Chapter 75: Rebounding Yunzong!

After the last scene of the story, Lan Lan recalled that he was willing to take Ye Xuan's corpse.

Ye Xuan's strength has such a strong strength, she can completely control her, but Ye Xuan does not, which is obviously taking advantage of her.

At this time, Ye Xuan suddenly said: "Hey, you seem to want to kill me, your woman's heart is too embarrassing, I am also saved you, I don't want to say a word, I know you will leave you The cave was dead together with the road."

As soon as the road was not smooth, there was also a murder in the eyes of Guan.

The road is not the grandson of an elder of the Yunyun, and Guan Lan has also entered the Yunyun sect since childhood. Although the relationship between the two is not very good, it is a good time to grow up together.

But I did not expect that the road is not flat to want to cause her to die, but this is also reasonable, even if it is a pair of brothers, I am afraid that because of a monster inside Dan and turned against enemies.

Guan Lan also took a breath of cold air, and when she just wanted to talk, the blood suddenly surged, could not help but spurt a blood.

Although the sniper of Fangcai's road was smashed by Ye Xuan, her strength also caused her to be seriously injured.

"Hey, you can't die. If you die, everyone will think that I am Ye Xuan killing you."

Ye Xuan reluctantly exchanged a bottle of Baihualu and handed it over.

Guan Lan's face cautiously glared at Ye Xuan, when she suddenly remembered that her own things were probably in the cave, and even the weapons were not brought out.

"Reassure, this is not something like 'obscenity can't move'. Otherwise, with your injury, I am afraid that I will not be able to support the Yunyun, and I will die halfway."

Ye Xuan handed the Baihualu to the past, he also under the blood, because this bottle of flower dew is worth a little bit of engulfing points, very precious.

However, now he is a big local tyrant, there are 500 points of devouring points in the body, a little bit, he is not in the heart.

Guan Lan did not refuse, although some of her hearts hated Ye Xuan, but the latter's character is still possible.

After opening the bottle of Baihualu, there was a burst of fragrance. She opened the cherry mouth and drank the bottle of flowers. Immediately, the flower was turned into a warm breath, nourishing and repairing her. The internal organs.

Guan Lan was shocked, because the effect of this hundred flower dew was beyond her imagination. In just a few breaths, the pain in her body was missing, and the injury was better than half.

"Drink this thing, you will be able to heal after half a day." Ye Xuandao.

"What is this?" Guan Lan could not help but ask.

Ye Xuan replied: "Hundreds of flowers, this is a good thing that no money can buy."

Before that, he had visited the entire refining pharmacy for a while, and the healing medicines contained hundreds of thousands of dollars at the top, and the effect was much less than that of Baihualu.

"Where did you get it?" Guan Lan asked again.

Although she had the poison before, she was awake and found that Ye Xuan was empty at this time.

However, he was able to suddenly take out a bottle of such precious healing medicine. How did this happen?

"You are bothered, and then ask me to spit it out." Ye Xuan turned his eyes and responded.

Guan Lan did not speak, but stood up silently.

"Now you owe me a few lives, once in the cave, help you save it once, help you detoxify and heal again, remember to return it to me in the future." Ye Xuan casually said.

The foster daughter of the sect of the sect of Yunzhu is also unusual. If the ruins of the ruins of the Clouds are coming back, they may be able to reward him greatly. This is excellent.

"Humph."

Guan Lan did not refute. In fact, she was more resistant to Ye Xuan. First, Ye Xuan gave her a first impression that was very bad. Second, she just took advantage of her.

"What do we want to do now, is it to directly crack the Yunzong?" Ye Xuan suddenly asked again.

"Do you want to go any further?"

"Of course not. There is a more powerful dragon below. Can I go down and look for death?" Ye Xuan turned his eyes and said: "Now the road is not peaceful and Ningchuan is dead. Ningchuan is fine. The road is not the grandson of the road elders. If he knows that the road is not flat, he will definitely be furious, when..."

"What do you want to do?" asked Guan Lan.

Ye Xuan immediately replied: "Of course, it's a long way to go through the sea. After we go back, we will say that it's good to kill the Blackwater Village and the two roads."

Guan Lan carefully thought about it and found that this method was feasible. After all, she was only invited by the road.

What's more, the road is not smooth and Ning Chuan will certainly be swallowed by the dragon, even the body can not be found, it is dead without proof.

Ye Xuan and this Guanlan reached a consensus, they quickly left the Blackwater Mountain, and then they found a hotel to stay.

The next day, Guan Yulan's injury was completely restored. It is incredible that she was also blessed in disguise. She broke the embarrassment with this injury and broke through to the eighth place of the martial arts.

Before they returned to the cleft Yunzong, they also cut off the first level of Cao Hu, the head of the Blackwater Village. The first level of Cao Hu was the task supplies, but he would turn it over to the task of the Li Yunzong.

A few days later, they also returned to the cracked Yunzong.

However, what surprised those disciples was that Ye Xuan was out with four people at the time. Why did Ye Xuan and Guan Yulan come back together?

It's tricky!

Absolutely tricky!

However, Ye Xuan also ignored the eyes of everyone, and went directly to Guan Lan with Guan Lan, and completed the task of the Blackwater Village.

"Hey, aren't you four people doing this task together, why are you only two?" The deacon of the experience hall asked some strangely.

"Lu Shixiong and Ning brothers went to Lianyun 18 Mountain Range and experienced it. We didn't go, so we came back first." Ye Xuan replied casually, he couldn't say that the road was uneven and Ningchuan had died in the black water mountain belly. in.

"Oh, good, but this seven-question mission is what you pick up, so this mission reward is also given to you first."

The deacon of the auditorium nodded and compared Cao Hu's first level with the portrait, and then took out six hundred points of tokens.

Ye Xuan collected the six points tokens and then returned to Zhulin with Guan Lan.

"Get it, now we are two, five or five. When someone asks, you can't say anything."

After returning to the bamboo forest, Ye Xuan lost three tokens in the past and reminded him.

However, after Guan Lan received it, he actually lost the token.

"What do you do, you don't think you want to use those three hundred points to return those three people? Take them and take them."

Ye Xuan lost the token back, and then went straight back to his yard.

Guan Lan took these three tokens and looked back at Ye Xuan's back. He also went back to his own wooden house.
