Chapter 442: One enemy three

Sure enough, as they expected.

When they saw the figure slowly coming out of the poison, they couldn't help but move.

This kid, really can shuttle between the two poisons.

"Good boy, do you dare to come out from here?" Tang Huaizhi said with some surprise.

"Ha ha!"

Ye Xuanyi opened his mouth and smiled. He was also a little surprised. He did not expect that the two men did not continue to flee, but chose to return to guard him.

"Those who are in the ring, are you on?" Tang Huaizhi did not give Ye Xuan the opportunity to speak, asked directly.

"One does not fall!" Ye Xuan nodded, and asked: "Fengshan, the main door of the door, has been killed by you?"

"No, I was sent back to the five poisons. Why, you still want to save him?" Tang Huaizhi's eyes glanced.

"This does not require you to worry about it, I am curious, the predecessor's Qiang Kun ring, have you got it?" Ye Xuan asked again.

Tang Huaizhi showed a cold smile. "Do you think, will I tell you?"

"That is no, otherwise, you should have already started playing." Ye Xuan guessed.

Tang Huaizhi and Bone Seven looked at each other. It seems that Ye Xuan is not stupid, and he is much smarter than the elders of Wu Duongzong.

At this time, Bone Seven suddenly said: "Boy, your qualifications are not bad, are you interested in joining me Bai Zong?"

"Oh, what you want is my martial arts that can suddenly increase the power of Bailong?" Ye Xuan laughed.

"Yes, anyway, you have learned, handed over to the master, isn't it a matter of righteousness? As long as you are willing to hand it over, I will give you the white after I have successfully refining the bones." Seven said, but also stunned the white bones of the sixth-order temper.

Martial arts can teach others, but the Beastmaster violent is not martial arts, and Ye Xuan can't teach even if he wants to teach.

Besides, the two men are cruel, and they have washed away the poisonous door. Even if Ye Xuan does not avenge Feng Yaqing, he must also think about his own strength.

"I am very interested in the method of manipulating the bones." Ye Xuan said.

"So, you agreed?" Bone seven eyes lit up, Twilight could not help but flash a greedy color, and a murder.

Let him take Ye Xuan as a disciple?

What a joke!

He thought that after getting the Beastmaster violent, he would kill Ye Xuan.

The reason why they have not started to do so now is because they don't know whether there is a cheat of the Beastmaster in Ye Xuan's ring.

Therefore, Ye Xuan can't kill!

However, Ye Xuan is not so stupid.

"No, I guess you want to get this martial arts, then kill me?"

Ye Xuan said as he took out the Eight-Year Sword, and the nonsense was almost the same. It should be opened.

"Hey, guy who doesn't know the time, then I will take you down first, then severely interrogate!" The bones screamed coldly and took out the bone sword.

The same is true of Tang Huaizhi.

On the same day, Ye Xuan was able to escape from their eyes, and they were free to shuttle through the poisonous array, so that they could not care.

The three-level force of the three major defensive forces will leave Ye Xuan in the middle.

Ye Xuan holds the eight-year-old sword and looks coldly. He has already arranged the order of the strength of the three people in his heart.

The weakest of course is the white bone war, then Tang Huaizhi, the strength of the bone seven is stronger than Tang Huaizhi, and the bone sword in the hand is better than Tang Huaizhi, so he is the strongest.

In this case, Ye Xuan has only one way of fighting, which is to kill the white bones and quickly reduce the combat effectiveness of the other side.

The cold wind is blowing, and the four figures are still moving.

At this time, Tang Huaizhi and Bone Seven looked at each other and launched an attack. But when they exchanged their eyes, Ye Xuan also used the Beastmaster violent.

"Hey!"

Ye Xuan's power expanded instantly and reached six hundred dragons.

In the realm, although he is more than 20 dragons weaker than Tang Huaizhi and Bone Seven, he still has agile advancement, and his speed has exceeded seven hundred dragons.

"So fast!"

Tang Huaizhi and the bones are seven and one, because the speed at which Ye Xuan broke out at this time is much faster than when he killed the venomous door in the poisonous array.

The primary goal of Ye Xuan is the battle of white bones.

Bone seven understands that the white bone war is not Ye Xuan's opponent, rushing to control the white bones and rushing toward him.

However, Ye Xuan intercepted the white bones on the way.

"Huang Quan sword method, Huang Quan fun!"

Ye Xuan screamed at the white bones and directly made a big move.

This white bone war is not an ordinary cockroach. It has a silvery connection at its joints, so as long as it destroys it, then this white bone war should be abolished.

The enthusiasm of Huang Quan's burial was attacked by the white bones, and the white bones trembled slowly and was instantly wound.

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

At that time, the arm of the sword with the bones was dropped to the ground.

The enemy's combat power is instantly weakened!

"Damn!"

Bone seven secretly said, he did not expect that Ye Xuan's realm suddenly increased so fast, they are catching up with both of them.

"Huang Quan sword method, Huang Quan fun!"

Ye Xuan once again took out a sword, this time, the left leg of the white bone warfare was disabled. Now, the White Bone War is not a threat to Ye Xuan.

Three to one, instantly become two to one!

"Kid, die!"

Bone seven is very angry, because this white bone wars, he spent a lot of materials and time.

In order to pursue Ye Xuan, the white bone warfare also stepped on the poison powder, causing the foot to be corroded and the moving speed to drop.

Now it's done, the arm and thigh connection point is destroyed, which takes a lot of material.

Ye Xuan looks gloomy and condenses the dragon sword.

In the face of the two people attack, he must open the distance, the dragon sword is more than two meters long, the distance is just right.

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

Although there are two opponents, Ye Xuan's speed is amazing, but he can cope with it.

The shooting speed of the three people was very fast, but Ye Xuan's shot was faster, and the blood was played to the extreme. Huang Quanjian and Yin Yu's body method have already been used.

However, it takes time to try to kill the two sixth-orders.

At this time, Ye Xuan's heart moved.

"What, what do you say? Let me cut the bones and smash the neck? Then you can participate in the battle?"

Ye Xuan is a bit strange, this is the message that Megatron sent him.

"Okay, then believe in you once!"

He did not care about the three seven twenty-one, and instantly increased the speed to the peak, and the two people opened the distance. Then he suddenly turned back.

"Huang Quan swordsmanship, swords fall to Huangquan!"

A sniper smashed away and instantly cut the head of the white bones.

Then, Megatron, who was staying in Ye Xuan's pet space, appeared in an instant, then plunged into the white bones.

"What the hell?"
