Chapter 52: Xue Qingqing's dowry

Xue Hai looked at Ye Xuan to eat almost, and the eyes were also a turn, and then said: "Yin Yin, now the green marriage contract has been retired, the bride price is also returned, then you..."

"What about us?"

Ye Xuan looked up.

"Your marriage is..." Xue Hai smiled.

If it is in peacetime, Xue Qingqing will definitely jump out against it, but this time, she is unexpectedly silent, just eating it silently.

"Uncle, I just came to help." Ye Xuan smiled.

"Yin, ah, since you have already helped, it is better to accept her, I see you two quite fit." Xue Haichong Ye Xuan shook his eyebrows.

"Uncle, this is not..."

Ye Xuan hasn't finished yet, Xue Hai is pretending to be like a crying cry: "Hey, I know, Yin Xian, you must be abandoning your uncle."

Hearing this, Ye Xuan is helpless. He is in his twenties. Can't he be a 14-year-old Lori?

You know, 14 years old is not yet an adult!

At this time, he suddenly felt his sleeves were pulled. When he turned his head, he found that Xue Qingqing had come over and whispered: "Quickly promise me, help me to help, in case the city owner What should I do again?"

"Things are solved, what else?"

"Then you promised first, and I still have a lot of dowry, you can take it first, and then give it back to you when you become stronger in the future." Xue Qingqing whispered.

"The trough, this girl should not really like me." Ye Xuan was surprised, he has been met several times recently.

Lin Xueer once, Xue Qingqing once here, if he promised Xue Qingqing, then he will have to retreat in the future.

However, Xue Qingqing said a very tempting condition.

dowry!

"How many dowries do you have?" Ye Xuan asked curiously.

Xue Qingqing saw Ye Xuan hooked up and hurriedly extended a slender hand.

"Five million?" Ye Xuan whispered.

"No, it is 50 million!" Xue Qingqing corrected.

what?

Fifty million?

When I heard this number, Ye Xuan couldn't help but blink.

50 million two silver, enough for him to break through to the eighth martial arts!

"You just promise, then I will give you the dowry first, now you will become stronger first, and then return it to me in the future." Xue Qingqing whispered.

Ye Xuan has already fallen into the eyes of the money. He will be able to shock everyone by taking the cloud of the eighth middle of the martial arts.

"Good." Ye Xuan nodded.

At the moment, he promised Xue Hai.

After seeing Ye Xuan agree, Xue Hai was also surprised and happy. He even told me to go straight and get engaged tomorrow.

Ye Xuan was also scared to death. Xue Hai wanted to marry Xue Qingqing. However, if things were not done, the dowry would not be satisfactory.

Zhang Jiakai has just been remarried, and things have not been fully spread. Xue Fu is doing a happy event, but this is playing Zhang Lie's face.

However, Xue Hai has already sent 50 million dowry back to the city government, and Zhang Lie is not allowed to be the identity of Ye Xuan. He has no choice.

The next day, Ye Xuan directly decided to marry Xue Qingqing, and the dowry was the martial arts of Ye Xuan.

This dowry is not low. This frosty boxing, chaotic star arrow, and starburst arrow can be no one. If it is auctioned, it can sell at least tens of millions of dollars.

Now, Ye Xuan is directly the son-in-law of Xuefu.

Ye Xuan was also inaccurate. If this matter was known to his father, Ye Chong, the * would not be beaten.

"Nvwa, your martial arts, all sold out, this is 50 million two silver."

On the night of the marriage, Xue Hai sent a lot of Tiandi Dibao, which was bought by Ye Xuantu after he sold the martial arts.

Wanjincheng is a big city. There are many families with money in it. Those martial arts who took it out are directly robbed of empty space. After all, this is a martial art that has never appeared before, and it is better than martial arts at the same level. .

At this time, in Ye Xuan's room.

"Oh, 50 million two heavens and earth treasures, plus the dowry of Qingqing, is one hundred and two, this is a hundred points to swallow points!"

Ye Xuan smiled and closed his mouth, hurriedly swallowed all these things. However, what surprised him was that the 50 million yuan of silver did not allow him to break through.

"The system is really too embarrassing, 50 million two, not enough. I broke through the seventh peak of the martial arts to the eighth martial arts?"

Ye Xuan is helpless. Fortunately, he still got fifty points to swallow points, because he deliberately tried to choose something with a price of one million or two million, otherwise it would be too bad.

Just then, there was a sudden footstep outside the door.

Ye Xuan opened the door and saw Xue Qingqing walked in with a big box.

"Is this what?" Ye Xuan asked in a strange way.

Xue Qingqing put the big box at the door and wiped a sweat. "My dowry is 500,000 gold, so I went out and spent all of it."

One or two gold is equivalent to one hundred and two silver, fifty thousand two gold, that is, fifty million two silver.

"Oh, it's fortunate to have you." Ye Xuan's eyes lit up and hurriedly carried things into the room.

"Swallowing success!"

"Hey, the host broke through to the eighth stage of the martial arts!"

Ye Xuan did not open it and directly swallowed the entire box. Then he broke through to the eighth place of the martial arts.

"It's finally arrived, Grandma's, the cost of this flower is too much, 100 million silver, enough to build several martial arts eighth heavy weapons." Ye Xuan also shook his head helplessly, now he broke into the new Realm, then what is needed, I am afraid it will be calculated in billions.

However, he is also calm, as long as he enters the cracked Yunzong, still afraid of no money?

"Are you breaking through?" Xue Qingqing sat on the bed and asked.

"Breakthrough, the martial art is the eighth." Ye Xuan nodded.

Xue Qingqing looked at him with a look of admiration. "I am envious, you have this physique, as long as there are good things, you can break through indefinitely."

"Required, who made me Ye Xuan?" Ye Xuan also opened his mouth and smiled, and turned his head and said: "Now you have solved this problem, still go to crack the cloud?"

"Hey, I don't like to practice. I used to go to crack the cloud sect before I got married. So I still count it." Xue Qingqing shook his head. "But you are my fiancé now, you have to converge on the cracked cloud." I can't attract bees, or I won't spare you."

"I know, my aunt." Ye Xuan nodded. However, the next moment, he suddenly showed a wretched appearance, quietly sat next to Xue Qingqing, said: "We are now engaged, you are not..." "
