Chapter 414: Two atmospheres

The leader of Akagi was gloomy and flew in one direction. He was out of pride and did not send his family out.

This is trouble!

But when he came to the main city of Akagi City, he found that it was already in ruins, and it was already crushed by the iron corpse.

"Do not!"

The leader of Akagi is crazy, and his family can be here.

At this time, a scarlet figure fell into his eyes, it was the blood of the great sword.

The sword of the big sword blood corpse is bloody, and there is a human head in the hand. It is a daughter of the lord of Chimu.

"Old guy, you are late..." The big sword blood smashed his lips.

"I'm going to kill you!"

The arborist of Akagi was crazy and killed the * corpse toward the Great Sword.

"Good!"

The big sword blood corpse kicked the human head and greeted him.

The big sword blood corpse and the big knife blood corpse are the strength of one hundred and seventy dragons, the strength is not much difference, only the red wood lord can not help the big knife blood corpse, naturally it is no big sword blood corpse.

However, don't forget, the big * corpse is also coming.

Sure enough, five seconds after the two men played, the big knife blood rushed over.

The two blood corpses joined forces, and the red lord felt great pressure, but at this time he was already red-eyed. After all, the entire city government was destroyed. What did he do alone?

The strength of the two hundred and seventy dragons is against the dilemma of a hundred and forty dragons. On the top of the realm, the arborist of Chimu dominates, but in terms of strength and number, he loses a lot.

Therefore, in less than ten rounds, he was beaten and wounded, and the end of a strong scorpion.

He is already desperate, even if he is dead, he must kill both blood bodies.

"Is it hard to fight..."

The * corpse of the big knife flashed because his injury could be recovered quickly, but the arborist of the red wood could not.

Therefore, he felt that the last death must be the lord of Chimu.

However, it is at this time.

The sky suddenly plucked a * shadow, and then there was a * figure landing.

"what?"

Both the blood corpse and the red lord lord were shocked, because it was actually a blood corpse.

what's going on?

Both parties were scared, but the next moment, the * corpse and the big sword blood corpse were gloomy, because the blood corpse actually killed them.

One hundred and seventy dragons!

It turned out to be a * body of one hundred and seventy dragons!

"Impossible, how can there be blood corpses, we are the masters who have consumed countless heavens and treasures, and it took a hundred years to refine them. Where is this blood corpse?" The * corpse was extremely shocked.

The next moment, they just think that this blood corpse is familiar.

"Left guard law?" The big knife blood corpse recognized.

This left guardian is a general of Hu Bin, the seventh leader of the Redwoods a hundred years ago.

"Sure enough, you two!"

This * corpse with a long sword also recognized the other party.

"Left to protect the law, you have become a blood corpse, which means that the old is not dead is still alive."

Not bad!

Just as his voice fell, there was suddenly another figure falling in the air, like the arborist of Akagi, standing in the air.

This is an old man with a long * beard, and looks like a seven-point similarity to the Redwood Lord.

When the red lord saw the two new blood corpses, he was also amazed. However, when he saw this man who could fly like a suffocating man, he immediately exclaimed: "Father?"

This * old man is the seventh redwood lord Hu Bin, the father of the current Redwood lord.

The lord of Chimu was shocked. When Hu Bin gave him the position of the lord, and then went out to travel, he did not come back. He thought that Hu Bin was dead outside.

However, now that it has been a few decades, even if there is no accident, I am afraid that I will die.

But he did not expect that his father turned out to be a * body, and he lived to this day. If you count it, his father is probably more than 130 years old.

"Sure enough, this old guy!"

The * corpse and the big sword blood corpse recognized him. In that year, it was this old guy who bought them and caused them to be killed.

"You are still alive, and you are still alive on behalf of Chi Lian. You can't come out?" The * old man shouted.

The next moment, the cloud is once again lowered, and it is also a master of temperament.

"Red refining, it really is you." Bloody old man Hu Bin looked at the * middle-aged man.

"Old guy, when you tried to control the corpse, I was seriously injured, but you will never think that the secret book you got is not complete. I think you should be stuck in one hundred and seventy. Dragon, right?" Chi Lian asked with blood.

The * old man, Hu Bin, sighed and sighed that this red smelt was really accurate. It was not bad at all.

"Hey, I could have severely injured you a hundred years ago, and I can still do it today." Hu Bin said coldly.

"Then you will try it."

The red light flashed and eighteen big dragons were raised.

The power of one hundred and eighty dragons!

And it's still awkward!

The red lord and Hu Bin's face sank, and the former's mood was ups and downs. He thought that the appearance of Hu Bin could reverse the situation, but now it seems that this may not be the case.

He and the left guardian team can play against the * bodies of the Broadsword and the Big Sword. However, Hu Bin and Chi Lian, but there is a gap between the ten dragons.

In this situation, unless one party dies, the battle will not end.

"kill!"

After the two sides stalemate for two seconds, they suddenly shot.

Three to three!

On the side of Akagi City, there are two masters of the atmosphere and a * body. One of the corpses of the corpse is a * corpse, plus the temperament of the one hundred and eighty dragons.

Whoever loses who wins is hard to say!

But don't forget, there are still tens of thousands of copper corpses in the corpse corps. If they piled in, the Akagi City will definitely be finished. Even if the human masters who intercepted the corpse corps come back, they can't resist so much.

However, this battle has a decisive factor.

At this time, in a cloud above the city of Akagi.

"The enthusiasm of one hundred and seventy dragons, the temperament of one hundred and eighty dragons, the suffocating environment of one hundred and forty dragons, and the blood of three hundred and seventy dragons..."

Ye Xuan looked at his eyes.

If these people's things are given by him, if they break through the one hundred and forty dragons, I am afraid that they are not dreams.

He is still only one hundred and twenty-seven dragons. Even if he uses the Beastmaster violent, he may not be able to kill everyone.

"Hey, let them hit a two-game loss, I am now going to experience..."

Ye Xuan laughed twice and suddenly jumped.

This corpse corps is an ant for him, and he can trample on death with ease.

On the other side, the six men were in the big battle, and they did not notice that the corpse army was rapidly declining.
