Chapter 16 - For The First Place

Chapter 16: For The First Place

Vera had been in a bad mood recently.

Although her family conditions were ordinary, her parents had tried their best to groom her.

In addition, she was very talented at singing and dancing. From junior high to senior high, she had basically been the focus of everyone's attention.

It was no different even when she went to college in Jtown. Soon, she became the target of everyone's pursuit.

She had been close to several tall, rich, and handsome men who had been giving her all kinds of gifts to compete for her favor. One of them had even given her a BMW sports car worth hundreds of thousands, but she did not dare to take the car. She only accepted the clothes and bags.

She then sold these gifts at a low price and managed to exchange them for a lot of money.

Subsequently, she thought of using livestreaming to get those people to send her gifts instead.

In just a few months, she was overjoyed that she had received more than one million dollars of gifts. She was able to get money faster than selling gifts at a low price.

But recently, she had found that these people weren't paying as much attention to her anymore. Two or three of them had switched camps and were focusing on other anchors.

More importantly, Liam, one of her two supporters, had also gone after someone else.

It was said that in the past few days, he had been taking Sandra to Golden Leaf Hotel every day. This made her very worried.

She knew that she could not keep him at a distance any longer. After all, no one was a fool. Liam had invested so much in her, and there had been no substantial benefit for him at all. It was better for him to hook up with others.

So, she made a decision that night, and hinted to those who pursued her. She would date whoever is top on the list tonight.

'Now, Liam, one of her strong supporters, has come, and it is only Zac Huggins who is missing. As long as the both of them are there, I will definitely make a lot of money tonight.' Vera thought.

After hearing Vera's reply, Liam began to prepare to attain first place.

He took a look at the number of gifts that the current top person, Zac, had given. It was a total of $780,000.

Liam had gifted nearly $400,000 and was ranked second. That was to say, as long as he sent another $400,000, he would be able to win first place.

Of course, this was only if Zac didn't turn up. Over the past two years, although Liam had spent more than two million dollars on gifts, he had also managed to fool around with several less-known streamers at the same time.

Speak of the devil, he arrived.

Zac's ID, Dashing Zac, also entered the broadcast room at this time. He was level 380 and immediately pushed Liam down the ranking when he arrived.

"Vera, I'm here!" Zac directly chatted on the Screen

"Welcome, Zac. Thank you for your support!"

"Vera, I'm fully prepared tonight. I'll definitely have a date with you."

"Zac, I will wait for you!"

Liam's chat popped in.

"Mr. Zac, I'm still here! Don't get so full of yourself! It won't look good if you fail later."

"Come on, I don't take you seriously at all. Let's have a real fight."

Although they seemed full of bravado, in fact, both of them were a little nervous at this time. Their family backgrounds were similar, and neither was a fool.

They understood that if they continued to fight like this, both sides would definitely suffer, but there was no other way.

Whenever they thought of Vera's gentle and soft body, and her seductive voice, the two of them felt aroused immediately.

There was no need for further words!

Liam chose the super rocket to blast off...

(Lang sent anchor Tiny Vera, super rocket X 1)

(Dashing Zac sent anchor, Tiny Vera, super rocketX 1)

(Lang sent anchor, Tiny Vera, super rocket X 66)

(Dashing Zac sent anchor, Tiny Vera, super rocket X 66)

Half an hour later...

(Lang sent anchor, Tiny Vera, super rocket X 1314)

(Dashing Zac sent anchor, Tiny Vera, super rocketX 1314)

The broadcast room was about to go crazy. There were more than 100,000 people watching.

Countless chats appeared on the screen.

Vera was also about to go crazy, but crazy with happiness. She hadn't expected the two of them to be so generous. Each of them had gifted her with more than two million dollars.

Just from this round, she estimated that her gifts would exceed more than three million dollars. It was simply unimaginable.

At this time, Liam and Zac also began to come back to their senses. If they continued in this manner, it would be fine if they won the date with Vera in the end, but if they couldn't, they would be enraged.

This wasn't like an auction. Even though the highest bidder would be able to obtain a prize, he wouldn't be able to take back the gifts that had been sent out.

So, Liam called Zac.

Once he picked up, Liam didn't waste any time and he told Zac directly:

"Zac, I'm going to win Vera with five million dollars. If you're going to surpass this amount, I'll quit. How about you return my gifts to me?"

On the other side of the phone, Zac was silent for a moment before saying, "Liam, if you give me three million now, I won't compete with you for Vera. If you don't think it can be done, let's continue to fight."

Liam thought for a moment and replied, "Okay! I'll transfer three million dollars to you. You are not allowed to contact Vera in the future."

"Deal!" Zac instantly responded.

Liam immediately transferred three million dollars to Zac. Although they could sometimes behave like jerks, they still kept their words.

Liam calculated that he needed to spend $400,000 if he wanted to be first on the list.

In total, he would have spent more than six million dollars on Vera.

Even if his family was rich, he still felt a little pinched to spend more than six million dollars in one go. However, as long as he could win Vera, everything would be worth it.

The reason why he was willing to spend such a large sum of money on Vera was because she had once said that she had never had a boyfriend.

'If she hasn't had a boyfriend, it means that she is still a virgin. The thought of seeing the first blood of such an exquisite woman really gets me going. This is far more exciting than Sandra,' Liam imagined.

In the broadcast room ...

After receiving three million dollars from Liam, Zac directly exited the room. The rockets stopped at the 1314th.

The audience in the live broadcast was stunned.

Why was it that they were fighting each other to the death a second ago and then suddenly one of them quit?

Liam sent another two hundred rockets, just managing to surpass Zac and be ranked first on the list.

"Vera, I'm already number one. Zac has admitted defeat and left. I'll wait for you tomorrow night!"

The broadcast room was in chaos again.

"Damn it, we all know what they will do on a date at night!"

"It's over, it's over. My heart is going to break!"

"As expected, the goddess in our eyes and the hotly sought after beauty!"

Instantly, the live broadcast room burst into a flurry with many chats.

That was the effect that Liam had wanted. He was announcing his sovereignty.

Vera couldn't do anything about it now.

She didn't understand why Zac had suddenly left. She had known that the backgrounds of these two people were similar.

Originally, she had planned that if an obvious winner could not be determined between the two of them, she would declare a draw and then accompany both of them together on a date.

They would not be able to do anything out of line with her if they were all on the date together. But now with the exit of Zac, her plan had been disrupted.

Although she had received more than five million dollars worth of gifts, something was bound to happen if she went on a date with Liam alone.

At this thought, Vera sighed silently in her heart. Her original perfect plan had been thwarted, so she could only accept it.

Fortunately, there was more than two million dollars worth of gifts to comfort her.
