

Super D. S 335

Chapter 335: Guild Wars Captain!

At this time, it was already half an hour since Ye Xuan killed Meng Meng and Meng Liu. In this half hour, he was still running, and he also encountered a lot of sacred beasts and shrimp soldiers.

However, these shrimps and crabs will have a tight tone, and they would rather not reveal where the Dragon Palace is.

Just as Ye Xuan thought about whether or not to let go, let these shrimps and crabs take him to the Dragon Palace, and finally met a different creature.

With the supersonic bat blood, Ye Xuan can feel that this is a half-human and half-snake creature, without feet, and the lower body is a snake.

The upper body is the human body, just a little strange, no clothes, bare back.

In its hands, it still holds a long knife.

"It seems that it should be the captain of the sea, let me come to meet you!"

Ye Xuan screamed and rushed out.

When he saw this half-human and half-snake creature with his own eyes, it was also a glimpse.

Is this not a Naga Kraken?

The Naga Siren has appeared in many games. Ye Xuan is no stranger to this.

But unfortunately, this Naga sea demon is actually a public, it is not the chest, but the chest muscles.

"Human?" After the Naga Haiyue saw Ye Xuan, it was a bit strange.

"You sea people, robbed my two companions, where are they now?" Ye Xuan took out the eight-year-old sword and asked coldly.

Unexpectedly, after listening to this Naga sea demon, it showed the look of gloating. "The two human beings also had companions, hey, I just stopped them, but now they have been taken away."

"What, command?"

Ye Xuan shocked the whole person.

Among the Hailong people, except for the ordinary shrimp soldiers, the crabs will be the captains who have the power of one dragon. On the top of the small captain, there is also the captain of the two dragons, which is this one. Naga sea demon.

And the commander, in Ye Xuan's estimation, is the powerful sea-class who has the power of three dragons and even the power of the four dragons.

He hasn't played with this Naga Kraken now, and he doesn't know the strength of this sea captain.

If he can't even do this Naga Kraken, he will be hacked to death if he encounters the command of the Hailong family.

"Haha, human, I saw the fear in your eyes." The Naga Kraken smiled at that, and the scales on the whole body trembled and shimmered.

"I am afraid, but it is not you who are afraid, in which direction do they go?" Ye Xuan still asked in a cold tone.

"Why, do you still want to catch up? Oh, now we are estimated to have arrived at the Dragon Palace. Yes, our Hailong family's princess likes to keep pets. Your two companions should be directly dedicated to our leadership. princess."

The Naga Kraken has a little gloating smile: "Right, below, I will take you down again and give it to the princess."

After hearing his words, Ye Xuan's face was already sinking to the bottom of the valley. The Song Dynasty and the Song ruling both had to be treated as pets. How can this be?

"Speak the whereabouts of the command, and spare you not to die!"

Ye Xuan's eyes murdered.

"What a joke?" Naga's sea monsters suddenly stunned, and the snake swam in an instant, rushing toward Ye Xuan.

So fast!

Ye Xuan's heart trembled. It seems that this captain is still a bit tolerant, and the speed is almost enough to catch up with him.

However, if even the captain of the captain can't break through, how can he rescue the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling?

How to get to the blood rock continent?

"kill!"

Ye Xuan clenched the eight-year-old sword and greeted him.

This Naga sea demon has the power of two dragons, and it is impossible to smash the carapace of the big crab. Therefore, Ye Xuan could not be hard with him.

"eight wild swords, solution!"

"Eight wild winds kill!"

The eight-handed blade quickly unfolded and swept past the Naga sea monster.

"Hey, the worms are small." The Naga Haifa did not agree with it, and with a long knife in his hand, he opened the eight sharp blades.

However, this is not an egg.

"The Eight Wild Winds Kill the Second Heavy!"

Ye Xuan double flashed, the eight-handed blade running at high speed, suddenly began to rotate, forming eight small pointed cones.

Eight wild winds kill the first heavy, it is to use sharp cutting, and this second weight is the same as the sky, is to use the drill.

This is what Ye Xuan learned after breaking through to the situation. Not only that, but there is also an advanced version of the Eight-Day Earth Sword. The name is Eight Desolation Dragon Sword.

However, this requires activation of the blood of a dragon.

"Ok?"

The contempt on the face of the Naga Sea Demon has been quietly passed away, and replaced by a dignified color.

He couldn't think of a human being in such a region.

"It's too naive to beat me like this, breaking the waves!"

The Naga Haitang's arms waved, and there was a strange energy pouring out, attached to the long knife, not only the attack power increased, but also the speed of the shot.

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

The sound of a weapon collision sounded in this passage.

Ye Xuan looked frowning, and he did not expect that this Haizu had even martial arts, but it is no wonder that there is no instinct or Dan Yuan, how to use Qiang Kun?

However, he has a large number of phagocytic crystallization, a moment to restore the dragon of the dragon, all the infuriating medicinal herbs, for him is only a glimpse.

The difference between the strength of a dragon, although not hard to resist, but also able to carry out the war of attrition.

"It's a pity. I knew that I would first find the blood of a dragon and a sacred beast, so that I can directly raise the blood of the beast to the blood of the beastmaster, and the strength can skyrocket!"

Ye Xuan is very entangled in his heart. He has also entered the deep sea palace for some time, but he did not encounter the dragon.

He is still poor in blood.

The blood of the Swordsman and other blood vessels want to be promoted to the top, but also have different and special requirements, not now he can complete.

He began to hesitate.

Now he and the captain of the captain level of the Naga Sea Demon fight, if even this Naga sea demon is better than nothing, it is even more impossible to win the command of the sea level.

It is even more impossible to save the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling!

He is not reconciled!

at this time.

Ye Xuan suddenly felt something, and immediately it was a big bang, he found that Megatron in the pet space actually broke through at this time.

Holy beast, the power of a dragon!

"Come out, Megatron!"

Ye Xuan instantly called Megatron.

Megatron even broke through, but its body is still only the size of the palm. After it appeared, it was a slap.

"Don't watch, kill!"

Ye Xuan's heart gave Megatron an order. The two now have a contract in their body. The former can not give orders to the Megatron.
