Chapter 447: Entering the bones

"kill!"

When the other side is surprised, Ye Xuan is an instant burst, attacking one person.

"Huang Quan sword method, Huang Quan fun!"

A sigh of anger hit the person, and he was torn to the blood in an instant, and the battle was also broken.

The blood crow kills, it is a constant attack, the stronger the battle, but if one of them is injured, the reaction is slow, then the blood crow will have to reorganize.

However, it is now more than just being hurt.

"Huang Quan swordsmanship, swords fall to Huangquan!"

A gloomy sniper broke through the space and instantly separated the disciple of the blood crow.

"Not good, withdraw!"

The reaction of the blood-skinned youth is OK, and immediately shouted.

But his voice has not completely fallen, and the other person has already reached the gate of the ghost. No, he has already stepped in.

"Oh!"

Another head flew up.

Now, only the blood-shirt youth is left alone.

Ye Xuan went up one step and put away the two people's Qiang Kun, and then swallowed it instantly.

"Hey, the host has broken through the power of five hundred and seventy dragons!"

The blood crows teach, but the level of the bones of the bones, these two young people are elite, but the net worth is not cheap.

When I saw the flying dragons outside Ye Xuan's body, the blood-shirt youth was desperate. This Nima broke through once again, and it was still an egg.

"The * thing, my blood crows will not let you go!"

The young man in the blood coat flashed and his body was red. When Ye Xuan was about to rush to him, he burst into flames and flesh and blood.

"what?"

Ye Xuan really wants to cry without tears. How can this sect of the ghost tomb be self-destructive? Poisonous explosion, bone burst, blood explosion, this one is * ah.

This shock was also the flight of Ye Xuan Zhen, and even the right arm was broken.

At the same time, another blood crow got into his body.

"Don't you have a big cousin, is it something like a soul mark?"

Ye Xuan roared, now, he has become a gps transmitter, if there are other blood crows around, it will definitely kill.

However, this is not a bad thing. If someone comes, he will continue to kill.

After the death of the blood-skinned youth, he left the Qiankun ring, and Ye Xuan used to put away this ring.

Five hundred and seventy five dragons!

This battle made Ye Xuan upgrade the power of the full 25 dragons, which made him very satisfied.

However, just as Ye Xuan was still secretly self-satisfied, the sky was plucking a figure.

"Well? It really came..."

Ye Xuan looked up and his face suddenly changed.

This time, it came to be a sigh of eight!

"escape!"

Ye Xuan did not hesitate, turned and left.

Although he killed two of the eight kings of the typhoon, but the general sacred beast can not be compared with the human warrior, the two kings of the dragon, even the blood-shirt youth can also be killed.

And now, it is a super strong one who is a hundred dragons higher than the blood-shirt youth.

The duration of the violent savage of the Beastmaster has not passed, and Ye Xuan must leave.

"Kid, dare to kill my blood crows, take a break!"

The old man shouted angrily.

"Lost your legs!"

Ye Xuan roared.

Fortunately, this master of blood crows is late, otherwise Ye Xuan will die.

The speed of the ninth-order strongman is erupting, and the height of the blood crow is high.

However, this is only relying on the Beastmaster violent. If time passes, Ye Xuan will probably be pulled a little closer and then killed.

Ye Xuan wants to cry without tears, it feels like just grabbing a child's lollipop, and then met an adult, helpless!

"Kid, take a break!"

The master of the blood crows teaches in the rear. Ye Xuan is violently violent with the Beastmaster. It directly opens the distance of 10,000 meters, but there is the imprint in his body, so the master of the blood crows is chasing after him.

"The Beastmaster's violent duration is over, Mom, come again!"

Ye Xuan also painfully used a beastmaster violent, and ran again.

This is not the way to go. When the Beastmaster is unable to use it, he will be miserable.

However, he already has a plan in his heart.

The dark dragon is located at the boundary of the nine secluded land. In the past, it was the place where the bones were buried.

The sects in the two territories are all hostile to each other, so Ye Xuan is thinking about entering the land of bones. Maybe the master of this blood crow will retreat.

"finally reached!"

At the time when the violent duration of the Beastmaster is about to pass, Ye Xuan saw an obvious environmental change.

The land of nine secluded places is darker, and the land buried in the bones is relatively brighter, which is more gloomy.

"Snapped!"

When Ye Xuan rushed into the bones of the bones, the big stones hanging in his heart also fell.

He turned his head and saw that the master of the blood crows had stunned.

"Haha, there is a kind of you to chase!"

Ye Xuan laughed aloud.

Unexpectedly, this master of blood crows really continued to chase.

"Kid, don't run back to the bones in the future, I will be scared!" The master of blood crows is loud.

Ye Xuan's face is gloomy. I really don't die if I don't die. I know that I don't confuse my tongue.

The two went deep into the road.

Just as Ye Xuan was preparing to display the third Beastmaster violent, he suddenly saw several figures passing by.

At the same time, these figures also saw Ye Xuan, and the blood crows master behind Ye Xuan.

"It is the blood crow god, even dare to enter the bones of the bones, find death! The younger brothers, kill!"

A long-haired man shouted and immediately turned to the direction of Ye Xuan.

Upon seeing it, Ye Xuan also landed quickly, and then sacrificed the white bones to warn that he was not a land of nine quiet places.

"It is our disciple of Bai Bingzong..."

The long-haired man immediately ignored Ye Xuan and rushed toward the master of the blood crows. He also took out a white bone war, and his three younger brothers were the same.

Ten people, instantly attacked the master of the blood crow.

"Good risk, people who have met Bai Bianzong, are also seven orders of the Royal Air!" Ye Xuan glimmered.

The head of the long-haired man is the power of seven hundred and fifty dragons, and the other four are also around 730 dragons. The strength is very strong.

Not only that, but their white bones are also the seventh stage of the Royal Air, so it is considered to be the top ten of the Royal Seven.

"There are ten enemies in the area, and I want to do it with me. I will die for me!"

The master of blood crows and gods is soaring, and the sword in his hand is madly slashed. There are a few real qis mixed with a blood crow.

The blood crow ran!

However, the five people of Bai Bongzong were not covered, and they tried to defeat these snipers and then surrounded them.

"White bones tear the claws!"

"Drilling bone spurs!"

"Nine sections of bone seal!"

The disciples of these several bones are also endless. Some people take the sword, but they throw out the spurs that are filled with dead air. Some people even wave the nine-section whip and try to bind the blood crows. Master.
