Chapter 3861: Wars wolf star field

The Wolf Star!

The Families of the Alliance of All Nations have not come together, but they have also come to the fleet of hundreds of ethnic groups. There are fewer than 10,000 warships of various races, and hundreds of thousands of them, such as some first-class ethnic groups, fleets of hundreds of ethnic groups. Together, they have also assembled a fleet of nearly 30 million warships.

In terms of quantity, it has surpassed the four-member coalition that has been conquered.

Moreover, the army of this Wan Clan alliance is an effort to wait for labor. Nearly 30 million warships are in the air in the outer regions of the Wolverine Range, and they are squandering and squandering thousands of miles away.

However, although this defensive army has a large lineup, it is composed of a fleet of hundreds of ethnic groups. From the array of formations, it can be seen faintly.

This is definitely a fatal weakness. Hundreds of ethnic groups cannot form a unified command. Once the war is opened, the upward effects of the order will be greatly restricted.

Star Wars, the most taboo.

In this regard, the Wanzu League itself is also clear, but this problem cannot be solved. After all, the alliance has just been established. It is not bad to have more than 2,000 ethnic groups temporarily united together. If you want to make the order ban, unified command, this must Can be done in a short time.

In the same way, the four-member coalition forces have also considered this kind of problem. After arriving at the Wolverine Stars and seeing this miscellaneous army that is in their own hands, the top of the demon in the main flagship fortress west sign is also responsible for the whole branch. Mrs. Mo, the chief commander of the four-family coalition fleet, laughed on the spot.

"Just like a miscellaneous army, dare to call the Wan Clan League? It's really a laugh..."

Shaking his head and laughing, Mo Taiye even issued an order: "I will immediately start shouting and ask the other party to hand over the book within one hour, or immediately start the war, all the battleships, full volley!"

At this moment, the 20 million coalition forces of the four groups of the devil, the space mouse, the * ant and the giant squad, have all entered the wolf star field, hovering over the outer edge of the star field, facing the front, opposite It is a long-running army of the Wan nationality alliance.

The two battle camps are separated from each other by a universe of thousands of miles away!

The total number of warships on both sides has reached more than 50 million. This star war has been rare for nearly 10,000 years, even in the star war between two planes. See you.

But nowadays, only the civil war between the various cosmic slaves of the first universe has already shown such a scale. This shows the chaos of the first universe, and how serious it is today.

Mo's instructions were issued, and the 22-strong warships of the four-member coalition forces immediately launched the refueling of the naval gun and the energy defensive hood. The dense low-pitched voice rang through the whole piece of the void, and there were different kinds of The radiant radiance has turned into an energy shield, covering a ship of varying sizes.

At the same time, several 100,000-meter-diameter large fortresses responsible for shouting also fully launched the ship's high-power star-steer directional call system, and directed Mo's meaning to the hostile camps thousands of miles away through discourse. Conveyed the past.

Within one hour, hand over the book, otherwise it will start in full swing!

This is very strong, and this strategy of the squadron was completely different when it was in the space of the Rat, the Hell ants and even the Giants.

Previously, it was entirely based on waking up Huairou. Now, the opportunity to come and talk is not given. It is directly required to submit a book, otherwise it will start!

Such a tough attitude, especially the same as being confiscated, but the treatment received at the moment, and the three ethnic groups, such as the space rat that was previously conquered, have such a huge difference... This is clearly a monk in the door, too The wolf family is a dish!

Cang Rongyu, the ancestor of the Cang wolf family, is now in the main fleet of the Cang wolf in the central camp. This battle, Cang Rongyu is the commander of this nearly 30 million joint warship army.

Under the wrath of the rage, Cang Rongyu directly expressed his attitude through the star-directed vocal system: "The devils and the four tribes, etc. are too deceiving! The old man Cang Rongyu, on behalf of the Cang wolf, said no !"

"Well and other four families are strong, but they are not strong enough to compete with the rest of the first universe, the devil, the space mouse, the * ant, and the giant, the old man advised, immediately retreat, otherwise the consequences are conceited... .."

The other party's landlord and blame are all talking. If you don't respond, you will be afraid of the other side, and will have a slight influence on your morale.

Mrs. Mo made a response as soon as possible, and his attitude was as tough as ever. Although he was only a half-step master, he was the same as the other team's commander, but in the momentum, it was not weak: Yu, the old man's devil, Mo, in the repair, perhaps it should be called a predecessor, but now the two armies are against each other, you and I are the commander of the fleet, the old man does not have to be polite to you..."

"The last warning, you still have three minutes to consider, you have to make your own mistakes. After three minutes, the whole volley is unfolding. This is a military order, and it is a different play. Think clearly!"

"Roar!"

"There is no reason!"

"Open the gun, fire it immediately..."

In the opposite camp, the roar of the Cang wolf ancestor Cang Rongyu immediately sounded, and there was a sense of shame and anger. As a lord of the world, at the moment, in the face of countless powerful people, he was half-step. The domain owner warned that his lungs were blowing up.

It is because of this that it has lost its rationality. After all, it has been indignant before, and coupled with the violent ethnic temperament of the Cang wolf, it is also expected that Cang Rongyu will suddenly violently go away.

But this has already committed the commanding taboo. At least, invisibly, in the minds of the other high-ranking commanders who formed this huge coalition, they left a irritating impulse and a bad impression without a think tank.

The war has not yet begun, and the enemy camp is already invisible, creating a sprout of military instability!

And this is exactly what Mo's wife deliberately angered Cang Rongyu's purpose...

"boom!"

"Booming..."

The huge roar sounded, and it was not one or two, but it was so dense that it could not be calculated.

The roaring sound was brought by the numerous guns and fires at the same time. In an instant, the whole piece of the void was completely bright, and numerous energy guns of different sizes, intertwined into a net, whizzing toward the front...

However, the firing of the guns was not the opposite of the Wan nationality coalition fleet, the roar of the Cang wolf family ancestor Cang Rongyu, the commander of the four-member coalition army, Mo Taiye, issued the first shot. , unfold the command of the volley.

The so-called three minutes, even three seconds have not arrived, the entire fleet of warships reached a huge fleet of 22 million giants, has launched a round of volley.

Faced with all this, the opposite of the Wan nationality army was caught unprepared, and the unexpected commander of the fleet, Cang Rongyu, roared again and roared.

The commanding officers of the various families' fleets sighed and shook their heads. The final outcome of this battle has been looming...

Chapter 3862: The defeat has been set

The roaring sound continued, except for the 22 million warships of the four-member coalition forces such as the Devils, and the nearly 30 million army of the Wan nationality coalition outside the tens of thousands of miles, all of them opened fire.

For a time, countless sized energy guns of different sizes were fired in the void, intertwined into a dazzling giant net, covering the tens of thousands of miles between the two armies.

This scene is so gorgeous, beautiful and suffocating, the original dark universe of the void, now becomes like a world of fairy tales, dazzling.

However, the beautiful things always carry a unique fatality, intertwined with any smashing energy light column of this virtual network, the true essence of which is actually killing.

"Booming!"

"boom!"

.....

After a brief bloom, the killing power of this giant network finally showed up.

The dense roar of the slams, the spurt of the ship's energy beam, and the lines of defense that were opened in both camps, each had its own seizures. Some of the warships were turned into huge fireballs, and they were completely blown up. The universe was brighter and more splendid. .

But at this time, this scene has no relationship with the fairy tale, the painting style is instantly transformed, the fairy tale has become a doomsday-like destruction scene, and every huge fireball that blooms and blooms represents a lot of life's dying!

In this battle, the four-member coalition forces such as the Devil did not intend to Huairou. The nine gold memberships of the alliance, seven of them have the name and the other two, and the other two will be decided in the future.

Therefore, in order to conquer the Cang wolf family, the way of following the temptation to attract people is no longer applicable. Only with the strength of the iron and blood, forcibly incorporated into the alliance!

At this time, the war began, and the void trembled. Every minute and every second, the warship exploded in the void and turned into a huge fireball.

Every minute and every second, there is a lot of life, turned into fly ash, and it is annihilated.

Both camps are like this, but no one has retired!

However, with the delay of time, the original battlefield, which had evenly matched forces, slanted unconsciously. The Wanjia coalition party with nearly 30 million warships gradually showed its decline.

Although there are many warships on this side of the camp, they are all ugly, but they are hurriedly assembled by hundreds of slave servants.

Not only is the command not uniform, but the rank of the battleship is also slightly inferior.

The demon four-family coalition is different. The unity in combat command is an advantage. On the other hand, the specifications of the four-family coalition warfare are obviously stronger than the other side.

The tens of thousands of warships mobilized by the Devils' group have not been all 5,000 meters in diameter and 100,000 meters in diameter, but they account for a very high proportion.

After all, because of Ye Xuan's proposal to collect tolls, the Devils' group can be said to have made a fortune, and various resources and warships have simply received soft hands. Once again, the gold mine has proved the richness of the ferry.

In addition, the space rat and the Hell ants and the giant squadrons who joined the crusades of the coalition, and the warships mobilized by each ethnic group were only four million. In order to express an attitude, the tribes mobilized all the warships that joined the crusade. The specifications are all high.

Under this circumstance, the coalition forces of the Devils and the four races directly accounted for only 22 million in number, less than the army of the Wan nationality coalition headed by the Cang wolf.

But in general, the huge coalition of the four people of the Devils, whether it is the number of large and small fortresses, or the number of large and small fortresses, is more than the other party!

This is definitely a powerful advantage that cannot be ignored.

After only a short half-day, the opposite of the Wan nationality coalition has already shown a clear defeat. Among the fleets of hundreds of ethnic groups, some of them only dispatched tens of thousands of warships, their fleets, and even All have been destroyed!

The war situation is very fierce, both sides have damage, and the proportion of war damage is not small. In terms of the damage of the warships, even the demon four-family coalition has reached nearly a million in a short period of time.

The number of warships with inferior warships and the total number of warships destroyed have already exceeded two million, almost three million!

The artillery fire of the Devil's Four-Family Coalition was too fierce. The number of large and small fortresses and large and small fortresses was originally large. The command was not only unified, but also the degree of Zhang Chi, showing the mature commanding art.

Under the correct command of Mo Taiye, the size and fortress of the four-nation coalition forces concentrated gunfire from time to time, and specially selected large-scale warships such as large and small fortresses in the other camp.

At the beginning of this strategy, there was nothing to see, but as time went on, the strong among the various national fleets of the Wan National Alliance quickly discovered that it was wrong.

In the own camp, there are fewer and fewer fortresses of 50,000 meters in diameter and 100,000 meters in diameter. These large and small fortresses are generally responsible for the flagship function, and the instructions will be issued in layers.

In addition, due to the battlefield between the two camps, separated by thousands of miles away, although the five-meter diameter and the 10,000-meter-diameter fortress, the range of the gun can reach this distance.

But if you really want to talk about the powerful lethality, you can have enough deterrent power only in the distance of ten thousand miles, but only the power of the big and small fortress.

With the apparent sharp decline in the number of large and small fortresses on the side of the Wan Clan Alliance, the crisis finally emerged. This kind of miscellaneous army that could not form a unified command, the upward and effective effects of the operational instructions were almost completely rampant, and the hundreds of ethnic fleets that formed the coalition forces, Almost all of them are fighting each other.

The gunfire of the naval gun can disperse sand, and it is impossible to form a pressing force.

This is a vicious circle. There are fewer and fewer fortresses in the fleets of the various factions in the camps. The deterrent force against the enemy four-member coalition forces thousands of miles away is rapidly weakened.

This is awkward. The number of large and small fortresses on the opposite side of the Devils is still the same. The diameter of the black anti-matter dead light gun energy light column is blasting in a row, and it is still a dense attack, often a volley, there is an instant Large warships turned into fly ash.

The big and small fortresses in their own camps are almost consumed in the continuous disorderly chaos.

Under the circumstance, the situation is getting worse. It is already very critical for the Wanjia alliance. But in the face of all this, the chief commander of the army of the Wan National League, the lord of the world, Cang Rongyu, except the roar Roaring, but there is no constructive order at all.

In fact, even with such an order, it is impossible to reach the entire army in an instant. As a flagship fortress in the order of the transfer, it has been almost destroyed.

In this case, the top leaders of the various ethnic groups that formed the coalition were disappointed, and an incompetent commander led to a complete finalization of the war.

Finally, among the hundreds of ethnic groups, the commanders of some ethnic ships began to issue instructions for retreating. This is also a no-brainer. They simply cannot hold back the squad bombardment of the opposing camps with concentrated firepower. Next, it is also futile.

It was also at this time that within the main flagship fortress of the Crowd wolf, an earth-shattering roar suddenly exploded.

In the face of this embarrassing situation of defeating the army, the lord of the Cang wolf family, Cang Rongyu, completely ran away...

Chapter 3863: The leader of the battle

In just half a day, the balance of the war has been completely tilted. The Wan ethnic alliance headed by the Cang wolf has directly laid the groundwork due to the incompetent high-level command.

With the number of large and small fortresses in the entire huge coalition, the final victory and defeat of this war has no suspense.

For all of this, the fleet commanders of hundreds of weak ethnic groups who came from all the aids were all angry and reluctant to see their own people under the command of this levelless operation, wasting their lives in vain.

Soon, the fleet of one ethnic group began to retreat. In the end, almost a wave was formed. The ruined fleet of a tribe rushed out of the front line and retraced toward the rear.

This scene is simply a perfect interpretation of the defeat of the mountains.

However, the various families of fleets that come from the rescue have a way to retreat, but for the owner of the Wolf Wolf, the Cang wolf family has long been retired.

This battle, either wins or is defeated and enslaved!

"Roar!"

"Who dares to withdraw? The fleeing person... dead!"

At a critical juncture, the ancestors of the Cang wolf family, the strong master of the world, Cang Rongyu suddenly roared, making a terrifying roar, and then his body shape was pulled out from the flagship fortress of the Cang wolf, directly manifested The blood of the vastness of the body is true.

A cyan wolf with a whole body like a needle, squatting in the void, the giant sputum bleeding, the body suffocating the suffocating gas, the invisible borders of the main pressure, instantly enveloped the emptiness of thousands of miles.

"boom!"

The huge blue wolf just raised the right forelimb, and turned to the empty space that turned to the rear. A fleet of three or four thousand who were evacuating was completely annihilated.

Thousands of warships of all kinds, without exception, all turned into huge fireballs, illuminating a void.

The strong masters of the world, although they dare not say that Wei can reflect the heavens, but they can be called the landlord, basically a domain, and their strength can be respected.

Not to mention thousands of warships, even if it is tens of thousands of warships, they can't afford to attack the old monsters!

The old guy is mad by the situation in front of the defeated army, and has already fallen into a state of madness, otherwise it will never display such a means of blood.

You must know that the fleet that was destroyed by him could not belong to the Cang wolf. The fleet of the Cang wolf did not dare to evacuate. After all, the old lord of his own family was on the battlefield. Who would dare to retreat?

Even if you are afraid of death, no matter how unintentional the battle, you can only catch the ducks and put them on.

This fleet, which was shot by Cang Rongyu, was a weak group. Perhaps this group has no ability to compete with the Clan wolf, but now everyone is a member of the Alliance of All Nations and its status in the league. It is flat.

And this time the war, although it is the Battle of the Alliance of Four Nations to fight against the Devils and other four ethnic groups, but after all, other families are now rushing to help, people are to help you Cang wolf.

No matter from which angle to consider, the lords of the Clan wolf family did not prevent others from withdrawing, and even raised their hands to the fleet of the family sent by the family, the qualification of all members annihilated!

At least, the Wanzhou Alliance was first established, and the outlines of all aspects of the military discipline, etc., have not yet been drawn up. The so-called argument of fleeing is too far-fetched!

It can be said that Cang Rongyu's attack has completely pushed the Cang wolf to a situation where the robbers are no longer ruined. The demon and other four-member coalition forces are not mentioned at the moment, at least, in the Wan Clan alliance, the wolf The family is absolutely incompatible.

Will be excluded by other ethnic groups, and even ask questions!

All of this is caused by the ancestors of the Cang wolf family, no wonder others!

But at this moment, although his move to destroy a family of fleets has indeed cooled the hearts of all other fleets of squadrons, there is no fleet of any ethnic groups, and they are willing to stay here again to continue to help the wolf Selling a life.

After all, Cang Rongyu is the lord of the border, and now it is in the camp of both sides of the fierce battle, just the existence of this main class, the demon and other four-member coalition, there is no presidency.

There are none of the hundreds of ethnic fleets that the Wan Clan Alliance has come to.

Nowadays, Cang Rongyu's only master of the field is mad. The power is really stunned. The tops of the various fleets that were rushing to evacuate were all shaken. The first time they issued an order to stop evacuation.

The situation is stronger than the people, even if they have no intention of fighting, but under the bounds of Cang Rongyu, the fleet of all ethnic groups can only hold on to the scalp.

Even if it is a foreign worker, it is better than the old savage wolf on the way to the evacuation.

It can be said that since this moment, the Cang wolf not only lost the battle, but also the hearts of the people...

If this battle is still unbeaten, it is simply no reason!

This truth, Cang Rongyu also understands that he also saw the situation, but he is not willing.

In his view, this battle, in fact, there is still a glimmer of life.

The advantages of the four-member coalition forces, such as the devil, are only the command, and the number of large and small fortresses that can form a deterrent at the moment.

He admits that in the art of commanding Star Wars, he is indeed inferior to the other side. In a short half-day period, this embarrassing result has been caused. The size of the fortress has been concentrated by the other side, and one by one is removed one by one...

But it doesn't matter. As long as he has his shot, it is not difficult to remove the flagship fortresses of the main commanders of the other camps by virtue of the horror ability of the lords.

Even the size of the big and small fortress in the eyes of the other side, just a few shots, you can ruin a large piece in your own hands, this high-end combat power disparity, it is easy to be flat again.

Once these two points are achieved, the fleets of the various factions that are now honing their work will surely renew their enthusiasm and blow up new hopes for this battle!

Thinking of this, Cang Rongyu did not hesitate, and he screamed in the sky. The huge wolf had lifted his right limb again. This time, it was a void of thousands of miles away, and it was aimed at the Lord in the enemy camp. Flagship Fortress... West Sign!

If this palm is hit, the Western levy will be undoubted, even if it is the two domain owners in the fleet, it can not resist!

Just at this critical juncture, a cold voice suddenly appeared...

"The old ghost, is it that the Emperor does not exist?"

With the voice of the words full of cold and cold, the top of the void in the center of the battlefield, a moment of cracking in the sky, the huge energy light column of the blood color instantly vented, a generation of magic emperor Mo Yutian black face Out.

At this point, Mo Taiye and other high-ranking members of his own camp showed a victorious smile on his face. Even the commanding tops of the hundreds of ethnic fleets of the Wan National League were relieved.

This war has nothing to do with them, and the final result will be between the two sides of the camp.

Chapter 3864: Repression

"Card!"

"Card!"

As the voice of the devil of the first generation fell, followed by several loud squeaks.

Above the battlefield between the two camps, there are several locations, and also the huge sky seams are cracked. Three different energy light columns, such as the Tianhe River, are venting.

Then, there are three figures from one of these three beams of light, the body is full of the supreme pressure of the main powerhouse!

Nowadays, among the unnamed alliances established by Ye Xuan, the nine gold-based elders of the main class have seven famous flowers and masters, and they have opened up the singularity of the indigenous fierce beasts that have not yet been born. Now the nameless alliance can There are six people at the main level that come at any time.

And this time it's just four of them.

The first to come is a generation of demon emperors, and the three lords who came to the next are the mad mosquitoes, the space mouse, the king of the golden mouse, the golden fangs, and the * ant's lord murderer. !

In an instant, three lords of the world came down, and the first time after the advent, they have expressed their attitudes and issued a solemn warning...

"Wolf, don't be recalcitrant, do you want to drag the wolf family, and the family will be destroyed?"

"There is no room for change, the wolf family, either drop or die!"

"Give you a minute to consider, after a minute, we will shoot..."

The attitude is too strong, and the four lords of the old lords are coming at the same time, issuing a solemn warning, leaving the time for consideration of the ancestors of the Cang wolf family, Cang Rongyu, only one minute!

This is simply a shame, but the situation is stronger than the people, the four major leaders are on the verge of completeness, and this has the strength and strength!

For the violent Cang wolf, this kind of humiliation can't be tolerated anyway.

"Hey! I am deceiving too much!"

The ancestors of the Cang wolf family smashed on the spot, and they screamed at their hair, and they wore no wind and danced themselves. The body shape rose again, and the number of people in the blink of an eye was several times, and the figure reached tens of thousands of feet, exceeding a ten. Mega Fortress!

The wolf was originally cyan, but at the moment it was full of blood red, and the back of the spine grew a pair of scorpion wings, which spread a few tens of thousands of feet, without a feather, but full of sharp incomparably * bone blade!

In the blink of an eye, Cang Rong Yuhua is a savage, horrible winged war wolf, and the strength is the mid-term of the former realm, climbing in one fell swoop and stepping into the later stage!

This clearly shows that I have already prepared for a fish-and-mortem network. I want to use my own strength to resist the four lords of the same world who have come to the projections!

The countless warships of the two camps did not hesitate to withdraw at full speed at the first time. The battlefields of the two armies against the central area were only a few miles away. How can the five lords of the world go toss?

This level of war is too horrible, no one wants to stay and be shackled.

"Old ghosts, you are too arrogant, you can only suppress you today!"

A generation of devils sneered, and waved a hand, the vast void of thousands of miles away, instantly turned into a blood, and the line of sight became awkward.

Mo Zhentian showed his spiritual strength and surpassed the magical powers. He had already banned this battlefield in the raised hands. In the whole * world, only five lords of the world existed. The battle did not distinguish between a victory and a defeat. Open.

This is also an attitude, determined and determined.

"Booming!"

The body shape of the madness mosquito disappeared instantly. At the same time, a * giant peak in a million miles appeared out of the air, directly appearing above the head of the winged war wolf, and slammed down with the thunder of lightning.

At the same time, the sinister lord of the space mouse family, the Golden Mouse and the Hell ants, are also bloody, and at the same time they are cold and screaming, each showing their blood and the body, although the breath is not as good as the late stage. And it is still Cang Rongyu, where the deity is really here, but it is as earth-shattering and he has not hesitated to rush through the past.

The four major lords, with the descendants of the projections, joined forces to suppress the deity to play, and after the activation of the blood, the cultivation of the sorcerer ancestor Cang Rongyu, whose strength has reached the end of the border...

"Booming!"

"boom....."

The huge roar has drowned out this huge void. The two sides of the original camp have countless battleships. Now they have all retreated to 20 million miles away. They are separated by 50 million miles, even the anti-matter of the fortress. The energy dead light cannon has also exceeded the range.

These two huge battleships have been unable to fight again and become spectators.

In fact, on the side of the Wan Clan League, as the general commander Cang Rongyu's stature was dragged down, the hundreds of slave servant fleets that had been rushed to the rescue had already squatted after the retreat of 20 million miles. Opportunity, the first time to go.

The Wolverines have lost their hearts and minds in this battle. If you want to continue to stay in the Alliance of the First Universe, it is absolutely impossible!

The five world wars, the central domain of the battlefield, and this morning have been shrouded in infinitely turbulent air, this area, thunder and lightning, the void is split from time to time, simply can not see how the internal situation!

However, this battle did not last long.

In less than a short time, all the dust has settled.

In the central domain, the smoke of the battlefields gradually dissipated, and the body shape of the five lords of the lords appeared. After the activation of the blood, the body has reached the tens of thousands of feet of Cang Rongyu, and now has restored the human form, the clothes are messy, and the body also carries Injury, it looks like awkward!

Although he is the deity of the deity, and after activating the blood of the body, showing the true meaning of the winged war wolf, even the strength of the repair has risen sharply, reaching the late stage of the terrible horror, but after all, it is still outnumbered, in a short period of time, It has been suppressed.

Although it has not yet fallen, but the breath is extremely weak and wilting, apparently has been seriously injured, no more fighting power.

Even if you can escape today, if you want to recover from the beginning, you will have to take a long time to do it... In a word, the Cang wolf family has not tossed a lot of waves.

Even if the four lords who are already suppressing it at this moment are willing, their lives will be taken away at any time!

It is obviously not the best solution. If it is really to kill Cang Rongyu, the Cang wolf family will definitely want to die, and it is impossible to fall to Ye Xuan's nameless alliance.

Cang Rongyu's temperament was violent again. At this moment, he was completely stunned, downcast, closed his eyes, his face was full of shame and anger, apparently desperate, and did not expect to have a chance!

"Also ask a few seniors to spare my ancestors..."

Seeing this scene, the high-ranking people of the Cang wolf have long been scared, and several veteran lords rushed out from the flagship fortress of the Cang wolf for the first time, followed by a star-studded monster and Qiankun's power, panic and pleading for mercy: "Several predecessors, my Cang wolf is willing to descend, but before the horse, but by the sentient, only to be able to spare my clan ancestors ah ..."

Chapter 3865: Zhouguang fifth order

The battle of the wolf star field, after all, has come to a close!

The Cang wolf ancestors Cang Rongyu was severely damaged. In the short term, it has been unable to recover and lost its fighting power. In order to protect the lives of the ancestors, the Cang wolf family surrendered and surrendered unconditionally!

In this way, joining the Ye Xuan Unknown Alliance can only be an ordinary member, even a bronze member can not be mixed.

Of course, in view of the fact that the Cang wolf still can't get full trust, the matter about the unnamed alliance, after the projection of the four lords of the four demons, such as the demon emperor, the chief commander of the demon four-fleet fleet is Mo Taiye. It was not revealed to the Clan wolf.

Just ask the Cang wolf to send out a domain lord, lead the army of the tribe, compile the four-nation coalition, and continue to fight!

Moreover, although there are more than two million warships of the Cang wolf, the conquest of the coalition forces, the self-proclaimed external, is still the four-nation coalition.

The Cang wolf is recalcitrant, but today it is only a descendant, and has not yet obtained the official general league membership, and is not qualified to claim to be a member of this conquest;

In the future, when the unnamed alliance grows, the top of the Cang wolf knows all of this, fearing that the intestines will have to repent, and they are clearly forced to push themselves to the enslaved side.

After all, if you are not so recalcitrant, but take the initiative to join the unnamed alliance, even if the ethnic group is weaker, you can mix the ordinary members at the beginning, at least you can avoid the fact that even the ordinary membership is not, it is completely regarded as a descendant. The process of general slavery!

In just half a day, more than four million warships of the Crowd wolf were taken away in half, including a large number of the ethnic tribes, led by a savage domain owner, and were incorporated into the four-member coalition. Continue to fight.

For this result, the alliance of the nations of the first cosmic slaves did not appear to have many voices of reprimanding. The Cangfu ethnic group's ancestor Cang Rongyu's reversal at the last minute has completely centrifuged away from Germany. The family was enslaved by the Devils and the four ethnic groups. No one was willing to stand up and speak.

However, the Alliance of Ten Thousand People has not been frustrated by this. After learning that the Demon Four-Federation Army has once again set aside the news of the expedition, all the ethnic groups in the Alliance of All Nations have mobilized, and once again assembled forces to jointly resist!

The era of the first universe's all-out war has been completely opened. Even if the Devil's four-family coalition forces are big and the triumphant songs are all the way, this plane-level civil strife will not end in a short time...

For everything that happened to the Cang wolf family, Ye Xuan did not know, and did not care!

In his view, with the first three tribes of the first universe, such as the devil, the space mouse and the * ants, the overall rise of this coalition, in the first universe, is irresistible!

Even with the battles that existed at the main level, the unnamed coalition has been able to reach the top six monsters at any time with projections, and there is no fear of any top power.

What's more, the follow-up to the conquest is only a few weak first cosmic slaves?

In a word, for the follow-up battle of the conquering army headed by the devil, Ye Xuan has almost put a hundred hearts, and did not care about it at all, because basically there will be no accidents!

The reason for Ye Xuan's purpose is to return to the star of the evil to see the situation.

After the last great change, all the forces and the strong forces of the three universes fled, and all the members fled, and the entire vast source of the evils was no longer stranded.

Even the indigenous fierce beasts, which originally lived in the core hinterland of the source of evil, were brought out by Ye Xuan for millions of people, and the rest were all ruined by Tiandao Qingyan and sent to the furnace!

It can be said that the whole source of the evil roots, and now there is no other than a furnace!

What is the product that the smelting furnace will condense this time, Ye Xuan has a huge curiosity, but he does not dare to risk, activate the interstellar coordinate jumping ability, and recklessly enter the source of evil.

Who knows if Tiandao Qingyan has retained some perceptual power and is concerned about the void in the dark?

That is the same level of horror as the headless baby corpse, even if Ye Xuan has a headless baby corpse back, it can not be rash, after all... baby corpse has not recovered!

According to his plan, the source of the evil is definitely going to go, but you must do a good job!

The worst inference is that Tiandao Qingyan still has some perceptual power there, and pays close attention to everything in the dark. In this case, even if Ye Xuan enters the source of the evil, he must do it without exposing it. In the case of a baby corpse, that is, if you don't use a headless baby corpse, you can escape by your own ability...

If it is only the current third-level cultivation of Zhou Guang, it is obviously impossible to do this!

Even if Ye Xuan activates the blood of the ancient konjac, the cultivation of strength will instantly climb a large section, and it will only be the sixth stage!

Of course, he still has a konjac change!

One to three changes in the konjac change can make the Taikoo konjac's cultivation become a small step.

Three changes, that is, third order.

Even so, it is only the perfection of the nine-step grandeur!

According to Ye Xuan's estimation, if Tiandao Qingyan really left a little bit of insight in the depths of the evil source, secretly paying attention to everything, then, after entering and perceiving this, he would not rely on the headless baby. If you simply escape from the interstellar coordinate jumping ability, you must have at least the master of the star.

That is to say, nowadays, he must ensure everything, even if the means are all out, it is still a small step breakthrough.

Either the fourth change of the konjac will be realized, or only the deity will break through the two small steps again.

Once the strength of the deity has reached the fifth level of the universe, in the state of activating the blood of the konjac and showing the true body of the three-headed six-armed konjac, Ye Xuan's cultivation will reach the seventh level.

In this way, plus the three small steps of the konjac change to the three changes of the konjac, it is cultivated as the strength... just into the main stage of the star!

Ye Xuan's choice is the latter!

The fourth change of the konjac will take some time to be deduced, and the system is making full progress.

Therefore, the cultivation of the deity as a strength to break through two small steps, forced to upgrade to the fifth stage of the universe, is the only choice for Ye Xuan!

After leaving the ancestral ant genre of the Hell ants, he did not rush to the source of the evil, but in a remote, empty space, looking for a deserted planet, plunging into it. Entering the interior of the stars, began to retreat!

This time, his request was a bit high, although it was only a breakthrough of two small steps, but it was only recently completed a breakthrough.

Today's Ye Xuan is already a strong player in the Zhou Dynasty. It is not easy to break through a small stage. It is obviously a big challenge.

But he has no choice!

The great change of the source of the evil has been happening for some time. According to his calculations, the product of this condensate will soon be born without any accident.

Ye Xuan's time is not much. In any case, the strength of the deity must be upgraded to the fifth stage of the Zhouguang...

Chapter 3866: The power of the star

After entering the interior of this abandoned star, after setting a heavy ban, Ye Xuan sat cross-legged and began to ponder the resources for this breakthrough!

Since it has only been broken through recently, this time, it is quite difficult to make another breakthrough in the * world.

In special times, you have to get a good medicine!

After some indulgence, Ye Xuan waved a lot of cultivation resources from the immortal world, all of which are top treasures. Any one of them will be rioted and looted!

The scent of the scent of the scent of the furnace: This is used to wrap the whole body, and in the process of breaking through, it constantly repairs the darkness and hidden dangers of the body.

Two drops of evil source liquid: There is no doubt that this is the main driving force of Ye Xuan's breakthrough!

In addition, there are nine stars of the nine-color nine-color star!

Two drops of high-grade * ant liquid secreted by the body of the liquid and the king's golden fangs! Of course, all are treasures purified by Shennong four-color flame. These two rare resources have a miraculous effect on the quenching body, which is used to assist and consolidate the breakthrough effect of the evil source liquid!

Finally, there is a large piece of blood-stained meat cut from the treasure of the purple gold emptiness rat from the Hell ant family. It has a large amount of the most advanced high-energy energy, and this large piece of rat meat has already been roasted and baked by Shennong four-color flame. After finishing the roasting, it shrinks to only the rice square, but it is all the essence!

As for the nine color meat mud... Forget it, that stuff can only be added during refining, directly swallowed, Ye Xuan has psychological barriers!

At this moment, the top-level cultivation resources of this big ticket are all floating in the void in front of Ye Xuan, the liquid and high-grade * ant liquid, and the * treasure of the ancient high-grade Zijin virtual mouse. Shennong four-color flame is purified and baked!

These things can be put in front of the core top of any top-level force in the three universes.

The grade is too high, the quality is too pure, even if it is the lord of the landlord or even the universe, it can be used... Of course, it is impossible to use it as a breakthrough directly, to that level, a small stage. The breakthrough also requires a lot of daily accumulation.

Although some times have encountered some kind of great creation, there are also direct breakthroughs, and even break through several small steps in succession, but the situation is less, it is a special case, can not be copied!

But at the moment, Ye Xuan, who is kneeling in the void, looks at these top resources floating in front of him, but his face is not shocked, and he is not shocked!

In his view, this preparation is so full, just to break through the two small steps again, and to force the cultivation of the deity to the fifth stage of the Zhouguang, it should be no problem.

The chance of success is at least 80% or even 90%!

But this process must be extremely painful!

The accumulations in his body some time ago have already been completely exhausted in several recent breakthroughs, and the state of flesh and blood is completely in a period of decline.

In this case, suddenly forced to break through the two small steps again, improve the strength, the test of the flesh and blood is obviously very strict, and the bitterness of the flesh and blood is inevitable!

Shaking his head and smiling, Ye Xuan suddenly waved his hand. First, he swallowed the evil source liquid, the purified phlegm and the high-quality treasure * ant liquid into the abdomen, and then gorged it, and the piece was filled with Yingying Zijinbaomang. The purple gold emptiness of the scented sesame oil was swallowed by a dozen mouthfuls.

Then, with a wave of hand, the white scented lotion of the awning Xu Yuanyuan flew directly, covering the entire shape of Ye Xuan, let him bathe in it, every inch of skin around the body, every pore is breathing. The oven cream is nourished by it.

In the end, Ye Xuan closed his eyes and gave instructions to the phagocytic system. The energy of the star nuclear from the ten nine-nine-nine-colored nucleus was injected into the body.

Since then, this time the retreat of the retreat has finally begun, and it will be fully launched in an instant!

Severe pain is like a tidal wave. It is surging, and it is instantly transformed into a vast ocean, roaring...

All of this is in the body of Ye Xuan.

A small body, but there is a roaring wave like a roaring wave, surge... This pain can be imagined.

Since this moment, Ye Xuan has completely forgotten the existence of time, and even consciousness has gradually lost some confusion because of this unprecedented pain.

At this time, he only had one consciousness, that is, he heard the strange noise of countless chains and humming in his ears, and continued!

This is the potential of every inch of flesh and blood, every gene cell in his body, and the reaction brought by the tearing of the whole force, just like completely smashing his whole person in the kneading, Ye Xuan, even They have lost their perception of the body. The only thing left in the whole world is that there is no endlessness, and the dense chains are ringing...

I don't know how long it has passed, the rolling anger in the body has finally stopped, and Ye Xuan's consciousness of collapse is finally returning again. Slowly, I feel the existence of the body!

In the end, all the pains disappeared invisibly. Ye Xuan only felt that the whole body was unprecedentedly light and detached, and the consciousness was clear and unpretentious. With such a strange feeling, Ye Xuan slowly opened his eyes.

In the next moment, the familiar system prompts sounded in his mind...

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the physical and qi and blood boundary breakthrough! The current realm: the fourth order of the universe!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the breakthrough of the body and blood! The current realm: the fifth stage of the universe!"

Ye Xuan sighed with a sigh of relief, stood up and screamed: "The konjac is real!"

Shortly after a short break, the blood of the body is activated, and the konjac of the three heads and six arms is revealed. The strength of the fifth-order revision of the deity is directly soaring, and instantly reaches the seventh level of the universe!

"The konjac has changed... the first change!"

Ye Xuan was once again violent, and the Taikoo konjac body of the ten-foot-high body suddenly surged. The inexplicable blood force suddenly swelled in the body and gathered into a similar tide-like power. In the blink of an eye, only ten feet The height of the figure has risen to a hundred feet.

Repaired into a breath: the eighth order!

"The konjac changes... the second change!"

The second violent sizzling sounded, and the familiar feeling came again. The blood in the three real bodies was surging, and the magnitude exceeded the previous one, and the body shape soared to a thousand feet!

Repaired into a breath: Qiankun Jiujie Great Consummation!

"The konjac changes... the third change!"

In the last change, Ye Xuan screamed and screamed. As the three major bodies raged in the body, they swelled again and again, rolling in and out. The initial snarl of the river, and then turned into a majestic anger. !

The figure also expanded rapidly, from the original one thousand feet high, quickly reached 10,000 feet!

Repaired into a breath: the first step of the star!

Just a few bites of interest, Ye Xuan activated the real body of the konjac, directly opened the first three changes of the konjac, causing its true body shape to reach the giant of the world, repairing for strength, but also soaring three small steps, finally learned The star's main

Chapter 3867: Desire to prove

The third universe, the magical camp hegemony, the star field controlled by the Heavenly Palace, a piece of extremely eccentric universe!

"call out!"

A faint sound of broken air rang, and the faint stalks passed through the void and disappeared into the far end of the void!

After the tea time, the corner of this void suddenly appeared as a cracking sound. The universe void was like a torn cloth, and a black crack appeared. A young man in the green gown stepped out and his face was gloomy!

This person is called Zhou Yushen, the deputy palace owner of the ten palaces of the Tiangong, the star lord.

"Oh!"

"Oh!"

.....

With the appearance of Zhou Yushen, in the other directions of this void, the same cracking sounds were heard, and the four cracks were broken in the void, and the four figures were once again taken out.

The cultivation of strength is also the star's main territory... These four people are also the deputy palace owners of the people's palace, and Zhou Yushen is the same!

The five lords of the Lord's blame are in the short three interest, the time of the front and the back are all here, and in this way of tearing the void, the more important thing is that all faces are extremely gloomy, faintly revealing Black gas, obviously my heart is angry... This is really abnormal!

The last is a gray robe old man, gray hair gray, giving a dusty atmosphere, holding a quaint compass in his hand, at this time the slap in the middle of the flash, looking at the compass in the hand Interest, and then raise a hand, it is the direction of the past that has passed through the void and quietly disappeared.

Shen said: "On the other side, the little hybrid just left, no more than a cup of tea!"

"Chasing! This time, he can't escape the wings..."

Zhou Yushen's cultivation is the late stage of the star's main territory. It is not far from the main domain of the domain. In the palace of the people, although he is not the chief deputy, he is the leader of the five stars. people.

At this point, after determining the direction of the prey's escape, Zhou Yushen's face immediately showed a sly color, and the body shape has become a stream, and the moment is gone!

The other four star lords turned their heads to each other, exchanged a look, and all the faces were full of hustle and bustle, and then hesitated, and then followed closely...

The goal of the five lords of the Lord's lords, which was previously turned into a mans, the one who just fled from this void... is the devour of Ye Xuan, which is what the outside world calls. Invincible God of War!

To this day, the invincible God of War is the avatar of the people. There is still no conclusion. Because the Ten Heavenly Palaces have not been able to win him, this incident has become a headless case!

Since this time, Ye Xuan's swallowing avatar has always remained in the star field controlled by the Tenth Heavenly Palace, which has not been left.

The reason for this is that, in this star field, in addition to the Ten Heavenly Palaces, there are other large and small sects and sects. Because it is a comprehension camp, it is different from the system of the immortal dynasty of the science and technology camp. Separately, it is more convenient to find the right prey to swallow.

On the other hand, it was because of the birth of the undead phoenix, which caused Ye Xuan's interest. This kind of life originally existed only in the distant ancient times, but now it is the ancestral home of the sixth house of the Terran cultivation camp. The fact that the ground appears, this fact is very strange.

Ye Xuan left the swallowing avatar to stay in the comprehension camp. Another purpose is to thoroughly investigate the matter.

After all, the undead phoenix is only in the wild, and now Ye Xuan has a variety of invisible ties with the legendary era of the ruins.

Therefore, all the information and clues related to the ancients, Ye Xuan can not ignore.

And this undead phoenix, even in the distant old days, I am afraid that it is not like a dog. It appears in a branch of the Ten Heavenly Palace, which reveals too much information. Ye Xuan It must be checked, otherwise it is really difficult in my heart.

This is also why the devour of the avatar has been looking for the troubles of the Ten Heavenly Palace.

Of course, the consequences of doing so are also very serious. The Ten Heavenly Palace has almost never stopped pursuing the devour of the devour, but the unique attributes of the devour of the avatar are there, and the deity of Ye Xuan will also inherit the tower, the dragon And the sorrowful blood horns of these treasures and big killers are all left to the devour.

For this reason, although every war or ambush that has swallowed up the avatars during this time can be described as life and death, the final result is all sinister. Every battle, swallowing and avatars are all facing strength. Far more than his opponent, even more than one person.

But every time, the swallowing of the avatar is dangerous, not to say that the opponent will be killed, but at least every time can live to escape, and before the escape, how much all let the opponent suffer some bitter.

If this is not the case, the name of the invincible God of War, it is impossible to call it out!

After this period of growth, the swallowing of the avatar's cultivation is the strength of the cave, which was separated from Ye Xuan at the beginning, and reached the 14th Daquan of the present day. Compared with Ye Xuan's deity, both Strong four small steps!

Only one step away, you can enter the fifteenth world!

Qiankunjing is a watershed of the strong stars. Before the Qiankun, even if it was the perfection of the nine-orders of the Zhouguang, it could not be called a great power. Only after entering the Qiankun, can it be called Qiankun Power, only by This point can be seen the difference between the Qiankun and the Zhouguang environment!

For Ye Xuan's swallowing avatar, he proved the opportunity of Qiankun, and it is now obvious, and mature!

This opportunity is the five people who have been closely following them, and they have been closely following the third house of the Ten Heavenly Palace, which is the star lord of the People's Palace!

These five star lords have been chasing after being swallowed for a month.

In this month, the devour of temptations has been tempted, and basically they have had a short and single fight with them. This kind of confrontation is a kind of temptation to devour the avatar!

Devouring the avatar, as a perfect avatar refining the innate devour treasure, the best and fastest way to improve the strength is to swallow, there is no second choice!

This time, the devour of the singer is eyeing the five lords of the star, ready to pick one of them, as the object of engulfing.

Of course, this kind of phagocytosis is obviously not 100% energy utilization. In the process of collecting for its own use, there must be some energy loss, and the utilization of this energy, along with the realm of devouring itself Ascension will be lower and lower.

Otherwise, if you devour a star lord, you can't just let him have a great perfection of the ninth order of the celestial light, and promote him to a small stage, and prove it!

The goal he has chosen has long been determined, that is, the gray-haired guy who has to hold the compass, even the one that swallows each other's traps, swallows the avatar, has been arranged early.

Now, deliberately carrying the five stars and lords around the circle, the purpose is to lead the emperor...

Chapter 3868: Leading the monarch

"call out!"

A black mantle flashed through the void, and a black beetle with a body shape of about a hundred feet suddenly appeared.

It's a emptiness!

It's just that this emptiness soldier's scoop is obviously different from the ones seen in the black hole of the first cosmic life. It's the emperor in the squad of the squad, the nine-star scorpion, and it's only one compared to it. Ants are coming!

Like the stalwart of the starry sky. The shape of the Jiuxing Scoop Emperor is a hundred feet, and this is also the case of the Void Scoop.

In addition, the back of the nine-star scoop is a ghost face of nine stars, and this starry sky is sculpted, but its back is ridged with nine golden giant horns, plus the larger one on the top of the head, a total of nine Small ten golden horns!

It is Ye Xuan who has moved to the emptiness of the devour of the avatar, and now has reshaped the body of the vamp, and the strength has been greatly improved compared with the previous one, with the devour of the body to grow together.

Nowadays, the temperament exuded from the body of this empty sacred body has already reached the great perfection of the nine-order!

This life is a companion of the emptiness of the medullary crystal, between the living body and the non-living body. The whole body is condensed by the extremely hard impurities that are squeezed out during the condensed process of the hollow medullary crystal. It is an impurity, but it is repelled from the void crystal.

A hollow medullary crystal represents a cosmic plane, which is the embodiment of a cosmic plane that is extremely condensed. It shows that its level is high, even if it is discharged, it is definitely a top-level substance.

For this reason, the general hollow squad, its crystal body is extremely hard, the general naval guns can not be opened, let alone the existence of this ten-star sculptor.

This head was cherished by Ye Xuan with the help of the remodeling of the true body of the crystal. Nowadays, although the strength is only accumulated to the nine-step grand perfection of the Qiankun, but the ability to fight the two star owners is not defeated, it can be said that the power is shocking.

During this time, the devour of the star field controlled by the Ten Heavenly Palace was tossed. The Void Scoop had twice shot, but it was a sweat camp. If it were not him, the two swallows would be very likely to fall.

However, it is precisely because of this that the existence of the Void Supreme has also been known by the Ten Heavenly Palaces. The outside world has not yet determined who is the avatar of the devour of the avatar, but because of the existence of the emptiness of the veil, the interior of the Ten Heavenly Palace has already determined this. It is the prince of Xuan.

After all, Xuan Huangzi once brought back an eight-star king scoop from the first universe. It is no secret in the three universes!

Since then, the Ten Heavenly Palace has increased the intensity of the pursuit of devouring, and now a huge chasing team has captured the big net and searched in the void.

At the moment, the five star owners who are not far behind are swallowed up, just a part of them.

Of course, they were able to catch up to such a close distance here, and it seems that the old guy holding the compass still has some means of locking the position of the devour of the avatar. All of this is actually the latter's deliberate The result.

Everything is to invite you into the shackles, but now, 瓮 has been prepared, even the emptiness of the emptiness as a bait has taken the initiative, just waiting for the fish to hook!

"The black scoop appeared, just in the inland of the front planet, surrounded, the kid can't go away, it must be inside the star..."

Zhou Yu Shen was keenly aware of the figure of the hollow squad, and the flash of the scorpion flashed out, giving a scream of screaming, and commanding the other four star owners behind him.

The four people were separated in an instant, and the five palaces were located around the abandoned mines, and the whole starry group was surrounded.

Among them, the old guy holding the compass is located in the northwest, and while he is plucking into the ambush point, he habitually glances at the compass in his hand, and then his face changes greatly, subconsciously whispering: "No..."

"late!"

In the ear, the sound of the words of the sneak peek in the light, followed by a * stalk, appeared directly behind the old guy's head and turned into a slender, small corner. The soul of the blood.

"puff!"

Not to be swallowed, the words in the mouth of the mouth fell, the * corner of the soul has suddenly collapsed, directly penetrated into the back of the old guy, destroying the sea, the gods collapsed, and instantly fell.

I didn't hesitate to devour the avatar. I waved the old guy together with the ancient compass in his hand, and then screamed in the inland of the front star: "The hacker, the wind is tight, the sigh!"

The voice just fell, the figure has disappeared, and all the breath has been concealed, and it has gone to the place where it has already been set up...

The hacker is the title of the emptiness of the vain.

Previously, he was able to reshape the true body of the tower because of the power of the towering heritage. Nowadays, it is a genuine crystal creature, not a brand in the inheritance tower. It can be said that it has completely self-consciousness.

In the cultivation camp of the Terran, there are swordsmen's sayings, that are all sword repairs, known as swordsmen. In this regard, the void scoop is extremely fascinating, and likes the temperament of the ethereal dust.

Plus he is a scoop, so he calls himself a hacker!

In this regard, the devour of the avatar did not go through, every time he called him, his heart was laughing, and several times he almost laughed, but the latter never knew.

At this moment, the old guy with the hand-held compass instantly fell, together with the corpse and the ancient compass that belongs to the secrets of the sacred palace, was swallowed and taken away together, Zhou Yushen and other four star owners first stunned, and then I was so angry that I all made a violent roar...

"Let's count, this is a trap!"

"Oh... hate, it's actually being hunted by the kid. It seems to be a success. If the matter is spread out, I will sweep away the name and become the laughing stock of the three powerful stars in the three planes!"

"Chasing, his cultivation is not even a shackle, but now it is separated from the black scoop that is comparable to the singularity of the star owner. If you are surrounded, you will be able to smash it."

"Black scoop rushed over, want to break, drag me, wait for the kid to escape, ignore it, solve the hateful boy, go back and pack him..."

In the violent screams, the four stars and the old lords quickly went away, until the body shape disappeared, and the void scoop suddenly stopped, and the voice came out in the mouth: "Stupid than!"

Then, when it was slightly swayed, it instantly disappeared and quickly moved away from the other direction.

For the devour of the avatar, he is not worried at all. There is a fascinating atmosphere in the towers of the ancients. Although these old guys are the lords of the stars, they are still absolutely invisible. After all, the ancient towers are with Shennong Ding and the furnace. The heavyweight level of the same level is ridiculous.

This time the so-called chase is doomed to death!

One day later, the Void Scoop and the swallowing were gathered at the agreed meeting place, clenching the fists, and flashing out in the middle of it: "This time, you must definitely break through to the Qiankun, as for you, can you break through to the star owner? Depending on the meaning of God..."

Chapter 3869: Extension of the Linfeng Emperor

The third universe, the Terran technology camp, the immortal dynasty ruled one of the three empires of the Three Empires!

Today's third universe is calm and calm. Except for the half-faced mountains and rivers controlled by the Tenth Heaven Palace, there are occasional movements of engulfing the avatars. The Terran technology camp represented by the immortal dynasty has never had a big storm. .

Of course, the news of the cosmic zombie's surprise has been raging for a while, and the immortal dynasty in the tech camp and even the third universe of the entire Terran are full of people's hearts.

To this end, the Bandar League and the immortal dynasty sent a battleship army and the strong to search, but since then, the so-called cosmic zombies, completely disappeared.

The situation in which a whole dynasty administrative star was slaughtered and turned into a ghost domain did not reappear.

Over time, this thing slowly faded out of people's horizons. Many people think that it is just a false alarm. The so-called whole star has been slain by the universe to die. Although it is a fact, but it may be What is wrong, it is not that the cosmic zombies of the Heavenly Battle Star have spread into the universe.

It may be that only some viruses that have not been cleaned up have been brought into the star by the battleship. Under certain conditions, the zombie virus has once again exploded inside the star...

If this is the case, this matter will naturally subside. There is nothing to be alarmed. The whole star has been completely disinfected and cleaned, and it is impossible to have the possibility of virus leakage!

Coupled with the super-deformation of the first universe of evil origins, and then the fox lord once again turned out, not only did not die, but actually broke out two other enchanting enchanting, in fact, his incarnation, the fox less master The Taikoo Little Konjac and the Netheredness are the same person's news...

At the same time as the three major planes, the attention of the Terran has been successfully attracted to the first universe, closely watching the war of the first universe.

For the cosmic zombies in the third space science and technology camp, gradually, no one has paid attention anymore!

In the void, a warship is slowly sailing.

This is a small fortress with a diameter of 50,000 meters, but it is not a warship, but a commercial ship. It is only a slightly broken surface of the hull. It feels like a star thief, a conflict, and escaped alone.

The atmosphere in the top command cabin of the Little Fortress is a bit strange!

The entire commanding cabin, although there are many figures, but at this moment, this nearly a thousand figures are all lazy to drink fine wine, eating * beasts and flesh and blood, the shape of the costume is not like a businessman, it is more like a star thief Star thieves, all of them are very suffocating, the atmosphere of the body is extremely powerful, and all of them are the existence of the universe and the environment.

And the breath is full of ruthless blood.

Only the figure that is supported by the nearly a thousand figures in the center, like a gentleman, is sitting at a large table at the moment, slowly sipping red wine, holding a knife and fork, cutting and holding it in the plate. A large piece of fierce beast.

Although it is also raw, * and extremely embarrassing, but the movement of the person is elegant to the extreme, just like the taste of a superb cow.

Gently cut a small piece, use a fork to send the entrance, chew slowly, and then, after swallowing, satisfactorily slightly nodded, then took a red wine from a waitress and drank a shallow drink. , continue to cut meat...

In this gentleman-like demon man, there is a young woman with a glamorous body and beautiful appearance, but her clothes are extremely exposed. She serves as a maid, but the two maids have their strengths and clearly The first step of Qiankun.

This is simply awe-inspiring. This man, with the power of Qiankun as a maid, knows that the two maids are very young at first glance, even if they are the Taoist roads of the second universe.

In fact, nearly a thousand figures in the top cabin are all very young, and there are very few female repairs. Most of them are strong men. They are not weak in strength. Different powers are strong in the universe.

Of today's three cosmic planes, I am afraid that there are only a handful of ethnic groups and forces that can have so many ancestors of the post-ages above the Guangguang!

This slow-selling wine is drinking the blood of the * beast and the flesh and blood. It is the zombie king who has set aside the wind. At this time, he repaired the atmosphere of the repairs, and he has already reached the great perfection of the nine-order. One step away, you can enter the star territory.

Since he is here, there is no doubt about the origin of the thousands of figures in the top of the small fortress.

They are all zombie warriors under the zombie kings. Not only have they given birth to self-consciousness, they have become new zombie life, just like new life, but they have also evolved to a very high level. They have been able to change into a human body, half a zombie. The breath was not revealed.

Of course, if you need it, even the two beautiful women who are waiting for the extension of the wind to eat can instantly become a horrible cosmic zombie, just like the strong people of the second universe to activate the blood. ... For them, this zombie physique has indeed become a * existence!

What is even more bizarre is that although the 50,000-meter-diameter small fortress is sailing in the void, at the moment, there is no one in the top command post that can control the warships, even a little bit of kinetic energy. There are no humming sounds.

It seems that this is not a starship warship at all.

This is just unfortunately in the middle.

This small fortress is made up of a cosmic zombie combination of five metal-variant properties. In a sense, the product of these five cosmic zombies is also a life fortress.

However, the life fortress in Ye Xuan's hands is completely incomparable, and can only be said one day and one place.

This zombie fortress is just empty and has its own shape. Although it has certain attacking ability, it can also evolve and constantly improve itself. However, with the perfect evolution of the self-derivative group of the world's insects that form the life fortress, it is completely impossible. Compared, there is no comparability at all!

"Head, there is a fleet in front, the scale is not bad, it seems to be a commercial fleet, although there are only a dozen warships, but they are all big and small..."

It was also at this time that an enchanting maid next to the wind was suddenly making a sound, with a cruel smile on his face, and after licking his tongue, he continued: "I must have a lot of fresh flesh in it. And there must be a strong person, hey, that is a high-level flesh and blood."

"Hey, after swallowing up this fleet, you should be able to break through the hustle and bustle, enter the star territory in one fell swoop, become the star lord, and become a corpse king..."

"If that's the case, then... start hunting!"

The extension dialed a faint smile, gently lifted the glass of the hand, and drunk the liquor, smashing it, and licking the * awn...

Chapter 3870: Terran turmoil

This fleet belongs to a top family of the Tianfeng Empire Emperor Tianfengxing!

Although there are only 12 warships in the entire fleet, they are all 50,000-meter-diameter and 100,000-meter-diameter-sized fortresses. Two of them are battle fortresses, and the remaining ten are merchants with certain attack capabilities. Air Fortress.

The material in the fleet is very important and the number is very large. Therefore, it is the two great powers of the family that are sitting in the fleet. This is not the first universe with frequent wars, nor the second universe where the stars and thieves are rampant, although there are also star thieves in the three universes, but at least not so rampant.

The third universe has been unified by the human race. The two camps are based on half of the entire plane. The control is very strong. Therefore, although there are stars, but it is impossible!

There are two great people who can sit in the town, enough!

At this time, one of the two Qiankun powers has discovered a small fortress that is slowly coming in front of the void.

The small fortress was a merchant ship, so it did not arouse his vigilance. However, because the surface of this small fortress was slightly damaged, it was known that the bombardment of the guns had just been experienced. It should be a breakthrough and escape.

Therefore, this great power has attracted attention, because this shows that there is a star gang in the star field in front of it.

Otherwise, it will not make such a small fortress of 50,000 meters in diameter so embarrassing... Although it is a commercial ship, it is a small fortress after all, only has a certain combat capability, and it is not a general star-rated warship.

With suspiciousness, the instructions were quickly issued, and the entire fleet slowed down the speed of the move, welcoming the past with a small fortress in the empty space.

The two sides are coming soon!

Just as the Commercial Marine Fleet wanted to send a communication request and asked what happened to this broken small fortress, an unexpected mutation suddenly occurred!

"boom!"

A huge thunder bombing came, and the entire 50,000-meter-diameter commercial aviation fortress suddenly exploded without warning.

However, there is no fire, but the commercial fortress is directly disintegrated in the void, and turned into a five-million-meter-diameter fortress... a huge fortress!

It is not like a starship warship at all. It feels like a flesh and a metal scorpion and a body. It swings its sharp blade and opens its mouth and rushes straight up.

The body of the five big monsters all exudes the atmosphere of the Qiankun environment. Although it is only the first step of the Qiankun, it is only first entered into this environment, but after all, there are five, the overall strength is extremely awkward!

Such a strange change, all the heroes in the entire commercial fleet will be thundered in an instant.

In such a scene, they never even thought about it. At this moment, it happened in front of the eyes. Everything is like a thrilling star movie.

But this is not all.

With the explosion of the small fortress of the commercial airline, it was divided into five cockroaches with flesh and metal and metal inclusions. At the same time, there were nearly a thousand figures, which fell out of the Friday-small commercial fortress and appeared in the void.

They are all human monks, but... they are actually transforming!

"Roar!"

The first thing that turned into a young and beautiful woman, who was enchanting to the extreme, screamed under her head, and her body shape instantly expanded into a giant monster, covered with tentacles, and some mucus from Secreted from a small hole covered in the whole body.

It's so disgusting, it's just a moving meat mountain full of whiskers and small holes, and this meat mountain is still alive!

What is even more bizarre is that from the countless tentacles of this mountain of meat, there is clearly an invisible ripple that is spreading and spreading. This moment, the void is covered, and more than ten commercial and fortress fortresses are covered.

These invisible ripples are a unique biological wave frequency. The effect is to temporarily make this corner empty, communication is interrupted... The signal of the star network can no longer be transmitted!

Then, from this disgusting mountain of meat, a very nice human woman's voice was issued: "Head, control is successful, this corner of the void has been isolated, the star network signal can not be transmitted, can start work..."

"Roar!"

"Hey..."

It is good to hear that the voice of the human woman has just fallen, and the nearly thousands of figures in the void around her side have moved together.

At this moment, roaring and horrifying, screaming and whistling, nearly a thousand figures, all have changed, just as the strong people in the second cosmic federal group activated the blood, showing the bleeding pulse.

The only difference is that the huge figure that appeared in this nearly a thousand figures is not only strange, but also all exudes a strong evil atmosphere. Some of them are all rotten flesh and blood, constantly squirming and seemingly swallowing. all!

Among them, there is even a guy who has become a bone dragon with hundreds of feet... No, it can't be said to be a bone dragon, because there are a lot of flesh and blood on the dragon body with hundreds of feet, but all are decaying. It exudes a disgusting atmosphere and is extremely evil.

These guys were all human corpses and formed zombie life, but with the subsequent evolution, it is now clear that all have come out of different evolutionary paths.

There is actually a guy who already has the * characteristics of the decaying corpse dragon. This is too amazing. All the strongmen in the front of the commercial fleet have already been scared and shuddered.

At this time, they finally understood what happened, and in desperation, the sound of exclamations began to rise all the time...

"Zombies! Cosmic zombies..."

"God, in fact, some people have evolved to the extent of decaying corpse dragons. How long has this group of cosmic zombies grown up? It has become a climate!"

"The great power of Qiankun! Nearly one-third of all are the great powers of Qiankun, and the rest are all the existence of the universe. After the end, we are finished..."

"It's just that we are all over. The whole human race has to be finished. This cosmic zombie army has always existed, and it has not continued to plague a star, but it has reached the universe and devours a fleet... see the five Are the monsters of metal and flesh and blood mixed? They clearly know that even the warships can swallow it!"

"It's no wonder that the third universe has always been a bit unfair. Recently, many commercial fleets have disappeared. They have disappeared completely. They all encountered this cosmic zombie army. Even the battleships were swallowed and digested. Oh, my god, it's too scary!"

"When it is over, the human race is over, and at the beginning of the turmoil, all the people are completely unaware..."

.....

In the face of the zombie army of the strength of the near-thousand-ceramic environment, there are three hundred talents in the early stage, and the entire commercial aviation army has no desire to resist.

In the exclamation, some people chose to escape from the battleship, and some people chose to blow themselves!

In this way, it is better than to endure the great horror of being alive and dead by the cosmic zombies when you are alive...

After a small half day, the whole piece of void once again returned to peace.

The entire commercial fleet disappeared, leaving only a fortress with a surface of the hull covered with traces of war damage... Its diameter has reached 10,000 meters from the previous 50,000 meters.

Slowly drifting into the distant sky, go on... a new hunting trip!
