Chapter 3361: Special treatment

"Hey..."

Under the circumstance, the Yinxia Fairy was stunned by Ye Xuan's several spiritual thunderbolts, and the invisible spirit of the thunderbolt shrouded the brain, and it was completely incomparable on her head.

Today's Ye Xuan has already entered the tenth level of the first day of the hole, far from the previous comparable, the spirit of thunder and lightning is even more powerful.

Although the cultivation of Yinxia Fairy is stronger than him, it has reached the eleventh level of Xuanguang's 9th-order great consummation. Only one step can enter the twelfth world and become a vulgar level. The character is gone.

Even so, in the face of Ye Xuan's spiritual thunder that is condensed with seven levels of spiritual strength, she is still being miserable, and the whole person is mad.

This scene was stunned by the dust-free and the palace-in-law and other prisoners of war under the ground. It was the little princess of the Choi tribe, such as Medusa, and the other patriarchs from the Second Universe Federation. The color.

The power of Yinxia Fairy is obvious to all. Before that, the young dragons descended from the sky, and the momentum was like a rainbow. Like the real fairy, the light was too dazzling, and people dared not look straight and burn their eyes.

But at the moment, Ye Xuan, who is already bound, is not only easy to get out of trouble, but then it is an instant counterattack. The spectators who are not waiting for the war have returned to the world, and they have already counterattacked the ground, and several invisible thunderbolts have exploded. In the blink of an eye, the Yinxia Fairy becomes a crazy woman who hates anger...

All this happened too fast, and the degree of reversal was too amazing. No one could accept it for a while, and everyone who saw it with his own eyes was completely paralyzed!

"Reversal of the spirit!"

Not waiting for the fierceness of the Yinxia fairy mouth, Ye Xuan has already flashed in the fineness of the mans, and he did not hesitate to start the spiritual power supernatural power that he had just mastered not long ago.

As the spiritual source of the mind that hangs in the air of his mind is running wildly, the mighty spirit of the majestic spirit is instantly vented, invisible and inferior, but in an instant it is wrapped in the front of the Yinxia fairy. The net shield of the soul rope is spread out.

Even the numerous sharp sharp thorns spurted between the Shield's pores have never been missed. They are covered by this invisible spiritual force, which instantly affects its internal domain and forms some mystery. The effect of reversal.

"Booming!"

"call out!"

"Hey..."

The roaring energy of the energy sounded like a tidal wave, accompanied by a piercing sound of a smashing sound. The large net shield was just stretched out, and it was blocked in front of the Yinxia fairy, and a sharp blade was shot in the gap.

But at this moment, under the spirit of Ye Xuan's performance to reverse the power of the gods, all of this has been played back, and the sharp-edged thorns from the aperture of the net shield suddenly retracted and went away.

The whole huge net shield that has just been stretched out is also a momentary inward retraction, and the shape of the Yinxia fairy is completely covered by the bonnet.

All this happened too fast, and it was strange and inexplicable. The palace under the ground and the dust-free and the other people only felt that there was a flower in front of them, and they were hating anger, and the Yinxia fairy who was shivering, its shape Already like the fish in the net pocket, the entire land was trapped by the blue net shield that was changed by the entanglement.

The self-restraint of living and detaching is simply a perfect interpretation, and all the people are watching!

"God, it's the kind of magical power. The power is so strange. All the attacks are reversed. It was originally directed to the singer and the lord, but eventually turned back to himself. This is simply too wrong!"

"It seems to underestimate him!"

"Yes, in addition to the heavy treasures, the singer of the fox has a powerful and strange magical power. The war has already explained the problem. Only when the cave is first, can the suppression of the ninth stage of the sacred space be completed. Yinxia Fairy, this is not just a cross-border realm, the gap between the two big worlds, like the gap in the sky, was ignored by him..."

"It's against the sky, and the younger foxes are really one of the two generations of the human race. They have captured the Yinxia fairy. The four generations of the genius that were recently born by the Terran are mostly their rivals. It's the invincible * of war that is still in the camp of the comprehension camp!"

"What are you still doing? Forgot what the boss said before? He is responsible for the suppression. We are responsible for the search and the takeover of prisoners of war. This is one of the four great generations of the young generation of the Terran generation. It is too rare to miss today. No chance to feel this taste..."

The face was stunned, and the guys on the ground were talking about it. The eight King Kongs were even more excited. Finally, they rushed to the top of the empty space where Ye Xuan was.

Before and after, before and after Ye Xuan commanded, several guys were very skillful to mention the blue net bag, bringing the Yinxia fairy to the ground below, and from time to time, the words threatened, and Ye Xuan could not help but turn his eyes. Fierce!

"what....."

"Let the fox rush, the island owner does not blame you for not being a man!"

At this time, the Yinxia fairy was messy, and the figure was trapped in the blue net pocket changed by the sorrowful soul. Struggling but struggling but not fruitless, can only be stunned by one of the eight King Kong The corner of the net bag lifted her life to the ground below.

This is too humiliating, Yinxia Fairy is exploding, and staring at Ye Xuan in a gap through the blue net pocket, screaming in the mouth, completely finished.

The change to the sorcerer's soul of the blue net bag is her personal treasure. It has been refining and refining. It can be sent and received with the heart, but at the moment, I don't know why, but suddenly I will return it and wrap the body shape of Yinxia Fairy. After the cover was strict, it was completely out of her control.

Otherwise, she must have been freed from the first time, mad and mad, and once again killed Ye Xuan...

In this regard, Ye Xuan knows that the entanglement is still the Yinxia fairy. Ye Xuan has never turned it back into refining. The reason why she is temporarily out of control is because the spirit of Ye Xuan's talents has reversed the magical power. The mysterious effect, in a short time, confuses this treasure's own power field, and will soon be restored to the original!

At that time, Yinxia Fairy will be able to retract the treasured nets that are trapped in shape and restore freedom.

Time is tight, Ye Xuan must rush to the other side to restore the free body, the battle results will be completely finalized, then the system competition tasks have been completed and delivered, Yinxia fairy even if unwilling, it does not help!

With this kind of thinking, Ye Xuan's body shape has already fallen to the ground below. The ten-footed mech giant stood in front of the Yinxia fairy lying on the ground, looking down and screaming: "The service is Not satisfied?"

Yinxia Fairy sneered, and sneered: "Jokes, why do you want to serve and dissatisfy? Do you think that you have suppressed the main town of the island? But it is a sinister way to wait for the opportunity to count, the island owner did not observe the moment, but otherwise I must cry you..."

"The mouth is very hard, but unfortunately, this little master specializes in all kinds of dissatisfaction!"

"Snapped!"

"Hey..."

Ye Xuan grinned and laughed. When he spoke, the cicadas were very crisp and loud, and they suddenly sounded abruptly...

Chapter 3362: Crystal mother

"Snapped!"

"Hey..."

After falling down, Ye Xuan even thought that the glass competition was not completed, and originally thought that the system competition task was completed. Who knows that Yinxia Fairy is very hard, and he is not satisfied.

Wrinkled, Ye Xuan said nothing, hands up and down, unceremoniously took a few shots on her pretty buttocks, and then seemed to feel that she did not pick up the hand, simply took the cyan net bag and copied it over. After passing through his body shape, he leaned down and pressed down on the ground, and picked it up one by one.

Not to mention, although this girl's temper is not very good, but the body is difficult to pick one in a million miles, no said that the pretty buttocks are rich and flexible, and the feel is quite good.

You can know by listening to the sound, the crisp and raw is extremely loud, and there is no bit of fat, and it is very tight!

While patted, Ye Xuan screamed and replied: "If you still claim to be the island owner, you will not be able to succumb to the courage of the lord."

"This young master has to rectify your unreasonable temperament today, either to admit defeat, or to take your time, choose one, you can do it yourself."

"Hey!"

"Hey..."

After that, Ye Xuan no longer speaks, but the hand has not stopped, still squatting on the pretty buttocks of Yinxia Fairy!

"what....."

"Let the fox rush to you asshole! The island master and you fight together..."

When the first few shots went down, Yinxia Fairy had not reacted yet. The whole person was stunned and fell into a stagnation for a long time. Then, after the reprimanding in Ye Xuan's mouth, a scream was already Since she pulled out of her throat, her figure was struggling fiercely. It was completely rhythmic.

It is a pity that everything is in vain, and the cyan net bag that changes the soul of the soul is not only simple to cover her body shape, but before the trouble, the cultivation of the body of Yinxia fairy can not be mobilized. Ye Xuan's hands had no resistance. The latter pressed her tightly to the ground with one hand and could not move.

As for Ye Xuan's other hand, it has never stopped. The more joyful the Yinxia fairy is, the more fierce he smokes. For a time, the crisp sound of the ear is louder and louder...

This scene is too different, whether it is the top-level gates of the void or the star-studded strongmen of Zongmen, or the dust-free and palace in the Ding's space, and other people's generations. Without exception, all of them were stunned and sluggish.

It's not light, it's collectively petrified!

Yinxia Fairy, one of the four great celestial beings of the Terran, was pushed down by a big man on the ground. In the public, the hips were picked up, and the sounds were not only crisp and mellow, but also vague and faint. Rhythm.....

Such a scene, even if you see it with your own eyes, it is really unbelievable, but the hot hand destroys the flower, but the fox is not the general ferocious, the means is too shocked!

It is Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru Shantou, and at this moment they are completely speechless. Although they haven't said anything, they have turned their eyes and turned their eyes. They secretly turned back and did not know how to calculate this account. Their face-to-face tutoring.

It's just too arrogant!

However, although this method is not very particular, the effect is not generally good. With the temperament of Yinxia Fairy, it is not easy to bow down and compromise, but at the moment, facing Ye Xuan, this alternative way to the extreme, After she screamed and screamed for a while, she quickly fell down and gnashed her teeth!

In the next moment, Ye Xuan's brain rang a familiar system prompt tone...

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the system competes for the mission to complete! Get the host reward: pick a redemption item from the other's system exchange store!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the system competition task is completed! Get the system reward: unconditionally copy all the information of the other party's system database, and at the same time brand the system source code, establish the affiliation!"

When Ye Xuan's mind sounded the sound of the system, the Yinxia fairy who was pressed to the ground by him was obviously the same. At this moment, her face was gloomy and visible, and the black ones almost dripped water and even screamed. And the mood of anger is gone, just staring at Ye Xuan with sorrow, gnashing his teeth.

This time, Yinxia Fairy can be described as a heavy loss.

It was not mentioned that Ye Xuan was suppressed by the public and even humiliated. It was only the exchange item that Ye Xuan would choose to take away from her system exchange store, which would be enough for her to drink a pot.

Ye Xuan naturally won't be polite, and paying for it afterwards is the thing of Yinxia Fairy.

In addition, because the system competition failed, her body's phagocytic system will be branded as a subordinate, and will always succumb to Ye Xuan, basically no chance to turn over.

For all of this, Ye Xuan is also well aware of it, and understands the hatred between him and Yinxia Fairy. I am afraid that it is difficult to resolve, so I am not planning to be polite.

Taking advantage of the system to connect the system in the body of Yinxia Fairy, copy all the information and materials in its database, and leave the system source code to determine the subordinate right, Ye Xuan also eagerly look through the system exchange store Up, the treasures of high-priced treasures are basically all things that need to be swallowed up by the source.

Soon after, a crystal called the life crystal gave rise to the attention of Ye Xuan.

After reviewing the properties and effects of the block life crystal mother, he immediately rejoiced, directly ignoring its near-astronomical exchange price, and directly decided to make a decision, it is it!

The reason why he sees this piece of life crystal is because this thing has a magical effect on the Slim group of the evil spirits, which has a large and long-lasting effect on the level of life. As a result, the quality of the Elf crystal that Ye Xuan needs must also be It will be greatly improved, which is one of the important issues that he has been headaches and unresolved.

The crystal of the elf comes from a creature called the evil spirit Slime, which is the crystallization of the power in the spiritual forest. This crystal is also one of the natural life energy that can be absorbed by the self-proliferation group of the world!

The evil spirit Slime is the heterogeneous group in the first universe, looks very ugly, the surface of the body secretes a kind of blue-black toxin liquid, even in the first universe of the celestial slaves and hundreds of people, this group it belongs to the existence that is extremely unappealing.

At the beginning, Ye Xuan robbed a space fortress of the evil spirits of the Slim group in the first universe, which was the later Son.

The bottom compartment has a worm nest, which is like a hive. It is a spoiled egg of the evil spirit Slim. This group is also speechless enough to build a nest in the space fortress.

According to Ye Xuan's estimation, there are at least tens of millions of snails in the bottom compartment, and even hundreds of millions of them, all of them are only human heads, and they are crowded together, looking like a creepy person...

Chapter 3363: Crazy fortress

Because the world's worms in the life fortress need the growth of the elves in the spirit of the slime, Ye Xuan later moved the Slim worm nest in the bottom of the sacred sac to the life fortress Longye. Bottom compartment.

There, a space was specially created for the breeding of these eggs, which provided continuous growth energy for countless tiny individuals in the world's self-proliferation group.

Unfortunately, although the supply of the Elven Crystal is no problem, the growth rate of the world's self-propagating population has been too slow, and it has only grown from the previous five-meter-diameter small fortress to a giant castle of 20,000 meters in diameter.

As for the formation of various facilities inside the security, it is far from perfect.

For this reason, Ye Xuan has been looking for a kind of vital life energy that can make the Longye No. World worm self-proliferation group grow rapidly. Unfortunately, there is no fruit.

But today, this problem is finally being solved completely!

"Hey, congratulations to the host, get the life crystal mother! Quality: pure and flawless! Efficacy: Life evolution energy crystal, can quickly and continuously improve the life level of the evil spirits Slim group! Is it used immediately?"

As Ye Xuan made a decision, the system's prompt tone soon sounded in his mind, and then, a baby's fist-sized golden yellow irregular crystal appeared in Ye Xuan's body.

The phagocytic system is amazing. Even at the level of Ye Xuan, it is far from being seen. For him, many functions of the entire phagocytic system are covered with a mysterious veil.

For example, now this golden life crystal mother is clearly derived from the binding system of Yinxia fairy, but Ye Xuan has never done it, it automatically appears in its body, just like the transmission, people Marvel.

There are many kinds of exchange products in the system exchange store, there are exercises, blood, and various magic weapons, rare minerals, and even the finished magic weapon, remedy and so on!

Some of these exchanged goods are carried by means of information. Once exchanged, they appear directly in the mind, such as exercises, including some convertible blood and magical powers, and basically the same.

Some are real objects, such as various natural treasures, rare minerals and magical drugs.

These things are divided into two types. One is that the system is created in the form of energy conversion, such as medicinal herbs, magic weapons, and some minerals, herbs, etc. Since the system has long been aware of the nature, as long as there is enough energy, Can transform the real thing.

The other is that the system can not be created in the form of energy conversion. This kind of physical objects are basically collected systematically and placed in the exchange store.

The golden elf crystal mother chosen by Ye Xuan belongs to this column. It is extremely rare. It is the phagocytic system bound by Ye Xuan's body. There is no such thing in the attached exchange shop!

"Use it now!"

It was hard to get this life crystal mother, Ye Xuan could not wait, even if the system made a positive reply.

Then I turned to the head of the Eight King Kong and others: "The Lord will have to close again. You will be optimistic about these guys. As for the murderer... I don't have to pay attention to it. Yes! Such a fierce prostitute is not rare!"

After that, Ye Xuan swept a glance at Yinxia Fairy, who was glaring at him. He quickly went with Xuanyuan Zijing, Duanmu Tea, and Zhao Qianru.

The palace has no heart and no dust, and the other one from the prisoner of war has watched him leave. For Ye Xuan's enchanting and perverted, they are now a little numb. This has just ended the retreat and broke through a big realm.

Did the blink of an eye actually come again, and let others not live?

After a short period of time, Ye Xuan and Xuanyuan Ziyang and his party once again came to the central volcano and returned to the volcanic bottom plain!

Ye Xuan did not delay too much, and waved directly, and sacrificed the life fortress Longye in the immortal world. The bottom plain of the Ding volcano is wide enough, and now the Longye is grown to the shape of a 10,000-meter-diameter fortress, which can be easily accommodated here.

Seeing Ye Xuan mysteriously took them back to the bottom plain of the volcano of the volcano. After arriving, they waved their hands and sacrificed a giant space fortress of 20,000 meters in diameter. It looked like it was quite worn. Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru three people are full of fog, face to face, they have heard each other.

"What are you doing? What are you doing with a space fortress? And still at the bottom of this volcano?"

"The mysterious look at it will definitely not be a good thing, but this space fortress is also too cold, should it be re-refined, and it will be able to sail in the sky?"

"Playing is yes, aren't you having a 100,000-meter-diameter star fortress? It seems like the Thunder, the name is domineering, what about a dilapidated 10,000-meter fortress?"

"If Miss Ben didn't know where to throw it, I felt uncomfortable when I looked at it. I really wanted to drive it out to start Star Airlines. I was afraid that I would be laughed at by people."

"You don't underestimate this space fortress. It is a starry sky, and the three universes are unique. There is no semicolon!"

Seeing the three gimmicks saying that the Longye Life Fortress was so unbearable, Ye Xuan suddenly rolled his eyes and replied with no anger: "Don't say a 100,000-meter-diameter starry sky fortress, that is, the ten seats are used for it, I am It's absolutely impossible to promise, it's just a loss!"

The voice was degraded, and he was just waved by him. At this moment, the Longye Life Fortress, which was suspended in the low plain on the bottom of the volcano, suddenly violently vibrated, followed by a sigh of change. And there was no sign of a vigorous explosion.

In full swing, almost crazy, in an instant, Ye Xuan and Xuanyuan Ziyan three women look silly eyes!

"Shashasha..."

"Boom!"

The low and continuous muffled sounds are constantly coming, accompanied by dense faint sounds, which give the impression that there are countless silkworms eating, and eating a mulberry leaf in a piece of mulberry.

With the appearance of these constant noises, the Longye Life Fortress, suspended in the low ground far from the front, is rapidly expanding at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Not only the volume expansion, but also the ship's external surface changes, it seems quite worn before, it looks like a big fortress that is about to be ruined.

But at this moment, as its volume expands and expands rapidly, the outer surface of the entire fortress is changing rapidly and continuously, like renovation...

No, it is no longer possible to call the Longye as a big fort. The so-called big fortress hull is only 10,000 meters in diameter, and the giant fort is only 20,000 meters. But today's Longye has already exceeded this value. .

Just a short ten-point, the diameter of the hull, which was nearly 20,000 meters, quickly expanded to nearly 30,000 meters. It was like a steamed bun, and the speed was so fast that it made people doubt their eyes!

Chapter 3364: Haruka Haruka

The whole of the Longye is grown by the world's insect self-proliferation group obtained by the pioneer of human science and technology.

At first it may only have a little bit, and then as the world's insect self-proliferation group grows and grows, it slowly grows up like a coral reef on the seabed. The principle is basically the same.

When Ye Xuan got the Longye, it had grown for tens of thousands of years, but the diameter of its hull was only five kilometers.

In just a few months, the reason why Longye has grown into a giant fortress with a diameter of 20,000 meters is the root of those evil spirits.

If the place is transferred to the nest of the Dragon Field, there is a new evil spirit Slime born every moment, and the life of the Elf Crystal in the body provides life energy, let this prosperous world insect self-derivative The group is rapidly proliferating, and the Longye is absolutely impossible to have such a huge scale!

But that's all compared to the changes in front of you, but it's really too negligible!

Once the life crystalmother was thrown into the nest of the Dragon's cockpit by the system, all the evil spirits of Slim will benefit immediately, and the level of life will increase rapidly, and even the crystal of the elves in their bodies will be of good quality. Rise.

As a result, the speed of the proliferation of the world's self-propagating population must increase rapidly, and the number of tiny constituents in the early self-proliferation group in the world has increased dramatically. The most intuitive change in the Longye is the speed of its growth. It will skyrocket!

For this, Ye Xuan has already been mentally prepared.

Even so, the speed of the horror expansion shown by the Longye in front of him still scared him a lot and he was paralyzed on the spot.

It was not until the exclamation of the Xuanyuan Ziyan three sons and daughters passed into the ear, and Ye Xuan was shocked and returned.

"God, what happened in the end? This broken fortress is crazy? Look at this posture, it is clearly the rhythm of self-destruction, is this Miss dreaming?"

"It's a singer, it's too horrible. I haven't heard that the space bastion can expand like a hoe, is it still alive?"

"It's incredible, big bastard, how many secrets do you have to marry Miss Ben? Is this space fortress really a living thing, isn't it a creature, or a fortress of life? The expansion in front of it is clearly that it is growing rapidly. The process of growing up, my God, this lady actually saw a space fortress that can grow and evolve by herself? It's crazy..."

"Shashasha..."

With the exclamation of the three women, the kind of densely swayed, such as the billions of silkworms, are eating and squeaking, and they are always resounding. This is the tiny ethnic group that constitutes the whole world of insect self-representation groups, and is rapidly proliferating, the number of Every moment, the reaction of climbing in the geometric level!

"The life crystal mother is really a good thing, so fast, I am afraid that it will not be a day, the original 20,000-meter-diameter big fortress, can grow to a small star fortress around 50,000 meters in diameter, horror, seriously terror!"

I was still swelling in front of my eyes, but the Dragon Fortress, which is slower than the initial one, and Ye Xuan's face sighed, today is really an eye-opener.

One day, a small star-studded fortress with a diameter of 50,000 meters was born. This speed, even in the star of the immortal dynasty's largest battleship, is definitely a night's night pool. letter!

However, the speed is too fast and there are drawbacks. After all, for a starry fortress, although the size of the volume is a hard index, its internal structure and performance of various equipments are the most critical and top priority.

If the performance can't keep up, the size is big, it's no use, it's a useless vase!

Therefore, when Ye Xuan lamented, he quickly connected the intelligent center of Xingye with God's knowledge and gave instructions to limit the growth of this hull to a diameter of 50,000 meters. After reaching this standard, the ship The growth of the body ceases immediately, and all the micromolecules that continue to multiply are all invested in the details of the battleship performance and internal and external structure, and strive for excellence and excellence!

The central insect nucleus crystal of the whole world insect self-representation group has been refining by Ye Xuan. After his instructions passed through the gods, he will immediately be unconditionally strictly implemented, so Ye Xuan quickly put his heart down, and everything follows. There is no need for him to pay attention to it.

The only thing he has to do is wait.

After the Xingyehao completed this unprecedented comprehensive evolution, the first time with the Xuanyuan Zijing three women into the interior of the cabin, to test the gratifying results after the completion of the transformation!

After a long time, Shennong Ding!

In the far side of the void outside the scene of the big squad, there is a shadow that is fading as fast as the fairy is approaching!

The young man is slightly thin and looks very long, with long shawl hair, temperament and agility, extremely free and easy.

It was one of the four great geniuses of the Terran, which was born shortly before, and the singer of the Yaoyao Pavilion!

Not long ago, Xiaoyao Zi started from the Kunling Star of the Tianfeng Empire. All the way was to cross the void with the flesh. Its speed was slower than those of the warships and fortresses that rushed from the wormholes.

All of this is thanks to a treasure that is under the control of the ancients.

This ancient treasure is called the broken boots, and it is said that it was the ancestors of the ancient times, and the legendary Kuafu chasing the sun is the power of this boots.

It is really rare to see the gods and goddesses, and with this boot into the void, you can travel hundreds of millions of miles a day, the body crosses the universe wormhole, and the back wings are not filmed.

And this treasure's broken word has another layer of deep meaning, that is, to break the barriers and unimpeded meaning, in the face of all kinds of killings, there is no pressure, want to go and leave, no fear can be trapped Endangered!

However, he and the other three people are different from Tianjiao. In addition, the three people, whether they are the demon, the magic dust, or the Yinxia fairy, have shown their strong fighting power before the birth.

However, Xiaoyao has not played against people. He has been included in the ranks of the four generations of the Terran, and he is also the eleventh largest in the world. Beyond the perfection, how much is the relationship with the mysterious feelings of the unpredictable mystery!

At this moment, with the advent of Xiaoyaozi, there was a sudden exclamation in the surrounding air.

"Is it? The singer of the singer of the singer! I have come to join in the fun. The four generations of the genius who had recently emerged from the Terran have come halfway."

"The speed is fast, the moment is far, the blink of an eye is close!"

"Well, what do he want to do? Go straight into the air and go..."

"This battle has been completely banned, and it is impossible to get in and out. Xiaoyaozi is too confident. Really think that with the shoes on his feet, he can completely ignore the emptiness of the top trapped array." Will it be as good as a stroll, and if you lift your foot, you will want to break through the border..."

Chapter 3365: I came for the sacrificial knife

With the sudden arrival of Xiaoyaozi, the void around the big squad was suddenly and suddenly, and the sights of all the star-studded powers seemed to be invisible to the eyes of Xiaoyao's leisurely stepping on the empty space.

Seeing it in the eye, it is a pair of blue-colored animal boots, the form is simple, but it is not surprising, and even seems too low-key.

This boot is the ridiculous treasure!

Xiaoyao crossed the void and the speed of the battleship was so fast that the wormhole jumped in the battleship. The heavens and the earth were like no one, and it was the one that relied on it!

However, although the broken boots are famous, they are honored as the treasures of the ancients, but the star-studded powers present do not think that Xiaoyao can rely on it to ignore the gaps that have been completely banned and easily walk in.

After all, this array is also extremely extraordinary. It can completely cut off a void. It is the Tianshi Emperor's reluctance to spend a lot of rare materials. If even a pair of small animal boots on the feet of Xiaoyao can't stop it, then It's too much embarrassing, it's embarrassing and speechless.

For this reason, when I saw the arrival of Xiaoyao Ziyi, I went straight to the big rush and rushed away. I guarded the warriors who had presided over external affairs outside the big squad. Even when I sneered, A snoring sound in the nose.

The corner of the mouth also outlines a sarcasm, and it is clearly ready to read a joke.

Even the glory of the soul, which can be turned into a thousand-year-old dragon under the vibrating wrist, was previously entered into the array through the reserved passage that has not been completely banned. I don't believe that Xiaoyao can ignore the obstacles of the big array and walk in...

In the next moment, the sarcasm of the corner of the battle was just floating, and it instantly solidified.

All the star powers in the void on the four Mondays were basically the same, and they saw an incredible scene with their own eyes, too challenging.

After the smashing Xiaoyao came to the edge of a scene of the squad, he did not stop, and when he lifted his foot, he easily put his right foot into the forefront. At that moment, his foot The pair of blue-colored animal boots on the top quickly flashed a few faint glory, covering the Xiaoyaozi, making his body instantly stunned, like illusion, does not seem to exist.

Immediately afterwards, the star-studded powers who had not waited for the wide-eyed eyes in the sky had come back, and the hind legs of the Xiaoyao had followed up. The whole figure went through the curtain of the big squad and entered it. The star of the central domain, the giant Ding, spurred away.

First, the hollowed out curtain of the big squad, followed by the field power of the stars.

Xiaoyao actually had less than two breaths in front and behind, and he had completely crossed it like a complete disregard!

Until the body shape disappeared, the void outside the big squad, the sound of the cold air, just like the tide...

.....

At the same time, Shennong Ding interior space!

Ye Xuan and Xuanyuan Ziyan, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru have been away for a long time, and have just returned.

What surprised him was that Yinxia Fairy did not leave, but he did not stay in one place with the Eight Great King Kong, the Dusit and the Palace, and the people of the Tianjiao prisoners. At this moment, he was alone in a distant mountain. Hey, white clothes are like snow, and the clothes are fluttering, like a fairy.

The hairstyle that was previously ridiculed by Ye Xuan with mental thunder and lightning has already been sorted out, and the black cheeks have also been restored to the delicate jade, but the light in the eyes seems to be more chilly than before, without a trace of living. Looking at the dead, when Ye Xuan is still far away, he has locked it on his body, never moved away!

Seeing the return of Ye Xuan, the eight King Kong and others immediately greeted them, and subconsciously turned to the Yinxia fairy who aimed at the distant mountains. All of them shrank their necks, and they suffered a bitter and hateful grievance.

Some of them have some stagnant movements, and it is clearly the rhythm of being hurt.

Looking at the grievances of these guys who dare to speak out, Ye Xuan knows almost seconds. Obviously, shortly after he left, with Ye Xuan's previous spirit of reversing the magical power, he stayed in the spirit of entanglement. The power gradually dissipated. After the recovery of the Sawyer, the Yinxia fairy was relieved, and immediately spread all the evil fires to the Eight King Kong and others.

It's no wonder that seeing Ye Xuan at the moment, it can be as calm as it is, not like the previous sprinkling girl, it has been a toss for a long time!

Ye Xuan frowned, and when he was about to make a sound, he suddenly felt something, and turned to look at the colorful canopy at the top of his head.

The Eight Great King Kong and other people of the Tianjiao prisoners of war stunned, and looked forward to the same.

At the top of the mountain, the Yinxia fairy was thoughtful, and glanced at the colorful canopy at the top of his head, licking his mouth, and his face was thick and disapproving.

In the next moment, a slightly thin figure was reflected in everyone's sight. It seemed to walk through the colorful canopy in a leisurely walk, and the footsteps came from the void. The line of sight swept across the ground below and paused slightly in the Yinxia fairy. But soon locked in Ye Xuan's body.

He looked up and down, and there was a long, sharp, * long blade in the palm of his hand. The body of the knife was unconstrained and exudes a strong evil spirit. It seems that there is an invisible blood fog always in this blade. The blade is tangled.

This is definitely a powerful and powerful blade of endless blood!

"You should be the fox rushing? The deity of the singer, this time came specifically, only to sacrifice the knife..."

I swept Ye Xuan, and the body shape of Xiaoyao was stopped and stood in the void.

Between the words, the * blade of the savage blade has been smothered, and the hot mans are smashed out, like a gentleman, with a near-obsessive attitude and tone, such as muttering, The road comes.

It can be seen from his discourse that the delicate blood blade of the evil spirits in the hands of Xiaoyaozi is famous for his * blood!

It is said that it is a chaotic iron essence between heaven and earth in order to avoid all the living creatures in the world, and to bury its sporadic points deep in the ground, after hundreds of thousands of years of accumulation.

Unfortunately, the place where this iron essence is buried is a fierce and chilly place. During this period, the chaotic fine iron sucked a lot of blood in the fierce and chilly land, and it made a compelling * magic. So that after it became a sickle form, because the blood gas is too heavy, there is blood and light through the body, so it is called red blood.

There are even more rumors that no matter who is in this * blade, the soul will be attacked by evil spirits and turned into a blood-sucking demon, smothering souls.

Because of rumors, once it is pulled out, it will not be able to return to the sheath without killing people. It will be blood-stained and blood-stained, so it will be red blood.

"The world only knows that the deity has broken boots, but I don't know that in addition to the boots, the deity still has another treasure in his hands."

With a little bit of color on his face, after a few words about the origins of red blood, Xiaoyao raised his hand to Ye Xuan's distant finger, and proudly took it: "The four great geniuses of the new generation of the Terran are still in the deity. The stunning battle shook the side, today, it will use this blade to stand up and sway your so-called enchanting world, and fall into the void..."

Chapter 3366: Demon war

"Would you like a knife?"

Ye Xuan is mad, how confident is this guy? Actually ran to the inner space of his own Shennong Ding, clamoring to smash himself into the void, and sacrifice the knife for the * blade in his hand?

We must know that the existence and means of the headless baby corpse, Lei Diyin and Qi Tian bow are not dependent on the display. In this space of the tripod, Ye Xuan is only urging the domain power of Shennong Ding, in an instant It will be able to ignite a magnificent orange-colored fire like a sea, and it will be filled with the inner space of the Ding. It will be able to kill him without any effort, and it will be wiped out!

However, this method has not been intended to be exposed yet. It is considered that in the future, some powerful and difficult enemies may be introduced into the internal space of Shennong Ding to fight the battle, waiting for the opportunity to move, and screaming for it to launch the overwhelming color of orange. Flame sea, Yin died one count!

The guy in front of him, though one of the four great celestial beings that the human race has recently turned out to be, is very loud, but Ye Xuan has not been in the eye. It has only recently suppressed a similar level of existence. Well, the forsythia's hips were all smoked, and I didn't think it was great.

In Ye Xuan's opinion, this guy is not worthy of letting himself expose the fact that the space inside the trip can be based on his own mind, and the moment is full of magical flames. This is the killer, it must be used in the real strong!

"Red blood?"

"Once you pull it out, you can't return to the sheath without killing people. Will it be blood-stained and blood-stained?"

Ye Xuan squinted at Xiaoyaozi and grinned. "It's horrible to listen to, but in front of this young master, neither you nor the broken knife is qualified to say anything to kill the knife. Discourse, this kind of words should be said by the Lord!"

"call out!"

The voice has not fallen, Ye Xuan has raised his hand and waved out, a * black singer shot from his eyebrows, and the wind will rise, and instantly become a black and red magic pattern in the knife body entangled with the enchanting magic blade, perhaps evil The sigh of breath is slightly worse than that of Xiaoyaozi, but the meaning of the konjac is more than three points!

It is the blood of the devil!

"Hey..."

The blade of the demon blood blade is dead, although the eyes are still asleep, but this blade is extraordinary, it is the supreme and fierce edge of the starry sky to the treasure level. At this moment, it was sacrificed by Ye Xuanyi, and it immediately sensed the opposite side of the void. The breath of scorpion is actually the sound of a knife that screams in the air, clearing the soul, and sorghum straight into the sky!

This is clearly the provocation of the demon blood blade. One mountain is difficult to accommodate two tigers. The two savage blades of the scorpion are present in this void at the same time. Ye Xuan has not yet shot, and the * blade has been Some buttons can't hold back.

Want to suppress the red blood immediately!

"These two handles are not the most savage, one is the treasure of the ancients, the first is the starry sky to the treasure, the grade is quite. But your red blood is passed down from the wild, my * blade is born in the world, for the sake of the Lord system."

Seeing the * blade of the sorcerer in front of the top of the head, the war is stunned, and some of them are unable to hold back. Ye Xuanton feels arrogant and dry, and smiles with a smile: "Today's look, it's your wild blood red flame. Thousands of miles, or the lord of the Lord, the devil, the flames of the world!"

The implication of the words, this is clearly to let the blood of the devil and the red blood of Xiaoyao, to fight the battle between the top and the fierce blade!

In the distant foothills, the white clothing wins the snow, and the silvery fairy in the celestial celestial scent is flashing, and even her face does not show a sense of fascination. As for the eight King Kong and the palace, which are overlooking the ground below, The dust-free and other people of the genius, the arrogant prisoners of war, after a sigh of relief, they are all excited, and look forward to it!

The warriors of the ancient treasures or the prospects of the starry sky are rare. It is quite rare to see a handle on weekdays. Today, not only are the two handles come together, but cleverly, they are all the meaning of this violent flame. The supreme and fierce blade, this situation is really an opportunity to meet and can not be sought, anyone who wants to see the two weapons of the supreme and fierce blade of each other to fight against each other!

In fact, in addition to the people in the Dingnai space, it is the powerful forces of the gatekeepers who are guarded by the emptiness of the squadrons in the sky. They are all quite expected, and countless rumors. The light has already gathered in the big squad, and the road is hanging in the silver light curtain above the Shennong giant tripod. It is waiting to be seen!

However, Xiaoyao seems to be dissatisfied with this suggestion. He sneered at Ye Xuan's note and said with a sarcasm: "Just just let these two slashers fight? Then you and me? Linghu Chong, you are Is it light when you avoid it? If you don't dare to face the deity, you will come up with this idea, but it's hard for you..."

"Reassured, the deity is not interested in bullying the ants!"

Speaking of this, Xiaoyao once laughed again and proudly answered: "Since your cultivation is only the first step of the tenth world, then the deity will be banned in the same realm, so that you will lose. Dissatisfaction, shame and anger, broke the reputation of the deity!"

"In addition, the deity has said before, this time, it is for the sacrifice of the knife. If you do not play, the red blood of the deity is bloodless, how can you still sheath?"

"If this is the case, the devotional province can only afford to bear some grievances, screaming at the nickname of bullying, and take the initiative to ask for a battle..."

The implication of the words, this is clearly the rhythm of Ye Xuan's emptiness today, and he has to fight, not to fight, then wait for being chased!

It's really not a general self-confidence, it's so stunned!

"You don't have to ask for a battle. This little master just happens to have this intention. I am worried in my heart. Only after you have been miserable for a while, don't turn around and succumb to madness, otherwise you will have the broken boots on your feet. This is mainly to catch up, but also has to pay a lot of effort!"

Ye Xuan was extremely angry and laughed. He raised his hand and pointed it to Xiaoyao. He was mad, and Ye Xuan was more mad than him. At this moment, he was very angry, and the war in his chest was raging: "As for repression, It's not necessary, isn't it the eleventh big sacred light, the nine-order grand perfection? This young master also has the strength of the first-order heaven, compared with you, the two big realms are still a small order, suppressing you enough. !"

As soon as I heard this, not far from the ground, the palace, the innocent and the dust-free, all the people, the arrogant prisoners of war, all had their mouths open, and their faces were dull, just like the group had just been thundered.

It is the figure of the white dress that wins the snow in the distant mountain peaks. At this moment, the face is not covered by a touch of admiration.

As for the star-studded powerhouses from the top-level gates and forces and Zongmen in the void around the big squad, it is even more instant.

Before that, I felt that Xiaoyaozi was too arrogant. The precedent of the suppression of Yinxia Fairy was in front of him, and he still dared to refer to the scorpion.

Who is expected to be more mad in the mad, the latter is not allowed to let go, but released only two big realms, enough to suppress the words of this dead man, it is crazy!

"call out!"

"Hey!"

"Booming!"

Just as all the star-studded powerhouses inside and outside Shennong Ding were shocked by Ye Xuan's rhetoric, they were suddenly on the verge of a thundering battle in Ding's space.

Chapter 3367: Gyro cabinet

"call out!"

"Hey!"

"Booming..."

Just as all the star-studded powerhouses inside and outside Shennong Ding were stunned by the words of Ye Xuanshi's horror, the battle between the latter and Xiaoyaozi finally came to an end!

This war has been avoided in any case!

Although Ye Xuan and Xiaoyaozi did not say it, they knew each other well and knew each other.

Because Xiaoyaozi is also the host of the phagocytic system. In fact, the so-called human races of the young people, who were suddenly born in the past, are the same system carriers as Ye Xuan.

The four Ye Xuan competitors are the best among the many systemic parasitic hosts. Two of them are just like Ye Xuan, from a closed planet completely isolated from the outside world.

When the Emperor II spread out the seeds of the system, it is not only limited to the third cosmic plane ruled by the Terran, but even the first universe occupied by the Second Universe and the Tianzu, and even some have not been vigorously explored. The mysterious universe plane of unknown extent has been placed on the emperor.

Many of these system seeds may not have encountered the living body that activated it at all, and thus the dependent host is still floating in the emptiness of the sky, never ending.

But a large part of the system seeds have encountered the host and successfully completed the contract, but in this part of the lucky ones, more than 99% of them have fallen prematurely, or they have never achieved anything, and they are obscured in the three universes. The corner of a certain planet in the plane is deserted.

In addition to Ye Xuan, the system host that has been born is only the four generations of the genius of this young generation.

They have never met each other before, so whether it is Yinxia Fairy or Xiaoyaozi, they are officially face-to-face with Ye Xuan, and after a certain degree of behavior or verbal contact, they are unexpectedly reminded by the system, suddenly realize the truth. of.

Previously, just as Ye Xuan and Xiaoyaozi both came to me to create an intersection, both of them had a familiar system sound in their brains. The content was basically the same as before, with the two system carriers meeting. The competition between different systems and their hosts has been turned on instantly!

For the fact that Xiaoyao is also a carrier of the system, Yinxia Fairy, who is at the top of the mountain, is also very surprised. Although she has failed in the competition between the system hosts, the phagocytic system has been controlled by Ye Xuan. The system has branded the source code and is no longer qualified to compete with other system hosts.

But for this reason, when other system hosts face each other and are about to start internal competition, the phagocytic system in Yinxia Fairy can be a kind of attitude and angle beyond the detachment, and inform her about the information without any pressure!

At this moment, the mood of Yinxia Fairy is complicated to the extreme. As the system carriers, Ye Xuan and Xiaoyao Zi have just started competing, but she has already left the game early.

At the same time, for the final result of this war, Yinxia Fairy is also awkward, can not tell who can finally win, perhaps ... neither hope.

But that is obviously impossible!

At this moment, with the sound of a sharp, piercing sound, the screams of the two savage squadrons accompanied by the demon blood blade and the red blood scorpion, Ye Xuan and Xiao Yaozi both vacated at the same time. The infinite pressure of the whole body rushed into the air.

Surprised by a huge roar of the sky, even the rolling hills not far from the vast space inside the vast dings seemed to be shocked by the invisible horror impact and shook slightly.

Both of them are the unsuccessful arrogance of today's Terran, and they are amazing!

The warfare magic weapon, the two can be described as equal.

Of course, this is a general comment made on the premise of excluding the powerful means of magical means such as headless baby corpse, Lei Diyin, and Yu Tianzhu.

Ye Xuan has a * blade and a glass armor that can open the second mech.

Xiaoyaozi, in addition to the red bloody, also has a pair of broken boots on the feet, with terrible limit speed, and other advantages.

In the case of a warrior in the hands of the two, one of the two, because of the glaze of the glass, is known for its defense and strength, and the advantage is not small.

In addition to the war, the speed and horror response ability is even better!

However, while the advantages of the warrior and the magic weapon are not different, the difference between the two is a disparity.

A repair is the realm in the eleventh major Xuanguang nine-order great consummation, only one step can enter the twelfth world of the first level of the void.

The other, but only the ninth big hole in the first step of the cultivation, only recently broke through, first entered this territory!

The gap between the cultivation and the realm is too great. This is clearly a sacred gap between two realms!

Therefore, for this battle, there are not many people who are still optimistic about Ye Xuan. Even the three women of Xuanyuan Ziyang are very worried and quite worried.

The broken boots are really extraordinary. As an auxiliary wasteland, once the power is completely stirred up, the effect is sturdy!

So that the boots on the foot of Ye Xuan began to wander around, staring at the glass-covered armor to the tightly wrapped Ye Xuan kept spinning, the speed is almost the entire body has been turned into an undisputed bleak Weimang, even Ye Xuan's enchanting can not keep up with the rhythm, almost can not capture the shape of Xiaoyaozi!

During this period, Xiaoyao, who was swiftly moving, waited for an opportunity to take the shot. The red blood was on the glass glaze of Ye Xuan. Although he did not leave even a scar, he was the eleventh largest Xuanguang nine-order big. The perfect existence, higher than Ye Xuan, two whole realms, the power is extremely terrifying.

Seven or eight notes fell, although the armor was not damaged, but Ye Xuan was shocked and dizzy, and the blood was somewhat impetuous.

This reminded him of the top of the celestial family who was killed by the Emperor Leidi in the purple armor before the fusion!

I must not continue this way anymore. Too passive, the other side took the attack strategy of taking the opportunity to start and take the opportunity to the extreme, and Ye Xuan was completely restrained.

There is a strong force in the air, but it can't hit the target at all. The defense of the glass armor is astonishing, but it is impossible to stay in the armor, and it is impossible to maintain it in an endless manner. Hard to resist the state of this horrible shock.

For a long time, if you are killed in the armor, you can really laugh and be generous!

"Why do you say a good knife? Shouldn't it be very domineering? How do you feel that you will only squat on the speed of the broken boots on your feet and turn around the circle?"

This battle Ye Xuan was quite wrong, the other side's speed is too fast, the body shape is too sloppy, let him have the feeling of a fist to the cotton pile.

Under the sorrow, Ye Xuan even sneered out: "This little master is now extremely suspicious of your identity, honestly confess, you are the owner of the singularity, or the gyro..."

Chapter 3368: It's hard to be famous.

What is the ratio of the gyro?

This ridiculous name was introduced into the ear, and Xiaoyao almost stunned his nose on the spot!

Although he is arrogant, he is not reckless, especially in combat. Even in the face of too many opponents who are weaker than himself, Xiaoyao never scorns.

Without the consciousness and state of mind of the eagle eagle, he may not be able to grow all the way and live to the present.

Therefore, in the face of the entire body shape is wrapped in a battlefield with a star-to-the-star class, not only is the defensive power horrible, but its power is also increased by the blessing of the fighter mech, Ye Xuan, Xiaoyaozi I don't think it's wrong with this kind of combat strategy, which is an endless battle.

Only in this way can he exert his advantages to the fullest extent, and at the same time remove the defense and strength of the other side invisibly!

However, Xiaoyao's fighting thoughts are clear and unmistakable, but he's completely unpredictable for Ye Xuan's mouthful of poisonous mouth.

The grandeur of the sacred hall, how elegant and transcendental, but he was said to be a comic ratio from the gyro!

A simple ridicule and embarrassment, its lethality is really amazing.

Obviously, after this war, the famous name of the Gyro Pavilion will be completely savage, and the Xiaoyao will become famous overnight, and will once again lead the situation and lead the way!

This is too ruined. With the cold arrogance of Xiaoyaozi, how can I endure the comprehensive ridicule of this cosmic level?

At this moment, as the Gyro Club was introduced into the ear with these five insulting words, he finally did not calm down, roaring and roaring like thunder: "Want to irritate me? Linghu Chong, you succeeded! Hehe..."

"Hey..."

As the roar in the mouth, Xiaoyao's figure finally stopped, and the red blood that had been hovering around his figure was also spurred out in an instant, heading for the giant of the mech.

Above the head of Ye Xuan, the * blade of the demon has been hovering all the time, locking the red blood around the body of the happy child, waiting for the opportunity to move.

I finally waited for the opportunity!

Just at the same moment when the red blood smashed, when the head fell, the * blade of the demon trembled, and the sound of cheerful whistling sounded. When even greeted, the * black magical flames rushed and rushed, and a small piece of emptiness was This awning is covered with ignorance.

"Hey!"

The two sharp-edged needle tips on the wheat, bombarded together, issued a shocking gold and iron symphony.

At this moment, no matter whether it is the dust-free, the palace, the heart, and other human-like arrogant prisoners, it is still the top-level gatekeepers and the powerful star-studded powers who watched the virtual air around the big squad. All the people are heart-warming. Raised up, the line of sight gathered in the land of two flames of flames.

The ancient treasures are aimed at the stars and treasures.

One stem is from the ancients, and one is born in this world.

At this moment, I finally confronted each other. All of us wanted to know which one of them was the rare invincible blade after this gorgeous collision that I could barely see!

"Card!"

"Card..."

It was also at this time that Ye Xuan's body shape of Xiaoyao was finally stagnant, and he no longer turned into a chance to swim at the speed of Xuanguang. He did not hesitate to start the spirit of lightning.

In the mid-air battlefield, a few lightning bolts were heard, but they were not seen at all.

On the ground below, the dust-free palace, the heartless, and other people, the arrogant prisoners of war, subconsciously shrunk their necks. They have some conditions for this kind of squeaking. They have been seen several times before, and it is hard to prevent them.

The speed of lightning is originally fast, and Ye Xuan's spiritual thunder and lightning is formed by the condensation of spiritual power. Its speed is faster than the lightning in nature, coupled with invisible and inferior, it is simply mad, basically When the click of the lightning rang, it had already reached the top of the head.

The same is true!

"Hey..."

Almost at the same instant, the battlefield in midair suddenly screamed a scream of screaming screams, and the palaces underneath the ground, such as the inhumane, the arrogant prisoners of war, all had such a look, and the peak of the mountain in the distance. Yinxia Fairy, but at this moment, consciously grasped the small powder boxing, the face suddenly gloomy.

Although she has now restored the position of Zhu Xian, but before the scene of Ye Xuan's spiritual thunder and lightning to the face of a bird's nest like a pot is really too miserable, the eternal pain in memory!

At the moment, this pain is like copying, and it appears in Xiaoyaozi!

With the fierce sound of the wolverine, his figure was suddenly awkward, almost slammed into the air, but in the next moment, his figure disappeared instantly between the steps.

When it appeared, it was already outside the void battlefield of more than a hundred miles away. It was covered with black eyes, the roots of the hair were upside down, and the nose was squirting with a touch of black smoke. It was clearly that it was almost smashed into the outer focus. The rhythm.

When the body shape just stopped, it suddenly hit this blow. Under the shackles, the whole heart and the liver were scared and trembled. It was a direct evasion. With the power of the broken boots at the foot, the power of the heavens and the feet was swift, and it was a hundred miles away. .

You must know that this is the internal space of Shennong Ding. The atmosphere inside some administrative stars cannot be teleported because of the suppression of the star defense defensive array, let alone this place?

However, he succeeded in completing the teleport, and blinked a hundred miles away. This scene fell in Ye Xuan's eyes, and suddenly let him turn his eyes straight, his heart sighed, but his mouth was not forgiving.

A grin, shouted in the direction of the appearance of Xiaoyaozi: "I'm sorry, big brother, just said wrong, you are not a funny than the gyro, you are the stupid hat of Wang Bage, a dozen! "

"puff....."

The silly hat that Wang Bage slipped out?

Hearing this sentence, Xiaoyao only felt a boring chest. After the whole three mental thunderbolts were put on the door to the porcelain, the internal injuries finally broke out, and the mouth opened with a blood arrow.

At this moment, he really hates anger.

First of all, the comparison of the Gyro Pavilion, now comes a stupid hat of Wang Bage, this time I am afraid that it is difficult to think of it, and it must be quite vocal, and it is famous for three major planes.

"what....."

Under the extremes of the gas, Xiaoyaozi screamed and sighed, and his body was raging and violent, but his image was too horrible at the moment. Although the roots of the injury were irrelevant, the roots of the hair were erected, and the faces were black and ghostlike. Roaring in the sky, anyone who sees it must think that it must be his brain, and there is a problem!

"Ugh!"

"Another generation of Tianjiao was suppressed! Even the brain has been smashed, sad, sigh!"

Below the ground, the palace is indifferent and other people of the heavenly arrogant prisoners look at each other, all sigh.

At the top of the mountain, the Yinxia fairy moth was slightly wrinkled. Although she had some vague guesses, she did not let her be disappointed.

"This guy is really so enchanting, no one is enough to suppress it?"

Turning to the front of the empty sky, Ye Xuan, Yinxia fairy looks whispered, whispered...

Chapter 3369: Wolf-like murderer

"Heaven, what did I see? Another generation of human beings have been suppressed by the celestial temperament? One day, the four generations of the Terran celestial arrogance have fallen by half, and they have been folded by one hand. Who can hinder the rise of the fox lord? "

"The reputation of Xiaoyao Pavilion is completely ruined. It is more miserable than the Yinxia fairy who collapsed in the image of the former celestial being. The name of the gyroge and the singularity of the Wang Bage stupid hat are destined to be famous for the three universes."

"Playing is playing, this is the rhythm of big red and purple, and Laozi wants to thunder and lightning..."

"Oh, the loss of the innocent, the invisible thunder and lightning of the fox lord is too abnormal, and it is invisible in the speed of lightning, so the gods can not avoid it."

"Yes, this supernatural power is simply a sinister treasure. It is too suitable for the loyalty of the fox lord. It is tailor-made."

"Don't say that Xuanguang's ninth stage is full of perfection, that is, Qiankun's ability to be cold and not smashed a few times. Although it is irrelevant, but the hair is bound to be blown into a bird's nest on the spot, the image will be destroyed. So, this makes the fox less lord. Isn't it better to be wary of even the mighty powers of the fifteenth world?"

"Great my brother..."

As Xiaoyao was smashed by a few invisible spirits, he was embarrassed to display the magical powers of the sky, and he avoided it in an instant, and the star-studded powerhouses from the top gates and forces in the void around the big squad immediately blew the nest. At one time, there was a lot of discussion, and the whole piece of the void was paralyzed.

It was also in this moment, the gorgeous collision of the two stalks, the original savage, covering a small piece of the magical flame of the air, at this moment finally scattered a little, vaguely can see the situation inside.

The battle between people and people there is basically a slap in the face. In addition to walking around the broken boots, Xiaoyao can only stretch his neck and thunder, no suspense, even if the final reversal wins, it is also a victory. Nothing to look at.

It is the result of a gorgeous collision between the two stalks on the side, and it is even more exciting!

The hearts of the stars and stars have once again hung up, and the sights have gathered together!

.....

At the same time, Shennong Ding's tripod space, the battlefield in midair!

"Hey!"

"Hey..."

The second sound of the heart of the gold and iron symphony sounded, followed by the whistling of the * blade of the demon, but the red blood of the Xiaoyao, but still silent.

In the next moment, the magical flame that had already enveloped this small piece of emptiness suddenly slammed up again. From there, there was a blood-red awning that rushed out in the direction of the Xiaoyaozi.

It's the wild and precious treasures!

Surprisingly, in a few short moments, the original fierce flames of red blood, the * magic flames that linger under the blade at the moment, are faintly faint, although the blade is indispensable, but the arrogance is too much. It is clear that in this battle of the invincible and fierce blade, the defeat!

"Hey!"

Then, the canopy shrouded a small piece of empty sky in the magical flame, the shape of the sorcerer's blood blade slammed out, the breath soared, stronger than before, the black and red magic flame dumped inside the blade. Such as hanging a large river hanging like it, its majestic momentum, dazzling!

"Hey!"

The red blood smashed in an instant, and returned to the front of Xiaoyaozi, hovering over the top of his head, and making a weak humming sound. It seemed to be telling something, and the momentum of the fierce flames was completely different. It seems that a child has finally encountered a more embarrassing little devil, and he is afraid of it!

"What? Is it actually sucked away a small part of the source of the killing?"

A hundred miles away from the distant void, the screams of Xiaoyaozi came, and the whole man ran away. He jumped his feet in the void and raised his hand to the side of Ye Xuan. He shook his mouth and said: "Ling Huchong What kind of ghost is your warrior? Say good and fair war? Say good squadrons fight against it? Why do you want to yin? If you eat and eat, you will be able to save the origins of the deity. Sucked a little and a half, this is this..."

"Sure enough, the master and the warriors are all virtues, and they are so special! Ah..."

At the end of the day, Xiaoyao once again screamed up and hated anger.

Underneath the ground, the dust-free and the palace, the heart and the other people, the arrogant prisoners of war, silently look at each other, shaking their heads and sighing: "Hey, follow this way, afraid that it is really going to be driven crazy!"

It was even more bleak in the void around the big squad.

If Ye Xuan suppresses Xiaoyaozi, they have already been psychologically prepared. After all, there is a precedent between Yinxia Fairy, and Ye Xuan's spiritual lightning is not the first time. The effect is obvious to all. All the people secretly kept their hearts, so the Xiaoyaozi was almost suppressed, and the stars and the stars were not surprised.

The red-blooded sorrow was so defeated that he was beaten and fled, but they were stunned.

"It's really speechless. It's the rhythm of defeat. I've been beaten, and the soldiers are the same. Losing him is also a good idea to say that the younger foxes and the warriors are a virtue. So good?"

"Ha ha ha... yes, the only difference is that the gyro counter and his soldiers are stupid hats, they are shrinking in one dozen, and they are running in a contraction. It is so worthy!"

"The devil's blood blade? It's amazing, the same level of the gods, but also from the ancients, was actually hit by it to escape, so that the fox is really amazing, but in the world to refine a handle so The magic blade, the side battle can also capture the source of the killings saved in the other gods, it is against the sky."

"This kind of invincible murderer, who dares to sacrifice the magic weapon to fight with it? A collision is the rhythm of being sucked down a small amount of killing the source. More than a few magic weapons will be abolished..."

"It's too shameless, too mean, but... I like it so much for Mao Laozi? Such a murderer, if I can have a handle, the rhythm of invincible, once the sacrifice, the opponent can not throw the magic weapon. , immediately all collected, anti-wolf-like, watching all fun!"

"It's too apt, it's not a bad blade, is it a wolf? It's greedy and fierce, it's amazing..."

The outside world was paralyzed, and the mid-air battlefield inside Shennong Ding was quiet at the moment.

Xiaoyao still stagnates in the void outside the hundred miles, the image is unbearable, gnashing his teeth, and screaming at Ye Xuan, but he does not continue to rush.

This war can't continue. The other party's means is too shameless. There is invisible lightning on the head, and the cold soldier is smashing him. The head of the soldier is even more unbearable, and the two confrontation is only the case. Sucked a little while.

Before we find a solution, this is clearly the rhythm of the more dead!

"How? Did you take it? If it is served, immediately admit defeat, you know!"

Seeing the other side of the smoldering flickering, the chest ups and downs, obviously has been about to blow up, but did not continue to shoot, Ye Xuan waved and put away the blood of the devil, pointing to the void here, proudly swearing

Chapter 3370: Gambling

For Ye Xuan's intention to admit defeat, the outsiders do not know, but Xiaoyao is understandable, including the Yinxia fairy who is in the distance of the mountain peak.

Once confessed, it represents the failure to admit defeat in this system competition mission, willing to bear the defeat.

What will be lost at that time is not only a system exchange shop to pay for it, but also a certain exchange of goods for the other party, including some kind of opportunity and creation in the future.

Although Ye Xuan or Yinxia Fairy, including Xiaoyaozi, do not know the parasitic system that is parasitic in their body, and the growth and evolution to the end, what is the ultimate goal.

But no one wants to go to that step, the system parasitized in the body is branded by other systems to represent the affiliation source code, so that it is too passive, no matter what situation will eventually greet in the future, This subordinate branding will become an elbow, which is a hidden danger!

Therefore, if it is not necessary, Xiaoyao can never easily admit defeat.

Before the non-Yinxia fairy can't help but be tortured by Ye Xuan in public, it will not be easy to loosen.

However, this move is obviously useless to Xiaoyao. One of the great men and grandfathers, let alone convulsions. It is estimated that smashing his pants and taking a knife to the top may not make him succumb.

What's more, there are still a pair of ridiculous and heavy-duty obstacles at the foot of the people. The gods are indeed extraordinary. They can actually carry out teleports in the inner space of Shennong Ding, and even ignore the limitations of the internal domain of this tripod. Exaggerated words, if people want to go, Ye Xuan simply can't stop, pat the fart can go far...

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan suddenly felt a headache.

The other party does not admit defeat, do not say that there is no means for the time being, even if there is, can you catch it?

This guy is simply a muddy, but he can't beat it. It's too hard to deal with it!

Under the sorrow, Ye Xuan's eyebrows were slightly wrinkled, and he could not help but fall into depression.

At this moment, Xiaoyaozi in the emptiness of the hundred miles, but sneered out loudly: "Put away? Actually, I am so kind to say this, Linghu Chong, you should raise your hand and touch, the face is still gone!"

"According to the deity, it is clear that you are the right person!"

Speaking of this, Linghu Chong sneered and sneered, and said: "Although this war has ended in a hurry, do you really defeat the deity? The deity of this deity is not damaged, but your means are too sinister, even the gods are also a Virtue, the deity has not yet thought of a response, so a temporary truce."

"Once the deity thinks of the response, it will definitely suppress you!"

"The only concern for the deity is that you are afraid that you will not be able to wait until that time. Once the ancestors of the Heavenly Wars are returning, you will be suppressed!"

"Your Shennong Ding is also an ancient treasure, but after all, it is not focused on the treasure of the Fa-energy, but the refining of medicine, the deity and the Yinxia fairy can come in. You think that the so-called old man who went to the war Friends, will you not come in?"

"Even if they take advantage of them before they return, there is no chance now. The big squad outside the dynasty has been completely banned. No one can leave without the deity."

"It is the Yinxia fairy. Although she can easily enter your Shennong Ding, it is absolutely not easy to get out of the trap, but it will cost a lot."

"Don't forget that there are a lot of star-studded powerhouses in the air, and you will not be able to rush out of the air when you have exhausted your strength. The inexhaustible attack has already been covered. So, this time, you are hopelessly no matter what..."

"In this case, it is better to directly accept the loss."

At the end of the day, Xiaoyaozi finally said the core meaning of this discourse, and his face gradually eased the half, and the tone was softer: "In any case, you are finally unable to escape or be suppressed. Today you and me If you can meet each other and fight, it can be regarded as a fate. You will recognize a loss. What is the relationship between the right and the deity before the fall?"

"Your sister is married! Who said that Laozi is going to be crushed and degraded?"

Ye Xuan is listening to it. For a long time, this kid wants to be cheap, and he wants to use words to convince Ye Xuan to accept his life.

This kind of deep-hearted smile, Hu Yexuan, was the most unhappy, and immediately became angry. He raised his finger to the Xiaoyao who was hundreds of miles away. He said: "It's shameless, I want to take advantage of Laozi's cheapness. It's still so good. Even if the encounter with the First World War is the story of the dog's fart, the Lord is now extremely suspicious of which vulture you are escaping from the temple. Otherwise, how can you be fooled by the banner of goodness?"

"puff....."

In the distance, Xiaoyao's face was smashed into a sauce purple, and it was almost tempered to squirt blood.

However, Ye Xuan's words have not yet been finished. At this time, I suddenly remembered something. I looked up and glanced at the silver light curtain in the sky. I flashed a touch of fine smudges in the middle of the sill, and looked at the palace below the ground, and said: Hey, the surname of the palace, the top of the broken mask was removed, the outside of the size of the old king eight peeked for so long, it should be let people take a break, free eye long eyes!"

When this discourse was exported, it was a sizzling sound outside the big squad. All the people were turned into Wang Ba by him. The big one is the big king, the small one is the little king. As for the old one, the old eight. .

This mouth is too poisonous, and the group is gathered here. This is a grand event of Fengyun gathering. What is it now?

Does Wang Ba have a meeting?

This can't be tolerated. In the snoring, all the strong stars are eager to try. They want to enter the trapped squad, only when the people inside come out, they immediately vent their anger!

After all, the fox lord suddenly asked the palace to withdraw the crystal ball back from the law, and there will be some action. If there is no accident, most of them will escape!

For all of this, Ye Xuan did not know. At this moment, after seeing the palace unintentionally withdrawing the silver light curtain of the sky, he continued to pick up again: "Isn't the outside a big squad? Not in your eyes, if you want to leave, you can do it at any time."

"I really thought that the broken boots at your feet can ignore the power of the banned law? This little master has similar means, and does not need to rely on the magic weapon, but is the magical power that he masters, more magical and quick, disbelief, How about making a bet?"

"You want to be cheap, and you can't do it with Mao. But this little master is bright and upright. It's not like you are trying your best. This is mainly for using conspiracy. It depends on whether you dare to pick it up."

Speaking of this, Ye Xuan grinned and smiled, and squinted at Xiaoyaozi, and then he said: "After all, you and I have to decide a winner. Since this battle can no longer continue, How is the gambling agreement to win or lose?"

"You are not confident that you can enter and exit the big array with your broken boots under your feet. Is it into the uninhabited situation?"

"The deity will bet with you, look at you and me, after the two of them have gone out, how can they go faster and faster? The slow movement is the loss, the result of your own body and my body... to identify! "
