Chapter 474: camouflage

"What is your name?"

After landing, the old man could not help but ask.

"Ye Liangchen!" Ye Xuan replied casually.

"Well, Ye Liangchen, no matter where you come from, since today dare to appear in front of me, then your destiny is destined, let me see, let me see what you can bear." The old man also took out a long sword.

Ye Xuan held the eight-year-old sword and looked coldly. At this time, he also carried out a series of acts in his heart.

"Hey, the host learns to clear the sword, and the current proficiency is 10%!"

"Hey, the host learns to step on the magic step, and the current proficiency is 10%!"

Although the hidden dragon sword method has been promoted to the proficiency of 90% of the fire, but the hidden dragon sword method is only created by the poisonous Wang Zongzhi, this is the sword of the Qing Dynasty, but the school of the Qing Dynasty. Although these two martial arts are all top-grade martial arts, the upper swordsmanship is much stronger than the hidden dragon swordsmanship.

This time I happened to meet an opponent with a similar realm, which is very suitable for practicing martial arts.

"You don't shoot?" Seeing Ye Xuan in the hair, this old man couldn't help but ask.

However, his voice just sounded, and Ye Xuan stepped on the newly-followed step of the Qing Dynasty and killed the past.

"Humph!"

The old man snorted and greeted him.

Both of them are in a good environment, they can call the surrounding world to fight, but the heavens and the earth in Tianshui Island are much scarcer than the blood rock, so their battle is not very intense.

"Hey, the proficiency of the swordsmanship of the Shangqing is improved, and it is currently 20%!"

"Hey, the proficiency of the stepping up the magic step is improving, and it is currently 20%!"

The two martial arts are improving rapidly, and there are not a few rounds. The proficiency of the swordsmanship is raised to 60%.

The old man also released water at the beginning, and tried to explore the realm of Ye Xuan. Now with the improvement of the skill of the sword, the attack of Ye Xuan is getting more and more fierce, and he has to show his strength.

However, the next moment, the old man found a place, Ye Xuan's martial arts, he seems to have seen where.

He resisted while thinking.

Suddenly, his mind flashed in his mind.

Shangqing Palace!

"You are a disciple of Shangqing Palace?" The old man exclaimed.

Shangqing Palace, but the power of the heavens, has been divided in many territories, and there is also Sirius Island, so he only feels familiar.

"understanding?"

Ye Xuan is a bit strange.

These two martial arts were obtained from the Qing Dynasty disciples in the ghost tomb, and the Shangqing Palace was in the sky. There is a distance from this wolf island. How can this old man know?

As he attacked, he replied: "What is it?"

Unexpectedly, the old man continued to shout: "Stop, our Tang family is also working for the Shangqing Palace!"

what?

Hearing this, Ye Xuan was shocked again.

How does the Tang family in Tianlang Island have a relationship with the Shangqing Palace?

If this is the case, then there is only one explanation. The Shangqing Palace has a division in Sirius Island.

But even then, Ye Xuan still did not stop and continued to attack.

"Stop, what do you want to do?" The old man once again shouted that although his Tang family was strong, he was not strong enough to compete with Shangqing Palace.

At this time, Ye Xuan suddenly stopped and asked: "Then you caught those people, what do you want to do?"

"Nature is sent to the Qing Palace." The old man frowned and asked: "Which is your door?"

"I have come from the sky." Ye Xuan answered.

"Impossible, can you cross the deep sea palace?" The old man was amazed.

He had already turned Tianshui Island many times. Naturally, he discovered the deep sea palace. He tried it before, but he could not break the array of the deep sea palace, so he sent two people to watch.

"You can't, it doesn't mean I can't. You catch those people, what are you going to do?" Ye Xuan asked again.

"I said, it was sent to the Qing Palace. The Shangqing Palace of Sirius Island was divided. Every month, we need the death row of God Dan, and we just found this Tianshui Island, so..." the old man explained.

Although he did not continue to speak, but Ye Xuan also understood.

"Death row? Are you taking those innocent people as dead corporal? In addition, what do you need to do so many death row prisoners?" Ye Xuan asked inexplicably.

"I don't know this." The old man shook his head.

At this time, Ye Xuan suddenly shot.

The old man exclaimed: "What are you doing?"

The Tang family worked for the Shangqing Palace, and Ye Xuan was a disciple of the Shangqing Palace. There should be no contradiction.

"You are lying, I have always been upright in the Qing government, how can it be a mustard? And, you only said that they want to test, how can you not know?" Ye Xuan shouted.

The old man suddenly reacted, and when he was in the first main city, he said that he had missed his mouth.

However, he is even more surprised that Ye Xuan's offensive has suddenly become fierce.

From the beginning, Ye Xuan is improving the proficiency of martial arts. Although he is three different from the old man, it is not a **** continent, and there is not much energy in the world.

Now, he is putting pressure on the old man and forcing the old man to say it.

"Well, I said I said."

While retreating, the old man shouted: "There is a large number of monsters under the Qing Palace on Sirius Island. The number is huge. In recent years, there is a tendency to break through the seal. Therefore, the Shangqing Palace needs a large number of death row prisoners, so that these monsters are attached to the human body. They can pass through the seal, and when they come out, they will be killed by the disciples of the Shangqing Palace."

After listening to it, Ye Xuan finally understood.

Dare to love, Shangqing Palace needs a lot of containers, get these monsters out and kill, use this method to continue to suppress the magic.

It seems that those who have been arrested are going to be containers and then killed by the Qing Dynasty disciples.

The practice of Shangqing Palace is still true, but the Tang family is damn!

If Tang Jiaru is a person who catches Sirius Island, he can't control it, but the Tang family even came to Tianshui Island to arrest people. How can this be done?

If the people in the gods are not enough, then they may catch the real world, the true world, and the true spiritual world. Although it may be blasted by the magic, it can be one.

It is precisely because of this Tang family that Tang Tian* caused the death of all officials of the three major dynasties of Da Song, Da Zhou and Da Yan.

This hatred must be reported!

Seeing that Ye Xuan is still attacking, the old man is also shouting again: "We are also ordered to act, boy, you attack again, then I am ruthless!"

Although the Shangqing Palace is big, but the individual will have a temper, the old man can not bear it.

"Then you will show me mercilessly?"

Ye Xuan angered a word, the breath suddenly skyrocketed.

Beastmaster is violent!

In Tianshui Island, where the world is lacking, it is still more effective. The strength of thousands of dragons plus the speed of 30% of the movement speed, so that the speed of Ye Xuan greatly exceeds the old.
