Chapter 479: Join hands

"Just follow me, this kid, do you still want to kill me?" The old man reminded himself, must be careful to watch out, carefully drive the ship.

However, not long after, one person swept over, and Ye Xuan's body trembled and immediately shone.

"Brother, don't be afraid, I just came to discuss something with you." The man with the big knife said with a smile.

discuss?

Ye Xuan is a bit stunned. He estimates that this man is probably stronger than the lord.

"What?" Ye Xuan said with some curiosity.

"Hey."

The man opened his mouth and smiled. He said: "I just saw you and this Tang Pengyun played a game. The strength is good. It is better for us to join forces and kill him together?"

"Oh?"

Ye Xuan was a little surprised. This man actually came to join him. However, he still doubted: "Do you know who he is?"

"Yes, I followed him all the way. This person is a person from the Tang family of Jinwuchengcheng. As long as you join me, I don't want any good things in his ring. I only need one piece of paper." The man nodded.

"A map?"

Ye Xuan frowned: "What map is that?"

"The little brothers don't ask so much. I sincerely come to cooperate with you. As long as you agree, after the incident, I only need that map." The man did not say the secret.

"Sorry, I refuse." Ye Xuan replied.

This man wants to join him, but as long as a map, it is obvious that the map is more important than the entire Qiankun ring, maybe something like a treasure map.

"Little brother, if you let him go back to Jinwu City, there is no way." The man reminded.

"Then you do it yourself."

When the man heard it, he hesitated. Finally, he compromised: "Well, I tell you, that map is the road map for the transportation of Tang Jiaxin. If I have it, I can stay there..."

Now, Ye Xuan finally understands what map it is.

"Okay, deal!" Ye Xuan directly agreed.

It's just a map. It's not very useful for him. It's better to be a singer.

However, he is still wary in his heart, after all, this man is unclear, in case the other party sneak attacks.

"Good, refresh, let's go!"

After the man finished, he took the lead in rushing toward the old man.

Ye Xuan keeps up.

Before he couldn't help the old man, but the old man now consumes a lot of infuriating, he also has a helper, no accident, the old man will be degraded.

The two quickly approached.

The old man seemed to feel something, and when he turned around, his look suddenly became stiff.

"Damn, it is the people of Black Tiger Mountain, it must be for the cargo map!" The old man reacted instantly.

His whereabouts are very hidden, but now the whereabouts are exposed, only to explain that there are spies inside the Tang family.

However, this is also a follow-up, and he will now solve the problem of Ye Xuan.

He turned around and the eighteen veins expanded in an instant, began to communicate with the heavens and the earth, and launched an attack directly against Ye Xuan.

Ye Xuan was not afraid of this old man before. Now two-on-one, confidence is also bursting out. After easily avoiding these swords, he is close to the old man with the man.

"Upper swordsmanship!"

Ye Xuan directly used the housekeeping skills.

"Upper swordsmanship?"

The man was a little surprised. The Tang family was not the power of the Shangqing Palace. How did the people of their own family fight?

The next moment, he reacted, and Ye Xuan should have cultivated the martial arts of the Shangqing Palace.

The two left and right, killing the old man.

At that time, the old man felt tremendous pressure.

But he is also a high-ranking figure in the Tang family. Is it so easy to be killed?

After a while, he just roared in his heart, he even forgot the fact that his state of war was not the peak.

If the infuriating energy is exhausted, then he will die.

"go!"

The old man did not dare to fight again, and hurriedly rushed toward Jinwucheng at full speed.

"I still want to go now?"

Ye Xuan's eyes widened and the speed suddenly rose.

His superficial stepping step has already reached 80% of the fire, which is 20% higher than the identity martial arts practiced by the old man.

"Oh!"

Suddenly a unique and crisp sound spread, the old man's thigh was brushed by Ye Xuan, and a large piece of meat was cut, blood was rushed, and the speed suddenly dropped.

Originally, he was not able to compete with Ye Xuan and the two joined forces. Now, with the injury, I am afraid that life will not be long.

"No, the new road map for family shipments must not be leaked!"

The old man's face sank, took a map from the Qiankun ring, and then picked up the infuriating, ready to shatter it into pieces.

"not good!"

The man was shocked and attacked.

However, his speed was a slow pace. When he crossed the old man's arm, the map was broken into powder.

"Oh!"

The old man's arm flew up.

A figure quickly swept away, grabbed the arm and took off the ring.

"Hey, the host has opened the thirteenth land!"

"Hey, the host has opened the fourteenth vein!"

With two prompts to sound, Ye Xuan's eyes are about to come out. The old man's things in the ring are huge.

I have to say that this old man is too confident in himself, and he has brought things to his body. Or, this is already what he brought when he went out.

Tang family, really rich in heritage!

"dead!"

After the breakthrough, Ye Xuan's strength soared, and the eight-year-old sword was gently swept away. The old man's head was flying.

dead!

This time, it is also thanks to this man, otherwise Ye Xuan really can not help the old man.

The man also rushed over and looked at the map that had been turned into a powder, and sighed helplessly.

"This can't blame me." Ye Xuan shrugged.

"Oh, unfortunately." The man shook his head and said: "If this is the case, then I will leave."

When he finished, he turned and left.

However, he just took two steps, and suddenly he turned back and then came to Ye Xuan from a knife.

"I will know that you guy is uneasy!"

Ye Xuan has been wary, seeing the other side suddenly burst up, immediately stepped on the step of stepping on the step of the Qing Dynasty, avoiding the big knife.

Then, his feet were a slam, and the whole person swept to the man like a streamer.

"Oh!"

Eight wild swords accurately pierce the man's heart.

dead!

In the wild, you can't take it lightly, even if you are a brother, you may kill each other for some natural treasures.

Ye Xuan took another kick and flew the man's body, then put away his shackles and weapons.

"It turned out to be a robber."

Ye Xuan swallowed up all the things inside, and then began to check out this ring.

The map has been turned into a powder, but Ye Xuan found something that interests him in the old man's ring.
