Chapter 3331: Too cruel

The method of crystal ball reflection is an auxiliary method of Taoism. Although it does not have attack power, this method can be a crystal ball that can be condensed by the power of the gods.

All the scenes and sounds on the other side of the other side of the plane are isolated, and they are all subtle. It is said that this magical power can be cultivated to a deep level, and even the world can be seen, and the future of the future is incomparable.

Even in the comprehension camp of the Terran, only the cultivation of the mystery is still preserved in the Ten Commandments of the Dominion, and there are not many practitioners. There are only a dozen people in each generation.

The palace is indifferent as the second house of the Tenth Heaven Palace, and the disciples of the Palace of the Imperial Palace are closed. The nature of nature is no doubt. His time to cultivate this crystal ball back is not long, but he has already entered the room, which is a small achievement.

At this moment, with the heartless violent scream of the palace, a silver-white fascinating rush from the body, like a meteor, goes straight to the sky, hangs over the 10,000-meter sky in the inner space of the ding, and turns into a diameter meter. The transparent silver ball is faintly shining like a moonlight.

This kind of technique is very magical. It is not like a kind of exercises, but it is like a silver-white spherical magic weapon. It attracts Ye Xuan and is interested in it.

Then he grinned and smiled. He reached out and pointed out that the sky was rushing to the palace and said: "The crystal ball is back. So, through the silver ball above, everything that happens in the space inside the Ding can be passed out and seen by outsiders. Where are you?"

"This is really interesting. Can you be a pervert?"

Having said that, Ye Xuan's body shape suddenly smashed out, and the fighter plane that was ten feet high was turned into a purple and purple mang, and the blink of an eye was already in front of the palace, and it was blown out: "I was abused by myself, actually still The fart up and down to make a crystal ball to pass the scene image, the hobby is really unique!"

"boom!"

"Card!"

"Hey..."

Ye Xuan's words just fell, and a huge squeaking sound had already been heard, followed by a large number of broken bones. Then the palace squirted a blood arrow in the mouth of the heart, sending out a familiar sorrowful wolverine.

His speed is too fast. Before the body rushes out, it has already been secretly stored. It has opened the anti-material dead light propulsion device of the glass machine, and instantly doubled the speed. Under such a speed, the distance is not Too far, the palace has no reaction at all.

In fact, don't say that the palace is unintentional, and all the strongest people in the other three directions around the void are all the same.

Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru directly stupid, but did not do it. These more than 50 people are all the sacred sages of the top-level gatekeepers of the real camp. At present, the two camps of the Terran are tense. The Tianjiao, who are the helpers of the science and technology camp, are all slightly hostile to the Tianjiao who are in the heart of the palace.

Although Linghu Chong is unruly, but after all, the fox family was also a major valve for the technology camp.

Therefore, seeing the Tianjiao of the comprehension camp to him, the strongest of these tech camps are unwilling to help each other, and Xuanyuan Ziqitou did not express his position, so the strongest of the more than 50 science and technology camps All are at the origin, not moving.

The same is true in the other two directions, the Qiu Fu and Yu Xian Yu, who are not the same as the palace. The former comes from the master of the Ten Commandments, since he just said that he is single-handed, Xuan. Fuhe Yuxian is naturally unable to take it out.

This kind of thing is not good, it is completely unnecessary.

Even if you want to unfold the coffers, you have to wait until the palace has no heart.

Only the twenty-nine people who belonged to a hunting squad with Gong Wuxin's heart were attacked by Ye Xuan when they saw the former. They were suddenly unable to disintegrate their fighting power. The whole body collapsed and suddenly they were all angry. Crossing, they rushed to Ye Xuan, and the various magic weapons were successively sacrificed.

"The spirit is crushed!"

Seeing this scene, Ye Xuan sneered, screaming with a voice that only he could hear.

At the same time, the spiritual source nucleus in the brain that knows the sea is also running fast again. The invisible seven-level spiritual power is like a tsunami that is instantaneously divergent and shaped, and will directly rush toward him. The twenty-fifth comprehension camp was overshadowed.

Spiritual crushing, a mysterious technique that forms a heart-strike with spiritual power, is more unpredictable because of the spiritual power than the human monk's sacred attack, at least for the human power. This is true.

With the moment of the spiritual power of this canopy, more than 20 figures in the direction of Ye Xuanchong are all inexplicably stagnation. The consciousness of these guys is in a state of paralysis at this moment, just like some kind of konjac. .

Ye Xuan's spiritual crushing skills were only intermediate at the time, but now they are advanced, and his spiritual source has just undergone another evolutionary evolution. The spiritual power in the source nucleus has reached seven levels. Can multiply.

Therefore, even if the cultivation of these guys is basically the eighth-order in the late stage of the origin, and even the nine-order grand perfection, stronger than Ye Xuan, but under the circumstance, he is still concealed by him and is in a confused state.

Even if this state lasts for a long time, it may not be too long, but for Ye Xuan, it is enough.

"boom!"

"Hey!"

"Card!"

"Hey!"

"Hey..."

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Ye Xuan's figure once again spurred, and the electric light stone rushed into the crowd. Every time a simple punch, there will be a huge squeak and a creepy sound of the crack. Out, then it is a fierce wolverine.

A stunned, blink of an eye, the twenty-sixth heart of the comprehension camp strong, has been lying on the ground.

This scene is indeed too horrible. At least the other hundred strongmen in the other three directions have never thought of it. Even if Ye Xuan is wearing a stunning glass armor, the combat power should not be abnormal. degree.

You must know that the strongest of the more than 20-year-old comprehension camps are all the top cadres of the ancestors of the ancestors. They are all in the same way as the original eighty-ninth order, but now they are like a group of lambs, and they are the head of Ye Xuan. The fierce wolf rushed into the flock, and under the ravages, no one had ever resisted, and it was unbelievable.

In the blink of an eye, all the twenty-nine people were broken and smashed, and they fell into the dust. The figure in the void was only standing tall. It was only the ten-foot high, like the sacred * of Ye Xuan.

Qiu Fu and Yu Xian Yan opened their mouths, their faces were dignified, and muttered to themselves.

"How could this be? It's too weird, no one is going back, how is it done? There is a mystery about this matter, and there is no secret means for this kid to know!"

"But even so... is this too ferocious? More than 20 tens of thousands of celestial arrogances, all in a short period of ten years, all of them were beaten to the half, this is to be the enemy of the entire comprehension camp. The rhythm?"

Chapter 3332: Calling an era

Gong Wuwu claims to be the head of the four generations of the younger generation of the Terran cultivation camp, but at this moment, it was crushed by Ye Xuan in the face of nearly two hundred strong people.

If the unintentional accidental hoof of the palace can still be attributed to the sudden calculation of the sudden attempt by Ye Xuan, then the young strongmen who are closely suppressed after the 20-year-old comprehension camp are absolutely It was the result of being thoroughly crushed by others.

They even seized the opportunity, and the twenty-something people shot at the same time. The magic weapon has been sacrificed, and it is generally stronger than Ye Xuan...

But the final result is still no suspense, the 20-year-old is suppressed in less than a minute!

All this shocked everyone, that is, Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru and the niece all open their mouths, their faces are dull, they know Ye Xuan enchanting, but they never thought that his fighting power is also true. Earth horror is simply a fierce name.

As for the descendants of the more than 50 science and technology camps behind them, the geniuses of the ancestors of the squadrons have stunned their bodies.

At the moment, Qiu Fufu and Yuxian Yu finally realized that they were the same as the younger generation of the younger generation of the comprehension camp. Why did they be suppressed by Ye Xuan? They had a lot of face before, but now they are completely No such feeling.

Even the palace of the top of the four masters is indifferent, let alone no dust?

This campaign, the so-called comprehension of the four masters, is completely history, and later someone will mention this once famous name, the feeling that the heart can have is mostly just inconsistent!

Only the dust-free and so on had already suffered a big loss in Ye Xuan's hands. At the moment, like him, the 32 prisoners of war surrounded by the remaining four hunting teams in the void have inexplicably emerged. a feeling of qi.

They really feel humiliated, and they really hate Ye Xuan, but now they see that even the heart of the palace has been instantly suppressed, and the humiliation of their own heart is naturally faded.

Even with it, even Ye Xuan seems to be inexplicably pleasing to some eyes in their eyes.

After all, when the right team was surrounded by these four teams, the palace was unwilling to wait for their eyes, but it was very annoying, and now, this guy was finally suppressed by Ye Xuan, no suspense, simply happy!

"This kid is very surprised. The palace has no intention to even suppress the opportunity to display the means. It must be the same without dust. No more, otherwise I will be broken by each!"

In the jade fairy

"boom!"

The voices fell, and the body suddenly burst into an invisible swaying atmosphere. The voids trembled a little. For example, the same wave of heavy cockroaches rushed out of their bodies, and their body shape suddenly appeared more than a hundred and a half. The transparent egg ball, the sound of the cymbals, resounded, all blazed toward Ye Xuan.

Heavy water is really thunder!

Once exploded, a small piece of void will be collapsed!

"No dust, what are you honing? After being floated, there is nothing in the game? Let's take a shot together..."

The revenge of the enemy also screamed at this moment. The sight was first swept to the leaves of Ye Xuan and the Eight King Kong and others. At the same time, the right hand was lifted up and pointed to Ye Xuan: "Finger!"

"Booming..."

At this moment, a large number of green and blue fires rushed out of the body of the revenge, raging and roaring, the flames rolling, but there was no temperature, this piece of emptiness was frozen, the temperature dropped instantly by a dozen degrees, the ground below There are already screams, and some otters are beginning to condense.

At the same time, as he raised his hand and pointed out, taking the position of the enemy's resurrection as the starting point, a blue line that was condensed by the ice was rapidly rushing toward Ye Xuan.

This scene is too strange, anyone who can see it instantly realizes that if the blue ice line touched by this speed, it is the strong star, and will instantly become an ice sculpture!

Nearly 50 star-studded strongmen behind the two men also took shots at this moment. Among them, apart from the patriots from the comprehension camps, there are some strong players in the science and technology camp, but they are from other fields, and the 16th National Congress. The top door valve of the gene liquid is not familiar, so it has not been teamed up with Xuanyuan Zijing and others.

For a time, more than 50 strong men rushed to Ye Xuan at the same time, and the momentum was soaring. A small piece of empty space was shrouded in the brilliance of various magic weapons. Ye Xuan was in the middle of this light curtain and was completely submerged.

The more than 50 science and technology camp strongmen behind the Xuanyuan Zijing three women also moved, they saw it, Ye Xuan seems to be escaping this time, have been overwhelmed by the magic light of the magic weapon, can not be spared.

More than fifty people, all of them looked at the Xuanyuan Zixiao three women, after all, this hunting squad, the prostitute is the leader.

Xuanyuan Ziyang directly turned his eyes: "See what? This lady is not feeling well today, just come over and watch it, you have to shoot, feel free!"

Zhao Qianru nodded like this: "Yes, this lady is the same. The girl's family is not mixed with killing and killing. I am purely playing soy sauce!"

Duanmu tea is even more extinct. He raised his hand and gently stroked a small abdomen. He frowned and said: "Don't look at me, Miss Ben is having a stomach today, can't move!"

In the end, the 50-year-old technology camp strongmen behind them were all rushing out and joined the army of the encirclement and suppression. This opportunity was too rare. They didn't want to miss it, and they turned back to kill the fox. The gates and sects that had been shot by the younger generations of the family had been able to jump out and ask for the benefits.

In the blink of an eye, the number of Tianjiao ancestors who flocked to Ye Xuan at the same time has exceeded 100. The glazed armor like a small mountain has been completely overwhelmed by the endless magic weapon.

Seeing this scene, behind the leaves of Ye Xuan, at this moment, the dust-free sons and others who have not been affected by these magic light curtains, the face also showed a hesitant color. In their view, Ye Xuan is strong again, this time afraid it is also necessary to be suppressed, it should be unable to return to heaven!

Even the eight King Kongs are a little embarrassed, and the fine mans are flickering and fighting.

But they finally did not shoot, after all, the dustless teeth squeezing out a word from the mouth: "Small sputum is not healed, but I want to fight, but unfortunately powerless!"

The eight King Kong eyes turned straight, this is clearly the heart is not allowed, do not want to risk and then let the head be pulled out of the rhythm of several large convex hulls, actually said so grandiose, it really is a thief!

"Look at it!"

The voiceless words just fell, and in the front of the void in the center of the void surrounded by the endless magic light, a sudden burst of violent, is the voice of Ye Xuan.

Then, a strange scene appeared. Thirty-two prisoners of war, such as the Eight King Kong, turned their heads subconsciously. They instantly shocked them when they saw them.

The palace is heartless and exclaimed, and the face is not convinced: "How is it possible? One is still the enemy, but is this the rhythm of an era?"

Chapter 3333: Falling into the eye

It is the kind of heritage that Ye Xuan obtained from the blood of the mutated dragon.

In the legend of the ancient times, the dragon is actually a candle dragon, also known as candle yin, also known as dragon, or candle nine yin!

Legend has it that the image is a human face dragon, with a candle in the mouth, and it is illuminated in the northwest without a day. Legend has it that it can be great, and when it is blinking, it is bright, that is, during the day, when the eyes are closed, it is dark and dark, that is, the night.

Its vision is Ming! It is the candle dragon, the simple eight words, but the momentum and prestige that emerges, but it is fascinating!

To be straightforward, it means: blinking is white, closing your eyes is night!

The whole world, the vast world, is decided to stay up all night because of the simple curtain of a living creature. This kind of statement is too exaggerated and mysterious, it is really unacceptable!

But at this moment, the scene in front of the dustless eyes is clearly the same!

"call....."

With the sound of Ye Xuan's light drink, in the area where the magical treasures raged in the area, a low humming sound quickly spread, although its sound was not seen, it was even more inconspicuous, but With the sound of this strange humming sound, the dust-free son clearly felt that his gods seemed to tremble slightly, and a sigh and uneasiness from the depths of the soul made his face change again.

Although this noise is concealed, but the pressure is like the whole world of the universe, the will of the world is whispering, although it is still the voice of Ye Xuan, but it reveals an inexplicable ancient atmosphere.

At the same instant, a piece of green brilliance, suddenly between the red and the rush.

The void was originally enveloped by the endless magic weapon, but at the moment, with the brilliance of this brilliance from the central area of the magic light curtain, it was an instant spread of the world, the original The magic light curtain has become completely bleak, and then it has fallen into the void.

That is, the more than one hundred star-studded powerhouses including Qiu Fufu and Yuxianyu, the original spurt, the shape that has already been surrounded, is also suddenly stagnation at this moment, everyone is like a moment of viscous In the thick mud, the face is full of hard and painful expressions, and the figure is struggling in the void, trying to break away from some invisible bondage, but it is in vain!

"Reassured! This little master said, promise not to fight you..."

"boom!"

"Card!"

"Hey..."

As Ye Xuan's voice rang again, it was followed by a loud noise, accompanied by the smashing sound of bones and the fierceness of the fierce.

One by one, one after another, coming out one after another, resounding...

The universe void outside Shennong Ding!

After a small half-day time has passed, the star field that has been trapped in the big battle has not only been deserted, but has become more lively with the passage of time!

The fleets and star powers who had gathered here before did not leave, and they were eager to make some plots, or stay here with a purely lively attitude.

The emperor's ancestors who went to visit friends have still not returned. The two generations of the Tianzuo Science and Technology camp, the Yinjiao Fairy and the Xiaoyao have not appeared yet.

As for the 50,000-meter-diameter small fortress from the first universe, it is still on the way!

The patriarch of the Yin dynasty, the singer of the patriarch, the singer of the singer, the singer of the singer, the singer of the Golden Eagle, the singer of the Golden Eagle, the Princess of the Choi, the sorcerer of the savage wolf, and the savage wolf The second cosmic alien squad squad, shortly after entering the Shennong Ding's inner space, was suddenly out of shape and attracted the attention of all the powerful people around.

"Hey..."

A huge sound like a waterfall suddenly slammed into the air, and there was a silver light curtain in the sky above the huge Shennong giant tripod.

The diameter is very wide, like a small canopy, shrouded in the sky above the stars, and the misty misty mist in the giant Ding Ding underneath, showing a dreamlike scene.

All the star-studded powers in the trapped squad were all stunned, and they did not understand what happened. Some people even showed suspicious colors on their faces.

"The method of crystal ball back? It seems that they have already been a master!"

Among the large flying magic weapons such as the huge battleships from the comprehension camp, an elder from the Imperial Palace laughed loudly: "This time, the fox rushed to escape, depending on how he chose, I hope this is not a mistake. Ok, hahaha..."

The stars and the strong people around the world realized that this is the technique of the return of the crystal ball. From the second palace of the Ten Heavenly Palace, the ancient school of the Imperial Palace, it is extraordinary, it can break through the internal domain of the Star Juding. The internal image is passed out and appears in this vast silver light like a sky.

All the people are refreshed, and finally they don't have to be bored anymore.

Also at this time, with the sky-like silver light brilliance flashing abruptly, the empty air outside the trapped squad immediately sounded an exclamation.

"Look, the silver light curtain appears in the image!"

"Ling Hu Chong, it really is Linghu Chong, I saw him, it seems to have been besieged, and the void around him is all the strong people who have just entered the space inside Ding."

"Hey? That is the palace's innocence, the momentum is amazing, it is necessary to be the first to start, it seems that the fox lord will be suppressed immediately, this time is the ten-day palace of the cultivation camp, have to set aside?"

"Hey, it's just over, it's just over. I thought I could see the two fifteenth big worlds, and I'm not able to grow up. I left the Stars, only a batch. The temperament of the same generation of the younger generation is enough to crush him..."

"Yes, although it is a hostile enemy, there is suspected siege, but the opponent's squad is called the genius of the genius. It is not too shameful. He is still too proud. This time the setback should allow it to grow..."

As these words rang, the Emperor's strongmen who fought in the first battle of the war were flashing, and all their faces showed a look of hatred.

At the same time, the top-ranking gatekeepers and helmsmen of the 16th National Congress of the 16th National Congress of the dynasty, who had no regrets, and no confession of the rams, and longevity and Yuwen Changfeng and Xuanyuan old man, also sighed at the same time.

Long Xiang, the prince of the dynasty, and the prince of the Heavenly War Empire, Ling Feng, and the Tianchen State Prince Xu must pour three people, but they are full of laughter!

The general of the Hongdu Liefeng, the emperor of the immortal regiment of the dynasty, looked cold and could not see his expression.

The extraterrestrial powerhouses from the joint consortium of the Second Universe Federation, led by the five ethnic groups of the Yinyin, the Barbarian, the Golden Eagle, the Choi, and the Greedy, are all in the face. The eyes of the room all frowned. They didn't see the second cosmic arrogance that just entered the Shennong Giant Ding, but the battle ended early. This is not good news!

At the same time, including hiding in the distant sky, there has been no appearance, waiting for the opportunity, and other major forces and ethnic groups who have changed their minds have been greatly disappointed. They have not yet gotten their shots.

It was also at this time that the sudden change occurred suddenly, and the eyes of the land were stunned in the void...

Chapter 3334: Another invincible * of war

In the silver light curtain, the purple mech giant, like a small mountain, instantly turns into a streamer, in a way that makes everyone feel scared and jumps directly in front of the palace, and then kicks out The sound of the bone cracks passed through the gap and it was sour.

Subsequently, a fierce and long wolverine sounded, and the heavily inflicted palace fell into the ground below. It was a serious injury and lost its fighting power.

Not waiting for the surrounding air to see this scene, the innumerable star-studded powerhouses have come back to the world, and the violent anger of Yuxian and the enemy has already sounded, including Xuanyuan Ziyang and Duanmu Xiaocha The Tianjiao of the more than 50 science and technology camps behind them also plucked at the same time.

The hundreds of strong people have sacrificed their own magic weapons. For a time, the radiant light lingers into the stars, and a sky is shrouded. The silver light curtain is flooded with infinite brilliance, overwhelming the purple armor like the * of war. giant.....

Until then, the star-studded powerhouses around the world had come back from the horror of the moment before the moment, and all kinds of different exclamations began.

Especially the direction of the void gathered by the fleets in the comprehension camp, the snoring and the screaming, and the maddening laughter was mixed in it. It was after seeing Ye Xuan's suppression of the dustless, and finally I couldn't escape the bad luck and vent and release after being overwhelmed by the overwhelming magic weapon.

However, everything is not finished!

At the same time as the exclamation of the outside world, the silver light curtain over the stars in the sky was changed again.

The brilliance of a waterfall in the sky suddenly rises to the sky, and after the unfolding of the exhibition, the innumerable magical brilliance of the original glory is bleak, and then it falls into the dust.

Including more than 100 star-studded powerhouses who sacrificed these magic weapons, their physiques all stopped at the same moment. They seemed to be trapped in the mud, and their faces were struggling with pain, but unfortunately they could not break free.

They are bound by an invisible force, and they are all unable to move.

This scene was too strange, and it happened so suddenly, the original exclamations outside the big bangs suddenly came to an abrupt end, turning into a sound of coolness that sounded at the same time.

Business is over a little, and the hurdles are squawked up from the hurdles.

Wrongly passed, followed by the next one...

These more than one hundred star-strong powers are all bound by commonly mysterious forces, and they can't move. The scene that follows is no longer described as a tiger.

If there are tigers rushing into the flock, at least they will run away, but at this moment, these star-studded powerhouses can't even run away, they can only struggle in the same place, they can't do anything, waiting for the two people. Two big laps of big fists hit the body.

"Card!"

"Card..."

The sound of the crisp bones shattered one after another, and wherein they rang through the big gaps, and they clearly penetrated into the ears of all the strong men in the void.

Outside the big squad, at this time it was already dead, and there was no sound of even a little bit of coolness.

All the people are scared.

If Ye Xuan's fist will be dust-free before the dust, or because the former is too late to prevent shots, there is quite a suspicion of concealment, then now, the terrorist power he displays is absolutely normal.

Take one enemy, even more!

Moreover, it is still the first party to shoot, and the various magic weapons that have been sacrificed have already drowned Ye Xuan's body shape. Anyone who has seen it feels that he is in danger.

However, in this case, everything changed with the brilliance of a green glory.

The one with more people, the one who took the first shot, sacrificed a number of magic weapons that drowned the body of Ye Xuan... but it was abused!

This is simply thinking!

What is even more unacceptable is that Ye Xuan is able to do this. It is not a heavy weapon like the giant star of the stars. The mysterious brilliance of the green dragonfly is clearly one. Kind of magical power.

A person who was present did not understand, but the power of horror and horror was super-powerful. In an instant, more than one hundred magic weapons lost their brilliance, and the dust fell in the gloom.

At the same time, it is the moment to bind more than a hundred stars who are besieged by him!

Even the magic weapon belongs to a comprehensive part of the comprehensive strength of the starry sky. The magical powers that the people themselves have mastered need not be said much. In the face of Ye Xuan's act of killing more than one hundred star powers by one person, no one has anything to say. And I can't say any accusations at all.

The sound of the sound of the card is very loud and there is almost no pause, but in fact, it lasts for only a minute or so.

A minute later, the piece of imaginary sky in the silver light curtain could not see many figures, except for Ye Xuan, who was wearing a glass armor, only Xuanyuan Ziwei and Duanmu Xiaocha, and Zhao Qianru's head in the distance. Standing there, with a big open mouth and a look of ghosts.

More than one hundred sieges, including Qiu Fufu and Yuxianyu, have all fallen to the dust.

As for the more than 30 people, including the Eight King Kong and the Dusit, they all fell into their bodies and went to the ground below to collect the spoils.

Seeing this scene, all the strongmen outside the big squad have all expressed the same thought: another invincible * of war was born!

This is what the Terran really deserves!

Being in the camp of the comprehension camp, I don't know who is the one who is avatar. Although I claim to be the invincible * of war, I can surpass the two great realms and fight unbeaten by my own strength. It is indeed enough to be worthy of the name of the human race. .

But this one is in the limelight.

I thought that he was only a drugstore array. Now it seems that the power of the people themselves is not allowed. This is simply a combination of civil and military, and it is against the sky.

A sigh of excitement sounded in an instant, but the comprehension camp was silent, especially the back door of the Eight King Kong and others, including a golden body Luohan who represented the mysterious Buddha of the comprehension camp. color.

Compared with Gong Wuxin and others who were suppressed, almost disabled, the Eight King Kong and others clearly have been surrendered, which is even more shameful.

However, the elders of the Zongmen, such as the Palace of the Palace, who were behind the palace, did not despise their meaning. They were worried, because if there were no accidents, most of the hundreds of people who were suppressed by the palace, including the palace, were mostly suppressed. It will soon be surrendered like the Eight King Kong.

Inside the big squad, Ye Xuan rushed to the sky, the silver light curtain was better than a middle finger, and then slammed down to the palace where the dust fell below. He replied: "Polarry, say you, quickly recover the injury." The broken screen of the sky has to be maintained by you. If you dare to work passively, you will kill you..."

Chapter 3335: ransom

I am killing you!

In a simple sentence, domineering!

The key is still in the heart of the palace, this is the head of the four young masters of the contemporary younger generation of the comprehension camp, the second house of the tenth house of the tyrants, and the close disciples of the lord of the palace.

Now, in the face of countless star powers, people have been drinking such a sentence without any scruples.

The palace did not feel that the whole person had to be blown up.

Especially when I think of the silver light curtain in the sky, I still have to make it myself, and then I have to spend my body's strength to continue to maintain its existence, so that there are countless star powers outside the big circle. Look at yourself and the body of the hard-working brothers, how are they abused...

What is this special thing?

What is his remorse? It's almost even a brainstorm!

The next thing as usual, Ye Xuan released the same words as before, warning the palace that he was unwilling to wait, or to die, or to restore his ability to act in a fragrant time.

As for their magic weapon and those attacking magic weapons that were previously attacked by Ye Xuan's Dragon Blood, they were all collected and collected by the Eight King Kong and others and sent to Ye Xuan.

The latter waved a big hand, did not look at it too much, and all of them were in the immortal world.

In the process, in addition to the eight King Kong, the bald and the monk are also playing the role of dog legs, because Ye Xuan said, under the hands of the boss does not raise idle people, or work, or a few more punches, this time It is not a catastrophe, it is directly fatal.

Under his arrogance, it is the dustlessness of the four masters of the truth, and he can only surrender.

It is foreseeable that the next three comprehensions, including the innocent heart of the palace, will also be like this, following the dustless trail.

All of this, through the silver curtain of the sky like a sky, was seen by the numerous star-studded powerhouses in the void around the big circle.

The top leaders of all major forces have become flushed, but they are all silent. They don't even have a drink, because the last battle, including the revenge of the more than 100 generations of the ancestors, lost. Not at all.

People simply do not have any tricks, but they use their own magical power to suppress the Quartet. No one has stabbed them. Even if they want to say awkward words, they are so pale...

They didn't talk, but Ye Xuan was not polite. After a column of incense, I saw that a total of more than 100 people had all recovered their ability to move. They all looked pale in the face, looking at themselves with resentment in the awe. Xuan snorted and raised his hand and pointed out that the eight King Kong began to talk.

"From now on, you are all captives of the Lord. This is the Eight King Kong, your general manager. If you don't listen to them, then..."

"This little master does not say anything, directly bombing him into a pile of rotten meat!"

Upon hearing this, the eight King Kongs suddenly got excited. From this moment on, the four masters of the comprehension are the soldiers under their hands. This was not thought of before.

Although it may attract people to hate, but the last sentence is forced to explain everything, they have no pressure at all.

As for the revenge of the revenge of the revenge of the rebellion, on the one hand, the injury is not recovered, only the ability to recover is restored, and it is impossible to escape.

On the other hand, the magic weapon and cultivation resources of the body have all been collected. If they want to resist, they are no longer possible. There is only one way in front of them. If you don't want to die, you can only give in!

"Little brother, it was just a misunderstanding before. Is this a bit wrong?"

When Ye Xuan's words were just finished, Yuxian's cockroaches screamed out, and I saw the feeling of being pitiful. I was fascinated: "Len's family is a girl, and it's not like a stone heart..."

"Shut up, you are an old sorcerer, didn't you just call a thief? Don't take the lead, don't beat a woman, be honest with them, or you know!"

After waiting for Yuxian to finish the words, Ye Xuan interrupted her words when she screamed. The old demon who had blurted out was almost not letting Yuxian suffocate to the spot, but Xuanyuan Zijing III stood in the distance. The woman covered her mouth and chuckled.

For Ye Xuan, who was not fascinated by the jade fairy who claimed to be the first beauty of the comprehension camp, they were obviously extremely satisfied.

When the laughter came, Ye Xuan remembered that there were three gimmicks next to him. It seemed to be a bit of a headache. After frowning, he turned to look at the past and raised his hand to Xuanyuan Ziyun and the three women.

Then he said: "The three beautiful women over there, don't blame the young master for not warning you. If you are acquainted with it, come over immediately. The internal domain of this giant tripod has been set by the young master to be inaccessible, you are not running. Lost."

"Look at the fact that you have not shot, the Lord does not collect your magic weapon and cultivation resources, nor does it restrict you from being controlled by the Eight Kings. As long as you do not escape, you have absolute freedom."

"If you don't think about it, if you want to escape, hey, this little master has just seen this old enchanting you have seen it, don't blame me for not pity the jade..."

Deliberately saying this, Ye Xuan is also a helpless move, but the effect is really good.

Although his words don't sound too polite, Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru are extremely satisfied. The key is the effect of the big beauty.

As for Yuxian Yu, it was almost fainted again. When looking at Ye Xuan, the eyes were almost the same as the knife.

What is the look of the little bastard!

Compared with their sisters, this lady is different from her appearance and her temperament. What is worse?

How to put them there is a big beauty, when it is time, this is an old woman? It's just crazy!

In the end, Xuanyuan Zizi and the three women still came over, but they were not too close to Ye Xuan. After all, so many people looked at it and could not reveal it.

The geniuses of the descendants of the 50-year-old comprehension camps, which were originally behind them, now see Xuanyuan Ziyang and the three women, all of them are tearful and regretful.

A misstep is a thousand hate, I know it is not impulsive!

At this point, the descendants of the Terran camp entered the inner space of the star giant Ding, the two hundred people, have all been captured by Ye Xuan, only a few people slipped, I don't know where it is, but I can't look down on any big waves. It is.

Seeing this scene, the void around the big squad is dead, including the War One. The high-level elders of the major forces and the gates are all covered in iron and blue. This time, it's really a shame.

Fortunately, the little * in Ding is still thinking about it, and it has not hurt their lives. As for the magic weapon that was collected, hey, he will return later.

Just as this thought floated in their minds, the giant armor in the silver light curtain had once again looked up to the sky. First, it was better than a middle finger. Then he lazily answered: "The old ghosts outside, next, We seem to be talking about the ransom problem?"

Chapter 3336:

ransom?

When I heard the word, everyone was stunned.

All the prisoners of war, including the four masters of the Ming Dynasty, were first glimpsed, and then all the faces showed anger and anger.

Too shameless, haven't all the magic weapons and cultivation resources of the nearly two hundred people have been collected? These can all be the gates of the two camps of the Terran and the ancestors of the Zongmen. Which storage treasures contain a lot of cultivation resources?

Now all of them have been scraped away by Ye Xuan, but he is still not satisfied. He is clamoring to collect ransoms from the sects and families behind everyone. This is simply mad!

"Let the fox rush, you are not afraid to eat and blast yourself? Don't be too greedy, don't be too much!"

In anger, a prisoner of war stood up and faced Ye Xuan with a resentment: "Don't forget, our Tianzu Emperor's Qiankun ancestors will return soon, by then, even your star giant Ding can't stop it. In his footsteps, you must take out your tortoise and thoroughly suppress it!"

This prisoner of war is a member of the Tianshi Emperor. Although it is not a tribute, it is only a descendant of the branch, but it is a well-known descendant of the Heavenly Wars. It is an amazing talent. This time, it was sent to Shennong. tripod.

"It turns out that you are the descendant of the old king, and the young master does not know that there is a small king of the heavenly warriors here."

Ye Xuan stunned a bit, and then he grinned: "If you know it early, you won't even have the interest to capture you. Like you, you will see a blast, and you will see a blast! "

"boom!"

The last four words, Ye Xuan is almost roaring out. When the voice is not falling, the mech giant with a height of ten feet has suddenly rushed out. This time he used all his strength and also opened the glass armor. Micro anti-matter dead light cannon system.

This fist went down, Ye Xuan's flesh and blood power and the energy light ball of the anti-material dead light cannon smashed together on the body of the Tianzhan Empire's Tianjiao, with the sound of a huge explosion. The result was that he had smashed his entire body into a * blast...

Mao did not leave one!

Quiet!

silence!

Dead silence!

This time, even Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru Shantou were scared by the smashing!

This time they entered the Dingnai space. The original intention was to mix in the team of the great gatekeepers of the great gates. When Ye Xuan encountered a crisis of life, he secretly helped, but then saw that Ye Xuan was so strong, they were completely relieved.

But now, with the fall of the descendants of the Heavenly War, three hearts that have just returned to the chest, have once again hung up again.

The fall of a descendant of the Heavenly War Emperor is nothing. The key is that Ye Xuan's move and the words of the righteousness have completely pushed him to the opposite side of the Tianshi Empire.

Even before he showed his true identity, the other two empires of the tech camp, as well as the entire immortal dynasty, could not easily stop.

After all, this screaming is manifested in the face of countless star powers around the void outside the space of the giant tripod, and has risen to the level of the face of the relationship!

At this moment, with the fall of the descendants of the Heavenly War, the more than two hundred prisoners of war around Ye Xuan are all booing. No one dares to touch the mold at this time. This guy is definitely a true killing god. If you don't agree, you will be blasted and provoked!

As for the space outside the giant tripod, it is a large sound of the sound of the cool air. Ye Xuan's speech raises his hand and blasts a descendant of a Heavenly War Emperor, which is beyond the expectations of everyone.

The incident has reached the point where it can no longer be recovered. It is absolutely impossible for the Heavenly War Empire to stop here. In the wake of the big battle, the Tianzhao Emperor's elders are roaring like a thunder. If they are not limited by Shennong's own domain rules, they are afraid. At this moment, it is necessary to plunging into the space inside the Ding.

At this time, Ye Xuan in Ding's space has once again made a sound, and still compares to a * toward the sky, and then the voice of the word is heard.

"This young master needs all kinds of heavenly treasures and mineral materials that are equipped with the 12th and above grades of genetic fluids. Many of them are good. If they are less, they can't enter the eyes of this young master. Just now, the little Wang Ba's end you also See you, ask for more happiness!"

"You only have one day, one day later, if there is any door valve or Zongmen did not send the ransom to the Star Giant, the transaction will be cancelled, and the young master will not idle the idle person, and will clean it up directly!"

"Of course, the eight King Kong and the three beautiful women who have not done it before are not necessary. There must be a difference. These are their own choices, and they can't complain..."

"call out!"

"You are the so-called Terran arrogance? Actually, the whole army is gone, it is really speechless..."

Ye Xuan's words have not been finished yet. From the distance, there is a sound of broken air, followed by a voice that is obviously ridiculous and ridiculous.

Everyone turned to look at it, but saw a silvery yawning spurting in the direction of the sound of the air, the blink of an eye has come to the front, suddenly stagnation, behind a pair of shiny silver plaque The figure appeared, suspended in the sky above the tenth.

This figure is one of the members of the second cosmic Tianjiao squad that finally entered the Ding Nei space. The young patriarch of the Yin dynasty this person is slender and strong, and his face is also cold and extraordinary. Blinking, just like the gods, with a kind of overlooking angle, looking at it with a smile!

The 13-member squad composed of Tianjiao, the descendants of the second universe, separated after entering the Dingzhong space, and each searched in different directions.

The direction of the small patriarch of the Yin dynasty, is exactly this side, and his speed is amazing, so he became the first to encounter with Ye Xuan and other strong people.

As soon as the screaming rainbow came, a few words, all the people were offended, and people were extremely resentful. The prisoners of life, such as the dustless and the palace, were glaring at him.

He thought that he was too arrogant. He came to the Terran territory and actually deliberately provoked him. It was too arrogant.

In fact, what they don't know is that

Although the federations of the Second Universe are not as strong as the Terran, they are all human beings as a whole, and they are young or young. In terms of status, even the emperors of the immortal dynasty are not as good as them.

After all, the immortal dynasty does not represent the entire human race!

For this reason, the young masters and the young people of the second universe have always been self-sufficient. Of course, people also have proud capital, such as the stunned rainbow in front of you, not to see his cultivation as a realm and no Like the dust and others, it is also the ninth big point of origin, the ninth-order grand perfection, but its real combat power, but far beyond the dust-free...

Chapter 3337: Descendants of the gods

The reason why the real power of the two universes and the minority races of the second universe is far more than the dust-free and palace in the same realm of the human race, there is actually a reason.

And this is still a relatively common phenomenon, all of which exist in the top ten ethnic groups of the Second Universe.

This time, the second cosmic group coalition that entered the inner space of Shennong Ding, the Shaozuo of the Yin and Dai people, the horror of the patriots, the lesser protagonist of the barbarian family, the lord of the Golden Eagle family, the singer of the Golden Eagle family, the beauty of the princess Dusha, the savage wolf's sinister wolf and other ethnic groups behind the five, are all the top ten in the second universe!

It can be said that the real combat power of the five of them is far superior to the human race strong with no dust and no heart.

The reason for this is the blood of their ethnic group!

Since joining the Federation of Van Loo, among the various communities of the Second Universe, the scientific and technological strength of the Terran and the culture of comprehension have also become popular. This is the law of the universe. The real good thing is that it will not be cut off. Wherever it is, The flowering result can be continued!

But for the federal people of the Second Universe, the scientific and cultural forces and self-cultivation civilizations that are derived from the Terran and accepted by them are not the most important part of their combat effectiveness.

The most important component of the combat power of the various universes of the Second Universe is actually their own blood heritage.

These blood vessels are different because of different ethnic groups, and they are also strong and weak. The top ten second-common federations of the universe have their extraordinary inheritance, which leads to the real power of their people. Far beyond the realm of its own realm!

Like the patriarch of the Yin dynasty, the singer of the patriarch, the singer of the singer, the singer of the golden eagle, the singer of the golden eagle, the singer of the singer, the singer of the singer, the singer, the wolf For the realm of the palace and the heart of the palace, for the ninth big point of origin, the fifth-order great perfection.

But in fact, their real combat power can match the strongest of the tenth world of heaven and earth. They dare not say that they are strong in the late Tianjing, but they are not arguing with the existence of the Terran Cave. So simple.

Basically, these five people have the fighting power to compete with the strong people in the middle of the hole!

The five people are all able to cross a big realm and compete with the strong people of the human race. In a sense, they can actually be regarded as the same level of existence as the demon, the magic dust, and other human races. It is.

The top ten of the second universe are the top ten people, all of whom are these characters!

Therefore, the The two world-famous enchanting scorpions and scorpions, the devils, the magic dust, and so on, have become the masters of the sky.

For all of this, Ye Xuan does not know, and is not interested in knowing!

He only knows that this guy is very annoying now. More importantly, he is not a Terran in the third universe, but now he has ran to the Terran's territory, five people and six, with a big tail wolf!

In the sneer of the heart, Ye Xuan squinted at the stunned rainbow, and asked with a scornful voice: "If the Lord did not guess wrong, you should be from the second universe... Silver

"Let the fox rush, pay attention to your tone!"

The heirs of the ethnic group, it is best not to be a master of the family before me, because it is very shameful, even if I don't mind, the face of the Terran is still stained by you, it will make people laugh!"

This is even more rude, that is, many people and powerful people in the void around the big squad are exposed to the unpleasant color, which is quite uncomfortable in the ears.

It's just that they didn't say much, because the words of Jinghong's words are not welcome, but from a certain point of view, what people really say is also true.

Although the Yin Dai nationality is not as strong as the human race, it is a complete ethnic group after all. As a descendant of a minority family and a family of the Terran, the identity of the Yinlu is not far behind him at the official level!

Of course, in the era of the universe, with respect for strength and strong humanity, it is the second universe and the various ethnic groups that are united together, and they can be comparable. It's really true, any one of the second universe, Being looked at by the human race.

However, if such a discourse is hostile, it will be said that it is all right, but now everyone is a member of the Federation of Varo, and this should not be disclosed in public, and it will affect the internal unity of the Union.

Especially in the situation that the internal relations of the federal government are now tight, this kind of words is more sensitive. Everyone is uncomfortable with a few things, but they should not really say it. What's more, is only a federation of the Second Universe. The ethnic minorities only exist, the younger generation exists, who is so embarrassed to go with him?

Therefore, the top leaders of the various ethnic groups, including the War One, are not happy, but they have no snoring.

However, they don't say anything, but they don't mean that the group of people in the Ding's space will be like this.

Seeing They have shouted.

It is not to help Ye Xuan, and the key is that they are all suppressed by Ye Xuan

In the same way, Ye Xuan is also extremely disgusted with the words of Yu Hong, and his anger has long been embarrassing.

After raising his right hand and signaling that the prisoners of the palace had no heart and no dust, he turned to the front and looked at the horror of the distant sky. He glanced at him and sneered: "You are nothing but A birdman...not right, even the birds are not!"

Speaking of this, Ye Xuan seems to suddenly think of something, after a little bit, the corner of his mouth slowly smacked a touch of quite fascinating Sen Han smile, staring at the stunned rainbow, smiled and asked: "I heard that you The body of the Yin Dai people is actually a kind of silver pheasant, and the form of the monks is only manifested. In fact, there is no lineage of the Terran, right?"

"That is nature. My family is the descendant of the blood of the ancient gods. How can you have the blood of your human race? It is a joke!"

I didn't think much about it. I saw Ye Xuan's * problem that he always prided on. When he even raised his chin, he said with pride: For the sake of it, after all, you have to deal with your family!"

"I'm sure there is no human race? Then I am relieved! Finally, I don't have to worry about the psychological barrier!"

Ye Xuan licked his mouth and screamed at the corner of his mouth. When he spoke, his body suddenly slammed into the air. "Because it is a beast, the Lord can sip. If the descendants of the ancient gods are better." The grilled chicken wings must be nourished, like a big medicine, definitely not to be missed..."

Chapter 3338: Braised chicken wings

"boom!"

The thrilling explosion came out, and the ten-foot high was like a small mountain-like glazed armor, and the giant boxing was thrown out, and the screaming rainbow in front of the emptiness in front of the sky, the meat flew to the flesh!

Although this boxing is amazing, but the shocking rainbow has not suffered any harm, of course, this is because Ye Xuan did not show his full strength, at least, he did not have the same as the previous one. The prisoners of war blew into a * fog, and the micro-anti-material dead light cannon that started the glass machine armor!

After all, I still remember the wings of the gods and chickens of the people. I really want to blow it up. Then I still have a hair?

But this is a point where there is no dust and no prisoners waiting for the palace, but I don't know.

Although they didn't like Ye Xuan, they didn't want to immediately suppress him on the spot, but at the moment, when Ye Xuan and Yu Jing's battles were on the rise, including the dust-free and the palace's heartless people, including the four masters, all The prisoners of war all stood subconsciously on the side of Ye Xuan, hoping that he would crush the rainbow!

The internal struggle is the matter of the Terran, but if it involves the strong outside the domain, they can still temporarily put down their personal grievances. All they want to do is to suppress the strong outsiders!

Unfortunately, the result is that everyone is disappointed.

Just a punch that smashed the heavenly empire's Tianjiao into a flesh-and-blood scene did not reappear. Even the sounds of the cracks that they had already known were not.

Some are just the sound of the whistling energy, and a small piece of void is affected.

This punch seems to be equally divided, and the fox lord failed to suppress the stunned rainbow on the spot, even without hurting it!

Such a result makes the palace unintentional and other people feel lost, and the heart is angry, this person can be tied with the Linghu less masters, does it mean that if they are right, will they be collectively suppressed as before?

When I think of it, they are even more unwilling in their hearts. I hope that Ye Xuan's thoughts of suppressing each other are even stronger. Some people even cheered up loudly. They can't see that they are all Ye Xuan's prisoners of war!

"Is this what your people call the world's enchanting? It's just like this in my opinion! It's too disappointing!"

A fist and Ye Xuan slammed a split, and the confidence of the rainbow increased greatly. The last point of the heart disappeared. Suddenly, he laughed loudly: "The young people have not manifested the body, and they use the power of the blood." If that's the case, you are afraid that you can't stand it. Hey, the world is really like this. Some things are exaggerated! It's better to meet up..."

"Want to hear the truth?"

Ye Xuan sneered: "Yeah is just worried. If it is too hard, it will be bombarded before you show out the animal body. You can't see your body at that time. I don't dare to completely determine whether you have ethnic origin. Even if the chicken wings are baked, they will not dare to talk, there will be psychological obstacles!"

"Breasted chicken wings?"

"Let the fox rush to you! It must be suppressed!"

The stunned rainbow is angry, and the roaring screams like a thunder to stimulate its own blood, which shows the body: "This is a descendant of the blood of the ancient gods, you actually said what braised chicken... can't bear it!"

Under the ground, the palace prisoners and the dust-free prisoners are also awkward. This is the second time Ye Xuan mentioned the burning of the wings. Before the first mention, almost no one went to the heart. After all, this kind of thing is too strange. At the same time as fighting with people, I thought about baking the other party after the war. How big is the nerve, what a terrible brain hole can make?

But at the moment, with Ye Xuan mentioning it again, they could not help but have some doubts.

It was Xuanyuan Zijing, Duanmu Xiaocha, and Zhao Qianru, who were all surprised and whispered in their own words.

"God, this guy won't really want to bake someone to eat it? It really is a big bastard, but I like it!"

"Yes, Sister Zi Zi, Xiaocha thinks this too. If the guy is really a descendant of the poultry, its wings must be very delicious. Anyway, it is not a human being. There is no psychological barrier to eating."

"Right right, then let's say it. After a while, this big bird is slaughtered. Let's follow the cooking together. We will have a chicken wings at the end, lest the guy say that we eat white food..."

Listening to the dialogue between the three gimmicks, the prisoners of the palace, such as the heartless and the dustless, were completely stupid. In the end, they all stunned and shouted, and the hula la together retreated, and the Xuanyuan Ziyan three opened a distance. They suddenly felt that the three gimmicks did not look as good and harmless as they seem on the surface, the same ferocious!

"Hey!"

The sound of a sorghum into the cloud sounded, the original nine-color flashing sky, the silver mansions in an instant, the silver scorpion's young chief the fare has Closed a mile, which is a very small place.

Although this group has the body of the silver pheasant bird, but the size of the body is different due to the depth of the blood pulse, The body of the family is 10,000 meters away, even if it is the stronghold of the family in the thirteenth world.

This shows that his blood concentration is high, and it really does not deserve to be the patriarch of the Yin Dai nationality, discovered the first day of the younger generation of the family.

At this moment, after the body of the silver cockroach and the big bird, the stunned rainbow is incomparably proud, and a pair of silver wings with a stretch of 10,000 meters are swaying, proudly flying in the sky, and a stalk of feathers. The boundless silver color is dazzling.

It was the palace on the ground below, the heartless and the dust-free, and others could not help but look at their eyes. The face flashed a touch of unwillingness, but the heart had to admit that the copy of this replica was really amazing enough.

It's a pity that, without waiting for him to hover in the sky, Ye Xuan has already rushed up, and the words that came out of his mouth were dumbfounded, almost slamming the air.

"Wow, a big pair of chicken wings, what can I do? I can't finish it at all!"

"boom!"

With the words of the violent rumor, the giant glazed giant of the ten-footed giant suddenly slammed out and violently screamed: "The glare of the violent martial arts hits thunder!"

"Card!"

"Card..."

The words in Ye Xuan's mouth just finished, and the sky over the sky responded with the sound of lightning from the card.

The so-called glacial martial arts fist does not exist at all. Even if it exists, Ye Xuan can't give it a name for the thunderous tactics. It is too earthy.

The reason why it is so embarrassing is to cover up the spiritual lightning that he is using.

As the spiritual core of his mind evolved again and again, Ye Xuan, who has seven levels of spiritual strength, was originally an intermediate level. Now he has advanced into the advanced level and has a great power. This is a good opportunity. A big bird flies in the sky, it is indeed the day of thunder!

Since it is a spiritual thunderbolt, it is naturally invisible. Although the sound of the card is clear, but it does not see lightning, it is inevitable that it is inevitable, and it is directly hit by a few invisible spiritual lightning. In the middle of the sky...

Chapter 3339: Eat it without eating it

Since Xuan Honghong showed his body, Ye Xuan did not take him seriously. This is not a swearing word, but a fact. This guy is really a big bird with a very high blood concentration. Let Ye Xuan see the hunter heart. !

This large bird, suspected to have the bloodlines of the ancient birds, is really useless if the thin blood is present, but the blood concentration is high, but in Ye Xuan, it is tantamount to a future. Great use of flesh and blood.

He is going to support this guy in Shennong Ding. When he wants to use the poultry blood for medicine in the future, he can use it at any time.

In addition to occupying half of the area of the central volcanic volcano, this piece of Ding's inner space is surrounded by other areas surrounded by mountains. There are many kinds of spirits and animals, which are raised in the future. Big bird, not at all!

However, this matter cannot be known to the Yinyi people. Otherwise, even if Ye Xuan is safe from this time, they will definitely not give up afterwards. They will surely pursue the whereabouts of Ye Xuan. This feeling of being caught by a thief is not good. Ye Xuan does not want to. Go and try.

Therefore, you must die, at least, on the surface, it must be!

Although the patriarchs of the Yinlu people have been killed, the family will not give up, but revenge and saving people are two different things, and the intensity will never be the same. Ye Xuan is still clear.

At this moment, with the invisible spiritual power, Thunderbolt smashed a porcelain on the head of the bird that stunned the rainbow. After it screamed, it fainted and passed away.

What surprised Ye Xuan was that this cargo had left a certain distance from the original place because it had soared in the sky. At this moment, it was not far from the central volcano, and it was clearly on the edge of the crater!

"You are too bad for the big chicken. It's no wonder that you are being beaten by the sky! Seeing that you are dying, you are deliberately hitting the crater. Is this the rhythm of the top ingredients of the Lord?"

Seeing

The last word was pulled out and Ye Xuan raised his hand. The * blade of the devil is rushed out from the glass machine, and the wind will rise. The blink of an eye has turned into a hundred-meter-long sword, and the silver-billed bird that has fallen into the volcano of the central domain has gone.

Of course, before the sacrifice of the demon blood blade, Ye Xuan has already banned the property of the blood and blood energy of this blade. Otherwise, it will be turned into a bone, and there is a hair!

"puff!"

The speed of the demon blood blade is almost at the extreme, and the silver cockroach is fainting. It is completely free-falling, and the blink of an eye is caught up. It directly drops its right wing. For a time, the silver blood falls. , see Ye Xuan meat hurts!

"Hey!"

The cold was not taken to the small half and the right side. Before being stunned by several spiritual powers, the stunned screaming screamed, and screamed, and fell to the lower part of the volcano, and it was scared and fainted, and the figure disappeared. not see.

The * blade of the demon is a sharp hover, and it is tied to the small silver wing that has been fallen, and it is returned to Ye Xuan with it.

In the process, Ye Xuan secretly spurred Shennong Ding, so that the central volcano volcano rushed and smashed an orange flame, overwhelming the entire volcano, whoever saw it, just fell from here The silver owl, which is deep into the volcano, must be burned to fly ash.

Naturally, this is not the case. Ye Xuan has already refining Shennong Ding, and it has ignited the one-of-a-kind red fire of the central domain of Ding Ding. Under the control of his mind, the hustle and bustle of the central volcano Deep beneath the fireworks, there is simply a cage area. There is no fireworks, including the undead pearl that has been condensed, and it is also banned from the corner of the bottom of the volcano.

Now, Ye Xuan also directly trapped the stunned rainbow, and all the sounds and breaths could not be transmitted.

At this point, Ye Xuan finally succeeded in catching a living, and the sky was over the sea, and the gods who did it did not know what it was. It seemed to be the stunned rainbow in the depths of the volcano, which aroused the smashing of the volcano. Orange fireworks.

Ye Xuan did not care, even when he looked up at the silver canopy that had been maintained by the palace, he jumped and snarled like a thunder: "The silver singer listens, the lord knows that you must have other The old bird stared at the outside, and the stunned rainbow chicken tossed the space inside the lord of the lord. The volcano broke out. How many flowers and plants have to be burned? This is not finished, you have to pay, otherwise This young master will not stop!"

As soon as the voice fell, the * blade of the sorcerer that had been tied to the small silver-winged wing had already returned. Ye Xuan waved the magic blade back into the body, and then extended the armored giant arm and dragged the bird with a stunned rainbow. The wings fell to the ground.

To the Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru and the three women, they said: "The three beautiful women, this is the top ingredients, naturally it is necessary to enjoy the beauty together, you come over, eat with the young master, who dares Refused, Lord, I killed him!"

This is naturally deliberately said, this kind of good thing, big qi and blood, Xuanyuan Zizi three women are here again, if he does not take the initiative, the next time must be liquidated again, so Ye Xuan can only be so, he put The bad name is stunned, let the three witches sit and enjoy.

For Ye Xuan's thoughtful considerations, the three gimmicks are still quite satisfied. The slap in the middle of the flash has counted the fascination of your acquaintance, but the face is full of showing the expression of struggling anger, and even raised his hand and accused Ye Xuan. A few words, saying that the Yinlu people are not the human race, but they are the friendly friends of our Federation of the Vultures. They will never do the food of the people of the ethnic group. They will never die!

Ye Xuan, who heard this, almost fainted, and even the prisoners of war and the innocent prisoners were all strange. In their view, they were all coerced anyway, and they did not eat white. Seeing is a big supplement.

Although Ye Xuan's heart is speechless, in order to avoid being liquidated by these three hoes in the future, he can only smile and coerce, and finally his look is stunned. A devil's head, you don't eat it. I will eat you!

In the end, Xuanyuan Ziyang's three hoes finally came from him, and approached the past. Under the pressure of Ye Xuan, the small silver-winged wings with a few meters of foot were washed away in a small stream.

After doing all this, Ye Xuan once again summoned the bloodstain of the demon, and put the chicken wings that had been washed and peeled off, and flew over the sky, directly to the top of the crater, and the oranges that rushed up. The red flame was roasted, and it was golden and oily, and the aroma filled several hills.

The reason why it is baked with orange red flame is also exquisite. This is the one-color flame of Shennong Ding. It can keep the essence of meat in the flesh without losing.

After a short period of time, the devil's blood blade flew back, with a bright oily, aroma-filled chicken wings, and Ye Xuanjin's fluid was so intense that he couldn't help it on the spot...

Chapter 3340: a big piece of steak

After roasting, one color of orange red flame went to its dregs, leaving all the essence, even the meat with bones, but still two feet thick, one foot long, three people looked at it is not enough.

But in fact, this is not the case at all!

After the silver-bowed wings were baked by a single orange-red fire, the entrance was instant, and Ye Xuan and Xuanyuan Ziyang, Duanmu Xiaocha, and Zhao Qianru had three gimmicks. In total, four people, in less than a few minutes, will be the whole Many long golden grilled wings ate half, but the stomach did not feel full at all.

In this way, it is not a problem for the four people to eat the golden grilled wings that are bigger than their size.

At the moment, with half of the golden grilled wings, the hundreds of millions of pores on the four people are all open, and there seems to be an endless stream of Xia Rui's mans, which are all gathered in the head of the head and become a mist. The person is dumbfounded.

It's just that the silver eagle has no such effect. Otherwise, this group is afraid of being hunted and eaten.

The key is the effect of Shennong Ding's one-color orange-red flame. Although it is just a simple roasting and informal cooking, it is still very different. The general refining pharmacist even uses the best medicine to smelt. Not at all.

"To break through, the big * of the murderous, actually forced the Miss to eat the flesh and blood of the friends of the Friends of the country, actually made it to break through, this is how Miss Ben went out to see people in the future, oh..."

When she ate two-thirds, Xuanyuan Ziyan suddenly screamed. Her cultivation was originally the seventh order of origin. I didn't expect to have two-thirds of the silver-winged birds with Ye Xuan and others. Actually, it will break through.

At this moment, the painful color of this * is brought out of the crying, accusing Ye Xuan of the crime, but my heart is happy, she is suffering because the whole person is about to explode, full of energy. The degree made her feel scared, she was resentful in her heart, not coming late, and could not continue to eat.

As Xuanyuan Zijing left alone, he sneaked into a mountain forest next to him, and the eyes of the prisoners who were innocent and innocent were falling.

"Sure enough, it is the big chicken with the blood of the ancient gods. The energy in the flesh and blood is so amazing, and the taste is not said. Compared with it, what kind of braised dragon liver is so weak."

Speaking of this, Ye Xuan suddenly thought of something. At this moment, he waved his hand and waited for the eight King Kong and others waiting for him to say: "What are you waiting for? What do you want to do under the hands of Laozi? If you dare not eat this big grilled wing, you are not the one who is all the way. Now you will kill you or not?"

After all, the eight King Kong is the general manager of the prisoners of war under his hand. How many people have to give some benefits to others? It is necessary to run the horse and not to feed the grass.

The eight King Kongs are like a big man, and when they listen to Ye Xuan's words, they have been held as a * of heaven in the heart, waiting for the good heart of this moment!

However, these eight guys are not fools. I know that these can't be revealed. The face is full of struggling looks. In the end, it seems that I have taken a heart and bite my teeth and took over a large piece of grilled-winged meat that Ye Xuan separated.

As a result, one of the guys may have been jealous for too long. He swallowed it all in one mouth. He didn't taste it. He looked at the seven people beside him all in pain and eating. The hand gives them two big mouths.

Originally, I wanted to say that you are embarrassed. When the words come out of your mouth, they become: "Sin, sin..."

Next to it, the palace has no heart and no dust, and others have turned their eyes straight, all of them cast their contemptuous eyes...

Outside Shennong Ding, the void around the big circle!

In the Ding Nei space, Ye Xuan and Xuanyuan Ziwei three women and the eight King Kong and others are making a great meal, but the outside has already completely fried the pot!

Everything that happened inside, all through the silver light curtain, was seen by everyone outside!

The Yin Dai people are among the top ten in the second universe. But now, the young patriarchs have been degraded, and even a bird's wing has been baked. This is too shocking. Things have never happened before, shocking everyone.

When they heard that Ye Xuan would compare the grilled-winged meat with the braised dragon's liver, he subconsciously turned his head and exchanged a look, and then he took a very sympathetic look. Glanced at the void in the second space coalition.

In their eyes, the fox lord is a big food, and the words just now are the rhythm of the silver scorpion!

"what....."

"Lake Hu Chong, the old man does not marry you, swears no one!"

On the other side of the Second Universe, the old people of the Yin and Dai ethnic groups roared like thunder, and the roaring sound shook a void. This time their ethnic groups lost their faces, stealing chickens and not turning a meter!

"Oh, sin, sin!"

When the silver scorpion's old roar vented almost, Xuanyuan Zizi old man quickly took over the words and shook his head and said: "This fox boy is too odious, my family Ziyan from the small ants are reluctant to step on one, It's never eaten meat. This time it's really a big problem. It's forced to eat the flesh and blood of the friends of the Aobang people. It's a bad thing for the girl to die..."

On the side, Duanmu's old master also took over the words and quickly excused Duanmu Xiaocha: "Right right, my family's small tea is also like this. Hey, the child never eats the greasy stuff, this time it's really bad. Great sin!"

The person in charge of Bodhi Technology originally wanted to say something. He only subconsciously glanced at the direction of the Second Universe Coalition. Just after the gaze of the silver scorpion, he finally reached out. Neck, swallowed the words that have been to the mouth.

After all, anyone can see that Xuanyuan Zijing, Duanmu Xiaocha, and Zhao Qianru have three great benefits. The former is a breakthrough on the spot. Although it is very likely that it is forced, the fact that it has benefited is It cannot be ignored.

At this moment, the old people of the Yin and Dai people are on the fire. They have to be excused for their younger generations, but they have to talk about the fact that they have been reluctant to step on one of the ants, and the meat does not eat, but it is a bit exaggerated. It is the rhythm of oiling on the fire.

If you don't eat meat, you might as well go to be a nun. Which star in the sky does not stain the blood? Even the ants are reluctant to step on one, and it is estimated that they are blushing when they say this!

For everything in the outside world, Ye Xuan and others are completely ignorant, but basically guessing it must be awkward.

Just as the braised chicken wings were almost eaten, Ye Xuan would have some meat bones thrown at the Eight King Kong. He turned to the southwest and looked at it in surprise. He just stumbled: "It's just not eating, look. There is a big steak flying over there..."
