Chapter 374: Xie Jia

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

Although the woman has been poisoned, she can still persist for a while.

However, her face is getting more and more heavy. Now she can resist it for a while, but the poisonous mist is quickly invading her body. How long can she persist?

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

The woman is still resisting and receding. She sees a road leading to the back. As long as she goes above, she may survive.

Why, her shots make the toxins invade faster.

"puff!"

The woman couldn't help but spit out a blood, her ears were beginning to seep out blood, and the skin would turn purple and black.

"She can't hold on, she's going all out!" The bald man shouted.

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

The loud noise continued to reverberate in the cave. Fortunately, there is a support of the array, otherwise it may really collapse.

The shock caused by the collision of the infuriating light illuminates the surroundings.

The bald man and others knew that she was going to escape, so she rushed to another place. At this time, the woman was almost forced to the corner.

She is already the end of the strong, and after a few seconds, I am afraid that even the station is not stable.

However, it is at this time.

The shock caused by the collision of the infuriating light illuminates the corner, and the bald man is stunned, and the whole person is trembled.

He saw that there was actually a person standing in the corner.

He scared the goose bumps out, and there was a man standing in the corner like a ghost, he didn't even find out.

"Yes, someone!"

One person behind the bald man was also discovered.

"what?"

The other five people glimpsed, and one of them swept a sword in the corner.

"Hey!"

The sword mans was defeated, and then, hiding the long-time Ye Xuan, he came out from the corner.

Seven people stopped attacking and looked at Ye Xuan in vain.

This corner, there is no connection with any channel, that is, Ye Xuan was hidden here early in the morning.

day!

There is a person hidden in the corner. They didn't even notice that this person is a ghost?

The seven people all had goose bumps.

suddenly!

"call out!"

A few cold awns plucked from the corner, and the speed was already beyond the reaction of several people.

"Oh!" "Oh!" "Oh!"

A few crisp sounds spread, and then the bald man saw his own brothers landing, and in the blink of an eye, four people died!

"not good!"

The bald man heard the whistling sound and hurriedly raised his hand, but in the next moment, his eyes were the boss, because he had a figure in front of him, and he was close at hand.

"Oh!"

It was a crisp sound, and the bald man looked down and found that his chest was already stabbing a long sword.

His heart has been pierced.

And when he fell backwards, he saw the heads of his last two brothers, but also slowly landed.

"噗通!"

Seven people, seven bodies.

Ye Xuan used this dark environment to kill seven people without any effort.

However, after the body of the seven people fell to the ground, there was a muffled sound behind Ye Xuan.

He turned his head in surprise and found that the woman had fallen.

"Is the poisoning too deep?"

Ye Xuan whispered, and walked over, first to take her shackles and weapons.

Now he has two choices.

First, I watched this woman turn into a pool of blood.

Second, save her!

After a period of thinking, Ye Xuan still felt saved.

Because he sees this girl is also pleasing to the eye, the latter also has a peerless face, he does not want such a beautiful fragrance to eliminate jade.

"Well, be a good man!"

Ye Xuan cut his wrist, and the blood was pouring out. He dripped his blood into the woman's mouth.

Now, he is already immune to this poisonous mist, and his blood is the best antidote.

After a second, his wrist was restored.

At the same time, the woman's eyes also trembled, then opened her eyes.

"The poison in your body is temporarily solved. Going along this road, you will not be in danger of life."

Ye Xuan turned and gave the woman a handsome back, walked slowly and charged the bodies and relics of seven people.

"My good luck ring..."

After the woman woke up, she found that the two shackles worn by her own right hand were gone, and immediately muttered.

"I will save you a life, and you can't pay for it. You can go."

Ye Xuan said, clean up the battlefield, and then leave.

His blood detoxification effect is very good, after the woman took it, in the blink of an eye is to remove the toxins in the body.

She frowned and got up, and after thinking about it, she followed it.

"Oh, you made a big profit!"

After leaving, Ye Xuan also laughed in his heart.

"Hey, the host has broken through the power of the thirty-seven dragons!"

This time, I have refined the power of the two dragons. It is really cool.

"Ok?"

At this moment, Ye Xuan's brow, who was wandering around, suddenly wrinkled. He turned and shouted at the black lacquered passage: "What are you doing with me?"

Sure enough, when his voice fell, there was a figure coming out of the shadow.

"You took my ring!"

Followed by, naturally, the Xie girl who was saved by Ye Xuan.

"Don't you think that your Qiang Kun ring is more expensive than your life? Now you look back, then go back to it, and you are still in a hurry." Ye Xuan kindly reminded.

"I have something very important in Qiankun's ring." Xie answered.

"What is important?"

Ye Xuan sinks his heart into the swallowing space, and then dumps those useless things back into the woman's shackles. "I have taken away the valuables. These are for you, and there are detoxification and weapons."

After throwing Qiankun Ring to the woman, he is leaving again.

The woman borrowed the Qiang Kun ring and showed her sorrow. She thought about it one by one, and she followed it again.

"Things are still you, you still follow me, do you really think that I dare not kill you?"

Ye Xuan sensed that the person behind him followed him up and immediately turned and shouted in anger.

The woman paused again and then said, "I am separated from my family..."

"If you are lost, you will wait on the ground." Ye Xuan replied coldly.

"No, their detoxification Dan is here, there is no detoxification, they can't last long. If you take me to find them, I will pay you." The woman shook her head.

"When their detoxification is used up, wouldn't they go up to find you? And, anyway, you are not dead, you will not go looking for it." Ye Xuan asked again.

"There is not a lot of natural treasures in this poisonous fog layer. If you return, you have to waste a lot of time. You must go down to the third floor immediately before you can compete with other forces for colorful fruits." The woman hesitated for a moment and answered.

the third floor!

Colorful fruit!

Hearing this, Ye Xuan's eyes could not help but glance.

It seems that this thank you should know what to do.
