corpse below, and did not need Ye Xuan to pick one by one. It seems that as long as he nods, this is countless If you miss the crystal, you can fall into his bag...

Under the temptation of this red fruit, Ye Xuan immediately collapsed!

Of course, what is more important is that he also sees it. This headless baby is so persistent, I am afraid that I will not give up easily.

In addition, the existence of this level, this strange existence, it must be said that its temper is very good, whoever listens must be only huh, people are now doing this step by squatting, if Ye Xuan no longer give face...

What will happen next, basically no doubt.

Ye Xuan is now compromised and compromised. There is no compromise and compromise.

At the very least, you have to calm down the other person, and then find a way to get out and leave here!

"Oh this... you know, I really have something important, so at most, I will stay here with you... no, half a day!"

With a hard scalp, Ye Xuan carefully said to the headless baby in front of her eyes, this is no way, the other party is so persistent, although Ye Xuan does not know what its ultimate purpose is, but now he I don't dare to be angry at all. Under the sincere sincerity of the other party, the only thing Ye Xuan can do is this kind of concession and compromise.

Of course, in his view, this is not a compromise, but rather a temptation.

Ye Xuan, I hope that through all this, I will test out the true intention of the other party. What does it do for the ultimate purpose?

"Giggle..."

"Hey!"

What surprised him was that in the face of Ye Xuan's apparent compromise, even after he had clearly stated that he could stay for one day, the headless baby corpse in the opposite air was once again giving the same kind of lightness and joy. The sound of screaming.

Then, it was held by one hand, and it looked like a huge one that didn't point to a small mountain. The wafer ball consisting of countless mourning crystals was actually headless. In the whistling sound of the baby corpse, the steep land rushed over to Ye Xuan.

This clearly means accepting Ye Xuan's compromise, and this is a big slogan, in exchange for Ye Xuan's meaning of staying in this corpse for half a day.

The latter is even relieved.

Such a large amount, even beyond the total amount of all the polymorphisms it has previously harvested.

If you just exchange yourself for half a day in this corpse, it is not unacceptable, even though this half-day time, what you have experienced may be an unprecedented horror.

But for this massive amount of chanting, everything is worth it.

Of course, what's more important is that if you don't fight, you won't be able to do it. The other party will not allow you to choose too much. The hegemony is very, this half-day work is completely comforting, purely helpless choice and compromise.

With this helplessness, Ye Xuan faced a large number of singular singers who flew to face themselves, and almost subconsciously directly put them all into the immortal world.

This is the income of Li Yi, naturally you are welcome.

However, at the same moment when a sphere consisting of a huge diameter of about ten meters and composed of countless many sacred crystals disappeared, he clearly saw that the headless baby corpse on the opposite side was also followed. Into a small man, directly into its body.

It seems that the countless crystallizations that have been picked up by Ye Xuan are just a ticket. Now, people have paid the tickets and they have gone on board.

"Blinding! Don't play like this..."

Ye Xuan's heart screamed and shouted subconsciously. At this moment, four words suddenly appeared in his mind: the little devil was difficult...

Chapter 2926: Blood corner is suppressed

With this golden purple color, the headless baby scented with infinite mystery and noble atmosphere into a purple gold rush into his body, Ye Xuan heart mourned, his heart mad.

At the same time, a corner of his body in the depths of the immortal world, there is no sign of a sudden tremor.

The tremor of this smear was first sensed by Ye Xuan.

Almost subconsciously, Ye Xuan's conscious consciousness extended the past to the immortal world, and then he unexpectedly saw the **** corner of the blood that had turned into a small blood needle. .

This guy is actually hiding here.

In fact, in this corner, Ye Xuan has searched before, but it has not been found here.

At this moment, the goods voluntarily trembled and revealed their physique. There is obviously a reason for this.

The reason is that suddenly the headless baby rushed into Ye Xuan's body.

At this moment, Ye Xuan clearly felt a very obvious fear and panic from the slight tremor of this small blood-colored fine needle, and the other party was afraid.

Perhaps even it did not expect this headless baby corpse, unexpectedly rushed directly into Ye Xuan's body, such a change, directly let the hidden soul in the body of Ye Xuan in the immortal world panic. God, the insignificant tremor, reveals the shape that has always been perfectly hidden.

Moreover, it is not just the physical form.

Just as the whole body has been condensed to the next moment of the **** body shape of a small blood-stained state, Ye Xuan clearly felt that this blood-colored small needle began to move, ghosts and admirers, But he did not hesitate.

All the way from the depths of Ye Xuan's immortal world, moving toward the edge, watching this movement, it is clear that I want to get out of the immortal world, and then quietly pull out Ye Xuan's body, and escape from it.

This clearly does not dare to coexist with the headless baby body in the rhythm of Ye Xuan!

Realizing this, Ye Xuan's inexplicable feeling gave birth to a feeling of resentment. Even with the action of this headless baby corpse, the feeling of rejection is not so strong.

At least, because of the advent of this headless baby corpse, he has always been helpless, and this time he really encountered big troubles. This guy also has today, so that Ye Xuan feels very uncomfortable.

At this moment, Ye Xuan even gave birth to an impulse. I feel that if this headless baby body has been left in his own body, at least this way, the shameless soul of the blood, will no longer be arrogant. Get up, you can't get up anymore.

If this headless baby can eat it, maybe it will be able to drive it at will.

Just as Ye Xuan's mind extended these thoughts as Lenovo, the **** fine needle that appeared in the depths of his body, finally quietly swam to the edge of the immortal world, and the first time From the immortal world, he rushed directly to Ye Xuan's body.

At its speed, once you leave Ye Xuan's body, it is difficult to catch up.

At this moment, Ye Xuan almost suddenly subconsciously screamed: "Little devil, stop it, don't let the goods run..."

When the violent drink came out, the tiny blood needle that slipped out of the immortal world just happened to drill out of Ye Xuan's body, and Ye Xuan clearly saw it as a small needle, and it was heard in Ye Xuan's violent voice. At the same moment, suddenly and violently trembled, there was a faint temperament that quickly ignited.

If there is no accident, the **** corner of this soul is clearly because Ye Xuan's violent drink just gave him a hate. This is Ye Xuan's intuition, but he firmly believes.

In this case, it is even more impossible to let it escape.

Otherwise, with the power of this **** soul, who knows how to clean up in the future.

It's hard to come across a existence that can suppress it. This time, you have to conquer it!

One thought of this, just as the sound of the drink in Ye Xuan's mouth is about to come out again, from his body, a purple-golden sorrow has suddenly come out without warning, and is turned into a straightforward The tiny blood needle that just pulled out the body of Ye Xuan.

"Hey..."

The faint and fierce humming sounds, the purple gold pistil that has swept out of Ye Xuan's body, almost instantly wrapped the tiny blood needle, and then dragged it back, heavy Also pulled into the body of Ye Xuan.

This moment, Ye Xuan clearly gave birth to an illusion, it seems that from the tiny blood needle body, there is a desperate whine sound.

In this scene, the whole person of Ye Xuan is in a sluggish state.

The sudden return of his mind usually emerged from the black hole of life in the life. This **** corner of the soul is in a crushing posture, without any suspense, the nine-star with the hole in the sky. The scene of the scooping of the Emperor.

Now, in the face of the purple gold pistil cast out of this headless baby corpse, this **** horn of the original martial art, its performance, and the original nine-star scoop, there is no difference, just the same Can only be crushed, even if even the slightest resistance is not allowed to diffuse.

All of this makes Ye Xuan feel shocked.

What is the existence of this headless baby corpse?

What horrible back and origins does it have? Even the powerful existence of the **** corner of the soul, in front of it, no, just facing a purple gold that it has extended, has been so vulnerable, even the sense of resistance is not .

"Hey..."

Just as Ye Xuan's whole heart is shocked, the purple-golden mansions have been pulled into the body of Ye Xuan by the tiny blood needles wrapped in it, and then Dragged into the immortal world of Ye Xuan's body.

Throughout the process, the small blood needles trembled from beginning to end, emitting a faint humming sound. These humming sounds clearly reveal a deep sense of despair.

This scene, like abusive, gave Ye Xuan an incredible sense of absurdity.

What makes him even more amazed is that as this tiny blood needle is dragged into the immortal world of his body by purple gold, after a few short moments, Ye Xuan discovers the tiny blood needle that is all the blood. On top of its bright red blood needle, there is a bit of a tiny purple gold mark at the moment.

If you zoom in innumerable times, you can clearly see that this purple-gold mark is clearly a brand, and the shape seems to be a lamp-like mark, and the main body of the lamp is clearly a Head baby body...

At this moment, with the appearance of this headless corpse lamp, the tiny blood needle that had been humming was finally completely quiet, no longer humming, no more mourning, but also in this moment, originally wrapped in it. The purple gold pistil also disappeared silently...

Chapter 2927: system breakdown

With the disappearance of the purple gold pistil that originally wrapped the small blood needle, the tiny blood needle did not have any change.

Neither continued to try to rush out of Ye Xuan's immortal world and fled.

I haven't re-entered the depths of the immortal world, as I used to, and I'm hiding it quietly.

It seems to be honest and clever, so it stays in the immortal world of Ye Xuan, at a glance, there is no need to look for it, you can see its existence.

And it is like a small dot branded on the small blood needle body of the purple gold corpse lamp brand, it is so eye-catching, stinging Ye Xuan's eyes.

Although Ye Xuan did not know what the meaning of this purple-gold headless corpse lamp, but what happened in front of him, he basically understood the meaning.

Refining!

This blood horn of the horror of the horror is actually a moment of work, and it is refining by the headless baby corpse!

If this is not the case, it is absolutely impossible to be so honest and clever with the fierceness of this **** soul!

All this, although let Ye Xuan surprise, finally put this powerful and incomprehensible blood corner to conquer, but the same, with this **** corner of the soul without any suspense to be conquered, a greater fear At this moment, suddenly came out from the heart of Ye Xuan.

Because it is only through this, he has a deeper and stronger understanding of the power of this headless baby.

Such a powerful and unimaginable existence has now entered his body. It is a blessing or a curse in this matter. In Ye Xuan, it is really hard to say.

In addition, although this **** corner of the soul is refining, but the brand is on the top of the blood corner is a purple-gold headless corpse light, which shows that it is a headless baby body, even if it is manipulated in the future. This **** horn is going to do anything. It is also the convenience of a headless corpse, and he has nothing to do with Ye Xuan.

The only thing that made his heart feel a little bit stable was that this headless baby corpse was a secret and powerful horror, but at least so far, it has not shown any desire to be unfavorable to himself.

On the contrary, it also brought a lot of benefits to Ye Xuan.

For example, the previous tangled giant wafer ball formed by a myriad of commemorative crystal piles, such as the **** corner of the scorpion that has been refining.

Although the **** corner of the soul is not the refining of Ye Xuan himself, he cannot be driven by him. However, looking at the action of this headless baby corpse, the reason why it refines the **** corner of this soul is clearly to replace Ye Xuan. Control it, that is, it will eventually refine the blood of this soul, it seems to be used for Ye Xuan.

It's just that there is a headless baby in the middle, and Ye Xuan can't directly drive it.

But because of this, Ye Xuan wants to drive this **** corner of the soul, then he can not do without a headless baby, must rely on it, can achieve this drive.

Realizing this, Ye Xuan suddenly jumped again.

This guy won't be deliberate, right?

Deliberately refining the **** corner of the soul, and then let it reside in the immortal world of Ye Xuan in a generous manner, so that Ye Xuan clearly can see and feel, but can't drive it.

In this way, as long as Ye Xuan's eyes are the horrible power of the **** corner of the soul, then it must rely on this headless baby body, at least... it is impossible to drive it away.

To put it bluntly, the purpose of the other party's doing this is clear, and he has taken the initiative to bring together the endless many chanting crystals in the entire corpse of the corpse, which is like a bribe, and the movement of a bone directly into his body. It is exactly the same.

In the end, all the plots were made to please Ye Xuan, let Ye Xuan realize its value, so that it can stay in Ye Xuan's body and not be driven away!

But... what about hair?

A so-called headless baby corpse with such a strong background and a must-have background, is it so hard for Mao to rely on his own body to devote himself to helping himself and to please himself?

Everything that you own, except the phagocytic system, is far from the **** corner of the sorrowful soul. The **** corner of the scorpion is only retouched by it in an instant. It can be seen in this headless baby corpse. Words, the value of the **** corner of the soul, in all likelihood, may not have entered its eye.

In fact, in Ye Xuan's view, even if it is a swallowing system, for this headless baby corpse, I am afraid that it is not something that can be seen. In this case, the other party attaches importance to himself, so it is hollowed out. The heart is thinking about bargaining. What is the real reason for this?

As these thoughts flashed in my mind, the doubts of Ye Xuan's heart suddenly became stronger.

With his temper, without clearing this matter, there is no way to safely drop the heart hanging in the eyes of the blind man back into the chest.

At this time, with the tiny blood needle that has been refining and refining in the body of Ye Xuan, the immortal world is completely honest, suspended in a corner, and no change, the headless baby body that broke into it. It was also turned into a tiny purple gold stalk, with a strong sense of curiosity, wandering around Ye Xuan's body.

That feeling is like a child who has never seen a big world. Suddenly, he came to a large playground in a modern city. He looked curious and looked at everything and thought it was interesting. So, for a moment, I couldn't suppress the excitement and excitement in my heart, and I didn't need to be led by the adults. I spread my feet and strolled around.

And with this tiny purple gold stalked by the headless corpse, wandering around in his body, Ye Xuan originally hung the whole heart of the blind eye, and suddenly jumped wildly uncontrollably. stand up.

The other party is a child, but in addition, it is a strange and extraordinary baby!

From the appearance of this headless baby corpse to the present, Ye Xuan has always been able to feel a kind of deep baby innocence from its breath and movement, but in addition to the pure breath of this baby, Ye Xuan feels more, but it is still the fierce and powerful terror of the other side.

Don't look at it now seems to be like a pure baby in your body. It's a fun place to play around, but if you don't do anything well, the other side will suddenly shoot without warning, showing that it belongs to the murderous murder of the dead baby. One side... This is my own body. Once it is destroyed, isn't it that you are dead?

One thought and this, Ye Xuan is not calm at all, in any case, we must figure out the details of the other side, just now it has entered its own body, so that the phagocytic system identification may have results.

Thinking like this, Ye Xuan even quietly issued an instruction to the phagocytic system to identify this weak purple gold.

The next moment, the system's prompt sounded in Ye Xuan's mind, let him completely collapse.

Because the system tried to identify it, and as a result, it crashed and crashed...

Chapter 2928: Corpse tattoo

"Hey, the identification failed!"

"Hey, warning! The system crashes, needs to be restarted, needs to be restarted..."

"Hey, the system is rebooting! Progress 1..."

"Hey, congratulations to the host! The system restarted successfully!"

With the familiar prompts of the engulfing system in my mind, Ye Xuan has completely circled the whole person!

There is a stupid presence, the expression on the face and the feeling of the heart, clearly revealing a strong sense of unbearable love!

crashed?

The system just tried to continually swim in the body, as a curious baby-like purple gold stunned identification, the result, the system actually crashed!

This kind of thing, Ye Xuan did not say that he had encountered it before, and he never thought about it.

Powerful to the existence of a similar phagocytic system, it will also crash?

And it is not because of the problems of the system itself, but because of the identification of a certain existence, the first moment, there is no suspense to crash!

What does this mean?

The level of existence of the other party has already reached the level of being able to swallow the system even if it is just a touch, can it only collapse completely in an instant?

If this is the case, then...what is the origin of this headless baby corpse?

The origin of countless cosmic planes?

Endless time and source of time and space?

If this is not the case, how can its power metamorphosis to such a degree, the system touched, actually crashed directly to the crash?

With these thoughts flashing in my mind, Ye Xuan is not good for the whole person.

He clearly has a feeling, as if the crash just happened is not only the phagocytic system in his body, but even himself, including his mind and consciousness.

At that moment, with the phagocytic system in his body, it collapsed and collapsed...

At the moment, just as Ye Xuan's god, the system sounds that resounded in his mind finally fell silent again.

Although the system collapsed because of the identification of this headless baby corpse, it crashed directly, but fortunately, all the systems that were shocked and accidentally crashed, after the restart, everything has now recovered.

Ye Xuan did not even think about trying to get the system to identify.

But this thought was just flashing in his mind, and then he was immediately thrown into the clouds.

The phagocytic system is not a normal existence. Can it crash at random? Therefore, the kind of coincidence of luxury can definitely be ruled out, that is to say, the reason why the system crashes is absolutely because of this headless baby.

If this is the case, why do you know that the result is still the same, but you don't know how to try it again and again?

In the unlikely event that the second crash crashes, irreversible system damage that cannot be repaired, isn't it crying and crying?

In addition, with the strength of this headless baby corpse, the phagocytic system has just tried to identify it. The other party cannot be without induction. Although it seems that it is not the same thing from its current performance. Ignore it directly.

However, the first time people ignored it, it did not mean that it would still be the second time.

What if the second temptation directly irritated it?

Even if the other party doesn't suffocate themselves, they can do something about the phagocytic system.

The whole system just tried to identify it, and it completely collapsed. In this case, if people really want to do something about the phagocytic system, the consequences will be no doubt!

For this reason, Ye Xuan is not willing to be reluctant, and at this moment he is afraid to continue to use the phagocytic system to do anything for this headless baby corpse.

After all, it is a fierce and violent murderous baby corpse. He hasn't figured out the other's temper yet, and he simply can't act rashly.

So, in the next time, Ye Xuan can only be like the same mummies, stupidly standing in the middle of the corpse of the corpse, the heartstrings are closely watching the purple gold in the body. Mang's rogue travels.

Time passed slowly, unconsciously, and the small half-day work passed.

During this time, Ye Xuan never left, and the body shape has not moved. I have always concentrated on my own body, hanging from the weak purple gold that was made by the headless corpse. Behind the mansions, he wandered around in his own body.

For a little while, the faint Zijin Haomang not only visited every corner of Ye Xuan's body, but even Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea has not let go.

What makes Ye Xuan desperate is that the guy from the crazy mosquito king once said that it left a guardian brand outside Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea, and it was branded with the spirit of eight spirits. I can't enter Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea.

However, even the singularity of the madness of the madness of the mosquitoes is obviously useless. This purple-golden man is completely in the uninhabited situation. He slammed into the sea of Ye Xuan.

In desperation, Ye Xuan's ideology can only follow.

In the sea, Ye Xuan's six-level spiritual source nucleus, and the emptiness of the emptiness of Ye Xuan, which has not been used so far, has trembled at the same time after the purple gold stalks of the headless corpse lamp entered. Then, it exudes a kind of convincing atmosphere.

All of this almost made Ye Xuan desperate.

All of this, even to Ye Xuan, is an illusion, as if the whole person, from the flesh to the sea, to the core of his own spiritual source, to the wild magicality he passed down, in short, everything he has, all have been This headless baby corpse conquered the general, self... just like being refining by the other side!

Just like the needle that was previously turned into a small blood needle, leaving a **** horn of a headless corpse lamp!

Just as this strange thought suddenly floated up in his mind, Ye Xuan suddenly discovered that the purple-golden mans, and soon he took out his own knowledge of the sea, and all the way down, each with his own heart. The location is surging.

Then, after Ye Xuan returned to the gods, the purple-golden mansions had already reached his chest. With a fierce purple gold mansion suddenly under the masterpiece, the whole purple gold stalks thoroughly It disappeared in his body.

At the same time, Ye Xuan's chest on the left side, which is the left chest outside the heart, clearly has a three-finger purple-gold tattoo.

A headless corpse light is exactly the same as the one on the **** corner of the soul.

Seeing this corpse light tattoo appeared on his chest, Ye Xuan was black in front of him, almost fainted on the spot, and his heart mourned for a moment: After the end, I really thought of myself as a **** corner... refining!

Chapter 2929: One hundred and eight supernatural powers

After some squatting, this mysterious headless baby corpse did not know whether it was tired or not. Finally, it turned into a purple-gold tattoo with a headless corpse lamp, which was branded in the left chest position of Ye Xuan's body.

The first moment of the appearance of this corpse lamp tattoo, almost did not stunned Ye Xuan directly.

After all, the fierce and inexplicable **** corner of the soul, which turned into a needle on the needle of a small blood needle, is clearly an imprint of the same corpse lamp, the corpse lamp is branded, representing the soul of the soul has been this The head baby corpse refining.

Therefore, after the emergence of such a headless corpse lamp on his chest, Ye Xuan almost thought that he was refining the headless baby.

If this is the case, it's really a dog.

One of his own characteristics, which has the dual characteristics of a human monk and a magician, was refining as a magic weapon by a deadly headless baby corpse. The matter spread and died.

However, after Ye Xuan's initial shock, the heart-wrenching mind quickly calmed down again.

Obviously, although the headless corpse lamp that appears in the chest position is exactly the same as that on the body of the **** horn, the meaning it represents is obviously completely different.

If you are really refining this headless baby, how can there be a free self-awareness? I am afraid that I have long since become a similar to my own magic slave.

That being the case, there is no need to worry too much. The headless corpse lamp that appears in the chest should be just a way for the headless baby to attach to himself.

Let it be a tattoo of a headless corpse in the chest. It's always like a smattering of purple gold, and it's better to wander around in your body.

I thought about it, and Ye Xuan almost pulled out the whole heart from the eyes of the blind man, and suddenly fell back to the chest.

Although he is still ignorant of this headless baby, now it seems that the other party is at least not malicious. If so, then it can only be temporarily ignored.

Anyway, the barefoot is not afraid to wear shoes. This guy can easily crush and refine the blood of the soul. It is obvious that his origins are absolutely different. In contrast, he is only the second-order ants in the second largest realm. Existence, if you can't hide it, then you will be safe when you come.

There is a saying that is very good. When * is coming, but you can't resist, then close your eyes and enjoy it.

At the moment, Ye Xuan feels that he seems to be in this state and state of mind.

With the horror and power of this headless baby corpse, he can't resist it anyway. If so, then simply no longer worry about it, and enjoy the benefits that the other party brings to him. As for the sequelae in the future. Or serious consequences, that is also a matter of the future. It is also unhelpful to worry about this matter too early.

It can't change anything, and it doesn't mean anything at all!

With this kind of thinking, Ye Xuan simply no longer considers this headless baby corpse, but directly settles the mind and stabilizes the emotions, then begins to clean up the last pen that was obtained because of the headless baby corpse. Great harvest.

As the master of the whole body of the vast body of the corpse, this means of headless baby corpse is obviously extraordinary. Before Ye Xuan so much tossed, time-consuming and laborious, and finally harvested a lot of more mourning.

However, under the circumstance of this headless baby corpse, people just chanted a call, and the numerous ruins of the ruins of the ancient corpse in the vast corpse of the corpse, they automatically gave birth to a beautiful corpse flower. Moreover, the numerous chanting crystals on the flower disk of countless demon corpse flowers have been gathered in an instant, turning into a huge ball of crystallization, and being lightly held in the hands by the headless baby.

These massive amount of chanting crystals, and then the headless baby corpse became a bribe to please Ye Xuan, all of which fell into the hands of Ye Xuan.

Since he couldn't resist the other side, Ye Xuan began to liquidate these many chanting crystals after setting his mind, and gathered together with his previous harvest and counted them.

All the more mourning crystals together is definitely a terrible number. Ye Xuan spent a small half of the time to complete the inventory.

Even though he had already been psychologically prepared, the data he finally got, still scared Ye Xuan.

The total number of mourning crystals under the gossip is more than eight million. Among them, only seven

From this point of view, the quality of the enchanting nectar of the nectar of the headless baby corpse is still far from the result of Ye Xuan's own tossing, or the result of the corpse of the corpse .

This point is also reflected in the number of top-level crystallizations above the gossip.

In addition to the more than eight million pieces of the seven-inch and seven-inch ordinary crystallization, the total number of gossip silver crystals owned by Ye Xuan's hands has reached more than 800,000. This ratio makes Ye Xuan almost doubtful. Did he make a mistake in the data, so high that he could not believe it.

You must know that among all the crystallizations that he had previously tossed, in the millions, the number of sacred silver crystals was more than 30,000, which is 3 percent, and now, more than 9 million. The total number of pieces is more than 800,000 pieces of gossip silver crystals. This ratio has risen directly from the previous three percent to nearly ten percent now.

This is especially true for Jiu Jin Jing Jing.

Previously, among the total number of millions of crystallizations, there were only more than 2,000 pieces of nine gold crystals, the ratio was two thousandths.

But now, this ratio has tripled, reaching six thousandths, more than nine million, nearly ten million in the crystallization of the crystal, Jiu Jin Jing's top goods, there are actually more than 50,000!

Among these more than 50,000 pieces of Jiu Jin Jing, the perfect quality has been achieved, that is to say, in addition to containing a large number of high-level essences of crystallization, there is still a kind of wilderness and inheritance, and it is as high as one. One hundred and seven!

In addition, the one that has been taken away by Ye Xuanchun, the perfect quality that he has harvested in this corpse, is exactly one hundred and eight.

These one hundred and eight perfect quality Jiu Jin Jin Jing, in addition to containing a large number of high-level refined crystallization energy, more importantly, they also represent one hundred and eight kinds of powerful supernatural powers from the mysterious period!

Once Ye Xuan has finished all of them in the future, then Ye Xuan will sit alone with one hundred and eight kinds of ancient magical powers. If the matter is passed on, it will scare people.

Every creature in the era of the ancient times is blessed with uniqueness. The inheritance of the gods in their blood is the secret of the people, and Ye Xuan, but he can get one hundred and eight kinds. This matter is absolutely a space.

However, the journey of Wanli began with a single step, which is bound to have an endless and brilliant future. For Ye Xuan, today, it is only just taking the first step, and has a long way to go...

Chapter 2930: All bombardment

"Roar!"

"Hey..."

"Hey!"

.....

It was also at this time that when Ye Xuan had just finished counting all the chanting crystals in the body, as his mind was loose, he heard the sound of the huge crater mountain above it. A few screams and roars.

Earlier, he already knew that there were two starry beasts, because the roars from the above were different from the sounds of Li Xiao, but at this moment, the number of starry beasts who came to this place was obviously more, and Ye Xuan heard at least four different screams. With the sound of roaring.

These starry beasts are obviously the same as the four-year-old Biqing Tiger that had been smothered by Ye Xuan, but they are directed at the sacred crystals in the corpse. Perhaps they do not know that there are many mournings in the corpse. Crystal, but the whole corpse is rushing up at the huge crater above, and such a huge corpse flame column, anyone knows that there must be a change.

Maybe it is the sign of the birth of the treasure, so that these starry beasts will flock.

But now, after they arrived at their destination, they stayed outside the huge crater above, and they didn't fall into the corpse, but the reason is very simple. It's the same as the previous corpse. The change, vaguely revealed a concealed atmosphere belonging to the headless baby.

It is this breath that makes the number of star-studded beasts who are coming to this place all taboo, and did not dare to fall into the corpse in the first time.

Previously, Ye Xuan did not even hear their roaring and roaring sounds. This shows that they are still very jealous and fearful of the breathless headless body, and even the sound of roaring and screaming converges.

But now, because the headless baby corpse has entered Ye Xuan's body, and crouched down, converging breath, turned into a strange purple gold headless corpse tattoo, branded in Ye Xuan's left chest.

Then, with the disappearance of the headless baby corpse in this huge crater, the starry beasts who came outside, after they felt the taboo smell disappeared, suddenly screamed again.

Listening to them is more violent than a screaming roar, this is clearly the rhythm that has been stunned and will soon rush into the huge crater and fall into the corpse.

"I don't know the **** corner of the soul that has become honest. I have the ability to drive without the help of the headless baby body..."

Realizing that the war is imminent, Ye Xuanzhong immediately flashed a brilliance. If at this time, he would probably choose to directly open the perfect oscillation skills, completely hide his body and breath, and then sneak out of the corpse. Looking for opportunities to take the opportunity to look forward to.

But now, it is obviously impossible for Ye Xuan to make such a choice.

There is such a terrible existence in the body of his own body. Just the breath is released, so that the above-mentioned starry beasts are all taboo, even the roaring and screaming are not dare to send out. In this case, Is it necessary to escape?

Although the headless corpse seems to have converged all the breath, it turned into a purple-gold headless corpse tattoo, branded on Ye Xuan's left chest, as if he was caught in a sleep, but Ye Xuan's heart is clear, he Know that as long as you use your power or spiritual strength to extend the headless corpse lamp on the chest and activate it, then the headless baby corpse that must be extraordinary will come in all likelihood. Immediately appeared again.

I can't beat it. If you can't do it, please help me. Now Ye Xuan is full of enthusiasm. For those stars and beasts outside the huge crater, there is no fear.

However, if you can not alarm this headless baby, it is naturally the best. At this moment, Ye Xuan mouth whispered in his own words, while already urging a spiritual force to extend to the immortal world.

In the immortal world, the **** corner of the scorpion that is turned into a small red needle is still quiet and incomparably suspended. It seems that there is still a slow self-rotation. Ye Xuan's spiritual strength in the past is close to the past, slightly hesitant. For a moment, then I quickly touched the other party.

The tiny red needle shook a little, but it didn't respond.

Although he did not make a very strong response, at least he did not attack Ye Xuan to extend his past spiritual strength.

Under the heart of the big pine, Ye Xuan even increased the infusion of spiritual strength, and soon, a small impulsive mental force wrapped the tiny blood needle, and the other side obviously struggled, but In the end, it was abandoned. Any leaf power of Ye Xuan wrapped it and dragged it freely in the immortal world.

As if I have already accepted my life, I have given up all the struggles and resistance!

Just as Ye Xuan's heart was smothered, he extended the spirit of the canopy that wrapped this tiny blood needle, but suddenly it moved slightly, clearly capturing the swaying spirit.

At the first time, Ye Xuan dragged the mental fluctuations out of the immortal world and threw them into the phagocytic system for amplification analysis. The results finally made him happy.

This kind of spiritual fluctuation is clearly a kind of branding, a kind of spiritual brand that can promote the blood corner of the soul that has been refining in the immortal world.

With this spiritual branding, Ye Xuan can definitely bypass the headless baby body and directly control the **** corner of the soul, so that it can be rushed out of the body to fight and kill the enemy.

But unfortunately, this spiritual brand is clearly a one-time consumable. That is to say, Ye Xuan uses it, and can only give orders to the **** corner of the soul. After the mission is completed, most of the opponents will still fly back automatically.
