Chapter 498: the last time

"Upper swordsmanship, die!"

Ye Xuan's eyes smashed and a sword broke out.

"I can't manage that much!" The elder used the last time to do the magic of Dafa. The white belly of the eyes was gone, and the pair of eyes turned black.

But at this time.

"Oh!"

This elder has just finished his work, and his head is swayed by Ye Xuan. After all, it is a slow step.

Ye Xuan plucked the past and put away his shackles and opened up the 63rd.

The sound of the body of the elders of the Shangqing Palace fell into the ears of others.

"That kid..."

The black-eyed old man also noticed, and his eyes sighed and sighed: "Go to a person!"

After hearing the person next to him, he nodded and said: "Master, I am going!"

Although there are three to three here, but the black-eyed old man is super strong, one can top three, even if you leave one person, there is no problem.

This is the master of the black-eyed old man who is going to find Ye Xuan. He is also the next apprentice of the Qing Palace. The strength is the second person in the current Qing Palace. It has already opened two days.

However, he is no longer able to use Daoism.

"Kids, kill me so many people who go to the Qing Palace, go to hell!" The gray-clothed old man yelled at the Ye Xuan to kill the past.

It is a shame to take Ye Xuan, the 20-year-old, at the age of his centenary. But now, when the Shangqing Palace is alive and dead, he can't take care of it.

"I finally got a master of the pulse, kill!"

Ye Xuan's face suddenly became dignified and greeted.

This is his first time to play against the masters of the world, but he knows that this is definitely not the last time.

"Dream of the Dad!"

Ye Xuan once again exhibited.

"Kid, don't use it anymore, use your realm twice, and the third time will be demonized!"

The Lord of the Lord reminded him in his heart.

"I know!"

Ye Xuan answered in his heart.

He underestimated the strength of the Shangqing Palace and overestimated his own strength. He was already thinking that if this Taoist tyrannical law could not be extinguished, then he would leave.

After all, if you play for the third time, you may be sneaked in by the Lord.

At that time, the two of them started to fight, and they played dark and dark, so they were not intense.

At the same time, the black-eyed old man, the battle has already entered the end.

The black-eyed old man is the master of the demon Lord. This is the last time he used the Taoist genius Dafa. If the duration is in the past, he will lose his mind.

However, he has already opened three veins, plus the help of the Daoist and the other master of the Qing Dynasty. He has already wounded the three men of the Demon Gate and gave him a few seconds. The three great masters of the world will die in his hands.

"I want to destroy my Shangqing Palace, die!"

The black-eyed old man suddenly broke out, and a sword broke out, directly killing a magical master of the magic door.

Now, it is two to two!

The master of the magic door, who was originally unable to do so, is now degrading one person, and immediately turned and fled.

However, their speed is not as fast as the black-eyed old man.

"Give me death!"

The black-eyed old man has already been mad, because he knows that his time is not much, he must kill all the other, and then self-discipline, otherwise everyone present will probably die here.

"Oh!"

"Oh!"

Two crisp sounds spread, and the remaining two masters of the magic gate also fell.

Now, the magic door is no longer threatening.

No, there is one!

The black-eyed old man swept away and found that the body of a Tianmai master fell, and he was actually his apprentice.

"what?"

The black-eyed old man glimpsed, but did not immediately find Ye Xuan's figure. He quickly swept a circle and found Ye Xuan at the corpse of the three magic gates.

At this time, Ye Xuan has taken off the three-person ring.

"Hey, the host has opened the 66th line!"

With the four-day talents, Ye Xuan suddenly opened three veins, not only that, but he also quickly swept the Qing Dynasty in addition to the black-eyed old man, the last Tianmai master.

"dead!"

The Taoist master of this Tianmai master has also passed, the strength has fallen, and Ye Xuan instantly killed him.

"Hey, the host has opened the 67th line!"

It is also a familiar reminder.

This scene is beyond the expectation of the black-eyed old man. He originally thought that Ye Xuan would be killed by his apprentice, but he did not expect that the matter was reversed. Not only that, but Ye Xuan also smashed the last Tianmai master of the Qing Palace. If it is time for him to wait for the magic of Dafa, then there will be no master in the Qing Dynasty.

"Miscellaneous things, I want you to die!"

The black-eyed old man was furious and yelled at the sky.

However, at this time, Ye Xuan wearing a mask opened his mouth and smiled and said: "Brother, don't you remember me?"

This sentence, let the black-eyed old man glance, exclaimed: "Is it you?"

"Brother, you must think that after I escaped from the seal, I will find a place to retire and then revenge?" Ye Xuan continued.

Although he is the opening, this sentence is what he said in the original words of the Lord.

"Hey, I sealed you to Sirius Island decades ago, even if I didn't send a master to kill you today, now it's good, you actually sent it to your door." The black-eyed old man was cold and cold.

"Senior brother, don't be awkward. You have attacked me in order to go to the position of the palace, and forced me to use the last time to use the magic of the Dafa, and then to demonize the magic of being a ghost. Today, I am Come to your life!" Ye Xuan continued.

"I also used this last time, I will be enchanted immediately, but I will not become a monster like you, brother, die together!"

The black-eyed old man shouted and plunged directly to Ye Xuan.

This time, he wanted to kill Ye Xuan first, and then he killed himself.

If the magical species in the heart grows to a certain extent, it will sprout after the duration of the Taoist sorcerer's Dafa. Before that, the warrior actually has two alternatives.

One is to enter the devil, so that you can keep the flesh, but without any reason, become a killing machine.

The second is to demonize, just like the devil, so as to be out of the flesh, and become a monster.

The black-eyed old man neither wants to choose, just wants to die.

"kill!"

Two people started to fight and madly attacked each other.

The black-eyed old man did his best to keep the Shangqing Palace because his time was running out.

In order to give the demon Lord this disintegration, Ye Xuan is also fully attacking. As long as he kills the black-eyed old man, he can destroy the Shangqing Palace and complete the task of the demon Lord.

However, what neither of them noticed was that there were only two hundred people left in the Qing Palace, and there were still five hundred in the masters of the Magic Gate. After a while, the masters of the Qing Palace would all be smashed by the masters. kill.
