

Super D. S 3581

Chapter 3581: The brain is a bit messy

In order to ensure that the news of Nether's less respect for the rivers and lakes spread out as soon as possible, Ye Xuan left the giant tribes and then wandered around the sky for a long time, and appeared in front of the fleet of several servant slaves.

Also borrowed a little trouble, and then found a secluded void, the Kowloon Qinglan car and the intelligent robot army retracted, once again activated the interstellar coordinate jumping ability.....

After all, this star field is adjacent to Tianji City. There is only a five-day or so distance from the star. Ye Xuan does not want to make extra-budgets. The time is also very urgent, so I must go back in the first time.

This time, the target of his jump to the target is the black hole of life in the Devil's Star Field. From there, he rushes to the front of the Devil's Star Field. If it is speeding up with a hole and jumping with a wormhole, It only takes one day to arrive!

At that time, the news that Nether has less respect for the rivers and lakes should have been spread out. It is impossible for the evil emperor to remain there, and the tail is violently swaying with the tail. Ye Xuan can completely ignore the premise of God. Quietly sneak back to the expulsion number, and this action will be perfected...

Three days is not long, just dazzling!

Today, two and a half days have passed, and the three-day period of the bet is only half a day left!

In the meantime, there were no changes in the two camps that straddle the tens of millions of miles in the sky. All eyes were gathered on the flagship fortress of the expulsion in front of the first cosmic servant's coalition camp.

The evil emperor has not left, and has been overlooking the sky in the far distance above the flagship fortress. The pressure of the star's main powerhouse is shrouded in a void, firmly locking the expulsion number!

As the gambling period became more and more close, there were countless star-studded powers in the two camps who were concerned about this matter, and they all unconsciously mentioned the eyes of the blind.

Although the Yin dynasty may be because of the change immediately after the customs clearance, under the anger of the cross, now obviously a bit of a brain is not normal, IQ and temperament are anxious, but people are star owners, brains It's not a fool to be foolish.

There is no doubt that the three-day gambling deadline will pass, this old guy must be in trouble.

It is not easy to provoke Shabaofeng. In the hands of the stars, the old lords have to be jealous of the lords of the lords. Once they are forced to rush, it is possible to raise them and raise them.

It can be said that the final result of this unexpected storm will be how it will evolve. It is really unpredictable!

All the star powers in the camps, either excited or worried, all in a hurry to count the moment of arrival...

The atmosphere outside is so oppressive and dignified. As the new commander of the Pioneer Fleet, and just inside the flagship fortress of the expulsion point where the focus is on the crowd, the present day is obviously even harder!

Chanas is comfortable, and the singer of the emperor slaps the bones of the whole body. Although he can't die, he has to lie at least seven or eight days to recover. It is not necessary to worry about this.

In the command cabin at the top of the expulsion, there was a big head, and now only Jero is in a hurry. Since yesterday, he has become an ant on a hot pot, almost never stopping, coming back and forth. In the top command cabin, there are several intelligent robots that are behind the listener, and they are dizzy, and they die directly!

"what....."

"Excessive! Too much! Sha Baofeng, what do you specially give to Laozi!"

"When you squat next door, who digs the pit, who specially fills it yourself, why do you sleep well, but Laozi is grilled on the fire? You are smashing the goods, immediately rolling thick..."

Seeing that there are several more hours, the three-day period has arrived, and Ye Xuan's cabin has always been closed, and he has no intention of coming out. He wants to help him to help him with the rhythm of the top of his eyes. Yero finally can't hold back. It is on the verge of collapse, * red eyes, and roaring at the closed door.

At this moment, his mood is most appropriate in one sentence: the baby is bitter, the baby just wants to cry!

It was also at this time that Nether had less respect for the news of the rivers and lakes, and finally reached the frontier battlefield. An intelligent robot came over to report, and the two eyes turned from a few times, and it was almost back and forth. Jero, who is walking around, turns dizzy!

"Looking up? Hahaha... This little bastard, finally appeared!"

The news was too unexpected. Jero almost didn't believe it. He stayed for a few minutes before returning to God. When he laughed and jumped, he ran back and forth around the top command bay and danced.

Poor children, the ups and downs of the heart is too intense, seemingly unable to hold up under the big ups and downs, this is the rhythm that is suspected of being driven crazy!

"Hey!"

Not far from the side, the intelligent robot that had just been reported, finally fell on his back and slammed on the ground.

The two eyes quickly turned a few laps and did not move, completely crashing!

At the same time, all the fleets of the two camps in the battlefield, the two camps, have also received news.

Soon, a burst of exclamation sounded in the two camps, and the whole piece of void was swayed...

"Significant news! Major news! Netherland respects the rivers and lakes..."

"God, is it really bubbling? Is this too clever?"

"Sha Baofeng is very powerful, and the mentality of the less respect is counted. In fact, in the words, I really let the Nethered Monsters come out!"

"It's no wonder that the Emperor Yin has never been able to find it. It turned out that he actually came to the first universe, and he also crouched near the Tianji City of the central area where the Tianji National Base Camp is located. It was unexpected!"

"These are not important. The most critical issue is... less respect for the rivers and lakes. Is it really just because you don't want to be used by someone to use your own loud name?"

"Yeah, the price is too great. The Yin Emperor must immediately chase after the past. Soon after, the two sides will be positive and hard, clearing everything, or they will be less respectful and squatting. Why bother?"

As these exclamations resounded through the void, for three days, they have been succumbing to the void above the expulsion number, unfolding the air machine, and firmly locking the evil emperor, and they were dumbfounded on the spot.

The commanding officers in the fleets of the two major confrontation camps are even more incomparable.

Located in the far back of the Second Universe Coalition camp, it represents the war-torn old ghosts and the two-browed ancestors in the observing fortress of the immortal dynasty, which is obviously the most shocking and shocking!

After the news that Netherland was re-emerging in the sky, the two old guys were on the spot, and they opened their mouths and turned their heads to look at each other. The face was incredible!

After ten years of interest, the eyebrows ancestors swallowed and swallowed, and asked weakly: "You said... Is there something wrong?"

"Wait, Rong Rongfu will talk about his ideas first!"

The war demon old ghost also swallowed his mouth, subconsciously raised his hand and touched the back of the head, twilight straight, and slammed back: "There is nothing else, the key brain suddenly a little chaotic..."

Chapter 3582: Receiving war

With the news that Nether has less respect for the rivers and lakes, the ruined ghosts in the void above the flagship fortress, the whole person was petrified instantly.

During the three-day gambling period, there are several hours to come. He has even begun to brew emotions. After a few hours, he will make a big splash and destroy the starry fortress below, and vent his anger.

At this time, the news came, let him be beaten in public, and squeaky. The key is that there is no way to add to it, and the main character is strange. At this moment, the face is a bit hot!

"Roar!"

"The Nether thief, you are absolutely deliberate, and once again, the Emperor of the Emperor once again, the new hatred and old hate, and soon after the liquidation, if the old man does not marry you, vow not to return home!"

"Roar....."

Numerous eccentric gaze, projected from the surrounding sky, all gathered on him, the oppressive feeling brought about by the invisible is too heavy, the emperor's eccentric finally can't hold back, screaming , roaring endlessly.

His figure is also taking advantage of this opportunity, like a dog of a family, fleeing with a tail.

It's really awkward!

As his stature disappeared in the distance, in the camps of both sides of the battlefield, countless sighs rang again...

"Oh, how painful to understand..."

"Obviously, Netheredness is deliberate. Perhaps it was not intended to take the lead. However, after learning the news of the three-day gambling, it changed its mind. Otherwise, why is it bubbling at this time? It is clearly to fight Yin Emperor!"

"This face is screaming, the main star of the singer, the crazy world is chasing a big circle, people have not seen it, and finally they are separated by the endless void, according to the face. A meal, oh... no one is such a sad reminder!"

"The key is that the Nether is less than enough to have a cow. It's okay to take a bubble on a daily basis. You can actually smother the star lord. This way, anyway, I've seen it alone!"

"At random, the clouds are light and windy, but it is almost maddening a star lord. This is a rare sorrow... It is not a general murder!"

The lesser respect of Nether is extraordinary. His news appeared in an instant, and it attracted the attention of all the star-studded strongmen in both camps. The whole piece of the void was hotly discussing his return to the rivers and lakes. Instead, he was in the center of focus. Sha Baofeng, no one even mentioned it.

Ye Xuan was in the middle of the arms, took advantage of this opportunity, quietly returned to the void battlefield, entered the expulsion number, and then, in the three-day gambling period just after the knot, opened the hatch and came out.

Jero has not seen the film, the crisis has been resolved, and he has no interest in it. He is also accountable to Ye Xuan. The key is that he has not closed his eyes for three days. The psychological pressure is too great. The intelligent robots are walking around and turning around. Yes, this alone will explain the problem.

Therefore, Ye Xuan did not see him after he left the cabin, his heart was too tired, and people were hiding from their own homes.

As for Chanas, he is lying in another cabin. Within a few days, he can't get up. It's also in the middle of the leaves. At least when he walks, there's no need to follow a crying and tearing old lady's gun. Now!

Although the war is not over yet, it has only just begun. Soon after, the camps of the two sides will once again start a full-scale war, but all this has basically nothing to do with Ye Xuan. He even left the expulsion number in his own camp. In the far end of the sky, the magic warfare is sacrificed in the air, step by step, and blasting away!

This trip is to rush to the Emperor Star, and then, after receiving the spiritual war, where Ye Xuan will embark on the journey back to the star journey of Star Airlines!

Of course, there are obviously some things happening on this way. Ye Xuan has expected this.

Hidden in the dark to make the black hand behind the evil emperor, it is impossible to recognize this plant, even if it is to understand the doubts in happiness, it will definitely follow.

And this is exactly what Ye Xuan hopes. The danger placed on the table is easier to solve and deal with than the threat hidden in the dark. Taking advantage of this opportunity, he wants to lead the snake out and cut off the hiding. The black hand peeping behind the scenes!

The facts are exactly the same as he expected. Just after Ye Xuan's sacrifice of the war battle, shortly after he went away, in the observation of the big castle in the back of the second space coalition camp, he sneaked out two figures. It is the war and the old ghosts and the two ancestors.

The two old guys were extremely cautious and did not chase them directly. Instead, they had to return to the third universe for a reason, first galloping for a few hours before the natural wormhole connecting the third universe, and then correcting the direction, beyond the edge of the battlefield. In the distance, the vain chasing away...

Ye Xuan did not hurry to hurry. He arrived at the Emperor Star one day later. What made him slightly disappointed was that most of the mysterious behind-the-scenes black hands behind him had never been shot.

But it doesn't matter. After receiving the renovation of the Void War, Ye Xuan will soon be on the road again.

From the Devil's Star Field to the Tianji City in the first universe, this road can be said to be far away from the star. It takes half a month. Ye Xuan believes that behind the scenes, the black hand will definitely be shot during this period.

It's always impossible to send him to Sky City all the time?

After arriving at the Magic Emperor Star, Ye Xuan waved the magic warfare into the body, and then directly entered the atmosphere of the star, and soon saw the devil's uncle Mo Qigong.

"Bad boy, what the * is going on? Are you not the Netherland? How can you appear in the Tianji City Star Field?"

When I saw Ye Xuan, Mo Qigong immediately asked him, and his eyes were slightly bloodshot. Obviously, after learning the news, he didn't have a good rest. He should have been entangled and thinking hard and could not: "Don't tell me the planet city star. The guy who appeared in the field was a counterfeit, and the Nether Claw and the Kowloon Green Cars appeared. Don't think about fooling the past."

"Of course, it is a fake card that is included as a fake. But for Mao, I am in front of the battlefield, he can't appear in the Tianji City star field? Don't forget, there is an invincible in the third universe of the Terran camp. God of War is tossing."

It is impossible for Ye Xuan to reveal the interplanetary jumping ability. I can't explain it any more, so I just found an excuse to smother the past, and then I turned the corner: "Right, is the Void War reformed? Yes, how is the drill of the battalion family? I am rushing back to catch up. I finally led a star lord to cover it in the past. If it is late, I will only be there when I am finished. Missed opportunity?"

"What you mean is to say..."

Mo Qigong and Yi, then raised his hand and took a forehead, suddenly realized: "It is no wonder that the Netherland is your other avatar."

"As for the Void War, I am relieved that the transformation has been completed. It took only one day. In the following days, I have been training the soldiers. Now they are very familiar. You can always go on the road, but in Before that, there is another problem that needs to be solved..."

Chapter 3583: Eight-level source core

The problem that Mo Qigong said to solve is actually the refining of the Void War La!

The storage magic weapon that can accommodate such a 300,000-meter-diameter behemoth, or the space box, is not without it, but it is rare, and there is no such thing as the devil's royal family.

The creation of War La has not taken into account the speed of starship. After all, it is not necessary at all. It was originally an unconventional killer like a fixed star fortress. It can be in the air at the speed of a common 10,000-meter castle. Sailing is quite good.

From the Devil's Star Field to the Tianji City, the star is far away, naturally it is impossible to directly drive the war, so when you arrive at the Tianji City, it is estimated that the plane-level star wars here are over.

In the hands of Ye Xuan, there is a magic weapon that can hold the Void War, such as Shennong Ding, etc., all have storage functions, but the key can not be exposed, so the only way is refining.

As long as the strength is sufficient, any warships or fortresses and fortresses can be refining the income of the body. Ye Xuan has already won the thirteenth big world, and the strength is obviously enough.

This war la has been revilized by the Emperor Mo, and now he has handed it over. Mo Wentian has erased the spiritual brand left in the core of the war. In theory, Ye Xuan can refine it at any time. It is a spiritual imprint, or a mark of the gods of the human race, and then takes it away.

However, after all, the war La has been transformed. Only the magical power of the devil can be driven. Now, it is more inclined to the unique biological frequency of the soldiers, whether it can be refining, or whether refining is quick and convenient. Seven public hearts are really not at the end, so there will be this one, specifically reminded Ye Xuan!

Ye Xuan soon saw the Void War, and his appearance did not change at all. According to Mo Qigong, the so-called change was only the core drive in the core honeycomb node on the inner circle of the ninth floor. The installation has undergone major changes. In addition, new materials have been added to the special pipes that connect the honeycomb nodes, making them more conducive to the rapid transmission and increase of the biological frequency of the squad.

To say this, not only Ye Xuan, but even Mo Qigong and several other high-ranking democrats are eager to try and look at the reconstructed Void War, which is motivated by tens of millions of Void soldiers. Underneath, what kind of power can be made.

Unfortunately, this is just to think about it, the power is too horrible, can not easily try, and then, the matter must be kept secret, then it can not be a big fan.

However, Mo Qigong took the chest to ensure that as long as the soldiers are no problem, this Void War will definitely activate the use. He is responsible for the problem!

Originally, because after the transformation, the void warfare has been more suitable for the bio-wave frequency of the terracotta group, so if it is refining, Ye Xuan's brain will know the hollow medulla in the sea. s Choice.

Unfortunately, this marrow crystal has always been stinky, never been a bird Ye Xuan, this time Ye Xuan tried to communicate with it, the result is the same, stone sinking, no response.

Since it is impossible to refine and refine the mysterious power of the emptiness of the medullary crystal, Ye Xuan can only choose to use the spiritual power of the demon to unfold. His power of ignorance is due to the stagnation of the sham, and now It is not as powerful as the spiritual power, it is not the best choice!

Ye Xuan urged the brain to know the spiritual source core suspended in the sea, and injected the seven-level spiritual power into the pivotal device of the core hive node of the virtual war. When the refining and refining was about to start, the mind suddenly unexpectedly sounded the familiar system prompt. sound.

"Hey, congratulations to the host, I found that I can draw spiritual strength! Is it immediately levied?"

Ok? What is the situation?

Ye Xuan immediately stunned, the magical power of the devil is quite special, in general, they can only rely on their own enchantment of the star crystal or more chanting the energy inside the crystal, and slowly grow up.

Even if Ye Xuan has a phagocytic system like a cheat, the way to gain spiritual strength through direct capture is just two more than the average demonic.

First, the spiritual source of the brain in the brain of the devil!

Secondly, it is the energy form of the living body!

For this reason, it is so unexpected that Ye Xuan will encounter such an opportunity to gain the spirit of white spirit.

Soon he figured out the situation.

The spiritual power referred to by the original system is the spiritual power of the devil in the whole transmission channel of nearly a thousand star nests and the special transmission pipeline connecting these nodes.

After all, these pipes are used to transmit spiritual strength. Before its first activation, there were a total of tens of millions of demons who gathered in the battle, and a star. The devil is a kinetic energy center.

Although most of the spiritual power has been blasted out in the horrible spiritual roar, there will still be some persistence in the pipeline.

Even if the spiritual strength retained in every inch of the transmission pipeline is weak and almost negligible, but the gathering is full, the whole battle is a huge monster with a diameter of 300,000 meters, and the spiritual strength remaining in all the pipelines is brought together. It is definitely a horrible amount.

Of course, in addition to the phagocytic system, these spiritual forces that remain in the war-and-sale transmission pipeline are not available to anyone else, and they will not be able to fight its ideas. It is not worthwhile.

But Ye Xuan did not have this problem, he immediately moved.

After figuring out all this, Ye Xuan even made a positive reply to the body's phagocytic system, and ordered the levy immediately. As for the refining of the emptiness of the war, he was not in a hurry.

Maybe after this confiscation, it will directly lead to the re-transformation of the spiritual source nucleus in the brain, and it is not known to evolve into an eight-level source nucleus.

Really want to refine and refine such a huge thing, the efficiency of the eight-level spiritual power is obviously far beyond the seven-level spiritual strength, and it is not wrong to cut the firewood!

Soon, a spiritual force like a trickle of blood poured into the mind of Ye Xuan's brain, and was directly confiscated by the spiritual source of the sea.

As time goes by, this trickle has not only existed, but also the amount is getting bigger and bigger. At the end of the day, the spiritual power that rushes into the sea of Ye Xuan's brain every minute is almost like a big river. .

This kind of feeling is very wonderful. Although it is not as soft as the spirit of drinking tea, but it is not the kind of rudeness of the devil's brain, but the two are both The process of collecting and collecting is still quite smooth and stable.

After more than ten minutes, this steady stream of spiritual power has finally disappeared. The spiritual power left in the war transmission pipeline has been completely taken away.

Ye Xuan can be said to be a big bargain, because at this moment, in his mind, it really sounded a familiar system sound again...

Chapter 3584: Variation of slavery skills

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the level of the spiritual source is upgraded! The current level: eight!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the spiritual level of the nuclear level has improved! Some spiritual skills and secrets have improved one level!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, get the chance to randomly pick a variant of the spiritual power secret mutation! Is it used immediately?"

As the steady stream of spiritual power finally disappeared, the spiritual power left in the war-laden transmission pipeline was completely emptied. In Ye Xuan's mind, the familiar system prompt sounded again, which surprised him. !

Sure enough, as he had hoped before, this time the big luck, the source core has been transformed again, and finally evolved to the eighth level.

Even in the information revealed by the demon people on the table, the entire group of devils has only reached the spiritual core of the first generation of the emperor, and has reached this level.

Of course, for this point, Ye Xuan had previously believed that now he can only hehe.

Under the starry environment, the fruits are too deep, and nothing can be trusted, not just the surface!

This point, Ye Xuan did not realize until recently!

However, this time fortunately once again let the spiritual core of his mind evolve and evolve. For Ye Xuan, this kind of joyful event in the sky is naturally worthy of joy, and the benefits are indeed too much.

First of all, the most direct benefit is that Ye Xuan's spiritual strength level has once again increased, and any magical power skill secrets, or supernatural powers, will be more powerful!

The joy of accident is because this time the source of the nuclear metamorphosis, some of his spiritual strength skills and mystery, magical powers, and once again, some of them have also been promoted.

For example, the two kinds of attacking secrets: the annihilation spear and the devastating vortex, as well as the two defensive secrets of absolute shock and perfect shock. The previous level has just been upgraded to the intermediate level, and now it is promoted again. It is now a high-level mystery. It is.

However, the spirit of lightning and slave printing skills have not changed, before the intermediate level, and now still intermediate!

There is also spiritual crushing and spiritual charm, which has reached a high level before, and this time has not changed.

Of course, in the end, it also includes the only mental power revolution that Ye Xuan has mastered. It may be because it has just been mastered and the number of times of display is small. This time, after the source nucleus is upgraded again, it is still only Intermediate spirit power magic!

In other words, all the spiritual strength skills, secrets and magical powers that Ye Xuan possessed, in addition to spiritual lightning, slavery skills, and mental reversal, the rest have evolved to advanced!

Although this time the source nucleus has once again evolved to the eighth level, there has not been a new spiritual power, but Ye Xuan has got a more rare opportunity, that is, the system will master the spiritual strength skills and secrets he has mastered. Among the techniques and supernatural powers, randomly select one to produce mutation evolution!

The relationship between Dan and the mutated word is basically a good thing, and the power will increase greatly. Of course, there are also cases where the disadvantages outweigh the benefits, but few.

Ye Xuan can't believe that he will be so unlucky, just hit it.

Therefore, he did not hesitate at all, and even if he made a positive reply, let the system immediately start random selection.

After three seconds, the result came out: "Hey, congratulations to the host, the mutating skills have evolved! The current mutation process: primary variation! The current variation attribute: the application range is expanded, from the demonic group to the vast majority of non-living bodies substance!"

With the sound of this system sounding in my mind, Ye Xuan was on the spot!

Slave?

Actually it is slavery?

Not to mention, under the circumstance, Ye Xuan really has a feeling of great disappointment.

Slave is the first spiritual strength skill he mastered. In the early stage of Ye Xuan's growth, it can be described as a great achievement.

It can be said that without the skills of slavish printing, basically there will be no Xuan prince who will be surprised by the three major planes... He has no chance to enter the first universe.

In fact, even if you go, it is just a dish!

However, although Ye Xuan has always been grateful for the skills of slavery, it is only a kind of spiritual strength skill, and can only be applied to the demon who has the spiritual core in the brain. As for humans, or other kinds of ethnic groups, human brains There is no source nuclear at all, even the spiritual power is not there, the slave prints the top hair?

Therefore, in the past two years, in the middle of the growth period, Ye Xuan rarely used the slavish skills, but in the latter part, it was never used, because there is no need for it, with his strength and various With other means and foundations, Ye Xuan can solve problems in a more direct and faster way.

Among the entire group of devils, the current Ye Xuan is helpless, and it is necessary to rely on the slaves to deal with it. I dare not say no, but basically there are only a handful.

What's more, now he and the devil's group are already allies of cooperation, and the slaving skills are even more useless, too sweet!

Among all the spiritual strength skills, secrets, and magical powers he has mastered, except for slavery, any other kind of opportunity to get this evolutionary change, Ye Xuan will be delighted, only this slave print has become a chicken rib, but again It is the first color in it, which really makes Ye Xuan very depressed!

But this depression quickly dissipated, and it also turned into a more intense surprise, because he was a little bit savvy, and immediately found himself actually hit the big luck this time, the mutating property of the slave print, let this pair Today, Ye Xuan has become a chicken-strength mental strength skill, and once again has its use.

And the development space and growth potential have become more extensive!

There are also grades in the process of variation, and the current slaving skills are only primary variations, and there are intermediate, advanced, and even stronger levels of variation in the future!

Just the primary variation, the application field of the smuggling skills can be extended to the devils in the past, and can be applied to most non-living bodies.

Of course, the success rate is not guaranteed, which is obviously linked directly to Ye Xuan's own strength, as well as various attributes and grades of the target object!

For example, the stars are also non-living. If the current Ye Xuan wants to display a slave to a huge star, and refine it for himself, it is definitely the brain to be kicked by Wang Ba!

On the other hand, if the target object is changed into a piece of iron, or a piece of mountain rock, it is another result, and it is absolutely proper to refine on the spot.

Yes, it is refining!

Ye Xuan carefully studied the primary mutating attributes of slavery, and finally realized it completely!

When the slave printing skill is applied to the strong man, the effect is to control the spiritual source of the brain, thereby enslaving the other party.

Now, after the primary mutation, applied to non-living objects, the effect is equivalent to refining, but it is far from refining in the ordinary sense. It also has a unique attribute blessing, that is, hiding and confusing... ..

Chapter 3585: Can not be refining

The slavish skills of primary variation, in addition to the extension of the application domain, there are two unique properties of metamorphosis.

They are hidden and confused!

That is to say, if the magic weapon such as refining and smelting with the mutated slave printing skill falls into the hands of others, the other party cannot see that the magic weapon is refining, which is the hidden attribute.

As for the confusing attribute, it is more interesting. If the other party tries to refine the magic weapon as its own, congratulate him, because he will succeed.

However, this kind of success is only an illusion. Ye Xuan can regain ownership at any time. Between the meditations, the hard work of the other side will vanish, and the magic weapon that was originally in the hands of the hand will be anti-water in an instant, and somehow will be countered by Ye Xuan. Controlled.

This is definitely a fatal blow. Who can defend it?

What makes Ye Xuan even more surprised is that the hidden and confusing two unique attributes attached to the primary mutated singer are completely impossible to detect. At least the current system gives the definite answer: below the border, Undetectable!

This is enough, what is Ye Xuan's repair? It is estimated that even if you cry and scream for death, you will not be able to provoke the supremacy of the border.

At most, I will get the wreckage of a single-legged Jinwu in the main territory. From time to time, I will vent a slap in the air to scare people.

In this case, the current slavish skills, the significance of Ye Xuan is extremely amazing.

Is there a lot of heavy treasures and treasures in his hands?

Really being rushed, the big deal was deliberately deceived by the other party to take one or two pieces. When the other party refining and then sacrificed to prepare to deal with themselves, it was instantly reversed... that scene must be very sensational, Ye Xuan now Just think about it, have been eager to try!

"There is a black hand behind the devil in the dark, and if there is no accident, this guy will definitely be on the way to Tianjicheng, so it seems..."

In the muttering, Ye Xuan's mouth quickly floated a smirk: "It seems that before you set off, you have to pick a few magic weapons that are famous outside, and then re-refining them with primary slaves. Maybe you can Use it!"

"But now, let's solve this big guy first. With the eight-level spiritual strength and the primary mutated slaving skills, refining it is not a minute."

Speaking of this, he turned to the side of the behemoth of the void, and once again chuckled: "This is a coincidence, the convenience of the additional attributes of the primary variation stage of the slave printing skills, just in the air battle The land has been shown once, and there are still some concerns that after the Tianji City, once the war is handed over, there will be any accidental changes. Now it seems that everything is fine!"

During the speech, Ye Xuan even activated the primary mutated power of slavery, and devoted himself to the full-scale refining of the 300,000-meter-diameter giant emptiness...

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the virtual battle is successful! The primary variation is imprinted successfully! The hidden and confusing attributes are activated successfully!"

In just a few minutes, Ye Xuan's mind came with a familiar system sound. The eight-level spiritual power was extraordinary, and Ye Xuan used the mutated slave to refine, so the speed was really fast, even he Somewhat surprised.

After investigating the Void War, Ye Xuan was extremely satisfied. Nowadays, the war is like an arm, and within a hundred miles, he can put in the tens of millions of squad in the immortal world at any time, and then start.

Because of the hidden and confusing attributes of the primary mutated slaves, the war lords at this time, in the eyes of outsiders, can not see the traces of refining and turning, no matter how they are explored, and even continue to refine. Of course, even Refining and chemical success, it is only an illusion.

"Sure enough, the mutated property is definitely a sinister treasure."

Ye Xuan grinned and smiled. The plan for the trip to Tianji City will be more secure.

This is also the case, including the behind-the-scenes black hand behind the line and solving it.

Then, Ye Xuan thought about it, and successively sacrificed a piece of treasure or even a treasure from the body, refining it in the same way.

Among them are the Shennong Ding and the smoky Luo that have been exposed in the hands of the sorcerer and the Nether.

Since these heavy treasures have all been refining by Ye Xuan, this time, the second refining process was carried out with the primary mutating slain, and the speed was almost as fast, and the hidden and confusing attributes of the primary mutated smuggling were also all Successfully activated.

Even the traces of refining that were left in the previous refining process were completely hidden because of the relationship between the primary mutating and slaving effects of the second refining, and it seemed to be a treasure that had never been refining. general.

At this point, Ye Xuan has a long breath, the preparations have been completed, ready to depart to Tianji City!

In order to avoid people's eyes and ears, in order to avoid the news leaking out, the transformation of the Void War La and the training process of the soldiers in the following days are all carried out in a secret valley hundreds of miles away from the Magic City. The lord of the Devil's family is still banned under the entire valley.

At this time, Ye Xuan alone refining the Void War in the valley, and the devil's uncle Mo Qigong and others waited outside the valley while protecting the law.

Originally thought that it took at least two to three days to complete the refining, after all, it was a giant of 300,000 meters in diameter. When the Emperor Mo asked the day to refine it, it took more than a day.

Although Mo Wentian is the same as Ye Xuan, he has seven levels of mental strength, but his cultivation is stronger than Ye Xuan. Therefore, according to Mo Qigong's estimation, Ye Xuan's refinement of the Nether War will take at least two days. .

For this reason, when he left less than an hour, he saw Ye Xuan coming out of the valley, suddenly stunned, and then changed slightly, and anxiously whispered: "How? Can not refine What? What can I do? Where can I get this level of space treasure box?"

"No, I have already been in the body!"

Ye Xuan grinned and then waved his hand, and the vague battle in the body came out, squatting in the void in front of the two, and he was still scared by Mo Qi.

"Well? Why are you refining so quickly? No..."

Perhaps I don't believe that Ye Xuan will refine the void battle so quickly. As he said, Mo Qigong explored it subconsciously, and did not enter the core hive node with spiritual strength. Then his face changed again. The voice screamed: "God, how did your kid do it? It's clear that you didn't go to refining, but you can actually get it into the body? This... What the * is going on?"

"Hey, who said that if you don't refine, you can't get the magic weapon into your body? As for how I did it..."

Ye Xuan frowned and hesitated. After all, he did not tell the truth. He had to leave some hands for himself, so when he shrugged his shoulders and shouted: "You guess..."

Mo Qigong: "..."

Chapter 3586: Ning for jade

"Bad boy, you are more and more playing with the old man..."

Mo Qigong turned his eyes straight, but he did not really ask what was going on. Although the demon group and Ye Xuan are now strategic ally, but who is not a bit of a humane card? Although Ye Xuan showed his means to make him puzzling, but because of this, this matter can not even ask.

For this, Mo Qigong is still well-informed, and strategic allies need to respect each other. Otherwise, this relationship will be difficult to continue and there will be cracks.

"Okay, since everything is ready, you...hey? The spiritual strength of your kid has actually broken through?"

Halfway through, Mo Qigong once again exclaimed: "Rely! Don't tell me that just less than an hour in the inside, your source nucleus has completed the seventh evolution, and now it is eight Level source nuclear!"

"In fact... that's it."

For this, Ye Xuan never concealed it. He left a weak spiritual force in the transmission pipeline of the Void War, and he slammed into the Universiade and tried to collect it. He did not expect that the successful thing was said, and finally he spread it: "In fact, I didn't go to the refining war just now, and the time was all spent on collecting spiritual power."

"After the evolution of the results of the nuclear evolution, I tried it. I actually took the war into the body. It was an accident. You know that it is swollen? You must be confused!"

"Bad boy, you are not finished yet?"

Mo Qigong appeared to be very hurt, and his face was full of resentment: "Can you still play happily? This is clearly a deliberate fight against the old man. If you get cheap and sell it, the old man is really a friend."

After a half day of rest, Ye Xuan left the magic star even on the road, and rushed to the Tianjicheng star field of the first universe.

The road ahead is long. Even if a wormhole jump is carried out along the way, it will take more than 20 days to reach Tianji City, so Ye Xuan is not in a hurry. According to his estimation, the behind-the-scenes black hand behind him should start halfway. There should be nothing happening in the ten days since I left the Magic Emperor.

At this moment, the war-torn old ghosts and the two-browed ancestors have already arrived in front of Ye Xuan. Although the two old guys have circled a circle, it is a powerful power in the fifteenth world. In addition, Ye Xuan briefly stayed in the magical star for a long time, so, at full speed, they went over Ye Xuan.

All the way to the hurry, the two old guys took four or five days to move forward, and finally stopped in a more secluded star field.

"It's here!"

The war ghosts and old ghosts fell to an abandoned star on the side of the starry navigation channel, and they were very satisfied to receive: "This star field is relatively secluded, and the nearest slave servant group is outside the three-day voyage. Very far away, but the fearless news leaked out."

"Oh... that kid is estimated to have to arrive in this star field for about six or seven days. In terms of time, it is enough for you and me to arrange it."

After a sneer, the eyebrows ancestors took the words and said: "This time, the kid should be left anyway, otherwise he will be returned to the celestial family to accept the shackles and formally become the patriarch of the celestial family. Coupled with the support of the celestial family, I am afraid that it will become more and more difficult to deal with in the future. I really want him to grow up. Let's get water on the bamboo basket and enjoy it."

"As for the means of trapping the array, it has always been useless to this kid. We don't have to pay for it at all. Just use the two ace in your hand."

During the talk, the war and the old ghosts on the side have already turned over and took out a very strange magical storage magic weapon. Under the dumping, the two hanging pegs poured out from the mouth, and the three female repaired bodies fell. Come out, it is Xuanyuan Ziyang, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru three women.

Although there are no other restrictions on the body of the three women, the body has been banned, and it has been repaired to almost nothing. It is only in a state that can not be degraded in a virtual environment, and it has no way to look down on any waves.

Even if the war-torn old ghosts and the two-browed ancestors let them leave, the three women are afraid that they will not be able to get out of this star field.

At this moment, it was suddenly released. The three women turned around and looked around. After seeing the surrounding environment, they all changed color and screamed to the two old guys.

I think it is because the smile on the face of the eyebrows is too boring, let them subconsciously guess what is the reason, at this moment, the three women are very staunch, directly telling the death of Ningwei Zhi.

"The two predecessors, who are still in the doldrums of the great powers, have been so black to me and other younger generations, and now I have gotten such a lonely star, what is the intention?"

"If you don't even have the old guy who can't even raise your eyebrows, don't dream. If you dare to come, I won't die, don't believe you, try it and see if we have the ability to blow ourselves..."

"Yes, we can't die. You'd better have this idea, let our sisters leave, or else it will end up hurting people's end, why bother?"

Although the words of the three gimmicks are different, they are determined to be ruthless, and in order to ensure that they can survive at least in this void environment, their cultivation is not completely banned, so it is true. Both have the ability to blow themselves.

This made the war and the old ghost and the eyebrowless ancestors have to be jealous. The latter is indeed a wretched face. I originally wanted to lick some oil. At the moment, it was scared. After all, for them, These three gimmicks are used to clamp the ace of Ye Xuan. They really want to blow themselves up. The two biggest ghosts are the biggest losers.

Therefore, it was a shame that the eyebrowless ancestor who had been blinded to the eyebrows could not grow up, but in the end he still resisted the on-the-spot attack. He took the boy to catch it first, and the time was slow. Slowly playing and tidying up these three gimmicks, the heart is slow and smooth.

After a cold cry, the wretched smile on his face gradually gathered, and then he said: "What do you think of the three dead girls? Are the two men who are such a beggar? Rest assured, as long as you cooperate with each other, no noisy After the bait is hooked and falls into the hands of me, it will naturally let you go!"

Upon hearing this, Xuanyuan Zixiao and the three women suddenly became stupid, and looked at each other. Finally, they asked: "What is the situation? The predecessors mean... want to take us as a bait? If this is the case, you must be mistaken." However, although there are also great powers in our family, it is necessary to say that we can bother you and join forces with each other. I am afraid that there is no such thing as a bait. Is it absolutely unnecessary?"

It is no wonder that she first thought of the family behind her. After all, the kidnapping of the three of them is the two great powers. Is this kind of existence to be counted, and can it be a general figure?

Chapter 3587: Congratulations, you got it

"What is the relationship with the family behind you? Don't be too young to see the old man..."

On the other side, the old ghosts of the war and the gods turned their eyes. He is also the emperor of the Tianshi Empire. His identity is honorable. Although Xuanyuan and Duanmu and Bodhi creatures are also huge, in the field of genetic fluid research of the immortal dynasty. Top door valves and forces.

But if you say no exaggeration, this is not really in his eyes. It is even more impossible for him to go with his old friends and have no eyebrows.

Therefore, even if the face of the war-torn old ghosts sinks, they are not interested in grinding with these three hoes. The big hand will pick up a wave: "Oh, you should not ask if you should not ask, in short. The old man and the two are not counting the family behind you, and this matter will not be with you, and will naturally let you go afterwards!"

Then, the three women did not ask again, and they turned to the side of the eyebrowless ancestors to see the past: "Okay, no time and no nonsense, immediately start, these three gimmicks can not be placed in one place, Just in case, I am responsible for two, you are responsible for one, separate layout!"

Speaking of this, the war and the old ghost turned to look at the starry mainland at the foot, nodded and said: "Here is one place, the other two gimmicks, you take one, another pick a star, the old man brings Take one, you and I will be guarded separately!"

The eyebrows and ancestors screamed and laughed. They didn't give the three women the opportunity to continue to ask questions. They waved a soft energy in the hand, wrapped the Xuanyuan Ziyan, and turned away to leave...

The voyage enters the tenth day!

One day ago, Ye Xuan was just finished a wormhole jump, but the next wormhole was outside the distance of the two-day star flight. In the two-day voyage, there was a star field that was relatively remote. Plus this trip to Tianji City, basically close to half.

Therefore, according to Ye Xuan's estimate, if there is no accident, the mysterious black hand behind the scenes should appear!

Sure enough, half a day later, Ye Xuan was just entering this rather ridiculous star field. On a deserted star in front, there was a burst of screaming laughter: "Hey... the fish is finally here!" "

Ye Xuan sneered, still do not know who is the fisher who is the fish!

He has already stepped out of the magic warfare in his step, and he has no chance to take the opportunity to look forward to it. He waved the magic warfare into the body, and stood in the void, turning to the abandoned star that passed the screaming laughter. I hope to see: "I have expected someone to take the shot on the way, this uncle also waited for a long time, get out, let the grandfather see who is so lively, and sincerely find death!"

"Bad boy, know that you have more means, don't say it is a great power, even if it is a star lord, you are not afraid, you can leave at any time, but if the husband and wife are not prepared enough today, it is not easy to shoot! "

In the strange laughter, on the left side of the void, a star in the distance, the body shape of the war-torn old ghost appeared: "Hey... Today, the old man is actually a gamble, bet you will not give up this. Three hoes, the old man's hands are now holding one. If you kill her first, you will know that if you don't care, you won't be able to turn around and you will go!"

The speech was degraded, and the old ghosts waved their hands. The figure appeared on the side of the body. It was Duanmu Xiaocha. At this time, the face was wronged. Looking at Ye Xuan's shackles, there was a deep confusion, apparently rooted. I didn't recognize him.

Ye Xuan's whole heart sank. When he saw Duanmu Tea, he immediately understood who the three gimmicks said.

At the same time, since the other party can start with these three gimmicks, it is enough to prove that people have basically fully understood the secret of Ye Xuan's identity, except that the fox and the lord are less respectful, and even the prince's prince Children have been exposed!

What shocked him the most was that the guy's means was too fruitful. When he came up, he said that he had to pinch one to try Ye Xuan if he cares. He didn't plan to hang around.

"The old man is also holding one in his hand. If the younger generation does not care, the old man will not be pinched to death. It is a pity that it is a pity to spend the moon. It is better to seal her all the cultivation, bring it back to be a stove, and slowly play it. That's good."

On the other side of the sky, the shape of the eyebrow-free old man is also revealed, and behind him is the Xuanyuan Zixiao who is controlled by the body shape: "Bad boy, know that you have the means to make the star owners ridiculous." But, do you want to try it out? Hey, remind you, there is a gimmick that is banned in another star, don't want to play tricks, suddenly black hands, etc., in case of ruining which star By the way, killing the girl, it doesn't matter to us!"

Ye Xuan sneered, two great people, in order to deal with him such a black light, but also really exhausted the mind, now the three gimmicks are separated and pledge, Ye Xuan even if there is any means, can not be used His means are even more powerful, and it is impossible to take into account both directions.

After all, the other party is the two great powers. When the situation is wrong, it will definitely be a slap in the face, and then leave and leave. Ye Xuan even has no possibility of chasing. There is still a gimmick who doesn't know what it is!

"Would the old man call you Xuan Huangzi, or the fox lord, the Nethery, or the invincible * of war, the Tianzu minority, Changsha Baofeng?"

Just as Ye Xuan was indulging, the war ghosts and ghosts in the distant sky had once again made a sound, and the tone of the tone revealed a strong tone of ridicule: "Oh, it's really amazing. If this heavy news is spread out, I am afraid that the three major planes will be sensational? What kind of pressure will the immortal dynasty face at that time? I think you are more clear than the old man, so..."

This is threatening again!

However, for the pressure that the immortal dynasty will bear, Ye Xuan does not care at all. For this, the two old guys are afraid that they can't think of it anyway.

They don't know that Ye Xuan is not a Xuan prince at all. This identity is only caused by the mistakes.

Of course, the moment has come true. Even the dynasty, although knowing the facts, now basically has pinched his nose and recognized it.

As the words of the war and the old ghosts came out, all the three gimmicks had their eyes wide open. Although Zhao Qianru had not yet appeared, she was bound in the shape of a star in the distance, and she heard the same.

They only know that the Emperor Xuanzi and the Linghu Shaozhu, the Netherland and the invincible God of War, who are still in the practice camp, are Ye Xuan or their avatars. The matter of the Shaozu patriarch of this celestial family was learned at this moment. Shocked.

"Congratulations! All right!"

Ye Xuan shrugged his shoulders and did not intend to deny it. At this moment, his heart completely murdered.

Today, I will leave these two old guys anyway.

At the thought of this, I had to kill two Qiankun abilities in one fell swoop. Ye Xuan's heart suddenly jumped wildly...

Chapter 3588: Too unprofessional

"Bad boy, the old man has no time to work and you grind, and then give you time to think about it. When the interest comes, the old man immediately pinches the girl's head. It is a big deal."

Seeing Ye Xuan fell into sinking, no words, the war and the old ghost once again urged it: "You better think clearly, don't make mistakes!"

"Incorrectly, your sister is wrong..."

Ye Xuan immediately turned his eyes and smacked up unceremoniously. He raised his hand and smothered the old ghost and the eyebrowless ancestors. Then he answered: "I said that you two are too unprofessional. Is it going to be robbed? The hostages are tied and the means are also awkward, but it seems to have forgotten the most important links for a long time now?"

"You two dead old ghosts, even if they want to rob Laozi, they have nothing to say, just to threaten Laozi to think clearly, I think about a hair?"

"Hey!"

As soon as the voice fell, Duanmu Xiaocha couldn't help but laugh out. The other Xuanyuan Ziyan was also straight-eyed, and Zhao Qianru's head on another star was basically the same.

The three gimmicks were all about to hang their hearts in the eyes of the blind. At this moment, I saw that Ye Xuan was so funny at this time. Obviously, she was well-informed. With their understanding of Ye Xuan, I was afraid that these three old guys would soon be Unlucky.

Therefore, they put their hearts down, but they are no longer worried about burning!

"You... cough, what are you worried about? The old man is not saying this?"

The old face of the war is very red, and it's very incomparable. Don't say that what people say is really right. They go to the threat and go forgetting the request they want to mention.

As a looter, the party that was still robbed reminded himself that he should say the conditions. This is really not a shame!

"Bad boy, less nonsense, hurry to throw out the smoke, don't play tricks, if you want to take this opportunity to sacrifice the corpse of the corpse, and start with the old man, hey, you can try it, it is her. The action is fast, or the old man pinches the neck of this girl!"

Also at this time, the eyebrowless ancestor who was reminded of it finally re-voiced again. A dry right hand in the speech was already pinched to the white neck of Xuanyuan Ziyan, but the person turned to look at the war. Old ghost: "Old friend, before saying good, want to smoke to the old man, and I choose first, no problem?"

"Let the girl go! Your dirty hands dare to touch her, and Laozi must have licked your black paws!"

Not waiting for the old ghost to answer, Ye Xuan has been screaming.

Seeing the old guy's black bird claws stagnate in the middle of the way, but his face floated with a touch of irritability, Ye Xuan grinned, and then said: "Isn't it just a smoke? Give it to you, but I tell you, I can give it to you today, and I will be able to get it back from you in the future. You better ask for more happiness!"

The implication is that this is clearly the rhythm of compromise. Not only are the two old guys surprised, but even the three gimmicks of Xuanyuan Ziyang are stunned.

Xuanyuan Zijiang is anxiously dissuading: "Are you fainting? Can you give him a cigarette?"

Indeed, the desire to smoke is not only a waste of ancient treasures, but also the key to the roots of a few ancient creatures, but the horrible cultivation of the half-step star. Once you fall into the hands of Qiankun, a powerful ancestor, there is no wing in it. In the future, Ye Xuan may not want to get it back.

"Dead hoes, then dare nonsense, the old man's arms are tearing you!"

Without the eyebrows, even if they screamed, they turned to look at Ye Xuan, and they laughed and said: "Oh, really, it's a enchanting posture. It's such a time, I dare to talk to the old man, but It doesn't matter, if you have the ability, you can come and pick it up at any time in the future."

"But today, you have to hand it over, don't want to play tricks, the old man will not give you a chance, remember, after erasing the refinement of your gods, throw the treasure again, otherwise, at your own risk !"

For this request, Ye Xuan was expected to come forward, and now sneer, pretending to do something, and then waving his hand will throw the smoke out to the distant void.

At this moment, all the people mentioned their hearts to the eyes of the blind.

Especially in the war, the old ghosts and the old-fashioned ancestors, in the eyes of the two of them, Ye Xuan may not have erased the remarks of refining and purifying, but instead secretly made his hands and feet, so that the ancestors of the smog The drought and flood suddenly shot when Baoluo approached, suppressing the eyebrows.

In fact, even Xuanyuan Ziwei and Duanmu Xiaocha, Zhao Qianru three gimmicks, at this moment are a bit nervous.

After all, strictly speaking, there is really no intimate relationship between them and Ye Xuan. Even Xuanyuan Zijing is the same, Duanmu Xiaocha and Zhao Qianru are not to mention.

To say that Ye Xuan will be arrogant for them, even if there are other treasures in the future, there are still some disbelief in the hearts of the three hoes.

However, the end result was a relief for everyone, and it was completely relieved.

Wanted to smoke, Luo has already spurred to the front, no eyebrows aging his teeth, will be a heart, and finally reached out and took over, and then the gods look up and find that it has indeed been erased the refinement of the gods, This treasure is now no owner, he can refine at any time, the old guy laughed up.

"Ha ha ha..."

"According to your kid's acquaintance, it seems that these three gimmicks are very important to you. This stupid thing does not hesitate to do it. Hey, since ancient times, I have been sentimental and hateful, stinky boy, although you are talented and enchanting, but the love word is off. After all, it will not be a big deal."

During the speech, the ancestors who had no eyebrows had already refining their smog on the spot, and they had already gained income in the body. He was also his move in case of prevention. Now Bao Luo is completely his own.

In the other empty space in the distance, the old ghosts of the war and the gods shook their eyes twice, and the scorpion shot a fascinating smug, but the heartstrings of the original heart were finally loosened.

Among the various treasures in Ye Xuan's hands, only the wreckage of the smoky smog and the singularity of the singularity of the world's main body is most likely to be used by him, and the possibility of smoking is at least 80%. Far above the wreckage of Jinwu, the realm of the border.

Now it seems that since the smog can be easily handed over as required, the wreckage of the one-legged Jinwu can basically be ruled out.

After all, once the wreckage is sacrificed, its pressure can be uncontrollable. It can hurt the war and the brooding ancestors, and the three gimmicks can't escape, and die faster.

Don't say that they are now banned, and even if they don't, they can't hold back the pressure of the lord of the kingdom, and they have to smash on the spot...

"Bad boy, now it's my turn to be an old man!"

Seeing that the smoke was burned by the eyebrows, the old ghosts were a little anxious, and immediately put forward their own requirements: "The medicine Wang Ding is the object of my empire, and now it is the original owner! Immediately Take it out, don't forget, the brand of refining and chemicalization must be erased together..."

Chapter 3589: What do you want?

"Even if I erased the brand of refining, do you have the ability to refine it?"

Ye Xuan sneered, after a few squats, he took out a space treasure box from the immortal world in the hand, and waved it, but the mouth was not as ridiculous as it used to be: "The brand of refining has been erased, and then sent by the way. You have a huge space for the top storage treasure box, but you'd better not open it, otherwise the drug-free Wang Ding will instantly manifest the ontology and turn into a star giant, when you can't take it, let alone I!"

The fact is also true. At the beginning, Shennong Ding stayed in the emptiness of the secret world, and there were many great people who tried to refine or take away, but no one succeeded.

Now Ye Xuan deliberately like this, thinking so thoughtfully, is also to confuse these two old guys, so that they think they are completely grasped.

In fact, Shennong Ding also re-refined once again with the primary mutated slaving skills, and this time it was only Shennong Ding. For the Shennong, which is unknown to the outside world, Ye Xuan remains in his hands.

"Hey! This will not bother you, and the old man has its own way to refine it!"

The old ghosts of the war-torn were sinking in the face of the cold, and they took over the space treasure box that came from the screaming. The knowledge of the gods extended and inspected it. It was confirmed that the treasure box was indeed the medicine Wang Ding, and the brand of refining. After being erased, his suspended heart fell completely.

After turning over the space treasure box into the body, the old guy turned to the other side of the empty air of the eyebrows ancestors looked over, grinning: "Old friends, refining this drug Wang Ding, back to rely on You help me."

"However, at the moment you have a ridiculous treasure that can be refining and used on the spot. The old man can only get it first. If so, then the old man should choose first?"

The eyebrows and ancestors frowned slightly, but they didn't say anything. After a little hesitation, they nodded and they should be accepted.

He didn't see it, but the three gimmicks didn't do it. In addition to being completely restrained, there was no way to pass the words. They could only listen anxiously to all these developments. Zhao Qianru, Xuanyuan Zijing and Duanmu Tea were all gimmicks. Drunk up.

"War, the old ghosts, you are also a great power, can you point to Bilian? Is it not enough to smash a treasure? It's really a lack of people, and you are careful to kill you!"

"Playing is playing, it's just too shameless. It's a bottomless pit. You are going away, don't worry about us, or you will be hollowed out in the end. Do you think they will let you go? If you don't leave, we will immediately Explode..."

I really didn't see it. Although it was a little bit strange, but the character was actually quite weak, Duanmu tea, but it was so fierce at the moment, there was a mad smell in the body of the speech, her The ability to blast is not completely banned.

This can scare the warlord and the old ghosts on the side. If the girl really wants to blew himself up, he will not be able to take it away, but then he will be able to get all the things he wants.

This kind of opportunity is really rare, neither he nor his eyebrows do not want to miss it easily.

Then, under the urgency of the heart, the old ghosts on the spot slap on the spot, the anxious color of the face, carefully lost the words: "Short oil my aunt, don't be impulsive? Stay in the green hills I am not afraid of not burning wood. The old man can make a vow to empty the treasures of the kid, and never hurt you and his life. Is this always ok?"

"Right right, the old man is the same, just make a vow, just take the kid out and let you go, or the heart will collapse, and thunder!"

Although he was unwilling, because he was originally planning to kill Ye Xuan in the end, he also had to take away the three gimmicks.

But now the situation is so, I have to give up. If I don't make a vow, the various treasures and creations in the back can be drowned, and I have no choice...

Seeing that both of them had made the oath, the madness of Duanmu Xiaocha's body suddenly stagnate, and she hesitated. If it really ensures the survival of this robbery, it is not unacceptable. After all, people say It's also true, staying in the green hills, not afraid of no firewood!

"Oh, the robbery is like you, and you are all pleased to call the hostage aunt, and Laozi is really seeing it for the first time, except for the two of you who are estimated to be..."

It was also at this time that Ye Xuan's sarcasm was once again rumored, and sneered: "Since even the two treasures of the smog and the medicine Wang Ding are readily handed over, today's business, Laozi will completely quit. As long as you dare to ask, the treasures in Laozi's hands can be taken away, but I am still saying that today I have the power to give it to you. In the future, I will be able to take it back again. You can get it steady..."

"In addition, I always take people out of the house constantly. It doesn't seem to be very kind. You all have a wild treasure, is it worth it?"

This is clearly the rhythm of what is meant to be given, but if I want to give it, the hostages in your hands may not always be so pinched!

The two old guys heard this meaning, and looked at each other through the distant void. Then, the old ghosts sneered at the war: "The old man has already made a vow, and you still have nothing to worry about." Hey, this way, we two people pick another treasure, and then put a * back, this is no problem?"

Ye Xuan once again sneered: "Let's say, what do you think of this time? Anyway, it only temporarily falls into your hands. I don't have anything to give up. I don't care what I want, it doesn't matter!"

"Ha ha ha... With this enthusiasm, the old man will not be convinced!"

Seeing Ye Xuan's jaws agreed, and the old ghosts were loose. When they laughed, they suddenly answered: "Do you still have a small private battleship in the hands of the treasure? There is a ship-based array. The one that kills the system, anyway, you have the mechanical integration ability of the celestial family. This small warship is estimated to be useless, so..."

"It's still the old rules, erasing the refining and imprinting, and then handing it over to the old man, don't play tricks!"

"Well, isn't it a small private warship? Give it to you, and you can go back and make another one, as you wish."

Ye Xuan gritted his teeth, and once he spoke again, he began to toss up and erased the refining and imprinting.

Seeing this scene, the war and the old ghosts and the eyebrows and ancestors were completely relieved. The two men smiled again and filled with joy.

Duanmu Xiaocha was crying with a tear in his nose, and turned to look at the Xuanyuan Ziyang in the distance. He said with tears: "Hey... Lunjia is so moved, Ziyang sister, you can tolerate Is tea a small one? I must marry him. For a man who is such a good tea, within the three planes, there is no longer a second one with a lantern..."

Chapter 3590: Insufficient snakes

"Ha ha ha..."

"The old man suddenly understood a bit. It's no wonder that your kid is so generous. Is it for this for a long time?"

The words of Duanmu Xiaocha just fell, and the old-fashioned ancestor laughed up. There was a lot of ridicule in the discourse: "Oh, great, it is a passionate seed, just throw a little treasure, you can simultaneously The seizure of the hearts of three beautiful women, this sale is a matter of opinion, others feel that you are losing, maybe your kid is still stealing, I feel that I am making a big profit."

"Yes, now the old man is more and more appreciative of you!"

On the other side, the war-torn ghosts also took over the words and looked at Ye Xuan with a smile: "This kind of passionate and affectionate person is now rare, and it is rare to meet one. Can the husband and wife not succeed? If you don't talk nonsense, you will hand over the treasure ship! After the incident, the old man and the two will go away immediately. You can also get a dragon and three phoenixes early, and enjoy your Qi people's blessing!"

After listening to this discourse, the original tearful Duanmu tea immediately stopped crying, and the whole face was red to the neck root, including the Xuanyuan Zixiao who bite the lower lip and still did not show up, but heard all this. Zhao Qianru, the same is true.

The three gimmicks, all of them shy, have no words at all.

At the moment, Ye Xuan has already waved a space treasure box and rushed out to the war.

This time, no matter whether it is a war ghost or an old-fashioned ancestor, the two are no longer worried. They simply don't think Ye Xuan will play tricks again.

The latter is more eager to speak out, and provokes the second treasure that belongs to him: "Now it is the turn of the old man, the stinky boy, and hand over the cross-star to the treasure-level armor that can change the form, the old man. Very interested!"

At the same time, the space treasure box that rushed to the war and the old ghosts was finally caught by him, pinched in his hands, and his knowledge was inspected inward. After he was sure, he raised his head and laughed. It's up: "Ha ha ha..."

"Yes, if you are small, be honest, and quickly hand over the armor to an old friend who has no eyebrows. Just said good, and then let the old man choose one of the treasures, then put a * back and hand over the armor. The old man's hand, who just cried and shouted that he had to marry you, will soon be able to reunite with you."

"Boy, Yan Fu is really not shallow, hehe..."

Ye Xuan didn't pay attention to it, and it was tossed again, and then he threw the space box with the glass glazed. Of course, it has already been retouched with the primary variation. Ye Xuan is always ready. Can be recovered and motivated by the air!

The eyebrows of the eyebrows will take the vacant space box to their hands, and immediately eagerly extend the knowledge into it. After checking it out, they laughed with their heads and made a noise to the opposite side. The old warlord in the war said: "Old friend, this kid seems to be completely honest. If so, let him taste some sweetness first. After all, the old man is a powerful man, and he has a word of fat and fat?"

"However, the second round is the first round that you pick, and after the person has handed in, the old man can do it."

When I heard this, the three gimmicks were too angry to be alive. If you dare to be a hostage, you have to let them separate two treasures from Ye Xuan. If this is the case, all three will be handed over. Ye Xuan is not In total, I have to give them six treasures per person?

Even with Ye Xuan's horror, I'm afraid that it's going to be hollowed out. There are so many treasures in his hands, and he can't stand the madness of madness. For others, even if it's a great power, you can have it in your hands. How many treasures?

It can be said that the vast majority of Qiankun can have a good one, and many of the great powers even have no treasures, or starry treasures!

However, Ye Xuan seems to have already accepted his life. Even if the three gimmicks hate to gnash their teeth, there is nothing to be done. Plus, they still hold the last hope in their hearts. That is, Ye Xuan does this, he must have him. Reasonable, with his past enchanting means, this time must have a backhand.

Therefore, the three gimmicks gnashed their teeth, but they did not say anything more. They even clamored for the interest of two greedy old monsters.

"Bad boy, you are creditworthy, the old man and the two will naturally not marry you, pick up, your little lover will come soon!"

"Ha ha ha..."

Looking up and laughing, the old man of the war and the singer's hand went to the side of the side of the wooden tea to take a shot, and immediately lifted the prohibition in her body, and then the sleeves slammed, the latter's figure was immediately uncontrollable. The soft and strong wraps of the stocks flew over to Ye Xuan.

Soon it has arrived!

Ye Xuan waved, unloading the other side's strength, and holding the shape of Duanmu Xiaocha, and fell on the side.

"Sorry, this time, we are in a big disaster..."

When the figure just fell, the scorpion's eyelids immediately became red, and the rhythm of tears could be wiped at any time.

Ye Xuan is also speechless. He shakes his head and smiles softly. He said, "Nothing. Didn't I just say it? All the things that were taken by them were only temporarily kept for safekeeping, and they had an addiction. In the future, there will be I will be taken back all day."

Having said that, Ye Xuanzhen's fine mans flashed: "And it's a good thing!"

It is naturally impossible for him to say that in the future, it is actually the moment when all three gimmicks are all out of trouble.

If you really want to say that, even if the war ghosts and the old-fashioned ancestors think that he is just bragging, but how much will always be vigilant, then it is not good!

It's just that Duanmu Xiaocha believes in Ye Xuan very much. When Shantou holds his fist and cheers on him: "Well, Xiaocha believes in you, no matter what, let's take the sister-in-law and Qianru's sister, then Immediately shot, smothered these two shameless old ghosts, and even took back all the treasures that they had taken away!"

I have to say that this gimmick is really the truth. The words that come out of the mouth are exactly what Ye Xuan's plans and thoughts are, so that the latter is not a bit creepy.

I said Missy, is this a top secret action plan? Just say it in front of the enemy, is there really no problem?

However, what he did not expect was that the more this happened, the more unbelief the war ghosts and the old-fashioned ancestors, the more the words of Duanmu Xiaocha had just fallen, and the two were teased and laughed. .

"Bad boy, this time it is the turn of the old man to choose first, immediately hand over your prospects to the treasure warrior, and later, he is the old man."

"Oh, in this case, the old man will have the genetic fluid formula and the well-prepared genetic fluid in your hand. Don't want to play tricks. Before you were in the sky, you have already made 12 grades. Now let's put The formulas and finished products of the nine to twelve grades are all handed over..."

In the blink of an eye, the two old ghosts who just released a hostage have opened their mouths and put forward new demands to Ye Xuan without any pressure. In the face of all this, Ye Xuan sneered, but his heart's killing intention is even stronger.

It's true that there are two sentences that are not enough. The wages of avarice is death.....
