Chapter 492: Secret

"If I don't agree?"

Ye Xuan asked another question.

"You don't agree, then we only have to die together. I can't occupy your body, but it doesn't mean you can't kill you!"

The devil began to threaten, and before Ye Xuan spoke, he added: "The people in the Qing Palace are not good things. They are on the surface with flags that destroy all evil creatures. They actually catch those in private. Those who cultivate the magical way, in order to cultivate the magic, and then kill the use of those magic beads and other things to cultivate."

After Ye Xuan listened, he was also very surprised. I didn't expect this to go to the Qing Palace.

"What kind of master is there in the Shangqing Palace that day?" Ye Xuan asked.

"I used to be the candidate of the Qing Palace, but another one was in the upper position. The sneak attack made me seriously injured. At that time, his strength had already opened up 65. Now if he is still alive, he may have reached the peak of the earth. Or Tianmai," the Lord answered.

Ye Xuan turned his eyes and thought: If you didn't practice magic, how could the other party get you?

However, he dare not say it. If he annoyed the demon Lord, what should he do?

"The peak of the earth, I am only over forty, how do you let me avenge you?" Ye Xuan asked.

"Afraid of what, you can not quickly improve the realm, you can take the poor Shangqing Palace first, the strength is improved and then go to the heavens and the collar." Demon Lord.

"Is it....."

Ye Xuan's eyes suddenly glimpsed. Although the lord ran into his mind and read his memory, he did not seem to know about the phagocytic system. He only knew that Ye Xuan had a special method that could be quickly upgraded. strength.

After all, the phagocytic system is a phagocytic system. Even the blood of the gods can be exchanged. Will it be controlled by a magical demon?

"I can help you, you better talk and talk..." Ye Xuan said.

"Reassure, I have become such a thing that people are not ghosts and ghosts. As long as you help me to destroy the Shangqing Palace, I will destroy it myself and never give up!" The Lord said solemnly.

Although Ye Xuan does not want to cooperate with him, is there any other way?

Ye Xuan is very helpless. He first went down and took away the Qiang Kun ring of the Shang Palace, and swallowed it.

Later, he said in his mind: "Can you recruit your monsters?"

"These monsters are all derived from me, but they also have a sense of autonomy. Unless the distance is very close, I can't control it." The Lord answered in Ye Xuan's mind.

"Then I will circle around Sirius Island and use your creeps to break through, can you?" Ye Xuan asked.

"At random, it doesn't matter to me when I die." The Lord did not agree.

In this case, then Ye Xuan is quickly leaving, as long as the monsters are nearby, then they can be controlled by the demon.

However, Ye Xuan has only one person after all, even with his speed, I want to turn Sirius Island into a circle, I am afraid it will take another month.

However, this upgrade is relatively stable. When Ye Xuan cleaned up the monster army, his realm was also upgraded to forty-eight.

At this point, he realized how big the army of this monster was, and there were millions. These monsters are under the control of the devil, let Ye Xuan kill, don't mention how cool.

A month later, Ye Xuan's meridians also directly reached fifty-two, and opened up eight veins.

However, after the baptism of the Monsters of the Monsters, Sirius Island is already beyond recognition. The hundreds of millions of people are left with only a hundred thousand, which is simply terrible.

After learning the number, the devil did not take it for granted. He said coldly, "Hey, this can not blame me, blame the Qing."

Ye Xuan is too lazy to talk nonsense with him, leaving Sirius Island directly to the blood rock continent.

Fortunately, this demon has been waiting for nearly a hundred years, and it is not a short moment, so Ye Xuan wants to take this opportunity to inquire about the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling.

Tianshui Island is actually in the vicinity of the **** rocky mainland, very close, but the middle of the site is a little violently scattered on the Xinghai site, causing no one dare to rush from above.

Sirius Island is not far from the blood rock continent. Ye Xuan arrived directly in the sea for two days.

At this time, his foothold was a lower-level territory on the mainland of the blood rock, but this territory did not have a division of the Qing Dynasty, so he circled in this territory and left some messages in some institutions.

These messages are reserved for the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling, as long as they come to this territory.

Later, Ye Xuan went to an intermediate territory where there was a division of the Shangqing Palace.

The palace owner of the Shangqing Palace only opened 40 veins, so Ye Xuan directly ransacked the entire Shangqing Palace and then left.

The original Lord was to let Ye Xuan slaughter the entire Shangqing Palace, but Ye Xuan refused, otherwise the Shangqing Palace has been destroyed.

In the same way, he left a message in this territory and then left in a hurry.

The blood rock continent is not like the Tianshui continent. He does not have a mirror, so he can only use this method to find the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling.

A little bit past, Ye Xuan will leave a message in that territory as long as he passes by a territory, and he has left a lot of talents, enough to let those messages hang for five years.

As long as the Song Dynasty and the Song ruling are seen, they should re-enter the deep sea palace and return to Tianshui mainland to wait for Ye Xuan.

Of course, the premise is that they have not broken through to the dilemma.

Ye Xuan spent a whole month running the city of all the coastal territories, and then he continued to rob the Qing government.

The Shangqing Palace is considered to be the top force in the middle-level territory. It has been built in more than ten territories. Unfortunately, these sub-gates have now been smashed and all have been looted by Ye Xuan.

When Ye Xuan ransacked these doors, he also directly opened the 56th.

After all, these sub-gates are divided into the door, and the strongest is also the 60-story. This is easy for Ye Xuan to deal with.

"Kid, you have finished the matter, and you have improved in the realm. Is it time to go to heaven?"

The voice of the Lord is echoing in Ye Xuan's mind.

Ye Xuan thought for a moment, and he should now be able to get through the realm of 56 geographies, and it should be able to challenge more than ten local veins, that is, masters with sixty-six local veins.

However, this is still a lot worse than the realm in his heart.

"Is it too early?" Ye Xuan asked.

"It's not too early, your two martial arts have been upgraded to a 10% fire, plus the sword in your hand, enough to kill the master who has opened 65 lines. Now I will pass you on to the Qing Dynasty. Do not pass the secret, you are enough to kill." The Lord continued.
