Chapter 448: Not right

Not far from Ye Xuan is also stunned, it seems that this buried bone is not to be underestimated.

Ten * crows masters of the eighth-order martial arts, and the battle is very intense.

The master of the blood crows began to underestimate the strength of the other party, resulting in being held back. After all, the two fists are hard to beat.

His face sank, and after a cold cry, he stepped on his feet and jumped into the air.

In this way, the enemy will be five fewer!

However, he is too naive.

"Dapeng wars!"

In the meantime, five white bone wars disappeared, and then nine Dapeng bones appeared.

"what?"

The blood crow gods master changed his face. He didn't expect the other party to have five Dapeng, this tragedy.

"Damn, confuse things, kill the people of my blood crows, this will not be the case. Bai Bingzong, you wait for the old man!"

The master of the blood crows shouted, and immediately turned around and left.

"Brother, are you going to chase?"

A disciple of Bai Bianzhu turned and asked.

The long-haired disciple shook his head and said: "Forget it, the blood crows of the blood crows are more powerful in the air, we can't catch up."

Five people decided to give up the killing.

Then they fell.

For these five people, Ye Xuan is also very grateful, and he also understands that you should be the super elite of Bai Bingzong, because the bone seven protection method is only the sixth order of the qi.

"Thank you for a few brothers to help!"

Ye Xuan hurry to hug his fist. At this time, he is a disciple who needs to pretend to be a white bone.

"Teacher, how did you get into the blood crows?"

The long-haired youth came over.

"This, my brother, I was walking outside, and I met several disciples of blood crows, so I shot and killed him. Then I met him. Fortunately, several brothers passed by, otherwise the life of the younger brother is difficult to protect." A lie.

"It turns out." Long hair youth nodded. The next moment, he frowned again and asked: "Yes, how do I see you are strange, who is your master?"

Upon hearing this, Ye Xuan's heart trembled and said: "I am the apprentice of the bones of the seven guards!"

For Bai Bongzong, he knows a lot, and he only knows one person, so he can only say so.

"Bone seven guardian law? It turns out to be the case." Changfa youth smiled and said: "I see the younger brother, you are also coming to the sixth stage of the Royal Air. Are you interested in going to a place with us?"

"Where?" Ye Xuan raised his vigilance.

"Go to that line of days, it is said that there is a young Tianlong, we are going to kill it this time and get its bones!" said Changfa Youth.

Tianlong?

When I heard this word, Ye Xuan's eyes suddenly brightened.

Tianlong is also a dragon, but it is much stronger than the dragon, which is equivalent to the power of a thousand dragons.

There are three major environments in the suffocating environment, namely, qi, refining, and suffocating.

The first step in the first step of refining is to have the power of a day!

"Then trouble the brothers."

Ye Xuan nodded, it is good to go to see the world, maybe, what other gains?

"Well, there is not a few steps away from the first line, fly over."

The long-haired youth said that they were taking the lead and flew in one direction.

And Ye Xuan is also raising the dragon, followed up.

However, when Ye Xuan came to the first line of the day, he regretted it. Because there are other people here, there are still a lot of people.

"Brother, how are so many people?"

Ye Xuan could not help but ask.

"Of course, although the Tianlong is only the eighth-order temperament, but the strength is very strong, we are here to assist Tan elders." Changfa youth said.

"Tan Elder?" Ye Xuan.

The long-haired youth was surprised and said: "Why, Tan Elder is your master. You don't know if its white bones were damaged six months ago?"

"What, Master?"

Ye Xuan was eclipsed and pale.

Why didn't Nima say this early?

He used to claim to be a disciple of Bone Seven, and if this elder Tan is his ancestors, it means that Bone Seven is a disciple of Tan Elder.

"Where, what should I do if I have a stuffing? Hurry and find an excuse to leave!" Ye Xuan thought.

But at this time, suddenly there was a figure that swept over, and it was a master of the eighth-order.

"I have seen Tan Elder!"

A few long-haired young people saw this person and hurriedly said hello.

Tan Elder!

Ye Xuan turned his eyes, his luck was so good and bad, he even met Tan elder directly.

First, the three elites of the blood crows were killed, and then they were chased and killed by the blood crows. They were rescued by the long-haired youth. Now, they have met Tan Elder, his master!

"Ye Xuan, what are you doing, don't you see your ancestors soon?" said Changfa Youth.

Master?

This made Mr. Tan somewhat surprised and asked: "Who is his new apprentice?"

"Bone seven guards!" Long hair youth.

"Is that kid? Hey, you are not good at cultivation, and you are still collecting apprentices?" Tan Changsong snorted.

Upon hearing this, Ye Xuan was relieved. It seems that there are many apprentices of Tan's elders, at least not knowing all the grandchildren.

"Well, Fu Shihao, you and me come over." Tan Chang Lao was too lazy to control Ye Xuan, and directly called the long hair youth.

The hanging stone in Ye Xuan's heart finally fell. Fortunately, this Tan elder did not doubt, but he should find an excuse to leave.

Although it has not been recognized, there are so many masters here that the tragedy will be exposed if it is exposed.

After the long hair youth left, Ye Xuan also held a fist to the remaining four people: "Four brothers, my younger brother, I suddenly remembered that there are still things, I will take a step."

When he finished, he turned and prepared to leave.

However, it is at this time.

"stop!"

Suddenly a disciple shouted at him.

Ye Xuan's foot turned and smiled and said: "This brother, is there anything?"

One of the four people who shouted at him was short, only about one meter tall.

He walked over to Ye Xuan and turned around. He said, "Teacher, how do I see that you are not right?"

"boom!"

This sentence, like a blue sky beaten on the head of Ye Xuan, sure enough, was suspected!

"This brother, where is the teacher's brother wrong?" Ye Xuanqiang squeezed a smile.

"There is nothing wrong with it." The short young man turned around again and looked at the other three. He said, "What do you say about the name of the bones?"

Ye Xuan smiled and felt awkward and blurted out: "Don!"

Before he heard, Tang Huaizhi shouted the seven brothers, so the bone seven should also be named Tang.

This problem, in fact, the young man does not know, he just looked at Ye Xuan's reaction.

Then, the short young man asked: "Well, Fu Shihao is the top three in the inner door. You said that he is the exact number?"

Ye Xuan's face sank again, how could he know?

However, one third of the odds, he can be one.
