Chapter 99: Xue family accident

"stop!"

When the gangsters heard this violent drink, they immediately got a foot, and then suddenly took out a cloth bag from their arms and threw them out, and blasted a palm to explode.

In the meantime, countless white powders floated up, and the entire wall passage became smoky.

"Is it flour?"

Ye Xuan also slammed the palm of his hand and fanned away the white powder around him, but he heard the sound of a battle in the next moment.

"It's a wanted criminal, close the gate!"

This is the voice of the guard.

Hearing this, Ye Xuan looked stiff.

Now there is only one wanted man in Wanjin City, that is, Xue Qingqing, whose portrait is still attached to the wall.

"She is Xue Qingqing?"

Ye Xuan suddenly reacted. It is no wonder that he saw that the body of the fighting man was familiar. It turned out to be Xue Qingqing.

It seems that the Xue family is really going wrong.

"You guys are going to let me go, or my fiancé will definitely want you to look good!"

A familiar voice came in front of the day, it was Xue Qingqing.

"Sure enough, he!"

This time, Ye Xuan is not calm, and after whispering and closing the language, it is an instant pluck.

Guan Lan is also closely following.

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

Two muffled sounds spread, and several guards ran across the chest with pain and pain, and when they reacted, the wanted criminals in their eyes were already missing.

"Not good, there are accomplices, please inform the city!"

The guard captain looked around and found that the gate had been closed, and immediately shouted.

.....

Xue Qingqing, who was pretending to be out of the city, although he used the blind method, but because of his poor strength, he was guarded and relaxed.

However, at this time, a handsome figure suddenly shot, and the surrounding guards were all given to fly and saved him.

When she reacted, she found that she was already being swayed by the other side and moving fast on the street.

"No, I am a woman." Xue Qingqing thought, hurriedly said: "Let me down!"

"Oh, little girl, I don't even know each other?"

A familiar voice fell into her ear. She fixed her eyes and saw that she was not her nominal fiancé.

"Ye Xuan, are you?" Xue Qingqing exclaimed.

"Not who I am?" Ye Xuan glanced at her and found a small alley.

At this point, they are already far from the city wall.

After Ye Xuan's forefoot entered the alley, Guan Lan's foot was followed. Xue Qingqing saw someone coming in and just prepared to exclaim, but the next moment she suddenly discovered that the comer was a beautiful girl, not a Wanjinchengcheng. Guard.

"Own people, don't worry." Ye Xuan said, that is, pulling Xue Qingqing into the dead end, and then asked: "What happened, why are you wanted?"

Xue Qingqing also wants to ask who is the girl behind Ye Xuan. When she heard this question, she immediately cried out and explained: "My family was copied by the city owner, and the whole family was caught up and down..."

"Why?" Ye Xuan's heart has an unpredictable hunch. This Xue family's accident is probably because of him.

After all, the son of the city of Wanjincheng was killed by him.

"The city owner casually gave me a charge and said that I am arguing against the enemy and selling the country. It is the spies of other countries." Xue Qingqing said with the rain.

Ye Xuan's heart trembled, and sure enough, because of his reasons.

Wanjinchengcheng advocated that after he learned that his son was killed, he wanted to avenge his son, but Ye Xuan's identity was extraordinary, so he immediately gave a crime to Xue Hai and copied Xue's family.

"So, the uncle is now in the city seat?" Ye Xuan asked strangely.

"Well, my sister-in-law was arrested, even my Xue family's offerings have not escaped." Xue Qingqing nodded with tears.

"So?" Ye Xuan's heart is also very embarrassing. The big city owner is an official of the Xuanyang Empire. He is not good at it.

However, all this is caused by him. Can he stand by and watch?

The thing he hates most is that someone is doing something to the people around him, even if he can't.

"In this way, you want to find a home inn, I went to the city's main government to explore." Ye Xuan said.

"But, you..." Xue Qingqing was shocked.

Ye Xuan wants to go alone to explore the city's main government? Isn't this looking for death?

"Reassured, now I am amazing, even the city owner is not my opponent." Ye Xuan smiled slightly.

Wanjinchengcheng advocated that Lie was only the ninth heavy martial art in the early days. He is now the ninth medium-term martial art, and it is a realm to stabilize the other side. Is it difficult to be afraid of each other?

"Lianchengzhu also..." Xue Qingqing was already shocked. He and Ye Xuan had not seen it for a long time. The latter was already strong enough.

"Well, don't worry, I will go and see how to save them."

After Ye Xuan finished, she took Xue Qingqing to open an inn and let her hide in the inn. Regarding the language, Ye Xuan is still relatively reassured.

Although Guan Lan is the eighth major beginning of the martial arts, she is a disciple of the Li Yunzong. The strength is even stronger than the average martial art in the middle of the eighth period. It can even be compared with the eighth peak of the martial art.

After leaving the inn, Ye Xuan also inquired about the location of the city's main government, and then ran directly.

In fact, he can hide it, and then he will make a big trouble to the city government and save Xue Hai and others.

However, in doing so, everyone in Xue will become a wanted criminal. It is only okay by Wanjin City. If the Wanjincheng master passes the wanted order to other cities, then it will be troublesome.

Therefore, it is necessary to use the proper behavior to save the Xue family and to eliminate Xue Qingqing's wanted order.

Ye Xuan came to the front of the city's main government, thought about it, and then went straight.

"Stand up, who?"

The guard of the city government stopped Ye Xuan.

At this time, Ye Xuan directly took out a token and said: "I am the director of the Yunyun sect, Ye Xuan, to see your city owner!"

Guarding a glimpse, immediately revealing the disdainful color, stepped forward: "Where is the little boy, if you are really a mentor of the Yunyun, then I am the emperor!"

"So, you don't believe it?" Ye Xuan eyes a glimpse.

"Go and go, you want to see our city owner!" This guard obviously does not believe, but this can not blame him. After all, the mentors of the cracked Yunzong must be the ninth heavy martial arts.

"Ha ha."

Ye Xuan did not say much, he felt that when you can start, try not to move.

"Hey!"

Suddenly, a sigh of anger slammed into the sixth guard of the martial art, and instantly shocked him.

"Bold!"

Another guard saw the situation and immediately greeted the knife.

In Wanjin City, there are still people who dare to fight the guards of the city government. This is really a matter of life and death.
