Chapter 486: Risk is possessed

"Is it all sent in before, who are possessed by the monsters..."

Ye Xuan's heart is dark.

Now, these magical demon will not be able to enter his eyes, killing 10,000 is better than killing a devil.

However, so many miscellaneous fish impact seals, there will definitely be a magical leader, so Ye Xuan looked at the air.

Sure enough, for a while he felt a strong two strong atmosphere.

"Crashing towards me, killing!"

Ye Xuan is no longer hidden and swoops down directly.

For the first time, he met two devils at the same time, but with his realm, it should not be difficult to clean up.

At that time, the magic soldiers underneath will be swept out of a battle circle, and then the two magicians will appear.

"Is it all possessed, it's sad..."

Ye Xuan has some helplessness, once she is

He glanced at the darkness. Sure enough, this possessed human being was a disciple from the Qing Dynasty and was very young.

These two devils are not nonsense, killing them directly toward Ye Xuan.

Ye Xuan has now opened 30 veins, and the swordsmanship in the Qing Dynasty has also been upgraded to 10% of the fire, killing the two people easily.

Within ten seconds, the two devils are separated from the subject, because the two were killed by Ye Xuan, but he only took less than three seconds to deal with the two devils.

"Hey, the host has opened the 31st land!"

After mentioning the prompt tone, Ye Xuan still shook his head helplessly, just do not know when he could meet a demon king.

However, the bottom group of this magical demon will not be wasted. At the moment, Ye Xuan is directly smashing a smashing konjac against the front. The number of slashes is also a hundred units.

Not a moment, this magic army is being eradicated by Ye Xuan.

Before the magical demon will be possessed, the IQ is very low. Just like the beast, it is only animal. When you see the living, it will rush. Even if Ye Xuan has only one person, he will rush to the past until the death or degradation of human beings. body.

Ye Xuan estimated that this magical army had about 30,000 or so, but he could not let him open the 32nd.

He cleaned up a whole army of monsters and should have reduced the pressure on the outside.

However, just as he was about to leave.

"Calling!"

Suddenly a fierce wind rushed, Ye Xuan body condensed, he felt a strong breath.

Magic handsome?

No, this breath is already beyond the magic.

Devil!

"I finally got a good Lord, let me see the strength of your demon king."

Ye Xuan is holding the Eight Desert Sword and standing quietly.

It didn't take long for a black figure to reach the front of him.

"Huh!"

The devil's appearance is not much different from other monsters. It only grows a few corners, but its breath is much higher than the magical demon, even the devil.

"You want to attach to me, right? If you have the ability, come on."

Ye Xuan said to the devil.

"Huh!"

When Ye Xuan's voice fell, the demon king flew directly toward him.

Before the possession of the body, the monsters are actually better solved. Of course, it is relative to Ye Xuan who studied the swordsmanship of the Qing Dynasty.

"Clear the enchantment!"

Ye Xuan directly attacked the demon king with a few snipers, but this demon king is faster than Ye Xuan's full speed, so it is not so easy to deal with.

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

Jianguang constantly broke through the darkness, and there were more than a dozen attacks, but it was not able to hurt this demon king. This made Ye Xuan have to be cautious.

"There are two brushes, and it's troublesome."

Ye Xuan's face sank, he didn't expect the speed of the demon to be faster than him. In this case, it would be difficult for him to escape.

However, his odds are still relatively high.

"Hey, go to the magic step, break the magic column!"

Ye Xuan suddenly stepped on the ground with force, and immediately his feet raised a holy beam of light, and then he quickly retreated.

The demon king swept to the front of Ye Xuan and stretched out his claws. When it touched the light column, it sounded the sound of 'Zizi', and the black claws came out with black smoke.

This is one of the tricks of the Qing Dynasty, which can raise the light column. If there are evil creatures entering, it will be ashes by the essence.

When the demon saw that his claws had been burned, he immediately became furious and circumvented the broken column to find Ye Xuan.

However, Ye Xuan step by step, actually trapped the devil in more than a dozen broken magic columns.

"Oh, after all, it's not people, it's better than people."

Ye Xuan sneered in the heart, attacking the demon king who was trapped in the center by the broken magic column.

These broken magic columns are also time-limited, and the height is only tens of meters. If the devil wants to go, it is still relatively easy.

Ye Xuan hurriedly flew into the air, and then attacked the devil from top to bottom. The demon king also rose up early, avoiding these swords of Ye Xuan.

It is at this time.

"call out!"

Suddenly, the speed of the devil suddenly skyrocketed, beyond the expectations of Ye Xuan.

"What? Hidden strength?" Ye Xuan screamed, so he looked at the devil closer to him.

His consciousness was reflected, but his body did not. The speed at which the demon suddenly broke out was at least 30% faster than that.

Originally, Ye Xuan couldn't keep up with it. Now it has skyrocketed by 30%, and the situation has changed instantly.

"Huh!"

The sound of the devil flying is very loud. At this time, it is already in front of Ye Xuan.

"Damn!"

Ye Xuan roared, and he took out a sword, but he was easily escaped by the devil.

The only remaining arm of the demon king came out and touched Ye Xuan's chest. Just as it was ready to be attached, Ye Xuan's chest suddenly burst into a golden awn, shaking his hand.

"what?"

Ye Xuan has already prepared for the fight against the Devil, but unexpectedly such a thing happened. At this time, he felt the heat in his chest, and it seemed that something had burned.

"It's the clear character!"

He reacted instantly.

The supernatant is able to withstand the possession of a monster, and the paw of the demon is directly shaken.

But now, this clear character is gone, if the devil wants to possess, it can be around.

However, Ye Xuan's reaction is faster than it is now.

"Upper Qing Jianfa, the Qing Dynasty destroys the konjac!"

Eight wild swords swiftly swept away, directly squatting on the body of the demon king, and flying it in a living place.

Not only that, but this demon king was also shocked by this attack.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Ye Xuan attacked madly, and more than a dozen of the Qing dynasty annihilated the scorpion, although not all, but also in three.

These three annihilation of the konjac, the power is huge, just to blast this demon king.
