Chapter 329: Entering the deep sea palace

"Ok?"

At this time, the picture suddenly jumped, the three-legged Dapeng bird flew over an island, and then, over the island, the speed was faster than Ye Xuan and even Lin Wen Yue's reaction.

"Island of Death?"

Ye Xuan exclaimed.

The place where Dapeng passed was the island of death where the city owner competed for the battle. The earth cave was the nest of the dragon.

Lin Wen Yue was also extremely shocked. He checked it and showed a date.

After seeing this date, Ye Xuan immediately responded and said: "This is the second day after she left the Yunyun."

He couldn't understand. He remembered that he was still on his way to Nanlin City and was preparing to participate in the Imperial Capital.

But at this time, Guan Yulan is riding a Dapeng bird that is even stronger than Lin Wen Yue, passing the island of death.

"Your friend, I am afraid I have encountered some trouble..." Lin Wen Yue finally said.

"Great elders, what is going on?" Ye Xuan asked awkwardly.

"In my opinion, the little girl was confused by a strange method. And the old man, I am afraid it is not simple, I guess, she should also be a master of God's dilemma." Lin Wen Yue guessed.

God's dilemma!

It is also a divine situation!

A small Tianshui continent, there are three masters of the divine situation.

"Why did the old lady take her away? And why go to the island of death?" Ye Xuan asked again.

"I don't know very well, maybe, what special qualities does the little girl have?"

Lin Wen Yue paused and then said: "My Tianshui continent can only be regarded as a small island. This old man is probably a person around the island of Tianshui. He accidentally passed through Tianshui mainland and found your friend because her realm is too High, so the mirror is not captured. In addition, the entrance to the deep sea palace is on the island of death, which is the nest of the dragon."

what?

Ye Xuan's big sister, the entrance to the deep sea palace, is the nest of the Bohai Dragon?

"There is also a limit to this mirror. At most, I can see the contents of the island of death, and I can't see it anymore. Therefore, it is up to you to investigate this matter." Lin Wen Yue took the mirror of everything.

Ye Xuan nodded, although this is a bad news, but Guan Lan did not die, this is also a good news.

"The elders, do you know what islands are there?" Ye Xuan asked again.

Lin Wenyue shook his head: "I don't know. I only know that the deep sea palace can lead to the blood rock continent. If there is no map of the sea, it will be lost when you go out to sea. You better dispel this idea."

"I won't be stupid."

Ye Xuan faintly said that Fang Caiwen said that the old man was at least a master of the divine situation. With his ability, it was impossible to bring Guan Lan back.

"If you are ready, go to the island of death yourself. There is a map of the deep sea palace. You must collect it. The deep sea palace is a big labyrinth. Only one road can reach the blood rock continent. Can't be lost inside."

Lin Wenyue said, he took out a letter and handed it to Ye Xuan: "If you see your father, give me this letter for him. In addition, he only stays before going to the * continent. Two words were written, Wang Dian."

"Wang Dian? I know."

Ye Xuan directly received the letter in the swallowing space, this Wang Dian, certainly a certain force in the blood rock continent.

Then he left and went to Zhongzhou.

The five main cities of Zhongzhou, he has been handed over to Jiangyou, Jiangliu and other people to take care of. At the same time, Zhou Yan and Lin Biao also established a new Lingxiao House in Zhongzhou.

Coupled with the help of the elders in the secret, Ling Xiaofu will certainly become the first sect of Tianshui.

The Song Dynasty and the Song ruling were already ready to enter the deep sea palace, and they were shocked after they learned that the entrance to the deep sea palace was on the island of death.

They took the Megatron and flew directly over the island of death.

Now, the overlord here is dead, and the mysterious beasts on the entire island are also growing.

"Go on."

Ye Xuan said to Megatron.

Then they started to fall slowly.

This large cave is about four or five hundred meters high, and it is very dark. Ye Xuan also directly exchanges a lot of night pearls, and then throws them wildly. In a short while, the entire dark caves are lit up.

"The entrance is there."

Song Caijing pointed a direction with a chopped green finger.

Ye Xuan and two people look in this direction, and sure enough, there is a two-person high entrance, this is the place where the Bohai Dragon can never enter.

After seeing no threats in the end, Megatron quickly fell, and then Ye Xuan jumped to the ground.

After Megatron sent the three people to the ground, they shrank into nuts and jumped over Ye Xuan's shoulder.

"Go."

Ye Xuan said one sentence and took the lead into the entrance.

The entrance is still very dark, and it leads to the ground, but Ye Xuan has already touched this passage with the blood of the super-sound bat.

They walked for about half an hour, and the front was finally a golden light. They stepped up and saw a golden gate.

"Deep Haitian Palace!"

Song Congjing read the words on a stone monument on the side.

"This deep sea palace is built by a predecessor who is awkward, and the internal hybrids are wrong. If there is no map, it will be lost."

Ye Xuan thought, just go forward and push the door open.

The golden gate was pushed away by him, and he felt his hand reach into a strange place.

"water?"

Ye Xuan was shocked.

"Oh, how can this water not flow out?" Song Tingjing approached with a strange look and reached into it.

"Curious, the sleeves are not wet." Song ruling can not help but say.

However, Ye Xuan's face is not so good.

"This should be the formation method. I estimate that if we enter it, the speed will decrease." Ye Xuan said that the whole person had drilled in. He felt that even if there was no underwater breathing effect of the sharp-edged fish, he would be fine.

The Song Dynasty and the Song ruling also came in. Sure enough, you can breathe in this special water, but the speed has indeed dropped. After all, there is resistance.

Of course, this is only her and the Song ruling. Ye Xuan has been beneficial to the blood of the swordfish and is not restricted in the water.

"It's amazing, look at the top." Song cut the head and said.

Ye Xuan followed and looked up and found that the ceiling was transparent and could see the fish swimming above. Not only that, but they also saw a crab swimming in.

"It seems that the threat of this deep sea palace is from the holy beast in the sea." Ye Xuan said slowly.

All three of them went to the deep sea palace, and the door behind them was closed.

Although it is said to be on the bottom of the sea, the array of the upper ones will emit light, so there is not much difference between the passage and the outside.

The first feeling of this deep sea palace to Ye Xuan was in the aquarium. However, the swaying seaweed under the corner of the passage made Ye Xuan understand that this is a deep sea palace.

"Ye Xuan, now there are three roads here, where should I go?" Song Congjing looked around and asked.

Ye Xuan pointed to the first road and replied: "If you encounter a road, just go to the west and go all the way."

Although it is difficult to tell where the east is on the sea and where it is west, he has a compass in his hand and still won't get lost.

They walked for a while, and they actually encountered some mysterious beasts, sharks, crabs, and turtles, but these were only mysterious beasts, and they were easily solved by three people.
