Chapter 373: Woman being chased

"Sure enough, this planting site is dangerous." Ye Xuan heart trembled, the next moment, he suddenly remembered a problem.

The mysterious man in white who scatters the map of the skin, why not collect these treasures?

It's hard to be done, can't you look at it?

impossible!

Because if these treasures are all added up, it is an astronomical number!

It's tricky!

Ye Xuan blinked his eyes, and then took out a worthless Tiandi Dibao from the swallowing space and lost it.

This Tiandi Dibao has just been thrown into the poisonous mist for a second, and it is instantly withered.

"It really is a poisonous mist. I don't know if my blood can survive."

Ye Xuan thought about it and took out the body of a person who was killed by him, and then lost it.

Although it is not ridiculous to do so, it is only possible to use this method.

This corpse was a warrior with the power of 30 dragons. His physical strength is strong and he has certain anti-toxicity.

The body was thrown in. Three minutes later, his seven holes began to bleed, and the skin began to fester and purulent, and then turned into a pool of blood.

It took about five minutes from entering to turning into a pool of blood.

"It's terrible, the bones are melting."

Ye Xuan's heart trembled and swallowed.

However, his physique is stronger than this corpse, and there is still infuriating defense. There are still blood in the body, which should be able to support two or three times.

But this is not enough.

He also got a lot of precious detoxification from the people who killed him. For insurance, he exchanged a poisonous bead from the swallowing space.

It is a pity that the treasures of the heavens are gone. The detoxification of the heavens also needs refining. He has no designated materials.

So, you can only go ahead and see.

The stronger the strength, the more afraid of death.

Now Ye Xuan is still more careful. He first enters the poisonous mist and waits for a while in the poisonous fog.

"Infuriating can't completely resist the poisonous fog, forget it, first fully expose it to this poisonous fog."

Ye Xuan removed the infuriating.

Soon, he heard the system prompt.

"Hey, the host has been poisoned and started detoxification!"

Hearing this, Ye Xuan's eyes are bright, and the blood of the flowers is effective.

However, this unknown poisonous mist is too advanced, and the detoxification effect of Wanhua blood is very slow.

But Ye Xuan is not in a hurry, let other people go down and explore the road, so that things are taken first by them, but insurance.

Entering this place is not to see who is going fast, but to see who is strong and who can live.

After more than 20 minutes, the blood of Wanhua was finally detoxification success.

The successful detoxification means that Ye Xuan is immune to this poisonous mist, and his blood is an antidote.

"Okay, now I am not afraid of this poisonous fog."

Ye Xuan's heart whispered a word and then began to go down.

During this time, he also heard a lot of movements, big and small, from the following.

It seems that those forces have begun to fight.

I don't know, who can hold to the end?

Ye Xuan went all the way down, and he also encountered a lot of heavenly treasures on the road, but these heavenly treasures are poisons.

Some poisons are poisonous when swallowed. Some poisons will be poisoned when they are touched. In order to protect, Ye Xuan did not pick it. After all, his auxiliary blood is only advanced.

He walked about 50 meters or so and came to a large open space, about the size of a basketball court.

However, he had just arrived, and there was a rush of footsteps falling into his ears, from another channel.

"Eight people?"

Ye Xuan wrinkled his eyes and hid it in the corner. This layer was filled with poisonous mist. The Tiandi Dibao was also dark type, so it looked a little dim, just right, he could hide it with the shadow leopard blood.

"Tread on step!"

The footsteps quickly approached, and soon, there was a figure that plucked from another channel, a woman.

Then, it was followed by seven people.

"Thank you girl, don't run away."

A thick voice sounded, the speaker was the bald man who led the seven.

At this moment, the woman in front suddenly paused, then turned around, and then a weak female voice was heard: "What do you want?"

"Thank you girl, you asked this question... We killed the people who thank you. If you go out successfully, you will find us trouble at the time, so you can only shut up forever."

The voice of the bald man continued to ring.

"You are not my opponent!" The woman was cold and cold.

The bald man smiled and shook his head. "Thank you, girl, you still can't figure out the situation. If we add up seven people, it is not your opponent, but we can limit you to take detoxification. As long as you are poisoned, the fighting power drops. Then we can kill you easily."

"Then you can try it!" The woman sipped a low sentence and suddenly took out a detoxification Dan from the Qiankun ring and prepared to send it into her mouth.

But at this time, more than a dozen attacks suddenly appeared, and her actions were forced to stop.

There was no time to swallow a detoxification dan, which shows how fierce the offensive of the seven people is.

At that time, the woman was fighting with seven people.

Ye Xuan, who was hiding in the corner, witnessed the battle.

"It seems that it is about twenty years old. It has the power of forty dragons. It seems to be the child of a big power."

Ye Xuan saw the realm of the woman at a glance. As for the other seven people, the strength is between the thirty-six dragons and the thirty-eight dragons.

Although the realm of this group of people is not as good as that of women, but they are experienced and have an advantage in the number of people, so they have no strength in fighting women.

When the woman fights and retreats, she wants to swallow a detoxification dan. It is because of these restrictions that she has no way to do it.

She regrets very much why she didn't take one when she fled, until now she remembered it.

Experience is still too little.

The two sides fought, and the sword and the sword illuminate the entire cave. Fortunately, Ye Xuan is in the corner, otherwise it will be exposed.

At this time, the woman suddenly blew her blood and squirted a blood.

This flaw was caught by the other seven, and they immediately attacked.

"Hey!"

The woman resisted a little slower, and was stabbed in the shoulder by a sword, and flew out.

It seems that she is already poisoned!

"Thank you girl, give up, you can rest assured, I will give you a happy." The bald man walked forward slowly.

"Humph!"

The woman snorted and she thought about it quickly to see if there was a retreat.

While looking at her, the bald man suddenly shot, and a fierce sniper plundered toward the woman.

"Hey!"

The woman is easily blocked.

"Thank you girl, don't you give up, let's take a shot and kill her!" The bald man gave an order.

The next moment, there are countless attacks, attacking the women.
