Chapter 426: 90% grasp

At this time, in front of a loft in Baidu Valley, there were already hundreds of people gathered. In addition, there were thousands of disciples on the periphery, and they were watching.

"What is the poison in the middle of the door, the face is black, take a three-step spit and blood..."

"Listen to the elders, she was wounded by the young masters of the five poisons..."

"How is it possible that the young master is a master of the four hundred and fifty dragons, and the five masters of the five poisons are only four hundred and thirty dragons. How did he do it?"

"It must be poisoned."

"Just kidding, the lord of the door is the genius of our hunger for thousands of years. It has quietly poisoned an enemy of the same level..."

"But I heard that the young masters of the five poisons are not weak..."

The disciples around are whispering, and the elders in front of the attic are the same, but their faces are not very good.

"What to do, what to do, this poison we have never seen, I am afraid that another time, less the master..."

"The door is not here, this is miserable. If the Lord of the Lord is dead, we are separated, then..."

"Fast, let all the disciples who are still in the Baison Valley gather."

"What's the use of this? Even the old guys who have been poisoning for decades have been helpless. Can these wastes detoxify?"

"What should I do?"

"You can only see if the elders can tell which specific poisons there are, and open the solution. Maybe it will work..."

These more than ten elders of the fourth-grade temperament look at me, I see you, no one will detoxify, they only know that the black girl is a mixture of poison, very difficult to understand.

at this time.

"Quickly let go and let go, the black king of the main door is coming."

Suddenly a disciple of a hundred poisonous door shouted out, and then the crowd quickly broke through a hole.

The Black King rushed over and Ye Xuan followed and ran to the attic.

The black scorpion king is also a sacred beast of the third-order temperament. The IQ is not pressed against human beings. After it rushes in, it is a screaming sound and asking about the situation.

"The Shaomen master was poisoned by the young lord Yangming of the five poisonous lords. After returning to the baidu door, he was unconscious..."

An elder of Baiyinmen said.

When the black king heard it, he immediately opened his foot and prepared to rush in.

More than a dozen elders hurriedly caught up and intercepted the black king.

"The elders are now analyzing the toxicity for the small door owners, so don't go in and disturb." The elder hurriedly said.

The black scorpion king heard the words and could only stop, and the long tail kept turning, seemingly anxious.

It is a black girl who grew up from a young age. It has been only ten years since birth, so it has deep feelings with girls.

However, it also understands that there is no way to rush in, and it may also disturb the other party.

Not a while.

"Hey."

The door to the attic was opened and a white-haired old man came out of it.

Then, the more than a dozen elders and dozens of true disciples were rushing up.

"What about the elders?"

The old man in white sighed and shook his head. "There are a variety of mixed poisons that can be identified. There are seven kinds of them, and they are very common. However, the amount of these seven kinds of poisons is very clever, and there is no way for me to mix them together. If you take the detoxification, it will only speed up the death of the younger."

Hearing this, everyone's heart seems to be hit by a sledgehammer.

So, is there no way?

"How to do?"

This group of elders only felt a fascination, and sighed that they had lived on the dog in this life. The five lords of the five poisonous sects, after all, were in their early twenties.

More than a dozen elders, blinking each other, and after a while, the poisonous princess is afraid to be poisoned and killed.

If the poisonous princess died here, the main doorkeeper of Baidumen will certainly not let them go.

at this time.

"Can the big elders publish seven kinds of drugs?"

Suddenly a strange voice sounded, so that all elders and true disciples were closed.

The elders thought that it was a disciple who asked, but turned his head. He just wanted to speak and found out that he was a strange young man.

"Who are you?" asked the elders of Baidu Valley strangely.

The elders were shocked and hurriedly replied: "There are things in the mix, now where are you open? Let me get out!"

The person who asked this question is Ye Xuan who is not to be killed.

This time, it is a rare opportunity for him.

The Princess of the Poison is poisoned, and everyone in the door is helpless. The Princess of the Poison is in jeopardy. I am afraid that if the life is too late. At this time, he poisoned the poisonous princess, then he was one step to the sky.

If he does this, I am afraid that there will be danger of being killed immediately by an elder, but he is sure, because the elders have said that the poisonous princess is a mixture of poisons, and seven poisons are very common.

As long as you feed the poisonous princess to drink his blood, I am afraid that it will be able to solve several kinds of instantly. At that time, it will no longer be a complicated mixed poison.

Hearing the elders of the elders, Ye Xuan did not pay attention, but continued: "Mixed poison, I may be able to solve, it depends on which seven kinds of poison."

The elders are so angry that they can't even speak. Even Ye Xuan, who is not a waste of the poisonous disciples, dares to threaten to mix poison, and is really looking for death.

He just wanted to rush over and slap the leaves of Ye Xuan's mouth, but at this time, the elders spoke up: "Are you sure?"

"OK, as long as these seven poisons I have seen." Ye Xuan solemnly nodded.

"The elders, don't listen to him. This kid is just a tester I caught. It's not a disciple of my poisonous door. How can he detoxify?" said the elder Wu.

Baidumen, the door is good at refining and poisoning, and is also good at detoxification.

And Ye Xuan does not know where to fight, it will blame for detoxification.

"Elder Wu, you shut up!" The elders suddenly yelled.

Although he does not believe in Ye Xuan, but less than an hour, the poisonous princess will be poisoned and killed, it is better to be a dead horse as a living horse doctor.

"You listen, these seven poisons are..."

The elders began to read the names of seven poisons.

After Ye Xuan listened, his eyes suddenly brightened, and he had eaten six of these poisons.

Before the poisonous dan, which was given to the old blame, it was made from these poisonous grasses and poisonous flowers.

"I can get rid of six kinds of poisons, but I can't do it." Ye Xuan shook his head.

When the words came out, the elders and disciples who were present were all stunned.

The elders also exclaimed: "As long as you get rid of the other six, the broken korea is coming by me. However, are you sure you can get rid of six of them?"

"I have a 90% grasp. If the elders don't believe, they can come up with a poisonous grass or poisonous Dan. I will try the law." Ye Xuan said.

"it is good."

The elders took a poisonous Dan very quickly and threw it to Ye Xuan.
