Chapter 424: Princess of Poison

"The phagocytic system is really too dark. If these things are given to other people, it is enough to create a master of several hundred dragons."

Ye Xuan's heart is a dark sentence.

Then he filled the pit and walked to the front of the grave, kneeling down and kneeling down three times.

"Predecessors, although you are not allowed to avenge me, but I feel that this is not a crime, you go all the way, I will let the three of them to accompany you."

Ye Xuan said slowly.

After that, he just left.

Although he broke through to two hundred and thirty dragons, he was a little reluctant to deal with Qiu Guan, not to mention Shi Gongzi and Wu Chang.

Therefore, this matter must be considered from a long-term perspective.

He lived here for seven days. He felt that the time was almost the same. He left and prepared to go to the residence of Elder Wu. He was afraid that Elder Wu could not find him and he was in trouble.

Elder Wu did not arrange accommodation for him, so he could only wait outside the wooden house of Elder Wu.

This is another three days.

Three days later, Wu's elders finally came back. Ye Xuan heard the news and went out.

This time, Elder Wu did not come back alone, and there was a girl in a black dress with a good face. The age seems to be around 18 years old, even smaller than Ye Xuan.

Elder Wu stood by her side, a respectful look.

However, behind the two, there is a black drug lord bigger than the tank, which is longer than the human arm.

"It is a poisonous princess!"

"God, isn't this the main doorkeeper of my poisonous door, how come she is here again?"

"When the princess poisoned the door last year, I also took the black king. It is said that two disciples of three hundred dragons were cleaning the outer shell when they were cleaning it. One person accidentally angered it and was stabbed by its tail needle. In one second, it was poisoned and the other one was directly clipped into two by the giant tongs."

"Awful, how did she come to us again?"

The disciples of Baidumen were discussing in private, but fortunately they were far away, otherwise they were heard.

From the voice of their discussion, Ye Xuan can learn that this hundred poisonous door was just a door, and this black girl is from the general gate.

At the same time, this black girl's mount is also very horrible, hitting the second-order person.

At this time, the girl in black suddenly said: "Little black carried me a lot of roads, Elder Wu, looking for someone to help me wash it."

When the words came out, the audience was silent.

"Yes."

When Elder Wu responded, he turned his head, but at this time, the disciples around him were quickly evacuated and did not return.

"Damn, don't you have a black-skinned king of the third-order temperament, so you are so afraid?"

Elder Wu screamed, his eyes swept, but he saw a good candidate.

"You, come over." Elder Wu pointed to Ye Xuan not far away.

"I rub!"

The group of disciples around fled too fast, and Ye Xuan just reacted, and he was given a point by the elders, and immediately sighed.

This time, what a special tragedy!

In desperation, he had to walk quickly.

"You go to the black king to wash, remember, good life to serve." Elder Wu said to Ye Xuan.

"This, Wu Elder, I am not familiar with Baidu Valley..." Ye Xuan hurriedly answered, he did not even know where there is water.

When Elder Wu thought so, it was, so he turned his head and pointed to a disciple who ran back: "You, take him there."

The group of disciples all ran away, and there was no left. However, after the elders arrived at Ye Xuan, they came out again.

This old man of Wu's elders is closest to Ye Xuan. After he was ordered, he wanted to die, but he did not dare to defy and only respectfully responded.

"Little black, keep up with them."

The girl in black whispered a word, and immediately, the black king climbed toward Ye Xuan and then left the two.

Ye Xuan is also the day of the Husky, so many disciples of the Poison, why did he choose him as an outsider?

Moreover, Elder Wu also said that he was hired as a disciple, and this was forgotten.

"You have a leg, an elder, and I have strength, and the first one has done it!"

Ye Xuan roared in his heart, while beware of the black king, this is a black dragon king with the power of three hundred dragons, even if you don't use poison needles, you can pinch Ye Xuan with pliers alone.

Fortunately, this black king did not do it.

The disciple took Ye Xuan and the Black Skull King, first to take the tools, and then to bring Ye Xuan and the Black Skull to a lake in the Valley of the Poison.

This disciple also made his fortune in the three hundred dragons. He barely reached the third-order temperament. After he knew that Ye Xuan was only the * of two hundred and thirty dragons, his heart was even colder. This means that if there is something, Ye Xuan I can't help at all.

"You, you must be careful and be careful, don't anger the black king, or I will kill you first!"

The disciple whispered.

Ye Xuan's heart seems to have 10,000 grass mud horses rushing past, who is nothing to anger this thing?

After the black king came to the lake with Ye Xuan, he quietly stayed there and closed his eyes.

The scorpion usually has eight eyes, one pair of eyes in the middle, and three on each side of the front end, which is scary.

At the same time, Xunzi is also one of Ye Xuan's most hated animals, because the feet are too much, disgusting. In addition, there are spiders and dragonflies, and Ye Xuan is more disgusting.

If he is not afraid of being killed by the elders on the spot, he will not choose to wash the scorpion shell even if he goes to the caterpillar.

"Don't get rid of him."

Ye Xuan secretly told himself in his heart.

He is not afraid of the black king who is the power of three hundred dragons. If he uses the beastmaster violent, he can reach three hundred dragons, plus speed, he can already kill the black king.

However, the owner of the black king is not small, even the elders of the army must be respectful, if the black king is wrong, Ye Xuan's head must also fall.

Therefore, Ye Xuan can only pray that the Black Skull King should not be stupid. If something really happened, Ye Xuan couldn't make it and it's a dead net.

Ye Xuan and another disciple began to wash the black king. Both of them were very careful. The disciple was much more nervous than Ye Xuan, and his hands were shaking.

"Nima, don't hurt me..."

Ye Xuan constantly prayed in his heart.

Fortunately, he will fly at this time, otherwise the back of the black king is really difficult to clean.

The two carefully scrubbed the Black King, although a bit slow, but be careful. The action of the two of them is like the ordinary car washer scrubbing the Rolls-Royce Phantom, for fear of scratching the black king.

It took about five minutes for the two to wash.

at this time.

The black king suddenly opened his eyes, then the giant tongs opened and caught another disciple.
