Chapter 3181: Tian Qianzi

Ye Xuan simply sat down in the bamboo forest and fell into sinking!

At this point, he already understood who was set up in the transmission array. There is also a general guess about the origin of this treasure. There should be no doubt.

Obviously, the crystal big egg is the hand of the ninth house of the sixth house, the purpose is to get a powerful avatar with swallowing talent. For this reason, a whole star field has become a victim, in the air. The energy and the light and heat of countless stars are all invisibly swallowed up unconsciously.

Tianganzi clearly knows that this may cause problems. In order to ensure that the devour of the gestation can be smoothly returned to the sixth house, the one-way transmission array is set up. Who knows that the avatar is back, but It is not the one who left it in the body of the dust, but Ye Xuan.

This matter can be described as a major loss in Tianqianzi. It has plotted thousands of years of devours and swallowed the body, and lost the demise of Tianchenzi. How can it not be angry?

In addition, the female ugly ghost should be his daughter, but inadvertently seen by Ye Xuan, these new hatreds and old hatred together, anyone must be completely violent.

Although Ye Xuan has no fear, but now he is invisibly restricted by the task of exploration. In a month's time, he must stay within the scope of the protection of the sixth house of the tenth, and cannot take a step, otherwise it will not only be this time. The exploratory mission failed, and the system title that had already reached the third level will also be deducted one level and return to the second-level interstellar adventurer.

This is what he can't accept anyway.

Ghost knows when to wait for the next time to trigger the system title exploration mission again?

That is to say, even if the heart is depressed again, this month, he must be honestly staying in the guardian of the sixth house of the tenth.

And you have to find a way to find out what is the so-called inheritance treasure of the sixth house of the tenth, and take it to the hand, refining and winning!

This can be a human life!

The tenth house of the tenth is not the inn, but is it just waiting to be treated?

Tian Qianzi is the supreme power of the fifteenth state of the world. It is Lei Yuanzhu, and he may only be able to kill him. The headless baby corpse is the last card of Ye Xuan. It cannot be easily exposed. What about the sixth house, why is it that one day?

It is the four deputy palace owners of the Zhou Guangjing, and the Huai Dongzi was sent to the city of Heicheng. If there were no accidents, the other three had at least two still in the palace, plus The other six palace masters, Ye Xuan stunned, how to stay in this dragon pool for a month?

It is simply impossible to accomplish!

"The only way is to find out in the shortest time what the inheritance of the Sixth House of the Ninth House is in the shortest time before the discovery of Tianqianzi, and win it and win it!"

After some indulging, Ye Xuan smashed out a touch of fine mans, and he got up from his own voice. He decided to return to the talented pool of Lingquan, and started from the female ugly ghost, and asked everything he needed to know. .

This is not a technology camp. Although there must be technological treasures like warships, it is absolutely impossible for those things to be popular in the camp.

Therefore, Ye Xuan's personal starry-sky communication system is useless here. People don't have a star network that uses starry sky and super brain as the intelligent center. They want to invade their star network like in the tech camp or the magic star field. It's totally unrealistic to get information in a way!

At this time, Zhao Lingyi in the Lingquan pool had already changed clothes on the shores of the dozens of prostitutes, including the prostitutes. Seeing Ye Xuan's face turned cold and cold, a group of prostitutes changed their looks, and Zhao Lingyi also Slightly stunned.

"Jun brother, I thought about it so soon? Someone wants to be a child, and I am so happy..."

As I said, Zhao Lingyi's face, which was full of black and small dots, suddenly turned red and sorrowful. It was also * flooded in the water, and it was a shame that he did not take a look at Ye Xuan and covered his mouth.

"vomit!"

Ye Xuan feels vomiting quickly, vomiting in the stomach, ugly into this, can go out at night to scare the devil, actually still so eager to tweak, too toss.

No, it is necessary to destroy this ugly ghost, and the right to be harmed by the people, by the way, can also force out what is the inheritance of the sixth house of the tenth!

Although the strength of the female ugly ghost is not bad, it is also a black hole, and there are more than a dozen prostitutes around her. Although it is not as good as Ye Xuan, all the other people are not suppressed by the formation. On the surface, they are Ye Xuan, who is suppressed by the array method, does not seem to be an opponent, but he has a lot of minds. He has a great grasp. Once he has swallowed the talents, he will not be able to hold it. He will be sucked into a corpse.

It's a big deal to stop halfway and stop, it's a matter of leaving them a life, a hot hand to destroy flowers, Ye Xuan is somewhat intolerable, even though there is a female ugly ghost!

In the thought of this, his shackles instantly smashed a smear of masquerade and wanted to shoot.

Just at this time, a long laugh came out of the small courtyard: "Ha ha ha... Who wants to marry the deity of the deity? This is a happy event!"

The voice was degraded, and an extremely savvy figure had been pushed open. The stride came in. It was an old man, a purple robe, temperament and elegance, and the whole body was vaguely visible. It was far better than Huaidongzi, invisible. In the middle of the show, the singularity of the deaf, giving Ye Xuan a very strong sense of danger.

He even erected the cold hair on his back, even though it was an innate treasure, not a flesh-and-blood life, but a crystal form, but still had this feeling.

Everything is just because the other side's cultivation is too strong, even if it is only invisible, it may not be intentional, but it is still the case.

The supreme power of the Qiankun environment is really different!

Undoubtedly, this savvy and refined old man is the deity of Heavenly Master!

At this moment, Ye Xuan is already considering contacting the headless baby corpse, or immediately letting the phagocytic system transfer the Lei Di Yin in the body of the cadre in the body. In that case, once there is a change, the Indian ritual can be sacrificed at any time. Use Lei Yuanzhu to kill the Tianganzi, a few more, or have the opportunity to solve the other side!

"Hey, what are you talking about, shame!"

Didn't wait for Ye Xuan to take action, the female ugly ghost Zhao Lingyi had already crept, and she was not ashamed of the resort, and then turned to sneak a peek at Ye Xuan, licking her face and turning to a small house not far from the small courtyard. Wan ran away.

More than a dozen prostitutes looked at Ye Xuan with a look of eccentricity, and bowed to the old man, and then hurried away.

At this time, the sight of the old man, Tian Qianzi, has also been swept away to Ye Xuan. When he saw his first moment, his eyes twitched: "Well? You..."

At a glance, he saw the state of Ye Xuan, revealing a strong engulfing of the mother's breath!

Tianganzi suddenly realized that it suddenly appeared here. It turned out that this person actually robbed the original possession of him, but it was transmitted from the one-way transmission array.

The heart angered, and the face of Tian Qianzi changed into a cloudy and uncertain...

Chapter 3182: Door to door

"The treasure has been refining by you? The immortal dynasty... Xuan prince?"

In the gloomy face, Tianganzi endured the anger of his heart and tried to make a sound.

As the seat of the sixth house of the Tenth Heaven Palace, he naturally recognized the identity of Ye Xuan at a glance. After all, the appearance of this innate treasure is exactly what Ye Xuan looks like. This is no secret. Even the first universe of the devil's star field has also come to realize that the original black mosquito son, the emperor's imperial empire's emperor Longxuan.

This incident has also caused a lot of sensation in the Devil's Star Field. The Devil has a series of actions, which is a follow-up.

At the moment, Tianganzi not only recognizes the identity of Ye Xuan, but also clearly understands that he has already entered the innate treasure of the Lord and refining it into an avatar.

Ye Xuan hesitated and nodded. The old guy didn't seem to have a shot. He was already stunned by the slightest indulgence. This time, the dust and the Huaidongzi two people in the black city are not small, the key It was they who finally started the secret array and failed to calculate all the fleets of the size of the death star. Some people still fled, and the news could not be concealed. I fear that it was already spread.

Although everything in the Death Star whirlpool has not been known, how can a blind person not see that all this is related to the Ten Heavenly Palace?

At this moment, Tianganzi obviously bears the pressure from all parties. The Tianji of the first universe is also counted. It was originally the enemy, but the second universe, especially the question of the immortal dynasty, he Can not be ignored, and even even within the Ten Heavenly Palace, there will be different voices.

In the face of all this, Tianganzi has to give a confession.

At present, the treasure body he has tried has been refining by Ye Xuan. At this time, Ye Xuan's * is wiped out. This treasure can't be used anymore. Unlike this, it's better to do some articles on Ye Xuan's body. Pressure from the immortal dynasty.

As long as the science and technology camp is no longer pursued, the second universe will say it, and the doubts of the other nine heavenly palaces in the Tenth Heaven Palace will surely suffocate!

Since there is talk, there is no need to kill and kill. Ye Xuan's mind is big, and it is better to save a few Lei Yuanzhu. He has only nine pieces left, although he can go to the first universe. The starry sky and graves are condensed again, but that is not a trivial matter. The action is too big, and it is not something that you can do at any time.

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan smiled and sat down on the stone chair beside the Lingquan pool: "The fleets will not be killed by you...?"

The * innate defect, the imperial Xuan prince, turned into a small stutter, even if Ye Xuan has worked extremely hard, the tongue is still a bit sloppy, and he is full of depression.

"stammer?"

Tianganzi stunned, his face gradually became weird, staring at Ye Xuan for a while, slightly sinking, simply sat down, and Ye Xuan separated from the stone table, dumbfounded: "It seems that you have not tossed for a long time." The big advantage is that although the deity lost a devouring avatar, at least he got a good ride in the dragon. In your capacity, in the future, the benefits that can be brought to the deity, there are many..."

"But you, the imperial Emperor Xuan, abandoned the blood of the royal family, thought that he had gotten the treasure, but the result was a avatar that was not completely mature and had congenital defects. If you are stuttering now, you must not dare Going back to the immortal star? So better, peace of mind, staying with the deity of the goddess of love, as for the dynasty and the outside world, rest assured, the deity will naturally give you a confession in your name of!"

"This matter is also unintentional, and you and the dear woman, it is clearly a good marriage, a hahaha..."

In the big laugh, Tian Qianzi has already got up, and he raised a hand and shot it out. Ye Xuan was unable to prevent it. He had not waited for him to respond. This mang has already quietly entered.

"Don't be nervous. This is just a sign of the ban on the ban on the sixth house. You are the kidney of the deity. After January, you will be married to the coffin. Can the deity hurt you?"

"However, in this month's time, you'd better not leave the guardian's step, lest the deity should be misunderstood. In addition, the authority to ban the branding is very limited, although it allows you to walk out of the backyard, or even the whole The peak of the giant peak can be set foot, but it does not include the area outside the guardian squad."

"Don't make a mistake, otherwise it will lead to a big force to kill, but you are looking for it!"

"In addition, you didn't care much about the various families' fleets. Just though the matter has come to an end, it has not completely ended. Since we are all family members in the future, the kidneys will help the old man to help the incident. End!"

"Reassure, the entrance to the void is also within the scope of the sixth house of protection, with the ban on the ban that the deity just gave you, as long as everything in the murder is resolved, you can walk out at any time. "

"It's just that you need a lot of energy to grow up, and this is the gift of the deity to you, go, hahaha..."

This is clearly the rhythm of pulling Ye Xuan together.

Behind those concealed fleets, there is a strong ethnic group and power. The sixth house may not be able to stand alone. At the moment, he wants to resolve this matter as the son of Xuan, but he is also unwilling to. At the moment, it is clear that it is necessary to collect the right to vote for the name.

"call out!"

As the laughter of Tianganzi rang, a ray of light shrouded Ye Xuan's figure in a moment, and the latter already understood what he was going to do. Naturally, it was impossible to resist, so quiet. Sitting quietly, nothing happened.

In an instant, it was wrapped in the fierce white awning, and it rushed to a forbidden place on the north side of the giant peak. It broke into the entrance of a void passage, and the blink of an eye disappeared.

"Hey, where did you get him?"

Ye Xuan's body shape has just disappeared. On the side of the other side, the female ugly ghost Zhao Lingyu has ran around and ran out, looking at the color of worry, holding a small mouth and not saying: "Hey, he is a coffin idol, I don't allow you to hurt him."

For a long time, this Nizi actually recognized Ye Xuan's identity. It's a coincidence that she is really a fan of Xuan's son. It's no wonder that she's so crazy when she meets, but she's ugly with her, see a man. There is no relationship in the demise.

"Reassure, the father has already talked to him, your marriage has been fixed, just after January."

Looking at Zhao Lingxi, Tianganzi's face is full of love, and softly said: "This month, the father just needs to deal with some things, and organize your wedding by the way, in order to prevent the kid from being distracted, Some of the names of the casts still have to be there. Otherwise, even after the big marriage, he will run the same. You don't want to guard such a Langjun every day?"

"In addition, your Xianmo red dust mites should also break through this month. This kind of respect is not used to the father, come back, don't scare the guests at the wedding reception!"

Chapter 3183: Xianmo red dust mites

When Tianganzi left, a group of prostitutes and more than a dozen people all came out, some of them looked awkward, some surprised, and some even realized that they finally remembered something.

For a moment, they all exclaimed, a scene of noisy and lively.

"God, no wonder you always feel that he is familiar with it. It turned out to be Xuan Huangzi, Miss, I am not dreaming?"

"There is a performance, but it is Xuan Huangzi, how could it come to our sixth house? And it still fell from the sky..."

"It must be a dream. I am still bombing in my mind. It is too unreal!"

"Too good, the lady will be married to the Emperor Xuanzi a month later. At that time, we will all be dowry and ring, and we can wait for our idol for a lifetime. How happy!"

"Miss, what are you doing? Why go to the retreat, your fairyland red dust mites really should break through. How can this devil look like our idol? It is too imperfect, only your original You can match your appearance with the Emperor Xuanzi. You stand together and you will be surprised by the three universes..."

Upon hearing these words, Zhao Lingqi's ugly face suddenly became red, and Xuan's prince was not only her idol, but also the idol of the nieces and sisters who grew up with her.

However, these gangsters are obviously too unconcerned. I have never said that she is ugly now. This time, for the sake of Xuan Zizi, she said that she is a ugly ghost.

Thinking like this, Zhao Lingyi suddenly became angry and turned to the prostitute who called him a ugly ghost. He gnashed his teeth: "Well, you are a purple cloud. I dare to say that this lady is a ugly ghost. I think you are springing up." Let's take a look at Longxuan, and you will have to climb out and see how I can clean you up."

Said, reaching out and scratching the waist of the * called Ziyun.

"Oh, giggling... Helping the sisters, the lady is angry and angry, obviously knowing that Ziyun is the most irritated, for the Xuan prince, actually turned his face with the sister!"

Ziyun's head smiled in an instant, and while laughing and fleeing, a group of hoes suddenly became a group, and the whole backyard was very lively. After a long time, it gradually stopped.

After a short period of time, a bunch of gimmicks seemed to be enough, and slowly calmed down. A little bit of sweat and contempt, Zhao Lingyi turned around and looked around at everyone. Finally, he raised the business: "Well, this lady is going to retreat, one month. The time is a bit rushed, but at the end of this period of red dust refining, take the opportunity to break through, it should be a small problem, you are not waiting outside, this time can not have any accidents, this lady must restore the original appearance , getting married is a big deal!"

Saying, Zhao Lingyi swayed his waist and turned to Buwan. Soon there was a pale pink array of protective shields that propped up and covered the whole.

Ziyun and other gimmicks have also regained their seriousness. They don't want to sit around and sit around, not to speak again, to protect their law.

The red dust mites of Xianmo are also one of the top inheritance exercises of the Sixth House of the Tenth, and the same level of the billions of incarnations of the Emperor.

Hundreds of thousands of incarnations are about tens of thousands of incarnations, cultivation to the highest level, the billions of incarnations, the avenue.

The pursuit of the red dust mites is the red dust refining, cultivation of this practice, everything in the red dust must be experienced, although there is no incarnation, but the deity is changing, as the entry into the world, the various colors, various identities All kinds of looks have to go through, and finally the mood is perfect, just like the red dust rising, the road can be!

Zhao Lingqi's age is not large, and he is less than a hundred years old. It is extremely young, but it's the age of the old woman. This woman's natural beauty, no matter the size or appearance, is an excellent choice. Xuanyuan Zijing and Yingtai that are absolutely inferior.

What is even more amazing is its heart, simplicity, and innocence. It is not an exaggeration to say that it is the heart of the child.

Since the practice of Xianmo's red dust mites, Zhao Ling's cultivation has been soaring all the way. Various characters in the red dust have been personally experienced by the deity. She even has been begging for practice for several years, and the appearance looks like A stupid old aunt, this is not a disguise, but a cultivation of this fairy, the deity really evolved into that.

At that time, Zhao Lingyi spent three years practicing outside, begging to feel the sufferings of the world, while red dust and refining the heart, breaking through three years later, repairing the strength and soaring two realms in one fell swoop, so that the Tianganzi who cultivated hundreds of millions of incarnations were dumbfounded. .

At the moment, her cultivation is not high, but in fact it is not the case, but because it is still in another stage of red dust and refining, and everything is suppressed.

This time, with such an ugly appearance, Zhao Lingyi has been going through two years and has been walking outside. He has just returned to the sixth house not long ago, and is preparing to break through.

The arrival of Ye Xuan just let her break through this red dust refining heart, picking up the time of refining the heart and fruit, a little ahead of it.

For Zhao Lingyi's everything, Ye Xuan did not know. At this moment, he had been sent by Heaven to a void in the core area of the sixth side of the sixth house.

This empty murder is not a normal ordinary space. The prison cage connected to the forbidden valley in the depths of the Emperor is quite similar. There is a space passage connected to the peak of the sixth house.

Inside the entire internal void, there was a lore of squad. After the ups and downs of the five-line movement of the death star, the numerous warships, fortresses and fortresses in the formation were all moved here.

In the past four days, these fleets have been damaged by the murder of the Nether, and there are only a few Star Fortresses and 50,000-meter-diameter Star Fortress. Still surviving, the federal tribes from the Second Universe, and one of them, are from the Celestial.

With the arrival of Ye Xuan, the tenth housekeepers who had stayed in the Nether's squadron and presided over the operation of the squadrons had withdrawn, and finally closed the Void Channel, leaving Ye Xuan and the remaining dozens of starry fortresses and small The fortress is all banned in the void, and only when the war is over can it be opened again.

Shown in front of you is a smoke-filled universe void, and there are some stars in the void, but it is obviously not formed naturally, but is artificially created. These stars are all eyes, and the whole void is like a kill. The big nets are shrouded in the whole sky, and the stars created by these people are the ones that kill the big net.

Originally, every star has a tenth house in the sixth house of the peerless powers. Under the urging of all, the emptiness of the emptiness and the power of the vain is the supreme power of the fifteenth realm. As long as you fall into the battle, don't want to get out of it easily.

But now, the strongest of the Sixth House of the Ninth House are all evacuated, and the Void Array has gone into dormancy. There are still more than a dozen Star Fortresses and small fortresses, and finally they can temporarily breathe...

Chapter 3184: Black hole coming

This time, the black scorpion city moved the Dafa across the void with the reverse of the five elements, and transmitted to the battleships of the major power fleets in the Death Stars in the core of the sixth house. There are hundreds of thousands of ships.

Some of the star-rated warships have collapsed in the process of large voids. When they arrived in the void, they were already some damaging hulls. Then, there were a lot of stars in the damage of those hulls. When they fall out, they have not been able to survive the first round of bombing of the void, and they have turned into a * and residual limb, and there is no more life, floating in this murderous atmosphere.

Then, the second round of bombing and launching, a large number of star nodes filled with this piece of emptiness burst out of hundreds of millions of swordsmanship, intertwined into a network, I do not know how many star-studded strongmen, some small five-meter-diameter fortress I couldn't resist it anymore, and they collapsed and turned into a wreck.

Filled the whole piece of void.

Two days ago, the third round of the strongest strangulation was started. This time, it was personally controlled by Tianganzi. Numerous swords and spurs spurred from countless killing stars, and finally gathered together to kill a few swords. Flying fast, even the 10,000-meter-diameter big fortress could not resist, and they disintegrated.

Among them, the 50,000-meter-diameter star-class small fortress has shot huge energy beams, and the super-star guns are raging.

There are more than a dozen star-studded fortresses with a diameter of 100,000 meters. They have blasted 20,000 meters of dead light cannons with a diameter of 20,000 meters. The fierce battle lasted for two days. During this period, the stars of the void array were bombarded. However, these star fortresses also have some disintegrations and they are dying.

In the void, a large number of swords shot in the stars of a few stars are turned into a horrible sword. The diameter of 20,000 meters is not inferior to the death of the starry fortress. In a short period of time, 斩Three starry fortresses were dropped.

However, the loss of the Sixth House of the Sixth House is not small. In addition to the collapse of the star node of the Nether, the sixth house of the host who is the star node is degraded.

This round of bombing has just ended, the two sides have just stopped, is brewing the fourth round of the big confrontation, Tianganzi suddenly left, and then the order quietly came, the tenth in the sixth house to guard a lot of nodes The strong stars of the stars have withdrawn, and eventually the passage of the emptiness and murder was closed. Ye Xuan came to the sky and was surrounded by the star fortress and the small fortress that remained there.

"Long Xuan? Damn, the guys have all been withdrawn. Why did he move him alone?"

"What do you want to do in the Ten Heavenly Palace? Do you want to wait for the civil war with the immortal dynasty? Are they good at taking advantage of the fishermen?"

"No, you didn't see it? Long Xuan did not have any horror. I knew that it would have been the case. He was not forced to move, it was more like preparing."

"Damn, conspiracy, this is definitely a big conspiracy. The immortal dynasty and the Ten Heavenly Palaces join hands. This time, I waited for the second universe to squat, and the death star is a trap. Long Xuan deliberately lured me to wait for it, and the black scorpion city of the Ten Heavenly Palace suddenly broke down. They are a group!"

"What do the Terrans want to do? To provoke a civil war between the Third Universe and the Second Universe? Is this going to split the rhythm of the Federation of the Faro? They are federal sinners, too daring..."

"Hanging Longxuan, this is not over!"

"Yes, let's join forces to kill Long Xuan, then we will go out hard, this must be reported to the Federation, and the Terran must rebel..."

.....

As the sound of exclamations rang, an angry and turbulent mood quickly brewed, and more than a dozen star fortresses and strong men in the small fortress were all angry, that is, the same ones from the heavenly family. In the underground, even with the enemy, I joined forces at a time, clamoring to kill Ye Xuan.

"boom!"

"boom!"

A huge sound of blasting came, and nearly ten star-studded fortresses all blasted a 20,000-meter-diameter dead light cannon. The other 50,000-meter-diameter star-class small fortresses were also unwilling. The energy beam is simultaneously blasted.

The fierce white mans and the mysterious black death light cannons are intertwined into the net, and Ye Xuan, who has just arrived here, is shrouded in it. This is clearly an instant killing, completely breaking the rhythm of vitality.

"There was still some hesitation. Now it seems that I really don't need it..."

"The innate treasure of the innate treasure is really looking forward to it!"

"boom!"

Ye Xuan is in the void, in the middle of this huge void, no sadness and no joy on his face, no emotional feelings, muttered to himself, suddenly spurred the devour of this treasure talent.

A strong horror of horror, suddenly suddenly from the treasure body of Ye Xuan, although invisible and inferior, but more powerful than the ordinary black hole can have.

In the blink of an eye, the three 100,000-meter-diameter starry sky fortresses closest to him were sucked up and suddenly stopped.

This is just the beginning. At this time, Ye Xuan is like a newly born terrorist beast, wanting to devour everything!

Just as the phagocytic mother in the process of gestating him, plucked countless void energy, the light and heat of countless stars, and even a whole vast star field, turned into the general devouring of the dead land!

The same overbearing! The same madness! The same is the ruthless usurpation of red fruit!

"boom!"

"boom!"

The three star-studded fortresses closest to his body exploded in an instant without any suspense, and all the star powers and materials in the fortress were exposed to the dark void in the interior of the Death Star, and instantly The speed visible to the naked eye is swift and violent.

The various resources in the fortress, including those who are caught off guard, are now staring at all the star powers.

Then, other small fortresses and star fortresses, as well as no suspense, followed suit. The sound of a huge explosion sounded loudly, and the situation was still very different. It was obvious that such a huge space fortress and star fortress had completely disintegrated and exploded, but none of them showed the flame of the explosion.

They are clearly invisible by an invisible force, which is caused by a sudden disintegration. All resources and star powers are like the three starry fortresses that were in the first half of the second. All resources and powers, all Quickly began the wilting, the extracted energy, turned into an invisible storm, and rushed toward Ye Xuan's body.

Even including the huge black death light cannon energy beam, before bombarding Ye Xuan's body, the tremors disintegrated and then swallowed.

From this moment on, Ye Xuan's engulfing treasure has disappeared. His original position has become a whirlpool of huge black holes. Once this innate devour talent is launched, it is like a black hole, wanting to devour. all.....

In this kind of engulfing, Ye Xuan's cultivation of this treasure is the strength, it is like riding a rocket, the brushing ground quickly soars, there is no bottleneck at all, when the energy swallowed is enough, directly break through!

Chapter 3185: Black hole

"Damn, what happened? Long Xuan? Where did you go..."

"What is this supernatural power? It disappeared instantly. Did he call a black hole? Want to devour everything!"

"No, the situation is too strange. Even the ordinary black hole should not have such a terrible force. It will instantly crush and disintegrate the 100,000-meter-diameter starry sky fortress. This invisible power of engulfing Where did it come from? It's terrible!"

"God, flee, the fortress is disintegrated, all the resources in it are being swallowed up, including me, and the repair and even life in the body are quickly lost."

"This is definitely not a natural cosmic black hole. This is a supreme magical power. It is related to the Ten Heavenly Palace. It is going to devour everything. I will turn to the flesh and blood!"

"This is terrible, too angry. The Terran really wants to rebel. Ten Heavenly Palaces and the immortal dynasty teamed up together, and they want to kill me, and the plot is too shocking!"

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

As all the Star Fortress and the Little Fortress are disintegrated, all the resources in the ship's cabin and the starry sky are all exposed, and they are swallowed up quickly by the body's ability to repair the vitality of the body. The screams of anger also screamed quickly and spread throughout the void.

Among the dozen or so large and small fortresses, there are not only the strongmen of the Second Universe Federation, but also the tops of the Tianji nationality. The highest commander in the town has two existential environments, but all come from the first Second, the federal family of the universe, and the high-level cultivation of the heavenly family is not very high, only the virtual environment of the thirteenth realm.

At this time, in the face of the vortex black hole power that Ye Xuan devours the incarnation of the treasure body, the strength and vitality of these powerful people are rapidly lost, that is, the two strong strongmen who are cultivated by the Zhou Guangguang, They all wilted a lot in an instant, and they didn't dare to be too close. They were screaming in excitement.

This black hole vortex is too horrible, and the power is too strange. Even the anti-material energy light column of the dead light can collapse and swallow, and they simply do not dare to slap their front.

The only thing I want at the moment is to quickly withdraw and leave this place.

Even so, no matter how they retreat, in this already closed void, the power of the black hole vortex is still everywhere, there is no way to escape, even if it is reduced to the most remote corner, the body is repaired as power. And life, still quickly lost.

The innate devour of the treasure's engulfing talent, the power is terrible!

At the same time, in the deepest part of the black hole, Ye Xuan is closing his eyes, hovering in the center of the black hole vortex!

The infinite energy of the whole piece of emptiness is being rushed by this devour whirlpool, which is manifested by its engulfing talent, such as Quan Yong, who is not in Ye Xuan's body.

His cultivation was quickly climbed at a horrible speed.

Although at least half of the energy is used to repair the congenital defects of the innate treasure, only the energy of less than half of this, and then count the consumption and loss in the process of refining and transformation, the real one is actually charged by him. Not all, but still terrible.

"boom!"

The roar of the breakthrough was in the body of Ye Xuan, and it was less than a minute. His cultivation was the first breakthrough, and finally the black hole!

Everything has not stopped. After breaking through the first stage of the black hole, the cultivation of the innate treasure is still brushing up. This is the biggest advantage of the engulfing treasure. It has only enough to have the ability to swallow. Energy is used for engulfing, so that it can be brushed up to the top of the world, there is no bottleneck in the realm.

There is no such thing as a state of mind, and as the cultivation of the innate treasure rises, the true * of Ye Xuan, who is integrated with this treasure body, can also benefit.

For example, the revision of Ye Xuan's deity is only the sixth realm nebula, but after entering this treasure, his deity is merged with the innate treasure, and if he feels the power of the eighth realm black hole in advance, This kind of sentiment is imprinted on the Yuanshen. In the future, when Ye Xuan's deity is returned to the body of the deity, the early realization of the Yuanshen is also beneficial to the cultivation of the deity.

It will promote the realm of the physical body of the deity, especially when encountering the bottleneck of the realm, the breakthrough will be half the effort.

After all, the power of that level, the deity of the gods in the congenital treasure body, has been in contact with and experienced in advance.

At this moment, with the vortex black hole formed by the swallowing talent, the massive energy that the emptiness of the void is surrounded by the emptiness of the sky is continuously injected into the innate treasure, and its cultivation is after the breakthrough to the black hole. Still not stopping.

Not long after, Ye Xuan's body can sound the sound of the rumbling of the realm of the rumble, just like thunder, not only enhances the cultivation of the innate treasure, but also the earthquake of the deity of Ye Xuan's deity.

In the mind, the familiar sound of the phagocytic system is also sounded again and again. The interval time is less than one or two minutes, and at most it is about three minutes. Every time the sound is heard, it is accompanied by a huge repairing roar. Endless, this represents the realm of the innate treasure, and a breakthrough.

"Hey, congratulations to the host, break through the realm! The current realm: black hole second order!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, break through the realm! The current realm: the third level of black hole!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host..."

Every time the cultivation is upgraded, not only the cultivation in this body is rapidly rising, but even the gods of Ye Xuan's deity seem to have been baptized. Every time they are roaring, they are accompanied by a soul sublimation of the deity. The insights and insights of the mystery are directly imprinted in the heart, like epiphany.

In less than twenty minutes, Ye Xuan's deity is growing too much. In this process, his whole consciousness feels like sitting under a bodhi tree that is enlightening, again and again. From the top of the tree, a large number of avenues were swayed, and the gods were washed and baptized.

Every time the impact, the Yuanshen is more solid, and there are still a lot of mysterious and mysterious meanings related to the breakthrough of the realm in the heart, deeply imprinted.

All of this will be turned into accumulation, stored in Ye Xuan's deity of the gods, once the deities of the gods return to the body of the deity in the future, then only these sentiments and insights into the realm of the realm will make the deity The physical benefits are enormous, not to mention the fact that the gods' baptisms have changed, and the first time will drive the cultivation of the body to grow.

It can be said that this time, although only the treasure body of Ye Xuan is consuming the energy and improving the cultivation, but the result of entering the body is the * of Ye Xuan, the result is tantamount to the cultivation of the deity. In fact, it is also implicitly rising and rising...

With this kind of enlightenment, Ye Xuan is full of joy, and at this time, the system's prompt tone is heard again in his mind: "Hey, congratulations to the host, the realm of the realm is raised! The current realm: the black hole nine-order great perfection!"

Chapter 3186: bud

The black hole is full of nine steps!

In just half an hour, Ye Xuan's cultivation of the devour of the body has been completed from the seventh stage of the Xinghe ninth stage, and has soared to the eighth stage of the eighth world of black hole.

The improvement of the whole big realm was completed in less than 30 minutes.

This is the first time that Ye Xuan has used this innate treasure to devour his talents. He did not expect the harvest to be so terrifying, and he could hardly believe it.

You must know that this is still the most energy used to repair the innate defects of this treasure. In addition, the refining and chemical energy is completely consumed by the energy loss that is sometimes consumed by the engulfing treasure. Less than one-third of energy.

It is a pity that after the black hole's ninth-order grand reunion, the sound of a breakthrough in Ye Xuan's body every few minutes in the past half an hour has never appeared.

Even so, this vortex black hole formed by the innate treasure engulfing talent is still constantly drawing energy from the surrounding air and continuously injecting it into the treasure.

Although its surge is weaker than before, it has not stopped.

Obviously, the energy of the outside world has not yet been collected, and the innate talent of the innate treasure will not stop unless Ye Xuan takes the initiative to end.

Soon, five minutes passed, and although the energy poured into the body of the innate treasure is much less, it is like a trickle, and it continues, but the realm of the innate treasure is no longer moving.

Ye Xuan initially confused, and then gave birth to enlightenment. If there is no accident, the innate talent of this innate treasure should only be able to enhance the cultivation of a big realm. Once it is sucked up, it will not continue to rise.

It is also understandable that any horrible talent has a limit, and one big realm at a time should be the limit of this innate treasure to engulf talent.

Every time you swallow, after reaching this root limit, the treasure will spontaneously stop continuing to break through. It should be stable, and it takes a while to digest this time of engulfing and repairing.

After everything is thoroughly mastered, it can be swallowed up again and continue to improve.

Realizing this, Ye Xuan breathed a sigh of relief and his heart was more happy.

This is safe, if it is as long as there is energy, it will continue to rise and repair, and then continue, Ye Xuan will be shocked, and once he reaches the fifteenth state of the realm of the situation, no Different from self-destruction, the innate treasure may not be able to withstand the horror to such a level of strength.

It is affordable, and Ye Xuan's * is also unable to hold back, and will eventually be lost and ruined!

At the moment, as the innate treasure no longer absorbs the energy that flows into the body, except for the part of the energy that is used for the trickle, in addition to being used as a repair of the innate defect of the treasure itself, another small part actually Ye Xuan, who was cherished by Ye Xuan in the treasure body, ran over and poured into the past.

Under the slightest movement of the heart, Ye Xuan even dismissed the idea of immediately stopping this engulfing talent, returning to the inner view of the gods, and the gods in the body of the innate treasure condensed in the body of the deity, feeling the change of the deity.

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the seeds of the gods sprout! The current state: thrive!"

Just at this time, the familiar system prompt tone has once again sounded in the mind of Ye Xuan, the * of the gods, and he was thrown into the body of the god, who was born in the body of the deity, suddenly sprouted.

This surprise came too suddenly, and Ye Xuan could not accept it at all.

If you remember correctly, the system has clearly said that it is forged and quenched in the way of condensing a seed of the gods. It is necessary to wait until the seeds of the planted gods are fully mature, and the condensate is completed successfully. It should take nearly 100 years. The long years.

How long has it been now? The deity of the deity knows the seed of the * of the sea, has it sprouted?

Even entered a state of growth!

Is the cultivation of the original 100 years of age going to end in a short period of time?

Realizing this, Ye Xuan was ecstatic.

Obviously, the reason why this is the case, and the energy that is injected into the body of the deity is very much related to the current flow. After entering the body of the deity, these energies should be directly into the sea of knowledge of the body of Ye Xuan. Knowing the seeds of the gods in the sea, this has only ignited its rapid sprout.

But this is definitely not the main reason. Otherwise, the avatar system that was just activated by Ye Xuan could not have such a hint before. Ye Xuan entered the body with the deity of the god, and the seed of the genius that belonged to the avatar was put. The body of the deity is cultivated in the sea. Although this method is rebellious, the system of the avatar cannot be deduced.

If you can get energy nourishment from the body of the body, and quickly give birth to the seeds of the gods, the system is afraid that it has already been recorded.

In fact, it is true. At present, Ye Xuan's deity is already in harmony with the body of the lord, and cannot directly enter the body of the deity from the treasure. Therefore, everything in the body of the deity can only be controlled by the phagocytic system. For all that happened in the body of the deity, he could not directly peep at all.

If you can see it with your own eyes, he will be more shocked at this time.

Because in the body of his deity, the scene that is happening at the moment is really extraordinary. Ye Xuan has never seen it.

The vast sea of waves rises and falls, and among the waves that represent the realm of Ye Xuan's deity, a small gray sapling is growing rapidly.

Although there is no soil, its root system is directly rooted in the sea of repairing waves, followed by ups and downs, shooting a mysterious atmosphere.

In the process, the piles of treasures and supernatural powers that were originally suspended in Ye Xuan's seas and seas also spurred a ray of light from time to time, immersed in this gray tree, accompanied by its rapid growth. And leave some mysterious imprint in it.

Undoubtedly, the light from the self-knowledge of Haizhongbao, every coming, is changing the inner essence of this plant representing Ye Xuan's avatar, the gray light that has been poured out from the small tree. More and more mysterious...

In the sea of Ye Xuan's deity, there are a total of six treasures and supernatural powers in the air.

Located in the center of the sea of knowledge is a gray mysterious small tower, as well as a small print of a lot of Qingleijindian.

Among the other four directions, the spiritual source nucleus of the whole body has echoed with the hollow medullary crystal. The golden small bow that represents the * of the sky, and the black gold dragon scale that has both the golden dragon and the blood of the ancient demon dragon, look at each other.

At the moment, these six treasures of the magical brand, without exception, all shot a unique feature, the color of the different sacred, injected into the glimpse of the rapid growth of the sea in the gray tree...

Chapter 3187: Flowering result

"call out!"

A gray glory from the ancient ruins of the ancient towers, out of the gray-small tree underneath the surface of the sea and the surface of the sea, the gray and small trees are gray and sturdy, and they have skyrocketed in an instant. .

Then there was another faint sound of breaking the air.

A green golden glory, the surface seems to be surrounded by countless tiny blue thunder and gold electric, followed by the gray tree, so that it has once again skyrocketed, and now it is one meter high.

Subsequently, the golden small bow, the green golden dragon scale, the hollow medullary crystal and the spiritual source nucleus of the whole body are also lined up with a secluded mans, each with different colors, which are then injected into the lower part of the sea. Inside the tree.

It was four times of tyrannosaurus. The original gray tree, which was only about one meter long, suddenly rose to about two meters. It has not stopped yet, but the growth rate is much slower, almost half an inch and a half inch. Moved up.

At this rate, I am afraid that it will stop growing soon.

Sure enough, after three minutes, the gray tree that grew to about two and a half meters was quite large, but its growth rate almost completely stopped.

The energy that has been retouched by the innate treasures from the body of Ye Xuan's deity is even smaller. At the same time, like the extremely thin silk thread, some are injected into the tree, and some are directly poured into it. Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea.

It is also at this time, above the gray tree of about two and a half meters high, a small flower bone grows out, very small, only the pigeon egg, the flower debate does not bloom, but this small flower bone The surface is covered with a mysterious color that is extremely fascinating.

There is a mysterious grayery that represents the towers of the ancients.

There are also Qingleijin Electric Co., which represents Lei Diyin.

More representative of the spirit of the core of the purple spirit power pressure.

There is a mysterious atmosphere that is generally the same as that of the hollow crystal.

More Jinhui shines, it is the sharpness of the bow of the sky, and it is so fascinating that it has a sense of horror to this little flower bone, which seems to be inexplicable.

In addition, there is still a kind of sacred and devilish blending, and the unclear and unclear ancient dragons' pressures are faintly transmitted from the small flower bones...

Sure enough, Ye Xuan knew the six treasures or the brand of the gods hanging in the sea, and after they shot a secluded man into the gray tree, they actually evoked a strange flower.

Since there are flowers, it must be the result.

That is clearly the fruit of a god, the innate thing, once the fruit is ripe, it will be like a broken egg, and step out of a mature god.

The same as the Yuanshen of the Ye Xuan deity, it is the fusion of these treasures and the ancient gods and Ye Xuan deity in the sea.

Just like the real gods copy!

Such a * is not only innocent, but also a congenital object. No matter whether it is stationed in any treasure body, there is no such thing as cultivation. He will be the same as Ye Xuan's deity, as long as there is an organic relationship, as long as there is an encounter, As long as you have time, you can continue to grow vigorously, the future is unlimited, and the road is unimpeded!

It is a pity that at this moment, Ye Xuan knows that the six treasures of the sea and the brand of the ancient gods have all been injected into the gray tree, even if they are injected again, it will be invalid. Because there is no such level of external force to nourish, the tree has stopped to continue to evolve, and it is necessary to stay in the strong state of the little newborn.

If this is the case, fear that this is the true completion of this innate god, it will have to go through the long years of cultivation.

The little flower bones have to grow up slowly. At the end of the flowering, and then the flowers are celebrated. In addition, the fruit of the small gods grows slowly until the egg is broken and the innate gods can Take one step...

This process may still take decades, and the seed of the god, planted by Ye Xuan's deity, has grown from a small seed to a gray tree with a height of two and a half meters. And the birth of a small flower bone, can only be regarded as half way.

The subsequent flowering of the fruit is the road to growth in the latter half!

From this point of view, this kind of meditation practice originally took a long time of 100 years, but now it has only been shortened by half. It is still necessary for Ye Xuan to completely condense this avatar. !

Such a long time, Ye Xuan can not wait, no head baby corps ... can not wait!

"call out!"

Just as the gray tree stopped growing, and the little tree flower that bloomed with the mysterious luxuries was no longer changing, this is the body of the deity that is in the body of the body. Suddenly, Guanghai Muir flashed at the left chest and turned into a baby corpse tattoo that was imprinted on the left chest of the corpse, and finally shot!

Although it is also a weak secluded man, the mysterious energy contained in it is far from the six treasures and the supernatural brand in the sea.

Previously, it was the Lei Di Yin and the ancient heritage tower hanging in the middle of the sea. The gloomy shot was just a matter of letting the gray tree grow about half a meter.

This is followed by the next secluded shot to continue to grow.

At this moment, this sacred mantle from the corpse lamp tattoo was injected into the gray tree. The original gray tree was only two and a half meters. It was actually a half-meter increase in the blink of an eye. When I arrived, I have grown up to a tree, and my body has grown stronger. I will not continue to move up.

And all this is not over.

Although the Qingmeng tree does not continue to grow, the power of the corpse lamp tattoos, which is shot by this corpse tattoo, continues to scatter, acting on the little flower bone flower on the top of the tree.

In the same time, the flower bones, which were originally only the size of the pigeon, grew rapidly. The blink of an eye had the size of the adult fist, which stopped.

But everything that follows is still going on.

After the size of the boxing, the growth of the flower bones has come to an end, the flower debate began to slowly bloom, the speed is getting faster and faster, and the front and back are less than a minute, the whole flower bones are completely blooming, emitting a fascinating 氤氲辉芒, as a dream is like a dream.

This process has not lasted for too long, and the short three-degree interest has ended. The flower of the * of the gods is wilting in the semi-interest. The flower is divided into light rain, immersed in the tree, and it is easy to end the knot. There is a small fruit that also exudes mysterious radiance.

At this point, it is still not at the end. The energy contained in the mysterious sacred shot from the corpse lamp tattoo is too horrible, and it is quite comparable to the six sacred treasures and the brand of the gods. And the sum of the energy turbulence provided by the innate treasure.

After the fruit of this small Yuanshen came out, it quickly grew up at a speed visible to the naked eye. After a short three-degree interest, a big boxing of the boxings appeared, completely mature, emitting mystery. And the powerful Hui Hui Mang, reflecting the sea of Ye Xuan, reveals the endless mystery...

Chapter 3188: Congenital god

At this moment, Ye Xuan's deity knows everything in the sea, full of endless dreams.

Knowing the sea, six treasures and supernatural powers exude a mysterious atmosphere, silent and silent, slowly spinning.

Below, the raging sea repairs are roaring in the waves. In the middle of this majestic wave, a gray Mongolian tree with a large sacred sacred sacred sacred sacred sacred sacred sacred The invisible old-fashioned atmosphere is vaguely venting.

In the position of the gray-gray tree of Zhang Gao, the original flower of the Yuanshen is extremely violent, and the same big fruit with the same brilliance and brilliance, bursting out of the glory of the sun, will Ye Xuan deity The whole understanding of the sea is reflected in the vastness of the sky, and the heavy old-fashioned atmosphere is raging and stirring.

"boom!"

A sound of blasting sounds in the sea of Ye Xuan's deity, and the fist of the gray tree is full of sorrows, and a three-inch tall man takes a step from the inside. , opened his eyes.

The seed of Yuanshen was finally fully mature, and the innate * was born.

The gods of the gods are exactly the same as the deities of Ye Xuan. There is no weak difference between the eyebrows, just like the copy of Ye Xuan's deity.

As the * of the gods stepped out of the fruit of the great * of the boxing, quietly suspended in the sky above the sea of Ye Xuan, the original tree that was rooted in the waves, the gray tree, At this moment, the rapid wilting began.

It is as if its mission has been completed, and after the ultimate bloom, from this moment, it is necessary to quickly go to complete annihilation.

In fact, this is indeed the case. From the position where the fruit of the genus of the Mongolian tree was originally located, the entire gray-brown tree body, from top to bottom, instantly became gray at a speed visible to the naked eye. The light of the light, falling to the bottom of the waves.

The whole process only lasted for a short breath. This strain, which originally had the glory of the gray-faced god, was completely disappeared.

All the trees are turned into gray spots, and the rumors are generally integrated into the sea of Ye Xuan, like flowers falling into mud, moistening the soil below.

Undoubtedly, this is just the point. The cultivation of Ye Xuan's deity is so strong that it has soared unconsciously. As for what kind of realm has arrived, it is still unknown.

In the next moment, the energy that has been refining from the body of the body beyond the body of the deity has finally disappeared completely. It is the body of the body that contains the body of Ye Xuan, and there is no more energy. In.

Beyond the treasure body, the mysterious vortex black hole formed by the engulfing talent, the blink of an eye disappeared, and the body of the body sitting in the void of the murder was completely revealed.

In the void around, there are a lot of warship wrecks, and there are some kinds of resources, but at the moment, no matter the wreckage of the warships or these various resources, all the gray cars are incomparable, and the energy and essence inside them. It has been completely invisible by the intangible devouring force formed by the devotees of the treasures.

The same is true of the star-studded powerhouses that have fallen from these collapsed fortresses and the interior of the small fortress hull. It is the high-level of the two universes of the second universe, in the absence of a path to escape, after all Nor did it resist the invisible power of this horror.

Like other stars in the sky, they are all turned into dry corpses, the body's cultivation, the vitality, the strength of the flesh and blood, all lost, in order to help Ye Xuan deity grow and the innate ****
Breeding the birth of food...

However, although everything in the outside world has ended, everything that happened in the body of Ye Xuan's deity in the innate treasure is clearly continuing. Therefore, Ye Xuan, the * of the body, who is in the body of the treasure, is still watching. , like a practice of returning to the inner view.

This directly led to the separation of the shackles of the scorpion, so sitting cross-legged in this murderous emptiness...

At the same time, in the body of the body, Ye Xuan's body is in the sea.

"Oh la la..."

The lower part represents the refinement of Ye Xuan's mastery. The waves of the waves are rolling, and the sound of the waves of the la la is resounding, revealing a majestic atmosphere.

This moment seems to be inductive, and like resonance, knowing the treasures and magical marks that hang in the sea, all of them have burst into different mysterious and beautiful.

The small golden bow of the handle blooms out of the golden mans, on which the shadow of the ancient night fork is faintly visible, and a pair of demon wings are gently flapping behind.

The black gold dragon scales are also black gold mansions, and a huge dragon with a black gold scale appears suddenly. It has the breath of the golden dragon and the eternal demon.

Inside the hollow medullary crystal, a ray of light bursts out and turns into a figure of the empty void, looming.

In the core of the mental source, a psychic waterfall formed by the pure seven-level spiritual power suddenly slammed down, but it disappeared directly in the void above the sea of knowledge.

At the center, the Lei Di Yin suddenly had a great golden mansion, and countless blue thunders blew up on the surface of the thunder, and there was no end to it. The thunder still stretched and swallowed countless golden lightnings.

In the vagueness, there are still nine small Qingjin Leiyuan beads, which are rolling in the thunderstorms that are transpired above the Leidi Seal!

In addition, the small and ancient heritage tower is also a sudden gray chaotic atmosphere. At one time, the illusory shadows of countless wild animals around the tower quickly disappeared. There are dozens of them, all of which existed in the ninth floor of the ancient towers.

And each of them is the Supreme Ancient Supreme of the Supreme Age, including the sacred Supreme Supreme, which is suspected to be in the camp of the headless infant corpse.

Everything is not over yet, the next moment, from the bottom of the repair of the sea, the infinite rolling waves of the waves suddenly burst into the sky, as if a tsunami occurred, the entire vast expanse of the sea is alive, completely tumbling.

In the center, a huge star-shaped giant tortoise slowly emerged from the depths of the sea. On each turtle's tortoise, there are numerous mysterious patterns.

This starry giant tortoise represents the illusion of the ruin of Ye Xuan, and has some mysterious connection with the cave giant tortoise, so at this moment it is the illusion of this giant turtle.

For a time, Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea was full of enthusiasm, and all the wild heritage and the treasures all showed signs of illusion.

But this is still not finished.

"Hey!"

A shocking demon whistling sound suddenly smashed over the sea, and a huge black magic dragon rushed in. The neck was clearly marked with a small corpse lamp.

Then, a huge blood-colored corner also rushed in. It was the * corner of the soul, and there was a * figure behind it, but it was extremely pale.

In the corner of this * corner, there is also a small corpse lamp brand...

Chapter 3189: Baby corpse point

At this moment, all the treasures and ancient heritages that Ye Xuan's deity received, all entered the sea of the deity, manifested the inheritance of the virtual shadow, like the wind and cloud, the whole piece of knowledge of the sea blooms infinitely bright, the atmosphere is extremely strong, the ancient The breath is as thick as the essence.

"Hey!"

It is also a sound of whistling that makes the heavens and the earth tremble, and knows the top of the sea. A secluded mantle reveals a baby corpse with a sinister shape. His head is actually held in his arms. Always closed.

Headless baby corpse, coming!

With the advent of the baby corpse, the original incomparable knowledge of the sea, completely quiet down, it is the rolling waves of the waves, have been quiet since then, no longer have the slightest ups and downs.

Whether it is the shadow of the dragon, or the shadow of the ancient nightshade that reveals the endless sharpness, or the hollow giant turtle that knows the ups and downs in the sea, in this moment, all converge, and look at the quiet and incomparably The headless baby corpse that appears at the top of the sea.

Even Lei Diyin and the ancient heritage tower, although the position of the baby corpse was originally above them, but together with the baby corpse, they occupy the central area of the sea, but still tacitly retreat, they will know the sea. The space in the empty central area was let out, and it retreated to a slightly marginal area, quietly rotating...

Baby corpse is now, all things are served!

It is the ancient heritage tower and the Lei Di Yin, who dare not be slightly disrespectful and take the initiative to retreat!

At this time, the congenital god, who had just been born out of the * of the gods, still closed his eyes, sitting on the corner of the sea, sitting in the inner circle, and forming a triangle with the towers of the ancients and the thunder. The trend.

On the periphery, it is the hollow medullary crystal, the spiritual source nucleus, the black gold dragon scales, the golden small bow and the * heritage behind them.

Of course, there are also branded corpse lamp tattoos, indicating that they have been smashed by the headless baby corpse and the demon dragon.

All of this, in addition to the inner circle of the triangle, formed the outer circle of the sea.

At the top of all this is the headless baby corpse, at this moment, suddenly opened the eyes of the skull on his head!

Two secluded men shot from the eyes of the baby corpse, rushed to the * corner of the soul and the magic dragon that was refining the headless baby.

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

A scream, a dragon, at the same time, at the same time.

The huge magic dragon imaginary rushed to the innate * of the inner circle of the sea, and then the * corner of the soul became a * rush, and the blink of an eye disappeared.

This scene is like a point, and the supreme marshal is a headless baby corpse hanging over the top of the sea.

With the disappearance of the demon dragon shadow and the * corner of the soul, all this is still not over, as if it had just begun.

After the headless baby corpse opened, the eyes that were closed immediately opened again. This time, two secluded shots were shot, and at the same time they fell to the hollow medullary crystal hanging over the outer periphery of the sea.

"Hey!"

[illegible]

Then there were two sacred sacred shots from the bloodless eyes of the headless corpse, and this time, it was rushed to the ancient heritage tower hanging in the inner circle of the sea!

This time, the ancient tower was slightly delayed for a short time, but in the end it still did not have the slightest resistance, turned into a gray chaotic man, rushed into the congenital god.

Since then, the trespassing into the congenital Yuanshen's heavy treasures and supernatural powers, the ancient shadows have been counted: the ancient heritage tower, the empty sky scoop, the magic dragon virtual shadow, and the soul of the blood!

At this point, the point of the headless baby corpse seems to have ended!

After a sudden flash of his body shape, he disappeared directly at the top of Ye Xuan's acquaintance sea and disappeared completely.

In the next moment, the repairs in the sea were once again gently rolling up, and the huge hollow giant turtle slowly sank and fell into the depths of the sea.

Lei Diyin, who had originally retreated to the edge of the inner window, moved again and was alone in the center of the sea.

In addition to the innate gods floating in the inner ring, there are four treasures and inheritance marks.

They are the spiritual source of the nucleus, the empty medullary crystal, the black gold dragon scales and the golden bow!

Then, with the departure of the headless baby corpse, the spiritual power waterfall in the spiritual source core disappeared.

The voided medullary crystals of the breath have also returned to their original state.

The faint shadow of the ancient barren cherries, which appeared above the golden bow of the 陨天弓, disappeared.

The shadow of the dragon, which represents the blood of the black gold dragon scales, is covered with countless black gold scales, and disappears instantly.

Ye Xuan's understanding of the sea once again restored the tranquility. The Lei Di Yin, which was hung in the central domain of the sea, was silent and slowly turned. Only one side sat down with the three-inch high innate god. But at this moment, opened his eyes...

At the same time, Ye Xuan, the deity of the goddess in the body of the reincarnation, seems to have some kind of induction, and withdraws from this state of reincarnation.

Previously, although his deity of the gods and gods could not directly enter the body of the deity in this way, look at what is happening in the sea, but vaguely can feel the instigation of the deity, which makes Ye Xuanxin Surprised, guess what happened in the end.

At the moment, after feeling that this kind of incitement has returned to calm, the energy that has just poured in from the body of the treasure has disappeared. Ye Xuan's deity, the * of the gods, immediately withdraws from this state of reincarnation, sitting cross-legged. In this piece of the sky, he smashed his eyes and screamed.

"call out!"

With the hand raised, the body of the deity, which was kept in the body of the avatar, was sacrificed by Ye Xuan, and he still maintained the state of squatting and practicing, and closed his eyes!

Without the slightest hesitation, Ye Xuan's deity, the * of the deity, rushed out of the body of treasure, and with the closeness of the body of the sect, the moment from the outside world, the scene is very strange, two identical leaves Xuan is separated from the distance between Zhang and Xu, sitting cross-legged in the void, all closed with double eyes, like a pair of twin sons are practicing!

In the next moment, Ye Xuan's deity of the gods directly rushed into the body of the deity, without any delay, went straight to the sea.

When I rushed into the sea, Ye Xuan suddenly gave birth to a sense of consonance, subconsciously looking at the corner of the sea, just coincident with the congenital god.

Just a half-instantaneous, Ye Xuan's deity, the * of the gods, has received a huge amount of information. What happened to the present in this privilege is directly in his mind, making Ye Xuan shocked, the deity Yuanshen opened his mouth slightly, apparently shocked!

The congenital god, was born so soon?

Then there were so many strange events, and the mysterious headless baby corpse came to the sea and started the point?

All of this, for him, is just like a dream...

Chapter 3190: The Jin Jindong

Although the innate * of the devotee has been successfully nurtured, but he has not yet completed the fit with the engulfing treasure, and still needs refining.

Therefore, after Ye Xuan's deity, the * of the gods, returned from the extreme shock, even if he had a brief exchange with the innate god, let him go to engulf the treasure, refine and refine, and form a perfect fit as soon as possible. Control the innate treasure.

At that time, Ye Xuan's avatar, whether it is a treasure or a god, is a congenital property, and it is all complete. It is just that the innate treasure still has some defects and needs to be repaired. Under the integration of the two phases, the future is bound to be infinite.

At this time, he feels very mysterious, just like having one more, saying that it is communication, but in fact there is no need for words at all. What Ye Xuan believes in the mind of the gods, the innate * immediately knows.

This is truly one-minded and independent, but there is an invisible line in the dark that connects the two gods. It feels very mysterious.

The congenital * immediately left the sea of the deity, rushed out from the celestial body of the deity, and entered the opposite engulfing treasure, and began refining and fitting.

Due to the light road, this process obviously has no suspense, even extremely fast. Ye Xuan's deity, the * of the gods, is completely unconcerned. He has already opened up the matter there and devoted himself to the study of the body of the deity.

Previously, Ye Xuan's deity of the gods left the body of the deity, and the gods entered the engulfing treasure, and then threw the deity's flesh into the treasure, and the deity's cultivation was the seventh stage of the nebula in the sixth realm!

At this moment, his return to the gods, although not yet integrated into the body of the deity, sitting in the sea, but has already sensed the difference in the deity in advance, compared to the previous, clearly more powerful.

This aspect is the reason for staying in the phagocytic treasure.

At the same time, there is also a treasure body to carry out this time to swallow the talent, to absorb a lot of energy, some of which was injected into the body of the deity.

Ye Xuan clearly has a feeling, and today's knowledge of the sea, compared with the previous, its majestic degree, at least more than half, and the sea of the gods represents the cultivation of the sacred and sacred pieces of the deity. The extent of the sea expansion is so great that it is conceivable that the cultivation of the deity is elevated.

At the thought of this, Ye Xuan suddenly felt a shock and jumped, and had to undergo a repairing surge?

Previously, the deity was already the sixth stage of the nebula in the sixth world. It belongs to the later stage of this situation. Is this time to rush to the rhythm of the seventh largest realm of the Star River?

With this exciting expectation, Ye Xuan's deity, the * of the gods, began to integrate into the sea. Once the relationship between the gods and the sea of the deity was completed, the gods of the deity returned.

In this way, the deity of the gods was previously in the body of the treasure, when the treasure body was cultivated as a big realm, the baptism and other benefits brought to the deity of the gods will be turned into substantial gains. Come out, once again drive the cultivation of Ye Xuan's deity to climb, it is absolutely no suspense.

In other words, the deity of Ye Xuan will have two opportunities to improve.

One is the promotion of the body of the deity, and the other is the driving effect of the cultivation of the flesh after the return of the deity!

Under the brilliance of the two phases, I am afraid that it may not be just a breakthrough to the seventh world of the stars.

It is possible to rush into the eighth * hole.

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan's nose is a lot heavy, and the surprise is too big, it's not calm!

Soon, the deity of the gods completed the integration of the deity and the sea, and the deity, the gods returned.

In the next moment, the familiar system prompts sounded in the mind of Ye Xuan. Although she had already prepared herself, Ye Xuan was still shocked. The sounds followed one after another. This is the inner body and the gods. Are the factors of the level that are merged together in a flash to form a climbing effect?

It's just amazing.

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the breakthrough of the realm! The current realm: the eighth order of the nebula!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the breakthrough of the realm! The current realm: the nebula nine-order great perfect!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host..."

The familiar system prompts are followed by one, all of which are the prompt words of the deeds as the breakthrough and promotion of the realm. There is almost no interval between them, and the prompt tone just falls, and the next prompt sounds immediately.

Later, Ye Xuan was numb, and I felt that all of this was too dreamy and extremely unreal.

Even in the context of the mysterious starry sky, no one should be able to make a breakthrough in this horrible way. It is amazing.

As the system in the mind prompts the sound, at this moment, Ye Xuan's whole person is completely stunned like a thunder. Whether it is the * or the flesh, all of them are described as ignorant. Over.

I don't know how long it took, because Ye Xuan's consciousness has fallen into a circle, so I can't feel the passage of time. Until the last system prompts the sound, it represents a realm of watershed. It can be said that When the two words that are extremely sensitive are captured by his consciousness, he wakes up like a dream, and the whole person has a slight shock, and it is finally back to the soul!

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the breakthrough of the realm! The current realm: the first step of the black hole!"

This is the last system prompt, after the fall of the sound, Ye Xuan's brain is completely quiet, and the long-lost silence makes him feel like a dream again.

Black hole first order?

Actually broke through to the eighth realm of black hole?

From the seventh stage of the nebula to the first stage of the black hole, this is a rise of twelve small realms, including a whole big realm, that is, the seventh largest realm of the Star River, Ye Xuan estimated before and after the time in this big realm. Not more than a minute.

If the matter is passed out, I am afraid that no one will believe it!

If you are metamorphosis, then you will not be able to achieve this level. The seventh realm, crossed in less than a minute?

These thoughts flashed through my mind, and Ye Xuan was initially sluggish, shocked, and then ecstatic.

Black hole!

Finally black hole!

As the eighth realm of the background of the starry sky, the black hole can be said to be a well-recognized watershed. Before the black hole, even if it is the ninth-order great perfection of the seventh major realm, it is not a true star power. .

Only when you step into the black hole, you are stepping into the ranks of the strong stars!

And this step, Ye Xuan finally reached, and it was inexplicable blink of an eye, and looking back, it is simply a sigh of emotion!

It seems that I still can't believe it. It is a dream in the fear of life. After Ye Xuan's great ecstasy, the consciousness will sweep to the sea of the representative's strength for the first time. Sure enough, the area of the sea is even more It is vast, and the waves are soaring, revealing a thick and old-fashioned atmosphere. The majestic repairs are huge waves, and it is like a rush of everything.
