

Super D.S 5172

Chapter 5172: season finale

A single blow, a powerful eighth-order survivor fell, the flesh exploded directly, and was picked up by Ye Xuan, even the magic weapon that fell out of his body!

This scene is so amazing that it is simply confusing, but it is just the beginning of this terrifying battle...

"Roar!"

"Booming..."

Taking advantage of Ye Xuan's stick to kill the eighth-order survivor, waving the **** fog formed by his body, and the falling of the treasure, the right side also has an eight-order beast roaring. Direct shot, a fist hit...

The energy is too violent, Ye Xuan sideways to avoid, but still was scraped a bit, immediately some blood rushing, the other party is also an eighth-order grotesque, not too weak than him, let him suffocate with a full blow Floating, this is what it should be... brain

In the flashing of these thoughts, Ye Xuan suddenly angered, and then did not hesitate, the skeletal body of the

The power of this attack was too fierce. The konjac day, the head of the eighth-order beast was directly degraded, and then the left arm was violently displayed, and it was directly punched out, and its residual body was rushed. The huge head was blown up. "

Calling..."

The sound of the wind whistling suddenly echoed, the black mist split and waved, and a majestic invisible gas screamed away, sweeping the **** mist that was spreading and spreading directly into the central volcano in the Dingnai space. At the bottom, the blood is refined.

At the same time, there are some top-level cultivation resources such as Tianjiu Yaobao and Tiandaoyuan's liquid falling out of this eight-order fierce beast, and they are also collected by the black fog.

In a dazzling time, the eight eighth-order grotesques have fallen two, and the rest are only six. All this happened too quickly. They were completely unprepared. When they reacted, these six surviving eight-order olds The geeks were shocked and realized that it was not good...

The strength of Ye Xuan, the master of the temple, is far beyond their expectations. This is a true demon god, even if they are also the late stage of the eighth order of Hongmeng, but if they are fighting one-on-one, I am afraid that no one can hold three rounds in the opponent's hands... this

It is simply crushing. Although the other side's cultivation is only the eighth order of Hongmeng, its real combat power is similar to that of the ninth-order grand perfection.

In the face of such an opponent, there are only six people left, even if they do their best, the hope is not big, I am afraid that I really want to fall here today...

These thoughts flashed through the brain. The six eight-order old monsters suddenly hesitated. The light in the eyes all changed to some free flicker. If the surrounding voids had already been covered by the huge flame ball formed by the ten-color flame sea, six I am afraid that people have already turned around and looked forward...

What I said earlier can't enter the galaxy. The words that are alive and awkward are just a beautiful scene. When the real crisis of life and death comes, who wouldn't want to take the lifeline?

Even if it is a strange old man, it can't be avoided!

"How? I regret it so soon?"

Seeing this scene, Ye Xuan seems to have guessed the changes of these six eight-order grotesque thoughts. The faces of the three avatars of the konjac suddenly appear ridiculous, and the sound of the gods of Ye Xuansen is also at this moment. Outgoing.

Through endless ridicule, there is even more irony, and the killing is firm: "Unfortunately, everything is already too late. Today, you are destined to fall down here one by one, and become the stepping stone of the temple." !""

boom! "

"Booming..."

Card..."

The sound of the fall, the black mist of the scorpion has already flashed blood, the spirit of lightning is once again fully motivated, a majestic **** thunder sea appeared on the top of an eighth-order survivor, blasted open, instantly Submerged its shape.

This only made him seriously injured, but then, Ye Xuan had already swept up, and the violent right arm showed a **** stick under the exhibition, and directly turned the eighth-order survivor into a blood. The fog, with the treasure that fell out of his body, was taken away by Ye Xuan..."

boom! ""

Rumble..."

The three eighth-order monsters were smashed, and the remaining five geeks were anxious in an instant. They seemed to have seen the scene of five people being smashed one after another, and not far away, coming soon.

Rather than doing so, it's better to take advantage of it now, and perhaps still be able to make a living.

These thoughts flashed through the brain, and the five old geeks did not hesitate, and there would be no reservations. They all tried their best. They blinked around Ye Xuan's figure and each showed the most powerful means to besiege him. ....

The roaring bang was shocking, and there was a loud voice. Ye Xuan is now three-headed and six-armed, but at the same time there are five opponents in the siege. Although the combat power is not as good as him, it can be repaired as the same. Order.

Moreover, these five powerful eighth-order grotesques have clearly moved their hearts, and they have no reservations, and their combat power is naturally stronger. They can even be said to be super-level. surface

In this case, even Ye Xuan was hit by several times by surprise, and the screaming sound continued to scream. The three konjac avatars all bleed, and the sip of sweetness reached the throat, almost becoming a Blood arrows, just out of this...

"Roar.....""

Hey! "This

Under the joint attack, Ye Xuan was seriously injured, which also aroused the anger of his heart. The three konjac avatars each gave up a terrifying arrogance and screaming, and then they shot out...

"boom!"

"boom!"

"Hey..." Black

The fog splits the spirits and exerts them, causing the five eight-order old monsters gathered around them to scream. At the same time, the **** sticks in the hands of the violent are evenly waved, and they are all out. skeleton

The **** blade of the bones in the hands of the bones is directly whistling out, turning into a **** and demon of incomparable blood, and smirking a bite of an eighth-order survivor in the belly...

The shocking **** battle began in this way, and it entered into a raging situation. After a short half-column fragrance, everything ended. The five eighth-order monsters were all without exception. All of them were killed, and the body was bombarded. Xuan took away.

Including the treasures, the soldiers, and the top-level cultivation resources of the Tianjiu Avenue and the Tiandao source, all of which were also used as trophies and fell into the hands of Ye Xuan.

"call out....."

When Ye Xuan waved and folded the ten-color flame ball that enveloped the battlefield void, and re-formed it into a body with ten color bands wrapped around the black fog, the three-armed and six-armed konjac was scented in the body. , Heran has once again skyrocketed, reaching the peak of the 9th-order grand perfection..."

boom! "

At the same time, in the dark void in the far distance of the right bank of the Milky Way, there was also a shocking blast, which alerted everyone, and all looked back...

The giant source nest star that bred Ye Xuan's power avatar, at this moment, came a thrilling sound, and the whole star was in a shock. This is clearly the horror of the Chaos Devil! "

Oh la la..."

call out! "flame

The last battle in the ball ended, eight powerful eight-order Hongmeng, less than an hour, was completely slain by Ye Xuan. through

After this battle, Ye Xuan's own process of transformation into the soul and body after entering the Hong Meng dynasty, once again reached a new height, enough to support his **** magical transformation of the konjac, to the seventh change.

Before the war, Ye Xuan in the sixth change state, the peak strength is Hongmeng eighth, now, when the end of this war, he has turned the magical power of the konjac to the ninth change...

Therefore, as the huge flame ball collapsed, it turned into a ten-color flame sea, and then it was finally contracted in the sound of the flames of the slap, and finally turned into a gorgeous ten-color streamer, wrapped in black fog. When the body is in the body, the konjac of the three heads and six arms is in the body, and the repaired breath that has been dispersed has reached the ninth-order great perfection...

The peak of Hongmeng is the strongest realm of Hongmeng, and then it is the supreme chaos after Hongmeng.

Even this ancient and vast emptiness of Hongmeng has never seen a ninth-order grand sacred peak since the epoch-making Hongmeng era, even the three that were born at the beginning of each era. Thousands of chaotic devils are generally only repaired in the middle of Hongmeng. where

I am afraid that it is the strongest power demon, and it is also the top eight...

At this moment, Ye Xuan has turned into a **** magical power of the konjac, and has reached the end of the eternal Hongmeng.

When his figure appeared, the vast and innocent banks of the Milky Way were completely ruined. that

More than two hundred honours sighed and sighed, and their faces were bitter. They knew that they had no more power, even if all the people were on the shoulders, it would be impossible for the Lord of the Temple to be...

"Hey..."

Er waited, I am the magic temple pig tyrant, who dares not to stand up, the old pig I suppressed on the spot..."

It is also at this moment that the old pigs, who have long been unable to hold back, have seen Ye Xuan killing eight eighth-order Hongmeng, and after the First World War, their own cultivation has been soaring to the great success of Hongmeng. The piece of Hong Kong's void is no longer invincible... old

The guy suddenly got excited. He looked up and screamed straight out from the front of the Great Hall. He went over the central bank of the Galaxy and turned around and looked around. This

In one scene, countless fierce beasts and survivors are speechless. Those more than two hundred cultivators are far more powerful than their honoured geeks. They even eat a dead fly, one by one, but they dare to turn straight. Angry and afraid to speak...

"Boom!"

At the same moment, in the dark void in the far distance of the right bank of the Milky Way, there was also a shocking blast, which alerted everyone, and all looked back.

The giant source nest star that bred Ye Xuan's power avatar, there was a loud sound at this moment, the whole star is in a shock, this is clearly the chaos demon **** is about to be born...

"boom!"

Rumble..."

"Boom..."

It's not the only exception. A similar scene will soon come on...

The vast and innocent Hongmeng Tiandi swayed at this moment. In the dark void around the distance, a source of nest stars was violently trembled, and the sound of thunder and thunder in it was ringing...New

The Hongmeng era will be opened, and the chaotic demon gods born in the 3,000 source nest stars will also be born at that moment...

To be precise, it should be 2,999, because a source nest star was swallowed up by the dragon's life giant, and turned into the secret base camp of the Ye Xuan Demon Legion...

Once these two thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine chaotic demon gods are born, this vast and innocent Hongmeng void will usher in the beginning of the new era... the battle of the devil! that

It must be a very long, extremely turbulent and dark age, and Ye Xuan is not interested in participating. to Less, his deity does not have this interest. because

In his view, this battle of the demon **** belongs to his power, and belongs to those who are separated from his power. It is like a sneak peek at Ye Xuan, and he is sent to a giant under the nest star... ...

In fact, it was not a minority that was originally sent by Ye Xuan into a nest of stars.

Among them are Emperor Yinlei Ling, Mosquito Tudor, Bloody, Elephant Fox, Yingtai, Limos, Flying Scorpio and Jubilee.

There are also Taikoo Porcupine, Taikoo tortoise, green cow, jade exquisite, roaring moon, dragon, black robe, ninth, three-jawed dragon, and wolf stale, Jin Yanyan, Jiao Ritian, Mei Dusha, lion overbearing six people!

There are more fierce beasts and bloody, Qingpeng and war lions.

The number of people is 98. If you count his strength, and before he enters a source nest star, he will reach the hundredth!

The entire vast and innocent Hongmeng void, when each era opens, the total number of chaotic demon gods bred in 3,000 source nest stars is only 3,000. This

At one time, only 2,999,000, and Ye Xuan's colleagues in the camp occupied a hundred, and the most powerful of all the Chaos Devils, the power of Ye Xuan. ....

Under his leadership, this hundred chaotic devils who have succeeded in stealing the sky will be able to win the battle of the demon **** at the beginning of this Hongmeng era, and thus win a part of the glory and luck...

Everything has his strength to fight, and Ye Xuan, has decided to take the six major corps of the Magic Hall, with the murder of the devil in the source nest base camp, and enter the Galaxy. no

On where the road is, how far is it, now he, the only thing he thinks, is... go home! "

You, the new Hongmeng era is about to open, and three thousand chaotic demon gods will also be born. By then, it will be the battle of the demon **** after the opening of the new era... when the curtain is opened! "

Looking back, Ye Xuan turned to the countless strongmen on both sides of the Milky Way, and immediately removed the three-armed and six-armed konjac, and restored the original human form: "This temple will lead the genus of the temple, enter Within the Milky Way, the vortex channel is closed later. If you don't want to fall in this battle of the demon, or prepare for it, each of them... squatting and submerging!"

boom! "

"Booming..."

After that, the thunderous roaring sounded again to the void, Ye Xuan did not pay attention to everything, waved, the source of the nest star base camp, the six major army of the magic hall fully activated, rushing to the front of the galactic channel above the central bank of the Milky Way, in Under his leadership... Hao Hao into the Galaxy!
