Chapter 472: Tianshui Island

However, this person's words are to make Ye Xuan brow wrinkle.

"Tian Shui Island?"

Ye Xuan is a big sister.

Hearing this, Ye Xuan is instantly aware that these two people should not be Tianshui mainland people, otherwise how would they call Tianshui mainland Tianshui Island?

It seems that when he went to the **** rocky continent, something happened in the Tianshui continent.

"call out!"

At that time, he rushed to the past, directly breaking the Dragon Palace array and killing two people.

When the two men reacted, the whole person was paralyzed.

A kid in the Tiandan situation, like a momentary movement, flashed in front of them, how is this possible?

"Where did you come from, answer me, if there is a nonsense, you will die in my hands immediately."

Ye Xuan holds the eight-year-old sword, standing in front of two people like a god.

"you....."

The other person didn't seem to figure out the situation. He didn't finish it. He felt the neck cool and the whole head fell to the ground, and the blood splashed.

The remaining man's eyes widened. He didn't dare to have a nonsense. He hurriedly said, "I, we are the people of Sirius Island..."

really!

Ye Xuan guessed it well. These two people are not people in Tianshui.

"Where is Sirius Island? How come you are here?" Ye Xuan asked again.

"Sirius Island is near Tianshui Island. We are the lord of Tang Tian, who is here..."

The man said without hesitation.

"What, Tang Tian?"

Ye Xuan Tiger was shocked, and the name was familiar to him.

The Crown Prince of the Tang Dynasty was called Tang Tian, and he entered the Lingxiao House in the same batch as Ye Xuan. Later, in the Lingxiao House, there were some contradictions between the two sides. After that, Tang Tian was missing.

"What is that Tang Tianchang?" Ye Xuan asked again.

Then, the man described Tang Tian's appearance. Sure enough, this is the same person as the one that Ye Xuan knew!

"What exactly is going on?"

Ye Xuan couldn't figure out the situation and immediately asked the man about something. He had to figure out the ins and outs of the matter.

The man did not dare to have any concealment. After all, Ye Xuan killed him like a chicken. If he was found, the next moment would be that the head would fall.

However, he is ultimately unable to escape.

After the man finished telling the story, he was killed by Ye Xuan, and Ye Xuan also understood what happened during this time.

The Sirius Island is actually a territory of the Blood Rock continent. Although it is also an intermediate territory, it is much stronger than the ghost tomb.

According to the man, they had a family of people on the island of Sirius, and after a few months of rushing at sea, they accidentally arrived at Tianshui Island.

Then, they met Tang Tian and learned about Tianshui Island.

Tianshui Island is not the territory of the blood rock continent, so the master of this fleet is very excited. If you report this matter, you will get a lot of rewards.

After all, this is a new discovery of an island. Although it is very remote and poor, it is also a breakthrough.

Subsequently, the fleet directly sealed Tang Tian as the agent lord, and they went back to report, and by the way, some people came over.

A new island, even in the eyes of those people, is also an emperor, but it is also necessary to survey, there may be some strong ruins.

As for other things, the man does not know, and this man, the strength has more than one hundred dragons, very close to the air, they are just very ordinary crew members in the fleet.

"Tang Tian was rewarded and broke through to the ambiguous situation. This is nothing. What is important is that he still has a well-thought-out bodyguard..."

Ye Xuan's eyebrows are thinking.

This exquisite master is naturally the person of the fleet, but he is not a native of Tianshui, and he does not understand Tianshui, so Tang Tian is the lord.

At this time, Ye Xuan is most worried about his family and friends.

Tang Tian and he have a little like it, that is, he must report, when he was in Lingxiao, Ye Xuan was doing the right thing with him. With Tang Tian's character, how could he not revenge?

Ye Xuan estimates that Ling Xiaofu will certainly not be safe and sound. What he is most worried about is that Song has passed them.

At the moment, he quickly swept to the entrance of the deep sea palace, and then spent another two days breaking the array and plucking from the island of death.

The situation was urgent. He rushed back to Lingxiao, but what he was most afraid of happened.

Lingxiao House, a mess, no one.

"Tang Tian, if I don't kill you, I will be with your surname!"

Ye Xuan's eyes are like a volcano erupting, his body flashing, and he quickly strolled around in the Lingxiao House. Sure enough, no one, even the bamboo forest of the great elder Lin Wenyue was empty.

Then, he quickly rushed back to the Xuanyang Empire and glanced at it. It was still a man who went to the building, Zhao Chongguang and others disappeared, and even the major families of Yuncheng disappeared.

Anyway, people related to Ye Xuan have disappeared.

"Go and see the Great Song Dynasty!"

Ye Xuan suddenly remembered a place, and now it was over.

Sure enough, as he expected, the Song Dynasty changed its name and changed it to the Datang Dynasty. There was only one of the four dynasties, and the top of the Great Song Dynasty disappeared before Tang Tian appeared.

"It must be that the elders knew things in advance with the mirror, so they shifted people!"

Ye Xuan's heart is a dark sentence.

Tang Tian did become the lord, but Lin Wenyue was faster, and he had already arranged everything.

Ye Xuan breathed a sigh of relief.

Lin Wenyue has a mirror of everything. If he really thinks like this, Lin Wenyue should also know about his return.

"The elders should be hiding somewhere. I will go anywhere and wait for her to come to me."

Ye Xuan casually hides in a valley of a small empire in the southern region. There are hundreds of empire in Tianshui, and Tang Tian lives in the first main city and will certainly not notice.

Sure enough, on the second day after Ye Xuan returned to Tianshui, Lin Wenyue was looking for it.

"Great elders, are you all right?"

After seeing Lin Wen Yue, Ye Xuan hurriedly asked, at this time, he only knew the realm of Lin Wen Yue, and he was arrogant.

This strength is enough to be a lord in the blood rock continent.

Tang Tian's bodyguard is a delicate place, she is not an opponent at all.

"You should know, they are all fine. I took them all in advance."

Lin Wen Yue nodded, but she paused and said, "However, after Tang Tian became the lord, he was extremely cruel, arresting all the officials of the three dynasties and beheading the public."

"All?" Ye Xuan was shocked.

Tang Tian, even the innocent people were arrested, it is damn.

"Not only that, Tang Tian also arrested a large number of warriors of the gods, and they have been brought back to Sirius Island." Lin Wen Yue added.
