

The Super-Rich System: Behind The Multi-Billionaire

Chapter 13 - Debut

There was a knock on the door.

"Come in! Sam, you come in as well," Hugo said.

The door of the private room was opened. Walter, Sam, and Sharon entered the room together.

Hugo looked at the three of them and said, "I announce that Mr. Lewis and I have reached an agreement. The Golden Leaf Hotel will be transferred to Mr. Lewis for the price of 20 billion dollars. Mr. Crichton is ready to take the deposit and offer him the receipt. The deal will be completed in a week."

When the three of them heard the news, different expressions came over their faces. Walter seemed to not care much about it. He had worked for Hugo for a long time. He didn't only serve as the financial director of the Golden Leaf Hotel. He also held a position in other places. Selling the Golden Leaf Hotel would relieve the burden on him.

On the other hand, Sam's face was ashen. He was a senior manager that Hugo had hired from a head-hunting company. Although it wouldn't be tough for him to acquire another job after losing this position, it would be a bit difficult for him to find such a good one.

The happiest person was Sharon. She was so excited that her entire face flushed prettily.

Walter gave Dominic an account number, and then Dominic directly transferred the deposit, which was 300 million dollars, equivalent to 10% of the full amount, into the account and received a receipt from Walter in return.

After the transfer was completed, the deal was basically done. The way Hugo looked at Dominic also changed.

'According to what Boris said, since Dominic was able to take out so much cash to buy a hotel, he is surely from a dignified and wealthy family.' Hugo thought. He didn't know much about that sort of person.

They were always kind of mysterious, and they were terrifyingly powerful. It was impossible to get in contact with them unless you were powerful as well. It was said that these people were so much more than just being wealthy.

At this time, Dominic said, "Mr. Yates, I'm still a student. I don't have much time to deal with the transaction. You can ask Sharon to handle it directly. She will be the general manager here in the future."

"Mr. Crichton, do as Mr. Lewis says," Hugo said to Walter.

"All right, President Yates!"

Hugo then turned to Dominic and said, "Mr. Lewis, since the deal is done, we're sort of friends now. It's too formal for you to call me Mr. Yates. My name is Hugo Yates. I'm a few years older than you, so how about you call me Hugo?"

"In that case, don't call me Mr. Lewis anymore either. Just call me Dominic!"

"Haha... Well, Dominic, you are a very straightforward person. If you ever go to Hlington in the future, you must contact me so that I can play a good host."

"Hugo, don't worry. Whenever I go to Hlington, I will definitely get in touch with you," Dominic said.

Dominic thought of his cousin, Lily Wales, who was studying in Hlington. 'Maybe I could really use Hugo's help in the future.' Dominic thought.

"Then I won't disturb you anymore. I have to go back to Hlington this afternoon. Dominic, remember, whenever you come to Hlington, get in touch with me. I have status there."

"Definitely."

Hugo left, followed by Walter and Sam. Sharon stayed. She knew that she would have to work for the new young boss from then on.

"Sharon, the hotel will be in your hands in the future," Dominic said to Sharon who stayed behind.

"Don't worry, President Lewis. I won't let you down. I'll manage the hotel."

In the president's office of the Golden Leaf Hotel: Hugo and Sam were inside.

"Sam, the owner of the hotel is about to change. If you want to stay and work, I can talk to Dominic. Even if you can't be a general manager, you can at least work as a departmental manager."

When Sam heard that Hugo wanted him to stay as a departmental manager, he felt greatly ashamed. Not to mention that there was a huge difference in status between the departmental manager and the general manager, and there was a huge difference in their salaries.

"President Yates, now that you're gone, I don't want to work here anymore. I want to follow you," he quickly responded.

"Sam, I don't have a suitable position for you for the time being. Maybe I can give you a year's salary to cover this year. Then you can find another job! What do you think?"

"President Yates, there's a contract between us! You can't just ditch me like this!" Sam said anxiously.

"Sam, why don't you understand about what I'm saying? Do you think I don't know anything about what you've been doing over the past few years? It's just that you haven't crossed my bottom line, so I've turned a blind eye to it. If you don't let it go, with what you have done, you will be sentenced to prison for eight or ten years."

Upon hearing Hugo's words, Sam was so scared that he broke out in a cold sweat.

Over the past few years, he had thought that what he had done was covert. In his mind, to a hotel with billions of income yearly, it was nothing at all. He hadn't expected that the boss would actually know about what he had done.

Sam wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and said, "President Yates, I got it. I'll get packed and leave right away."

"You've been working for me for a few years. Go and ask Mr. Crichton to give you your annual salary for this year before you leave!"

"Thank you, President Yates!"

After saying that, Sam left the room.

After Dominic left the hotel, he was ready to buy a sports car. However, after looking in a few places, he found that none of them actually appealed to him. They were all mass-produced, but the more expensive ones that he wanted were out of stock and needed a reservation.

After buying a laptop and some fashionable clothes, Dominic returned to his international mansion. Lying on the leather sofa, he checked his system and found that he had gained 20 super rich points.

Owner: Dominic Lewis

Balance: 9999997892598996

Constitution: 19 (Weak)+

Vitality: 28 (Ordinary) +

Skill: Car Driving Technology (Entry Level) +

Super rich point: 20

His constitution had reached 19 points, but it was still weak.

His vitality was still twenty-eight points. There was an entry-level car driving skill on the skill bar.

Dominic added 11 super-rich points to his constitution.

His constitution instantly increased to 30 points, changing from weak to ordinary.

His body continued to heat up.

One minute later, the heat gradually faded. He added another six super-rich points to his vitality, going to 34 points from 28.

In an instant, he felt a chill over his scalp.

It seemed that he had really become smarter.

The remaining three points were all added to the car driving skill.

After finishing the whole process, he felt a little sweaty. He went to the 38th floor and jumped directly into the clear pool after taking off his clothes.

"Awesome!"

He swam for a few rounds in the swimming pool, then sighed while lying on the edge of the pool. He climbed up and saw a huge mirror. He approached it and saw a person in it.

"This is me?"

Dominic could hardly believe it. Although the person in the mirror looked like him, his body was completely different.

In the past, Dominic's face had been handsome, but his body had been thin and weak, so he hadn't looked fit and strong at all. However, the figure in the mirror looked fit and was full of muscles. He didn't look weak anymore. His body was full of strength.

After being in a daze for a long time, he came to his senses and said, "This system is really awesome!"

After changing into a fashionable suit, Dominic went to stand in front of the huge mirror again. The Dominic reflected in the mirror was not only handsome with a well-proportioned figure. He was a charming and rich man.

With this appearance, he was qualified to be a Prince Charming!

Dominic said very pretentiously, "Dear male friends, please keep watching of your girlfriends, sisters, and sisters-in-law, because ... I'm making my debut!"
