

Super D. S 3431

Chapter 3431: Special treatment

"Come on the lion dog, have you not yelled at you very much? Come, come and kill the ancestors, kill you or not?"

At this moment, Ye Xuan is completely the image of the top squatting squatting. This is also intentional. After all, his current identity is a rare genius. When the billions of years ago were not sealed, it was a wasteland. The age of the times is so great that I have lived in this world, and naturally I am more qualified to marry the Quartet.

However, this look is indeed too tempting to hate, surrounded by the top three forces of the universe, the top of the fleet of power, countless stars and strong people look at him, at this moment are hateful teeth itching.

This guy's face is really too low.

Unfortunately, no one dares to blame again!

The whole face of the War Lions is now a purple color, and the whole body is full of breath, and the fists are clenched, but they are all in the void in a thousand miles, so they dare not scream again!

In the face of the projection body, it is so large that it can cover a whole piece of the shadow of the ancient tortoise. It is a great power, but in fact it is no different from the ants.

When the Taigu Minglong body completely collapsed in the early ancient times, the only piece of the life that was left behind was pinched in the hands of Ye Xuan. This piece of life is the switch that controls the will of the sea turtle in the tortoise. Now Ye Xuan It can be said that the palm of the hand kills the power, in this star field, he sees who is not pleasing to the eye, can be directly destroyed!

"Hey, the old lion dog, is it swollen?" The ancestors did not respond to the question? Are you still dumb?"

The lions of the War Lions did not say anything, but Ye Xuan did not intend to let go of it. In his view, the gloom of this ancient age-class The unscrupulous Lord, if the other party recognizes a shackle at this time, he will immediately release the suspicion, but it will be suspicious.

I think he is a guilty performance!

Therefore, Ye Xuan can not retreat, the more this time, the more you have to beat the dog!

Anyway, the patriarchs of the war lions have already been grilled and eaten... This hatred has already grown, and it has not been resolved, and it does not care about the deeper.

Just right to take advantage of this opportunity, I will slap a slap in the face of a great power, help boost their own arrogance!

"Hey! You guys aren't snoring, right? Is this the rhythm of screaming at the ancestors?"

"This is clearly not to be convinced, come here, you are an old hybrid, my ancestors I will give you treatment, just to rule all kinds of dissatisfaction!"

During the speech, Ye Xuan turned his eyes and his body shape was instantly in front. Several big steps had already reached the front of the lion and the mighty power of the lions. He glanced at the latter with a vigilant color. He raised his hand and moved to the front. The Archaic Turtle's will projection over the entire star field pointed to the finger.

Gloomy smile: "Look at it, there is only a super king staring at you, isn't your old * dissatisfied? This ancestor now teaches you how to behave... No, it should be how to be a poodle!"

"If you dare to fight back, kill immediately!"

In the last sentence, Ye Xuan almost snarled and pulled out. The finger holding the palm of the ancient tortoise was tight, and he injected a * force into it.

In an instant, this whole body of the tortoise was once again slightly swayed. The lions of the lions who were maddened by the face of the lions were trembled. At this moment, he clearly felt that there was a terror that could not be described. The powerful air machine instantly locked his figure.

Not just the body, it even includes the soul.

He didn't know what it was, and the gas machine could even be locked by the gods. It was unheard of.

But one thing he knows is very clear. That is, if he dares to make a slight change, he will immediately be the end of the gods. Even if he teleports or tears away the void, it is impossible to escape from this star field.

No chance!

If the former lion of the war lion is still full of resentment against Ye Xuan and is extremely jealous, then now, with his entire figure and the gods, all of them are covered by the sky with a whole cloud of turtles. This Taikoo tortoise will be locked in projection, and now, the only thing left in his heart is the boundless fear and panic.

A strong sense of life and death has shrouded his mind. At this moment, the great power of the War Lions suddenly gave birth to a kind of enlightenment, death, and never approached him.

As long as the wicked guy who hates the sore roots in his eyes, he will turn the ash and smoke, and the hair will not be able to stay.

The will of the Taikoo tortoise will be projected on the top of the head, and it will be completely killed!

Faced with this unprecedented crisis of life and death, the Qiankun nationality of the War Lions did not even dare to move. The fear of a little change made it difficult.

Of course, the more important thing is that Ye Xuan, who was only the fifth-ordered Tiantian, was not threatened in his eyes. Even if he stood here, he would bear the bombardment of the other party. That is, a little wolverine, plus a slight injury, a face is lost...

Compared with the projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise hanging by the top of the head, the fool knows how to choose!

"boom!"

"Old lion dog, cool?"

Ye Xuan's body shape smashed into the front of the lion's savage genius. He punched out and smashed in the void. Now he is a state of phantom, but it does not mean that the blood of the flesh cannot Transfer.

This fist blasted out, and the strength actually far exceeded the expectations of the lions and the mighty powers of the war lions. It is not the tenth level of the heavens and the fifth level of the repair can be achieved, we must know that today's Ye Xuan is in the same vein. The spiritual strength and the emptiness of the cave, the blood of the dragon, the blood of the Nether, all of this together, has already given him the comprehensive strength to fight across the realm.

Although it is not enough to cross the two realms and reach the twelfth level of the virtual environment, it is definitely not in the middle and late stages of the eleventh state.

The lions of the War Lions were unable to defend themselves. On the spot, they were bombarded with a * spurt, and a mouth was spurted with a blood arrow.

Of course, this is also the result that he did not dare to take up the strength of the body to resist. Otherwise, the strength of the eleventh large-scale Xuanguang in the middle and late period could not make a person with the fifteenth territory repaired as a minor injury. Blood spurting.

He has already seen that Ye Xuan wants to take his power to make him a bit of a slap in the face, and let him suffer from the pain of life and death. The lion's power can only bite his teeth and endure the grievances. I hope that this little * will reach its goal. After the bombing, he will let him go.

As long as you leave the sea of the tortoise, the projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise on the top of the head will not affect the outside world. At that time, it will be completely safe!

Although for this point, the powerful forces in the surrounding virtual air are basically well aware, but when all this happened in front of the eyes, it still caused an exclamation, too shocked, one Qiankun's power, he was fattened in grievances, and did not dare to fight back, dare not resist...

Chapter 3432: it's him

"Is this a dream? I actually saw a great man, and he was mad at a tenth-order guy in the tenth world!"

"It's just arrogance. Not only does it dare to fight back, it doesn't even have the power to fight against it. It's too hard to be beaten by a punch. It's too wrong!"

"The sorrowful ancestor of the Yin Mozu is against the sky. Not only does the sea of the turtles have the will to be the backing, but their own strength is extraordinary. It is only the fifth-order cult of the tenth day, even if it is big. Can not resist, can not be bombed to the old blood, this is at least the combat power in the middle and late period of the black light, this person has the strength to fight across the realm."

"Is it a fascinating singer? The degree of arrogance is really the existence of the invincible * of the Terran and the singer of the fox. The people have a foundation, and they are also the enchanting level of the world."

"This time, the second universe and the various ethnic groups finally have a worldly enchanting genie. If you don't know the first universe of the first universe, will it be the same? Is this the grandeur of the three universes coming together?"

"If this is the case, it is very likely that the war that will erupt in the near future will be extremely exciting. It will be sensational in the past and the present, but the theory of air transport will be paralyzed. If the other two planes are also enchanting, it will be born. The argument that the Terran dominates this warfare is not broken."

"The future is even more difficult to measure, full of uncertainty. I have to upgrade as much as possible as soon as possible, and survive in the future plane battle..."

"Booming!"

"Hey..."

"Old lion dog, your service is not convinced!"

"boom!"

With the excitement of the powerful forces in the surrounding virtual air, Ye Xuan was unceremonious, constantly punching and punching, and the lion's mighty power as a sandbag was indiscriminately bombarded.

The latter has once again opened his mouth to bleed the bleeding arrow, and the whole old face can't be smashed, and the purple color of the sauce turns into iron blue, which is clearly the rhythm that is about to be alive and dead.

Undoubtedly, after this war, even if the heroes of the War Lions can survive, they will become the laughing stock of the three universes. There has never been such an amazing event, a fifteenth The great power of the environment, when it is the fifth-order existence of a cave, in the face of countless star powers, like a ball to bomb.

"puff....."

With Ye Xuan once again banging out, the ancestors of the War Lions spurted blood again, and now, the powerful forces who are watching the war in the sky are completely unable to distinguish him. In the end, it was bombarded by Ye Xuan to vomit blood, or was alive and mad to the blood.

Or, both have it!

Not far away, from the empty space of Ye Xuan's squadron, the lion's and the squad, the three sinisters, the yin and the yin, and the other In general, standing in front of the camp of the tens of thousands of Yin Mozu people, waving their hands and leading, so that the slogans of the numerous eyes of the powerful people in the air around the sky, and soon again, came out and resounded through this small piece of stars.

"Happy ancestors, the world's first!"

"Xianfu will always enjoy, life and heaven Qi!"

"Happy ancestors, punch and kick!"

"The lion head big dog, crying and crying..."

The power of the fifteenth big world in his own way, while being fattened, there are still cheerleaders in the side, this situation is simply what makes people feel?

With the shameless slogan in the void not far away, the Qiankun of the War Lions really wants to cry, and there is a feeling of crying on the spot and no emotion in the chest!

In three different directions, Xuanyuan Zijing, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru, who were originally in the respective family's great fortresses, are now squatting out of the tribes, all of them slipping out and rushing out of the big fortress. Like a spirit, it converges in one direction.

Soon after, the three gimmicks stood in the void in the air not far from the battle circle, and all of them were wearing suspicious colors, staring at the front side of the emptiness in the air, while the fat and powerful leaves Xuan, that dawn is just like a knife, as if to analyze Ye Xuan from inside to outside!

"According to my analysis, the probability is at least 70%!"

The line of sight is closely staring at Ye Xuan in front of the void, Zhao Qianru's mysterious color on his face, and the voice is lowered. He talks with Xuanyuan Ziyan and Duanmu Xiaocha. "You also know that the guy is really not allowed to be banished. There are too many means in the vain flow, and this kind of thing will never happen."

"Since then, he has had no news, and the second universe has turned out to be a secluded sage. This is really weird. Don't forget, this guy was in the sky before. Having said that, to the second universe to be a curse..."

Having said that, Zhao Qianru snorted at the front: "Hey, this is not a bad thing!"

"No, no, no, you are not talking about your sister, Qianru!"

Aside, Duanmu Xiaocha immediately shook his head: "The chance of 70% is too low. According to Miss, the guy in front is his chance, at least 85%, even as high as 90%!"

"Don't you find out? This style is simply carved out of a mold. It is not a matter of reason, and it is not forgiving. This kind of thing, except for the idol that Miss Miss has glanced at, Is there something that a living person can do?"

"Moreover, the virtue of this big food is simply a replica, absolutely not running, more than 80%, it is him!"

"Hey!"

Duanmu Xiaocha just finished, the Xuanyuan Ziyang on the side shouted and chuckled, shaking his head and sighing: "It seems that you both don't know anything about him. What is it like?" According to Miss Ben, Ten out of ten is the big bastard!"

Speaking of this, Xuanyuan Ziyang turned his eyes and sneaked a finger at the empty space in front of him. He patted his chest and decided: "If you don't believe, then you look at it. After the goods first make people fat, Next, it must be an old routine. It's not a matter of hard work, it's just about what kind of medical expenses, and people can't see it, but he's been so long, he's sure he's got a wrist and the like. This is a must call for a claim..."

As soon as I heard this, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru suddenly stunned and sighed!

"Ah? No? So shameless?"

"I drop a trick, or purple, you know him, but... In this case, can we talk to him later?"

Not waiting for the voice of the two people to fall, the front of the awkward and awkward Ye Xuan suddenly sneezed a big sneeze, and then stopped the action, rubbed his nose, white eyes turned to the nose and face swollen mouth with blood. The lions of the war lions smashed the past: "What do you see? Lao Tzu is smashing his wrists to cure you. How do you calculate the medical expenses? You can say it yourself..."

In the distance, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru felt that they were black in front of them, and they almost fell into the air... that is, he did not run this time!

Chapter 3433: Serve people

"puff!"

"You don't want to be too much, you don't want to be too much..."

When I heard Ye Xuan's words, I was sighed with a sigh of relief before, and I was always sighing with a sigh of relief. The lions and lions who were not snoring were old and couldn't help, and they opened their mouths with a blood arrow. It's an instant, staring at Ye Xuan.

Gritted teeth: "It's too deceiving! The boss of this family can't blow himself. Even if it falls, it will definitely pull you down!"

He is really angry and can't.

Dignified and powerful, it was no doubt that Ye Xuan was so abused in the public, and he was still extorted.

Is it not possible to extort money and find individual excuses? Actually, I still have a slap in the face, I have to pay for medical expenses... I have a grass, my old man's hall is full of energy, and I've been squirting a few blood arrows. Who are you looking for? Count it?

"Hey! The temper is on the rise! But it is also understandable that it is normal for the mane to have a big anger, but this IQ has also fallen sharply?"

Ye Xuan Yi Ran without fear, still cynical, full of words between sarcasm and cynical: "This just remember ancestors did not beat your head ah, does its own gas to hold back the bad hum abruptly, there are only super head Wang Ba is here, the whole sea turtle field of the tortoise is under control. You are a little big genius who wants to blew himself. Do you think... is this possible?"

"you....."

The old face of the warrior and the Qiankun nationality was so dark, and it was hard to squeeze out a word in the mouth, but then it could not be followed.

The head of the Taikoo tortoise is projected on the head, and the strength of his retreat is indeed not even the chance of self-destruction. He is only scared of Ye Xuan, and he is hard-pressed. Now it seems useless.

This guy really came from the era of the ancient times, the world sees more, not the current generation of the heavens and the future generations, the so-called Qiankun arrogant, can not scare him!

At this point, the lions and heroes of the War Lions were thoroughly smashed, and they did not dare to bargain with Ye Xuan. He saw it. The goods were really tired. I didn't plan to shoot again. Now I just want to fish. Hard work.

If you just gave it to yourself, this old metamorphosis has taken advantage of it, and this time the child has been revealed.

However, if he is tempted with him, once he is provoked, at least it is a slap in the face, maybe under the anger, directly urging the projection of the Taikoo tortoise on the top of the head, it is very possible to pull himself down!

After all, there are so many fleets in the sea star field of this tortoise, and the top forces of the three cosmic planes have come together. With his current heritage, who can't rob?

I thought about it, the old Qiankun people of the War Lions suddenly smashed, and the color of the face disappeared instantly. Although they were still expressionless, they obviously did not dare to support them.

Even the voice of the words is weak: "Well, this family is old... recognize, you say, what do you want?"

"I want your mother!"

Ye Xuan immediately became angry. The attitude of this kind of charity made him quite uncomfortable. He blinked his eyes and said: "I have also deliberately euphemistically said that it has become a medical expense. You are so old and ignorant. Believe it or not, the ancestors directly deducted you, and then sent people to your lions to find someone who can manage things to ransom?"

"puff!"

"I...day!"

The great power of the War Lions did not stop, and an old blood burst out.

If you give it now, the face is said to be a medical bill, and you can barely accept it. If you really let this guy tear the skin, directly deduct people, and then send people to the family to ransom, then you really have no face. Lived.

Dignified and powerful, the second universe of the Lions, the old family, was actually tied to a live ticket, extorting ransom, this is absolutely unprecedented, anecdotes!

"The ancestors' patience is limited. Give you three minutes and hand over the medical expenses for compensation. What is the standard? Look at your sincerity!"

Anyway, the words have been opened, Ye Xuan has no scruples, immediately waved his hand: "If the ancestors I am satisfied, you can turn your head when you turn around, otherwise, the above Wang Ba is also stuffy for a while, it is time to let it activities Bone and bones..."

This is simply the threat of red fruit, either enough, not enough to kill!

The old cadres of the War Lions are all stunned. What happened today makes him doubt the life, it is too painful!

"call out!"

In the teeth and teeth, the sound of the air broke, and a space box was shot by the old Qiankun of the War Lions, and came to Ye Xuan.

The latter catches up, and the gods invade some of them, even when they open their eyes.

Sure enough, it is a great energy, and the net worth is too rich. Don't look at this space box, but there are a lot of things inside.

There are all kinds of heavenly treasures and rare minerals, and some of them are the treasures needed to prepare the 14th and 15th grade liquids, even if they are used in the Shennong Ding refining.

There are many other magic weapons, including warfare, armor and small private warships, as well as some other special-purpose treasures.

In addition, there are many resources for cultivation. It is the source of the star-level nuclear power of the nine-level and nine-color. Ye Xuan has seen more than 30 pieces.

Although he doesn't care about this kind of thing, he still has a few cubes in his hand, but for the general star power, it is definitely the top resource.

Sure enough, it is a powerful energy. Although all the resources in this space box are far from being comparable to the resources of the Fortress in the Beggar, the total amount is about 20% to 30%, even for Ye Xuan. Words can be considered a windfall.

The old guy is not afraid of death in general. In order to buy a life, it is estimated that the cultivation resources in his hands are at least one and a half!

"That's right. Everyone is a civilized person, hurting people. As long as you are willing to pay for medical expenses, you are still a good friend..."

Turning the hand to the space box into the immortal world, Ye Xuan immediately changed his face, smile can be said: "This ancestor has always been to serve people, old friends, go slowly, do not send it!"

Although this sentence is irritating, but for the old Qiankun people of the War Lions, this moment is no different from the foreign sounds. His nose snorted and turned and plunged into the back of the void. Dark starry fortress.

This shackles did not matter, and Ye Xuan's anger was recruited.

Originally, I really intended to let go of the other side. Who wouldn't have thought about this? I still haven't heard of the sea of the turtle. Actually, I've got a face and dare to swear?

These thoughts flashed through my mind, and even if Ye Xuan's face sank, Yin Yang said with a strange sigh: "Hey? You walked away and you went for the hair of the ancestral star fortress?"

"Hurry, take all the poodles inside, and leave the fortress. The ancestors looked pleasing to the eye and kept playing..."

The implication is that this is clearly the rhythm of a 100,000-meter star fortress.

Losing him a second before, he is still arguing with others. This scene has always looked at all the powerful forces in the surrounding virtual air, and at the same time, his heart is suddenly a bad feeling.

At least Xuanyuan Ziyang and three women, have already raised their hands and squinted on the face, they really did not see...

Chapter 3434: For your safety

Although the scientific and technological elements of the Star Warship and other Terran have long been popularized in the Second Universe, for the federal people of the Second Universe, the Star Wars is a kind of imported goods. They do not have too strong R&D and construction capabilities. Some kilometers of the captain's star rating and the three-kilometer captain's star-rated warships can already be built.

Even the top ten ethnic groups in the second universe of the Commonwealth, even the five-meter-diameter small fort and the 10,000-meter-diameter big fort can be built, early through the Wanluo Federation from the Terran technology camp Came to the starship construction line.

But the small fortress of 50,000 meters in diameter and the starry fortress of 100,000 meters in diameter still can only rely on imports.

Even the top ten second universe group, there are not many 100,000-meter-diameter starry fortresses in the family, and each family has only 20 seats. All of them are in the power of the fourteenth world. Those who are strong in the universe are not qualified to distribute one.

Therefore, for the War Lions, this dark black lion star fortress can definitely be regarded as an important resource.

It belongs to the great power of this war lion!

Undoubtedly, once it is really handed out, the warrior's mighty power, there is no starry fortress, even if you can get another one in the future, it will certainly pay a lot of money, the Terran and the Second Universe. The relationship between the various ethnic groups is now tightening. This kind of strategic resource, the export export must be very strict!

Even so, the cut meat still has to be cut!

In the end, the hated and angry lions and the Qiankun people turned their faces to the black lion's star fortress again. Along with him, there were a large number of war lions, all of them with their tails, followed by Behind him, sprinting away, escaped the starfish field of the tortoise!

On this road, no matter the old Qiankun people of the War Lions, or the large number of War Lions behind them, there is no snoring, because the projection of the horrible giant tortoise above the head is still visible, until they are completely out soon. In the sea star field of the tortoise, the Qiankun people of the War Lions have a roaring hair!

"Roar!"

"The little hybrid, you are deceiving too much!"

"This matter, my lion family will never stop here!"

"Do you think that you can control the will of the sea of the tortoise, can you be ruthless? This matter has its own way to resolve, stretched out the neck and waited..."

"Roar....."

In the roaring roar, the old lions and hunters of the war lions quickly went with the many ethnic groups behind them, and went back to the tribe to ask for reinforcements!

.....

At the same time, the turtle's sea star field hinterland!

After the old Qiankun tribes of the lions who were waiting to fight left with a large number of lions and lions behind them, Ye Xuan even waved his hand and took the empty black lion into the immortal world.

It's not that he is suddenly kind, and he really intends to let go of the other party.

It is true that Ye Xuan does not have the ability to leave the other party. Of course, this means not using the powerful supernatural powers such as the headless baby corpse, Lei Diyin and Qi Tian bow, and the ancient treasures!

Just relying on the projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise hanging over the top of the head, he really can't kill the old Qiankun people of the War Lions!

Soon after the other party left, Ye Xuan tried to hang with the top of his head, and the body shape covered the whole body of the tortoise, and the Taikoo tortoise was willing to communicate, trying to let the other side squat with the lions and sorrows. Opportunity, killing it in the distance.

Unfortunately, the response was disappointing.

The projection of the will of Taikoo tortoise only protects the life of Ye Xuan's hand. Other things are ignored. That is to say, don't look at this life in Ye Xuan's hands, but even if Ye Xuan wants to make this tortoise, let Taikoo The curse of the tortoise is projected to do something, and people will not pay attention to it.

If Ye Xuan is in a hurry, he wants to smash the life of the scorpion, and the projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise is the first one to destroy him!

This result makes the cold sweat of Ye Xuan's back come out, and quickly closes the hand of the tortoise in his hand. If the fear falls, it will really break. The projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise is not desperate!

Fortunately, all this is only known to him, or because he received the awareness of the projection of the tortoise. Anyone else is completely ignorant. Otherwise, he is in the sea star field of this tortoise, and he is afraid to become a street mouse immediately. Everyone shouted.

Without the threat of the projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise, the strongest of the top-level power fleets from the three universes in the sky will definitely shoot him, because it has already caused public outrage.

Now, realizing that the trump card in his hand is actually a vase, after seeing it in the middle, Ye Xuan's heart suddenly has other calculations.

There is no cheaper than the bastard!

Now that these guys haven't learned the truth yet, the deterrent power of this one in their hands is still there, and they have to start the action immediately. Let's take advantage of the benefits of the guys around.

Otherwise, once you turn back the stuffing, you don't have a chance to fish, you will regret it.

Anyway, his identity is now the ancestors of the Yin Mozu, who are less sorrowful, even if they are angry with the sky, they will pat the bait and leave, the ghosts do not know who they are, the black pot has its own evil spirits to go!

Thinking like this, Ye Xuan looked up at the sky because he had already put away the tortoise shell, and thus the shadow of the Taikoo tortoise that was slowly fading away, and turned to look at the major forces of the surrounding air. Circle, clear the throat, hands back to the back, when even the yin and yang said: "You are friends..."

"This ancestor has always been convinced by virtue, and it can be said that there is a sad heart!"

Having said that, seeing that the fleets that are a little closer around have begun to withdraw, they are completely unstoppable, and they are afraid of avoiding the situation. He immediately sinks his face and wears a face. Unpleasant color.

Then I went on to say: "At the moment, the sea star field of this tortoise is mixed, don't look at your people, but the so-called knowing people don't know, don't look at the big guys who are face-to-face, turn around in the end which is a ghost, but it is really inaccurate. thing."

"It is very possible to say that there must be a lot of trouble."

"The original matter has nothing to do with this ancestor, but this old man has always been sad and sorrowful, just like the will of the sea of the tortoise, and the ancestor is the encounter with the affliction, the trouble that happened here, this ancestor has Stand by and watch?"

"So, everyone must be flustered, and others can't say that as long as the ancestors are still in the day, as long as you have not yet stepped out of the sea of the tortoise, the safety of your friends, the ancestors will do their best. I will never let you have any personal accidents!"

"Come and come, the little seven sons and eight sons, you lead the old and the hybrids of the family, and register with the friends around you, for their safety!"

"One by one, the meaning of the protection fee can be said. According to the standard of the old lion dog, you can't charge more. This ancestor has always served people with morality..."

Chapter 3435: This little brother is so white.

Protection fees?

For everyone's safety?

Also to serve people with morality... just take your old mother!

After listening to Ye Xuan's words, all the powerful forces from the three major cosmic planes in the fleet of virtual air were first smashed together, and then all angered, all screaming and screaming. Staring at Ye Xuan, a pair of unyielding posture!

It must be said that the former lions and sorcerers were miserable, but that was his self-confidence, nothing to find death, and actively provoked the Yinmo.

Finally, the end of this kind of end, purely deserved!

But now all the powerful forces in this fleet are innocent, and they have nothing to do with the Yinmo and the shameless Nether.

If this is the case, he must be deceived by him, so bad, it is really irritating!

Actually, there is still a face to say what it means, just like the old lions of the Warrior family, the compensation standard... The family is smashed by a space box of cultivation resources and has a diameter of 100,000 meters. Star Fortress!

With such standards, some of the fleet forces in the emptiness of the sky will not even come out!

Some forces are driving the 10,000-meter fortress, and even the ordinary star-rated warships of the 3,000-meter captain come together to join in the fun. It is really necessary to follow the standard and take all the pants of the strong in the fleet. .

Besides, for no reason, you have to pay a protection fee!

Now there are hundreds of major forces in the vain air, and this sorrowful lord can still anger and destroy all the people.

If this is the case, he would not want to go out of the sea of turtles in his life. The tortoise is full of cruelty. Once you go out, you have to be suppressed. The top three forces of the three universes are all offended, outside. Can there be a way to live?

I thought about it. In a fleet of emptiness in the air, all the strong men suddenly closed their mouths. At this time, they must not be the first bird. This guy is estimated to be thinking about a bad luck to kill chickens and monkeys!

For this reason, the fleet that was originally rapidly retreating and wanting to leave this piece of right and wrong as soon as possible, at this moment, all stopped as if it were a good appointment, and could not run at this time, or it would be immediately targeted!

For a time, a huge void was actually a drop of the needle, and the atmosphere was strange!

At the sight of this posture, Ye Xuan's face immediately gloomy.

It seems that I don't give face. Does it really mean that this way will not blame the public, this ancestor has no choice?

Isn't it just a bird that comes out to kill chickens and monkeys? This ancestor has a way to complete this thing reasonably and reasonably, and absolutely does not bring people to pick faults, so as not to let these guys pull out their scorpions, gather them and discuss them, and mess up the situation!

Thinking like this, Ye Xuan secretly sneered, but his face was quiet, slowly turning his head, and his eyes swept over the star-studded powerhouses next to a fleet of ships.

Coldly, he saw two familiar figures beside the fleet of the immortal army from the dynasty: the royal family, the old dragon 梓 pattern, and the big prince Long Xiang!

Among the five emperors, Long Xiang was originally the most opportunity to ask for the existence of the emperor's emperor. Since the Emperor Xuanzi was assigned to the main lord of the dead, the five emperors belonged to him. He was active in the Tianxue domain. It was turned into a pig's head by Ye Xuan as the young master of the fox.

I did not expect this guy to be thick, it is estimated that the swelling on the head was just a short time, and actually went to the sea of the second universe.

This is clearly intended to win the ridiculous treasures of the treasures, so that it can be used to enhance the ranks of the royal dynasty in the future!

It is him!

One thought of this, Ye Xuan mouth corner hook, raised his hand and pinched the orchid finger to the distant emptiness of the big emperor Long Xiang thrown a wink, and then a smile, softly said: "This little brother face is white Ah, come and come, my ancestors, I like the most white people. I met one before. I didn't expect it to be disappointing. It's rare to meet my little brother soon. Come, this ancestor waits... No, it's your drink. Correct!"

Talk, raise your hand and recruit the big prince Long Xiang, eyebrows!

"Mom..."

The latter was caught off guard, scared to call the mother on the spot, almost fell into a void, his face was even green, and it was full of gloom.

What kind of good things can this perverted old monster invite him to in the past?

Anyone who asks for a drink is simply a shit, and he is already anxious to say that he is leaking. It is clear that he is going to give him the hole behind him!

The former car of Hongdu Liefeng is still in front of him, but he was directly smashed to the rhythm of cracking. As soon as he thought of the result, Long Xiang's soul flew halfway, and his face was instantly green and white, white and white. I was so sad that I looked at the emperor's old dragon crepe.

Tears and tears, pleading: "Old ancestors, ancestors, save me, save me..."

In the face of this unexpected scene, the emperor's old dragon crepe pattern is also dumbfounded, and then the face is gloomy, but for a time it is not sounding.

He secretly calculated and analyzed in his heart. Ye Xuan suddenly pointed his finger at Long Xiang. In the end, he really looked at his fine skin and tender meat, or deliberately did it. The purpose is to stir up the dispute and just get a thorn. Kill chickens and monkeys.

If you change the time to change the location, this kind of thinking and consideration is naturally unnecessary, but now it is different, the opposite old monster is too strong, and even the entire star of the sea of turtles will be in his hands, with the dragon The means of sculpt and sturdy power can not be reached at all.

Didn't you see the second snake in the second universe, the third place in the federal tribes of the Warrior family, the old Qiankun people, are all so miserable?

Long Xiang is the great prince of the dynasty. Naturally it is to be saved, but it is precisely because of this that he has to be more cautious. In the face of the current situation, he wants to put on the spectrum of great power, that is There is absolutely no good fruit to eat.

It doesn't matter if his dragon's crepe is cut off, but if the big prince of the dynasty is really ruined by the old metamorphosis of the opposite, the whole face of the immortal dynasty will sweep the floor, then it is really a big sin.

Although this is also a big loss of face, you can at least keep the reputation of the dynasty!

This kind of Limang, which has been wiped from the bottom of the dragon's enamel, is just seen by Long Xiang, who is pleading with his clothes. He is still very familiar with his own ancestor, and at the same time, as an immortal dynasty. The prince of the pulse, looking at the eyes and angles of this matter, Long Xiang and the dragon pattern are basically the same.

Therefore, he immediately understood the meaning of this arrogant.

In an instant, Long Xiang's heart floated with a deep despair.

He does not want to die!

If there is no accident, the position of the imperial dynasty of the imperial dynasty will soon be his...

Chapter 3436: Egg pain

For Long Xiang, the reality is too difficult to accept!

Your own future is definitely a promising future. You will soon be able to get the crown of the imperial dynasty. Can you be here, because this kind of thing can't be called by future generations... and die early?

He was unwilling, he did not want to, he was almost mad, almost hysterical, and his eyes were instantly bloody!

Since the ancestors couldn't stand it, they have already made the worst preparations, and they will kill themselves on the spot to protect the dynasty. Then, this matter can only rely on oneself!

In the * eyes, Long Xiang turned his head and looked around. He was looking for the possibility of a disaster.

The horror of the former Hongdu Lifeng left him with a deep impression. He never thought that this might be the opposite of the metamorphosis of the old monster deliberately picking things up, so that he might find a bird to kill the chicken and the monkey.

Even if he thought about it, he wouldn't dare to gamble, it's a matter of his own life!

Therefore, he would rather believe that the opposite old monster really likes the long white, because this is his only hope. If the other party really likes the white net generation, there are so many star-studded people in the virtual sky, so can't find it. Is one more pleasing to the other than myself?

If in the past, he liked to put on a statue of Rende, it would be impossible for him to make such a deadly friend in the face of so many powerful people, but now he is completely concerned. Not on.

The * eyes were red, and his sight quickly swept to the Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru, three gimmicks in the void.

The three gimmicks are the peerless beauty of the country, and naturally it is more than a few times better than him. It's just that this metamorphosis old demon seems to have a good life in Longyang, and I don't know if I will look at it. eye!

Long Xiang's heart is awkward, but at the moment, he can't take care of it.

When he raised his hand and pointed at the void of the three women of Xuanyuan Zizi and Duanmu Xiaocha, they shouted loudly: "Once, ah, I want to say white, small, how can I have the three white? Look, The muscles are tender as jade, and if the skin is fat, it is the best!"

Upon hearing this, Xuanyuan's old man and Duanmu's family, the person in charge of the Bodhi gene, immediately turned pale, and the language was misunderstood.

"Great Prince, what do you mean? It's just too much!"

"Yes, too shameless, you are still a dynasty, in the presence of the top three powerful forces in the universe, so this is..."

"The 梓 pattern is old, this thing, afraid is not appropriate? The royal family should give us a confession!"

The face of the dragon's crepe was also gloomy, but it didn't say much. Instead, he gave birth to a hope in the bottom of his heart, and subconsciously looked at the empty position where Xuanyuan Zijing, Duanmu Xiaocha, and Zhao Qianru were in the void.

These three women are absolutely beautiful in the world. It is a man who is not unmoving, but the old monster opposite seems to like Longyang, I wonder if this will succeed!

That's right, although Long Xiang's move is really not kind, it will make people behind the immortal royal family criticized, but after all, it is irrelevant. If you turn back and explain it, you can resolve it. It is better to let the royal family humiliate, or Being beaten in public is stronger.

Therefore, even in the heart of the dragon pattern, in fact, it is also in line with the strategy of Long Xiang's troubles. At the moment of life and death, how much has it been taken care of?

Seeing his reaction, the heads of Xuanyuan and Duanmu, the head of the Bodhi gene, were suddenly green and their chests were ups and downs.

Even the old dragons who came to the dynasty led the team to have this meaning. What else can they say?

Even if the matter can be turned back to the dynasty, but now there is no way to continue to blame, not to mention their heart at the moment has all mentioned the eyes of the blind.

The perverted old demon does have the goodness of Longyang. This has proved that the house where Hongdu's wind is cracked is a testimony, but there is a good metamorphosis of Longyang, and it may not be like a female color. So white and tempting, in case the old guy really moved...

Thinking of this, the old man of Xuanyuan's old man's heart was pumping up, and looked at the empty space of Ye Xuan's foot in the face!

At the same time, Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru and the three women are also the same, sneer and look at Ye Xuan together, but also actively talked...

"Hey, is it okay to be an ancestor? Very good!"

"You always live from the era of the ancient times to the existence of the world. So you like to drink. Your old father and grandfather will not get some spirits from the ancient times. Seal it with you and save it to this world? That's good. Dongye, do you really want to invite others to taste?"

"Playing is playing, we are three women, is it estimated that it is not your request? But look at our long white content, you want to break the case, please drink a pot?"

"Since you haven't snorted, it's the default, we're here!"

"Sisters, on..."

During the speech, the three gimmicks were actually swaying, and the face was grazing directly toward the void direction of the sinister family.

This scene is too strange, stunned all the strong people around the void, Xuanyuan old man and Duanmu owner, and the head of the Bodhi gene are even more mad, the whole brain is completely stunned at this moment, I do not know this Suddenly, Shantou suddenly sprinkled evil spirits. Looking at this posture, it was a pity that he would immediately go to the Kowloon Green Car in the metamorphosis old demon, let him play.

As for the big prince Long Xiang who is thinking about whether this disaster can be successful in the brain, he even unexpectedly opened his mouth, his face was dull, muttering to himself: "This... this prince is an illusion. ?"

As for Ye Xuan, it was even defeated in an instant!

Just as he subconsciously turned his head and met the dawn of the three gimmicks, Ye Xuan's heart had already been settled, and suddenly he had a bad feeling.

Now, with the words in these three gimmicks, it is a complete confirmation of his mind!

Damn, are these three gimmicks really full of a dog's nose? The young masters are now the body of the Nether, but they are still recognized by them?

Of course, they were not recognized by the original, but the key is that the last time they have already taken the chest guarantee, and said that they will meet again next time, they must complete their second or even third round of battle armor.

However, he has not yet been able to implement the matter. The materials and the same type of treasures that have been smelted twice are still in the immortal world of Ye Xuan.

Look at the posture of this girl, it is clear that the person who came here is not good, this time can not pay the difference, afraid to find yourself to calculate the general ledger.

With this in mind, Ye Xuan subconsciously shrank his neck and turned his head and went to the Kowloon Qingyi car behind him: "Sorry, this ancestor has a small cockroach, have a rest!"

Seeing this scene, the fast-changing Xuanyuan Ziqitou immediately screamed.

"I have a little sister, are you okay with your ancestors?"

"Hey, seeing our three big beauties is awkward, and your ancestors are quite suspicious."

"Isn't it an egg hurt?"

Chapter 3437: Old animal

"Hey!"

The egg hurts into the ear, and Ye Xuan feels that it is black in front of him, and almost did not fall down from the rut of the Kowloon Green Car.

This girl seems to be a lot of resentment, more fierce than before, no, this time can never be fooled again, otherwise it will definitely have a big deal, but before the three of their armor, it is only after a smelt, Even if you smelt twice, it will take little time.

Let them wait outside for a while.

However, this matter is too strange. I have to explain it. Otherwise, those powerful forces around the void will be suspicious, and if anything goes wrong, it will be troublesome.

I thought about it, although Ye Xuan didn't look back, but the voice of the words was heard: "The three beautiful women waited a little while, this ancestor's Kowloon Qingyi car was a bit messy, three people pour the country, my ancestors Can't lose the number of gifts, laugh, and wait, just pack it up..."

As soon as I heard this, the strong men in the major forces of the surrounding air were suddenly stunned, and all the faces showed contempt. The old guy was really not a thing, men and women were killing, and it seemed to be more for women. Anxious to see, three beautiful women took the initiative to come to the door, but also afraid of the mess inside the car, the beauty of the people are not happy, actually panicked and went inside to clean up.

Only Xuanyuan old man and Duanmu owner, the person in charge of Bodhi gene is as eager as the ants on the hot pot, hate can not immediately rush to the back of the Xuanyuan Ziyan three women.

Unfortunately, they did not dare to do this, because in that case, it was clearly the first bird, fearing that it would be the chicken that was sent to the ape by the moody and abnormal demon.

In addition, in another direction of the void, the Tianzu Emperor's old warfare was frowned, subconsciously glanced at the sideless brooding ancestors, and the latter's glimpse of the brilliance, although there was no Words, but I raised my hand and pointed it, the bare eyebrows locked...

At this time, Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru and the three women have also arrived at the side of the Kowloon Qingyi car. The three gimmicks also clearly saw Ye Xuan's careful thoughts.

They were cold and seeing that he was willing to make up for it, but it was no longer If you say more, just stand by the rut and wait.

Yin seven and Yin eight, Yin nine people quickly piled up with smiles and waited carefully, this is the prey of the ancestors, and the reaction of the ancestors seems to be quite tense, not the general value, must be careful to serve Ok, maybe you will be your own three grandmothers in the future!

If Xuanyuan Ziyang's three gimmicks know that they are actually thinking at this time, I am afraid that they will have to kill and kill on the spot. There are Yexuan towns. These three old guys are re-high, and they definitely don't dare to fight back... ...

After entering the Kowloon Qingyi car, Ye Xuan did not dare to delay. He entered the secret room inside the car in the first time. After the ban was opened, he immediately took out the three treasures from the immortal world and used three pieces. Come to the treasure of the second melting.

Immediately afterwards, the phagocytic system was given an instruction to immediately start the second smelting.

Although it is the three treasures at the same time, but because of the system or Ye Xuan, it is far from the original comparable, grew too much, plus three treasures are still only the second melting It is not too complicated.

Therefore, after a short meal, this time the melting is completed.

Ye Xuan did not stop, and once again took out the third condensed treasure, and immediately launched again.

This time is a little longer, but it is only half an hour or so.

Fortunately, there were no accidents in the middle of the road, and one time before and after, the three treasures all successfully completed the third melting, the change is completely different from before, dazzling and gorgeous!

"This time I can finally make a difference..."

Ye Xuan raised her hand to wipe the cold sweat on her forehead and sighed with a sigh of relief. Then she stepped out of the Kowloon Qingyi car and saw the cold-faced Xuanyuan Ziyang three beautiful women.

He immediately piled up his smile on his face: "Three beautiful women, I am sorry, it is really too messy, this is not, a good meal, but now no problem, please come in!"

After that, turning back is a slap in the face: "What are you still doing? This ancestor wants to entertain the Terran beauty. What are your eyes left here? Go out immediately, all!"

In the Kowloon Qingyi car, there was originally a beautiful maid of the Baiyin Yin Mozu. At this moment, I heard Ye Xuan's reprimand, and all of them suddenly moved, and they all walked out of the car.

Subsequently, Ye Xuan led the Xuanyuan Ziyang three women into the car, the Xuanyuan old man in the distant sky and the head of the Duanmu owner, the Bodhi gene, but the trick was no trick.

The fleet of the surrounding air has not left, because there is no meaning, unless you withdraw from the sea of the turtle, or run farther, people only need to project the will of the Taikoo tortoise. They will be able to stop them in an instant, and the shape of the old king is enough to cover the whole sea of turtles!

At the same time, the Kowloon Green Car inside!

As the maids of the more than a hundred Yin Mozus left, here is the world of Ye Xuan and Xuanyuan Ziwei, three women and four people. The Kowloon Qingyi car is a waste of ancient treasures, but it has no attacking ability. All the powers are reflected. In terms of defense and luxury, even if it is a great power, you can't peek into everything inside the car.

This point, before the major forces have tried, Xuanyuan Ziyan and all three women know, so the curtains of the car fell, they immediately relaxed.

"Xiao Xuanzi, OK, you thought that you were exiled to the vain air. I didn't expect you to have a very moisturizing sensation. I didn't see it for a few days. I actually mixed a family of ancestors, and there are more than a hundred beautiful. Maid, this is a golden cave, drunk dreams die?"

"There is a performance, even our treasures are not in the mood, don't think we don't know, just nearly an hour, are you holding the Buddha's feet?"

"Oh, I haven't put the big things of this lady on my heart. How do you say this!"

Speaking and talking, Shantou has a bit of a vertical eyebrows, and immediately rushed out, the true identity of Ye Xuan and the old bottom are shaken out of the posture.

Ye Xuan immediately panicked, and quickly waved his hand, and took out the three women's treasures that had just completed the third tempering. At one time, the Kowloon Qinglan car was suddenly filled with treasures and three treasures. Suspended in front of Ye Xuan, it is so beautiful.

The three gimmicks even exclaimed...

"Wow....."

"Oh yeah!"

"Oh, my God..."

Because it was too excited, the sound was too big. Ye Xuan did not open the ban on the Kowloon Green Car to a completely silent mode. Therefore, the three exclamations were unexpectedly transmitted and surrounded by the sky. The powerful forces have heard it.

Xuanyuan old man and Duanmu owner, the person in charge of the Bodhi gene immediately became angry, but also the old metamorphosis of the animal in the car, the bully is * the bow, and can no longer care for the other, roaring and rushing out!

"Old animals are dare!"

"Wow, it's just shameless!"

"The old man and you fight together..."

Chapter 3438: Suspicion

"It's broken, we seem to be too embarrassed, it seems to be misunderstood outside..."

"Oh, you are a dead girl, what is it too arrogant? You are mad at you!"

"We all blame this guy, so that our treasures are so beautiful and powerful, the sisters can't help themselves..."

Hearing the roar of the old Xuanyuan and Duanmu owners, the three gimmicks of Xuanyuan Ziwei, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru in the Kowloon Qingyu car were exclaimed, and Duanmu Xiaocha, who had never blocked his mouth, was improperly worded. In the middle of a word of coquetry, suddenly Xuanyuan Ziyang and Zhao Qianru two women shy face flushed, chasing her to beat.

For a time, the spring breeze of the Kowloon Green Car is infinite, and the beauty of the three peerless women is far better than the ones of the more than a hundred yin demons, and they have looked at Ye Xuan.

Fortunately, the three gimmicks finally have a sense of proportion, knowing that it is not a time of noisy, otherwise the old man and the other seven people will be in trouble.

They even failed to take care of the treasures that had just completed the third tempering. They hurriedly handed over the treasures of the fourth smelting to Ye Xuan, and then reluctantly walked outside the Kowloon Green Car. .

Before the three women picked up the curtains, Ye Xuan had already collected all the treasures of the three treasures and the fourth smelt into the immortal world. Then he recovered his attitude, and he was filled with his hands and his hands. After the Xuanyuan Zijing three women, they stepped out of the Kowloon Qingyi car...

"While the three people are white, it is too noisy, and there is no stalk in the throat. This ancestor is really unhappy!"

"The speed is gone, otherwise the blame blame is shot on the spot!"

As soon as I got out of the Kowloon Green Car, Ye Xuan's face sank, and looked at the grievances of Xuan Zang's three women, who screamed and shouted: "Hey, the white ruined the three cups of spirits!"

At this time, Xuanyuan old man and Duanmu owner, and the head of the Bodhi gene just rushed to the front of the Kowloon Qingyi car, cold and not see the Xuanyuan purple three women appeared, no damage, even the skirt is not a mess, plus leaves The words spoken in Xuankou, they suddenly realized, the face of the ghostly look at the latter, completely speechless!

For a long time, this old goods is really a good Longyang, so beautiful three beautiful women sent to the door, actually because there is no long throat, it is unsightly and was hard-pressed.

This is really a dog!

Under the heart, the old man of Xuanyuan did not dare to say anything more on the surface. He was flustered and screamed at the Xuanyuan Zizhen and the three women who even boasted that the old ancestral spirits were delicious. They hurried back to their respective families. Battlestar.

It is estimated that the next step must be to send a special person to gaze at the three gimmicks. It is really not worrying, and the courage is horrible, not preventable!

Around the void, from the fleets of the top three forces of the three major universes, countless star powers have long been eccentric to the extreme.

The ancestors of the Yin Mozu are so strange that they are completely speechless.

As for the dynasty prince Long Xiang, he had already fled to a small fortress of the immortal army with his tail in the past. It is estimated that he would never dare to take another look during this time. In case he was looked at by the old monster again, At that time, you really want to die!

Ye Xuan also did not intend to toss the guy again, or do something important first!

With Xuanyuan Zijing, Duanmu Xiaocha, and Zhao Qianru, the three gimmicks were taken away by the elders of their respective ethnic groups, and his face was completely gloomy in the first time.

Turning around, he scanned a fleet of squadrons around the sky and saw the three treasures that he had previously smelt. He didn't have any power to take the opportunity to slip away, and his face eased a little.

Then he snorted and said: "It's very good. It seems that the friends of the Tao are still quite trusting in this ancestor. In this case, the protection fee mentioned before is exempted. However, after all, this is the site of the ancestors, you How much do you have to look for treasure here?"

"This ancestor does not set any standards. The major forces, who are ready to honour their filial piety, come forward. As long as they can pass, this ancestor will not care too much. Otherwise, if any guy wants to The ancestors of the ancestors will be sent to them, what will happen at that time, oh... you can do it yourself!"

As a result, the powerful forces in the surrounding virtual air suddenly relieved, and then gratefully looked at the Xuanyuan family and Duanmujia, as well as the three major forces of the Bodhi gene, and thanked them in the dawn. The meaning!

This old monster is obviously disgusted by the three gimmicks, which has affected the interest. Otherwise, it is impossible to speak so well.

Since Ye Xuan lowered the standard, it can even be said that there is no standard at all. Therefore, the minds of the powers of all the forces around the virtual air are all alive.

The old monster is moody, while doing extremely shameless things, while still squinting at his face and saying that he is convinced by morality, it is rare that he is now relieved, and he has to take this opportunity to implement this matter quickly. Otherwise, when you turn back, you may suddenly become paralyzed again, and you will be in trouble.

Although it is unreasonable to hand over some resources and treasures for no reason, whoever is in the heart will feel uncomfortable, but who is called the ancient treasures and wants to smoke in the sea of this tortoise?

At this moment, this star field has almost completely fallen into the control of the old demon. In order to avoid unnecessary troubles, it is impossible to break the financial disaster.

After all, the smog is not the general treasure of the ancients. This singer is not only indifferent to water and fire, but the fragrant woman embroidered on both sides of the sacred side is also the ancient existence of the spiritual source of this treasure. One of the devices.

It is said that after the refining and refining of this treasure, it is possible to have the seal of the ancient demon enchanted with only one smear of the spirit, so that it can reproduce the human being as a slave, and let it be sent!

Such a heavy treasure, the major forces are not unmotivated, this time into the sea turtle field of the turtles of the major forces of the fleet is so large, far more than the scene of the former fox singer, the scene of the sky, is evidence .

Therefore, for this treasure, paying some valuable treasures and resources, all major forces are acceptable.

As long as you don't look like the old lions of the War Lions, you just have no leggings!

With this kind of thinking, almost all the forces in the three universes around the void have all the movements, holding the idea of breaking the money and catastrophe, and have prepared some treasures and resources, each of which is packed in a small space box, and then sent The man was sent to the corner of the void occupied by the Yin Mozu camp.

For the Yin 7 and Yin 8 and Yin 9 trio, this life has never been so beautiful. Almost all the top forces in the three universes are in place, and they are holding space boxes filled with various treasures and resources. Lined up waiting for the three of them to register.

Opposite of all this, the war and the brooding ancestors are sneer again and again, the two old guys have already come together at the moment, are secretly discussing what, quite interesting to the dawn, from time to time quietly sweeping Ye Xuan...

Chapter 3439: Exposure

"At least 60%!"

In the middle of the At this time, the Mozu suddenly emerged as an ancient ancestor. The style of action and the fox rush are quite similar..."

"Yes, I have been suspicious of this old man."

Aside, the eyebrows and ancestors are also sneer, and the sights are sometimes swept in the direction of Ye Xuan, and the fine mans are shouting: "Especially the three women of the Xuanyuan family, if the old man remembers correctly, it happened before that day. The various medicines in the king of the king, the Xuanyuan three women have also received special care from Linghu Chong!"

"Hehehe..."

Seeing that the eyebrows ancestors raised the matter, the war squad laughed again: "It is a surprise to say that this is the case. The old husband has not suspected the three gimmicks, but this time it is different, the world. It's impossible to have such a coincidence. These three women are more and more different from the foxes. This has to be thought-provoking. Maybe they still know some secrets of this, such as their true origins. "

"But this is not anxious. The three women of Xuanyuan are there anyway, they can always start, everything, or let us join hands to make this fox thief get to know!"

"Not bad!"

Nodded, no eyebrows ancestors said that they suddenly frowned, and some worriedly answered:
"However, if it is dumped elsewhere, but in the eyes of the sea of the turtle, the fox thief also I don't know how to do it. It's actually a sacred turtle from the ancestors of the tortoise."

"Now the entire star field is under his control. I have no chance or possibility to start the two. This is really a headache!"

"No problem!"

The war squad put on his hand and looked at it with a sigh of relief: "Don't look at the happiness that was said before this son, but since he came to the sea of the tortoise, the purpose must be that it is also the eternal treasure."

"And, according to the old man, the Yin Mozu is mostly fooled by him. This son has absolutely nothing to do with the Nether and the Supreme. His means have not been seen before, and he must have made a fortune. I got the blood of the Nether."

"So, his value is even bigger, and I am also a good thing for you!"

"This time in the sea of the tortoise, he occupied the right place and the right place. If there is no accident, then the ancient treasures will be smoked, and most of them will fall into the hands of this thief."

"But for you and me, this is good news."

"This son thinks that his true identity is unknown, and he is now offended by too many forces in this sacred identity. At least, the third lion of the second universe is absolutely not Will let him go, he must wait for him to go out outside the starfish field of the tortoise..."

"So, after getting the smog, this son will definitely abandon the identity of this Nether Lord, and there may be a chaos at that time. He just wants to mess with other characters to escape the Turtle Star!"

"What you mean is to say..."

The eyebrows ancestors took over the words and tried to test: "I waited for the secret to help him escape from the turtle's star field, and then shoot outside the star field and squat it down?"

"Not bad!"

The war nod and nodded, ridiculously: "Out of the tortoise star field, the life of his life is useless, although there are other treasures in the hands of this kid, such as the drug king Gu Ding, but before he was in the dark, I am in the Ming Let him be prepared."

"But this time it is different. I am secretive. He is in the Ming Dynasty. At that time, he will suddenly take a shot. This kid is too late to guard against it. He may not have time to sacrifice other treasures. He should be taken down. It should be a matter of stability!"

"So, you and I will not only help him to escape from the Turtle Star field afterwards, but then follow in secret, wait for the manipulator, and even try to cooperate with him to win the smog. After all, this kid has one more. Heavy treasure, after returning to you and me, the harvest I will wait for will be greater, hahaha..."

At the end of the day, the two old guys looked at each other and smiled. They were very incomparable. They had regarded Ye Xuan as a bird in the cage and decided that he was too difficult to fly.

"The ancestors, all the protection fees are here, please check out the list!"

After some tossing, the space boxes sent by the various forces around the void have all been registered, and the Yin eight people also made a list and handed them to Ye Xuan.

The latter's space box that will be piled up into small hills will all be in the immortal world. By the way, the gods will invade into a small space box to see the treasures and resources contained in it.

If there is a quantity and quality that can't be over-examined, he naturally can't let it go, and he must pull it out to be a good bird to punish!

However, these guys are quite self-conscious. Ye Xuan has explored all the space boxes. Although there are many treasures and resources contained in them, they can basically go through them.

That being the case, then there is no need to continue to entangle with these guys.

For Ye Xuan, the most important thing in the current turtle field is that he will get the eternal treasure of the immortal.

Before he didn't know the effect of this ancient tortoise shell in his hand, he could only wait for the treasure to be born, and then he would fight again, but now it is different, since the ancient tortoise shell is the life of the Taikoo tortoise, while the latter After the collapse of the ontology in the early period of ancient times, there was still a sea of obstinacy to guard the sea of the tortoise, and turned into the will of the star of the sea.

Then, through the projection of the will of the Taikoo tortoise, Ye Xuan may be able to know in advance the place where the ancient treasures of the ancients want to be smoked, even if they only know a general orientation and region, the significance is very significant.

The other things at the moment have basically ended, that is, the lion family, although they have suffered such a big loss, they will not be able to stop, but they are waiting outside the starfish field of the tortoise, and they dare not dare to Easy to enter here to find.

Ye Xuan can completely settle down and explore the birthplace of the ancient treasures, and then quietly rushed to make preparations in advance.

With this in mind, he will not hesitate, even if he turns his hand, he will take out the ancient tortoise shell that was in the immortal world.

In the next moment, just as Ye Xuan wants to inject a bit of blood and force, to call out the will of the Taikoo tortoise, and to ask him about the information about the birthplace of the smoker, the change has suddenly occurred. .

"boom....."

A huge roaring sound was heard from a distant star field in the northern part of the sea.

Then, a pale pink light column rushed up, illuminating the majority of the turtles.

With the appearance of this pink light column, the voices of several women's laughter are also clearly and incomparably...

"Giggle..."

"Hey..."

Chapter 3440: Rushing

As the pink light column rushed and there was a woman's giggling voice, the star-studded powers from the three major cosmic planes in the emptiness of the universe were sluggish and then screamed...

"The treasure is rushing, this is the rhythm of the birth of the treasure!"

"If you want to smoke, you must be smoked!"

"Absolutely correct, it is said that the pros and cons of this Baoluo are embroidered with some glamorous women, all of which are the ancient ages that have been ingested by them. After refining this treasure, there will be opportunities. The inside of the Luo Luo was sealed, and only one of the spirits of the ancient demon charms casts the body, so that it can be recreated for the sake of the world. At this moment, the voice of the woman's laughter will be related to the banned female repair of this treasure..."

"God, are those ridiculous glamorous women who have been banned from this treasure, who have awakened with the birth of treasures? If so, who else can collect this treasure?"

"That is the existence of the ancient times, even if only a trace of spiritual origin is forbidden in this treasure, fear is also difficult to suppress, things have become serious..."

"In any case, let's take this treasure first and say that the fascinating female pedicures of the ancient ages are all banned from this treasure, and they must not be able to leave. Even if they cannot refine, they only need this treasure. After all, there will still be opportunities in the future."

"Booming!"

"boom....."

As these exclamations rang, the large and small warships in a fleet of imaginary airs all moved, making a bang, rushing toward the direction of the pink light column.

In addition, the war and the ancestors, the eyebrows and the ancestors, as well as the dragon Fast, the blink of an eye has disappeared in the ash of the front.

In the blink of an eye, a fleet of warships in the surrounding air has gone mostly, and still in sight is the star of some kilometers of the captain, or the star-class general warship of the three-kilometer captain.

In addition, it is the square camp composed of the Yin and Mozu people.

Due to the sake of the Kowloon Qingyi car, plus the Yin seven people thought that the ancestors liked to play, so this time the Wanyu people traveled, the Yinmo people did not bring warships at all, and the huge ethnic group was rooted in the mighty Sway all the way from the Yinchao star field across the void.

Although this road is indeed extraordinary, it is extremely windy, but the shortcomings of this moment have also appeared, and it has fallen behind the major forces.

After all, among the more than 10,000 sinisters, they are basically repaired to a weaker existence. They are lower than the black hole. At this moment, there are clusters of Jiulong Qinglu cars. Where can they go faster and faster?

"Board the ship! Board the ship! Board the ship immediately..."

Ye Xuan waved and sacrificed the black lion star fortress that had just been blackmailed from the old lions of the Warrior and the Qiang nationality. At the same time, he snarled with his feet and waved again. The Kowloon Green Car was earned by him. The body is immortal.

In fact, he can completely cross the void alone, but on the one hand, in the case of not being able to sacrifice the hole, the fact that Ye Xuan is only the fifth-order of Tianjing, the speed of his body crossing the void is far less than that of the Star Fortress.

On the other hand, it is the 10,000-year-old Yin Mozu people who have great use. After getting the smog, Ye Xuan has to rely on them to attract attention, and then take the opportunity to slip away.

Therefore, even if these thousands of Yin Mozu people are so tired, Ye Xuan must bring them around.

Soon, the tens of thousands of Yin Mozu people under the leadership of the Yin seven and three old people, all entered the Black Lion Star Fortress, and rushed to the various positions of the fortress.

The roaring sounded quickly. Under the control of the Yinmo ethnic group, the Black Lion directly launched the space jump according to the instructions of Ye Xuan, and the target directly rushed into the pink light column.

"Booming..."

After a few moments, the huge energy roars and the black lions arrive first, and a virtual jump, spanning thousands of miles, to the area where the pink light column rises.

Around the sky, there are only a few star-studded fortresses that are also 100,000 meters in diameter. They are kept in different directions, and the pink light column is surrounded by the middle, maintaining a distance of about ten miles.

In addition, the figures of nearly ten Qiankun and Magnificent, such as the war-torn and the eyebrow-free ancestors, are also clearly visible and stand in the void.

The starships such as the Little Fortress are on the way to the bombing, and all of them will arrive soon.

The three cosmic planes, the fleet of more than one hundred top forces, surrounded the whole piece of void, surrounded by the pink light column that was washed up by a safe distance of about ten miles.

The reason why all the forces did not start to compete as soon as they arrived, on the one hand, there are taboos and constraints on each other, on the other hand, it is the scene in the pink light column, which is indeed too strange.

The diameter of the light column is about a hundred miles, the height cannot be estimated, and in general, the sky has been pulled out of a big hole.

In the middle section of this stout pink light column, a pink jurass spread out, and on it, a beautiful figure appeared, singing and dancing!

This is a woman, very beautiful, skin-like fat, wearing a fire armor, but revealing a large piece of snow-white skin, the British air is also compelling, but also an enviable atmosphere.

What is even more strange is that while the woman is singing and dancing, the whole body is still full of a awning flame, black and red, clearly corpse fire.

Seeing this scene, the few people around the void were gloomy, and some people had already heard the exclamation.

"Yan dynasty?"

"This is one of the four ancestors of the corpse of the ancient times. Unexpectedly, there is also a spiritual source that is sealed in this treasure."

"What's even worse is that the karst of the ancestors has clearly awakened. This is how to break with the rhythm of the birth of the smog?"

After listening to this statement, the surrounding air suddenly exclaimed, and many strong people were stunned, including Ye Xuan. No one expected that this treasure is actually sealed with such a wild man!

Drought and flood are abused, and they are burning like this!

Ye Xuan had an understanding of zombies before, basically can be divided into five kinds!

First, the white zombie, after the body was admitted to the corpse, the body began to grow furry white hair!

The second is black stasis, white stale if full of blood, in the future, take off the white hair, replaced by a few inches of black hair, as if it is a nail!

The third is to jump the corpse, the black zombie vaginal bloodsucking for a period of time, the black hair is off, the action begins to jump, and the jump is faster and farther!

The fourth type of flying corpse, evolved from the corpse of the corpse, and the flying corpse is often a zombie that is more than a thousand years old. It is agile, leaping on the tree, jumping like a fly, sucking fine without leaving a trauma!

The fifth kind of zombie is almost demon, named also known as On the can of the dragon and the dry days, you can extradite the gods, and the dry plague will be issued!
