

The Super-Rich System: Behind The Multi-Billionaire

Chapter 1 - The Super-Rich System

"Dominic, let's break up!"

In a forest on the playground of Jackinion University: Sandra Jenkins was speaking to her boyfriend, Dominic Lewis.

"Sandra, why? What did I do wrong? Why are you so heartless?" Dominic asked emotionally.

They were classmates in high school and had been lovers since they were seniors. Although Dominic didn't come from a good family, he was handsome and doing well academically. He was a nice guy. When he was in high school, he had naturally been a hot favorite among female classmates.

Sandra was not bad. She was the most beautiful girl in the class. Her grades were not as good as Dominic's, but she was definitely one of the best.

The two of them were often criticized by their teachers when they were together. Both of them had repeatedly promised that their relationship would never affect their studies. Moreover, once they were forced to break up, their grades took a hit. Hence, the teachers had all turned a blind eye to their relationship.

Just as they had promised, both of them had managed to get admitted to the most prestigious university in the country, Jackinion University. Many people were envious of them.

But Dominic had never expected that less than a year into college, Sandra would start to keep him at arm's length. Now she even wanted to break up with him.

In fact, from the beginning of this semester, he had noticed the change in her. Every time they were together, she would be absent-minded and come up with many excuses to refuse to meet him.

On one Saturday, he had seen her get into a playboy's car, but he had been comforting himself that maybe it was just a pure classmates' gathering.

However today, she had initiated a breakup with him, shattering his dream.

"Dominic, let's part on good terms and leave a good memory for each other, okay?"

"Sandra, tell me, is it because of Liam Holt?"

"So what if it is?"

"Sandra, Liam is a famous playboy in school. He got a classmate pregnant last semester. Didn't you know that?"

"Liam explained it to me. Both of them made the mistake after getting drunk, and it was the girl who took the initiative. Later, he compensated her."

"Sandra, don't believe him. He lied to you. He has been dating many girls at the same time."

"Well, Dominic, I'm here to tell you this today. Please don't pester me anymore. Goodbye."

Sandra was about to turn and leave. But Dominic grabbed her by the arm.

"Sandra, listen to me. Liam is really not a good guy. Don't be fooled by him. Did he force you into this? Definitely! I'll go and look for him."

She shook off his hand.

"Dominic, don't lie to yourself. Liam didn't force me. I was the one who chose to be with him. I don't want to be with you. After graduation, I still have to make money to buy a house and a car and repay my debts. I have to work hard for the rest of my life. I want to lead a good life. Do you understand? Do you see this bag on me? It's the latest model from Louis Vuitton worth more than $1,500. It'd be impossible for me to have this in my life if I were with you. You could never give me what Liam can."

"But Liam is just playing with you. He won't marry you. There are many people who have been abandoned by him." Dominic was still making a last effort.

"Ugh, Dominic, it's not right to speak ill of others behind their backs."

A voice reached their ears. They saw Liam approaching them, dressed entirely in branded clothes. He reached out and wrapped his arm around Sandra's waist.

"Liam, you're here!" Sandra nestled against him.

Dominic felt heartbroken as he saw Liam put his arm around Sandra's waist as soon as he arrived and Sandra lean against him.

He knew that no matter what he said, it was futile. Once a woman changed her mind, it would be hard for her to turn back. He was not in the mood to see the two of them snuggling with each other, so he said to Sandra, "Sandra, you will regret your decision today sooner or later."

Then, he got ready to leave.

"Wait ..." Liam stopped him.

He turned to Sandra and said, "Sandra, you go first. I'll come to you after I've talked to him for a while."

"Liam, let's go together! Dominic and I have broken up. There's nothing else to say."

"Don't worry. It's just a few words. It won't affect our relationship."

"Well, hurry up. I'll wait for you at the school gate." After that, she threw a glance at both of them and left.

"Get straight to the point! If you want to see me in a miserable state because I got dumped, I'm afraid that you will be disappointed. There are plenty more fish in the sea."

Although he was heartbroken, he still spoke stubbornly. He could show extreme sadness and no dignity in front of Sandra, but he couldn't show it in front of Liam.

"Dominic, I just want to tell you something."

After that, Liam took two steps forward and whispered in his ear.

"Sandra is so hot. I didn't expect that after you two been so long together, she would still be ... Well, it's time for me to go. She's still waiting for me. I have a presidential suite in the Golden Leaf Hotel! Do you know about it? It's an eight-star hotel. You won't be able to afford a meal there for the rest of your life."

He turned around and left. As he walked, he let out a hearty laugh. "Hahaha ..."

Dominic felt dizzy at his words.

He and Sandra had been together for four years. For the whole four years, they had only held hands and kissed each other. She would have stopped him every time he had wanted to go further. She had said that they could only do that when they got married.

But he had never expected that Sandra and Liam would have done it when they had only been together for a few days...

At this point, he felt like the blood was surging in his brain, and his eyes turned bloodshot. He vomited blood uncontrollably and fell to the ground.

When he woke up again, he was already in the school infirmary.

When he was about to get up, he suddenly heard a voice in his mind.

"Ding ..."

"The Super Rich System is in the binding stage ..."

"Ten percent ..."

"Thirty percent ..."

"Fifty percent ..."

"Eighty percent ..."

"A hundred percent ..."

"The Super Rich System has been completed."

Then a panel appeared before Dominic. He was the only one who could see it.

Before Dominic could figure it out, he heard the voice in his mind again.

"Welcome, Dominic Lewis, to the Super Rich System. This system binds one-to-one and is non-transferable. Once the owner dies, the system will disappear.

"The balance of the owner has been bound to all the banks in the world. You can directly use your fingerprint, or facial features, or a scan of your pupils to make payments.
