Chapter 353: Blood rock continent

When Ye Xuan saw the sun, he knew that the exit of the deep sea palace was on a cliff on the seashore, and the hole was very small. It was almost a stone seam. Only one person could go sideways, so that Ye Haoer three people Being able to find this deep sea palace is also luck.

"Megatron, come out."

After leaving the Deep Sea Palace, Ye Xuan called out Megatron.

After Megatron has swallowed a large amount of ore recently, it has grown to the strength of the six dragons.

Megatron is Shiling, a beast. If you swallow the sacred beast, it is better to give it ore.

After it appeared, it was turned into a stone carving, and Ye Xuan jumped on his back. He said to the leaves in the stone crack: "Hey, come over."

"Ye Big Brother, this is..." Ye Yaner asked with a strange look.

"It's my mount, don't worry, come over," Ye Xuan explained.

Ye Hao's eyes widened and then jumped to the back of Megatron. "It's amazing, is it also a kind of holy beast?"

"Well, that's it."

Ye Xuan replied casually, ordering Megatron to rise and then move in one direction.

The speed of the Vientiane of the Six Dragons is also extremely fast. The original Ye Hao children need to catch three days to arrive. Megatron only took half a day. After all, there is no need to detour.

After half a day.

Ye Xiaoer pointed to a city in front of the road and said: "Ye Big Brother, that is Zhuye City, I know the city under the moon."

Ye Xuan nodded slightly, and on this road, he also learned a lot of things.

For example, Xiaoyuezong, where Ye Haoer is located, has more than 30 dragons. However, there are countless sects in the Luosha domain like Xiaoyue.

As for the temple, each one is a giant, and every king has a master who transcends the four worlds.

After the divine situation, it is called the virtual state.

Therefore, Ye Xuan still has a long way to go.

Megatron fell outside Zhuyecheng, and then Ye Xuan walked into Zhuyecheng under the leadership of Ye Yuer.

"Ye Big Brother, I will take you to the shop of Xiaoyue Zong."

After entering the city, Ye Haoer said directly.

"No hurry, first find a place to eat something." Ye Xuan smiled lightly, anyway, things will not be, no hurry.

"That big brother is coming with me. I often come to Zhuyecheng. I know which one is delicious."

Ye Yaner said, just walked in front of the guide, and told Ye Xuan about Zhuyecheng.

After a while, they came to a restaurant, Ye Haoer was responsible for ordering food, and Ye Xuan was secretly screaming.

"The blood rock continent is not a * rock continent. Just a restaurant, it is actually cooking with the sacred beast. If you grow up when you are young, you will not be strong."

Ye Xuan thought in his heart.

Soon, these dishes were brought up, Ye Xuan tasted a bite, the taste is really good, so that he can not help but eat.

"Ye Big Brother, what are you going to do next?" asked Ye Haoer.

"Not yet."

Ye Xuan shook his head.

"After Xiaoyuezong, there will be a martial arts conference in conjunction with the other two sects. The winners can get a lot of rewards."

Ye Xiaoer said with a smile: "You are so powerful, you can get good grades."

"My qualifications are poor. I am only 19 years old and I am a force in Kowloon. It will be shameful when I go up." Ye Xuan shook his head.

He still has self-knowledge, and Ye Haoer is only fifteen years old. He is already a force of eight dragons, and his qualifications are much better than him.

"It's okay, the martial arts conference is graded. Ye Bige happens to be Kowloon and can participate in the Kowloon Group. Those who are in the Ten Dragons and above are participating in a higher level of competition."

Ye Xiaoer smiled and tempted: "I heard that the reward for the first place in the nine groups is a decade of dragon blood grass. The use of the military below the ten dragons will directly enhance the strength of the three dragons."

"Oh?"

Ye Xuan's eyes are bright, this is a good thing, and it can top a lot of holy beasts.

He came to the interest and asked: "What is the prize for the ten dragons or more?"

"It is a century-old dragon blood grass. If the military of the ten dragons is taking it, it can at least improve the strength of the five dragons. If you are more than fifteen dragons, you have to look at the qualifications. Maybe you can also promote the three dragons. It may also be two dragons. There is also the possibility of a dragon." Ye Haoer replied.

"What is the power of the Five Dragons..."

Ye Xuan's eyes are bright, and if he gets it all, he can directly break through to fifteen dragons.

"The venue is in Shuiyuezong. After seven days, Ye Da Ge, you are just the force of Kowloon. You can try it." Ye Haoer said.

"Well, let's see it later."

Ye Xuan nodded, maybe within seven days, he broke through again?

However, he can suppress the realm and see what martial arts conference. He does not believe that under the Ten Dragons, someone will be able to overcome him.

However, at this time, the dialogue between the two warriors in the corner caught his attention.

"Is it heard? It is said that the undead sword * has begun to challenge the sword * tower."

"What, isn't he seriously injured?"

"Well, now I have started to challenge the Swords Tower again. It's amazing. He has challenged thousands of times in a few years, and he can't beat the last layer."

"His strength may not be enough, but perseverance is enough. Can Sword Shrine not open the net?"

"The state-owned country law, the family has family rules, there is no rule, no rules, no swordsman tower, he is not qualified to enter the sword * palace."

Hearing this, Ye Xuan refused to ask: "What is the Sword Palace?"

"It is the strongest force in our East China. Even the three kings want to send people here. However, this sword temple has never been publicly collected. If someone passes the sword tower, they can enter the sword god. Palace."

Ye Yuer explained one sentence and said: "The undead sword god, it should be called the undead sword god. He has been smashed countless times in the past few years, but he can't pass the last level."

"I have perseverance." Ye Xuan said with emotion.

"Yeah, he almost once a day, insisted on squatting for several years, and no one else did so." Ye Haoer nodded.

Ye Xuan shrugged, he must not be able to do this.

Unconsciously, he also thought of Ye Chong, this cheap old man was a * dilemma a few years ago, and now, it should also be a virtual god.

He is not prepared to think too much. After all, he is only a dilemma, and he is still in a dilemma, even the power of the Ten Dragons, not to mention the dilemma and the virtual state.

After a while, the two also left the restaurant. This time, they walked toward the biggest shop in Zhuyecheng.

The city of Zhuye is not the same as the city on the Tianshui continent. There are no city owners in this city. They are all handled by Xiaoyuezong.

Therefore, Ye Haoer entered here, just like entering his own home.
