

Super D. S 444

Chapter 444: Royal Qi seventh!

Ye Xuan spent a whole day demolition of the poisonous array of Baidumen, and then spent another day to dismantle the poisonous killings of the five poisons.

At this point, those poisonous fogs are already spreading.

Ye Xuan continued to collect.

Finally, the poison dragon discovered him.

"Roar!"

The poisonous dragon roared out of the cave and spit out a corrosive venom against Ye Xuan in the distance.

"On that day, the seven or three bones will not beat you. Today, I will see what you can do!"

Ye Xuan took out the eight wild swords and sacrificed the dragon sword to rush up. This time, he didn't even use the Beastmaster violent.

The dragon sword has a damage increase to the dragon, and the dragon's ruling effect is more obvious. Coupled with the blood of the Beastmaster, it is not difficult for him to kill this poison dragon.

However, before this, Ye Xuan still used this poison dragon to elevate the ghosts.

"Hey, the skill of the Nether Ghost is improving, and it is currently 40%!"

"Hey, the skill of the Nether Ghost is improving, and it is currently 50%!"

"Hey, the skill of the Nether Ghost is improving, and it is currently 60%!"

"Hey, the skill of the ghosts is improved, and it is currently 70%!"

Ye Xuan and the poisonous dragon practiced for more than ten minutes, and then raised the Nether Ghost to 70% of the fire. At this time, the Nether Ghost Steps has already caught up with the speed of the silver feather body.

"Almost, I am jealous of you!"

Ye Xuan's flash of light flashed, and the speed exploded instantly. His feet flew in the air and plucked to the poison dragon.

斩龙大剑, 劈!

"Hey!"

This sword, easily immersed in the flesh and blood of the poison dragon, the poisonous dragon hurts to roar. It turned and swept out a claw, but was easily escaped by Ye Xuan.

“Hey!” “Hey!” “Hey!”

The poison dragon was beaten by Ye Xuan without any effort. In less than three seconds, the dragon was cut by the dragon's ruling.

"噗通!"

The body of the poison dragon fell to the ground and pulled out a large pit.

"Bai Guzong, in addition to refining human bones, can also use other bones, this is the sixth-order poisonous dragon, it is a good choice."

Ye Xuan thought in his heart.

Although he learned to refine the white bones, he has not tried it, so he has to find a few bodies to practice his hands.

He stripped the poisonous dragon's bones and received it in the swallowing space. Then he began to sweep the plantation.

The plantation area was affected by the poisonous dragon, and the value of Tiancaibao was improved. This piece of land made Ye Xuan upgrade the power of the three dragons and reached 505 dragons.

Subsequently, Ye Xuan was looking for a place to refine the keel by using the materials from the bones of the Seven Gorges.

The poison dragon is originally the sixth order of the qi, but if you directly let Megatron stay on this keel, I am afraid that only the strength of the fifth-order temperament, so special methods must be used to raise the bone.

It took Ye Xuan three days to refine the keel.

Megatron was so happy that he was directly boarded on the keel and his combat power reached the sixth level of the defensive.

Now Ye Xuan is just a fifth-order temperament. If you are on the road, it is good to use this sixth-order bone dragon. It is also a white-shelled warrior with a fifth-order temperament. This time, even if he does not shoot, the five poisons are also Ruined.

When he rode the bone dragon to fly over the five poisonous sects, the entire five poisons were noisy.

Before the five poisons, many elders were dispatched, and they were all killed by Ye Xuan. At this time, there were only a few of the five ranks in the town.

Ye Xuan is not the same as before, and he does not need to use the Beastmaster violent, he can solve them.

"Boy, are you really courageous, even cross-border to come to my five poisons to make trouble?"

A five-nine-nine-dragon, five poisonous elders shouted.

He actually knows that Tang Huaizhi and Bone Seven have joined forces, but he can't understand why there is another Bai Bingzong here, and he also came to the five poisons to make trouble.

"Fengshan, the owner of the door, is here to be a guest,"

Ye Xuan sat on the back of the bone dragon and asked loudly.

"Nonsense, how can Feng Zongzhu be in my five poisons?" The elder retorted, but that day he sent the seriously injured Feng Shan back.

"Since you don't hand it out, then blame me for being ruthless!"

Ye Xuan glimmered and swooped down.

"Great courage, together!"

The elders screamed and suddenly several elders of the fifth-order temperament rushed out.

At this time, Ye Xuan has also fallen to the front of the Wu Duong Zongshan, the poisonous array outside the five poisons can not stop him.

kill!

Tang Huaizhi studied the door of the drug, and Ye Xuan this time, it is the banner of the door of the drug, learning the five poisons.

Now the five poisonous sects have no sixth-order temperament, and they can't stop Ye Xuan and the bone dragon. In less than half a minute, the elders are dead, and there are dozens.

The disciples of the five poisonous sects looked blank and hid far away, watching the two gods in the distance.

It is a pity that the elders of these five poisons only allowed Ye Xuan to upgrade the strength of the Five Dragons to reach 510 Dragons.

After all the elders died, Ye Xuan was looking for the whereabouts of Feng Shan alone. Finally, Feng Shan, who was interrupted by hamstrings, was found in a cave in Houshan.

"It's you?"

When Feng Shan saw Ye Xuan, his face was extremely awkward.

"You can rest assured that your daughter is fine, now I will send you over." Ye Xuan lifted the shackles of Feng Shan.

At the same time, he also saw that Feng Shan is poisoned now, and there is no such thing in the body, but this is only temporary.

Ye Xuan lazy explanation, directly rescued him from the five poisons, and then sent him to the Feifei Pavilion. Just right, at this time he also recovered the realm.

Then, Ye Xuan put him down and then drifted away.

This Fengshan is already shocked and has nothing to say. He knows that this time he was helped by a high-ranking person.

But what he doesn't understand is that since Ye Xuan can control the bones, why should he hide it?

Moreover, dare to sway and ride the bone dragon to fly, it is really timid.

However, as a savior, Ye Xuan will not betrayed Ye Xuan.

At this point, it has come to an end. Ye Xuan, through this incident, has greatly improved his strength, but he has benefited the most.

As for the others, he was too lazy to manage. Now, he is moving in one direction. The place he is going to is a hundred drugs.

Shi Gongzi and Wu Elder have been killed by him, and there is still a hill.

He had sworn before, and now it is natural to finish.

However, just as he is about to arrive at the door of the drug.

"call out!"

The sky suddenly plucked a **** figure, and Ye Xuan turned back and found that a young man in a blood coat was approaching.

When Ye Xuan saw the flying dragon around the blood-skinned youth, the whole person was paralyzed, and there were 73 big flying dragons!

"The trough, the seventh step!"
