Chapter 350: Humanity?

Now, Ye Xuancai has just broken through to the power of Kowloon. The three top bloodlines have only developed physical blood, and there is no improvement in the fighting blood and auxiliary blood. Therefore, he wants to hurry to the blood rock continent.

However, at this time, the Song Dynasty was suddenly said: "Ye Xuan, I think, we still stay in Tianshui mainland."

"what?"

Ye Xuan stunned and stayed in Tianshui mainland. The next moment, he responded. We in the Song Dynasty's mouth should refer to her and Song's ruling.

"Yes, we can't grasp the state. If you refine the sacred beast, you can't catch up with your footsteps. So, we decided to stay in Tianshui, and wait until we have mastered that state before going to Tianshui. The mainland." The Song ruling on the side also nodded.

"such....."

Ye Xuan heard the words and thought about it carefully.

Indeed, if the two brothers and sisters of the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling could not master the state, they would never catch up with him. It is better to stay in Tianshui mainland first, let him go to the blood rock mainland to explore first.

"Well, then you will go back to Tianshui mainland." Ye Xuan replied.

"Ok."

Song Congu nodded.

Despite this, Ye Xuan still left a large number of sacred beasts for the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling. And also personally sent two people back to Tianshui mainland.

Lin Wenyue, who is in a dilemma in Tianshui, should not be a problem.

Later, Ye Xuan left the Dragon Palace alone, then went to the middle section of the Deep Sea Palace, and took some time to come to the back of the Deep Sea Palace.

At this time, it is already the fifth day after Ye Xuan sent the Song Dynasty to the Tianshui continent.

Ye Xuan, who shuttled through the same channel, suddenly stopped. He looked at the map and estimated that it would take another ten minutes to leave the deep sea palace and reach the blood rock continent.

Fortunately, he owns a map. If he does not have this map, even if he has the power of Kowloon, he will probably be lost.

"It's finally coming."

Ye Xuan reveals the look of expectation. I don't know what is the strongest person in the blood rock continent. What is the realm?

The rear part of the deep sea palace is the same as the front section. It almost only encounters the power of the dragon and the sacred beast of the two dragons. Therefore, these holy beasts have entered the devour space of Ye Xuan.

However, just when Ye Xuan was only one step away from the exit of the Deep Sea Palace, he heard a different shout.

"Don't..."

Ye Xuan's body shape is shocking, this is a girl's voice, and it sounds very tender, at most fifteen years old.

"In the deep sea palace, how can there be other people, is it a shark?"

Ye Xuan is a bit strange, and there are still female sharks in the shark family.

He felt that something was wrong. He still went to see it. Now, he is rushing toward the source of the sound.

After he turned a corner, he saw two figures and was pushing towards a petite figure.

"Don't be a cousin, you still don't resist, your qualifications are good, but they can't stop us."

The young man in the two figures smiled.

"Cousin, why are you doing this?" A little girl of fifteen years old asked with a female sword.

"Don't blame us, who let your father get a heavenly martial arts, not to hand over the family? Your cousin, you still hand over the expansion of the martial arts." The young man said with a smile.

"I won't, my father didn't teach me." The little girl shook her head.

"Do you think I can believe it, your father is a daughter, he doesn't pass you, how is it possible? Your cousin, you still hand it over, so I might give you a life, otherwise..." As I spoke, my eyes sparkled with my devilish eyes.

At this time, the other person on the side, with the tone of *: "Big Brother, let me not come, I promise that she will not spit out."

"You a beast, even your cousin wants to be a curse?" The young man directly slaps the past.

"Big Brother, don't you want to?"

"To shut up!"

The head of the young man's forehead, he couldn't understand how he could have such a stupid brother.

At the moment, he hurriedly turned his head and said with a smile: "Don't listen to what he said, as long as you hand over the heavenly martial arts, I will never be like you."

The little girl is not a fool, she will not hand it out so easily, and she also knows that if she handed it out, her end would be very miserable.

There are no other people here. If she dies, no one else knows.

At this time, she felt a bit wrong, and after a glimpse of the light, she saw the fourth person at the corner.

"Ok?"

The two young people also paid attention to the girl's gaze and turned to look.

"Someone? How is this possible? This deep sea palace is what we just discovered." The young man was exclaimed.

"Kid, do you see something you shouldn't see?" Another young man blinked.

This person who peeked around the corner was naturally Ye Xuan, and he did not expect that he actually ran into this scene.

For the same family, for the sake of a heavenly martial arts, the swords and swords are opposite each other. The younger brother of the young man is even more human-faced and looks at the body of his cousin.

Seeing that Ye Xuan does not speak, the young leader is cold and vocal: "Boy, do you want a hero to save the United States?"

Ye Xuan heard the words and stunned the few dragons who were headed out of the young body. The heart said: "The blood rock continent is not the blood rock continent. The three people are actually the power of the eight dragons. I am afraid of the power of Kowloon. The qualifications are poor."

He felt a lot in his heart and turned to look at the girl and asked, "What is your name?"

The girl was a little weird. After hesitating, she replied: "Ye Yuer."

really!

Ye Xuan also felt a bit strange, did not expect to meet a little girl, the name is like him.

"Kid, what are you laughing at?" asked the young man.

He also couldn't see Ye Xuan, because Ye Xuan didn't shoot, he didn't know what level Ye Xuan was.

"Nothing, laugh at you two people slag." Ye Xuan laughed.

When the words sounded, the dawn of the two young people showed their murderousness, and the young man whispered: "Brother, you are going to explore his strength."

"Big Brother, why don't you go?" Another young man whispered.

"I will let you go. Here is the site of my Ye family. His strength will not exceed that of the Ten Dragons. You are the son of my Ye family. Can you still fight him?" The young man reminded him.

His younger brother heard the words and felt that there was some truth. He walked toward Ye Xuan with his legs open.

"It's a good brother, let the younger brother come to die." Ye Xuan opened his mouth and smiled.
