Chapter 80: Two will compare

Listening to the dialogue between Zhou Cang and Li Haodang, Ye Xuan also felt a bad atmosphere. Although there was no problem in the names of the two, the dialogue between the two of them could be heard even if they were fools.

"Ye Xuan, you and the language Lan sit down first." Zhou Cang said to the two.

"Yes, Master."

Ye Xuan nodded, then sat not far away, and Guan Lan, who was sitting next to him.

"Off... 呃, 语兰, what is the festival between the master and the deputy lord?"

After sitting down, Ye Xuan could not help but ask.

He only entered the cracked Yunzong for only one month, and he did not know much about it. However, Guan Lan grew up in the cracked Yunzong and would definitely know.

"The disciple of the deputy lord, who was beaten by Fan Yue before." Guan Lan said with a red face, showing the attitude of the little daughter, and some disciples around him were a little crazy.

"It turns out." Ye Xuan nodded.

Now he understands why the two deputy lords are hostile. It turned out to be the case.

It seems that the two cases are more dangerous. Although there are two elders in the field as referees, there are still some accidents.

"Fan Yue participated in a two-time comparison when he was sixteen years old. Two years later, he was only the ninth heavy martial art. This qualification is not a trick. If this is the case, then I will take care of me. The brothers took revenge and interrupted the Fan's meridians."

Ye Xuan made a decision in his heart.

Collecting money and eliminating disasters.

He is also the only disciple of Zhou Cang, who enjoys the benefits of two thousand points every month, so naturally he has to worry about Zhou Cang.

But at this time, Zhou Cang was hesitant in his heart, and he did not want Ye Xuan to appear.

"I didn't expect the other party to break through to the ninth heavy martial arts. It seems that I will be cautious. I can't easily find a seed of true spirituality, but I can't just die. Now I am near the limit and must act conservatively. Absolutely Can't let him have an accident."

This is the thought in Zhou Cang's heart.

On the surface, he is the deputy lord of the Li Yunzong, but in the back, he actually has some uninformed conspiracy. The object of this conspiracy was originally Zhong Yang, but now it is replaced by Ye Xuan.

However, Ye Xuan does not know that the danger is around.

Before the arrival of Ye Xuan, the two deputy lords of the Li Yunzong and the Split Tianzong had already discussed the contents of this meeting.

Below, that Li Haodang is getting up, and then explained the content of this comparison.

There are a total of five games, but it is not a three-game two-win system.

These five contests require a lottery, and the order of one to five is pre-requisites. Then the two sides of the two sides start to play, but the winner can choose to continue the battle, and the loser of the five games will lose.

To put it simply, as long as the strength of the number one is strong, then you can play five games.

On the way to the party, Guan Lan told Ye Xuan that the order of the battle was the order of the inner door. Although Ye Xuan did not rank, Zhong Yang did not return, so he replaced Zhong Yang.

"Ye Xuan, you will draw lots."

At this time, Zhou Cang suddenly shouted.

Wen Yan, Ye Xuan also walked over and pulled out a bamboo stick in the bamboo tube in his hand.

"Zhu Hong, who is this?"

When Ye Xuan saw the name on the bamboo stick, it was also a glimpse. He did not seem to have heard of the name.

"You are drawing the order of the other party." Guan Lan said whispered on the side.

"Oh fine."

Ye Xuan handed the bamboo sign to Zhou Cang, and then pulled out three more, all names that have not been heard.

That being said, Fan Tianzong's card Fan Yue is ranked fifth!

"Haha, your luck is good. If Fan Yue is filmed in the first appearance, then you will have to lose five straight, no, six consecutive defeats." Li Haodang suddenly laughed.

Five-game losing streak means five losses, but this time lost, then the split Yunzong is a six-game losing streak.

Zhou Cang's face was pumping, and he snorted and did not speak.

Next, it is Li Haodang's decision to split the cloud.

"Huo Yuan, Ding Long, Su Sheng, Guan Yulan, Ye Xuan."

Li Haodang read the name in turn.

Coincidentally, as the bottom of the pressure box, Ye Xuan, like Fan Yue, is also in the fifth.

As a result, the order of both parties has been fixed.

Zhou Cang's face is also stretched, but it is still very dignified, because he can see that in addition to Fan Yue, there is also a martial art in the eighth mid-term.

In addition to Ye Xuan, there are only four martial arts teams in the early stage. If you want to win, you still have to rely on the last game.

Then, Zhou Cang sent people to announce the rules and the order of the battle, and then carefully reminded Ye Xuan five people.

"Ye Xuan, it seems that you are going to confront Fan Yue, but you have to be very careful, that Fan has the means to win, victory or defeat is a common practice of the military ..." Zhou Cang reminded Ye Xuan.

"Master, I know."

Ye Xuan nodded, and he also knew that Fan Yue was already the ninth heavy martial art, and once a disciple of Zhou Cang was beaten by the pulse, his heart was extremely hot.

However, he is not vegetarian. Although he is not the other person in terms of age and realm, his physical fitness is definitely far beyond the other side.

One force to drop ten meetings, this time he thinks that the odds are still very big.

In the entire training field, there are already nearly a thousand disciples of the Yunyun sect, including foreign disciples, internal disciples, and even mentor and elders.

In the battle of so many people, Ye Xuan is the first time to want to lay the name of the inner door master in these people's hearts, then you must win this victory.

"This time I must win, so I can get 30,000 points, and I can break through to the ninth middle of the martial arts..."

Ye Xuan thought secretly in his heart.

The cracked Yunzong is actually just a springboard for him. His future stage is not limited to this.

Therefore, he only paused in the cracked Yunzong, and he will leave at some point.

"Two will compare, start now!"

Just as he thought about it, suddenly someone went to the ring and shouted.

Ye Xuan, a condensed light, suddenly found that this referee would be their elders.

"It is said that this ruling elder is the tenth peak of the martial art, and is the strongest in Zongmen after the master..."

Ye Xuan thought in his heart, and then he followed Huo Yuan and Guan Yulan to the edge of the ring.

The other side of the sacred Tianzong is standing on the other side of the ring.

"Two cases will be compared, the bet is 10 million two gold, and the loser is the loser." Shoushan elders continued to shout.

The practice of the military field, which was originally silent, suddenly exclaimed.

Ten million gold, this is one billion silver.

What are the two bets that are bigger than this?

This figure is also a surprise to Ye Xuan. If he got this, he would probably break through to the ninth peak of Wudao.
