Chapter 2931: Blood corner

With excitement, Ye Xuan even turned the figure into a flow, and the sky above the central area of the vast corpse in the foot of the film, flying into the sky, even the body shape has not been hidden, directly rushed to the top of the huge The crater mountain pass is half empty.

"Hey!"

"Roar!"

.....

Suddenly, I saw Ye Xuan appeared, surrounded by the mountain pass of the huge crater, and several star-studded beasts that had been crouching, and immediately uttered a roar and whistling sound.

Among them, there is a clear sense of provocation and arrogance.

Ye Xuan's heart is determined, and he's not afraid. His body shape is fixed. Just above the huge crater mountain pass, the height of the kilometer is just above the sky, and there is a touch of laughter in the corner of his mouth. Around these fierce roaring starry beasts swept over.

The starry beasts here are four heads. They are now divided into four directions in the southeast and northwest of the huge crater mountain pass. The body shape is also clouded and suspended in the sky above the peak of the peak, and the emptiness of Ye Xuan is basically at The same height.

On the left side, it is a giant bear with a human figure. The whole body is dark and the figure is as high as 100 meters. It is like a small mountain, and there is a strong and violent atmosphere on the body.

On the right side, there is a huge bluebird, which is also nearly a hundred meters wide. At the moment, the void on the right side is constantly hovering. From time to time, a pair of huge triangular eyes smashes the murderous to the extreme. The claws are also sharp to the extreme, faintly revealing red awns, there must be the power to tear the gold cracked stone.

As for the north side, it is a star-like beast that looks like a wolf beast. The only difference is that this star-shaped giant wolf is not only nearly 100 meters in shape, but also has a corner at the top of the head, such as the same round of the moon, actually still the month. White.

Finally, it is the south side. It is a weird creature like a jellyfish. It is black and translucent, but it can see that some black lightning is moving in the body. Flashing, there is no doubt that this strange beast that may be called the starry sky mother must have some kind of mysterious blood talent similar to Thunder lightning.

The four starry beasts, although different in shape, are equally huge, and the atmosphere that has been diffused from their bodies is extremely powerful, and Ye Xuan is only the second largest realm in the world. Obviously, there is no way to clearly sense their specific cultivation.

However, if it is roughly compared, in the perception of Ye Xuan, these four starry beasts should be similar to the four-year-old Biqing Tiger that was previously killed by a smashing bow.

In other words, these four starry beasts are all in the fourth stage of the ninth state of the original strength.

A similar existence, before only a four-year-old Biqing Tiger, has almost made Ye Xuan's head burned out, but now it is four heads together, if not for him, there is already a new encounter in the vast body of the corpse below, this In the first battle, he is simply a dead man!

"Hey!"

"Roar!"

.....

At the same time that Ye Xuan turned to the four starry beasts, the other party apparently clearly sensed the repaired atmosphere of Ye Xuan's body.

When they realized that such a small ambiguity in front of them was actually only the second moment of the second largest realm of meteor, the anger of a scorpion provoked by the ants, it was easy for the four powerful starry beasts to float at the same time.

Under the anger, these four starry beasts almost simultaneously uttered a scream of arrogance and roaring. At the same time, their figure was moved without any suspense, and they were facing the central crater After the Ye Xuan bombarded.

The black giant bear is the most direct, and the figure is swaying. Even if it is a punch, the offensive is simple, but the punch is blown out, but even the void is cracked, and the thunder and thunder is even more intense.

The huge green bird with the claws flickering and sharp red mansions is suddenly flapping its wings. The huge red claws are caught at the head of Ye Xuan. The fastest speed is the last one, but the most Arrived first, the blink of an eye has reached the 100-meter body of Ye Xuan.

The one-horned star wolf and the star-studded electric mother on the north side and the south side of the South are still in the same place, and they are not moving.

But from the moon-white corner of the head of the giant wolf alone, there is clearly a curved light blade like a crescent moon, which directly ignores the void, almost instantaneously, and directly comes to the hundred-meter shape of Ye Xuan. The speed is almost the same as the red claws that the giant blue bird has explored.

The last star-studded electric mother, also as Ye Xuan had previously speculated, clearly controlled the power of Thunder lightning, a black lightning flashed out of its body without suspense, also had the ignorance of the void distance. The horror character, when it appeared, has crossed a distant distance, and the moonlight blade issued by the starry wolf, one left and one right, entered the range of Ye Xuan's body within 100 meters, and then the head fell.

The four-headed starry beasts all have the ninth-order realm of the fourth-order orbital of the original point. At this moment, they have joined forces at the same time. They have been smashed to Ye Xuan, who is only the second largest realm.

This is clearly a crush without crush!

But at the moment, Ye Xuan is not worried at all.

With the power of the * corner of the soul, even the nine-star scooping emperor who has the tenth-largest realm of heaven and earth, has been crushed and killed in an instant, and the four ninth-order realm origins of the four heads at the moment What is the starry beast in the world?

With such a sense of self-confidence and inexplicable inspiration, Ye Xuan did not hesitate to even inspire the one-time use of the brand, so that it did not enter the body into a small red The soul of the needle is in the blood.

"call out....."

In the next moment, the small blood needles that have been quietly stood up all the time, and the moment they spurred from the immortal world in Ye Xuan's body, they rushed out of his body when they were half-baked. In an instant, it will rise in the wind, and during the suffocation, it will be turned into a huge blood-colored corner with a length of three feet, so it is so slopingly above the head of Ye Xuan.

"Hey!"

"Roar!"

.....

With the supreme breath of the * corner of this sorrowful soul, the four star-studded beasts that attacked Ye Xuan all around, launched a fierce and horrible sound without suspense. The figure is also like a conditional reflex, and I want to pull back in the first place.

However, it is obviously too late.

The * corner of the scorpion that lingers on the top of Ye Xuan's head is the hard-boiled smashing of the light-blade and lightning strikes of the starry wolf and the star-studded electrician. Then, there is no pause and suddenly trembles. When I head to the head, I will go to the starry sky with a big punch and go to the chest...

Chapter 2932: Inflammatory branding

"boom!"

An earth-shattering loud roar sounded, and the * corner of the nearly ten-meter-long scorpion soul plunged directly into the chest of the star-shaped giant bear without any suspense, exploding an endless air machine and rolling the wind.

Then, this black star-shaped giant bear with a size of over 100 meters, its huge body, is convenient for instant, and quickly dried up at a speed visible to the naked eye.

All the flesh and blood essences and repairs in the body are all turned into ruthless plundering in order to encourage the blood of the sorrowful soul.

In a short period of time, the black starry giant bear disappeared completely, turning into a smoky smoke, slowly drifting.

But the moment of the impetuous soaring blood corner, but did not stop there, after a sudden round of whirl in the void, directly tied to the red-clawed green bird that fluttered to the far side.

"Hey..."

The savage voice of sorrow screamed without a suspense, and the red-clawed blue-bird, which was swiftly swept away, was pierced by the * corner of the whole body, and then it was easy to breathe, and before Like the giant bear of the black starry sky, it was taken from all the flesh and blood, and finally turned into a smoky smoke, which disappeared between heaven and earth.

All of this is long, but in fact, the two stars in the middle of the original point in the middle of the sky have been fallen, in total, less than three times.

Such a terrible scene has already frightened the remaining starry wolf and starry electric mother. They also made a whining sound in their mouths. They seem to be begging for mercy, but they are not hesitating to move quickly. It's looting, and it's still in two different directions.

It seems that this will allow them to get a faint vigour in the desperate situation when the * corners of the soul are temporarily dragged by the other party!

However, they obviously want more!

Everything that follows is still like that kind of rapidity. There is no suspense in it. Although there are two completely different directions in the rushing, the extreme speed of the near-transient movement of this * soul is also a short three-degree. By the way, the last two starry beasts will be killed again.

The short ten-year interest rate is not enough, and the four heads have the ninth-largest realm of the starry beasts in the middle of the original point of the realm, and they are completely killed by this suspense.

Ye Xuan once again saw the supreme prestige of this * horn, but still could not help but be inexplicably horrified and trembling.

Too strong!

It's the same time to kill the nine-star sacred emperor with the tenth realm of heaven and earth. Now, as always!

However, it is such a very powerful existence. In the face of the headless baby corpse, it is so fragile, even the desire to resist and earn is not directly, it is directly suppressed and refining.

Only by this point, Ye Xuan couldn't help but re-think the horror of the headless baby corpse, and fascinated in the heart, secretly speculating on its true origin and background!

Presumably, even in the distant mysterious and ancient times, this headless baby corpse is definitely an amazing giant.

However, how did it fall?

It turned into a headless baby corpse, and from it turned into a purple gold headless corpse tattoo, branded on Ye Xuan's left chest to see, in the end, this headless baby corpse is very likely He was made into a similar headless corpse with his dead body.

Its headless neck is the flash of the headless lamp.

If this is the case, in that year, in the endless era of endless mystery, the endless mysterious era, and in the end, what a supreme horror exists, can actually refine this headless baby corpse into a horrible horror What is the headless corpse lamp?

It is a means of countering the sky to be able to enjoy this powerful baby body as a corpse lamp. What is the supreme style of the generation?

These thoughts flashed through my mind, and Ye Xuan, who was suspended in the height of a kilometer above the huge crater, was obsessed with it. His face was fascinating, just like the whole mind, it was already in this moment, and the dream returned to the ancient age.

"call out....."

It was also at this time that between the moments of shortness of interest, the * corners of the four original star-studded beasts were also smashed in the air in front, hovering. After a lap, with a savage sound of emptiness, he quickly rushed toward Ye Xuan's body.

The huge blood-horned body, which was originally close to ten meters, was also rapidly reduced in the speed of the eye-catching speed. At the end, when it arrived at the body shape of Ye Xuan, The * corner of Zhang's giant scorpion has once again shrunk to a small needle-like volume, like a touch of blood, and plunged into Ye Xuan's body.

And very skillfully returned to the immortal world!

Still suspended in the area where it was previously, slowly rotating, revealing a quiet atmosphere, it seems like everything just happened, just a dream of illusory...

"This is... is it over?"

Until then, Ye Xuan Fang returned from the hustle and bustle, muttered to his mouth, subconsciously glanced at the * corner of the scorpion that was re-introduced into a small blood needle. Position, heart, inexplicably have a touch of exclamation.

strength!

Everything is strength!

If you can have such a powerful blood horn, it will be so powerful. At that time, where is the big star of the river?

Even in the territory of the first universe, I am afraid there is no need to deliberately conceal the identity of his own human monk...

At this moment, Ye Xuan's heart longed for a strong idea, and it was firmer than ever. His heart seemed to be at this moment. With some kind of enlightenment, the mood, in the blink of an eye, became more peaceful. More ancient wells are not.

At the same time, in a corner outside the sea of Ye Xuan, but also at this moment, there is no sign of a rapid tremor that resembles rhythm.

Ye Xuan's body shape was shocked, and I didn't wait for my consciousness to immerse myself in the sea to inquire about it. My heart has already revealed a touch of enlightenment.

It's coming, it's still coming!

In the next moment, his self-consciousness entered the area of the sea of knowledge, and in a corner that was easy to understand overseas, he saw the spiritual brand of two embarrassing.

These two spiritual imprints are the things that the high priest of the black mosquito, Ashley, entered into the body of Ye Xuan.

It is said that once one of them is activated, it is equivalent to a full-strength strike by a former point-of-day powerhouse. It can help Ye Xuan to come to the magical star on the way, and escape from Zuo Licheng and Zuo Fengtai's father and son. Will kill.

At that time, when the murderous space fortress collapsed, Ye Xuan did not care to use this spiritual brand, so it has been retained.

But at the moment, the rhythm of the rhythm that comes from the corner of his knowledge of the sea is clearly another brand of spirituality.

According to Gray's bones, this spiritual branding is only when he entrusts Ye Xuan to come out of this sacred ban, or when Ye Xuan approaches each other, he will give birth to the induction, and the police generally remind Ye Xuan...

Chapter 2933: Calculation

At this moment, with one of the two spiritual imprints giving a general rhythm, Ye Xuan's face could not help but gradually become strange.

Previously, when the high priest of the black mosquito, Greyhound, mentioned this brand to him, it was clear that Ye Xuan was extremely confident and determined about what he said in this forbidden land.

In this regard, Ye Xuan did not agree at the beginning, but now it seems that this matter has been clearly said by the other party.

Only from the words of the gray bones, Ye Xuan had already speculated that the other party had started a deal with himself, and that what he brought out from the forbidden land of this holy demon should not be a kind of dead weapon, but it is the existence of a living body with the ability to move freely, or something similar to the spirit.

For this, the same has been confirmed!

After all, Ye Xuan has not moved at the moment, and has been suspended in the height of the mountain above the mountain pass of this huge crater. However, before this, the spiritual imprint of the sea edge in his mind has not been moving, but it has been transmitted at this moment. There is a rhythm, which can only explain a problem, that is, the existence of the black mosque, the high priest, is now just approaching this place.

With this in mind, the curiosity of Ye Xuan's heart was suddenly hooked up.

Unspeakable, his power of consciousness and spiritual strength are almost in sync, all of which are quietly dispersed into the body and spread out to the outside...

Although the speed is very slow, but this kind of extension to the surrounding is like radiation, but it is very meticulous. Ye Xuan has almost never let go of the grass and trees, slowly expanding the scope of the search, and concentrating on it.

At the same time, as the rhythm of this spiritual brand on the edge of the sea is more and more frequent, the frequency is accelerating. From the inside of the spiritual brand, there is also a piece of information that is automatically diffused and turned into a discourse. The voice of the black mosque, the high priest, is appearing in Ye Xuan's mind...

"Zhang Wuji, this discourse is that this priest is sealed in this spiritual brand in advance. When the spiritual brand captures the fluctuation of the spiritual power of the monster, when the rhythm is issued, it can be naturally decompressed and appears in you. In my mind."

"Before, the priest's commitment to you has always been effective. As long as you can bring the things that the priest needs from the sacred forbidden land, then I will keep you safe and smooth in the future, even treating you as black. The future high priest of the mosquito star will be cultivated. As for whether you can sit on the seat of the Son, the priest has never been hesitant. If he has the existence of the fifth-level spiritual source, he will not be able to pass the trial and be promoted to If the new son of the black mosquito is the same, it is too ridiculous!"

"As for the priest to bring you out of the forbidden land of the Holy Spirit, it was originally the last time you entered the forbidden land before the priest's number of times, and the things that were inadvertently encountered, but the time was wrong, after all, the chess was bad. The seizure of this thing coincides with the expiration of the month of January, and it can only be sent away without help, and it has always been quite awkward!"

"However, although the priest was not able to seize the object at the beginning, but the number of it has been close to the moon for a long time, his habit has been very well understood, so that you will be able to meet this thing."

"Everything is extremely sensitive to spiritual strength, and the higher the level of spiritual power, the more it sees the hunter, the more you have evolved into the fifth level of the spiritual core, then in the forbidden land The use of spiritual power and the spirit of the five spirits will surely lead to the initiative to approach."

"Never, this is not half the success. If you want to leave this thing, it is not easy to do with it... The * rabbit ghost is at the extreme, remember that there is no ten-degree grasp, absolutely can not act rashly, it is best to install I don't know if it exists in general. Only in this way can we be vigilant and wait for an opportunity to succeed!"

"With the micro-end of your first entry into the meteor, it is natural that you will not be able to capture this spirited rabbit. By then, you can do this..."

"Remember to remember, you must wait until you have a 10% grasp in your heart, otherwise you will be shot. Otherwise, if you are shocked, the dead rabbit is weak, and its sneak sneak is superficial, but it is extremely stunned..."

At the end of this discourse, the gray bones still left a smooth way to keep it in the heart of Ye Xuan's brain. If Ye Xuan had a good time, just stamp this spirit. Activation, directly to the so-called spirit rabbit spurt out, then, the entire spiritual brand can be turned into a spiritual net pocket, the target will instantly envelope, get away!

At this point, Ye Xuan will wait until the completion of the gray bones of the squatting, after the trial to complete the return to the black mosquito star, just hand over the captured so-called spirit rabbit to the gray bones, this matter, it is considered a cross!

All of this sounds like there is no problem. Gray Muller only encountered a sly rabbit in the forbidden land of this holy demon. It took a long time, but it was never successfully captured. Just as Ye Xuan entered the Forbidden City as the sacred son of the black mosquito.

And the level of spiritual strength is exactly in line with the requirement of attracting the rabbit. Therefore, the gray bones will ask him to do it, take the rabbit out, bring out the forbidden land, and deliver it to him...

Everything is natural and reasonable!

But I don't know why, Ye Xuan always thinks that this seems to give people a rather strange feeling.

Do not say anything else, just the degree of attachment and attention of the so-called sneaky rabbits, it is a bit overdone!

In the identity of his black mosquito priest, the ninth state of the original realm of the first level of the supremacy, its spiritual origin nuclear has undergone three evolutionary changes, and now has reached the fourth level.

All of this is brought together, and Grey Muller is so concerned about listening to his words. Is it just a so-called spirit rabbit that is extremely deceitful?

This is obviously unreasonable!

Just after a little analysis, Ye Xuan has already determined that the other side must be concealed from himself in terms of the origin and role of this deceitful rabbit.

Can the tribe of the demon tribe be so entangled that it can be as worthless as it is said?

For this, the gray bones should also be able to expect that Ye Xuan must be born with suspicion, but the other side is a conspiracy, it is expected that Ye Xuan absolutely can not afford this rabbit!

Not to mention that he became the Son of the Black Mosquito, and in the future he will still seek errands under the hands of Gray.

Just by the slight end of Ye Xuan's strength, if you want to arrest this deceitful spirit rabbit, you will obviously have to rely on the gray spirit of the gray bones to stay in the edge of the brain.

Therefore, after returning to the black mosquito star, if this spiritual brand is not handed over, it proves that Ye Xuan has already had a shot. At that time, even if Ye Xuan falsely claimed to have lost his hand, he did not gain any gains. Means, Ye Xuan, who is the Son of the Son, is always there. He has full confidence in the truth of the matter.

Although this calculation is no problem, in fact, everything is doomed to be completely lost...

Chapter 2934: Crazy rabbit

I can't count on the gray-bone, but I can't count it. Ye Xuan didn't even intend to be the saint of the black mosquito, and on the matter of catching the rabbit, he left the one he left behind. With the gray spirit of the road, people can at least come up with several different means...

For example, the forced stalking of the phagocytic system is one of them.

Since this so-called deceitful rabbit is not a high-level realm, then there is basically no possibility of failure in the encroaching system.

Compared to the gray spirit brand prepared by the gray bones, it is much more convenient and effective!

Just as these thoughts flashed through my mind, Ye Xuan quietly spread out the gods and spiritual powers. At this moment, almost a small figure was captured at the same time.

That is clearly a rabbit!

The appearance does not seem to be any different from the ordinary hare. The only difference is that this white rabbit, which is only a palm-sized one, looks very different in its body. The whole figure is shrouded in a canopy. In the magical fog, the red eyes are revealing a kind of endless deep meaning of confusion!

Demon!

At the heart of Ye Xuan's heart, he immediately realized what the illusory fog was entangled in the small figure of this white jade rabbit.

This is actually a demon-like jade rabbit, all of which reveals a mysterious and secret atmosphere.

In particular, its eyes are as deep as the most distant starry sky. It is blurred and unreal. It is the gods and spiritual power that Ye Xuan extended out. After a little overcrowding, it was inexplicable. Give birth to a feeling that you want to fall into the trap of not being able to call yourself...

It seems ordinary, but it is never simple!

This wiped out the heart and floated up, Ye Xuan suddenly became alert, and in his mind, he remembered the repeated words of the old grief. It is obvious that this jade rabbit is extremely cunning, once the shot is fruitless, I am afraid it will be difficult to have a second chance!

At this moment, this enchanting jade rabbit is only about 3,000 meters away from the huge crater mountain mouth where Ye Xuan's figure is located. With the power of swallowing system, the rate of success is still very high. .

In order to avoid change, Ye Xuan even if the phagocytic system in the body was connected, and the target was released to the system at the first time, and the command to forcibly swallowed.

"Hey, the lock is successful! Goal: The enchanting rabbit spirit! Forced to swallow... Lose the target breath!"

As the sound of the phagocytic system sounded in the mind, Ye Xuan's whole heart could not help but mention the scorpion eyes. However, just as the system prompt tone is about to indicate whether this forced devour is a success or a failure, the next The discourse has unexpectedly turned into a loss of target!

Ye Xuan was dumbfounded, and there was a kind of slamming punch, but in the end it hit the feeling of depression in the air.

After a short period of time, the gods and spiritual powers re-expanded, and it was discovered that the strange rabbit accidentally moved to the front of the system forcibly devour the skill, and suddenly moved in a different direction and reached another direction.

The distance has not changed, it is still more than 3,000 meters, and it is within the high success rate of the system forcibly swallowed up.

Yes, coincidence! It must be a coincidence!

It's just an inconspicuous bunny. It's not awkward. It's early on, and it's expected that the swallowing system will be swallowed up at this moment, so that at the most critical moment, it's suddenly moving. Changed the position and broke away from the system's breath?

That is obviously impossible, a dead rabbit, where is the big skill?

These thoughts flashed through my mind, and Ye Xuan quickly calmed her mind, and reluctantly released the target of locking to the body's phagocytic system again, and launched a command to forcefully swallow!

The next moment, the system's familiar tone, once again sounded in his mind.

"Hey, the lock is successful! Goal: The enchanting rabbit spirit! Forced to swallow... Lose the target breath!"

Ye Xuan was just mentioning his heart to the eyes of the blind man. He couldn't hear the last six words of losing his target breath. The whole body's strength suddenly vented again, and the kind of slamming fists slammed into the air. Feeling, coming again in an instant!

The second time?

what's the situation?

This dead rabbit is also very lucky, right?

The heart is still unwilling, Ye Xuan still comforts himself so much, this time, the blood and blood looming over the mood, took a little time to calm down again.

Then, Ye Xuan bit his teeth, and for the third time, he gave the target to the body's phagocytic system and launched a command to force him to swallow.

When the command was issued, his heart was easy to mention the eyes of the blind man in an instant...

"Hey, the lock is successful! Goal: The enchanting rabbit spirit! Forced to swallow... Lose the target breath!"

"puff....."

The same result of the thunder, this time, almost let Ye Xuan's mouth open a mouth of old blood, the whole face of the face can not help but gnash the teeth.

Damn rabbit, it is absolutely deliberate, three times in succession, how can it be so good for the next time?

This is clearly playing the fun of Laozi!

"I really don't believe it, just a dead rabbit. Can you really get into the sky?"

In the teeth and teeth, Ye Xuan's heart was also hooked up, and he whispered a few words. After a brief thought, he raised the hand and both the black mosquito and the black wind. The sacrifice was coming out.

"Booming..."

"Boom!"

.....

With the sudden emergence of the two space fortresses, Black and Black, Ye Xuan did not hesitate to open the main channel of the black light curtains of the two space fortresses.

The roar of the roads sounded, and the various forces in the Battlestars came instantly.

Thousands of black mosquitoes Warcraft!

Hundreds of thousands of Void Soldiers!

In addition to the return of the sea, the other five slaves outside the Devil's Thousands of Brigade...

This time, Ye Xuan almost exhausted all the strength of the troops in his hands. A large army was sprinkled in the void, and it was overwhelming. In the blink of an eye, the whole piece of void within a hundred miles was shrouded.

Opposite all this, the * bunny has always been crouching in place, squinting, and looking at Ye Xuan for a while, then turned to the top of the head like a cloud of clouds covered with countless mosquitoes and soldiers scouting a few eyes.

In the midst of it, there was a faint glimpse of a playful and awkward gloom, and suddenly the nameless fire of Ye Xuan's heart immediately slammed three points.

The other party clearly knows his intentions, and even plays himself three times in succession. In this case, there is no need to hide and pretend.

Ye Xuan, who was already in a state of ecstasy, had no signs of losing control. After the emergence of the army, he suddenly raised his hand and pointed to the strange rabbit: "Everyone shot at the same time, anyway... give me Just catch this dead rabbit!"

Chapter 2935: monster

"Hey..."

"call out!"

With Ye Xuan's order, the top of the head was covered like a large cloud of black clouds, and all of them rushed toward the strange rabbit.

Because the momentum is too large, the vagueness of this large piece of emptiness has been made directly in the vagueness, and there are countless faint and sharp voices.

For a time, the entire vast crater was over, and it was a scene of madness!

However, it is completely speechless. No matter how these mosquitoes, sergeants, and magic slaves are rushing to the right, copying in the front and back, the dexterous little jade rabbit can always completely close the captured net. Before, about half an instant in advance, I was able to sneak a void, and cleverly sneaked out from a certain place, even in a fleeting space, and escaped from the net!

Until the next round of big nets is about to be closed, all this is happening again and again very coincidentally...

It's a matter of two times, and it's been repeated for more than ten times. The situation is exactly the same.

In such a scene, Ye Xuan's anger in the void immediately jumped, and the whole person was mad.

A little dead rabbit, not only played him, but even the millions of his army under his command were all played together. If this kind of thing is passed out, what will it be like?

These thoughts flashed through my mind, and Ye Xuan only felt a loud noise in the brain, and the whole person's mind had a tendency to completely run away.

Not only him, but even the surrounding areas, covering dozens of kilometers of a large number of heavens and earths, countless mosquitoes and soldiers, and the magic slaves, the same is true.

In an instant, the entire area of the whole area rang through countless mosquitoes and screams, and the magic slaves were so violent and violent that they reached the extreme.

A crazy, chaotic...

Only the dexterous rabbit, from the beginning to the end, seemed calm and inconspicuous. From time to time, he threw a few times, took a distance, stopped, and then fixed a certain gap, and then swelled and swelled. And go.

In short, from the beginning to the end, whether it is Ye Xuan or his summoned to catch the rabbit's million mosquitoes and soldiers, the magic slave strong army, but no one can touch even a rabbit on this smart rabbit hair!

This scene is so strange and inexplicable, whether it is the fascinating flash and shun of the dexterous jade rabbit, or the madness and tyranny of Ye Xuan and his tens of thousands of squadrons, everything reveals an incomparable atmosphere.

The former is easy to use, as if to open some sort of mysterious exemption mode, always invincible.

The latter, however, is clearly like being caught in an unknown state of konjac, all of which reveals an abnormal madness and violentness...

All of this may have been going on for a long time, and it may not be until the end of Ye Xuan and his tens of thousands of scorpions, all of which have been tossed and mad, completely collapsed.

It is also at this moment that a purple-golden smelt of Hui-Meng is extremely abruptly attacked from Ye Xuan's body. After swallowing, he immediately wrapped the dexterous Xiaoyu rabbit that turned and turned away, and then wrapped it tightly. Pulled hard and came to Ye Xuan's eyes.

At this point, everything is finally over!

"Hey!"

"Hey..."

.....

Only the tens of thousands of mosquitoes, soldiers, scoops, and the roar of the magic slaves still rang, and all the existences were all red with a pair of blood eyes, and if they were crazy, they would rush toward Ye Xuan.

To be precise, it is toward the dexterous jade rabbit that was wrapped in Zijin Pui and pitifully fell in Ye Xuan's arms.

It's like the tens of thousands of genius under the leaves of Ye Xuan, and this little bunny has some sort of incomprehensible blasphemy!

Ye Xuan is mad!

It was not until this moment that he suddenly woke up and found out that all this was so strange and abnormal!

Whether it is himself or the tens of thousands of mosquitoes and beasts, the army of the strong slaves, all of them are unknowingly ignorant, and the mind and consciousness are inexplicably caught in a state of madness and temper. It is like a fire, like encountering an unknown konjac!

And all of this, obviously, is the inconspicuous little jade rabbit that is being held in his arms at the moment!

Sure enough, it is a monster, it seems that there is no great strength, but in addition to the ability to escape, this thing, actually, has the temptation to make this horrible confusing energy, in an instant, every million troops are all in the middle, It's chilling!

In the end, if it was turned into a headless corpse tattoo, the headless baby corps imprinted on Ye Xuan's left chest couldn't be seen, and took the initiative to extend a purple-golden plump, without any suspense. This strange jade rabbit will kneel down in an instant, and the consequences will be unimaginable.

No one can predict when and how much this madness and chaos will evolve!

"Hey!"

In the heart of the heart, Ye Xuan, even if he urged the spirit of strength, raised his hair and screamed into the clouds.

With the screaming sound, countless mosquito beasts and squadrons and magic slaves who are rushing in all directions, all of them suddenly became shocked, and the madness of the squat gradually faded, revealing a touch of dreams. The feeling of waking up suddenly.

Ye Xuan did not delay too much, and directly ordered all the mosquitoes and soldiers, the magic slaves to return to the black mosquito number and the black wind number, and then, in the easy to wave, the two space fortresses directly into the body of the immortal world .

After doing all this, he only took a deep breath, squatting in the sorrowful interest, and the singularly jade rabbit that was still wrapped in the purple gilt of the headless corpse, carefully up and down Look at the ground.

This beast is definitely a monster, and its ability must be different. This point, except for Ye Xuan, has already experienced it personally, only from the purple-golden glory of the headless baby corpse, until now it has not been recovered, has been shrouded Wrapped in this small jade rabbit, you can see the clue.

Even the headless baby corpse is worried that it will be harvested, and it will immediately be taken away, which shows its surprise and extraordinary!

After some research, Ye Xuan finally had to admit that he could not see anything.

The bunny, which he was holding in his arms, always looked at him with a pitiful look. The twilight was as deep as the endless starry sky, and it seemed to reveal a sense of panic and uneasiness.

In desperation, Ye Xuan can only throw the rabbit to the phagocytic system to identify it.

Originally thought that since the other party is a living creature, then the strength of repairing with Ye Xuan is mostly unable to directly income into the body.

What surprised him was that he was successful only after a test.

Xiao Yutu, who was originally in his arms, was absorbed into the body by his mind without any suspense.

In the next moment, without waiting for Ye Xuan to issue instructions to identify the beast to the phagocytic system, the system's prompt tone has unexpectedly resounded directly in his mind...

Chapter 2936: Peeking from the source of enchanting

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Found the spirit of enchanting, is it refining?"

As the system sounded in his mind, Ye Xuan suddenly stopped.

The spirit of enchanting?

It is no wonder that it can be incomeed into the body. It seems that this guy's shape is a little rabbit, but its essence is not life, but a kind of sword-like existence similar to Ye Xuan's magic blood star tears sword.

In this case, nature can be absorbed into the body, even if Ye Xuan's current state of affairs is really insignificant, it has no effect.

But what is the refinery that the system says? This so-called enchanting spirit can also be like the brain of the devil, or the soul of the beast, as well as the sacred crystal, can be used to be decomposed by the system, extracting its basic energy, being captured by itself, turned into Have you used it?

If this is the case, then it's a bit of a toss.

In view of the horrible temperament that this enchanting spirit shows, the essence of the energy extracted after it is decomposed, it must be unconventional!

One thought of this, Ye Xuan heart suddenly jumped, inexplicably poured out a strong expectation.

Immediately afterwards, he directly issued instructions to the system to refine this enchanting spirit.

In the next moment, the system's prompt tone makes it easy to ring again in its mind...

"Hey, the lock is successful! The goal of refining: the spirit of enchanting! The beginning of refining: progress 1... progress 2..."

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Evolution has been read! Refining and chemical success! Get a enchanting one, is it immediately integrated?"

So fast?

Ye Xuan once again stunned, and then immediately immersed consciousness in the body. Soon, a dreamy, oval-shaped, but confusing fantasy, and seemingly fascinating, as if the line of sight Under the condensed earth, even the crystal whose whole mind will be completely trapped in it will be reflected in his sight.

This should be the enchanting that the phagocytic system says!

Is the eye of the enchanting spirit condensed like a refiner?

It can also be used to integrate with oneself!

Then, after the integration, can you have all the different abilities that the enchanting spirit has shown before?

It is horrible and perverted. So far, let Ye Xuan think of the escape ability?

And that is even more horrible. There is almost no trace when it is launched, and the scope of influence and the audience are huge enough to be unbelievable.

These two abilities, as long as they can get one, Ye Xuan can be satisfied.

And if both can be obtained, this time, it is simply a profit!

A strong and incomparably eagerly awaiting the sudden rise of his heart, Ye Xuan did not delay too much, the first time to the system to immediately immediately merge this enchanting command.

Then, in his mind, a familiar tone of the phagocytic system was heard.

"Hey, make sure the fusion! Goal: Enchanting! Start the fusion: Progress 1... Progress 2..."

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Fusion success! Ability to acquire: enchanting! Current level: Beginner! Current level ability: glimpse this source! Note: Active blood talent, success rate is unknown!"

As the two system sounds sounded in my mind, Ye Xuan quickly discovered that the strange crystals in the body disappeared.

However, his own eyebrows are suddenly a numb, looming, it seems that inside the eyebrows, there is something that does not exist before.

This feeling is very mysterious, Ye Xuan only needs a slight meditation, can feel the inside of his eyebrows, there is an inexplicable mysterious force flowing and rotating.

If there is no accident, the mysterious power inside the eyebrow should be the enchanting that has been integrated into him.

At the moment, this cockroach has become the third eyelid in the depths of Ye Xuan's eyebrows. Just like the legendary Erlang Shenjun's third supernatural power, it has some magical ability.

In addition, the analysis can be derived from the system's prompt tone. This enchanting, like the third eye-catching eyebrow, can obviously be upgraded. It has only just merged, so it is only primary.

In the future, the conditions and requirements for promotion, Ye Xuan will be able to know from the database of the phagocytic system.

Even if there is no data in this system in the previous database, as long as it is contacted by the phagocytic system or successfully identified new species, the database of the phagocytic system will update the data in the first time. Information is included in the database.

Therefore, for this enchanting, and the enchanting ability that Ye Xuan will combine, he can now search for new searches from the data database of the phagocytic system.

Of course, even if you don't want to search for it, from the system's prompt tone, the general situation of Ye Xuan has already been counted.

This kind of enchanting ability that has just been obtained belongs to a kind of active ability to activate and activate, but it is obviously not successful every time. The success rate of the system prompt tone is already clear. .

In addition, currently only the primary enchantment, the only unique level ability is the glimpse of the source!

The so-called glimpse of the source, because it is a mysterious ability similar to the eyes of the truth, can be through some kind of mysterious power of enchanting, to see the origin of things, and even trace its roots.

This should be the enchanting spirit that can easily avoid the swallowing system and swallow the locks once and for all. Even the thousands of mosquitoes, soldiers and the slaves that Ye Xuan summoned are overwhelming. It's always impossible to capture the root cause of it.

The other party has such a sneak peek into the source of blood, any capture action for it, it can trace the source at the first time, see the flaws, as if everything is placed in the microscopic environment, or similarly adjusted The effect of slowing down the lens.

In this case, people are naturally more comfortable, and they can easily avoid it every time!

As for the other talented ability that the enchanting spirit showed before, that is, unconsciously, Ye Xuan, and the tens of thousands of squadrons he summoned, have successfully carried out no trace. The ability to enchant the effect, in the enchanting state of Ye Xuan's primary state, obviously does not have.

It is estimated that at least after this upgrade to the intermediate level, it is possible to master!

Although this is a bit regrettable, but at least there is hope, Ye Xuan is quite satisfied.

At least the ability to trace the source of the source can be applied at any time.

Just don't know what the effect and success rate are?

So, after immersing consciousness in the body, developing conditional search in the data database of the phagocytic system, finding out the various details of the enchanting, and the specific activation method, Ye Xuan was impatient in the first time. I experimented a bit, and between the moments of action, I immediately opened up the enchanting power I just got...

Chapter 2937: Wild corpse

"Hey..."

With Ye Xuan's first activation and enchanting ability, a deep but high-frequency tremor was heard in the depths of his eyebrows, which made his mind faint, but this feeling quickly Disappeared.

It's almost like this, it's not happening at all.

But in fact, for such an instant, his enchanting ability has been activated without any suspense, and fortunately, this is the first time that it has been activated, and its power has unexpectedly succeeded. Show it out!

At the eyebrows, although there is no so-called third magical vertical eye, and there seems to be no abnormal change on the surface, but at this moment, Ye Xuan clearly and clearly feels that there is a mysterious and invisible Power is coming straight out of the depths of his eyebrows.

Because of the existence and power of this mysterious force, Ye Xuan has a clear vision and a huge change in the past.

Clearer, more translucent is just the most basic change, even if it is clear and translucent, even far beyond the extent of scrutiny with the power of the gods, or scanning with spiritual power.

But this is still not the most attention of Ye Xuan at the moment.

What surprised him even more is that at this moment, when he gaze arbitrarily toward the empty space in front of him, after a short few moments, because of the mysterious power transmitted from the invisible depth of his eyebrows, Ye Xuan's line of sight is like an analysis. In general, from the void in the empty space, I gradually saw some silk threads.

These silk lines are also distinctly illusory, and they are connected to each other and combined into a completely different chain structure, just like some incomprehensible mysterious patterns, revealing a strong mysterious atmosphere.

The law chain of space law?

In the heart of Ye Fu, the inexplicable words in Ye Xuan's mind floated such a string of words.

The void, under the ordinary naked eye, is indeed empty.

But under the enchanting gaze that has the esoteric traceability effect, it can see the essence hidden in the darkness in this empty sky with no surface!

These complex and illusory complex chains captured by Ye Xuan's vision are obviously the law chains related to the void law!

Although there are countless different legal chains, Ye Xuan can't even understand one of his roots, but at least he has the ability to see it all.

This kind of insight, for the mystery of the enlightenment of the void rule in the future, will obviously have a magical effect similar to cheating.

And this is just a kind of law chain that Ye Xuan sees. With the magical effect of the tracer, the emptiness can see the law chain. Then, other kinds of heaven and earth rules are naturally even more Down.

Of course, the law chain structure that can see these laws and regulations does not represent real understanding. In the end, this is just one of the unique conveniences, but if you want to truly understand one or more The law of heaven and earth is righteous, and Ye Xuan still has to start from his own realm, this is the king!

For this, Ye Xuan knows well, so even though at this moment, through the enchanting mysterious ability, I saw the law chain of the law of the void, but he did not feel that he suddenly and the essence of this heaven and earth law. The righteousness is very close.

On the contrary, the more I see at the moment, the mysterious and mysterious feelings of Ye Xuan on the law of void, the more profound and difficult it is, the more it is not at that level, even if it has such a means of cheating on the feelings of heaven and earth, Still can't start!

As soon as I read this, Ye Xuan suddenly sighed, and soon he took back this kind of meditation on the front of the void. Since it is not yet qualified to touch the level of this heaven and earth law, then it is best. Don't step in too early, so as not to be unsteady, but the current foundation is solid!

Soon, with Ye Xuan's intention to retract the emptiness of the emptiness in front of him, the system of the emptiness of the vain law, which was revealed in his sight by the enchanting esoteric effect, disappeared instantly.

Then, almost subconsciously, Ye Xuan slammed the past into the vast corpse of the deep crater below the mountain, and deliberately devoted himself to the meditation.

Soon, the vast black corpse below, under his enchanting glimpse of the original source effect, quickly launched a visually magical change.

In the corpse, there were a lot of dead ancient corpses, but with Ye Xuan, especially the headless baby corpse personally, the demon corpse was flooded with anger, and the ancient and deadly corpses were innumerable. The many sacred crystals in the flower disk were picked and combined, all turned into dreamy stars, and quietly dissipated.

Therefore, in this vast and endless corpse of the corpse, almost all the dead bodies of the ancients are no longer there.

Only the endless black corpse is undulating with the undercurrent in the pool...

But at the moment, with Ye Xuan's intention to pour into this corpse, it's the magical power of the enchanting glimpse of the source, the vast black corpse in the whole corpse, at this moment. In Ye Xuan's field of vision, the distinction is also rapidly changing.

In the original pure black, there are a lot of colorful colors and different colors, revealing an inexplicable lightness and transcendental atmosphere.

Just as Ye Xuan confuses the countless spots of the plaques that appear in the black corpse of the corpse, it is a sudden reminder of the familiarity of the phagocytic system.

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Found a lot of congenital power! Status: liquefied corpse! Level: Congenital essence! Is it immediately activated the immortal ancestral blood, open the starry dragon blood vein quenching mode?"

Hey? Congenital spiritual power? And still exist in the state of liquefied corpse?

Listening to the hints of the system, these innate spiritual essences in the corpse of the corpse, clearly defined for the purpose of quenching the body, forging the treasure!

And Ye Xuan's previous fusion of the royal family's immortal ancestral blood from the third world's human race science and technology camp, the star of the dragon's blood, is a unique star The dragon's quenching technique.

However, the technique of quenching the dragon, which is unique to the starry dragon, is obviously not refined at any time and anywhere, and requires specific conditions and various factors.

Therefore, after Ye Xuan's * inheritance of the starry dragon from the blood of the immortal ancestors, the dragon's quenching technique has never been opened.

At the moment, the necessary conditions for opening this quenching mode of the dragon are clearly available!

Judging from the system's prompts, this clearly implies that you immediately jump into the corpse of the lower body, immersing the whole body in the infinite evil corpse, and making it a drunken rhythm!

Ye Xuan was dumbfounded and stunned a few times...

Chapter 2938: The dragon is roaring

After some entanglement, Ye Xuan still has a heart-to-heart, biting his teeth and jumping into the vast corpse of the deep crater below!

Although the endless black corpse in this vast corpse is really incomprehensible, it contains a lot of innate spiritual power in the state of liquefied corpse. Ye Xuan should not be missed anyway!

Congenital spiritual power is rare. Although it is not the birth of the universe, the heavens and the earth have gradually disappeared at the beginning of the opening, and almost only exist in the legendary chaos. But it is the congenital thing derived from the birth of the universe, the last bit of chaos that remains after the opening of the heavens and the earth.

It is rarely seen in today's 茫茫 cosmic galaxy, and it is only this mysterious world that has been banned since the ancient times, but still remains in it. It is truly valuable!

In order to successfully carry out the practice of quenching the dragons in the dragon blood of the starry dragon, even if it is nausea, Ye Xuan must be honestly in the evil corpse of this vast corpse. Soak!

At the same time when his figure fell into the corpse, Ye Xuan issued an instruction to the body's phagocytic system to immediately open the star-studded dragon's blood quenching mode.

Then, the familiar system prompts will be heard.

"Hey, the starry dragon inherits and activates! The * quenching mode is successfully turned on! It begins to absorb the innate spiritual power, and the body is in the process of quenching..."

As the prompt sounded, Ye Xuan quickly felt the fascinating corpse around the body, and it suddenly seemed a little different.

Originally dead and invincible.

But now, Ye Xuan clearly distinguishes from these dead and chilly corpses, and it is very clear to sense a kind of fresh and lively atmosphere, the amount is very small, only a faint glimpse of a drop of corpse!

It seems that the phagocytic system activates the inheritance of the starry dragons contained in the blood of the immortal ancestors, and successfully opened the mode of quenching the blood of the dragon. At this moment, these extremely weak fresh spirits are rapidly approaching.

A glimpse of it, like the Wandaog Creek rushing toward the sea, they come together!

At first, only the corpse fluid on the side of Ye Xuan's body was affected by this effect, but it quickly spread to the surrounding area, and the range was getting farther and farther.

There are more and more innate spiritual powers coming from the rushing rushes, and they gather together on the way. At the end, they have gone from a faint glimpse to the spiritual flow of the fingers, whistling into the body of Ye Xuan...

Before entering the Starry World, Ye Xuan had also been exposed to a number of different quenching techniques. For any monk, the quenching body is indispensable, only the depth of the difference.

However, the techniques of the quenching that Ye Xuan had previously contacted, and the exclusive quenching technique of the dragon-like veins inherited from the blood of the starry dragon, are obviously quite incomparable.

As the exclusive quenching technique unique to the starry dragon dragon, its grade and level are obviously no doubt. The big star of the Qixing River, even if there is still the same level of quenching secrets comparable to it. But the quantity is definitely not too much, and there are only a handful!

However, the grade and level are higher, as long as it is the technique of quenching, it will absolutely not be able to withstand the pain of the body being forged and quenched, and the higher the order and level of the quenching secret, because of its better effect, Therefore, in the process of the body undergoing forging and honing, the degree of pain will obviously be stronger!

The drop of the immortal ancestral blood, which was originally accidentally acquired, has been thoroughly integrated into Ye Xuan's body. The blood of the starry dragon contains the essence of the sacred dragon, which is evenly reduced to fit into every gene cell of Ye Xuan's body. Going in.

At this moment, with the activation of the star-studded dragon's blood quenching technique, every tiny cell in Ye Xuan's body is fully mobilized without exception. They are extremely hungry and constantly plucking into Ye Xuan. The innate spiritual power, and then in accordance with some kind of mysterious way of running, urging these innate spiritual powers, unfolding self-forging and tempering!

The whole body, countless cells, in an instant, all in this individual independent way, at the same time launched a crazy self-refining process...

For this reason, a kind of great pain that has never been seen before, from the beginning, it has become like a fire and water, rumbling over Ye Xuan's whole consciousness of the mind, and it is almost impossible for him to fall into the collapse of his heart. In the midst of danger.

"Booming..."

With all the flesh and blood cells in the body, all of them are hungry and thirsty, as if a full-powered engine is in full swing, madly collecting the heaven and earth spirits that flow into Ye Xuan's body, and simultaneously launching self-forging and evolution, all of which are gathered together. Together, they formed a huge sound that was almost like a screaming scream. In Ye Xuan's mind, it continued to swell and roar!

"what....."

"what....."

The brain roars constantly!

The flesh is like being divided into countless individual genetic cells in an instant. This kind of pain is far from being comparable to the tens of thousands of flesh, and it continues every moment!

In the face of this kind of consciousness and the extreme pains of the two levels of the body, most of the body shape has not entered the corpse, only Ye Xuan, which is exposed above the neck, is almost maddened by the moment.

Full of hair, no wind and dance, the look is even more extreme, like venting, screaming, roaring!

Since this moment, the entire vast expanse of the corpse has been restored, and there is no suspense to fall into the turbulent state of the storm.

As Ye Xuan's painful screams of screaming and screaming continued to spread, the sound of the road rang out louder and louder. From his body, there seemed to be an invisible violent force that rushed into the air. The whistling hovering, gradually over the entire vast corpse of the corpse, formed a huge rushing hurricane.

Even the infinite evil corpse in the corpse pool was gradually stirred up. In the end, the black waves of the sky were rushing and rushing, and it was out of control!

The hurricane is raging!

Jingtao is churning!

In a short half-day time, the vast area centered on Ye Xuan's body shape has already smashed the most violent tsunami in the right, and the whole corpse of the corpse has completely boiled...

"Roar!"

.....

At this moment, Ye Xuan, who screamed wildly for a whole half of the day, seemed to have completely broken into madness, the roar in his mind and the tremendous pain in the whole body and in the body all the time, which made his consciousness fall into confusion. Like numbness, the dawn is faint and sluggish, violent and crazy, and the only remaining still consciousness is to scream and scream and scream...

"Hey!"

Daddy, in this road's constant roaring sound, there is a strangely bright dragon with a high cleft cloud, like a dragon roaring, revealing a vast and unspeakable mysterious pressure, rushing up , instantly spread through the endless void...

Chapter 2939: Abandoned ancient level emptiness

"Hey!"

Without warning, in the crazy snarl of the hysterical rumor that came out of Ye Xuan's throat, he discovered a dragon.

The high-pitched cloud and the mighty sky are like a real starry dragon roaring...

When the sound of the dragon screamed, there was a strong splendid golden jewel from the body of Ye Xuan. This moment, from the atmosphere of his body, there was a faint meaning of Longwei. When Ye Xuan merged the immortal ancestral blood into the body, the star giant golden dragon seen in the picture of the ancients was generally no different.

The only difference is that only the strength is different!

In addition, as the awning splendid and golden luxuries emerged from the body of Ye Xuan, the whole body surface including the face on the body and the body, also vividly reveals a layer of fine golden dragon scales.

Only very quickly, with the strong golden glory of the awning from his body suddenly retreating, this layer of fine golden dragon scales quickly followed the body of Ye Xuan, just like crouching and hiding. general!

For all this, Ye Xuan is completely ignorant.

At this moment, his consciousness is still in a state of almost fascinating madness, not to mention the golden dragon scales whose appearance is fleeting, even the bright and clear clouds The sound of the dragon, he has no impression at all...

Fortunately, this state is rapidly receding, because this time the quenching body has quietly ended at the same moment when the golden fine dragon scales flashed at the Ye Xuan body.

Although the whole corpse is endless, the congenital spiritual power contained in the corpse in the pool is very weak. In a drop of corpse, only a trace of the hair is only half a mile.

Even if you end up with the infinite corpse of the vast corpse, the innate spiritual power that can be extracted from it can only make Ye Xuan take a small step in the * quenching technique of the starry dragon. .

And the golden fine dragon scales that glimmer on the surface of the body are the glimmers of the first step of this entry!

At the moment, among the endless corpses in the vast corpse of the corpse, the innate spiritual power of the scorpion has ceased to exist. In this case, the dragon's blood sclerosing technique has automatically ended at the first time. The pain that lasted for half a day throughout the body and the body quickly disappeared.

Under the chain effect, Ye Xuan's roaring sounds of the blasting sounds, and at the same time, began to come to a halt. As a result, Ye Xuan has almost fallen into the mad self consciousness, and finally recovered slowly. Repeat the clear!

Until then, the road screamed in Ye Xuan's throat, and instantly wrapped up in a vast expanse of martial arts, bursting out of a huge crater, resounding through the whole world of the forbidden world, the endless emptiness of the sound of the dragon, finally Completely fade away, no longer smell...

However, although the time of the existence of this clear dragon in the void is very short, but the breath has dissipated, but even so, the sweeping six-eighths of the wild, but still disturbed this vast forbidden place Countless powerful existences in the world!

Along with the sudden resounding of this clear dragon, the entire forbidden world, in all directions, countless gaze simultaneously to the huge crater area where Ye Xuan is located, overlooking.

Among these gaze, in addition to the suspicion and confusion, there are still some ambiguous taboos and fears.

However, there are also a few breaths that are the strongest, and it is impossible to try to figure out the gaze of their realm. Although there are surprises and confusions, there is no feeling of jealousy and fear, even in the deepest of these eyes. It seems that there is still a faint gloating glory!

As if it is expected to pass the mysterious existence of this clear dragon, it will soon be a kind of robbery!

For this unknown robbery, they are obviously equally dreaded, so that with the sudden sound of the sound of the dragon, these most powerful gaze, after a long glance at the sound, almost immediately Once again, all the breath of the atmosphere was hidden, and it disappeared completely in an instant, as if it had never been seen before.

On the contrary, those breaths are completely incomprehensible to them. Their strength is weaker than the existence of a little bit, but they are completely unscrupulous. They have not only concealed their breath, but even extended their consciousness to the limitlessly, as if they want to verify or explore. what.....

Until the sound of the horrible roar of the almost skyrocketing blasts without warning, these breaths that exist in all corners of the forbidden emptiness are like a sudden shock, and they converge in a panic and quickly crouch!

"Booming!"

"boom....."

.....

The overwhelming horror of the roaring sounds has been repeated for a moment, and it has already resounded this whole piece of the vast world of forbidden land!

In fact, these horrible roars, such as the skyrocketing, are clearly spurred from the turbulent turbulence gap on the edge of the forbidden world.

At this moment, if the gaze is lifted up infinitely again, when the whole vast world of forbidden land becomes smaller because of the extreme distance, and becomes a small world, when the whole place is reflected in the line of sight, it can be seen Around the edge of this forbidden world, the whole world of forbidden land has been stripped from the normal starry sky, just like the emptiness of the world.

At the moment, it is clear that there is an invisible power of invincibility, with the momentum of a supreme stalwart, just like rolling down, from the outside, from the edge of this world, quickly inward Condensed!

It's just the rushing and rushing momentum that has spurred countless roaring explosions along the way, shrouded the entire forbidden void, as if Tianwei was coming!

Not only does it reveal a deep and distant atmosphere, but it also contains a strong sense of the void.

This power stems from a huge and vast void!

The base of the emptiness of the emptiness is hidden in the layer of turbulent turbulence outside the edge of the forbidden world. It existed in the distant and ancient times.

No one knows who the source of this ruined emptiness is from the hands of the people, but this person set up this huge emptiness in the vain separation zone outside the marginal world, but its purpose is obvious, no The slightest suspense.

That is imprisonment, trapping, suppression, and even killing!

In the eternal years of the past, this ruined emptiness has been activated many times. Every time, the power of the stalwart stalwart from the edge of the world has smashed a strong man without any suspense. Unparalleled life.

As if it existed, it was to prevent the emergence of a supreme creature whose power exceeded a certain limit in this forbidden world!

At this moment, this ruined emptiness of the endless years of ruin, the reason why suddenly activated again, the root cause, it is clearly the clear dragons that Ye Xuan screamed...

Chapter 2940: Upgraded again

The crater, inside the corpse of the deep inside the mountain belly!

As the blood vessels of the starry dragons ended, the pain of the flesh disappeared, and the roar of the brain faded. Ye Xuan fell into a confused consciousness and finally recovered.

Then, the familiar system prompts suddenly rang in his mind.

“Hey, congratulations to the host! The realm is up! The current level: the fourth stage of the meteor!”

"Hey, congratulations to the host! End of blood quenching, successfully open the dragon treasure!
Current level: entry level! Does it activate the bloodline talent that comes with this level?"

Upgraded again?

Ye Xuan was shocked and almost wondered if he still had some mental sorrow. Otherwise, how could even the auditory hallucination appear?

His cultivation is clearly defined as the third-order of the meteor field not long ago. This is only one day, and it has ushered in a second breakthrough. This speed is the cultivation artifact of the phagocytic system. Xuan Du still feels too exaggerated and illusory, simply no reason!

With such doubts, he even examined the consciousness even if he immersed himself in the body.

The result is no suspense, compared to before, his cultivation has really broken through, and the combat power has improved a lot!

In addition, this time, Ye Xuan still unexpectedly found a new uninvited guest in the sea of knowledge in the brain!

Prior to this, his knowledge of the sea has been occupied by three directions, the spiritual core is suspended in the south, the hollow medullary crystal is suspended in the north, and the golden bow is finally entered in the west direction.

Only the knowledge of the sea on the east side is still empty.

But now, the sky above the east side of the sea is also occupied, and a golden dragon scale is suspended there, slowly rotating, and a golden sacred atmosphere is revealed in the glittering golden glow!

Obviously, this golden dragon scale should be the unexpected harvest of the treasure of the starry dragon dragon blood, which he used to infuse the body of the dragon in the blood of the starry dragon. !

Although this golden dragon scale is inconspicuous, it is only the size of a nail, and it does not seem to be complete. Whether it is shape or texture, it shows a vague and incomplete meaning.

But what it represents is the complete bloodline of the starry dragon family!

Ye Xuan's dragon bloodline level is just getting started, but with the birth of this golden dragon scale, in the future, as he continues to carry out the blood quenching, the effect of blood evolution is achieved, and finally, when this golden dragon scale is completely complete, the dragon's blood veins passed down by Ye Xuan will also enter the great perfection.

At that time, it will not be impossible to transform into a starry dragon in the universe.

Moreover, the star-studded dragon's blood quenching secret technique not only improves the physical strength, but also has a significant effect on the monk's realm.

The reason why Ye Xuan suddenly unexpectedly ushered in the breakthrough of the realm of the realm, stumbled from the third-order meteor, to the current fourth stage of the meteor, which is clearly the dragon's blood quenching secret The effect of surgery!

It can not only strengthen the physical strength, but also enhance the realm of cultivation. The blood heritage of this starry dragon is really different, and Ye Xuan once again laments inexplicable.

In addition, every level of the dragon's treasure seems to have an unexpected surprise, which is basically confirmed by Ye Xuan.

Even the weakest entry-level treasures have attached * talents, not to mention the other levels of the dragon's treasure after the entry level?

This is the * talent of the starry dragon family. Just think about it, Ye Xuan is already excited.

With this excitement, his consciousness quickly retreated from the sea of knowledge, and at the first time he gave instructions to the body's engulfing system to activate immediately.

"Hey, congratulations to the host! Activation is successful! Get the star dragon bloodline magic: Dragon roar!"

As the system's prompt tone sounded again, the golden dragon scale hanging in the sky and the sea east of Ye Xuan, even if a large number of

When all the golden patterns disappeared, Ye Xuan had already reached the soul, and instantly realized the magical power of this dragon roar!

Obviously, the so-called dragon roar, in all likelihood, is an attack method based on the sound wave situation, but since it is called supernatural power, and it is still one of the supreme blood talents of the starry dragon, then even It's a simple roaring voice, and its power is definitely not too small!

It is a pity that although Ye Xuan's heart is itching, he did not dare to try it easily. After a while, he finally dismissed the idea of its power.

The terrorary consequences of the previous implementation of the sacred bow magical powers have still made him feel overwhelmed until now. If the dragon snarls are also this kind of urinary nature, if you use it to absorb all the power in your body in an instant, then you are not full. Supported, looking for trouble?

After the heart's stupidity was pushed down, Ye Xuan took shape and instantly plucked from the corpse pool. Then, he activated the enchanting once again, and opened the power of escaping the source. The corpse of the corpse below.

Soon, Ye Xuan determined that the congenital spiritual power contained in the corpse pool had been completely taken away by himself. There was no trace of a trace of it. At this point, this vast and innocent corpse has no more value.

Under the glory of Ye Xing, Ye Xuan, even if he vacated, emerged from the huge mountain pass of the crater, but his heart was secretly pondering. Since all the business has been done, then it seems that he should also look for Zuo Licheng. That guy, completely eradicate this hidden danger of the future!

Although the abandoned mysterious world is vast, the full-term trial of this trial is only seven days away. Under the full 23-day search, the speed of the hole is all over the place. The nearly half of the world is still completely ok, and the chance of finding Zuo Licheng is at least 50%!

As soon as I read this, Ye Xuan even made a decision, and when he was about to sacrifice the hole in the immortal world, the unexpected shock, but at this moment, suddenly came!

"Booming down..."

With the sound of a huge roaring sound that almost collapsed, the whole world, which was still clouded and light, was completely changed from the moment of change. It was completely different.

The sky turned black, the earth shook violently, and there was an invisible force of oppression, which seemed to be rushing from the endless distance of the sky.

Just as Tianwei came, only to die!

"This breath... clearly is the power of heaven! What happened? What happened?"

Under the sudden change of color, Ye Xuan immediately screamed, and this moment, he clearly gave birth to a feeling that has been locked in a certain mysterious force in the dark, a huge sense of life and death, let him chill
