

Super D. S 3721

Chapter 3721: For a round of ingredients

In two days, Ye Xuan also had a comprehensive understanding of the situation of this group of indigenous beasts in the core hinterland of the evil.

On that day, he entered the core hinterland for the first time with the image of the three-headed, six-armed konjac. The tens of thousands of indigenous beasts that he saw were not all, but they were almost the same.

At that time, the tens of thousands of large army of the second universe invaded the deep core of the hinterland. Under the call of the two lord of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, the deep core area of the entire core hinterland was not only some indigenous beasts that were closing the breakthrough. Others who have been able to pull out are almost already out of the nest!

In general, the core of the evil roots of today's evil roots, although the total number of indigenous beasts is more than 10 million, but it has not reached 20 million, about 15.6 million heads!

More than a hundred star owners!

Qiankun can be more than a thousand!

The rest are all indigenous beasts that have been cultivated below Qiankun.

As for the masters of the Star Masters, in addition to the rare and rare lords of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo Turtle, there are two deep in the core hinterland, which is also the domain owner.

However, it is the ninth-order grand reunion of the domain's main territory. Nowadays, it is hitting the realm of the border, and it has not appeared for some years.

The real beasts of the indigenous kingdoms, the core hinterland of the current source of evil, simply do not.

Once there was a one-on-one, it was a black-blooded black dragon, the generation far surpassed the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, saying that he is the only hegemon of the core hinterland of this evil source, and it is no exaggeration.

Because the blood-stained black dragon was already the ninth-order great perfection of the world before the age of 10,000 years.

At that time, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise had just broken through to the domain.

Soon after, after a retreat of nearly a thousand years, the black blood dragon successfully broke through to the universe. Then, in order to explore the secret of the furnace, he entered the furnace... because the evil spirits in the core hinterland The high-rises of the beasts have already tried many times, even if they are strong in the main position, they can only get close to the mouth of the furnace, but they can't go deep.

To truly enter the furnace, only break through to the universe!

Unexpectedly, the black blood dragon with the hope of all the indigenous beasts in the core hinterland entered the interior of the furnace, but since then, it has completely lost the news and never came out.

Originally, all the indigenous beasts in the core hinterland of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise have a strong curiosity about this huge furnace like a star.

They can feel a clear sense of intimacy from the oven, but they don't know what its specific role is, and they don't know the truth.

The only thing that can be seen is that from time to time, there will be a ruin of the ruins of the realm of the lord of the realm of the lord of the realm of the lord of the lord

Since the disappearance of the black blood dragon into the furnace, the most powerful wild creature in the core hinterland of the evil source is the Taikoo Porcupine, the Taikoo tortoise and the other two.

Their only wish is to break through to the universe as soon as possible. In that case, they can enter the furnace and explore its situation like a black blood dragon.

It is a pity that it is still far away. The Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise are only the seventh-order master of the domain. The other two kings of the indigenous beasts, although they are the ninth-order consummation of the domain, have already broken through. .

But even if they succeed in breaking through, they will only be in the first step of the world. The minimum strength required to step into the furnace is the first step in the world, and it is still a whole big world...

After clearing these circumstances, Ye Xuanqi almost swearing on the spot, of course, what is the **** black dragon that died!

He entered the furnace and knew the situation inside, and now vaguely guessed the standards and requirements for raw materials in flesh and blood when the furnace was used to condense the evil source.

The universe is obviously the bottom line. This is not difficult to guess, because even the ruins of the ancient ruins of the borders are used as garbage wastes.

Poorly the **** black dragon, finally walked to this height on the road of evolution of life, became a horrible cosmic powerhouse, but in the end it fell so far, and climbed into the furnace, he was The huge grinding disc, with a lot of ruins and ruins, was ground into a colorful meat...

More irritating is the king of the indigenous beasts, including the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, and the other two domains. It is still ignorant to think of the footsteps of the **** black dragon.

It is a pity that everything can't be said, which makes Ye Xuan feel extremely angry.

Fortunately, the four indigenous beasts of the beasts are still a long way from the universe. Ye Xuan is not awkward, but at least for a short time, there is no need to worry that they are like the black-headed black dragon, stupidly white. Send it to death!

"The two days outside are not the usual excitement!"

Aside from these thoughts, Ye Xuan turned to the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise: "I quietly went out and looked at it. In addition to the fleet of the second universe of all the various nationalities, the first universe of the indigenous people. It's all over, and there's the third universe..."

In the past two days, Ye Xuan learned about the situation in the core hinterland of the source of evil by the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise. At the same time, he and his Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo tortoise, who are brothers and sisters, also learned from Ye Xuan that they are outside the star of the evil. Happening.

They have hardly left the source of the evil, and have not been in contact with the outside world, and there is no star network, so all of this has not been known before.

Even if you don't know that there are three large stable cosmic planes in the world today, the source of the evil is only a small piece of the central domain of the first universe.

Of course, that's just before. Now, after Ye Xuan's commentary, for the outside world, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, including the one hundred stars in the core hinterland, all have a rough outline. Cognitive.

"As far as I know, the guys outside, except the people from the third universe, are not good at eating, meat smells, and there are other special ethnic groups in the **** ants, because there is no meat at all, there is no way to talk... .."

"Others, all of which are top-quality ingredients, such as the space mouse of one of the three major ethnic groups in the first universe. Oh, the meat can be called a tender one. After washing and stripping, take a fire and roast it. Absolutely human. delicious!"

As said, Ye Xuan himself began to drool, and the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise on the side were even more straight-eyed. Before that, the remains of the main color of the field, they did not listen to the small hairs in front of them. So exaggerated, is this the Nether Mouse really so delicious?

Seeing that the fire was almost the same, Ye Xuan waved his hand: "For the sake of the ingredients, Benedict decided to take the support and go out for a lap..."

Chapter 3722: Indigenous Prince

"Hey!"

"squeak....."

For the ingredients?

Hearing this sentence, Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo Maogui suddenly got excited, and excitedly looked up and squatted. Not far from the hundreds of stars, the old monsters and Qiankun's powers were all very excited. Chicken blood, screaming!

"But the pig brother and the tortoise brother, don't go, the level is too high, you only need to sit in the back of the town, it is enough to deter them. Otherwise, you really have to go out for a circle, it is estimated that the outside is running out, it can be It's broken!"

Although this is basically the big truth, but Ye Xuan is somewhat touted. The Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise are so comfortable that they only feel that this little donkey is too sensible, juvenile, considerate, and will be amazing. The barbecue craft, this time is really a treasure!

For Ye Xuan's suggestion, Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo Turtle are also deeply convinced. However, even if this time just went out to spy on intelligence, it is not a direct war, but the cultivation of Xiaomao is really too weak.

Do not let him bring a team of guards out, there is no guarantee in terms of safety, it is difficult to reassure people!

"You set up a escort, not too many people, twenty will do!"

"Yes, remember to keep up with the little donkey, don't let him have any mistakes, otherwise no one will give Benhao a barbecue, and the pig will bake you..."

During the talk, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise turned to the side of the star-studded lord and the mighty power. The final sight fell on the main monster of the hundred-star star. Not weak, but they still feel less secure.

After all, the outer central buffer zone, and the **** seat of a domain domain, although the courage is small, but the domain owner is the domain owner, there is no 20,000 escorted by the indigenous beasts. Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo tortoise, my heart is really bottomless!

After a short period of time, the squad of the Aboriginal savage beasts, which were cultivated by the Twenty Stars, was built into a large body. It seemed to be extraordinary, and the breath of exhalation in the body was even more amazing.

Soon, Ye Xuan jumped up to a body shape and controlled it on the back of the Jingjia Dilong. After a big hand wave, Jingjia Dilong looked up and slammed into the front. The dividing line.

At the rear, another 19 different indigenous savage squads are closely followed, all of which are star-studded and eccentric, and the lineup can be described as luxurious to horrible...

The source of all evil, the central domain buffer zone!

The other two star owners of Mo's and the devil's royal family have already changed their appearance. Although they are still human, the spiritual power unique to the devil has been concealed. Today's Mo's grandfather seems to be A rough-style human race is scattered.

The two devils on the side of the body are also the same, and they are not so cold. This is the three strong masters of the stars from the Terran, and they invite each other to join forces to compete for the creation.

At this moment, the three people of Mo Taiye were in the void, sitting cross-legged, among the three were a small table, with spirits and spirits, so that a leisurely and leisurely leisure.

Although there are not many people, only three strong stars, but after all, are all star owners, and there is also a star in the ninth order of the main consummate, that is, half-step domain master.

In this buffer zone of the central area, there is only the domain lord of the second universe who is from the **** tribe, and is better than him.

Of course, in addition to the other families, the forces of the major forces, there are also a few half-step domain lords who are on an equal footing with Mo Taiye.

Although the number of people is small, it is simply inconspicuous, but because there is a half-step domain owner, the corner of the three people's corners is still quite empty. From time to time, other powerful forces will cast their sights and are full of taboos. Privately guess the background of the origins of these three stars.

But no one, dare to come over and harass.

It was also at this time that the forces in front of the front had been squinting, and the direction of the core hinterland of the closely watched, suddenly there was an earth-shattering roaring sound. Then, a lineup of luxury to the eye-catching patrol team appeared!

A Jingjiao dragon, with a body-shaped shape, rushes out of the core hinterland boundary line and appears in the sight of countless powerful forces in the buffer zone of the central area.

This Jingjiao Dilong is clearly the existence of the nine-order grand perfection of the star master, that is, the half-step domain master.

The existence of this level, even in the numerous fleets that have gathered the forces of the three major cosmic planes, can't make up ten, and it will naturally attract people's attention.

What is even more shocking is that there are still 19 other indigenous beasts with different body types behind the Jingjia Dilong in the main body of this half-step field. Without exception, they are all star owners.

Such a luxurious camp can scare people to death, and a large number of star-studded powerhouses in countless battleships are almost instantly shocked.

Then, in the fleet of the various universes of the Second Universe, there was a scream of unspeakable meaning...

"Behold, the half-step domain of the main Jingjiadi dragon on the back of the ridge... God, it is actually the little konjac, killing the black hand of the singer of the singer!"

"Is it still alive? The **** ancestors of the **** family did not immediately attack the past... Didn't they kill it?"

"The situation is a bit wrong. This little black konjac is not only alive, but now it is a high-profile patrol. There is a hint of demonstration. Are the indigenous beasts in the core hinterland taking action?"

"These are not the key, the key is the origin of this little konjac... The whole twenty-star lord is accompanied by his patrol. It is clearly the meaning of the guard. He is stepped under his feet as a mount. It is actually a head. Jingjia Dilong in the half-step domain, this is going against the sky!"

"Yes, the information revealed is too amazing. It is only the perfection of the nine-step grandeur of the Zhouguang, but even the half-step domain owner is ridiculed for its mount. How horrible is the identity of this little konjac? Is it the Prince of the Orcs? If so, what is the realm behind the little konjac?"

"God, the world... the main level exists? This is simply incredible!"

As the exclamation of this road sounded, the domain lord of the Bloody Fleet's flagship fortress was hollowed out, and it was a big open mouth. At this moment, even he was a little scared.

After a brief embarrassment, I actually took a sigh of cold air and muttered to myself: "Is the half-step domain owner smashed into his mount? Is there a horoscope of twenty star owners acting as a guard? This little monkey scorpion is really scary..."

At the same time, Master Mo and the other two demons of the devil's group are completely stupid.

They suddenly recalled the words that Ye Xuan had previously confessed to them: the one with three heads and six arms is me!

"Is that the kid? But... is this possible?"

Mrs. Mo's face was dull and turned to look at the two star owners next to him. The whole brain was completely chaotic...

Chapter 3723: The seventh demon enchantress

"What? Is this a black-handed sneak attack that kills the existence of the singularity of the Cailu nationality? It is only a matter of the cultivation of the celestial world, it is just a joke..."

"What's wrong with the cultivation of the fourteenth world? What happened to the black-handed sneak attack? You have the ability to call a fifteenth big world, and use a sneak attack to kill a domain owner to look at it. Being abused on the spot!"

"Yes, it is a fact that the lords of the Caishao nationality are being killed. This Taikoo konjac has already succeeded against the sky!"

"The enchanting! This is definitely a fascinating singer, so that in the early childhood, it has killed a supreme domain lord, and it is too daring. With its three-headed and six-armed sacred blood, once it grows up, it is destined to be born. Leading the storm!"

"Is the seventh deity of the world today? It was born in the indigenous beasts of all evils, but people are deserved to be famous. After all, even if the fox is less lord and less secluded, it has never been killed. The domain master, even the things that Qiang Kun could not think about, was completed by a younger beast..."

As the exclamations of the Second Universe and the Allied Forces sounded, the strong among the various forces in the emptiness of the universe knew the eccentricity of the Cailu nationality, but it was the Taikoo konjac that was now high-profile. The hand of the cub suddenly screamed.

Some people even lamented their military exploits, and identified the Taikoo konjac cub, which Ye Xuan counterfeited, as the seventh enchanting genius.

The exclamation was introduced into Ye Xuan's ear, and suddenly he let him straighten his eyes. He found that the word enchanting seems to have been glued to him, and he couldn't get rid of it. This just changed his identity and actually made it out today. The seventh deities are enchanting, and the embarrassing life does not need to be explained!

Not only his own stinky fart, but also the feeling of even the three stars of the devil's group, all of which are at the moment.

After the initial shock and unbelievable, the three Masters are basically accepting this fact.

Especially when the words of the seventh mortal mortal in the world came out, they were even more determined, because others did not know, but they knew that the previous six enchanting geniuses were all the one, no reason. The seventh person who just appeared, is next to people!

"This time, the old man is also completely dressed!"

Mrs. Mo was full of bitterness, shaking his head and sighing, screaming with a voice that only he could hear: "The three-headed and six-armed konjac is really alive, and actually mixed up with an indigenous beast, the prince, and there are two Ten stars are lord guards, this hand... oh, dissatisfaction will not work!"

On the side, the other two demons of the demon group turned their heads and looked at each other. The face looked strange and followed with a sigh.

At this time, with the arrival of Ye Xuan, the central domain buffers with countless stars and stars in the size of the forces, all the sights have gathered into the camp of the luxury out of the patrol team, with a strong sense of vigilance.

After all, that is the twenty stars of the Lord!

"Oh, see no, that is the fleet of the Nether Mouse, the battleships and the fortress, and the fortress is engraved with a huge black rat, very good!"

Ye Xuan raised his finger to the corner of the void in front of the right side. He did not lower the sound at all, and the words in his mouth made the strong people in the various forces around the virtual air all listen to one truth.

"Believe me, this kind of rat meat is definitely better than the meat. The latter is still rough. The meat of the Nether Mouse is different, delicate and sweet, absolutely delicious, but it takes a little bit of thought when washing and peeling. A little bit of rubbing residue, it is really disgusting, after all, it is a mouse..."

"puff!"

Without waiting for this to say, in the fleet of the Nether Rats, there was a loud spurt of old blood.

In just one or two sentences, the three-headed and six-armed Taikoo konjac let an entire ethnic group remember it. Don't look at him is not small, but the words spoken are not ordinary poison.

Too much people hate it!

The Nether Rats are no longer the top three survivors of the first cosmic servant group, and they are the same as the Devil and the Hell ants, but nowadays, they are said to be in the face of almost all the major forces of the three major planes, saying that the meat is delicate. Sweet is nothing, even if they are not clean.

This is just a face-lifting, it is just to call your face on the ground, stepping on the ground!

I didn't wait for the sound of a large piece of blood in the fleet of the Nether Mouse, and the three-armed and six-armed Taikoo konjac raised his hand and pointed it to the other direction. The words in his mouth continued to be hateful to the roots. .

"As for the other side, hey, that is the group of heroes who have engraved a huge black ant on the battleship. It is a **** ant."

"Hell ants are not a thing like this. The black shell is hard. There are some grayish and nausea in the inside. If you use fried food, you may still be able to make it a crack. !"

"It's definitely not good to eat it, it's not a few meats, the price is too low, it's just awkward..."

Sure enough, in a ship of the Hell ant fleet, a large number of molars were heard immediately. The star of the family came to the **** and the black ants were almost unable to hold back. They wanted to rush out and the head. The little scorpion who hates people is desperate.

It's a pity that it's finally stunned. The lineup of people is too luxurious. There are a total of twenty stars and lords. There is also a half-step domain owner who is a nine-step grand perfection. If he really rushes out, he is afraid to be on the spot. Being suppressed, dying!

Immediately afterwards, the teeth of the Hell Mosquito fleet were not lost, and the enchanting Taikoo Little Konjac changed hands and pointed to the void direction of the Second Universe.

"Hey, there is the fleet of the Second Universe's allied forces. Old acquaintances, we have all baked a lot before. However, some ethnic groups have not yet tasted it. Go back and find a way to get a little more. , stewed together!"

During the talk, the Taikoo little konjac whispered and began to talk and introduced: "The second universe has a top ten rankings. The top ten ethnic groups are so bloody, so the flesh and blood are basically more valuable than other ethnic groups. Be taller..."

"The first three tribes of the bloody, Qingpeng and warriors are the most!"

"Of course, the beef scorpion meat is also very good, tendons, chewing. Gold Eagle and Choi are also okay, but the silver scorpion and the greedy wolf can not shut down, the family When the strong man is killed, he can only throw it as garbage. The former is a bird and eats nausea. The latter is suspected to be a close relative of the weasels. The meat is not stinky or sour..."

"There is also a tree spirit and a turtle family. The turtle family does not have to say it. The millennial king 80,000-year-old turtle, this family is old antiques, the meat is too old, certainly not good, as for the tree spirit..."

"That is all the plants of some long melons and melons. If you like vegetarians, this family is a good choice, otherwise you can only throw them..."

Chapter 3724: Greedy wolf

"Hey..."

Ye Xuan's words have not been finished yet. From the flagship fortress of the Greedy Wolf Fleet, there is a sudden angry voice!

In the meantime, there is a vague distraction of the power of Qiankun. Obviously, this is the great power of the fifteenth world of the clan.

This is indeed the case. Although there are not many ethnic groups that have been discussed by Ye Xuan at this time, the top ten ethnic groups in the second universe are not spared, including even the future tortoises.

However, compared with other ethnic groups, the greedy wolf was originally temperamental, and Ye Xuan was suspected to be a close relative of the weasel. The meat is not stinky or sour... This kind of discourse, the greedy wolf strong is not the first. I heard it.

The original fox lord once humiliated the greedy wolf, and also killed the minority of the family!

These humiliating humiliations, this time actually reappeared, with the violent temperament of the greedy wolf, obviously can not hold this sulking, although the star lord of the family fleet has not snorted, but the savage wolf with the fleet is strong, but I couldn't help but screamed and roared!

"Little monkey scorpion, you are holding a group of star owners and grotesque support, what kind of arrogance can you count? The blood of the enchanted konjac is so despicable? I am also a younger generation of the greedy wolf, dare to fight. No? It must be suppressed!"

"Hey..."

As the voice of the voice sounded, a figure rushed out of the flagship fortress of the greedy wolf fleet, suspended in the void before the fortress, the first time it activated the blood in the body, manifesting the bleeding pulse.

This is a very sturdy figure, the body is bloody, there is no savage wolf, the fierce flames, the arrogance, screaming toward the sky.

"Wolf is strong? The way of the greedy wolf?"

"Sure enough, although younger generations, but the realm of cultivation is not weaker than some ethnic groups of the family, stepping into the fifteenth world!"

Among the three major planes, the younger generation can have the existence of Qiankun's great ability. It is estimated that it is the Tao of all ethnic groups. It is cultivated by snow and will not be born easily. I didn't expect the greedy wolf to be dispatched. The Taoist!"

"So young and powerful, I am afraid that even at the level of talent, it is not weaker than the seven deities of the world, such as Xuan Huangzi and Linghu Shaozhu."

"It is not like saying that the various ethnic groups are cultivated by the family of snow for many years. Although they have been cultivated as a realm, they have been fascinated by the seven emperors, such as the Emperor and the Linghu. But the latter is based on their own strength. The name of the enchanting, in my opinion, if it is about talent, it is not comparable to all ethnic groups..."

"There is no point in arguing about these things, because everything will soon be revealed. Is there a Taoist and a enchanting singer present in front of me? It seems that there will be a big battle. After this war, it is the Taoist who have cultivated the various families for many years. One foot, or one of today's seven enchanting enchanting devils, it's immediately known..."

Hearing the voice of these arguments, the domain lord of the **** clan fleet flagship fortress smashed into the air, and his face flashed his mind, muttering to himself: "This is a chance..."

"Now it seems that this little magic scorpion must be the youngest son of a sacred lord in the core hinterland. Otherwise, how can there be twenty star lords guards in travel? Even the Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo The two main lords of the turtles are jealous of him?"

"In addition, seeing that he is only able to cultivate the universe, he can be rampant in the star of the evil. It is very likely that there is only one person in the core hinterland in front of him. Otherwise, his younger son will not As for this."

"In this way, if you can squat this little scorpion, so that the sacred konjac of the lord of the world will be able to take the initiative, I will be able to completely grasp the initiative. After all, this level of existence will be born. A descendant is a difficult task. Seeing that he sent a 20-star lord to guard his younger child, it is extremely important..."

Speaking of this, even if the old ghosts are excited, they secretly rushed out of the flagship fortress of the greedy wolf, and they are showing the bleeding pulse, and the wolf is arrogantly screaming at the opposite side: "Wolf is strong, I am a scorpion." Empty, this sub-identity is extremely sensitive, I can't wait for the older generation, otherwise it will be harder to seize..."

"This task will be handed over to you, continue to speak with words, ask the peers to fight, at all costs, to seize it! As long as this child is controlled, the old man will take the initiative in the first time!"

When the wolf was strong and stunned, he vaguely guessed the meaning of hollowing out. If the true konjac could be taken down, then the second cosmic coalition would once again enter the core hinterland in front and gain its inner creation. The wolf is strong and will be the first!

In addition to this, the wolf's strong heart, in addition to the previous anger, has a greed and grows out, fearing that the little konjac in the opposite side of the sky should not fight, screaming more powerful: "Hey! Little monkey scorpion, afraid? If you are afraid, roll back and go to your mother to drink milk. This kind of starry battlefield is not where you should come, hehe..."

This is no longer a scream, it is clearly a humiliation, and the twenty-star star-class indigenous beasts that are guarded by Ye Xuan's figure are instantly full of anger, and several of them will immediately rush out.

"Slow! People call themselves younger generations, can I wait for you to bully?"

Without waiting for these stars to rush out, Ye Xuan sneered and plucked forward to sneak forward: "But it is a squirrel of the squirrel, and Benedict can kill it!"

"Roar!"

When the words fell, Ye Xuan had already reached the front of the void battlefield. Although the body shape was much stronger than the wolf, the blood of the cowardly wolf was too small, only ten feet, but no fear, the three bodies The body of flesh and blood is facing the side, waving the furry arm, and punching it out!

"Whoever is who you are, you will soon realize it!"

"Hey..."

The wolf just sneered, his body shape did not move, and he once again raised his hair and shouted, no anger, no slightest emotional color, but it looked even longer, with some kind of mysterious rhythm in it, it made people feel shocked, saying It doesn't matter what it is.

A weird scene soon appeared.

With the wolf's strong and long wolf's voice always resounding, the sky of the source of the evils in the central area of the buffer zone slowly appeared a silver moon, shocking the audience.

Obviously, this strange moon is related to the strong wolf, but it is the summoning of the secret voice of the wolf that he has pulled out at the moment!

Ye Xuanzhen in the fine mans flash: "Greek wolf?"

In a similar scene, he has not seen it for the first time. Before the battle of Shennong Ding's Ding Nei space, Ye Xuan had taught him in the wolf of the greedy wolf.

Obviously, the so-called sacred wolf Taoist priests are still far above the minority patriarchs.

The majority of the major ethnic groups are all the same. The patriarchs and the young patriarchs are the existence of a group of people standing on the bright side, managing the affairs of the entire ethnic group...

Chapter 3725: a stick knocking

But in fact, any ethnic group has a blood system that is hidden in the dark, that is, a path of the Tao, they are the true root of the blood circulation of the entire ethnic group!

For this reason, the wolf's strong cultivation is based on the young and the savage wolf, and it is understandable that although the two are the best of the younger generations of the greedy wolf, the savage wolf's cultivation resources are obviously More than a few patriarchs, the wolf is strong.

It can be said that for any ethnic group, the young patriarchs can be abolished, but the Taoist is absolutely not allowed to lose, and it is too difficult to cultivate.

At this time, the wolf is indeed strong and shows the talent strength far beyond the wolf's staunch. The same greedy wolf whistling the magical power, from his hands, the power is obviously more than the wolf.

The greedy wolf whistling the moon is the ancient magical power passed down by the blood of the greedy wolf family, but not every greedy wolf tribe can awaken, and sometimes no one of the several generations can awaken and be normal! "

The moon in the sky is not really a moon-shaped entity, but a projection of the magical power. It has a mysterious power. It is said that in the place where the glory of this bright moon can shine, all the energy will be displayed by this strange power. For the sake of seeking, free to swallow, drive!

"As a result, the greedy wolf people who have this kind of blood and magical powers are in an invincible position. He is like a real greedy Sirius. In the battle, he can endlessly consume and greedily plunder. Everything under the bright moon shines, including its opponents!

Previously, in the internal space of Shennong Ding and the gangsters of the second generation of the second universe, Ye Xuan was quite moved by the savage wolf of the wolf.

This kind of magical technique that can devour energy for itself in a continuous, continuous, and extensive manner in battle does have some anti-days. As long as the power of the gods exists, the energy source will continue to receive energy supplements. The land of defeat has become a small force that can't die!

In order to test the power of this supernatural power, Ye Xuan did not hesitate to wave out two spiritual lightning techniques.

Of course, it is displayed in the body of the black fog in the three real bodies, so it does not cause suspicion at all. This kind of black fog body knows that it is the attack mode of energy form, not the blood. Power.

"Card!"

"Card!"

Two invisible lightning strikes, rushing to the top of the sinister wolf in front of the empty sky.

However, at the same time as the two lightning bolts sounded, the strange moon in the sky was a flash of brilliance. Then, the moonlight glowed down, and the sky loomed two big. The outline of the lightning.

At the first time of the outline, these two lightnings completely collapsed, turning into a faintly visible energy, and quickly rushing toward the moon in the sky.

Sure enough, it was swallowed again!

In this round of the lunar month of the lunar wolf, all the energy can be swallowed up, and the wolf's strong accomplishment on this supernatural power is obviously far more than the wolf's staunch, even if it is not yet cultivated to the genius. The moon of the wolf instantly devours all energy.

However, in this area of Yuehua, the more energy that is alive, the more the Moon will sense and apply its power, and then the more likely it will be decomposed.

These two lightning bolts are too fast and extremely active, so they are instantly captured and decomposed.

This curtain Ye Xuan is not unexpected, but the star-studded powerhouses in a warship around the void in the sky, most of them have opened their mouths, and the face is sluggish, obviously the heart is extremely shocking.

The greedy wolf whistle is really extraordinary, even this invisible lightning has been defeated, and it has been swallowed up by energy, and this round of magical manifestation of the bright moon, clearly has a certain connection with the wolf just strong, can let him Through the bright moon of righteousness, it is already in an invincible position to replenish energy at any time during the battle.

"Your thunder and lightning power is useless to this Tao. In the area where the moon of the wolf month can shine, the more active energy, the more likely it is to be instantly sensed and captured, and then it is decomposed and swallowed. The more you use, the better the benefits of this Tao! Hahaha..."

Seeing the body of the black fog, one of Ye Xuan's three real bodies, he made two invisible lightnings, and he was decomposed and swallowed. The wolf just smirked and suddenly waved his hand: "Now, try your own thunder. The power of magical power!"

"Card!"

"Card!"

To everyone's expectation, in the strange moon of the sky, two sudden noises came at this moment, and then there were two white lightning flashes down, the speed reached the extreme, blinking It has already reached the top of the head of Ye Xuan's real body.

Around the void, the exclamation sounded again at this moment.

"What? Is there such a change? Not only does it break down the opponent's attack, but it can be restored after the direct swallowing, and back to it?"

"The sorrow of the wolf is not so amazing, or is it good?"

"Yes, it's really abnormal. It's amazing to be able to understand the blood of the greedy wolf people and to trigger a change in counterattack."

"Even in the greedy wolf family, the people who can awaken this kind of blood and supernatural powers are also phoenix scales. In the younger generation, it seems that only the former Shaozuo, the former minority of the family, had this talent. I didn't expect the wolf to be strong. Awakened the greedy wolf and the moon, and actually realized the new changes, and sure enough to be the Taoist..."

"This time, the prince of the indigenous beast, the incomprehensible little konjac, is afraid to eat it. The ancient konjac has three real bodies, but in the face of this kind of strong, all energy attacks. Invalid, and even have a counter effect..."

"Because his cultivation is in the realm and under the wolf's strength, he can't be close to me, it is equal to being bound by his hands and feet. All the means can't work. The only end can only be suppressed..."

"boom!"

"Hey..."

The last argument was just falling, and the front of the void battlefield suddenly came with an earth-shattering loud noise, followed by a sorrowful and sorrowful sound of sorrow and sorrow. Unwilling and painful.

The powerful people who were watched by the emptiness in the surrounding air were destined to be close to the Taikoo konjac, and they were directly and unscrupulously directly vacant, avoiding the two white lightnings at the same time, the figure appeared in The side of the wolf is stale.

Then, a giant bar with a hundred feet was turned over by his hand, and the head was light and heavy. He was held in the right hand of the Taikoo little konjac with black hair. He slammed a stick and squatted on the wolf head of the Baizhang giant wolf. .

A hill-like bulge suddenly bulged on the top of the wolf's strong head, and the sound of the screaming wolf in his mouth was still not over, and the wolf's eyes turned white, and the stunned stunned!

This scene happened too fast, too suddenly, all the people around the vain battle were all thundered, and died for a while...

Chapter 3726: Too cruel

"Hey..."

The fierce wolf screamed and the wolf just turned a pair of huge wolf eyes and fainted on the spot.

At the top of the head, a huge suspicious bulge like a hill bag quickly appeared. This is obviously directly knocked out by the Baizhang big stick in the hands of the little Taikoo konjac. It can be seen that there are multiple powers, which is simply chilling. !

This big stick is actually another accessory of Shennong Ding Shennong.

This treasure has been refining by Ye Xuan, and it can change its shape at will, which can be big or small.

At the moment, when it was taken out by Ye Xuan, it had already changed the form deliberately, and it could not be seen at all. It turned into a big weapon with a thin head and a big mace.

The shape of the little Taikoo konjac is only ten feet high, but it is screwed up with such a big big stick of a hundred feet, and the stick of the greedy wolf is stunned by a stick, and the brain of Qiankun's power is not stunned. The trick is to provoke a big bag of horror.

Don't be so ferocious!

"What shit, the head is too unreal, and I gently knocked on it. I actually swollen such a big bag, and I was fainted. I haven't knocked it yet..."

Just as the countless strong men in the emptiness around the mouth are stagnation, the three-headed and six-armed Taikoo konjac has vocalized, whispering in his own words, the right hand twisting the stick, the left hand holding a wolf sturdy wolf hoof, one turned and fell After dragging, the twenty star masters and geeks rushed over.

The back of this scene has seen countless people fainting, the savage wolf-like Taoist priest, the fifteenth world of great power, and now looks like a prey that has just been hunted, actually so unconsciously In the void, I dragged it away.

What is even more speechless is that the guy who is under the black hand still whispers to himself, screaming that his head is not hard enough, and it is faint when knocked, it is really not fun!

"puff!"

"puff!"

.....

In the distance, in a warship of the greedy wolf fleet, countless clear and audible sounds of spurting old blood came out. Suddenly this scene happened, even the star of the greedy wolf's fleet was mad. Arrived.

Seeing that the Tao of the ethnic group is about to be towed away, the star lord of this greedy wolf can no longer care for the other. After spraying a bit of old blood, even when the flagship fortress is rushed out...

"Roar!"

"Little magic scorpion, let go of my family, or you will not die! Hehe..."

In the roar of the roar, the singular wolf of the savage wolf directly activates the blood of the body, manifesting the true body of the bleeding pulse, a giant silver greedy wolf with thousands of feet, and the horror of the star's main power is instantly dispersed. And open, turned into a thousand-headed wolf head, one bite to the front dragged the wolf just far away to the Taikoo little konjac!

"Hey!"

"Old wolf, you dare to try it!"

"It's too shameful to say that you are fighting for the battle of the younger generations. If you lose now, you will be bullying too much."

"Is the greedy wolf all so shameless?"

"Would we really bully?"

"If you want to go to war, today you will kill everyone who is a greedy wolf..."

In front of the void, the indigenous beasts and geeks of the 20 stars are all moving, and the body shape is rushing out. The blink of an eye has already reached the front of Ye Xuan, keeping it behind, but still not stopping, facing the greedy wolf The void in the direction of the fleet rushed away.

All the way to fierce flames, it is completely a set of opportunities to take the opportunity to solve the entire fleet of the greedy wolf.

"boom!"

Jingjia Dilong took the lead, he was the supreme eccentric of the 9th-order grand perfection of the star, and the speed was almost at the extreme. At this moment, the bleeding veins were revealed, and the body shape was nearly ten thousand, and the one end smashed the greedy wolf. The magical singer exhibited by the star lord.

"puff....."

The magical power was smashed by life and death. The sinister wolf, the lord of the savage wolf, was stunned in the first time, and his mouth spurted a blood arrow and sprinkled the sky.

"Dome friends, don't be excited, this is a misunderstanding, misunderstanding..."

Not waiting for the greedy wolf's star lord to respond, not far from the **** clan's fleet, the second universe of the second universe coalition's domain lord singularly out of the air, an invisible Weili wrapped in greed The wolf's star lord, who quickly pulled his figure out of the battle circle, retreated and returned to the greedy wolf fleet.

At this moment, the people who are smashing the air are blowing up.

In any case, he did not expect that the Taoist wolf's Taoist language would be so useless. Only one face-to-face was knocked out by the little monkey's scorpion.

The fainting of the scene on the spot was not counted, but it was still dragged away by others in public, and it was simply lost to the family.

The star lord of the greedy wolf is so impulsive, actually wants to chase it out on the spot, yelling at the endless... **** old bastard, this just gives the excuses for the other party's shot, and it is very likely to irritate the core hinterland in front. The ancient konjac of the inner world of the lord.

After all, this old monster is the horror of the realm of the border, self-confident identity, will not be easy to shoot, but now the owner of the own star blame screaming is not endless, this is simply dead!

Short-selling and indignant, can only remedy the general shooting round, which is equivalent to forcing him out to show weakness to the other side, he is the chief commander of the Second Universe and allied forces, and is the strongest in this army.

Nowadays, in order to ease the atmosphere, it has to be said that this kind of weak discourse is a great influence on the military of the entire fleet.

Fortunately, the other party is still restrained. After all, the indigenous beasts of the 20-star singular level are powerful, but compared with the short-selling domain of the domain, they still have a gap.

At this moment, I saw that the little monkey scorpion was innocent, and there was a voice in the main territory of the area. It was a reluctance to discuss it, but it did not continue to pursue it without undue enthusiasm. The indigenous beasts, all after the sound of the sound, stopped in the void.

After still screaming a few words, this turned and returned, and retired to the opposite side of the void!

Just as the short-selling thought that this storm was a temporary end, Ye Xuan, who had already retreated to the distant sky thousands of miles away, turned around at this moment, and the big stick in his hand disappeared directly. A black 狰狰 magic blade is out.

Without saying a word, the wolf that was dragged behind him by a knife just forced the past!

"Hey..."

The tragic sound rang again. This knife cut off the wolf's strong left hind leg and woke him up. After swearing, he was comatose again.

It was really a bit of a knock on the previous one, but now it still has a roaring brain. Suddenly, it wakes up for a moment, just a conditional reflection.

"Is it not going to die? Come on, hurt each other!"

Turning the hand will change the shape of the demon blood blade to close up, Ye Xuan believes in a hand, directly the wolf has just lost a hind leg body thrown into the body of Shennong Ding, completely banned.

Then, as he said, he waved a pair of Shennong two-color flames, waving to the huge blood-colored wolf legs left in the void, which is clearly the rhythm of public cooking...

Chapter 3727: Dissatisfied

"Roar!"

"Hey..."

The star of the greedy wolf screams and screams and screams, but this time, he has not continued to use words to provoke screaming. At this moment, he has already reacted, and how unreasonable the move is.

But watching the Tao of the tribe was taken to the next hind limb by the Taikoo Little Devil, and he still had to eat in public. This really made him angry and ventilated in this way.

"Oh la la..."

The awning Shennong two-color flame, which was pulled out from the inner space of Shennong Ding in the body by Ye Xuan, smashed the huge hind limbs of the wolf, and began to fully roast. The slap of the slap is constantly coming out. This is the wolf's leg. The oil is baked out of the movement.

Soon, a rich fleshy fragrance spread out, gradually spread, and spread far and wide in the surrounding air, some of the physiques were outside the void, and not the strong inside the warship's cabin subconsciously twitching the nose, in the mouth The fluid is flowing uncontrolled.

Previously, Ye Xuan's words about the flesh and blood of the greedy wolf are not sour, that is, the words of acidity are naturally just words. In fact, the flesh and blood of the greedy wolf is as delicious as it is, and now it is more common with the two-color flame of Shennong Ding. It is definitely a big medicine!

After all, the wolf is strong, and it is the way of the greedy wolf. Since childhood, the greedy wolf people have cultivated him with all their strength. They don't know how many celestial treasures they have, and their flesh and blood are more precious than the general greedy wolf strong. At this point, even Ye Xuan couldn't help it anymore. He smelled the smell in his nose and swallowed his throat subconsciously.

It's just a hind limb of a greedy wolf. If you let the twenty-star masters let go of your belly, it's not enough.

At this moment, seeing the wolf's legs will soon be baked, including the 20 stars, including the Jingjia Dilong, and the old-fashioned indigenous beasts, all of which have been reduced in size and more than the body of Ye Xuan. There are a lot of exquisite, this is clearly ready, and I plan to eat this roasting wolf leg for a while.

A wolf's leg only, they only have to shrink their body shape, they can all taste a little, otherwise any one of them, can easily swallow the belly.

After a short period of time, the whole wolf legs were thoroughly cooked. Ye Xuan waved the Shennong two-color flame back into the body. A golden oily roasting wolf leg appeared in the void, still continually falling down the golden color of the oil. It is called an instant index finger move.

At this moment, in the distance from the void, a fleet of warships all came from the sound of sucking and sipping into the mouth, seeing this golden shiny roasting wolf leg, even the mighty and star owners. Old monsters, some of them can't hold back.

On the other side of the Second Universe, the movement of a fleet of snorkeling was particularly loud and loud, which made the high-level commanders of the various ethnic groups very embarrassed. This is the ally of the allies. One of the hind limbs that had been cut down was now baked. They were all screaming, and the old face was really a bit unstoppable.

However, this kind of cockroaches lasted for a long time, because with the 20-star singular-level indigenous beasts such as Jingjia Dilong, and Ye Xuan at the same time, they ate the golden wolf legs. Perhaps it was affected by their devouring enjoyment, and even a ship of the own fleet of the greedy wolf family began to have a slap in the face.

People of their own ethnic group are still the same, what other people are embarrassed?

This is really too speechless, the original embarrassing emotions spread, and the commanders of the Second Universe's fleet are all stunned.

But now all of this shackles are concentrated on the strong people of the greedy wolf race. Some of them exist, and they just can't hold back, subconsciously swallowing saliva, sucking and snoring, I didn't expect to have a sound, no matter about it. Different from self-satisfaction, the star lord of the greedy wolf is ashamed of anger.

I just want to open a space crack in the void on the spot, and I'm going to forget it!

It is too shameful!

"Hey, a wolf leg is really not enough to eat, no fun!"

It was also at this time that a large roasting wolf's leg had been eaten away by Ye Xuan and the twenty grinning grotesques. Only a huge leg bone was left in the void, and he waved his hand. Income in the body.

Stretching his hand and wiping a mouth, Ye Xuan turned his eyes straight, a sense of indescribable tone and expression: "Unfortunately, he can no longer slap him a hind leg. If you really want someone to live a small life, then it is not good."

"It seems that the previous understanding has misunderstood. Although the greedy wolf is a close relative of the weasel, the flesh and blood of the people are still very delicious. The meat is thick and not rough, but not too greasy. I just caught this greedy wolf and must raise it. After waiting for his hind legs to grow out, he will take off the roast, so that the water is flowing, it is king!"

"puff!"

"Suck....."

Ye Xuan's words of disappointment were just finished. In the flagship fortress of the greedy wolf fleet, there was another muffled sound that was slightly mellow. The star lord of this family was again alive and mad.

In the fleet of other ethnic groups around, there was a loud sound of coolness.

The words of Taikoo's little konjac are too poisonous. As always, they are fierce and savage. They have captured the way of the greedy wolf family. They also smashed a hind limb in a public roasting system, and they ate nothing. In the end, they did not intend to put it. Over.

Instead, the wolf is just as strong as a meat-feeding pig, so that he can grow up the fallen hind limbs, then knives and smash the food. So, the water flows...

If the Taoist sorcerer's Taoist school is truly degraded into such a field, although the sin is only a strong wolf, but the entire greedy wolf will be raised and therefore shamed, never wash away!

Thinking of this, among the ships of the greedy wolf fleet, a large number of gnashing teeth were immediately heard. The entire ethnic group was humiliated by a Taikoo konjac that was only cultivated by the celestial light, which made them resentful. No, all are grinding teeth.

"Ben seems to hear someone grinding his teeth. It looks like there are more than one or two..."

Ye Xuan waved his hand and waved in the direction of the void of the greedy wolf fleet. The face of the three flesh-and-blood bodies of the real body showed a sly smile, and the fangs shouted: Could someone be dissatisfied?"

"If you don't accept it, even if you come over, Benedict will single out one of your nests. Anyway, it's all a chicken and a dog. Even the road is weak. The fighting power of the entire group can be imagined."

"It is better to have more points. Benedict and the 20 big brothers are not enough to eat. The more they come, the more they welcome. When someone has sent food, it is just enough to eat enough..."

"puff!"

"Little monkey scorpion, you have to take too much!"

In the distant fleet of the greedy wolf, there was a roar in the flagship fortress. The star-owner of the family's fleet was finally unable to hold back and roared: "Is there really no domain owner strong when I am a greedy wolf? You are waiting for the little devil, and the old man just said that he still counts, not endless..."

Chapter 3728: Sitting down

"Old things, are you threatening us?"

"There is another sign of the ability, this turtle immediately destroyed the entire fleet of your family!"

The words of the greedy wolf star lord just fell, and there were two echoes in the heart of the core of the evil in front. Then, the shape of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise rushed out from the dividing line. It is still the harmless look of the human and animal. The former is only about a hundred feet, while the latter is a small turtle who is forgiving!

Coupled with the lack of breath in their bodies, they simply couldn't detect them. They didn't know what to expect. Under the premise of ignorance, I was afraid that no one would take this pair of partners to the domain lord.

However, the words and tone of the pig and the tortoise immediately sold their identity. Although the powerful forces who were stranded in the buffer zone of the central area at the moment, except for the second universe, the coalition forces, almost none of them have seen them. However, I still came to realize it in the first time.

The commanding high-level members of a fleet were immediately vigilant, and the cold hairs on the back were all erected. Those who were stranded in the void were even getting up, and they dared not to show a good attitude of watching the show.

At this moment, it is the two domain lords in the core hinterland of the evil roots. Not long ago, the Second Universe and the various nationalities joined forces in a big way. If they did not, they broke the hollow and Du Futeng. Now the situation is only afraid. completely different.

It can be said that the two lords of the two fronts directly and completely changed the direction of the war, so that the tens of thousands of troops of the second universe and the various nations fought fiercely.

Even Du Fu Teng, the domain lord of the Caishao nationality, was severely wounded by the Taikoo tortoise that was harmless by the human and animal. How could it be easily abandoned by the Taikoo Little Konjac and decapitated?

Although Du Futeng was shackled by the hands of the Taikoo Little Konjac, in fact, it is the Taikoo tortoise in this pig and turtle that really caused it to fall!

Nowadays, the two lords of the domain have actually stepped out of the core hinterland of the evil source in front, and came to the buffer zone outside. No one can be nervous.

Once they are in power, this zone is afraid that it will immediately set off a storm, and I don't know how many star-studded powers will drink and hate.

Based on the horrible strength of this pig and turtle, even the **** and savage domain owners can only avoid jealousy. The words spoken by the people are not a trace of water. The small greedy wolf fleet is just around the corner. It will be gone!

Some of the scattered faces are vigilant, and they are ready to rush out of this central area buffer zone at any time.

The savvy wolf's star lord also realized this. He had not dared to continue to look back when he faced the indigenous savage monsters such as Jingjia Dilong and other 20 stars. Ye Xuan rushed out of the flagship fortress, and later was dragged back by the hollow, and I was scared after thinking about it.

Now, in addition to the twenty-star lords, the depths of the indigenous beasts in front of the old nest, actually came two lords, and at this moment he was so scared that he was slightly stunned, and his back was cold and straight. When it's said that it's really a bang, it's the atmosphere that doesn't dare to breathe!

"Two old brothers, how come you have come out? Didn't you just say that? Just outside this group of chickens and dogs, you can get it alone!"

Seeing the emergence of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, Ye Xuan, who turned into a three-headed, six-armed Taikoo little konjac, stepped forward and raised his hand and said hello. It seemed extremely casual. Obviously, the relationship was not normal.

This scene makes the strong people around the void again sigh.

For Ye Xuan's identity, almost no one has any doubts at this moment. Only the strength of the 14th dynasty's dynasty is the same as that of the two powerful horror domain owners. The identity of the fierce beast Prince has been completely taken care of!

At the same time, there is at least one speculation in the front core hinterland that is too old to be a konjac. Basically, it can be decided by the board. Otherwise, with the repair of these two Taikoo Porcupines and the Taikoo tortoise domain in the later period, why is it right? A little little celestial world, too old konjac?

In the void, there was a loud sigh of sighs, and countless words were cast into Ye Xuan's eyes. At this moment, it was full of envy. In today's three major universes, the major forces are not saying that there is no lord in the border. But the existence of this level usually has few descendants.

Even if it is, it was born when it was still weak before the endless years. Growing up to the present, it has already passed the age of relying on the shade of the fathers, and it has grown up.

After all, the higher and more complete the level of life evolution, the less likely it is that the descendants of the blood will be born, because once the blood is born, the mother base is too solid, the starting point is too high, and the birth will be extraordinary. The blood and powerful strength.

This is inconsistent with some avenues of avenues. It is said that natural selection, the level of any living being, the level of evolution, is directly proportional to the probability of the birth of descendants of blood.

For this reason, almost all of the ancestors of the three major cosmic planes in today's world have no young children.

But now there is an example. This is the only ancient konjac in the 14th dynasty. The immediate elders are a very old konjac in the realm of the border, and the luck is so good.

The old konjac in the realm of the realm is old, and the degree of his adoration is only from the time he is free to cruise on his own site, and there are full of twenty lords and guards. Now!

With such a background and backing, this arrogant Taikoo little konjac is almost destined to grow into a hegemony in the future!

After all, the life of the ancestors of the world is too long, and there is such a horrible existence of the guardianship. Who can get him?

Of course, this is the other powerful powers who don't know the true details of the Taikoo konjac.

As for the star lord of the three democrats, such as Mo Taiye, the only sigh of the present is the only anti-day means of Xuan Huangzi.

When calculating the time, he will start a day or so more than Mo Taiye and others. Who can expect that when Mo Taiye and others arrive, he will already lay down among the indigenous beasts in this core hinterland. With such a solid foundation?

Anyone who has a patrol will have 20 lords and lords escorting them. They will jump out of the two domain owners and blame them. They can be so arrogantly called brothers and brothers. This is simply a dog, and it is completely unbelievable.

If the style of non-Yu Xuan is suitable for the three people to determine his identity, this time, I am afraid that the three people have to doubt whether they have made a mistake.

"Pig friend, turtle friend, the previous thing is just a misunderstanding..."

In the face of the advent of the two domain owners, the **** family's domain lords are not suitable for the appearance of the grotesque, and if they are passed out, they will be jokes.

Under the circumstance, the flagship fortress of the Yi people who smashed the scalp and blew the scalp, secretly bite their teeth and try to play the round field...

Chapter 3729: Gambling

"Misunderstanding, misunderstanding! Before this, my second cosmic wolf, the wolf of the wolf, was strong, just like the expensive... the little konjac friends tried to talk about it!"

The heart secretly complained of bitterness, and the scalp had to show up in the hollow. At this time, the face was full of a bright smile, and he said with great enthusiasm: "The juniors are making troubles, and it is normal to move the infuriating moment. Well, who is not young yet?"

"but....."

Speaking of this, the voice of the voice turned a little, the voice was a little small, and tried to say: "But now the kid has also been taught, and he has been smashed by a small konjac friend. The big loss, the two Taoist friends also know that the Tao of a ethnic group is not the same, or else... put him back?"

"Daoyou, I promise, I will teach you a lesson when I turn back!"

In the last sentence, the hollowing out is almost slap on the chest, and there is a kind of spit that is a sense of trust!

"I am, roll the dice!"

"Who is it? Is the head smashed by the mouse?"

The hollowed out words just fell, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise took a face on the spot, and did not regard him as a domain lord of the same territory. The face was simply like the scorn of the star lord or even the mighty.

No way, it is really the domain of the so-called **** family. In the previous battle, it was not performing well. It has already left the impression of the egg in the eyes of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise.

The latter's anger was almost on the spot, but he did not dare to rush to turn his face on the spot. If that is the case, he and his two lords and the two lords are hard-nosed. The final result is obviously doomed. Killing!

This may be the reason why he left the impression of the egg in the eyes of the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo Turtle.

As a strong person, but without a strong heart, it can only be shaken in front of the weak and the younger generations. Whenever encounters a slightly harder fellow in the same situation, it is destined to be despised. !

"The little wolf scorpion is a small donkey, and we are not qualified to say that it will be released. If you have the ability, you should take care of him!"

"Yes, don't say that our two old guys don't give you a chance. Didn't you call a squad for the next generation? That's OK..."

Speaking of this, the Taikoo tortoise turned to look at the surrounding fleet of a fleet of emptiness, and sneered: "The so-called three major cosmic planes, presumably larger forces, or self-conceived means of extraordinary dispersion Basically, almost all come here?"

"We don't bully you either. Are you not going to be in the depths of the core hinterland? Don't you want to go back to the little wolf?" If you are a younger generation, we will never interfere, as long as you have the ability, just look for it. The little donkey is, let us give you a place, just on the edge of the core hinterland!"

"The arrogance of the future generations of any power can enter the core hinterland, and the little donkeys will wait for them on the edge of the core hinterland, and will not enter the depths of the core hinterland. I will wait for the older generation to retreat into the core hinterland. Do not interfere in this battle."

"The little donkey said it himself. If you want to single-handedly pick you up, what else can we trust?"

"If you have the ability, come on, Xiaomao alone, challenge all the younger generations of the three major planes!"

"But the ugly words are in the front. I will wait for the older generation not to enter the fringe of the hinterland. You can't cross the boundary line of the core hinterland for any of your powers. The area will be reserved for the younger generation. If there is any old ghost who is not obeying the rules, then don't be afraid that we will turn facelessly and kill on the spot!"

"In addition, even if you are the ancestors of the descendants of the ethnic group, anyone who enters the edge of the hinterland will be born and borne. It is best to think clearly before entering, be careful to go in and die, and step out of this dividing line..."

After that, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise had turned around and waved at Ye Xuan, leading him and the indigenous beasts of the 20 stars, and then headed to the boundary line leading to the core hinterland.

Until the body shape disappeared, the last sentence of the Taikoo Porcupine came from far away, and was heard by every star in the sky: "Remember, the time limit is only three months, which is already very loose, enough for you. The forces sent out the scouts to return to the descendants of the patriots. Three months later, if the little donkeys were still innocent, all the forces would give the pigs a way out of the source of the evil, otherwise, stay one and kill one!"

Hearing this remark, Ye Xuan, who had doubts in his heart, suddenly realized it.

It turns out that the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise are trying to use this way to force all the fleets of the three major planes that are stranded in the outer central buffer zone.

At present, the buffer zone in the central area is basically the top forces of the three cosmic planes, such as the second universe, the first universe, and the third universe of the Vatican federal official fleet, the Terran technology and the comprehension camp. The two fleets and so on.

These top forces are all face-to-face. Since the gambling of the indigenous beasts of the evil roots has been reached, if they really lose in this three-month gamble, it is naturally impossible to be thicker. The skin is still in the star of the evil.

Even if you still don't give up, you will at least withdraw from the buffer zone of the central area, and you will not even stay in the outer area of the evil source outside, basically withdrawing completely from the source of evil, the universe outside this star field. Stay in the void and find another way.

Although this did not go away in the end, but after all, it has withdrawn from the buffer zone and the peripheral area of the central area. Even if there is any action in the follow-up, there are distant geographical distances of the two areas as buffers, and the indigenous beasts in the core hinterland are picking up. After the information on the frontier scouts, there is enough time to respond.

The buffer zone and the peripheral area of the central area are vast. If they are arranged on the edge of the peripheral area, once they change, if the large fleet is approaching, it will take at least five or six days to reach the core hinterland.

Even if the small dial-up domain lord and the star lord are rushing forward, they can have three days or so to reserve the indigenous beasts in the core hinterland.

Three days, enough to make some arrangements!

After realizing this, Ye Xuan suddenly sighed.

The reason why Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo tortoise will make painstaking efforts to make this arrangement is that it is because the indigenous beasts in the core hinterland of the source of evil are not the ancestors of the border.

The top-level forces that are stranded in the central area buffer zone will continue to have a respected domain owner. Once the number exceeds three or four, the balance of the strength of the two sides will be turned over and tilted toward the other side... ..

Therefore, as the source of all evils, the two most powerful lords of the indigenous group, for the sake of the entire ethnic group, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoises came up with such a plan, but it is also helpless...

Chapter 3730: Another domain owner

However, what Ye Xuan did not understand is that they are so sure. If they are alone, can they really single out all the descendants of the three major forces?

Not afraid of a momentary intention, lost this bet?

When Ye Xuan and the 20 lords who escorted the stars, following the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, crossed the dividing line and entered the core hinterland of the source of evil by the central buffer zone.

And with doubts and doubts, the two old guys immediately grinned.

"You have a small hair, really can't make our brothers feel confused? If you are not sure about you, will we bother you easily?"

"Don't talk about the arrogance of the younger generations of the outside forces. With the foundation of your kid, even if they send out some of the older generation's strongmen, as long as they don't go to the star's main territory, there is nothing wrong with you!"

"Yes, the sacred wolf's doctrine is great, but the strength is there, the great power, and the sorrowful wolf whispering into the second layer. The fighting power is still amazing in the younger generation. So, isn't it still being stunned by you?"

"Your kid is very powerful. When you used to smash the head of the fallen field, you used a star-to-treaty warrior. This is a stick that is so strong that it is also a strong stick. The same level of ancient treasures!"

"Plus the two-tone flame in your hand, and it also reveals a rich and ancient atmosphere..."

"Well, although our two brothers don't know what your kid has done in the end, but by these means, it is absolutely no problem to crush the so-called younger generations of the outside forces."

"And it's still a single head!"

"Bad boy, don't humiliate our indigenous beasts. This gambling contract, once you lose, the situation we will face will be extremely strict, because at that time, the major forces will basically have one or two domains. The Lord's geek arrived, and overall strength, we are not dominant!"

"Even if the two guys who have been retired before the age of a thousand years pass, they will enter the border unless they succeed in breaking through. Otherwise, even if my indigenous fierce beast has four domain owners, it is absolutely impossible. Several top forces in the three cosmic planes competed."

"Of course, in desperation, we can retreat to the vicinity of the furnace in the depths of the core hinterland. By then, there will be a large number of wrecks of the ancient realms along the way, which will prevent all forces from continuing to move forward..."

"It's not impossible to even let them fall through the whole army. After all, they don't have the asylum of the indigenous beasts like me!

"But in this way, the secret of the furnace will also be revealed to the world. At that time, it will be difficult to protect the major forces, and will not send out the realm of the border, or even the transcendence of the world leader..."

"If the situation really evolves to such an extent, the final result, let alone the indigenous beasts of the guardian furnace, is the furnace that existed before many years, I am afraid it will be dangerous." ....."

"Never look down on the strong in the stars, many old monsters, just because they are not easy to be born, but if they have enough benefits, they are faster than anyone else!"

Speaking of this, the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise actually sighed at the same time, quite a sigh of their own strength is too weak, can only helplessly follow the tide.

I have to say that the feeling brought by this scene to Ye Xuan is still very strong!

The supreme grotesque of the two domains in the late stage of the main territory, at this moment, actually sighed in front of him, sighing and sighing...

This made Ye Xuan suddenly give birth to an initial ridiculous, complex and sad feeling.

I only have the cultivation of the universe, and even the great power of Qiankun is still close to the door. Compared with the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo tortoise, this is the real joke!

"Two brothers, rest assured, there is me, everything is innocent, a group of chickens and dogs, just come, don't want to leave!"

Under the feeling of the heart, Ye Xuan raised his hand and licked the forgotten color of the Taikoo turtle. He slammed the back of the Taikoo pig, which he stepped on under his feet, and said such a discourse.

What he really wants to say at this time is actually the horrible truth about the furnace. Just think about it, or forget it. He is worried that the Taikoo Porcupine and the Taikoo turtle will not be accepted.

After all, it's basically a belief, even a belief, for all the indigenous beasts who live in the heart of the core of this evil.

At this point, Ye Xuan and a group of indigenous beasts are very worried about each other, and the top leaders of the central area buffer zone outside the core hinterland are also the same, with their own minds.

"I actually set a three-month bet period? What do the two old monsters want to do?"

"It's too arrogant. It's just a little old konjac. I have to challenge the geniuses of all the top forces of the three major universes. Is it really the same as the wolf?" I didn't have any experience in combat. When I came up, I was dragged away by a stick of people..."

"Hey, whisper, the sinister wolf of the savage wolf, the old blame, the evil spirits, and now there is no room to vent."

"I understand! This must be the meaning of the ancient konjac in the depths of the hinterland. From the previous battle, we can see the importance of the combat experience. The wolf is strong and is the way of the greedy wolf. The strength is stronger than the Taikoo little konjac, the talent is even more extraordinary, the genius of the greedy wolf whistling the moon, they have realized the second layer of change..."

"But it ended up in such a miserable end, and was stunned by a stick... This battle made the old konjac feel touched."

"These are hidden by the snowy Taoist level. There is really no practical experience. The ancient konjac is worried that the little konjac will have this problem. After all, if you grow up, you must walk out. You can't always carry the star lord. Behind the road!"

"It is just this time that most of the top three forces in the three major universes have come, and there are so many patriots in various races. It is the best time to forge the Taikoo konjac."

"It's too overbearing, too arrogant, and actually took the top squad of all the top forces in my three major planes as a sharpening stone!"

"This war has already been avoided. The Taoist priests will come down one after another. The Taikoo konjac is too arrogant, and the means are hot and sultry, and they have a slap in the face, and they have become a chicken and a dog. How does this make the sub-levels of other ethnic groups feel?"

Time flies and seven days have passed.

On this day, the second Taoist class finally came, and it was a domain lord of the clan. With the advent of this domain lord, the **** lord's domain lord Everything went to the ear.

These days, he can always be worried, and now there is a domain lord, if only the Taikoo Porcupine and Taikoo Mao turtle shot, then finally do not have to turn directly to run ...
