Chapter 2941: Stunning blood

"Booming..."

Under the discoloration of the heavens and the earth, this whole world of forbidden land in front of Ye Xuan has been completely immersed in endless darkness in an instant, and the sudden change is too sudden, just like the real doomsday catastrophe, has come to the fore!

What is even more bizarre is that in the midst of the distant world of this dark world, there seems to be a mysterious force that has firmly locked Ye Xuan's air machine!

And this feeling of being locked in the air machine is clearly strengthening, becoming more and more clear, and getting stronger!

A small black mosquito scorpion trial, it is impossible to lead such a big move!

Is it your own personal reason?

In the change of color, Ye Xuan's mind swiftly flies and analyzes the source of the shock. Only in this way, it is possible to find a way to relieve the lock of his own air. Otherwise, once the air is suspected to be like Tianwei The terrorist will will come down completely, and the result will be no suspense.

Must die!

At this moment, with the feeling that the gasifier is completely locked, the feeling of Ye Xuan's heart will soon float again, and his face will be changed again!

Killing!

At this moment, he clearly captured a strong and powerful killing from the mysterious force that locked his air.

Just like the will of the world in this world, he must be completely wiped out, and his thoughts are firm, and there is not even any room for change!

"This is clearly the rhythm of the punishment of the day. In the end, what went wrong? Is it... the corpse?"

Under the guise of heart and tear, Ye Xuan's whole mood was completely chaotic. Although the faint feeling seems to have found the source of the cause of this shock, but then how to resolve it, but there is no clue!

"Hey!"

A mysterious sound of the heavens and the earth rang!

Then, on the top of the dark sky, there was a glimpse of the glory.

That is clearly a blind eye, a huge cyan eye like a mountain!

With the opening of this cyan eyelid, the feeling that the air machine was firmly locked, at this moment, Ye Xuan's heart was completely rendered to the extreme, and the numerous cold hairs on his body were uprooted. A feeling of life and death that death is likely to come at any time, covering your heart!

"Avenue Eyes?"

In the trembling of his body, Ye Xuan screamed and screamed at the sky, his face full of incredulous!

This cyan giant eyelid is clearly a concrete manifestation of the will of this mysterious world!

The so-called will of heaven and earth is actually the only way to gather all the laws of one world. The only way to form it is to be supreme, unable to move, and cannot be rejected!

The blue-eyed avenue appears in the sky, representing the highest will of this world. It shows that the existence of Ye Xuan is not for the world. Even the world's avenues of heaven and earth have condensed a avenue like the avenue. Want to personally shoot, completely wiped him out!

In the face of this crisis, the only solution is to escape and completely escape the world and escape from this world!

Otherwise, the earth is big, but there is no place for it!

Unfortunately, the one-month trial was only seven days old. It was only twenty-three days before Ye Xuan was sent away. The avenue of the avenue that has already appeared on the sky is obviously impossible to give him so much time. !

In fact, even if the trial period of this month has expired, Ye Xuan is absolutely impossible to wait for the opportunity to be sent away. The world's will of the world has already given birth to him, and how can he still take the initiative. Send him away, go out of danger?

To leave, Ye Xuan can only rely on himself!

However, although he has successfully branded a star-space coordinate that can expand the super-long-range transmission of the plane level in the depth of the life black hole, but before the promotion title of the phagocytic system is promoted again, Ye Xuan does not have the expansion position. The ability to transmit.

There is space coordinates in the sky, but there is no power to transmit!

At this moment, the boundless desperation has risen from the heart of Ye Xuan. In addition, there is a kind of strong and extreme grievances and helplessness!

"Booming..."

It was also at this time that the end of the darkness of the sky was at the end of the sky, and there was a horrible roar of the world.

From the huge avenue of the sky, a bonnet of the phoenix fluttering out, instantly turned into a vast star of the sky, the five fingers closed, with a crush of all destruction The trend, the rumble of the head came down!

"What about the will of heaven and earth? I already exist, why do you arbitrarily wipe it? I don't accept it..."

"what....."

In the face of this scene, Ye Xuan is completely desperate, what is the bow of the sky, what dragons roar, what is the soul of the blood...

All of this, in the sky, the crushing of the starry sky, can only be a joke.

Perhaps one day in the future, Ye Xuan also has the opportunity to grow to this step, can ignore the will of the world in one world, not only has the qualification to compete, but even crush the heavens.

But now, he seems to have no chance of such growth, and will soon die in the middle of the road!

In desperation, Ye Xuan's eyes are cracked, and if he is madly screaming at the sky, a sigh of suffocation and unwillingness will come out of his body, like a banyan tree, with a kind of derivation Determined and unyielding, rushing!

"call out!"

Daddy, from the body of Ye Xuan, a weak but extremely fast sound of breaking the air, suddenly appeared without warning.

At the same time, the brand was imprinted on the left chest of Ye Xuan, and the strange tattoo appeared in the form of a headless corpse, and it disappeared completely!

At the most critical juncture, the mysterious headless baby corpse unexpectedly showed its body. After rushing out of Ye Xuan's body, it was straight to the sky and the palm of the sky was smashing and smashing away!

I don't know because I felt the boundless desperation of Ye Xuan's heart, or because the sky was a huge star of the sky, so that it was completely angered if it was provocative...

In short, this headless baby corpse, at the most desperate moment of Ye Xuan, rushed out without hesitation!

All this happened too suddenly. Ye Xuan was completely unprepared. When he realized what was happening, the headless baby corpse had been rapidly transformed into a simple knives with a sinuous shape, wrapped in endless fierceness. The meaning of cruelty slammed into the starry sky of the sky.

In an instant, there has been no suspense!

Then, under the circumstance of the situation, this sleek, * knives, under the sudden rise of speed, spurred to the sky at the sky without any delay.

"Booming!"

The huge roaring explosion was quietly heard from this moment, and the giant palm of the sky, which was passed by the * knives, was like a sky, and it collapsed completely in an instant!

"It actually... can we compete with the will of heaven?"

In the face of this stunning scene, below, Ye Xuan seems to have just been thundered, the whole person is instantly petrified...

Chapter 2942: Fierce warrior

"call out!"

A * Changhong went quickly, turned into Changhong, and instantly traversed the sky. With a fierce and violent temperament and will, he went straight to the sky and sky.

Bloody murderers, roaring!

This is clearly the desire to kill the heavens and the earth, trampling on the world's avenues of the world!

"Booming..."

In the face of all this, the celestial sky that represents the will of the world and the world will be completely angered!

In the dawn of the cold and indifferent nature of the forest, it is clear that there is a strong anger at this moment, and there seems to be a hint of concealment between the vagueness.

A huge roar sounded, and as the avenue of the avenue opened several times in succession, a blue lightning flashed out of its eyes, with the power of destruction and destruction. The * knives that rushed to the sky!

"Hey!"

The fierce moment of the headless baby corpse was aroused, and the * knives of the body shape suddenly spread a fierce and fierce noise, and the whole body was full of blood, and the posture of the murderous murderers suddenly appeared. In an instant, he has accelerated again, and he went straight to those huge blue lightnings without fear...

"Card!"

"Card!"

The scene that let Ye Xuan completely lap the circle soon became apparent again.

With the sound of the seven-eight-sounding flash of lightning screaming incessantly, the blue-colored lightning that crashed from the sky at a high altitude, without exception, was stunned by the * knives between a few short breaks. All annihilated, turned into countless small blue electric snakes, no iron and blood to kill, meaninglessly scattered and opened quickly, disappeared!

This * knives made by the headless baby corpse seems to have nothing to do with it. The heavens and the earth are incomprehensible. Once they are violent, they will be able to cleanse everything.

Such a stunning scene, although once again shocked Ye Xuan's mind, but he clearly did not have the slightest surprise, but after a slight mistake, soon came a face of worry.

Just now, when the headless baby corpse became the * murderer, it was like a broken bamboo. In the short breath, the giant cyan lightning bolts broke into the sky and instantly collapsed.

Ye Xuan was keenly aware of a very subtle change, that is, the fierce * meaning of this master murderer. After it slammed and annihilated these giant cyan lightnings, it was clearly visible to the naked eye!

This is precisely the horror of the knives. It shows that in the previous frontal collisions, the headless baby corpse has not been damaged, but its strength must have been lost too much in a short period of time.

At least, this kind of murderer will come out, and it will be impossible for him to persist in killing it. It will not last long!

Even if this headless baby corpse is strong, it will continue to be exhausted, and the avenue of the road it faces at the moment is the embodiment of the will of the world and the world. Within this world, the avenue can be described as endless. The whole world is the power of it, it can be described as inexhaustible!

As soon as the * knives appeared, they launched a violent attack without any delay. They rushed away in the first time. The savage flames from the beginning to the end pointed to the avenues of the avenues, even before they annihilated those few The starry sky and the blue lightning are all just going all the way, and they are on the way.

The reason for this is obviously because the headless baby corpse has long realized the pros and cons of the sky and the sky in the sky. Although it has the ability to counter the avenues of killing, it is not enough. In order to win, the only chance is to smash the knives, and quickly hit the other side before the consumption of power is in danger!

With this fascinating realization of the brain flashing, Ye Xuan's whole heart was once again hung up to the eyes of the blind man, because the headless baby corpse turned the * knives into a series of stunning effects. The hope of the heart floating quietly, the blink of an eye quickly dimmed.

The blood-colored knives are obviously exhausted, and the * color of the blade that is full of fierce and violent meaning is a little bit faint, which is a testimony!

Could it be true that it is already looting today?

The boundless despair, once again shrouded Ye Xuan's whole mind, but soon, his shackles smashed a madness and unwillingness, staring at the depths of the sky's avenue It seems that there is a real anger fireworks that are raging and screaming out!

Even after all, what is going to fall?

Even the headless baby corpse can be so freely and confidently let go, why can't you? Even though the power of the face represents the will of the world in one world, but why does it allow itself to be desperately waiting for it, even if there is no war of fighting for death?

What about heaven?

Monk, this is just a fight against the sky!

"Hey!"

As these thoughts flashed through the mind, Ye Xuan suddenly gave birth to a feeling of openness and enthusiasm. As in the epiphany, the whole mind and consciousness was thoroughly communicated at this moment.

At this moment, as he raised his head and uttered a long, whistling sound, a strong and unrelenting strong warfare suddenly swept out of his body, stirring up the infinite heroic atmosphere.

"Even if it falls, Yemou can only fall in the unyielding battle, not desperately waiting for it! Is the heavenly will? Today, regardless of success or not, no matter what the outcome, Ye must be... against the sky!"

The sound of whistling is still not falling, Ye Xuan looked up at the sky, his mouthful and heroic anti-Japanese war, it has been violently screamed out, at the same time, accompanied by the hair behind the brain, messy dance, Ye Xuan's left arm, who did not hesitate to lift it up quickly, pointed to the sky, facing the * knives that would be swiftly attacked to the nearest avenue.

In the next moment, his left-handed palm, the empty palm of his hand, picked up, and the golden bow of the energy form reappeared without any suspense.

At both ends of the quaint and awkward bow, the two creatures that form a semi-arc bow are still full of anger, just like Ye Xuan's crazy roaring at the moment.

A bowstring formed by a number of fine gold threads twisted together, at the same time, spread out from the wide mouth of the two roaring creatures, quickly condensed into a bowstring!

On the other hand, there is clearly a golden energy arrow that appears quietly, and the arrow is already in the string!

"This bow is called Haotian! Yemou is fighting against the sky for the first time today, and he will use this bow to test the sky..."

As the voice of the voice in the mouth rang again, Ye Xuan's eyes deepened, and he began to scream out the strange golden glow. He raised his right hand and pinched the energy arrow that was already on the string. Pulled a full bow!

"Hey..."

The sharp tremor sounded, and the energy giant bow in Ye Xuan's hand suddenly burst into a fierce golden awn, and the blink of an eye quickly condensed, and all of them poured into the arrow on the bowstring, whistling away. Instantly across the endless void, coming to the end, the blue sky into the sky...

Chapter 2943: Heaven collapsed

"Hey!"

"Hey..."

The golden dragon's bow energy arrow is in the way of teleportation. From the moment of Ye Xuan's hand, the energy state of the sky bow whistling out, it has crossed the distant void distance, appearing in the sky without any suspense. The cyan giant eye was in front of him, wrapped in endless killing, and slammed into the giant eye.

In the sky, at this moment, there was a fierce screaming to the extreme. Although it was very angry, it did not bring a sense of life. It was the scream of the eye of heaven that was hit hard!

In addition to this, there is still a faint, but very exhilarating and cheerful cicada, which is the headless baby corpse that turned into a murderous blade.

"Booming!"

"boom....."

Then, the sound of a huge roar of heaven and earth suddenly exploded without warning, and the whole world shook slightly. This scene, before the appearance of the heavenly giant eye, the situation when the vision of heaven and earth first appeared, clearly It's already extreme, just like the end of the day is coming, the earth shakes and the sky breaks!

With Ye Xuan's cultivation as strength, even this golden energy arrow has almost exhausted all the power in his body, including the power of cultivation, the power of the spirit, and the mystery that is emitted by the hollow crystal in the sea. The power of the mysterious atmosphere, even the power of the golden dragon scales condensed by Ye Xuangang's blood-hardening secrets of the starry dragons, was also reluctantly taken away...

It can be said that except for Ye Xuan's vitality and the body's flesh and blood power is protected by the phagocytic system, even though there are some defects, all the forces and energy that can be used passively in his body have already been shot in this arrow. It was consumed by the wild gods and the sky bows, and it was the energy arrow of this breath.

Even so, it is obvious that it is still impossible to shake the sky of the sky at the height of the sky, although this blue-eyed giant eye is only the avenue of the mysterious forbidden world and the will of the heavens and the earth, but after all, it is the existence of the heavenly level, a avatar It is by no means a powerful creature. It can be hurt by all means.

At this moment, this huge blue sky is so angry that the insulting screams are just because it feels insulted and attacked by a weak scorpion ant, for which it is a kind of Huge humiliation that can't be tolerated.

And with the anger of the heavens, after a few suffocating suffocation, the sound of a loud roar has been heard. It is precisely because this represents the world's will and the avenue of the world. The misfortune that can escape the wounded by the * murderers of the headless baby corpse has been ruined.

All this should not happen. With the strong eyes of the heavens and the giant eye, the * knives of the headless baby corpse are sharp and sharp, and at most, they can only be forced to retreat for a while, even though the * knives are approaching the speed, but the heavens The giant eye ratio represents the will of the heavens and the earth in this world. It is the embodiment of heaven. If it wants to retreat and avoid it, everything is between the thoughts and turns. There is no suspense.

It is a pity that the arrow that Ye Xuan suddenly shot, although there is no real power of the heavens, but the kind of rebellious action of the ants provoke the heaven and earth avenue, the impact on the giant eye of Tiandao is obviously quite moving, screaming At that moment, the heavenly eye was like a god, and the original attention was fully locked in the attention of the * knives, and a little turned to Ye Xuan who shot the arrow.

Just in this moment, the blood-colored knives roared and screamed with sneak peeks. In the end, they unexpectedly fell into the eyes of the gods!

"Hey!"

.....

The huge roaring sound continued, and the blue sky of the sky was huge, but under the smoldering * savage, there was no suspense to split into two from the center. The speed visible to the naked eye is raging!

The mystery and power of the headless baby corpse, at this moment, was thoroughly rendered to the extreme!

With just one knife, I immediately split the avenue of the world's will and the world into two. So sharp and unparalleled, so fierce, what is it?

This question is the last thought that Ye Xuan's mind has crossed. The next moment, with an endless darkness, his eyes are black, and the consciousness of comprehensive overdraft due to force is finally completely collapsed. And then fell to the ground...

This result, Ye Xuan has already been scheduled.

The arrow that was shot before, he almost has the mortal ambition, and because of this, when the arrow whispers away, Ye Xuan's entire body and body overdraft is even far beyond the first time 陨天弓神通, when the arrow smashed the head of the four tigers.

Although it is far from a crisis, this time, if it is so comprehensively overdrawn, if he can fight without hesitation, he will want to recover completely, I am afraid that it will be far easier and easier than last time.

For this, when Ye Xuan suddenly opened the bow in his hand and felt the vitality of the body and the power of the body and blood, they were quite depleted, and they already knew it.

Even so, this huge loss far from the previous arrow still makes him feel relieved. Even though his conscious consciousness is in the next moment, he has completely fallen because of the horrible wear and tear of his body and mind, and he is fainting, but Ye Xuan's The corner of the mouth, but clearly outlines a smile of gratification, the face of the eyes closed, there is also a strong relief and ease, as if you want to render and open...

This arrow, although not really awkward, even the one that was cut into two, the smashing of the heavenly sacred eyes, is not directly caused by the power of this arrow, but Ye Xuan participated in this battle after all, After he entered the starry sky world, he was only just getting started. He was only the second-order faint strength of the second largest meteor in the realm of the world. He was able to face the heavenly giants of the world's will and the incarnation of the world's will, and launched the attack without fear. , have been able to die without regrets!

All the relief and relief, it is for this reason.

At the moment, Ye Xuan, who has fallen into a fainting state, is afraid that he has not yet realized that the state of mind changes before and after this arrow is shot. Soon after, when he wakes up again from the fainting, he brings it. What kind of huge surprise will be...

"Hey!"

"Booming..."

The dull heavy object slammed, but Ye Xuan could not feel the feeling of body slamming, almost at the same moment, since the Tiandao giant eye was cut into two by the * knives, it has been banging. The endless sky is sky high, and at this moment, a loud and loud noise is suddenly blown out.

Heavenly eyes, at this moment, finally completely disappeared without a trace.

This also represents the full fall of the will of the world in this ban, although this weakness may only be temporary, because the heavenly will, which was devastated by the destruction of the heavenly eye, will soon be restored, but at the moment, it The control of this party's forbidden land is clearly weakened to the lowest point in history.

then!

Heaven, it really collapsed!

Chapter 2944: Where to go from here

"Booming..."

The huge roar of terror is resounding!

Because the world of this world has been accidentally hit, the whole film is called the vast expanse of the forbidden land, the vast sky and the vast land, at this moment, all because of the lack of control of the heavens, it has fallen into a huge moment. In the midst of turmoil.

The sky, in the roaring, the horrible cracks of the turbulent flow of the emptiness of the road are constantly appearing, and then quickly bridging, and then, once again, open...

Such a scene, in the vastness of the vast sky, endless, looking at it, just like the vast sky, have been torn out of numerous cracks of varying sizes, the sky, really want to collapse!

The ground, in the tremor, is like a huge wild animal with a huge body. After sleeping in the depths of the earth, after the endless years, this moment, because of the skybreak, finally awakened, is about to break through the ground, turned out to be general .

Numerous mountain peaks collapsed, and countless abyss, but quickly turned into a series of canal avenues, because the original endless depths, is being smashed by the sandstone giant rocks Landfill is gone!

"Hey!"

"Roar!"

This piece of landslides, like the horror scene of the end of the day, completely stunned the hidden atmosphere, like a lingering sneak peek into the entire starry beasts of the vast expanse of the forbidden land.

The world is turbulent, and they obviously can no longer continue to crouch, even the most lustful beasts, at this moment, are forced to be forced out of the crouching nest, the body shape is big or small, the big is like a mountain, small There are also a few giant figures, but they have left the turbulent ground, and they have skyrocketed, suspended in the air, looking up at the sky covered with hollow cracks, overlooking the vast land covered by landslides.

Then, with the fear and uneasiness of the heart that suddenly disappeared because of somehow, all of them continued to scream and scream.

These starry beasts, including the four-eyed Biqinghu, which was previously bombarded by Ye Xuan, and the beasts such as the snow-horned blue wolf and the blood-clawed Qingpeng, are all just the world of this forbidden world. The trapped beast of the cage.

Among them, all the starry beasts that have been wiped out by the will of the world in this long-term world are not even powerful.

Perhaps, it is for this reason that the will of the world in this forbidden world will be closed to one eye for the end of their stagnation, and the right will not be seen.

It is really too weak, and it is impossible to evoke the meaning of this world and to smear the interest.

They are only the descendants of the blood who were originally thrown into this ruined cage, and some of the ruins of the ancients who have not completely degraded their fashions before they were completely degraded.

After experiencing the endless years, these starry beasts still exist today, even far from the original first generation descendants.

The pure blood of those powerful wild animals, after a generation of Wei Cheng continued, and this morning has been mixed, the descendants of these ancient creatures can be described as one generation is weaker than the first generation, and now, there is no longer a provocation. The strength of the will of heaven.

Even the qualifications have been lost!

Although in the long period of time after the emergence of this forbidden cage, there have been some * ancestors among the descendants of the ancient generations of the past generations, and extremely powerful existence.

But after the birth of the ruins of the ancient ancestors of the * ancestors, once their breath is sensed by the heavens of this world, then the will of heaven will come in an instant, and the blood will be wiped out.

And this is why Ye Xuan was suddenly locked in the world by the will of the world, and then activated to trap the forbidden land. On the edge of this world, there was a huge array of heavens, and a giant eye was coming. The root of its bombing.

Everything is because Ye Xuan uses the innate spiritual force quenched in the endless corpse in the corpse, and succeeded in obtaining the entry-level * treasure of the starry dragon family.

The starry dragon, even in the mysterious and distant wilderness period, is absolutely the kind of top-class existence of countless wild animals. It is only the entry-level dragon blood, even if it is breathless. After the sensation of the world in the forbidden world, this kind of iron and blood will be immortal, not to mention the moment when Ye Xuan was born in the treasure, he also subconsciously heard an earth-shattering dragon whistle. ?

It can be said that at the same moment that the dragon of the dragon screamed in Ye Xuankou, a large number of starry beasts crouching in all corners of the forbidden world have already expected the coming of the heavens.

However, these starry beasts, although counting in the beginning, have far guessed the result. For the first time in history, they represent the heavenly sect of the world's will and the world's will, that is, the huge blue sky. In a short period of time, he was cut open by a * fierce knives without any suspense, and then collapsed and dissipated.

Then, without waiting for them to be shocked by the shocking scene, the whole world of forbidden land was steeply plunged into such a raging landslide, and all the starry beasts were forced to hide and lie. After the nest, at this moment, squatting in the air, or looking up at the sky, or looking down at the earth, for a time, all in a huge horror and confusion!

The sky has collapsed, the land has collapsed, and where can I go?

It's hopeless that the lingering and squatting of the squatting, and this time, it's really being pushed to a desperate situation...

"Hey!"

"Roar....."

With the unprecedented deep despair, these starry beasts have suddenly thought of an old thing that happened tens of thousands of years ago.

At that time, there was a * soul, and the blood was highly anti-ancestor. The heavenly will of the world that was forbidden to the world was coming. When the blood was wiped out, the blood of the soul was not suspected to have the inheritance of the starry dragon. The existence of the general, has the terrorist power to defame the heavens and avatars.

But the blood of the scorpion is not simple. In the face of the glare of the heavenly eye, even if it can't resist, it has at least the ability to escape, and it has succeeded. It was accidentally entered into this by someone. With the help of the ant ant, the world of the forbidden world, it succeeded in capturing a stable void crack that could escape the cage of the forbidden land. Then, with the demon ants, they rushed away.

In the end, the demon ants successfully escaped safely, and the * souls, most of the bodies have already drilled the void cracks, but still at the most critical moment, will be locked by the heavens will be locked, instantaneous petrification, stuck in Among the void cracks!

Since then, I have stayed there, but it has become a trap for the crack in the void. It seems that all this is just the deliberate intention of the will of heaven.

Chapter 2945: Magic King Shake

It can be said that in the accidental accident before tens of thousands of years, although this piece of old land that had been in the banned state was inadvertently mistakenly entered by an ant-like genie, he escaped safely. In the process, he successfully abducted a large part of the soul that has a * soul that is highly reminiscent of the blood.

But since then, the countless star-studded beasts who crouched in this forbidden emptiness have not despised the will of the world, but have become more jealous and fearful.

Because since then, everything that the world will do in the world of forbidden land has become more and more strange, and it is simply a secret. If you think about it, you will feel it!

The huge body that blocked the crack of the void and turned into a statue stuck between the forbidden world and another unknown world. Since then, it has been banned from the heavenly will of the world. After being applied, it was transformed into a stable space passage that can enter and exit this forbidden world at any time.

Hundreds of years later, at the other end of the space passage, some demons and ants began to enter the forbidden world. Afterwards, after the tenth month, the world's will of the forbidden world was quietly Going away...

So repeated, unconsciously, it has already tens of thousands of years of sorrow!

There is no such thing as the will of the heavenly will to know the world of forbidden land, but it is precisely because of this that the countless stars and beasts who linger in this forbidden world are more afraid of the heavenly will of this world. Even the devils and ants who entered the forbidden world once and for all did not dare to touch them easily, and the fear of this was the calculation of the will of heaven.

Therefore, since the tens of thousands of years have passed, the number of demons and ants that have entered the world of vacant forbidden land is quite numerous, but apart from a few self-seeking dead roads, they actively provoke the existence of some starry beasts, and the rest are here to stay. After the rest of the month, they were all safely repatriated and left.

Among them, some of the devils and ants have even come more than a dozen times, but all the starry beasts in the whole world of the forbidden land have always been forbearing because of their jealousy, and have never taken the initiative to contact them...

But nowadays, as the will of the heavens is weakened by the manifestation of the celestial eyes, the whole world of forbidden land has fallen into a temporary catastrophe. The countless stars and beasts that originally crouched here have not even had a place to live. Although all of this is only temporary, the will of Tiandao, which was devastated by the shackles of the sky, will soon recover.

But who can know, after the recovery, will it be a complete * cleaning of the entire forbidden land void?

It is rare to encounter such a rare opportunity, Tiandao will fall into a short period of weakness, if you do not want to escape this opportunity, it is simply difficult!

"Roar!"

As the horror of the road rang in the whistling sound, from the vast expanse of the forbidden world, countless starry beasts, all over the place, rushed and unfolded, tens of thousands of years ago, The * body of the soul, which was calculated by the will of the world, was forbidden to be turned into a position where the statue was located.

This is clearly the banned creatures in the cages of the forbidden land, the rhythm of collective jailbreak!

At the same time, with the sharp and unparalleled Mo Ke Feng Feng, the * knives of the world's heavenly will, which is forbidden, are also circling in the sky, with a * meaning. Suddenly rushed to the earth, in the midst of halfway, the state of the * murderous soldier, which has been suffocating, has been quietly converted into a thick and * practice.

After the explosion of the earth in the blink of an eye, it was not hesitant to wrap up the body of Ye Xuan, who had fallen to the ground after fainting, and ran straight to the same direction...

Soon, some of the stars and beasts who were caught on the way by the blood color of Ye Xuan's body wrapped in this way, without exception, after sensing the breath of the * color, actually It is a change of color, and the figure is quickly retreating. If you are afraid of ghosts, you will not dare to approach!

Previously, Ye Xuan and this turned into a bloodless match with no knives, and suddenly fell into the scene of the heavenly will and the eyes of the giant eye, the whole number of starry beasts in the forbidden world can be seen by the eyes.

Even if Ye Xuan doesn't seem to be strong, but only the breathtaking golden arrow is enough to make all the starry beasts look at him. The blow is far more than the surface of Ye Xuan. The power of the meteor that is embodied.

What's more, although Ye Xuan has been fainting, but this time is now wrapped in his * blood, but he personally degraded the heavenly eye, and split it into two horrors without a suspense.

With its arrogance, even the most powerful stars and beasts in this forbidden world are not afraid to offend.

Fortunately, this fiercely savage blood color is thought to be known as the will of the heavens will soon recover, all the way came, but after encountering a lot of starry beasts along the way, hurriedly retreat in the hustle and bustle, but it never did. At the meeting, I was only trying to get out of this place, wrapped in the body that was fainting, always running fast, never stopped.

In this case, all the star-studded beasts scattered around the distance finally put back the quietly hanged hearts. After a little hesitation, they quickly re-opened their physiques, and they followed the lead. The blink of an eye has already rushed to the forefront of the blood color, like a beast army that swept through all directions, rumbling quickly to the space channel formed by the * body of the soul and the statue...

Among them, there are also a few figures of the demon ants, which are among the other nine black mosquitoes.

In addition to Ye Xuan, there are still nine trials, but at the moment, in different directions, like a frightened bird, they are extremely savage, but they are always steadfastly rushing toward the same position. However, there are only six points.

The other three people, apparently in the sudden looting of the world, accidentally fell...

All the creatures in this forbidden world, whether they are the starry beasts or the black mosquitoes, are all without exception, all of them are rushing toward the only way to escape from the place, while At the other end of the space channel, the magic emperor star, also suddenly issued a terrifying roar full of anger!

"Roar!"

"Damn, the Holy Spirit is banned from the ground, what happened..."

The Emperor was angry, and the Emperor City was not shaken, and even the entire Devil Star was completely alarmed.

Almost at the same moment, from the inside of this huge inner city of the emperor, a large number of statues of the strong devils appeared in an instant, with a sense of flustered, flocked to the valley of the royal family.

Chapter 2946: Holy magic

With the skybreaking of the mysterious void in the forbidden ancient cages, the forbidden land in the inner city of the emperor's inner city also swayed violently. Like an earthquake, the violent bangs of scalp and numbness were heard. sound.

What is even more bizarre is that it is only the valley of the forbidden land that has been affected. Even the outskirts of the valley, which is only a dozen miles away, are not the same.

Obviously, all this is caused by the eruption in the void of the forbidden land.

After all, the ancient forbidden land originally had a space crack connected to the place. Although the crack at the moment was given a sturdy and * statue, it was turned into a certain point of view. The * body of the statue is actually a medium in which the two worlds are connected.

Through this medium, the turmoil that occurs in the forbidden land void can naturally be transmitted.

However, the extent of the impact is obviously not very serious. At least, the forbidden valley has been shaken for a minute, but there have been no accidents such as landslides.

However, even if the valley is not affected too much, the entire demonic royal family is still completely alarmed, and the family has fallen into a huge panic.

This forbidden valley is extremely important for the demon royal family. Even the first generation of the demon emperor was created in the valley because of the creation of the whole demonic dynasty.

Apart from these symbolic meanings, it is only the real interests. The demon royal family has absolutely gained a lot of money every year from the forbidden land of the sacred devil at the end of the forbidden valley.

Although the mysterious world of the party is somewhat strange, if any of the demons enters once, then next time, they must wait a hundred years before they can enter again.

However, the total number of descendants of the entire Devil's Royal Family is nearly 10,000. That is to say, each year, nearly 100 Devils can enter, even if each person brings out only one more mourning crystals, get together. It is already a huge harvest of 100 pieces a year.

What's more, in addition to the sacred crystals that have infinite benefits for the spiritual power cultivation of the devil, there are various other kinds of creations in the forbidden land, any one of them, for the devil For the people, it is impossible to get from elsewhere...

In a word, the sacred forbidden land is the foundation of the demon dynasty, and absolutely cannot be lost!

All of the above are known to all the tribes of the whole demonic family, but in addition, there are some more important reasons, but they are not known to outsiders, but the whole demonic royalty, knowing the matter. They are only the devils of the past, and the two veterans who helped the devil in the demon royal family, only three!

The first generation of the emperor, before the disappearance of the Tao, left a handwritten book of his own hand, which is recorded in the important secrets that he knew about the forbidden land of this holy demon.

According to this handwritten book of the generation of the emperor in private, as a symbol of the imperial power, the first generation of the emperor inadvertently strayed into the forbidden land, but just met a terror. The soul of the blood is robbing the sky, but this repair is strong, but the power of the robbery is also terrible, it is unheard of, it is obviously unbearable.

Originally, the blood of the murderer unintentionally discovered the existence of the first generation of the emperor, realizing that he was mistakenly entering the place, which means that he must know the position of leaving the passage, so he put down his body. Actively consult.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the first generation of the emperor forced the other party to make an oath, never hurt the first generation of the emperor and its descendants of blood, and at the same time, once they resumed their cultivation, they must help them achieve great cause.

Although the blood of the soul is strong, it is hard to resist the smashing of the robbery, unable to display the tough means, and finally can only helplessly, and then the first generation of the emperor will accidentally inadvertently enter the space crack location here. It was revealed and wrapped in the body and quickly fled.

It is a pity that the first generation of the emperor finally escaped safely, but the blood of the first scorpion was bloody, but at the last moment, it was imprisoned by the power of the robbery, and the body was petrified, stuck in the crack of the space. However, its soul has escaped most of it.

Under the great damage, the soul of the soul is bloody, and with some magical power in the blood, the soul is turned into a blood horn, and the huge blood horn of nearly ten meters is turned back. Returning to the source of the road to the ancestral peak, let the first generation of the emperor smash an absolute safety place, set a ban, and place the blood horn in it.

As for how to recover, the blood corner of the remnant soul is self-contained. Although the soul and the memory of the soul are completely disappeared after the remnant of the soul, but in the blood corner, the * and * family The inheritance of the blood has been preserved, and after a certain period of time, it can re-grow a new consciousness, this consciousness, in the future, will be an equally powerful * soul.

Moreover, regarding the pledge of the first generation of the emperor, the remnant soul was also branded as a * horn when it was condensed into blood, and it was engraved into the blood of the blood horn.

Therefore, in the future, this blood horn will grow into a brand new complete blood, and then it will come to find the descendants of the demon emperor, fulfilling the original promise.

In addition, about the sacred forbidden land, a generation of demons from the mouth of the * soul, but also slightly aware of some, it is said that it is related to a ruin in the ancient times, squatting in the sacred land of the Holy Spirit All are the supreme powers of the ancient times!

They were all the Holy Spirit, but then somehow, among the countless Holy Spirits of the ancient times, there was a part of the devils. Therefore, after the war broke out between the demons, it was obviously the ancient devil, almost all of them. Was killed, and even the corpse, was thrown into the holy magic forbidden!

But these are not the keys!

The most important thing is that according to the * soul of the soul, after the * blood of his blood returned to his ancestors, he opened a part of the memory, and thus vaguely learned that at the beginning, all the evil spirits were destroyed. The ancient Holy Spirits, the reason why all the corpses of the demon spirits are gathered together, and in the same way, with a certain horrible magical magical technique, a wild and empty space is turned into a cage, and this is vast to terror. The void cage was exiled to the turbulence of time and space.

The real reason is that all the ancient sacred devils have been degraded, but they have been turned into the roots of the devil by the Holy Spirit, but they have never been found.

Once this material has been acquired by human beings, and it has grown up, the entire eternal glory of the eternal glory, countless planes, will be destroyed by one fell swoop, this thing is the ominous thing of the burial world!

Chapter 2947: Royals gather

It was precisely in order to prevent the unsolved roots of the burial world from being born, so this sacred sacred land was exiled to the endless emptiness...

However, the so-called ominous things of the burial world are nothing but the words of the victorious groups who claim to be the ancient Holy Spirit.

However, in the blood memory obtained after the blood of the soul was highly returned to the ancestors, it was clearly stated that the root cause of the so-called disaster was actually not the ominous thing of the burial world.

It is countless wild spirits, selflessly contributing their inheritance and blood, extracting a kind of heaven and earth law that is inherited from the blood heritage of these Holy Spirits, gathering countless, squatting together, and finally condensing one There has never been a great creation that can never be seen again!

This creation has even made the entire ancient sacred spirits of the countless planes fearful. Even the heavens of Hongmeng's universe have produced fears. Therefore, they will descend the heavens and sacred spirits, and deny those holy spirits as magic spirits, calling for the entire Hongmeng universe. The countless Holy Spirits are slashing...

It is a pity that once the great creation grows up, it is the heavenly will of the Hongmeng universe, which may be trampled by it. However, since it has just been nurtured, it is only a small baby with a baby consciousness. In the battle of the field, this great creation has also been shot, but in the end, it has devastated the Hongmeng universe and almost destroyed most of the Hongmeng universe, but it still died. It was attacked by the heavenly will of the Hongmeng universe. The dagger finally fell into the land of the ancient * battle that later turned into a sacred cage, and no longer sees...

In other words, the decapitated baby corpse is still in the forbidden land.

That is why even the heavenly will of the universe can be hit by the supremacy. Even if it is smashed, how can it be completely annihilated? If you can find the corpse, even if you can't regenerate it, you only need to get a little benefit from your corpse. By that time, it will be enough to sweep the current * eyes, compared with the ancient Gu Hongmen. Jokes in the universe of the universe...

At least, the helper group has got rid of the enslavement of the heavenly family and has since dominated the first universe. There is absolutely no problem.

Therefore, the more important meaning of the Forbidden City for the demon family is the mysterious baby body! Before the object is found, the devil royal family will never give up!

This matter is too great. Therefore, only three people in each generation of the demon dynasty are qualified to know, and once the three are accused of this, they will never be able to leave the magic star again, even if they are called by the celestial family. It must also be resisted by death. Otherwise, once you leave the magic star, if you fall into the hands of some strong people, you will be able to search for memories by the other party, and learn that this is a secret, then, the devil will be the best!

In today's genre of the devil, knowing this secret, that is, the current demon, and his two uncles as guardians of the forbidden valley, one of them is Mo Qigong, the other one, Ye Xuan Shang Still not aware of its name!

In fact, almost every generation of the devil's royal family is in power.

Knowing the secret of the three royal cores, the demon emperor led the entire demon dynasty, while the two royal family uncles, as guardians of the forbidden passage, were stationed in the forbidden valley all year round.

The core of the three royal families of each generation exists. Actually, the responsibility of the two people is to jointly guard the valley of the forbidden land. From this, it can be seen that the demon royal family is nervous about the forbidden land of this holy demon...

It is because this sacred forbidden land is so important, that is, after sensing the change of the forbidden valley, the contemporary demons, who usually have a quiet movement all year round, will be so shocked, suddenly so angry, even the vast and innocent The imperial star was almost completely alarmed.

Soon, in the trepidation of countless devils and powerful people in the entire Emperor City, countless royal descendants in the Emperor City rushed to the inner city in the first time.

Even the ethnic tribes who were sent to Devil Wei and Devil II were the first to come back.

This is also the ancestral training of the demon emperor. Once you learn that the sacred ban has a major change, any emperor, even if the family is going to die, must turn around and leave. He will go to the forbidden valley for the first time, waiting to contribute himself as a royal One pulse, the only one is the biggest responsibility obligation!

More than 10,000 people of the entire devil royalty, in addition to some old and weak women and women, and at this moment not in the existence of the magic king star domain, in a short period of time, the royal ethnic group gathered inside and outside the forbidden valley, has reached a number of horror More than six thousand people!

It can be said that almost all the forces of the entire demonic royal family have come.

At this moment, some of the brethren, or non-lower devils, are basically staying outside the forbidden valley, but there are many people in the valley, except for the two emperors, including the Emperor and Mo Qigong. The existence of some of the mainstays in the royal family is all inside.

At the same time, it is not a royal family, but some of the foreign ministers who are highly weighted in the imperial city have also gathered a lot, such as the high priest of Wen Xing, who is most favored by the contemporary emperor, and the demon of the magic city. The leader of the Imperial Guardian also has a six-level source nucleus, as well as Chanas and others who have been repaired by the heavens!

At this moment, the whole demonic family has been cultivated to the highest level. It is suspected that it has reached the tenth level of the world. It has a unique seven-level source nucleus, but it looks like a 40-year-old middle-aged and elegant middle-aged The man's devil, Mo, asked the sky, standing in the deepest part of the valley, away from the huge statue of the beastly beast, but a hundred meters away.

Mo Qigong and other two as guardians of the forbidden land, but also the emperor of the other two of the core trio of this generation of the demon dynasty, the separation of the emperor.

As for the other of the three emperors of the contemporary emperor, the Tianzhu Emperor, in the base camp of the Tianji nationality, it was taken hostage and left the magic emperor for many years.

This is also the biggest pain and shame of the Devils.

At the time of the succession of each new emperor, he must hand over an uncle who has the best relationship with him since his childhood. As a hostage, he will be sent to the Tianji nationality and will not leave for the rest of his life.

Nowadays, the old emperors who were sent to the Tianzu nationality in the past are dead and dead. They are still alive, and they are two, respectively, sent by the contemporary demon and the last generation of the emperor!

Behind the three, there are more than a thousand high-ranking royals, as well as some middle-class ministers, all standing in a quiet position according to different status levels.

Looking around, the whole valley is crowded with people outside the valley. Even if you open your eyes with a closed eye, you can at least get more than three important figures of the royal family. The scene is not grand, the momentum cannot be said to be great!

It has been more than ten minutes since the devil emperor arrived. In the process, he never said a word, his body shape has not moved, he has been frowning and standing in the same place, sinking into sinking...

Chapter 2948: Mo asked the day to catch the strong

In the ten minutes after the arrival of Mo Huang Mo Wentian, the shaking of the forbidden valley and the sound of the banging sounds have not stopped for a moment. This also means that the unknown in the forbidden land of the holy devil is always changing. All are continuing, right now, the consequences are unpredictable!

"A hundred years have passed, or have not yet entered the Forbidden City. In short, all the people who can go now, all come out to the Emperor, and are in the front!"

Listening to the sound of the bang in the ear, I felt the swaying from the feet, and the devil's eyelids were soaked. After all, I couldn't hold it anymore, and suddenly made a sound.

Inside and outside the valley, the imperial descendants and the middle and middle ministers who dared not take a breath of the atmosphere were almost completely scared. Then, some people were stunned and their faces were white.

This is clearly the rhythm of catching the Ding!

With the significance of the sacred forbidden land to the demon royal family, the devil must not sit and watch the accident in the forbidden place. As long as there is still a glimmer of hope, he will never give up.

Therefore, at this time, he suddenly summoned the royal family and the ministers who are currently eligible to enter. The purpose and meaning of the fools can be understood immediately.

However, although this sacred forbidden land is a good place, if its rules and regulations limit each demon person to be separated by a hundred years, they can enter again. All the presences in the field can hardly wait to run inside.

But that is just normal, but it is different now.

For tens of thousands of years, the Sanctuary ban has never happened to this kind of change today. This shows that the situation inside is absolutely not optimistic. If you go in, you will not be able to come out again. It is completely the rhythm of the meat buns and dogs.

Therefore, this weekdays make everyone's incomparable sacred forbidden land, and in a moment, they turn into a beast that is devastating, and no one wants to go inside!

At the moment, I heard the words of the Emperor Mo, and after I realized that I was trying to remedy the situation, my face was white and there was such a qualification, and now I can enter the strong at any time.

Among them, the ministers of the middle and the middle are not all, they are descendants of the devil's royal family!

After all, for the members of the demon royal family, this sacred forbidden land is equivalent to what is in their own home, so it is not anxious to go once, but the next time you have to wait another hundred years, even if this enters The qualifications have arrived, and the people of the Devil's vein will also make a perfect preparation before entering.

And those who are in the middle and the middle are not the same. For them, this is the place where the devil is the same, and now he is still the high-ranking dignitary of the demon family. When this qualification is entered, it is usually used immediately. , will not wait for tomorrow.

Therefore, all that can be entered now are all descendants of the devil!

Moreover, among the guys whose faces are instantly white, even some of them are the youngest generation of the royal family who have never been to the royal family.

They also want to make a perfect preparation before entering, so that we can guarantee the opportunity once in a hundred years and gain the most.

This group of people is also the most tragic, and finally managed to endure no hands, until now, the first time to enter the Holy Land of the Emperor, but it is clear to go to death, if you think about it, you just have to wait to take the block Tofu was killed on the spot.

What are you doing?

Among the thousands of people outside the valley, the face of the devils who suddenly became pale and white, there are more than one hundred, without exception, all of them are lower generations than the demons.

Among them, even the grandson of a demon emperor, the only son of the three emperors, Mo Zhuang, is the only son of Mo Zhuang, who has the fifth highest level in the fourth world. He is the most talented person among the grandsons. .

At a young age, he already has a four-level source core, and he is also the most appreciated by the Emperor.

There are even rumors that it is another thousand years later, when Mo Zhuangzhen grows up completely, and the contemporary emperor is tired, and intends to abdicate the retreat, the next generation of the emperor may not be from his few Choosing among the emperors, but most of them will let this third grandson Mo Zhuangzhen succeed Dabao!

This kind of thing is not without precedent. Even the immortal dynasty of the human race science and technology camp has always appeared. After all, no matter whether it is a devil or a human being, in the context of today's prosperous world of technology and cultivation civilization, To be a little taller, anyone can live for a thousand years. For such a long period of time, let alone the grandchildren, the great-grandchildren have already grown up, and the heirs are chosen, and it is not necessarily necessary to ponder from the first generation of children!

At this moment, with the words of the Emperor Mo Tiantian, the more than 100 young emperors who realized that the disaster was in a moment of pale face, but no one moved, but all of them will turn their attention to help. His elders cast their past, with the meaning of pleading.

Not asking for it, it's a little life.

It's a pity that even the elders of theirs are afraid to plead at this time. Under the wrath of the emperor, even their descendants may not kill one. The two are especially effective.

Therefore, even if these elders are hurting again, they can't bear it. They can only endure it. Some people even close their eyes directly in pain, or turn their heads to other places. They don't see their eyes, so they don't feel bad, anyway... ..the ending is doomed to change!

Time, it quickly passed for thirty seconds, and the sound of the coldness of the Emperor also rang again.

Although it is only a cold, but the warnings are very obvious.

Moreover, while the coldness came out, the dawn of the Emperor was also subconsciously looked at the third emperor, Mo Zhuangyu. Although this is his favorite emperor, the royal family survived and died as a grandson. The most important player in his generation, his responsibility is even heavier, and he should stand up at the time to reflect an exemplary role.

For this, the devil is actually very much looking forward to it.

In fact, he waited for thirty seconds. The third emperor, who was the most important to him, never took the initiative to stand up. Only this point, his heart, was already quite disappointed.

Fortunately, he felt his gaze at this moment. Although Mo Zhuangqi was once again in a bad face, in the end, after biting his teeth, he finally walked out and walked directly to the bottom of the statue at the bottom of the valley!

Although I stood up after I issued a cold warning, but in any case, it was the first one. Therefore, although the Devil's heart was somewhat disappointed, he saw that he had come out first, and his face was still slightly slow. I have revealed this.

There is no suspense in the following. Even the rumor may be that the third emperor of the next generation of the emperor has stood up. Are there other people who still have the courage to stay still?

So, in just a few minutes, all the more than one hundred royals, all of them came out, one face is a face of a dead aunt...

Chapter 2949: Someone is leaving someone to come

Soon, under the joint efforts of Mo Qigong and two guardians of the Forbidden Land and the three high-priests of Wen Xing, the * forehead of the scorpion on the wall of the valley was as high as 100 meters, entering the channel of the holy devil. The light curtain has reappeared.

The three emperors, Sun Mozhuang, have already accepted their lives at this moment. Anyway, the results are the same. To die, they must die.

Therefore, this time he did not wait for the Emperor to urge him. The light curtain of the channel at the forehead of the * soul appeared, and the first one immediately went away, and the figure disappeared into the light curtain and disappeared.

Seeing this scene, the Emperor Mo asked Tian heart to slow down again. The feeling of disappointment to him suddenly faded a little. After all, young, sometimes occasionally fainting, can still be forgiven.

In the same vein, the other 120 or so descendants of the royal family quickly rose up and rushed to the light curtain of the passage. Without exception, everyone's face was a pair. Desperate expression, my heart is even more sorrowful!

"Booming..."

"boom!"

With the departure of more than one hundred and twenty royal descendants, the shaking and roaring sounds of the entire valley continued uninterrupted and never stopped.

And with the entry of these demons, the atmosphere inside and outside the valley, unconsciously, became more depressed and dignified.

All the people did not leave, stood quietly, but did not say a word, all waiting for the results, but they actually did not know this, how long it will be.

Even the guys who just entered can survive and find out the root cause of the turmoil in the sacred land, but after doing all this, can they find the path to leave the secret, but no one can determine of.

After all, the devils who often enter the secret world, each can not wait to spend more time in it, after all, the next time has to wait for a hundred years.

Therefore, no one wants to look for a path to take the initiative to leave, and all of them are waiting for a month, and they are directly removed by a special law force that is forbidden by the Holy Spirit.

Time has flowed so slowly, and all the strong inside and outside the valley have been waiting so quietly and silently, but the atmosphere has become more and more dignified and depressed...

At the same time, the holy magic is forbidden!

Although all the devils who entered the Forbidden City's forbidden land did not know where the path connecting the valley of the imperial city's inner city was located in this forbidden world, but the countless stars and beasts in the forbidden world, There are no examples, all of which are well known.

After all, after so many years, the genie ants that entered from the outside were basically randomly appearing when they came, but when they left, they were all moved to the same place by the heavenly accident of the forbidden world. Then, From there, leave this world.

That place is the location of the crack in the space that year, and the location of the * statue of the now-death. It is also the place where the countless creatures who are in turmoil and chaos are all swarming away.

In fact, the countless stars and beasts in the entire Forbidden City have nearly 10,000 heads at the moment, all of which have come to this area where the space channel is located.

The sum of more than 10,000 is only one tenth of the total number of starry beasts in this forbidden place.

The other 90%, although still on the way to the side, but they basically have no hope of leaving.

After all, the location of this space crack is located at the edge of the central main continent where the corpse crater is located. The murderous beasts that have already arrived are almost all in the vicinity.

Those who have not arrived are all located in other continents, and they are separated from the central continent by a turbulent space of varying sizes.

Some can also detour the other mainland debris plates, and then rush to this side, and some, there is no chance to even bypass the road, or can only helplessly continue to die in the same place, or they can only fight for luck Let's take a look at the dangerous and vain isolation belt. Although it is no longer waiting for death, in fact, it is really no different from sending death.

So, if you don't come, basically it will not come again!

Among the ten trial sons, including Ye Xuan, only seven people came to this passage area at the moment, and the other three, in fact, may also be randomly transferred to the central main mainland through the void. Other continental debris plates in the stream.

Originally, as long as they stayed for a month, they will also be sent here, and then the direct access channel will leave.

But now, even if the three guys are still not dead, can you be lucky enough to wait until January to expire, it is hard to say.

In addition, even if it is really waiting for the month of January, at that time, whether it can be moved as usual by the world's banned world, it is also an unknown number. After all, this time, the will of heaven was degraded and it was a heavy loss.

Among the two existences that have fallen into their avatars, there is clearly a Ye Xuan. The three guys who come together with Ye Xuan may not be squandered...

At this moment, among the seven trial-makers who have already arrived in the passage area, except for Ye Xuan, the most desirable ones he wants to see are Hao Fangfang and Zuo Licheng. Therefore, even if the other three have not arrived, they will never be Ye Xuan, in fact, is irrelevant.

However, for all this, he is still in a coma, and he does not know.

His figure was turned into a bloodless, headless baby, and swiftly rushed toward the location where the passageway was.

It's like a cold, but like his body, there's a smog of * fog, looming over his body.

Right now, Ye Xuan is still three to forty miles away from the space channel in front, but only dares to quietly follow the tens of thousands of starry beasts, and another six trembles such as Hao Fangfang and Zuo Licheng. Frightened, a look of stunned color, quietly on the ground slowly approaching the trial of the saints, all in a farther distance, the most recent, also more than ten miles away, did not dare to rely too near!

The space channel in front is located at the foot of a giant peak. On the peak wall, the blood of the scorpion is not yet enough to be taken away, and the second half of the body is petrified.

Entering from the half-body's back, you can enter the space passage and reach the forbidden valley inside the inner city of the emperor.

It was also at this time that when the body was covered with blood and fog, the distance was close, but when it was more than a dozen miles away, from the wall of the foot of the peak, suddenly a ray of light was set off. The more than 120 royal descendants headed by the Three Emperor Sun Mozhuang, just entered at this time.

The things in the world are wonderful. At the same place, some people can't wait to leave immediately. Some people suddenly come in groups...

Chapter 2950: Sky anger

If they are in normal times, they will be sent to different areas as soon as they enter, but this time, Tiandao will obviously not be able to take care of this matter. Therefore, after the entry of more than one hundred royal descendants, they will all Gathered together, and, between the look up, I immediately saw Ye Xuan, who was covered in blood and mist.

And, in the far back of Ye Xuan, there is a huge starry beast that is faintly visible.

These starry beasts are obviously coming to this side at the moment, and they are all in all directions, at first glance, at least a few thousand in the distance!

Only one glance, naturally, there are not too many things. For example, these starry beasts are not rushing at full speed. Therefore, it's not a cold, and the scene in front of them gives people the feeling that it's clearly what Ye Xuan has done. The bad things, not only have they become like people, but they are not ghosts, and they are covered in blood.

Even the large number of starry beasts in the forbidden land of this party, all of them collectively angered, and the bang came from all directions...

This strange scene, in an instant, shocked the descendants of the royal family who had just entered the forbidden land of more than 120.

Even the world is obviously undergoing tremendous changes, the sky is full of cracks, the ground is constantly falling and falling, etc. They are all quickly realized after a sudden glimpse.

All of this, in an instant, made all the more than 120 royal descendants suddenly change again.

Almost all the people, their faces all immediately floated with an angry look...

Although they didn't know what was going on here, they couldn't even guess how this guy did it all in front of him, but everything in front of him is already obvious, and the general situation can still be analyzed.

This whole body is red, and the guy who makes himself a ghost or a ghost is bound to cause some kind of disaster in the forbidden land of this holy demon. Even the whole world of the forbidden world has fallen into a crack. Perhaps it is for this reason that the thousands of star-studded beasts that have been disturbed by silence will be suddenly furious, even when they rush out of the nest, they are chasing them.

If it is, then with his strength as a repair, there is really no possibility of attracting so many terrible starry beasts at the same time, not qualified.

That is to say, the horror of this forbidden world is completely tossed by this guy. He and others have entered this time. I don't know if I can live out. This is the first culprit!

This is exactly what the descendants of the royal family have reacted to, even though they are all glaring at the roots of Ye Xuan's glare.

With such a long delay, Ye Xuan, who was rushing to face, was approaching a distance. At this moment, it was only six or seven miles away.

Under such a close distance, and the * mist of his body is translucent, so among the more than one hundred and twenty royal descendants, someone finally exclaimed and recognized Ye Xuanlai, and then The other royal descendants also followed up with each other!

"Is it actually him? I said, how could there be a suspicious demon powerhouse suddenly in the forbidden land of the Holy Spirit! This person is one of the testers of the black mosquito, and he is naturally uneasy." The owner of the share, before he released the black mosquito pet beast on the inner bridge on the east bridge, screaming and defending the bridge, the magic emperor, I happened to be just across the river, saw a real ..."

"Is it this person? It's no wonder, that mosquito cockroach I have heard, but I haven't seen anyone, but then I heard a little leader of the Devil's Guardian said that this person is quite arrogant, since It's him, then it's no surprise that this big mess has been provoked in the forbidden land!"

"Hey! It was just a son of a foreign tribe, and it was only one of the trial-makers. I dare to be so daring. This time, not only is he guilty, but even the black mosquitoes are in the midst of a big disaster. It is."

"Yes, if the holy magic is forbidden, it will leave some irreparable changes. It is just killing this person. I am afraid that it is far from being able to calm the anger of the emperor. The whole black mosquito will be hurt by him! "

"Those things, don't worry about it now, haven't you seen those starry beasts getting closer? Let's take this guy down, but we haven't been randomly sent away this time, just behind the space." The channel, at the moment, has finally proved some situations. As long as you take the culprits first, you can turn back and cross the cross, at least you will survive!"

Upon hearing this, the descendants of the Emperor's Devils suddenly turned their eyes on, and they just went to marvel at the change that they had just seen. They didn't think about it yet. At this moment, they were reminded that they immediately realized that they had escaped. After a catastrophe.

Especially the three emperors, he is the future of the devil, the future is limitless, and now I know that my future has not died in this accident, the mood is so excited.

However, this does not mean that he will let go of Ye Xuan, quite. At this moment, Ye Xuan, in his eyes, has already become synonymous with these four words.

Previously, because of a slight hesitation, he was also well aware of the poor impression left by the Grandpa of the Emperor. It was because he felt that he was going to die anyway. It doesn't matter.

But now that he doesn't have to die, he immediately gets nervous. This is an important factor that will affect the future of the emperor's position. If the contemporary emperor is not optimistic about himself, the future of Dabaozhi Can you still fall from the sky?

In any case, it must be remedied, and this guy in front of him is obviously the best chance. If he can get him down by hand and go back to the matter and disclose it, he may not be able to let the grandfather's heart relieve his mind, no longer care about the little things before. It.

I thought about it, the Three Emperors and grandchildren even plucked out and smashed their faces, and they were even more stunned in their mouths. They were suddenly screaming with a little pretense: "The trial of the tribe of my dynasty outside the tribe Zi, actually committed such a daring crime, so chaotic thieves, everyone has to swear, I am the Emperor of the Emperor to the prince grandson, it is incumbent on you to leave this singer, you should not intervene, I can fight alone"

When the words are still not finished, their figure has quickly rushed out and blinked away.

The other ones who wanted to take out the other people from the royal family, all of them heard a bit of a sigh, and suddenly stopped their steps, but their faces did not seem to have a slap in the face, and their hearts were dark.

The fourth stage of the stellar stellar dynasty, the ant ant on the previous meteor, actually said that the words of fighting alone and fighting alone are simply too loaded. It is no wonder that even the names are taken so absolutely.

At the same time, about four or five miles away from the front, the body shape just rushed to the front of Ye Xuan's Mo Zhuang, but it suddenly changed, the whole person feels bad...
