Chapter 3911: Qingtian Dapeng double-headed lion

Nine heads of **** scorpion, in the battle of the ancient world, belonged to the camp of the hostile forces Tiandao Qingyan, and its repairing strength at the peak was in the late stage of the ancient power of the ancients, slightly more than the wild magical bear who had just been killed by the empty giant tortoise. Strong.

Nowadays, although his injury has not recovered, the cultivation of the body is only in the early days of the ancient powers of the ancients, but it is still enough to ignore all the existence of the star field of the evil!

The strongest of the nearly two hundred ancestors is nothing but immortality. In his eyes, in fact, even the ants are not counted.

He originally wanted to shoot, and at least the more powerful opponents of the hundreds of smashing furnaces were killed.

But now, his attention has been attracted to the past by the chain of the evil source liquid on the furnace.

This kind of chain, originally had more than 10,000 channels, each chain can only get one to three drops of the source of all evil sources every year.

But now, all the other chains have been banged, and there are only nine striated chains on the underside of the outer wall of the smoldering furnace... This makes the nine heads of blood stunned!

This is definitely the benefit of the sky!

In the face of this kind of interest, he completely forgot the original intention and heart of this coming, and now more than 100 ants who are still stranded in the source of evil and evil are naturally ignored by him.

There are him, there are so many ants, and I can't look down on any waves. For him, the most important thing at the moment is the other eight striated chains... How to deal with them!

Although he is not sure, in the case of a sharp decline in the number of chains, the total amount of delivery of the furnace products remains.

Assume that there are 10,000 drops of evil source in the furnace, and when there are 10,000 chains, then each chain is assigned a drop!

But if the number of chains is drastically reduced, for example, there are only ten lanes left, there will be two possibilities for the distribution of the furnace to its products.

One is all the evil source liquids, all of which are transported out. The ten chains, each channel will get a thousand drops of evil source liquid, which is equivalent to the supply of other chains, all robbed and concentrated.

Another possibility is that there are only ten remaining chains, which are still only in the usual proportion, one drop per chain, and the extra source of the evil source will be stored in the furnace...

For the nine-headed bloody, he naturally hopes that the final situation will be the first one. In that case, this time the furnace will become a failure, but it will be perfect!

But this matter, he is not sure, not sure!

Even if there is only one in ten thousand possibilities, it is worth a fight!

However, the nine chains are still too much. If the tens of drops of the source are divided into nine, each chain of chains can only transport more than a thousand drops.

Far enough to make his injury completely recover!

This kind of opportunity is too rare, it is a rare event, whoever is, will strive to maximize the benefits ... because it is almost certain that after the village, there is absolutely no such store.

A similar opportunity, there will never be more in the future!

Therefore, nine, really too much, if you can bang a few lines of fringe chains, once this bet, the benefits that will be harvested will be even more amazing!

For this reason, the nine **** scorpions will ignore all other existences that remain in this star field in an instant. At this time, the whole mind has been involved by another eight chains, just like the konjac, huge To the horrible interests, he even has some shortness of breath!

All of this, long story, is just a thought, flashing in the **** head of the nine heads in a flash, and then he wants to shoot for the first time... another eight rhombic chains, he Try to blast a few more!

This was originally just a matter of hand, but just as he was about to shoot, two of the chains, but suddenly a sharp earthquake trembled, the chain of shackles, resounding into the void!

At the end of the end of the void, the creaking patterns on the two chains suddenly illuminate, and quickly spread toward the end of the furnace, and the blink of an eye is already over half!

"Roar!"

"Hey..."

A roar, a scream, all breathtaking, not weaker than the momentum of the previous nine **** scorpions!

The sound of roaring and screaming is not exhausted. From these two nearly full-fledged striated chains, they have already rushed out of two figures, a blue-eyed Dapeng, a double-headed lion with a **** body!

Although they are all in a state of energy avatar, but the breath is not weaker than the nine heads of blood, all of which are quasi-wild power.

The ancestors of the Qingpeng and the War Lions in the first three tribes of the second universe finally came to the avatar!

Seeing this scene, I was about to shoot all the other eight-striped chains, and it was just the nine **** things that might exist in the sky. I stopped the action, and the nine daggers were all in the eyes.

After all, he is still a slower step. If there is another time to breathe, the other eight-character chains will be smashed. The two ancestors from the Qingpeng and the War Lions will be forced back to the ethnic group in the middle. The ancestral land, because the connection between the chain and the furnace, was interrupted, some order was disrupted, and it was impossible to follow this way...

But now it's too late to say anything, this world is not!

Under the sigh of the heart, the nine heads of blood can only retreat to the next, the dawn of the nine daggers, all gathered toward the other six streak chains.

As long as the six-stringed chain can be broken, if the one that is being beaten may become a reality, then a lot of evil sources in the furnace are only divided into three parts... barely, it is acceptable!

Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed war lion have just arrived. I don't know about the situation here, but they have a clear sense of murder, but they have a familiar atmosphere and belong to the old friend's nine-headed blood.

Because of this, as soon as the next day comes, Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lions are stunned by the vigilance. The dawn is squinting toward the nine **** scorpions, and they also ignore the hundreds of stagnations in the surrounding air. Family ancestors!

They, in the eyes of Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lion, are just ants!

There is a dead silence in the void, only the four mechanical beasts from the mechanical family seem to be ignorant of everything around the void, still eroding a chain of fringe chains, and never tired!

Along the nine **** eyes, the eyes of Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lions also fell on the last six striated chains.

They are all ridiculous and powerful, and they are the vested interests of the furnace. These three old guys have the same position and thinking inertia...

Therefore, Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed lions almost instantly understood the reasons for the appearance of the nine **** scorpions. If they were replaced, they would be the same. The interests were too amazing. No one can resist this. Kind of temptation!

For a time, Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed war lion could not help but secretly rejoice, but fortunately, it was timely. Otherwise, if it is a slow half-step, this is a great opportunity today, I am afraid that it will be completely missed...

Chapter 3912: Shoot again

"call out!"

The faint sound of broken air sounded, and Ye Xuan's figure appeared in the central domain of the evil source.

The interstellar coordinate points he left in the star of the evil source were branded in the buffer zone of the central domain. Nowadays, although the starry field of the evil has been distinguished between the peripheral zone, the central zone buffer zone and the core hinterland, between the three major regions. The barrier barrier was last opened, but the position of Ye Xuan branded interstellar coordinate points will not change!

The furnace and the original place are deep in the core hinterland of this star field. Therefore, the area where the air movement is in front of you is far away from Ye Xuan, but even so, he still feels the scent of suppression!

In fact, with the nine heads of **** and blue sky Dapeng, the double-headed lions and the savage ancient powers of the cultivation of strength, God can completely cover this whole source of evil.

But at the moment, their attention is all on the stove, including the top ancestors from the three major planes and the top cadres of the top forces.

Therefore, when Ye Xuanyi appeared, no one found it!

In fact, in order to be safe, Ye Xuan has already started the perfect shock of the spiritual power secret before the activation of the interstellar coordinate jumping ability.

The air machine and body shape are all perfectly hidden!

However, with his current cultivation as his strength, even if he is fully motivated to spur the perfect shock and spiritual power, he will not escape the active perception of the quasi-wild power.

Therefore, just at the same moment that his body appeared in the center of this evil source, Ye Xuan's left chest was suddenly hot, and the blue brilliance flashed under his body, and then disappeared completely.

The headless baby corpse is shot again, and his power can be guarded. Not to mention the quasi-wild power. Even the ancient powers and even the ancient sages can no longer glimpse Ye Xuan, and can not perceive his existence.

Unless the consciousness of the heavenly eye is coming!

But for this, the headless baby corpse is obviously already arranged, and it is determined that the other party will not come in a short time!

The body shape and the air machine disappeared completely, and Ye Xuan's heart was set. After taking a deep breath, he did not hesitate to start the speed. In the direction of the front of the furnace, he spurred away...

Soon, Ye Xuan came to the depths of the source of the evil, and everything in front of him was in sight.

Because the air machine and body shape were completely obscured by the power of the headless baby corpse, no one perceives his arrival.

The appearance of the three heads of the ancient wilderness made Ye Xuan shocked, but then his sight fell to the furnace, and he saw the chain of the scent of the evil source on the lower side of the outer wall of the furnace. Almost all of them. After being bombarded, Ye Xuan's heart suddenly disappeared. He planned all this. The plot was this situation. Now it's basically reached, and it's natural.

However, this last nine fringe chains are really a headache, as long as these nine fringe chains continue, for Ye Xuan, the benefits of this attempt are not stable.

Because even he is not sure, after all the other fragile chains have been bombarded, the product in the furnace is the source of the evil, and then according to the original distribution, to the nine-chain chain, or a bones The nine remaining fringe chains are all delivered.

However, at present, there are three quasi-absurd ancients who can live in the area where the nine-striped chain is located. Even if Ye Xuan is unwilling, he will not be able to solve this problem by himself.

In that case, he must be exposed!

However, at present, this horrible source of stars is surrounded by so many horrible powers, but there are only nine left-behind chains in the furnace. Ye Xuan believes that they will not let themselves down.

His eyes quickly left the furnace, because the analysis of the headless baby body to bring himself to the source of all evil, must not be because of the nine fringe chain, it is impossible to let him take the opportunity to collect the inside of the furnace For the sake of creation, there is no urgency at all, and the chain of the fringe is broken, and you can go back and implement it at any time.

Ye Xuan's line of sight quickly locked into the three-and-a-half-step cosmic-class mechanical beast. There was no way. All the powerful parties present, except for the three ancient wildernesses, were the most eye-catching.

"This is... mechanical life?"

Ye Xuan's faint glimmer of light flashed on his face.

He saw the essence of these three mechanical beasts, and at the same time, his heart was more association.

The existence of such a four-and-a-half-step cosmic-class mechanical beast can be imagined. It is not the emperor but the emperor. The former is the patriarch of the Tianzu nationality, and the latter is the patriarch of the mechanical family.

Regardless of the possibility, Ye Xuan's interest is great.

If it is the former, through these three-and-a-half-step cosmic mechanical beasts, Ye Xuan is very likely to recourse to the whereabouts of the Tianji.

And if it is the latter, it will let him know a little about the information related to the machine family.

It should be known that although the phagocytic system in his body was created by the pioneer of the Terran technology, Xingbo was later degraded by the Emperor. The seeds of these engulfing systems were actually spread by the hands of Emperor II.

Whether it is the emperor of the immortal emperor's national division, or the entire mechanical family whose majesty is almost never born, in terms of mystery, even more than the Tianji.

It can be said that, in a certain sense, Ye Xuan even hopes that the three-and-a-half-step cosmic mechanical beast is from the mechanical family.

In fact, this possibility is even greater, because the Tianji nationality has moved from the family to avoid the world, and the creation of the furnace is amazing. The emperor may not reveal such obvious flaws, and publicly send out a few half-step cosmic mechanical fierce. Beast, appear in front of the world!

In addition, the actions of the three mechanical beasts to devour the striated chains are indeed somewhat strange, so that Ye Xuan can not think too much.

Now, he has basically determined one thing, that is, the headless baby corpse suddenly reminded him to come to the source of the evil, and it should be for the mechanical beasts of these half-step universe.

Ye Xuan is in the magic king star, there is no way to know everything that happens in the star of the evil, but it does not mean that the headless baby body is the same.

He either left some kind of backhand here, was concerned with a special kind of intelligence transmission channel, or was proficient in some kind of anti-day deduction. For example, the amount of mosquitoes and old ghosts seems to be quite extraordinary. There is no such thing as the existence of a headless baby corpse.

Of course, for Ye Xuan, the reason for this is completely irrelevant, and what matters is what is in front of you!

It's just that the situation in front of us is obviously a bit confusing. Even if Ye Xuan wants to shoot, he must also look at the best time. With Shen Shen, he chooses to temporarily crouch and wait for the opportunity!

After Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed war lions realized everything, the three heads of the quasi-ageless ancient power level existed, and each other was only a single eye contact, and a consensus had been reached.

Then, the atmosphere of the three horrible horrors rushed out of the body of the three ancient eternal powers, and at the same time bombarded them, each breath, locked in two striated chains.

This is clearly the rhythm of the one-time bombardment of the remaining six-lined chain...

Chapter 3913: Bloody unicorn

There is no suspense in this. There are only three quasi-wild-fashioned shots. It is just a six-stringed chain. In the absence of the self-defense of the furnace and the awareness of the heavens and blue eyes, it will be easy to deal with!

However, at this moment, the shock has changed again!

"Oh la la..."

"Roar!"

Among the nine remaining fringe chains, the fourth chain, at this time... is bright again!

At the end of the empty end of the void, the embossed surface of the chain is illuminated instantly. This time, the speed is faster, and the moment has spread to the interruption of the chain. At this point, the abnormal sound has been shaken, and the chain is emitted. The breath is even more horrible and tremulous!

It is the nine-headed **** scorpion and the Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lion who have come forward one after another. They both have their eyes wide open at this moment, and the back is white and cold, and the action that they just want to shoot is in the middle. ... Qi Qi suddenly stopped!

In the next moment, the chain slammed, and the giant squad slammed into the sky. Along with it, a unicorn roared through the sky, shaking the emptiness of the horrible source.

Then, a huge figure of giants emerged from the chains that appeared in the pattern, and rushed from the sky. The pressure of the ancient power level swept the world, and the voids around it were trembled at any time. Collapsed.

The two ancestors of the two camps, which were originally sluggish in the void, existed in ruins. They all changed color and plunged and retreated to the distance.

Only the four half-step cosmic mechanical beasts from the mechanical family are still in the same place, burying their heads and eating a chain of striated chains.

But this pressure is too horrible, just for a moment, the mechanical beast that is closest to the furnace, has been fully exploded and completely annihilated.

Even so, the other three are still unconscious and continue to eat.

"boom!"

"boom....."

A few shocking rumors came out, and the alloy bodies of the three mechanical beasts all burst a part, about one-third of the touch, but this situation was interrupted instantly as the stalks in the wreck were flashing.

The three-headed alloy beast was left with some sort of defensive array of defenses. At this time, it was activated, and it was finally resisted by the horrible power of the ancient power level!

"Karma card..."

The crisp sound is still the same, the fringe chain is still being eroded, this scene is speechless, and it has already retreated to the distant imaginary side of the camp. More than 100 ancestors face each other, the look on the face is eccentric meaning!

The existence of this coming is the **** unicorn that once joined the nine sacred crocodile to the star of the evil!

An energy-level body of the supreme level finally came, at the top of the core hinterland of this star field, lingering!

The power of horror, this is a sense of ruin and supreme, although it is a sacred sage that has been seriously wounded and endless, and has not yet fully recovered.

But the Supreme is the Supreme, even if the state is not good, the invisible pressure is still terrible!

Within a radius of his body, everything will be in his consciousness, and the flowers will blossom and fall, and the stars will be born!

This ancient and supreme, although not as powerful as the giant tortoise, but in the state of prosperity in the year, the cultivation of strength has reached the middle ages of the ancients!

Nowadays, his injury has not been fully recovered, and the body has just returned to the peak of the ancient powers of the ancients. This energy-shaping, which has been traced back along the charm chain of the furnace, has only been repaired in the early days of the ancient power!

Even so, it is far more than the nine bloody, Qingtian Dapeng and two-headed lions who came one step at a time!

The situation is tense, it is simply suffocating!

The four energy-existing avatars, one breath reached the beginning of the ancient powers of the wild, and the other three are the quasi-wild power!

One to three, strong to weak!

There are endless murders in the air!

The whole piece of the void is full of stagnation at this moment, and the atmosphere is suppressed to a stunned...

This energy of the **** unicorn was before the appearance, and it was obvious that it was from the **** nine, the Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed lion.

At this time, as soon as the first drop came, the air machine was locked in the body of the three heads of the ancient wilderness. The air was cold and cold, and there was a sign that it would be shot at any time.

In the battle of the past year, although they belonged to the same camp, they were all warlords under the heavens, but they were not familiar with each other.

After all, it is not the same level of existence.

The **** unicorn was the ancientest in the past.

The nine-headed bloody, the blue sky and the double-headed war lion are just the ancient powers.

The difference between each other is equivalent to handsome and handsome, and the sky and the blue eyes of the year, the handsome man who is under the age of the past is obviously quite a lot. The nine **** heads are not under the handsome account of the **** unicorn. There can be no intersection.

What's more, today is the afterlife of the endless years, and everything in the past has already passed away with the wind. The so-called robes of the same camp have basically disappeared.

As a sacred ancient supreme, but was provoked by the three teenagers who were only the ancient powers of the past, if the night is a step, the other party may even have already shot... In the case of the **** unicorn, the nine **** and the blue sky, the double head The lion's move is tantamount to offending Tianwei.

"Do you want to die?"

"Or with the ruthlessness of the years, now, I can't remember the supreme vigor of the deity?"

"Roar!"

For the existence of the three heads in front of the strength and the level of the quasi-wild power, the **** unicorn is not in a hurry to immediately kill.

Nine heads of blood and blue sky Dapeng, double-headed lions, although he is not like ants, but in fact, it is not much better.

Compared with the real ancient power level, the quasi-wild power can only be a quasi-word, but the gap between the strength and the means to be able to display is no different from the world!

The **** unicorn is proud of the state, cold and cold, and the tone is full of indifference and laziness.

Not long ago, he had come to a source of evil by anger and anger, how long has it been? A similar incident happened again. This time, the symbol chain that sent him the smoldering source of the smoldering product was almost cut off.

For the **** unicorn, this is an absolutely unforgivable crime. The ancient existence of these three quasi-palliar ancient power levels has long been conclusively determined by him, secretly declaring the fallen ending.

Just before that, he still needs to use these three guys to smash the other hidden eyes in the dark.

Otherwise, if a similar incident occurs again, can't you let him run out?

After all, you can't stay here for a long time. It's too unsafe. Therefore, the **** unicorn needs to kill a hundred, and the nine **** heads, the blue sky and the double-headed lions in front of him are his prey!

"Some Tianwei can't be offended!"

In a proud manner, the **** unicorn once again lazily opened, and the light swept through nine **** scorpions, Qingtian Dapeng and two-headed lions: "Pity! The deity can leave you a whole corpse, as a ring!"

Chapter 3914: Three great forces join hands

Listening to the meaning of the **** unicorn, it is clear that you have to kill three chickens and monkeys!

Nine heads of **** and blue sky Dapeng, the double-headed lion's face suddenly gloomy, although they are now only the strength of the quasi-wild power, it is indeed weaker than the **** unicorn in the early days of the ancient power, but after all, it has stood on the big The peak of the throne can stand proudly.

Nowadays, it is treated by the **** unicorn in the face of a group of future generations.

This is simply the shame of the red fruit, so that no one can afford it!

Nine heads of **** and blue sky Dapeng, double-headed lions exchanged their eyes, the line of sight fell on the last five rhyme chains, endured the resentful sigh of the heart...

"Daoyou, there is no gap between you and me!"

"The situation today is so good, it's the same thing... it's the same thing!"

"Yes, the five-grained chains are likely to come to other powerful presences at any time. Perhaps the next one is a wildest supreme."

The implication is that this is to remind the **** unicorn, don't worry about the prestige, the immediate interests are the most important.

Although you are an ancient power, but the other five striated chains may come to the same level as you at any time, even stronger and unknown.

At the same time, this is tantamount to another suggestion. The nine **** scorpions and the Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed lions are showing good, indicating that they can join hands, so even if the follow-up five chains really have the power of the wild, then With their help, the Scarlet Kirin can also ensure that the opponent is suppressed!

Once as long as the **** unicorn nod to recognize this kind of sincerity, then after 90% of the possibility, he will not suddenly turn against the water, killing nine **** scorpions and Qingtian Dapeng, double-headed lions, the ancient supreme and the ancient sage Pride, for this, nine **** three people know!

In fact, what they are most eager to see now is that a presence that is not weaker than the **** unicorn suddenly comes from a chain of striated chains.

In this way, even if the **** unicorn does not buy their accounts, they can fall to the ancient power that has just arrived, and deal with the **** unicorns together... At that time, the existence of three quasi-ageless ancient power levels, It will be no different from odd goods, because they are biased towards which side, basically which side's odds are settled!

"The calculation is very savvy. If the situation really occurs, the deity is forced by the situation. I really can't help but think about your sincerity..."

The **** unicorn instantly realized the meaning of the nine **** scorpions and the Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lions, but apparently it was not moved by it. The face was full of contempt, and the tone was full of sarcasm and disdain: Unfortunately, you are in vain, the deity is different from you, even if you want to eat, calmly calm!"

The cultivation of his body has been the strength, and now he has recovered to the peak of the ancient powers of the ancients, and the **** unicorns are determined. It is basically impossible to live still, or the ancient sacredness that has been restored. At most, it is just like him. It's just the peak of the ancient powers.

If so, this kind of existence follows the pattern chain in the form of energy avatars, and the strength of the coming body is at the beginning of the ancient power of the ancients. It belongs to the same level as him, as long as there is no such thing as the three ancients. The interference of energy, in the case of the same level of war, the **** unicorn is not afraid of anyone!

That is to say, even if there is a wild power that is coming now, the **** unicorn will do it. It is also the first time to kill nine **** scorpions and Qingtian Dapeng and double-headed lions to completely eliminate hidden dangers!

The nine **** three people did not expect him to be such an idea, because they did not understand the **** unicorn, but from the other party's words at the moment, nine **** and blue sky Dapeng, double-headed lions still listened Out of the refusal to vote in good faith, and even ridiculed that they eat ugly, no ambiguity and power of the ancients!

This is the rhythm of the inconsistency. The nine **** scorpions and the Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed lions exchange their eyes again. The breath in the body is instantly violent... Now, only one battle!

"In this case, there is only one war, and the level of the ancient powers, I have not reached it..."

"More to say no benefit, to fight, then... fight!"

"Roar!"

The supreme existence of the three quasi-ageless ancient power levels simultaneously spoke, and the atmosphere in the violent body was raging. In the blink of an eye, the original size of the body was soaring a hundred times and reached a million feet!

A nine-headed **** body, the body is full of blood, each scale is like a huge peak, the breath is extremely violent, and the whole piece of void is shivering under the pressure of this violent.

A blue sky Dapeng, all body blue, each feathers are so, can not see the slightest variegated, slightly spread wings, the universe void seems to be broken.

Among the three half-step cosmic-class mechanical beasts that are burying their heads and eating the fringe chains, one is slightly closer to the blue sky, and the slightest squeaking of the violent air from the wings spreads slightly.

It was a steel friction that was soaring in an instant...

There was no violent explosion, but the half-step cosmic-class mechanical beast, the whole body, was disintegrated in an instant, and the huge body was broken and smashed in the blink of an eye!

The last one is a double-headed lion with two giant beasts. The whole body is full of blood, and there is a strangely bright color. The body has more inexhaustible **** fog and opens in the blink of an eye. It covered a void and shrouded the entire shape of the huge double-headed lion.

The blood power of this double-headed lion is obviously not only a fierce battle, but it can be seen from the faint **** fog of this awning. He is mostly good at some kind of temptation and can be in battle. Create illusions and reinvent rivals...

"Do you want to resist this?"

"I really laughed at the deity, and the three ants were trying to challenge Tianwei?"

The **** unicorn sneer, the breath of the body is raging, but the tone is still ridiculous and contemptuous. It can be seen that these three strengths have been reduced to the powerful existence of the quasi-wild power, and indeed there is no He was put in his eyes.

You can kill your hands when you raise your hands!

When the words fall, the **** unicorn seems to be somewhat boring. This kind of ants, it is enough to play a few words, and it is too much entangled, but it seems to be falling.

He has felt boring and ready to shoot!

It was also at this time that the fifth rhythm chain was lit up in a timely manner, creaking, and the movement was not small. The end that connected the end of the void was lighted up and quickly spread toward it.

The **** unicorn looked a dull, subconsciously turned to look at the past, and the nine bloody, Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed lion were even more breathless. They were preparing to take the shot and they immediately stopped their movements. With the color of excitement, I also turned to the fifth rhyme chain, looking around, and my expression gradually became excited...

Chapter 3915: Quasi-powered by spike

"Oh la la..."

The sound of the chain is ringing, and the fifth striate chain is quickly lit up, and the other end of the empty end spreads toward the end of the mastic furnace, and the speed is very fast.

Seeing this scene, the **** unicorn frowned, his face showed sneer, and the nine bloody, Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lion were very excited. This is exactly what they expected, but they did not expect the people of Tianzhu. Really become a reality.

The **** unicorn is too arrogant, but it doesn't matter, as long as there is another era of the ancient power level, when the two tigers fight each other, their three quasi-wild powers will become a strange commodity.

No matter which side you are biased towards, you can save your life. There is basically no such thing as a fateful thing. They have their own pride!

"Hey!"

A high rumor came out, and then, from the smudged chain that suddenly illuminate, a large-scale iron-striped rhinoceros rhinoceros was found, which was black and blue and rough.

This is obviously also an energy avatar. Its cultivation is also at the level of the quasi-wild power. Obviously, the body is just like the nine-headed bloody, Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lions. It has just returned to the early days of the ancient powers.

After discovering the realm of the other side's cultivation, the **** head of the nine heads couldn't help but tighten again. A feeling of disappointment came to life... It was not a real wild power!

But in general, it is better than nothing. At least this iron-striped rhinoceros is famous for its resistance to wear and tear even in the distant old days. Although it is only an energy avatar, it is not its body, but in terms of attributes is the same.

If it was said that there were only three surviving ancient energy levels, the **** unicorn could not escape the fate of being killed one by one.

So now that there is this iron-thorned rhinoceros rhinoceros, the four surviving ancient powers are on the **** unicorn, and dare not mention any odds, but at least the chance of life-saving has suddenly increased a lot.

What's more, there are still four full-length chains on the other side, and it is possible to come back to a wild creature at any time. Even if this time is still only a quasi-wild power, in the case of five-on-one, at least Qualified for the **** unicorn!

But before that, you must first bring this iron-striped rhinoceros to your own camp.

Nine heads of blood and Qingtian Dapeng, the two-headed lion exchanged a look, while looking at the iron-striped rhinoceros, showed a slight nod, and then looked at the **** unicorn, sneer out...

"Kirin, are you still insisting? Just divided into four, it has now become five. If you continue to insist, the products in the furnace will eventually be divided into nine..."

"The more old friends there are, the more secure I am, but I am safer, at least for now, you can't rumor that I will be easily killed!"

"Or you can still try it and see if you can kill me and the trio, and you will kill it without any damage!"

This discourse is intentionally guided and understatement, and it has brought the iron-scarred rhinoceros that has just arrived to the camp of one's own side, and at the beginning has expressed its status, recognizing the qualification of the iron-striped rhinoceros. The latter was originally for this purpose, and the most concerned nature is this!

"I have to say that in the case of a pair of four, you can really support it for a while..."

The **** unicorn is still sneering, but the look on the face is getting different and the tone is a bit strange. "Unfortunately, this iron-striped rhinoceros is not the time. He is destined to die. Your mind is afraid. Failed..."

"Roar!"

This is clearly the contempt and humiliation of the red fruit. It has just arrived, and the situation has not yet been clarified. Actually, it was issued a death notice, and the tone of the other party is still so determined that he did not put himself in his eyes. The rhinoceros was furious, even when he looked up and roared.

"puff!"

Not waiting for his roaring voice to fall, a dull squeaking sound has been heard, the iron-striped rhinoceros roaring high-rise head is actually directly from the body, flying high, no blood spattered in the neck cavity. Because this is originally an energy body, the head is phagocytized, and it is severely damaged. The annihilation is only the form dissipating!

In the next moment, the energy split of the iron-striped rhinoceros was completely dissipated, and behind it, a slim figure appeared.

This is the first nine sacred crocodile that had been linked to the **** unicorn along with the striated chain.

This nine-spotted crocodile is naturally also in the form of energy avatars, but its cultivation is the same as the **** unicorn. It is the beginning of the ancient dynasty, and the reason why it can appear quietly, even the striated chains have never been illuminated. More innocent noise is related to some kind of **** magical power of the nine genie.

In fact, it was almost at the same time as the iron stalk that had been annihilated, but the figure was not manifested, but the **** unicorn as a wild power with him, sensed a touch of breath. Otherwise, it will not say the words of the talented person, so definitely declare the fate of the iron-thorns and rhinoceros!

For all of this, the nine-headed **** and the Qingtian Dapeng, which are weaker in strength, are completely unaware of the two-headed lions. Until now, the energy split of the iron-buckthorn rhinoceros has been completely dissipated, and the figure is only about a thousand feet. When the nine crocodile crocodiles were also glaring toward them, they were shocked and the back was suddenly chilly!

Anyone can see it, the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile are clearly a group!

At the moment, the iron-thorns and rhinoceros have been paralyzed. Just after they arrived, they have not had time to figure out the situation. Their energy avatars were decapitated and then disappeared.

There are only three surviving ancient power levels on the side of the nine **** scorpions, while the other side is two real wild powers. The balance of the fighting power is too steep, and there is no possibility of even a fight. There are no opportunities to struggle. Once the battle is over, the only result is not too big, even if it is not spikes!

The situation deteriorated drastically. The nine heads of blood and the blue sky Dapeng, the two-headed lions, the whole heart instantly sank to the bottom of the valley, secretly complaining, while the line of sight also asked for help, looking at the last three lines of the chain.

Although this energy avatar is like a thorny rhinoceros, it is not completely degraded. After all, it is only an energy avatar, not a deity.

But the consequences are too serious, the avatars are degraded, the deity will be seriously damaged, this time the interests of the furnace, it is no longer related to them, the equivalent of stealing chickens is not a corrosion of a meter, it is difficult to accept!

At first, the only thing they thought about was to blast all the remaining sash chains as soon as possible. With the accident of the Scarlet kylin, these remaining striated chains became their only ones. Life-saving straw, I have to say, this is not a general irony...

Chapter 3916: Fall into the sky

Since the nine **** scorpions began to follow the fringe chain, the protagonist of this evil source star field has quietly changed.

Including the eight immortal grotesque, nearly two hundred high-ranking ancestors who came from the three major planes and the forces, originally killed and killed here, the tossing is called a joyous jump.

But now all of them have retreated to tens of millions of miles, and the position of the protagonist in front of this star domain has been let out, for the color matching... No, in fact, even the supporting role or the audience is not, at most, it is a Playing soy sauce!

This is a bit embarrassing. All the top ancestors are all squatting, but they are not willing to leave. On the one hand, they are on the edge of the furnace. It seems to have gradually become conflict. Before the final result has not ended, they may not There is no chance.

On the other hand, it is this level of fighting, for them is also a chance, even if only to observe from a distance, the perception of the realm and power is also good!

However, as the saying goes, the gods fight, the little devils suffer, and now the conflicts that are about to erupt are all above the quasi-ageless level. If it is really a war, no one knows what it will be.

Therefore, all the high-level ancestors of all ethnic groups and forces have avoided as far as possible and retreated to the distant voids of tens of millions of miles away.

Only the half-step cosmic mechanical beasts that existed at the end of the two are still still in the same place.

In addition, the mysterious power of the headless baby corpse, the body shape and all the air-powered Ye Xuan, also approached the edge of these two mechanical beasts at this moment, the fine flashes in the squat, carefully looking at the two heads A powerful mechanical beast...

The fringe chains of the furnaces are from extraordinary, but now they have been bombarded and collapsed, and the connection with the furnace has been cut off. The order field inside the fringe chain has become disordered and may even have dissipated.

It can be said that the power is greatly weakened!

The strength of these two mechanical beasts was originally extraordinary, reaching a half-step cosmic level, and their mouths are obviously made of special materials, so chewing these fringe chains, the speed is so fast!

In the short time, there were only more than a thousand tracks left in the tens of thousands of smashed striated chains. The others have all been eaten clean.

Of course, for this reason, the mechanical beasts also paid a lot of money. They had four heads, but now they have only two left.

Judging from the current situation, if there is no accident, the last one thousand rhythm chains should soon be eaten clean by the two-and-a-half-stage cosmic mechanical beasts.

Later, they should immediately retreat, because this time came to the source of the evil, the only purpose of these four mechanical beasts is to eat the fret chain, which has already been confirmed by their actions!

This is obviously very strange, even Ye Xuan has a feeling of suspicion.

The metal that creates these striated chains must be extremely special. It belongs to the top material. There is no doubt about this, but it is only this way. Obviously, it will not let the Emperor of the Tianzu or the Emperor of the mechanical family deliberately send such four. The half-step cosmic-class mechanical beast, risking the fall, rushed to the source of the evil, and eroded it!

Ye Xuan observed closely, and soon discovered that the two-and-a-half-step cosmic mechanical beasts were not able to break with the fragmentation of a chain when they were eating a fret chain. Each of the patterns is completely chewed while the chain is chewed by the sharp teeth of the mechanical beast.

Each of the fringe chains is very long. On each chain link, all kinds of sinuous symbols with completely unknown meanings are etched, and tens of thousands of chains are added together. This kind of mysterious pattern is different. The amount will be a horrible number...

Ye Xuan's heart gives birth to enlightenment. If there is no accident, the real goal of these half-step cosmic mechanical beasts should not be the metal that casts the chain, but the mysterious symbols that are etched on the chain. !

The smoldering of the smoldering of the smoldering furnace is the handwriting of the heavenly eye, and it is created for the heavenly eye, including these striated chains.

From this point of view, the countless patterns on the fringe chain are not simple, the celestial or mechanical family, and now these are the patterns, perhaps they still don't understand each of them. The representative of the righteousness, but also because of this, will be so concerned about this.

Nowadays, the four-and-a-half-step cosmic-class mechanical beasts are coming, and the fringe chains are on the surface. It seems to be the top mysterious metal on the surface, but this is only the benefit of the incident, the real big head. It is these mysterious symbols that come from the hands of the heavenly eye.

They may represent a powerful force of some unknown.

The reason why the headless baby corpse reminded Ye Xuan to come to the star of the evil world at this time, if there is no accident, the purpose should be the countless pattern on the chain!

After realizing this, Ye Xuan fell into a sinking, feeling awkward!

He has no mechanical beasts, and he can't get the mysterious smudges etched on the chains through this way of licking the fringe.

In fact, even if there is, it is already late, and more than 10,000 lines of shackles have been cut off, and most of them have been eaten, but the rest is more than a thousand, and the two-and-a-half-step cosmic level The speed of the mechanical beast, even the last more than a thousand striated chains, will soon be eaten.

The only way is to grab it directly, but in that case, Ye Xuan must be exposed. What's more, if it is forced by force, Ye Xuan does not have this strength. The two surviving mechanical beasts are all the 9th-order Dacheng Ye Xuan means to go against the sky. After all, he has not yet grown up. How can he deal with this semi-step cosmic level?

"Hey!"

At this time, just as Ye Xuan felt helpless, near the furnace in the distance, there was a loud whistling sound, and turned to look forward to the blood ancestor from the second cosmic **** ancestors. The head is bloody, and the body is suddenly bursting out with a breath of breath, which is clearly a rhythm of preparation!

A powerful and incomprehensible pressure spread out, and it was an instant that the mechanical beast that was slightly closer to the blood of the nine heads was smashed.

The mysterious energy shield that originally shrouded its huge figure, suddenly had a bleak horn, and the **** horror of the nine heads saw the stitches. After an instant vacancy, the small body of the mechanical beast was blasted in an instant. The figure quickly fell to the bottom of the void...

Ye Xuanzhen in the fine mans flash, the opportunity is coming!

Without any hesitation, he immediately spurred his figure and chased the past with speed. Anyway, there was a mysterious power guard of the headless baby, and no fear was discovered.

The electronic consciousness in this mechanical beast has been seriously injured, and it is the best time for Ye Xuan to enter the sky...

Chapter 3917: penetration

"call out....."

When the sound of the air broke, the huge alloy body of the mechanical beast was like a meteor, and quickly fell to the bottom of the void...

The energy shield that has been stirred up from it is obviously quite extraordinary. After all, the mechanical beast itself is a half-step cosmic level. It can make it need to use the energy shield to resist the attack. Naturally, it is impossible to be a general force. From this angle, we can analyze the height of this energy shield.

Even the horrific pressure that suddenly emerged from the **** body of the nine-headed **** body of the quasi-absurd ancient powers only caused the energy shield in the mechanical beast to appear in a short period of time.

But at the moment, the dim energy shield that suddenly changed from that corner has now fully recovered. Therefore, the remains of mechanical beasts have not been hit and destroyed.

Even so, its huge figure is still falling uncontrollably toward the bottom of the void. This can only explain a problem. Although the alloy body is preserved, the electronic consciousness in the alloy body has been hit. At the moment of being hit, it was extremely severely hit.

The avatar is beyond control. This is definitely the rhythm of the demise of electronic consciousness. Just like the soul consciousness of flesh and blood is hit hard!

For Ye Xuan, this is a great opportunity for a lifetime!

He has an electronic body, and the body is a body of the emperor. In the body of the emperor, it is the electronic consciousness of the celestial patriots of Ye Xuan, Sha Baofeng and Emperor Shaofeng. A glimpse of its own spiritual source, a new electronic consciousness created after perfection.

This electronic consciousness is actually an electronic life, belonging to Ye Xuan's electronic life.

Nowadays, Ye Xuan has mobilized it, retreating from the body of the emperor, and rushing out at any time, entering the body of the mechanical beast underneath, and launching an electronic invasion, it is equivalent to flesh and blood. Between...

However, even if this mechanical beast is already seriously injured, but after all, people are half-step cosmic, and Ye Xuan's electronic avatar is only the first-order strength of the eclipse. Even if it is sinister, it may not be successful. Devouring each other.

On the contrary, it is the fall of this, the possibility of being swallowed by the other party... bigger!

It was also at this time that the corpse lamp tattoo on the left chest of Ye Xuan was suddenly hot, and the energy was transmitted, and Ye Xuan Electronics, which was already prepared, was inside.

The so-called electronic avatar is actually a series of unique data streams with life. When it exists independently, the shape is a small white light group.

Now, after the influx of this mysterious force that has been differentiated from the headless baby corpse, the original white light group has slightly developed a little green meaning. Ye Xuan's heart is clear, and he will not hesitate to shake it and shoot it straight. Run to the mechanical beast that falls quickly below.

With the mysterious energy support of the headless baby corpse, Ye Xuan's electronic avatar can easily enter the body through the energy shield of the mechanical beast body, and in the next process of engulfing, it can ensure that it does not happen. accident.

And when this faint light group fading away, it will not be noticed by any existence. Just like the current Ye Xuan, the whole body shape and all the air movements are perfectly concealed.

In fact, even if there is no support for the headless baby body, this is a tiny, flaming-like man, which basically won't attract anyone's attention.

The more than one hundred high-ranking ancestors of all ethnic groups in the distance above the void, all of their attention is placed near the furnace, and the horror of the nine **** scorpions, apparently have no interest in the ants in the surrounding area... ..

"call out!"

Less than half a moment, Ye Xuan's electronic avatar plunged into the layer of energy shields on the body of the mechanical beast, directly into the body, and then the first time to expand the penetration and devouring of the electronic level... for the life of electronic form Words, this is the fight!

Once the success is won, the original electronic consciousness of the mechanical beast will disappear completely, and all the data in this electronic consciousness, that is, the memory, will be perfectly and completely copied.

To put it simply, the electronic consciousness inside the mechanical beast will be replaced by Ye Xuan's electronic avatar, and there is no flaw.

Of course, if the patriarch of the Tianzu nationality or the patriarch of the mechanical family, Emperor II, if he is careful, he may be able to find some traces.

This is the only thing Ye Xuan is worried about!

However, with the support of the mysterious energy of the headless baby corpse added to the electronic consciousness light group, this kind of worry is obviously unnecessary. The emperor and the emperor are more powerful, how can they crack the means of headless baby corpse? ?

It is not the same level of existence at all!

After the three interest, the mechanical beast that has been in the state of acceleration and falling to the bottom of the void, the body shape suddenly stagnate!

Seeing this scene, Ye Xuan suddenly breathed a sigh of relief, the penetration of the electronic avatar, and finally succeeded!

Then, in his mind, he heard a familiar system prompt, and he has already succeeded in the electronic consciousness. He is passing on a large amount of data that he has just swallowed. The system asks if Ye Xuan will receive it immediately!

Ye Xuan's flash of light, even if given a positive reply: "Receive immediately, all information is stored in the system database, and immediately open data analysis and derivation!"

The data transmission was launched in an instant, and Ye Xuan only took a glance and determined the origin of the mechanical beast.

Sure enough, as he had speculated before, the four mechanical beasts had nothing to do with the Tianji nationality. They all came from the mechanical family. They were instructed by the mechanical clan, the immortal emperor of the emperor, and came to the source of evil. Star field, encroaching on the fret chain!

As for the purpose of doing this, as well as Ye Xuan's previous speculation, the top metal to create these chains is only second, and more importantly, the mysterious symbols that are etched on the chain!

To this end, Emperor II apparently made careful preparations, but not the four-and-a-half-step cosmic mechanical beast's mouth was created by Emperor II in a special material beforehand, and even in their bodies, they even built four A miniature directional transmission array that is connected to each other.

That is to say, although there have been two mechanical beasts that have fallen, but in fact, the top metal that the two mechanical beasts have eaten, and the large number of mysterious patterns obtained by them, have not been lost or destroyed. .

All of this, as early as the moment when the alloy bodies of the two mechanical beasts were destroyed, or the electronic consciousness was seriously injured, the micro-directional transmission array in the body was passed to the surviving two mechanical beasts.

The mechanical beast that has been won by Ye Xuan at the moment, once the body is mostly destroyed, or the electronic consciousness is about to die, the semi-top metal and mysterious pattern in the body will be transmitted to the last machine in the same way. The beastly body...

Chapter 3918: Surviving crisis

The patriarch of the mechanical family, Emperor II, obviously also considered the possibility that the four mechanical beasts were captured, so they made preventive measures in a targeted manner!

Among the data information transmitted by the electronic avatar, the farthest memory that Ye Xuan can trace back to is that the four mechanical beasts rushed out from a wormhole like a wormhole and appeared in a giant underground space. Where it is.

In the picture, the emperor's emperor of the immortal dynasty squatted on a high platform with no expression on his face, and his body exhaled in the air, which was also the main level.

But for this, Ye Xuan will not believe it, because the emperor's cultivation is the same strength, it should be similar to the emperor, at least the disparity will not be too great.

As the patriarch of the Tianji nationality, Emperor Yi can dominate the tens of thousands of years in the first universe, and can it be weakened?

You must know that among the ancestral lands of the space rat and the **** ant, all of them have immortal ancestors in the sleep, including the devil, and the emperor is weak again, and its cultivation is not enough. Immortal level!

From this, it is basically possible to infer that the Emperor II is the lower limit of strength!

It is a pity that in the huge underground space suspected to be somewhere in the immortal star, Emperor II has no communication with the four mechanical beasts, and there is no verbal confession. Under the turn of the picture, these four mechanical murderers The beast has already come to the star of the evil world through some extremely powerful transmission method...

All the memories before they rushed out of the wormhole like a wormhole were actually blank, and it was already wiped out by Emperor II!

According to Ye Xuan's speculation, the wormhole-like vortex on the other end should be an independent small world like a mysterious or cave-like world, and there is the old nest of the mechanical family, or the base camp!

Although Emperor II did not become an enemy of the Terran, and even became the national teacher of the Terran empire of the Terran Science and Technology camp, but for the Emperor II and his mechanical family, Ye Xuan has always maintained a certain wariness.

Because they are too mysterious, and it seems to be related to Ye Xuan.

Although the phagocytic system in his body is the invention of the pioneer of the Terran technology, it is the seed of the system that was spread by the Emperor's hand. The phagocytic system did give Ye Xuan a great creation. Without the phagocytic system, there is no today. His.

But since the first system carrier was encountered, and the so-called system competition task between the two was activated in the first time, Ye Xuan's heart gave birth to a warning sign, and he was thinking about the evolution of the phagocytic system to the end. At what extent, what changes will be brought to him.

Or, whether this change is a good thing or a bad news!

Based on this, Ye Xuan is wary of Emperor II, and obviously understands it!

It is a pity that both the Emperor II and the mechanical family are too mysterious. The entire mechanical family does not even have ethnic groups to walk outside. This is also abnormal, and it is strange.

But because of this, Ye Xuan simply could not find contact with the mechanical family, and explored it to explore the truth.

At the moment, this opportunity has clearly arrived.

His electronic avatar has succeeded in winning a mechanical beast of the main level. Ye Xuan intends to devour the avatar, let the electronic avatar return to the mechanical family with this new identity, which is a kind of lurking and deepening.

If there is no headless baby corpse to join the mysterious energy of the electronic avatar, Ye Xuan may not dare to do this, because Emperor Er can erase all the memory data before the four mechanical beasts, then It is also very likely that the truth of this mechanical beast has been taken.

That's tantamount to putting your own electronic avatar in danger!

But now this is no longer a problem. For the headless baby body, Ye Xuan is still very confident. The level of the people is there, there is no need to question!

At this point, the data information transmitted by the electronic avatar has been received, including those mysterious patterns, and the data information transmitted has a copy.

That's right, just a rubbish!

The innumerable patterns etched on the locks, after entering the body of the mechanical beast as the chains are foraging, are directly converted into a smear of energy, which is now stored with the chewed mysterious metal. In the body of a mechanical beast.

Originally, Ye Xuan was extremely tempted by these mysterious metals and the patterns that turned into energy light groups. He wanted to expand the means and receive them, but in that case, the mechanical beast that had been taken over by his electronics was obviously It is impossible to complete the task of sneak into the home of the mechanical family, because there is nothing to cross after going back, it will cause the suspicion of Emperor II!

"But, anyway, even if it is received now, it is only half of it, and half of it is in the body of another mechanical beast. It doesn't make sense..."

Concealed from the shackles, Ye Xuan immediately made a decision to temporarily give up the embarrassment of the mysterious metal and the striated energy light group in this mechanical beast. All of them still sneak into the home of the mechanical family.

After all, as long as this task is completed, if these mysterious metals and striated energy light groups are extremely important, there will be the possibility of stealing them in the future!

Just at this time, the electronic avatar once again sent a message, the other mechanical beast at the top of the void, in a short period of time, has already smashed the last thousand symbols of the chain, all cleaned up, according to the emperor The previously set program, after all this, the surviving mechanical beast, no matter how many, must activate the directional transmission array in the body and return immediately.

Ye Xuan did not hesitate, even when given a response.

Then, somewhere above the void, and in front of the mechanical beast that had been electronically separated, there was a small vortex like a wormhole.

The two mechanical beasts did not hesitate, and the body shape shook into a touch of mans, and then the two small wormholes disappeared instantly, and the blink of an eye disappeared...

"Roar!"

"Hey..."

"Booming!"

It was also at this time, in the distance above the void, suddenly there was an earth-shattering sound of explosion, accompanied by a roar and two screams.

Ye Xuan turned to look at it, and his face could not be changed.

The **** unicorn has already been shot, just like playing and playing at the same time, picking one at the same time, simply lifting the right forelimb toward a button, the void has no fluctuations, the slightest energy is not leaked, but the nine blood combined to resist this blow 蛟 and Qingtian Dapeng, two-headed lions, but suddenly suffered a big problem.

The four heads of the nine **** blasts directly blasted, and Qingtian Dapeng also folded the huge scorpion wing on the right side. The two-headed lions were also seriously injured. One of the two lions smashed into a hood. Blood fog.

This scene is too horrified. The existence of the ancient power level of the ancients, the first shot, it is extraordinary, so that thousands of high-level ancestors of thousands of ethnic groups who watched thousands of miles away in the distance, all face pale, body shape They all trembled slightly.

"The ants are the ants, even the ones of the deity can't resist it!"

"Oh la la..."

The **** unicorn is sneering proudly, but the words are still not falling. There is one of the nine striated chains that are still connected to the lower side of the outer wall of the smoldering furnace. It suddenly trembles and a strong crisis of survival is on the mind. Make him change instantly...

Chapter 3919: Living supreme

"Oh la la..."

The sneer of the **** unicorn is still not falling, and there is one of the nine striated chains that are still connected to the lower side of the outer wall of the smoldering furnace. It suddenly trembles!

A strong crisis of survival, hit the heart, made him instantly change, exclaimed: "Abandoned ancient power peak? This is impossible..."

The plaque on the chain illuminates, and the deafening noise is heard. This is clearly an energy avatar of the ancient creatures. It is following this striate chain and is coming soon!

This was nothing. The **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile, including the nine **** scorpions and the Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lions that had been seriously injured by the former, were originally brought in this way.

But it is precisely because they are coming in this way, so the **** unicorn is incomparably clear. At this time, the rumbling of the scented chain is rapidly coming, just an energy avatar... ... the body, can't come so!

The breath that comes out of the chain at the moment is clearly the peak of the ancient powers. What does this mean?

An energy avatar is already the peak of the ancient powers, and the existence of this dying, its body, is definitely an ancient supreme.

At this moment, with the words of the **** unicorns ringing, the four powerful wild animals, such as the Nine Ghosts and the Nine Heads of Blood, finally reacted, and realized that the situation in front of them was all exclaimed...

"Is the strength of a certain existence restored to the ancient supreme? This...who is it?"

"A living supreme, too amazing, even if the energy that comes today is only the strength of the peak, it is enough to crush everything!"

"Block him, he must stop him immediately, or I will die if I let it fall!"

"Two, are you still waiting for me? If you don't unite, I will fight for the old life, but also stop you from smashing this striated chain. Anyway, it's a death, die together and die..."

The last sentence was taken from the **** source of the blood of the second cosmic **** ancestor. He originally thought that he and the Qingtian Dapeng and the double-headed lion were already dead, although only one It has only energy, but after the fall, the influence on the deity is still unbearable!

At the moment, when they were seriously injured by the **** unicorns, and then they were able to completely annihilate them, they actually had such an accidental change. A wild sacred energy avatar is about to come.

For the nine-headed **** and blue sky Dapeng, the two-headed war lion, this is definitely a big good news...

The **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile are strong, and they are also supreme in the ancient times, but they have not recovered to the peak state after all, but now the body is only in the midst of the ancient energy, the energy avatars coming down are weaker, only the ancient The beginning of the power.

It is enough to crush the nine **** three, but if the horror that is about to come on is there, they will not even be as good as the ants.

The disparity in strength has exceeded the gap between them and the nine bloody!

In the early days of the quasi-ageless ancient powers and the ancients of the ancients, it was only a small realm.

But the early days of the ancient times and the peaks of the ancients, but the gap between the two small realms...

If the existence of this energy-only avatar has reached the peak of the wild, the **** unicorn and the nine genie of the crocodile will be undoubtedly!

The only vitality is to smash the striate chain and break the connection with the smoldering furnace before the other party has come. So, the energy division of the other party will lose the coordinates, and the chain will be cut off. The disorder of the order domain is simply impossible to extend, and it can only retire to protect itself!

It is precisely because of this point that the nine **** scorpions dare to force the palace, but it is a death. If the **** unicorn and the nine crocodile do not agree to unite, the three of them fight for life, can indeed delay a little time, stop the **** unicorn With the nine sacred crocodile shots to break this striated chain, for the advent of the existence, to fight for time!

At that time, as soon as the other party arrives, it will be a big death!

This is a forced palace, but it is a conspiracy, but the **** unicorn and the nine crocodile crocodile have to submit, because it is related to their life and death, and once they recognize the alliance, in their identity, it is impossible to make an afterthought Even if the nine heads of **** and blue sky Dapeng, the two-headed warrior hate into the bones ... to kill, it is the next time!

The existence of such a level is to cherish the feathers, and no one wants to carry the stigma of shame!

Although this is extremely wrong, but the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile did not hesitate, and immediately made a choice and response...

"Hey! You won, you can live more hours, meet again next time... you must!"

"Don't say it, just take it out, it's too late to come... oh!"

In the screaming screaming, the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile shot at the same time, and all the way to the screaming chain that was passing through the bang.

The energy was too majestic, and a whole piece of emptiness was trembled. Even the huge star-like furnaces shook slightly.

This is two ancient powers, and at the same time, all efforts are made. If the source of the evil is not reinforced by the domain of Tiandao Qingyan, it is feared that this whole star will collapse!

At this moment, the whole heart of the nine-headed **** and Qingtian Dapeng and the two-headed lions all mentioned the blind eyes.

They had almost been embarrassed before, but now, with the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile gnashing their teeth, they have not shot, but they have a lot of life.

As long as this striated chain is smashed, the horrible existence cannot come, then, even though the three of them have already formed a deadly hatred with the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile, they will have many problems in the future, but at least today This energy is still able to keep it.

But all this is still undecided.

Everything depends on the combination of the Scarlet unicorn and the Nine Ghosts. Is it possible to blast this striate chain that represents a horrible nightmare in time...

If it fails, the line that has just been seen is undoubtedly annihilated in an instant!

I have to say that the encounter between life is really awkward. At this time, the nine heads of blood and the blue sky and the double-headed lions are at this moment.

In the first moment, they were still eagerly expecting a powerful presence to follow the fringe chain to save them from the fire.

Now, people are really coming, but they have hung their whole heart to the eyes of the blind, and the other party is really coming... It's such a big ups and downs, it's not a general excitement!

"Hey, I'm so scared that the deity is coming, how many of you guys have done a lot of guilty things... Don't do anything to lose money, be careful to be thundered!"

It was also at this time that an unexpected voice of the words suddenly emerged from the illuminated chain of chains, revealing a relaxed, revealing ambiguity, revealing a thick sense of proportion...

Five powerful wild creatures are instantly stunned and faceless.

Ye Xuan in the far below the sky, also instantly widened his eyes, this breath... so special!

Chapter 3920: One finger is gone

"Oh la la..."

"boom!"

As the sound of the sigh of sighs rang, the illuminating shackles were instantly smashed, followed by a thunderous bang, and the emptiness trembled with a violent earthquake. The wind will rise, and the blink of an eye will turn into a huge giant turtle...

The body is too horrible, at least ten times that of the furnace... You know, the light is the furnace, its volume is already equivalent to a giant star!

At this time, the **** unicorn and other five ancient creatures have already trembled, and their faces are pale and incomprehensible. Even the words in their mouths are no longer useful, as if they were stuttering...

"Virtual turtle? This is this... Is this swollen?"

"Have you been killed by the ridiculous demon? After the war, the news has spread. The ancient demon slays the virtual giant turtle behind the scenes, and the murderous sorcerer's blade is collapsed..."

"Alive alive! The virtual turtle is still alive... God, this is terrible. In the heyday, it is the existence of the peak of the ancient age!"

"This is not the key! The key is... he actually followed the chain of chains, what happened? We have always been in the enemy? The source of the supply of the furnace, there is actually a battle of the enemy camp. presence!"

"Don't talk nonsense, escape..."

That's right, along with this striated chain, it is the empty giant turtle that killed the ancient devil!

At this moment, as his body shape appeared, five **** unicorns and other ancient creatures, suddenly exclaimed, all at a glance recognized the existence of the coming, who is it!

In the battle of the ancient world, the Tiandao Qingyan and the headless baby corpse were dominated by the two supreme masters. Although there were many ancient and supreme, the real hot and desperate, the two camps were extremely rare.

In the camp of headless baby corpses, there are only a few of the ancient giant tortoises, the golden dragons, and the ancient night cherries, because before and after the war, there were amazing performances, so they were counted by countless powerful wild creatures. Branded in my heart.

It is absolutely indelible, almost indelible!

Of course, this kind of existence, in the hostile Tiandao Qingyan camp, there are also, but the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile, but far from it!

In the war of that year, they were also the ancient supreme in the hostile camp, but the strength was only the mid-term of the Supreme, and the supreme existence of a few supreme peaks such as the Void Giant Turtle was not a rank!

The same is the ancient sacred, if the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile are the generals, then, the cultivation of the strength to reach the supreme peak of the virtual giant turtle and a few other strong, is the existence of similar corps marshals in the two camps!

For the **** unicorn and the nine sacred crocodile, the hollow giant tortoise has been so horrible, then, in the eyes of the nine-headed **** scorpion, it is only the existence of the ancient power level, naturally it is not necessary to say more!

It can be said that the wilderness of the ancients who came to this time is actually the existence of a supreme peak, and after the enemy camp, nine **** and blue sky Dapeng, double-headed lions, almost no suspense I was completely desperate in an instant.

In the exclamation, the double-headed lion is the most practical, and directly utters the words of rushing to escape, representing his heart... This is a completely instinctual reflex!

Such a scene is too unbearable. More than 100 senior ancestors of various ethnic groups who have watched tens of millions of miles away in the distance have already been fully petrified!

A powerful quasi-desert ancient power, in front of their face, in the first time of the other party's coming, it is like a dog of a family, and turned around and fled... This is simply too mad, no one is strong. Enlightenment and prestige!

At the same time, this also reflects from one side the giant tortoise that has just arrived, how terrible the strength is, how fierce the fierce name is!

Realizing this, the top ancestors of more than 100 major ethnic groups, all without exception, are completely cold...

Even before the **** unicorns and the nine sacred crocodile were domineering, they never completely despaired, staying in the distance, and counting on the situation to continue to develop, perhaps there is a chance.

But now, they are really desperate. This time, the cold words and the creation of the evil source, no matter what, can't have any relationship with them anymore... It is the reaction of the double-headed lions that is too shocking. Can you scare a quasi-wild ancient power into this way, what a terrible existence of this giant tortoise?

Only Ye Xuan, although the heart feels weird, but there is no trace of horror, but there is a faint... **** feeling!

No matter how big his brain opened, he never thought that this time, it was actually a void giant turtle... Not long ago, he was just rescued from the mysterious void of the old king!

That's right, it's Pharaoh!

At this time, Ye Xuan wanted to swear. Pharaoh gossip was not something. When he rescued him before, the deep and serious gesture was really like it. I didn't expect to show up now, and my mouth opened my face. .

Listening to that tone, looking at the eyes and postures of the hustle and bustle, the whole thing is a pack of goods... I was almost cheated by him. I thought that this old turtle is an old-fashioned antique. Now it seems that it is a serious Lao Wang Ba!

"Little guy, the old turtle I just came, you haven't come to pay a visit, turn around and leave, actually let the old turtle see your wave skin stocks, this is the rhythm of heaven!"

Just as Ye Xuan felt that he had encountered an old liar, and he was feeling uncomfortable, the voice of the empty giant tortoise with swearing and sarcasm had once again sounded.

How to listen to how to feel unfair, people have a feeling of encountering old hooligans!

This said, apparently it was the two-headed lion who saw him screaming and fleeing, and immediately turned around and fled!

Ye Xuan looked up, but saw the empty giant tortoise as he spoke, and turned to the two-headed lion who fled his head and flicked a toe claw on the right forelimb.

The relaxed expression is like a snot that sticks to the claws of the toes.

"boom!"

However, the snot power that does not exist here is too horrible. After thousands of miles away, the two-headed lions who turned around and fled for a moment have been blown into a **** fog, and half of the hairs have not been left. There is no complete flesh and blood, and the huge body of the giants is directly foggy, and it is blown away by the wind and the smoke disappears!

"thump!"

"thump!"

Nine heads of blood and Qingtian Dapeng were shocked by this scene, scared a skin stock down in the void, full of pale face, a quasi-wild power can be hung up, although only energy, but A thousand miles away from the void, a finger can not be played, this is simply horrified!

"How many of you?"

One finger did not have a double-headed lion, and the empty giant tortoise turned to the nine **** and **** unicorns, sneer again and again: "If you remember correctly, the old turtle just seemed to feel ... murderous?"
