Chapter 476: Sirius Island

Although Ye Xuan really wants to go back to the blood rock mainland to find two people, but now Tianshui mainland has a major disaster, he must first help Tianshui mainland to survive the crisis.

"The big elders, the Tang family of the wolf island should not send people for the time being, but in order to avoid the aftermath, I must go to Sirius Island."

Ye Xuan said to the elders.

"Be careful with yourself." Lin Wenyue did not stop, after all, her realm is far from enough.

"It is good."

Ye Xuan nodded.

Then he made a greeting with his relatives and friends, and after killing some of the remaining gas-stricken powers on Tianshui, he left Tianshui Island.

The Tang family of Sirius Island came by boat, but they have thousands of people. There is only one Ye Xuan, so flying over is enough.

There are many nautical charts in the Tang family's Qiankun ring. Ye Xuan knows the location of the wolf island that day, plus he has a compass. It is only a matter of time before arriving at Sirius Island.

However, I have to say that the sea area is really a dangerous place. Ye Xuan Road has even encountered a sacred beast that is capable of destroying a large sacred beast of a fleet.

However, now the Beastmaster's violent increase is not big for him, and he is too lazy to collect the body of the sacred beast.

He is also fortunate that the advanced point he got before was not added to the Beastmaster violent, otherwise it would be ruined.

At present, the most suitable for his advanced, in addition to speed, is the power of swordsmanship.

.....

This time, Ye Xuan flew for three days and three nights before he saw the Sirius Island.

If you want to take a look at Tianshui Continental and Sirius Island, Tianshui is not as much as one of Sirius Island.

Sirius Island is around the * rocky continent, so it can also be called the Sirius collar. Although this wolf collar is only an intermediate territory, it is much stronger than the ghost tomb.

Ye Xuan looked at the former Sirius Island and immediately speeded up.

According to a savage warrior he had caught before, this Tang family is only a very ordinary force in Sirius Island, and the family is built on the edge of Sirius Island.

At this time, he also has a plan in his heart.

Tang Jiaxian discovered Tianshui Island and reported it to the top and received a reward. Therefore, Ye Xuan must figure out who is the head of the Sirius, or the blood rock continent.

However, he has not landed on Sirius Island, and there are several figures in the air that have caught his eye.

A figure in front, three in the back.

"Help, they are pirates!"

The man who was chased in front shouted.

Pirates?

Ye Xuan brows a pick, it seems that the three behind are not good birds.

He estimated that the three should only have opened four or five local veins, and the strength is not strong.

Going out, you should ask for help.

So Ye Xuan decided to take the shot, of course, there is a big reason for him to see the three pirates.

"Kid, don't be self-sufficient!"

A pirate saw Ye Xuan not moving and immediately shouted.

Not self-reliant?

"You are not self-reliant, give me death!" Ye Xuan directly plucked out, blinking in front of the other side, the next moment, there are three heads flying up and falling to the surface.

Spike!

Ye Xuan put away three Qiankun Rings and directly swallowed them.

In addition to watching these three Qiankun Rings, he also because this man looks like a Sirius Island, he needs a tour guide.

"Thank you for the small brothers to save, in the next * maple!" The man said gratefully.

"Ye Xuan."

Ye Xuan also reported his name, and then asked: "Dare to ask, what is this island called?"

"Little brother, are you not a person on Sirius Island?" * Feng asked slyly.

"No, I came from the * rock continent, but I lost the nautical map at sea and drifted blindly for a year at sea..." Ye Xuan made a lie.

Even if there is a nautical map, it is extremely easy to get lost at sea, and drifting for a year is nothing.

* Maple has no doubts and explains: "This is Sirius Island, an intermediate territory."

"What about Sirius Island, Huh, finally found the human race." Ye Xuan breathed a sigh of relief.

At this time, * Feng Yuguang sneaked, hurriedly said: "Not good, those pirates have come, we are fast into the island."

Then, the two quickly landed on Sirius Island.

Ye Xuan turned around and saw that several pirates who had been chased and returned turned back. They asked strangely: "They don't chase?"

"You don't know the little brothers. There is a rule in Sirius Island. The pirates can only do it at sea. They can't enter the island. We are now on the land of Sirius Island. They dare not come in, so they will retreat."

* Feng said, but also helplessly said: "I am a Jiang family, responsible for going to the neighboring island trade, but I met a pirate, only I survived."

"Is there a lot of pirates nearby?" Ye Xuan asked again.

"A lot, there are ten pirates in the sea outside Sirius Island. The little brothers have been drifting on the sea for so long. They have not encountered pirates, and luck is not bad."

* Maple nodded, and said: "Little brother, you have been drifting for so long at sea, it must be very tired, I will take you to the city to eat a meal, to report the help of life."

"it is good!"

Ye Xuan agreed.

His purpose is to find someone to take him to know about Sirius Island. After all, he is ignorant now, and he does not know where the Tang family is.

The two began to fly inland.

* Maple went to the sea to encounter the pirates, this must first go back to Jiangjia to report it, but with Ye Xuan is very inconvenient, so * Feng first brought Ye Xuan to his residence.

Now Ye Xuan understands that *Maple is not a Jiang family, just just the same name.

* Maple parents are dead in the hands of the pirates, there is a sister in the family, the two brothers and sisters are dependent on each other.

* Maple leaves Ye Xuan into the Bailian City, and then rushes to his residence.

However, just as he returned to his doorstep, he found a scream in his head.

"younger sister?"

* Feng Shuang got the boss and rushed in, but found a man who was working on his sister.

"It's you?"

* Maple recognized this man.

"*Maple? How come you are back?" The man was very surprised. He heard that *Feng was out of the sea, how could he suddenly come back?

* Maple angered into the sky, a step forward to push the man away, guarding his sister* behind him, angered: "Zhang Bao, what do you do?"

This man is called Zhang Bao, and like Feng, it is the offering of Jiangjia.

"It's damn, I was hit by you." Zhang angered and said, "If this is the case, then I will say it straight. Your sister has been seen by Jiang Shaoye. I just took her to Jiang."

"Sure enough, Jiang Shaoye is still a thief!" * The maple face is gloomy, he already guessed it.

"If you understand, then let's go, as long as your sister becomes a Jiang Jia less grandmother, you can be regarded as a salted fish turned over." Zhang Bao said.

"Impossible, what is the nature of Jiang Shaoye, I will not know?" * Maple directly refused.
