Chapter 72: Spirit beast

As long as the one-horned dragon can be smashed into two paragraphs, then this one-horned dragon is dead, although it will not die immediately, but it will definitely die because of excessive bleeding, just a matter of time.

Ye Xuan also nodded immediately, raising his hand is to shoot a few explosive star arrows.

Now he also understands that the dagger in the hands of the road is a precious spirit. If he has this instrument, I am afraid that the dragon will be cut in half in minutes.

Unfortunately, the road is definitely not to borrow such precious things.

"Roar!"

The body of the horned dragon began to recover, and the effect of the spring-medicine was about to be invalid. However, with this large area of injury and two eyes, the threat is still small.

It did not expect that when it was the weakest, it would kill four humans. But at this time it is nothing at all. If you blink it, it will not even be captured by a human being.

"boom!"

Ye Xuan four people madly attacked, the wounds of the abdomen dragon's abdomen continued to expand, and after the road was out of the handle, their damage was calculated in tons.

"Haha, the spirit beast Nedan, the spirit beast Nedan, hahahaha..." After the road was out of the spirit, the whole person was different, and from time to time, a big laughter was made, so that Ye Xuan thought he was crazy. It.

However, the road was not looking at the wound of the one-horned dragon. The greed of the eyes was more and more. He glanced at the three people around him, and an idea deep inside him suddenly popped up.

"Teacher, don't blame me for being ruthless!"

The road was not flashing, and he was holding the decapitation of the spirit. He suddenly rushed to the nearest Ningchuan, and he was a seven-in-one martial arts chase soul.

His realm was originally a higher level than Ning Chuan. Now with this skill, his attack power and speed are definitely beyond the imagination of Ningchuan.

Ning Chuan felt that it was wrong, and when he turned around, there was a sniper across his body.

"Oh!"

Ning Chuan's eyes widened, revealing a look that he could not believe.

The age of the two of them is similar, but from childhood to big, Ning Chuan did not think of it, the road was not even shot to him.

Ning Chuan's body was separated and fell on the floor. He couldn't stand such a high-intensity glimpse.

"what?"

A side of the language Lan and Ye Xuan are also shocked.

When Guan Lan responded, the uneven hand had already been lifted, and it was a chasing soul.

"Sister, don't blame the brothers, as long as you have this one, then the brothers can directly break through to the ninth weight of the martial arts, and even the tenth, become the Yunyunzong... No, become the first genius of Nanlin County! "

This is a thought before the road is not working.

After the soul of the soul-raising, the speed is amazing, and in the blink of an eye, it is the front of the language.

Guan Lan also gave up the resistance. She knew that she could not escape the attack. She couldn't hide it. Then she ended up with Ning Chuan as a cold body.

However, just in this millennium, suddenly there is another energy, and this chasing soul hits.

"boom!"

The two spiritual forces collided together, causing a strong shock wave, which directly sent Guan Lan to the earthquake.

Undoubtedly, this sudden attack is the star of Ye Xuan.

"Damn!"

When I saw it, the road was also a dark voice. How did he forget it?

At the same time, he is also very shocked, because he is holding a hand in his hand, the attack power is probably equal to the ninth heavy weapon of the martial arts.

However, such an attack was actually defeated by Ye Xuan. How is this possible?

"Road brother, you are murdering the brothers of the same class." Ye Xuan looked at the road with a smile. He guessed from the beginning that this might happen, so he also intentionally or unintentionally opened the other side. distance.

Unexpectedly, it really happened.

"An inner Dan is worth more than a hundred million, let me give it to you, don't even think about it, my brother, I know that you are powerful, but can you stop the spirit in my hand?" The road is not attacked, Just looking at Ye Xuan so coldly.

"I just didn't block it?" Ye Xuan smiled slightly.

"Then I will see if you can continue to block!" The road suddenly found a medicinal medicine from his arms. This medicinal medicine is exactly the kind of explosion that Ye Xuan is familiar with.

The road is not the plain. It is the seventh peak of the martial art. It is the realm of taking the biggest benefit of the blasting dragon. After taking the blasting dan, his realm will break through to the eighth martial arts, and by the spirit of his hand, the leaves Xuan really can't stop it.

"Mother's, even forgot to have this kind of remedy." Ye Xuan screamed in his heart, but he is not vegetarian.

The blood of the beast, the blood of the leopard, and the martial arts of the nine martial arts are enough to make him avoid the attack of the road.

"call out!"

For example, Ye Xuan chased the soul more quickly, and Ye Xuan evaded sideways. He chased the soul and defeated his afterimage. He fell into the stone wall and hit the stone wall with a long two-meter mark.

Ye Xuan did not dare to care about it. This chasing soul is probably enough to split his body in half.

"Hey, I still yell at you, but can you stop it?" The fierce light flashed in the eyes of the road, and his eyes fell on Guan Lan.

The language was only saved by Ye Xuan, but the impact also seriously injured her. At this time, she, like this one-horned dragon, is very weak.

"not good!"

Ye Xuan's face sank and hurriedly shot a few explosive star arrows. He had to interrupt the attack of the road, otherwise Guan Lan was dangerous.

Although Guan Lan only said a word to him, but he lived in the bamboo forest, and if he could save it, Ye Xuan still didn't mind saving it.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

The three-pointed star-shaped arrow only blocks the road from being inferior and chasing the soul. This is the gap between the top-grade ware and the spirit.

"I see you can block a few times!" The road was so hot that he had been beaten twice by Ye Xuan. This time, he will take revenge!

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

The sound of the spiritual collision continues, echoing in the cave, like a thunder, seems to have collapsed the entire cave.

The sands in the caves are constantly flowing, and the dust has filled every corner, as if it had been swept by sandstorms.

In just five seconds, Ye Xuan shot more than a dozen starbursts, and the spiritual power in the body was quickly consumed. It is estimated that it will not last long.

"Not very good, I guess I can only shoot five more starbursts. If the spiritual power in the body consumes light, then I must die here."

Ye Xuan is also hesitant, because he still has bad points to swallow, if used, it must be able to turn the tide.
