Chapter 161 Annual headline

” It is not up to you here!” Leon responded directly.

“What kind of a person are you? You dare not fight me!” Alex whispered.

” Then who are you? The people who are looked down on, by the provincial capital Family Carter have neither the enterprise that can show their hands or the excellent strength of their own. Is it possible that you own this hotel? Or are you the president of the business? ”

Leon has never regarded Alex as the most prestigious person in Fairmont City, and Alex is not worthy to only look at his character.

Moreover, Leon had not stated his position, being the previous low-key, and just playing tricks.

After a contest, the means of Leon are cleverer.

Alex became extremely annoyed when he saw that Leon dared to confront him openly and said he was abandoned by the provincial family.

It was like a thorn, poking his weakness.

“Nonsense! How could my family abandon me? I used to be the most favored in Family Carter, you ignorant junior, what do you know!”

Alex let out a roar.

The reason why he was respected by so many locals, was because of his relationship to Family Carter, in the provincial capital.

Now that Leon smashed his sign, he wanted to cut Leon to pieces!

“You know best, whether what I said is right or not. You now rely on Family Carter prestige to dominate Fairmont City, still thinking that you have a great sense of achievement. In my opinion, you are no different from others!”

Leon clearly knew why Alex ran from the provincial capital to Fairmont City, and he knows more about their Family Carter.

Alex ran out of the provincial capital Family Carter to avoid the limelight, which was related to the cruel family. At that time, the ruthless owner, that was, Leon’s father, was angry with, Family Carter but dared not keep Alex at home.

Alex said that he was helping the family to expand their business, but in fact, he took refuge in Fairmont City.

The Carter Family eventually puts an end to his mistakes, but as a ruthless son, Leon could have easily cleaned him up.

“Today’s wine must be respected! Otherwise, you will not be able to walk out of here standing up. Starting with Mr. Danielle, give me the respect one by one!”

Alex had a sullen face, and his sensitivity was touched, but he did not realize that Leon was an insider, and not unintentionally.

Alex made a toast to Leon, in order to stir up conflicts between Leon and others. If Leon was disrespectful, it would be along the lines of looking down on Mr. Danielle, then Mr. Danielle would not give up.

But at that time, something unexpected happened to Alex.

Mr. Danielle suddenly puts the glass down on the table and said faintly, "I have given up drinking."

He dared not drink Leon's wine at all.

Although Mr. Danielle did not know that Leon was a ruthless son, he knew that Leon was Mr. Millers, a high-level person sent by the head office of the group.

Is there any reason for the boss to propose a toast to his subordinates? even if the boss respects you, do you dare to drink as a subordinate?

When Alex saw Mr. Danielle refuse to drink, he frowned slightly and asked, "When did Mr. Danielle, quit drinking?"

"If you have high blood pressure, you will quit." Mr. Danielle answered.

Alex was slightly displeased, and then ordered Leon: "A toast to Mr. Walker!"

However, Daniel, like Mr. Danielle, refused directly.

"I quit, too."

When Alex heard this, the wrinkles on his forehead deepened.

"Mr. Walker, you have always been the biggest drinker in our circle. In the past, you could easily drink people down, but now you are telling me that you have given up drinking?"

"There is something wrong with my stomach, so I will not drink it today," said Daniel.

By this time, Alex had deep opinions about both Mr. Danielle and Daniel.

First, he did not give gifts, now he went against him, and he had even wondered if Mr. Danielle and Daniel had agreed on it purposefully to make him look ashamed.

Taken together by Alex, the best-connected Ms. Young was surprised not to attend the chamber of commerce. Mr. Parker was in another VIP room, while Indra, must be facing Leon, and now there is only Sebastian left.

Alex admitted that he had a good relationship with Sebastian and had given the chicken buttocks to Sebastian before. Although the chicken head he ate was unbelievably bad and full of strange taste, at least he let Leon eat the chicken buttocks.

“Mr. Crow, as the caterer, has been extremely hard these days to our Chamber of Commerce before and after running. You immediately propose a toast to Mr. Crow!” In Alex’s eyes, a cold light flashed and ordered Leon with a strong voice.

However, Sebastian said, “Mr. Carter, why embarrass anyone? Is your unreasonable request, what a respectable veteran should do?”

Alex raised his eyebrows and looked at Sebastian, with a complicated look.

Sebastian, what does that mean?

I can have a relationship with him, but how can he suddenly criticize me in front of everyone?

“Mr. Crow, what you said was serious. Did I embarrass him? Do not spit on people!” Alex squinted his old eyes sharply.

“I also think you are deliberately embarrassing Leon, with chicken buttocks and toasts, all kinds of humiliations and crackdowns. Do not think I cannot see it. I thought you were making trouble from the time of the Chamber of Commerce!”

Indra also stood up for Leon.

“Mr. Indra had to rely on evidence to speak. That guy named Hunk was going to kick Leon out. What is my attitude? As you can see, I once pitied him, but he did not stand up for himself. He was impolite to me. Am I going to forgive him?”

Alex is frantically looking for excuses for sophistry, and he felt very depressed. Today, it seemed that all the local bosses are on the opposite side of him.

Instead of helping him, these acquaintances turned against him, which he did not expect at all.

Just then, Leon looked at the time and found that the effect of the laxative would take effect in three minutes.

So, he left his seat and went to Alex.

Alex was stupefied, wondering what Leon was doing here.

Leon whispered in Alex's ear: “I said before, I will tell you two secrets, the first secret, your tricks I already know, I did not eat chicken buttocks, but you really ate shit, taste good?” Are you still sick now?!”

Leon deliberately scared Alex, into calling the mixture of stinky tofu and canned herring shit.

“What? You!”

Alex immediately felt that something was coming out of his throat, which made him sick to the extreme.

It seemed that he really believed it.

However, he couldn't talk about it, and he cannot tell everyone that he had just eaten shit.

At that time, he would become the joke of the whole city!

So, he had to hold back his anger by force.

Others saw Alex and Leon whispering and asked Leon what he said and asked Alex to share it, but Alex could not say it at all.

When Tabitha saw that Leon and Alex were very close, she curled her lips and became angry that she began to take sides with others.

“My grandfather and uncles all stood up for you, but you went to take sides with Alex. Sure enough, they should not have helped you!”

Tabitha spoke angrily, but in her heart, she very much hoped that Leon would stand up and not be frightened by Alex.

However, Leon had never been afraid of Alex.

He did not have to explain to others, or he does not have anything to prove to them, he just had to do what he wanted.

“We cannot whisper about this second secret, because it is great news and should be shared with others.” Leon had a problem with Alex.

“I am Alex, the elder of Fairmont City, and I will not be held back by you. Do not scare me. I will not buy it!”

Alex does not believe Leon has secrets.

However, he did not expect that the next hot news of Leon would become the annual headline of Fairmont City!

Chapter 162 Delta grassland

When they heard this, they all looked at each other in surprise.

Is there any big secret about Alex?

I do not know if I'm surprised or not, but it's hot anyway.

“Do you want to hear it?”

Leon stood, glancing around.

No one was in a hurry, but they all had a great interest in the “secret”.

At this time, Alex's young wife, Cara, showed deep contempt in the corner of her eye and said, “He is a small potato at the bottom. Strangely, he could reveal his secret. Do not listen to his nonsense. My husband is worthy of his name!”

“Cara, do not be complacent, it has a direct bearing on you.” Leon glanced at the well-dressed young woman.

“Does it have something to do with me? Stop pretending to be a ghost!”
Cara flipped her lips and sneered.

“Cara, you just gave birth to a baby boy whose father is not Alex, but someone else!” Leon revealed this big story in front of Cara’s face.

As soon as Leon’s voice fell, it made Cara’s face froze, and his heart thumped even more.

Her panic showed guilt.

While others, after hearing Leon’s revelations, were in a fit of sigh and could not believe it.

With a sulky face, Alex slapped the table angrily, and then reprimanded Leon coldly, “Boy, if you talk nonsense, I’ll rip your mouth off!”

Cara also hastened to deny it and pounced on Alex, and said, “Honey, don’t listen to this kid’s nonsense. He is slandering me. I have been with you all this time. Do not believe him!”

Alex was the cash cow of Cara. Old husbands and young wives seldom marry for love. Cara is for money and power.

There is a 30-year difference between them, and Cara is still waiting for a few more years. Alex will die so that she can inherit part of his fortune and then hire a man to live a happy life.

Cara does not understand why Leon knows the truth, but she does not care about it now. She just wants to try her best not to let it get out.

Otherwise, she gets nothing!

“Cara, do not worry. I believe you. This boy is mainly against me and has been disrespectful to me since yesterday. Now he is deliberately sowing discord between us. I will fix him hard and let him taste the price of saying what he should not have said!”

Alex was so angry that his face seemed to be covered with frost.

Now he just wanted to get back at Leon, and even have an impulse to take Leon’s life.

However, Leon did not panic, but said with good reason: “Alex, do you remember the scene when you blocked me at the door of the conference hall?”

“So what if I remember?” Alex is cold.

“Is it right that you waved, your hands and hit me?” Leon asked.

“What is the use of bringing this up? You only have a little brute force!” Alex dismissed what was said.

Leon did not panic, but methodically continued: “At that time, my fingers, felt the pulse on your wrist, your pulse I have already taken, and your physical condition I already know like the back of my hand.”

“What nonsense! Only a little time, can you feel my pulse? Even if you do, what does that mean? Does it have anything to do with what we are talking about?” Alex asked in a cold voice.

“Of course it does. You have the deficiency of kidney yang and the failure of life, and you are no longer capable of giving birth to new life. Have you thought about it at your age? If you want to have a child, there is no one in a million!” Leon said.

Alex is more than 60 years old; this age group is not complete without that ability, but very few, including test tubes.

And Leon can accurately diagnose the fault of Alex by the pulse of Alex.

Do not question the descendants of divine medicine, Leon has the true biography of Liana, if you do not even have this ability, how can you be called the master of Harold No sooner had Leon finished his words, then there were bursts of discussion in the room.

If what Leon said is true, it is the annual news of Fairmount City.

But can you believe what Leon says?

“Leon, shut up! If you slander my grandfather and my little grandmother, you will pay a heavy price. You are not going to walk out of here alive today!”

May is still arrogant and domineering, and although she has been taught a lesson by Leon, she cannot change her nature.

“Do not jump to conclusions. I am just telling the truth. Do you think your grandfather is in his sixties?” Leon looked at May with a sneer.

“Bullshit! What? I want to avenge what happened on the golf course that day!” May shouted, picking up a glass on the table and smashing it at Leon’s head.

However, it was easily dodged by Leon.

Then Leon went over and took off May’s hat and threw it on the ground.

May’s head, only a few hairs, sparse, ugly.

That is why she wears a hat all the time today.

In the past, it was just evil, but now evil people are ugly.

“It is a nice haircut, comparable to that owned by your grandfather.”

Leon is more satisfied with this work, although not incredibly beautiful, but absolutely ugly, strong abstract style.

May bared his teeth and claws angrily, and picked up the dishes in front of him, ready to hit Leon hard.

But just then, Danielle Brother hurriedly pressed her on the table, so that she could not break free.

“Let go! Let me go now! Or I will put you all to death!”

And executed? May really thinks her grandfather is the mayor of Fairmont City?

Danielle Brother ignored May’s threat, and the two of them pinned May to death.

At this time, the Alex faction, and the Leon faction, formed a tense confrontation.

And Alex was still questioning what Leon said.

“What made you say that I am kidney-yang deficiency? You are not a doctor. You are legally responsible for spreading rumors about me and my wife. I will never give you a foothold in Fairmont City!”

Immediately someone nodded and agreed with Alex, that what he said was of no use. Also, it would be unconvincing if he was not a doctor.

Before Leon could prove his identity in the medical community, Indra spoke.

“I can prove that Leon has excellent medical skills, and my life depends on him to pick it up. What I said by Indra is true!”

When Indra was sent to the morgue, it was Leon who pulled him back from the dead, and he will never forget that day.

“You don’t count! Unless he can prove himself!” Alex thinks that Indra and Leon have a good relationship, so they naturally speak for Leon, and their credibility is not high.

As a matter of fact, Leon can really prove his identity.

Not to mention that he once worked in the first people’s Hospital of Fairmont City, let’s just say that the Institute of Traditional Chinese Medicine Pharmacology where he worked is strong proof.

Leon held s his work permit and shook it in front of Alex.

“I know that even if I took out my work permit, you would have still questioned it.”

“That is right! You are deliberately against me, so I will not believe a word you say unless you give more credible evidence!”

Leon smiled calmly and said, “half a year ago, you had appendicitis and had your appendix removed. A month ago, you had a bad cold. Just three days ago, you had serious diarrhea. Now I can tell you that you are going to have diarrhea again!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 163

Chapter 163 Behind-the-scenes players

“Nonsense again! Can you still predict whether or not?”

Alex immediately questioned.

Some other people also shouted that they did not believe it.

If the medical skill is so clever, why do you come here to show your face?
Go directly to the provincial capital, to the capital!

And you say diarrhea is diarrhea? Why don't you go to heaven when you're so well?!

But at this moment, Alex suddenly felt violent peristalsis of his stomach and a feeling of torrents coming.

Without saying a word, Alex clutched his stomach, rushed out of the room, then trotted all the way to the bathroom in a hurry.

Everyone looked confused when they saw the scene.

Leon was right!

Alex, this is amazing!

At this moment, everyone turned their attention to Leon.

Magic doctor?

It is hard to say whether it is a magic doctor, but the medical skill must be extremely high!

Just by feeling the pulse, you can understand the previous illness and predict the disease in the future. it is so awesome!

Leon shrugged helplessly, thinking what other people think, and he cannot control it.

In fact, the reason why he is 100% sure that Alex will have diarrhea the next moment is because of the chicken head.

With a certain dose of laxative added, Sebastian contacted him with We chat in advance.

Leon is a Master of Medicine. Sebastian dispensed the medicine according to his instructions and added a laxative to it.

Ten minutes as promised, not a second.

At this time, the people in the box began to gossip and talk nonstop.

When Alex went to the bathroom, there was no deterrent, and the supporters began to believe what Leon said.

“Are you sure Alex’s baby is not his?”

“I feel that credibility is remarkably high. This Leon is too skilled to make such a joke.”

“In any case, there is no choice of medical skills, and I have never seen a doctor make such a joke.”

“I do not think Alex can do that, too. people in their sixties have trouble even going to bed.”

Listening to the comments of others, Cara became more and more flustered.

When she was in college, she not only did not have to collect tuition fees from her family, but also could wear famous brands, go shopping for delicious food, and pick her up from class to and from class.

Although her family is not well-off, she leads a rich life every day.

Over the years when I was contacted by Alex, I lived a very luxurious life and belonged to the top group of people in the area.

But Alex is unable to meet the demand, so Cara is looking for another man outside.

Now, seeing that the luxury life is about to go away, Cara is in a panic.

After waiting for a while, Alex returned to the VIP's room.

As soon as he came in, almost everyone looked at him, and at that moment he became the center of attention.

Alex's eyes were so sharp that he no longer cared about the strange eyes of others. He thought carefully when he was in the bathroom, and asked himself if there was really doubt about having a son in his sixties.

It panicked him! And he became extremely angry!

“Cara! I usually treat you well, why did you betray me?”

Alex shouted at his young wife.

“Darling, this is an accident, a complete accident! I did not expect to be hit either. I begged my husband to give me a chance!”

Cara is like a dog, lying on the ground and begging for mercy.

As a result, there is no doubt that he would have admitted to having an affair.

“You really betrayed me! More than once? Cara, damn you!”

Alex slapped Cara in the face, turning her face red and her hair messy.

Alex had certainly cheated, and although others were psychologically prepared, they could not help exclaiming after hearing Cara confess in a panic.

The senior figure of Rodeo City, having a son in old age, who was not his biological son but a bastard, whose wife was fooling around with other men, definitely becoming the first headline of the year in the city.

Explode! explode!

Carter’s Family face has been completely disgraced!

“What about Alex? Am I lying to you?” Leon asked with a sneer.

“Shut up! It is all because of you!” Alex pointed angrily at Leon.

“You can eat at random, but you cannot talk nonsense. Why is it because of me? I do not have a green Cara, so you are the only one who wants it.” Leon said.

“If it had not been for you, I would not have made a fool of myself in public! If it had not been for you, no one would have known that Alex married such a bitch!”

Today, Alex is destined to be ashamed.

Men, the most unbearable, is to be green.

What is more, he is the most prestigious Mr. Carter in Fairmont City.

“So what, you are losing fame, and what about me? I have nothing to lose.” Leon sneered.

He came to the Chamber of Commerce to put Alex together and clean up the cruel family.

“How can you not lose and offend me? You will be unable to move to Fairmont City. If I say a word, no one in Fairmont City dared to get too close to you. It would be the normal state of your life to run into a brick wall everywhere!”

There is a local saying in Fairmont City that Mr. Carter let you die at three o’clock, who dares to keep you until five o’clock!

“Is that so? You can shout on the spot to see who will choose to be on your side, and if the number is less than half, put aside your arrogant posture!” Leon said.

For decades in Fairmont City, no one dared to offend Alex’s business circle, and also in the private sector.

Such as Mr. Danielle, Daniel, Sebastian, and so on, also tried their best to avoid head-on conflicts with Alex.

But the arrival of Leon doomed this pattern, which's caused it to be broken.

With the relationship of Leon, Mr. Danielle, Daniel, and Sebastian will unite.

All three belong to the ruthless department, but without Leon to take the lead, they would not have a heart to heart with each other, let alone unite.

All the business agreements of this ruthless family had been confidentiality signed, such that Mr. Danielle had no idea that Daniel and himself were at the head office.

“Half? Ha ha, more than 2/3, if not, I will never join the Chamber of Commerce again!” Alex said with a sneer.

“That is what you said, everyone. Bear witness!”

With the emergence of Leon, a new pattern has emerged in the business community of Fairmount City.

However, many people do not know that Leon was the real behind-the-scenes player, let alone in this VIP box, no one was more honorable than Leon.

People with discerning eyes are, after all, a minority, not to mention a small city of peace and security.

The real elites are concentrated in the provincial capital and the capital.

Alex narrowed his eyes and showed thick disdain in the corners of his eyes. “I, Alex, still have a lot of prestige in Fairmont City,” he said.

“Small potatoes like you cannot even imagine it. I can now ask, those who are willing to stand on my side, raise your hand!”

However, apart from his family, only two people were on his side at the scene.

Most people were neutral because they saw that Daniel, Walker, and Crow did not declare their position, so they took advantage of the situation.

It is mainly due to the collapse of the Alex and Cara people today, which has a great impact, and a great reduction in the prestige is inevitable.

The scene was awkward for a time.

This was too different from the expected scene.

Alex thought at least half of the people would stand in line to support him, but he was hit hard by the facts.

His face was like frost, and the wrinkles on his brow grew deeper and deeper.

Doubt!

I do not understand!

I am the most famous Mr. Carter in Fairmont City.

Why did the situation change dramatically in half a day?

In any case, he could not understand that he had lost to an unknown young man today.

Alex was shameless to stay here. He left with a black face, his family, and deep doubts.

Shortly after Alex left, there was an angry curse outside the box, which was the shrill voice of May.

“Son of a bitch! Don’t you have eyes when you walk? The Family Carter, one day in Fairmont City, was the first door here, even you who are cleaner also dared to offend me? Get down on your knees, bow down and apologize!”

May vented all the anger he had accumulated in the box on a hotel cleaner.

“I’m sorry, but I did not take the initiative to bump into you.” The cleaner’s voice is a little hoarse as if he had a bad cold.

“How dare you argue? You people at the bottom are cheap! Don’t the cleaners know to use honorific to me?”

May’s harsh words made him frown and felt uncomfortable.

It is almost impossible to achieve equality, but there must be a minimum of conscience and respect.

May was so insulted and insulted the cleaner. The voice of the other party is still a girl, she still deserved to be a person?

Just then, Leon suddenly became profoundly serious.

The voice of that cleaning girl just now sounds familiar, like Rachel.

However, Rachel’s voice is not so hoarse.

But Leon did not hesitate and rushed out the door immediately.

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 164

Chapter 164 As you wish

At that time, May was still pushing and shoving the cleaning girl.

Suddenly, a wristwatch fell out of the girl's coat pocket and fell to the ground.

Despite May's brutal pushing and shoving, she hurriedly went to pick up the watch on the ground.

It was a gift from someone, and she regarded the watch as more important than her own life.

She usually wears it on her hand, but she put it in her pocket carefully because she was doing dirty work today.

But unexpectedly, the accident still happened.

Click!

When the girl reached out to pick it up, she was preempted by May who stepped on it hard.

Not only that but May also stepped on her hand.

"If you pick up the broken watch, quickly bow down and apologize to me!"

May trampled and ran viciously, even ignoring Alex beside him.

Alex did not want to stay there because he had been ashamed in the VIP box, but his granddaughter's emergency made his eyes become cautious, and lose his edge in the morning.

It is impossible for the girl to kneel. She is extremely sad now.

This is no ordinary watch; it was a treasure that she cherished very much.

Besides the price of the watch, there was no substitute for the weight in her heart.

But May trampled her beloved watch so aggressively, May really possess the heart of a snake and scorpion!

The girl's nose was sore, her eyes were red, and she tried to hold back the tears.

The wrinkles in her eyebrows and eyes all reflected her heartache.

"Why are you doing this? Obviously, you hit me first, but you maliciously trampled my wristwatch. Why are you so cruel?"

The girl's voice was naturally soft, but her voice was slow, with a soft cry, and there was a kind of suffocating sadness.

However, May showed no compassion but laughed arrogantly.

"You ask me why? Well, let me tell you, in this world, the law of the jungle is the law of the jungle, and the voice is in the hands of a small number of elites. In Fairmont City, Family Carter, is the overlord, and my words are the edict!"

After saying this, May lifted his foot and kicked the broken watch out again.

The broken watch glided a distance on the smooth floor and then landed right at the feet of a young man.

The young man bent down to pick up the watch gently wiped the dust off it and put it in his pocket.

His face was expressionless as if he had condensed a layer of frost and was oppressively cold.

Sure enough, the girl who was bullied by May was Rachel.

And Rachel saw him.

It was from Leon.

Rachel could not help it any longer. She burst into tears, and her thin body shook gently, with a wobble.

Leon quickly ran over to Rachel and hugged her in time.

The two looked at each other, without saying any words.

Although both sides did not know why they are in the same place, now was not the time to struggle with this, and it was not too late to talk about it when the matter was settled.

Immediately, Leon looked into May, 's eyes as if sparks burst out.

“You went too far to crush Rachel’s watch!” Leon said coldly.

“So what? How much money can a broken watch cost? How much can a cleaner afford to buy a watch? I guess I bought it from Wal-Mart!” May flipped his mouth with disdain.

“Are you blind? That’s Patek Philippe!” Leon’s eyes were still full of anger.

“Do not fart, she’s just a cleaner, can she afford Patek Philippe? Are you insulting my intelligence?” May couldn’t help sneering.

“I gave it to her, okay? And do not think you are so superior. What is wrong with cleaning? You can stay in a clean and tidy hotel without cleaners?” Leon said.

Before trampling on Rachel’s watch, May did not notice what brand it was. She thought that a cleaner would wear a watch with dozens or hundreds of pieces, which would not exceed a thousand dollars

“If I stepped on it, I stepped on it. What can you do about that? Not to mention a Patek Philippe, even if it was two, I will still step on it. She is an outcast at the bottom, and she is not worthy to wear a watch of a luxury brand. This is for the upper class, and it is an outrage to give it to her!”

May is no longer unruly, but vicious.

When she saw that Rachel was so beautiful in plain clothes, she suddenly became jealous and treated Rachel even more viciously.

“Alex is really unlucky to have a granddaughter like you,” Leon said with a sneer.

Originally, if Mr. Carter left the hotel, he would have stopped for a while and might have dodged a bullet.

However, May offended the inverse scale of Leon.

Now, Leon has changed his mind.

Currently, May did not realize the seriousness of the problem at all.

She felt that Leon was just having a language dispute with her, and the best she could do was to pay for the Patek Philippe watch, but she has no intention of paying for it.

“Leon, the new feud and the old feud together!” May gritted her teeth.

“Needless to say, today’s account must also be settled!” Leon had made up his mind and there would be no change.

“A joke! You? With what?” May did not take Leon’s words to heart.

But Alex, on the other hand, feared that something bad would happen.

Although Alex did not know exactly what was wrong, however, he felt that everything today is so harmful, which is unusual.

Together with the fact that his wife was having an affair, Alex did not want to have another accident.

“May, go home!” Alex said.

“Grandpa, do not worry. It is not too late for me to go home after I have taught this couple a lesson.”

“Then hurry up!” Alex said.

“What are you worried about, Grandpa? Everyone in Fairmont City will call you Mr. Carter. It was and still is. Do not worry about what happened in the room before. Our Family Carter is still the most intimidating family force in the city!”

In May’s eyes, Family Carter is still a city overlord, and the provincial capital Family Carter is her biggest backer. Many locals are very afraid of the provincial capital Family Carter, while a mere Leon, had no background and no blood relationship with Indra. So, there was no reason to pay attention to it.

The rebellious May became more and more out of control, and she even came up with a new idea.

“You dogs and men, all get down on your knees and bow down to me. This young lady will not spare you this time, or both of you will not survive tomorrow!”

“May, have you ever heard the saying that people are watching while they are doing things?” Leon’s tone grew colder and colder.

“This young lady regards you too, as two bedbugs, humble and dirty. You don’t threaten me. Can you still make Family Carter disappear in Fairmont?” May held her head high.

At that moment, Leon’s eyes closed slightly, and then suddenly opened, his eyes were fierce and looked very cold.

“As you wish!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 165

Chapter 165 You are not joking

May and others can ignore what Leon says for now.

But in the end, Family Carter is doomed to be what Leon said.

From now on, there will be no more Family Carter in Fairmont City!

Leon turned around, took Rachel's hand, and said, "Rachel, wait for me outside. I will find you after I take care of things here. Be safe and call me immediately."

"I do not want to. I want to face it with you." Rachel shook her head, thinking that Leon might suffer by himself.

"Be obedient. I have my own way out." Leon reached out and rubbed Rachel's little head with an adoring look on his face.

"You must be careful." Rachel's face was still full of worry.

"Do not worry."

Then Leon watched Rachel leave and then turned to face Family Carter.

"Now, we can settle all the accounts, all of you, you cannot get out of the Grand Prince Hotel today!"

Now, Leon is not going to waste his breath with Family Carter. Today, neither Alex nor May can get out of Grand Prince Hotel.

Grand Prince is Leon's territory, Alex and May, cannot escape if they want to escape.

Before, Gerald had left the VIP box under the pretext of going to the bathroom to deal with Hunk.

After he dealt with Hunk, he followed the arrangement of Leon and arranged for people at all exits of the hotel.

Family Carter is cancer in Fairmont City, and Leon did not intend to let them go so easily.

May was also deeply dissatisfied with Leon's words. Arrogant, she was still living in the past.

“Leon, how dare you threaten me, knowing you have no authority? This hotel is not owned by your family. This young lady can come and go if she wants to!” May expressed disdainfully.

But Alex, could not help it, and said while having a cold drink, “Although I, Alex, was ashamed today, I am definitely not a threat to you or a piece of garbage!”

Immediately, Alex said to his granddaughter May, “May, come let us go. I would like to see what it would take for him to keep us here!”

After saying this, Alex angrily led his family towards the hotel exit.

But Leon did not stop them.

There was no need for him to do it himself, because he had control of the entire hotel, and the dirty work can be handed over to his subordinates.

Sure enough, soon after, several members of the Alex family were tied up in the chairman's office of Grand Prince Hotel.

Leon came over, sat in the boss's chair, and smiled coldly in front of Alex, May, and the others.

“Oh, we meet again, so soon.”

When Alex and May, saw Leon, their eyes burst wide open with shock of disbelief

Alex’s heart trembled, like a flood of doubts, swept in.

“Leon, what are you doing here? You had us tied up? Who are you?!”

Alex let out a roar and questioned Leon with such a ferocious expression.

Leon’s office not only had a perfect security system but also had very good sound insulation, even if Alex yells at the top of his lungs, it would not help.

“You do not need to know who I am. I am a person you can never touch!”

Leon’s eyes were like torches.

“Bullshit! You are not as good as one of my grandfather’s hair!” May was still hard-mouthed.

“Gerald, gave her a hundred palms!” as Leon ordered.

Gerald dared not to refuse, he hurriedly took off his shoes and walked towards May.

Family Carter was completely shocked to see this scene.

Previously, I was wondering why Leon dared to sit in the office of the chairman of Grand Prince Hotel. When Gerald was called by Leon, they were completely confused.

The young owner of Grand Prince Hotel is unexpectedly obedient to Leon!

What is going on?

Before May thought about it, Gerald took his shoes and slapped her twice in the face.

And it did not stop there.

It is said that the applause was one hundred, that was one hundred, and you are not joking.

May who was tied up with five flowers, could not move at all except for his mouth.

A howl of pain echoed in the office.

The arrogance of May just now disappeared in an instant, it was too late to cry, and her face was almost smashed.

May's parents, crazily abused Leon, with all kinds of cruel threatening words.

"If it was not the fault of her grandfather, only vicious parents could have raised such a vicious daughter. This is the punishment for insulting Rachel!"

"Gerald applauded the two men for a hundred each!"

Leon's command, for Gerald, was the oracle.

If you do not joke, how can you disobey?!

And at this time, Alex, could not sit idly by, he was the most famous Carter in Mr. Carter, Fairmont City, how could he just showed weakness!

“You will pay a heavy price for what you have done today! My brother will never let you go!” Alex moved out the provincial capital Family Carter again.

“Family Carter, the provincial capital, is it? So what? I must teach you a lesson today!” Since Leon dares to tie up Alex, it shows that he has considered this aspect.

Have I offended the backers of Ms. Young, and I am not afraid to offend one more provincial capital, Family Carter?

“My eldest brother, nicknamed Satan Carter, you are dead!” Alex stared, fiercely, straight at Leon.

“I have heard that at such an old age, are you not ashamed to pull Mr. Carter out to scare people? You kept saying that you are the leader and have authority over a city, but what else can you do, but rely on Mr. Carter? Do you really think that when you have a group of supporters around you, you really like a god?”

Leon was very direct. He looked directly down at Alex.

Although other persons along with Mr. Danielle, could grow big, by relying on Mr. Millers, they would have to at least achieve the top three of the city’s financial resources, while Alex is holding the provincial capital Family Carter big tree, stupefied has not made much achievement.

“Do you know the nickname, Satan Carter? Have you been to the provincial capital?” Alex asked, squinting his old eyes.

“I have never been there,” Leon said.

“Inquire e about the existence of Satan Carter, in the provincial capital. He has connections and tough tactics in both political and business circles, so you are dead!”

In Alex’s eyes, his eldest brother is the most skillful existence of the family, and he is also one of the four elders in the provincial capital.

The nickname of Satan Carter was not given in vain. There was a saying spread in the provincial capital: when Satan smiles, the whole family will be cremated.

“What do you mean?” Leon asked.

“It is remarkably simple. If you get down on your knees and give me a hundred bows and a hundred Sir, I can consider making you suffer less flesh and blood!” Alex thought Leon was scared.

However, Leon knows all about Alex.

In the beginning, Leon knew exactly why Alex came to Fairmont City from the provincial capital.

He came to attend the Chamber of Commerce for Family Carter, especially how can Alex, show weakness now.

“Gerald gave him a hundred mouths!” Leon’s tone was cold.

“Stop Gerald, you magnificent young master, how can you listen to this boy? You have been implicated by him, and you have suffered! If my eldest brother moves, he can bring your Grand Prince hotel to the ground!” Alex stopped it at the top of his voice.

However, Gerald did not say a word, picked up his shoes, and slapped Alex in the face.

After giving Alex a hundred mouths, Leon gave a final order.

“Change rooms, close the door, and release the dog!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 166

Chapter 166 In My World I Am the Rule

At that moment, Alex felt a chill on his back and a cold sweat streamed down his face.

A huge Caucasian fierce dog, like a lion, has its mouth wide open.

The Carter family was all pale and frightened.

Especially when May was so scared that she knelt to Leon.

“Leon, as long as you let me go, I will marry you. Carter Family will immediately recruit you as a son-in-law, and then you and my family will unite and dominate the city of Fairmont!”

May seduced Leon with wealth, but Leon can't help but laughed.

Leon thought that May is too childish and ridiculous.

“Get married? To you? I refuse! Who wants to be your husband and become your family's son-in-law? Ridiculous!”

“If you don't want that, I can introduce you to my cousin. She is a famous woman in the provincial capital. I know you have a good relationship with Wibowo Family now, but it is unrealistic for you to be the son-in-law of the Wibowo Family. Sucyanti's brother is notoriously bad-tempered and will not accept you at all. But I assure you, our family is different. With me and my grandfather guaranteeing you, it is not difficult for you to be my husband."

In fact, this is just a provocation by May, she cannot really set up Leon.

She struggled desperately to convince him.

However, Leon doesn't really care.

Whether he became the son-in-law of the famous Wibowo or even be the Carter's, he has nothing to do with them!

"Pretentious pathetic people, they still think that everyone in my family wants to enter them!" Anger rose into Leon as he silently uttered these words.

"Leon, May is right. Although I don't know who you are, I think you are instructed by others. It is better to choose a reliable master to work with than to be the servant of others. As long as you are willing to leave us alone, I promise to let you join us!"

Alex guessed that there might be someone behind Leon, so he wanted Leon to turn the tide.

Ridiculously, this old person didn't guess right.

"I have a strong desire to survive. But in my eyes, Carter Family is just a pool of shit!"

Leon sneered, then turned around and walked out the door.

As he walked outside, he said. “Those who offend me and those who are rebellious are either will be dead or disabled! You fend for yourselves!”

As soon as Alex and May heard that, they fell into great panic together with others.

They knew that their destiny had been rewritten.

While Alex was frightened, his heart was filled with doubts.

“Who is he? Can’t he completely turn a blind eye to my family’s misdeed?”

Unexpectedly, Leon can control the Grand Prince Hotel and is called as the owner of Grand Prince! And he’s likely to be much more than that.

Alex even suspected that the entire Fairmont Chamber of Commerce was under the control of this young man.

When he thought of the queue of Indra in the conference hall and the unusual behavior of Mr. Danielle, Daniel, Sebastian, and others in the VIP box, Alex realized the seriousness of the problem.

He guessed that the power behind Leon should be almost the same as that of the Provincial Capital’s Carter Family.

However, he was still wrong.

At his level, there is no way to get in touch with the higher-level circle. It is naturally impossible to have information about the identity of Leon.

If he is in a high position and the small group of people are at the top of the Houston country, it is impossible not to hear that Leon has just said a “ruthless admonition.”

Including Jason, who had previously been taught by Leon to betray his brother, also revealed one.

But they are not in the same world and level as Leon.

Leon became worried about the safety of Rachel, so he hurriedly went to the hotel exit.

Rachel stood there as she waited for him. Her body is so thin as if she could be blown down by a gush of wind.

At that time, Rachel has really lost a lot of weight.

As soon as they met, Rachel frowned and asked anxiously. “Leon, they didn’t embarrass you, did they?”

“It doesn’t matter.” Leon gave an understated answer.

“I’m glad it’s all right. Will they get back at you? I heard that they are the clans of Carter? It’s all my fault. I got you into trouble.” Rachel blamed herself.

Payback? As if they can. Leon smirked with his thought.

Alex and May have been caged at this time, and there will be no more Carter in Fairmont City.

“It’s none of your business. I’ve had problems with them for a long time, but I’ve dealt with them properly. After all, it’s a small matter.” Leon can only conceal the truth in good faith.

“That’s good. It’s just that the watch you gave me was trampled on. What a pity.” Rachel’s pity is not because of the price of the watch, but because of the sentimental value that it meant to her.

She admired Leon. However, she has some inferiority complex and felt unworthy of Leon’s affection, so every gift given to her by Leon is treasured.

“It doesn’t matter. I’ll just buy you another piece. The jade dress I gave you is not torn, so don’t worry about it.” Leon said, as he held out his finger and touched Rachel’s delicate little nose.

Rachel’s pretty face instantly flushed. She said shyly. “Don’t buy anymore. You already gave me a good one. I take it with me and fix it. Otherwise, it will be too wasteful. You should manage your money and also pay attention to saving. After all, we are both working for others. By the way, I almost forgot to ask you, why are you in the Grand Prince Hotel?”

“As you said, I am working for my friend to attend the Chamber of Commerce instead of him. Of course, I have only a small role, and I am just a proxy to this Chamber of Commerce.”

It is also a form of protection for Leon that is why he didn’t tell Rachel the truth.

The City of Fairmont is not big. But the Provincial Capital and even the Capital are all top cities in the country. They run with various forces, complicated and undercurrent.

The strength of rivals in these two cities is by no means comparable to that of Fairmont.

Next, Rachel planned to go to the provincial capital to look for a job. She kept it confidential from Leon. The fewer secrets Rachel has, the better.

“Rachel, you just asked me and I answered. What about you? Why didn’t you hurriedly went to get ready and go to the provincial capital? Instead, you came to the Grand Prince Hotel to become a cleaner.” Leon said with a hint of doubt.

“I want to earn some more for my travel expenses. I will go to the provincial capital to look for a job in a few days. Where the consumption is high, the rent is also high. I want to make some money. So while Grand Prince Hotel is busy running a Chamber of Commerce, there is not enough manpower and they are understaffed, so I came to recruit myself for a part-time job.” Rachel said as she bowed her head.

Coupled with the money saved by frugality, Rachel felt that she should be able to scrape by for some time.

No matter how hard and tired she is, she will not sell the luxury gifts that Leon gave her.

After he listened to Rachel’s explanation, Leon was shocked.

Blessed with the appearance and pleasant temperament, Rachel is absolutely on the school beauty’s top tier level. Even if she entered the film and entertainment industry, she can also kill the faces of many Internet celebrities.

Is such a huge school’s beauty standard, to be able to stand out on their own is very rare? Rachel effortlessly.

Although her appearance is enough to save her decades of struggle, she still chose to work hard on her own, which is much better than the average-looking girls who always want to be pampered but is a parasite and leech in reality.

This is the advantage of Rachel which is much better than that of Winny.

“Come on, Rachel. I’ll take you home.”

Leon doesn’t want to give the money directly to help Rachel because he knew that it would be disrespectful for her.

Leon and Rachel sat quietly in the car. Although the hotel was still in a lively scene, they chose to leave quietly.

With the crack and roar of the engine, the cool Hennessy Viper sped out of the hotel.

The paparazzi who squatted at the door of the hotel found that it was already too late for him and that he failed to take pictures of the real face of the car owner of Hennessy Viper.

“You just dozed off and just drove away?”

“Obviously, it’s not the time for the meeting to end. It’s so early!”

“It is estimated that they are here for a tourist holiday, which has nothing to do with the Chamber of Commerce.”

“If people can drive this car; do they still care about the Chamber of Commerce and the board of trade in our little Fairmont City?”

“I got it! Got it! His side face! It’s a profile!”

“Both of them are wearing masks. It’s no use!”

At this time, Leon was already on his way home with Rachel. Inside his car, Sucyanti suddenly called with a little emotion in her voice.

“Leonard! What did you do? ”

“I’ll go home.”

“Why did you leave without saying hello? My grandfather worried about you in vain, thinking that Alex had secretly tied you up!”

“It’s not stupid of me to be tied up by Alex. I didn’t have time to say hello because I had something important to deal with at the moment.”

“All right, stop bragging. My grandfather told you to pay attention to your safety. He has something to discuss with you tonight. You can’t stay in Fairmont City!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 167

Chapter 167 I Am an Actor

When the call ended with Sucyanti, Leon shrugged helplessly.

‘Sometimes, when you tell the truth, others may not believe it.’ He said in his thoughts.

Alex was really tied up by him, and since Sucyanti didn’t believe it, there was no need to explain further.

It was business as usual.

After he drove Rachel home, Leon returned to Beverly Hills.

At this time, the local media in Fairmont City have just reported with a headline of “Mysterious Car Owner Appeared in the Chamber of Commerce Incident.”

In this regard, Leon smiled faintly but did not take it to his heart.

Anyway, no one can see his face so he let others guess.

Leon opened a bottle of red wine and sat on the balcony. As the wind blew a cool breeze, he quietly cherished that peaceful moment as he tastes the wine.

Leon waited for the family’s final evaluation of his trial task.

The family will decide the reward that he’ll get according to the performance of Leon in Fairmont City.

At the same time, the core people within the family also changed some views on heirs because of the performance of Leon.

Although Leon is the chief heir appointed by his grandfather, their family is very complicated. If Leon can’t do something, there will be gossip.

He expected that in the evening, he should be able to get the exact news.

Leon stood relaxed on the huge balcony observation deck with a glass of red wine in his hand.

It is rare for him to have such leisure time these days.

As he sat on the top three luxury villas in Fairmont City, there are few opportunities to stand on the observation platform overlooking Caspian Lake.

This afternoon, Leon is going to enjoy his free time.

Three hours later, in the evening.

Ding-

His cell phone suddenly rang.

When he saw the caller ID, Leon connected the phone.

“Master, congratulations on winning the reward for the completion of the second-tier trial task. You will receive this gift in the Provincial Capital.”

Mawar’s voice is still so gentle, like a spring breeze after Leon heard it.

When Leon heard this, he knew that the next trial task would be carried out in the provincial capital.

After all, Fairmont is not a big city, and various factors are no longer enough to support the third-tier trial task.

“What reward?” Leon asked.

Leon thought that the supercar is too high-profile and extravagant. He hoped that they would keep the award as low-key as possible.

“Master, I don’t know exactly what it is. It is the result of the consultation at the core of the family. Young master, by the way, you picked on the core of Alex. The family members had mixed reactions, some praised while some criticized your behavior. With that, they finally decided to reward you.” Mawar answered.

Leon is not surprised.

When he remembered the attitude of his cousin, Jacob, some time ago, he saw that there are people in the family who are dissatisfied with him.

“I knew my cousin would speak ill of me. As an heir, can’t I do something by myself?” Leon sneered.

There are people with ulterior motives in the family which caused some emotional pressure on Leon. But then, he has the purest blood of their cruel family, so he can’t be timid.

“Don’t worry too much about it, young master. Grandpa and uncle are still very supportive of you.” Mawar said.

“Is my grandpa and grandma in good health? What about my mom and dad, are they all right?” Leon’s tone softened all of a sudden.

There was a feeling of yearning in his heart. He had come out to practice for such a long time and had no chance to meet each other. Leon was concerned about the health of his family.

“Please, be rest assured. Young master, everything is all right. The task of the third level of the trial is more difficult than that of the second level. I will tell you the details when you settle down in the Provincial Capital.” Mawar answered.

“Mm-hmm. Well Mawar, how are you these days?” Leon actually thought about Mawar.

“Everything is going well here, young master. Don’t worry, maybe there is a chance that we will meet in the Provincial Capital in the future.” Mawar replied softly.

Leon chatted with Mawar for a long time, and before he knew it, it had been two hours before the call was over.

Leon asked a lot about the current situation of their family. After all these years, it is impossible not to be homesick.

By the time it was over, it was already 08:00 in the evening.

It wasn't long before Sucyanti called.

“Leon, my grandfather asked you to come and stay in Beverly Hills now.”

Sucyanti and Indra were walking in the neighborhood of Beverly Hills residence when they happened to pass by the property and villa of Leon.

“All right, I'll be right there.” Leon stood on the observation deck and replied.

The villa has three floors and can be heard downstairs.

Leon seemed to have heard Sucyanti's voice and quickly lowered his voice. Then he looked down and happened to glance at Family Wibowo and her grandfather that opt to walk in the light of the neighborhood.

“Leon, where are you?” Sucyanti is a little curious because she seemed to have heard a trace of Leon's voice just now.

“I look at the stars on the observation deck at home,” Leon said with a chuckle.

“Don't be ridiculous. Your house is called a balcony, not an observation terrace. Your balcony is so small, how many stars can you see?”

Sucyanti said.

At this time, Sucyanti can no longer hear Leon's voice, so she doesn't take it seriously. Mainly because she thought that it's impossible.

"I can still see a few stars," Leon responded calmly.

"The winds coming from the mobile phone is a little loud, so it seems that you are really on the balcony," Sucyanti said.

"It's all right, it's because the wind from the lake is blowing."

Not far from the villa is Caspian Lake. Leon stood high, so it will be so natural.

"Which lake?" Sucyanti asked curiously.

"Caspian Lake," Leon answered casually.

"You have drunk a few bottles. In Fairmont City, only my family lives in clouds and mountains that's been blessed to feel the lake breeze of Caspian Lake." Sucyanti rebutted as she got a little impatient.

She thought that Leon is full of nonsense, which is an insult to her intelligence.

"Not much, just half a bottle. The wines need to be tested carefully." Leon glanced at the bottle of '82 Lafite, white wine on the table of the observation deck.

"Oh, my God! Are you so drunk after drinking half a bottle of beer? And taste it carefully? I'm really convinced! You are uneducated and not a sommelier in the wine matter. Seriously, come to Beverly Hills as soon as possible!"

Sucyanti curled her mouth, a little angry, and thought that Leon deliberately made fun of her.

Unexpectedly, Leon stood on the deck that's been on top of her head.

After Sucyanti hung up the phone, Indra on one side looked confused.

“Sucyanti, did you hear Leon's voice just now? The sound seems to be coming from this villa.”

“Grandpa, I thought it was very similar just now, but it's impossible. How can Leon live in Beverly Hills? Moreover, the villa in front of us is the most expensive one in the city.”

Sucyanti shook her head firmly. In her eyes, Leon could not afford to buy a property in Beverly Hills.

“Maybe it's because I'm old and I heard it wrong. The voices of the two are similar, and it's a pity that we're about to leave Fairmont, but we still don't know the owner of the villa of the Ninth five-year Plan.” Indra sighed.

“The owner of this villa is spooky. Just like the owner of the viper GT he is very mysterious. He is certainly not an ordinary person. Maybe he doesn't live here in Fairmont City, but only occasionally come here for summer vacation.” Tabitha guessed.

“That makes sense.” Indra nodded.

After a bit of time has passed, half an hour later, Leon walked out of the villa of the Ninth five-year Plan and came to Indra's house like a visitor

The person who opened the door was Sucyanti in a pink nightdress. The leprechaun had just taken a bath, her hair was not completely dry. Her face was delicate and her cheeks are pink, it matched the color of the nightdress very well.

“I’ve been waiting for a long time. There was a traffic jam on the road which caused some delay.”

Leon’s acting skills became more and more natural because his face is not red and his heart is not erratically beating.

“Come on in. I just made some good fermented tea and talked business over tea.” Sucyanti glanced at Leon faintly.

At this time, Indra also stood at the door of the staircase on the second floor, waved to Leon.

“Leon, come on. I have something very important to say to you. It concerns your destiny. You must grasp it.”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 168

Chapter 168 I Am a Public Figure

“What is it?”

Is it about fate? Then this must be very important!

Leon went to the teahouse and sat down with Indra over tea, only to find out what was going on.

“Leon, you broke your friendship with Alex at a banquet today. You thoroughly angered Alex. He will definitely not let you go. If you continue to stay in Fairmont City, there will certainly be no good development, and it will even lead to assassination. Why don't you go back to the provincial capital with me, and don't stay in Fairmont City?"

Indra's words finally made Leon understood.

It turned out that the thing that could change his fate was to accompany Indra to the Provincial Capital.

Leon thought that it was something particularly important before, but this is not what he expected.

"What are you waiting for? Thank my grandfather quickly!" When Sucyanti came over, a fragrant wind came and there seemed to be a sweet scent in the air.

She glared at Leon and warned.

"Thank you, Mr. Wibowo."

Leon is not heartless, but what Indra proposed is a little unexpected.

He felt that such a small matter was not enough to change his fate.

No matter what Indra's plan was, it was well-intentioned and Leon accepted it.

"Leon, the provincial capital is bigger and more prosperous than Fairmont. The circles you can come into contact with is by no means comparable to that of Fairmont. I hope that when you go to the Provincial Capital, you can meet more people and make more friends. I will try my best to cultivate you, invest in you, and let you learn to do business. The provincial capital is a big platform, you must make good use of it!"

Indra looked serious and cautioned earnestly.

“All right, Mr. Wibowo.” Leon originally planned to go to the Provincial Capital. It is a big city that ranked first among the top three competitors in terms of overall strength in the country.

” Leon, you are so lucky. With my grandfather as your guide, your status will have to struggle at least 20 years less.” Sucyanti skimmed his fuchsia mouth and spoke.

“Really?” Leon glanced at the girl who wore a pink nightdress.

“Yes! I can tell you this if it wasn't for my grandfather, do you think you could walk out of Grand Prince Hotel safely and smoothly? You would have been killed by Alex a long time ago! Alex? He's a tough guy!”

Sucyanti's expression is not so arrogant and discerning. She said it to Leon very seriously, as if to state the facts.

What they didn't know is that Alex's family named Carter has been caged by Leon.

Alex is really a tough guy, but Leon is a tougher guy!

Leon didn't explain. Sucyanti can say whatever she likes. Even if Leon tells the truth now, Sucyanti won't believe it.

At the moment, Indra also said. “Sucyanti is stubborn. Alex is very hotheaded. There are many running dogs in Fairmont, and there are influential people from Family Carter that would protect him. He is crazy. I do not rest assured knowing that you are the only one that will be left here in Fairmont. So in the future, you have to get along well with Sucyanti and cherish her. I know my granddaughter very well. She is outspoken, but her heart is not bad.”

Indra reminded Leon. It was as if he’s saying it to a son-in-law and his soon to be grandson.

Leon recognized that there was something wrong with Indra’s words.

“Sucyanti is outspoken but kind, which is understandable. Nut what the heck is it when you said that you want me to cherish her?”

In fact, Sucyanti likes Leon. He found that what Grandpa said wasn’t a bluff.

Before Leon could think about this sentence, Indra said. “There is one more thing I want to talk about, Leon. I have to trouble you. There is also a reason for me to take you to the provincial capital this time.”

“Mr. Wibowo, please go ahead. I will help you if you can.” Leon replied.

“I have a friend who is a close friend rather. He got seriously ill some time ago. I think you may have a way to treat him. This time, I’ll go to the Provincial capital to ask you to diagnose his illness.”

Indra will never forget that his life was pulled back by Leon from the dead. If nothing else could treat his friend, there is absolutely no choice for Leon’s medical skills.

“No problem. I’ll try my best to treat him.” Leon has won the first male doctor in Italy and has great confidence in his medical skills.

When Indra saw Leon readily agreed, his old muddy eyes narrowed slightly. He thought to himself. “I’ll have a private chat with Leon when I find a chance. I'll have a showdown about my Wibowo Family before I'll recruit him as my grandson-in-law, or he'll think I'm taking advantage of him. When the time is right, I'll confess to him."

When Indra found out that Leon was a descendant of ancient medicine, he was determined to woo Leon because their family needs a medical expert like Leon.

However, Indra didn't take full advantage of Leon. Indra genuinely appreciates him.

However, Leon is not a descendant of ancient medicine.

He is rarer than an ancient doctor.

After that, Indra told Leon some points for attention in life in the Provincial Capital and basically finalized the itinerary.

Just in time when Sucyanti entered the tea room, their schedule is a little tight.

"Indra will leave tomorrow and return to the Provincial Capital."

It's just that Leon didn't plan to go with Wibowo Family.

Rachel is also going to the Provincial Capital to look for a job, so Leon decided to accompany her to help her settle down in the Provincial Capital.

In the evening, Leon spent some time mapping out some future work directions for several enterprises in Fairmont.

In this way, he can manage these enterprises more easily in the provincial capital.

In addition, if manpower is needed in the future, it will be possible that they can also be transferred from the city of Fairmont to the provincial capital.

When everything was settled, Leon and Rachel arrived at the airport at noon the next day.

As he went through the security check, Leon suddenly received a text message from his cell phone.

After reading the text message, he shook his head and smiled bitterly.

“Candra is so out of tune that he knows how to drink all day long, but he has tricked me as an apprentice. When it comes to the drunken talk of ten years ago, it probably doesn’t count!”

There is a trace of helplessness in Leon’s heart.

Martial arts master Candra is the most prominent guru in Italy, but he is addicted to alcohol.

After a great deal of drunkenness, he made an engagement with an old friend and married his beloved old friend’s granddaughter.

However, the marriage of the ruthless son is doomed to be unplayable. Candra realized this after he woke up drunk, so he wanted to repent his marriage.

For fear of hurting his feelings with his old friend, he could not personally come forward to renounce his marriage. He could only wait ten years later and let his beloved disciple take advantage of this opportunity to go to the provincial capital to find the other party to renounce his marriage.

This master really knew how to trick his apprentice, which is tantamount to handing over a mess to Leon to clean up.

“If you give up your marriage, you can at least give me your name and address. You’ve been in the mountains for a year and a half, and you don’t even have a response. You finally didn’t send me a complete message when you went to the next mountain. I’m a master, so I can’t adjust it.”

Leon sighed in his heart.

He could only hope that it would not take too long for Master to go up the mountain this time.

Leon is about to put away his phone and get ready to go through the security check with Rachel but at this time, he was suddenly bumped by a young girl with provocative clothes.

The girl was wearing a black tight dress that accentuates her buttocks, red lips in the scorching sun, and a looming career line. The dress she wore was not in line with her age that gave people a sense of familiarity.

Leon frowned because the phone was touched by the girl.

Before he could open his mouth, he saw the girl curled her mouth with disdain and said. “Do you want to take a picture of me?” No way!”

Leon felt speechless about this. The person she bumped into is too narcissistic.

Why would he want to film her when he has Rachel by her side? Does she think she is beautiful?

“You’re thinking too much. You’re wasting my time.” Leon picked up the phone and responded with a sneer.

“I’m too lazy to argue with you. I’m a public figure!”

It seemed that the girl is probably from the Entertainment Industry.

With this remark, the girl cut in line and ran to the front.

Perhaps this is her attitude as a public figure.

However, the girl was stopped at the front security check.

“I’m sorry madam, but there seems to be a flammable compressed gas tank in your suitcase. Now you need to open it for inspection.”

The airport security officer said with a serious look on his face.

The girl, however, frowned and looked unhappy.

She pulled the suitcase, put it behind her, and strongly refused. “I am a public figure. You have no right to check my personal belongings. You must not open them without my consent!”

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 169

Chapter 169 Who I Am Now, You Can No Longer Afford It

The security officer asked again but was still rejected by the girl.

Her attitude is overbearing and very impolite. She loudly abused the security personnel and forced them to pass the security check.

Under the helplessness of the airport staff, the police arrived quickly.

It is no joke that the suitcase contains items suspected of flammable compressed gas tanks.

Finally, the girl's suitcase was opened and it turned out to be a bottle of sunscreen spray.

The police and security personnel demanded that the bottle of sunscreen spray be confiscated because this is a dangerous substance; it is absolutely not allowed to be brought on the plane.

This is a normal security procedure, if she just handed over the suspected sunscreen, it won't take too much time.

However, the girl's reaction became more resistant.

She picked up the sunscreen spray and sprayed it on the faces of the police and staff, and forced her way through the security check.

Just then, Leon who had passed the security check gently stretched his legs and tripped the girl to the ground, causing her to fall.

The heavy makeup on the face was smashed, leaving a mark on the floor.

“Uncle policeman, such people simply don't take other people's safety seriously and must carry out a serious ideological problem.”

“If we don't mend the knife at this time, when will we talk to this kind of person about being open and aboveboard, we will simply treat everyone's safety as a joke.”

The policeman nodded and responded. “Thank you for your righteousness. Please be rest assured that we will handle it properly to ensure everyone's safety.”

At this time, the girl was so angry that she gritted her teeth and her eyes almost popped out of their socket.

“You’re done! It has delayed my schedule and affected my schedule. You have to be held legally responsible. I am a public figure!”

However, the police are not bothered by her threats.

“Do you still know that you are a public figure? This kind of attitude is really a discredit to public figures. I’m going to take you back to the police station for investigation!”

“I am Bonnie, a regular guest of a recent popular variety show. Your security measures have delayed my recording of the show. I will ask my lawyer to sue you for indemnification!”

As he said that, Bonnie was about to take out her mobile phone and take a wild shot of the police, threatening to sue.

This is the airport; how can she be allowed to fool around!

The police decided to take Bonnie away by force.

As for Bonnie, she began to splash and resist and talked nonsense.

“If it has affected the ratings of the program, can you afford to pay for it? Let me go now and get me out of here!”

The police directly took compulsory measures to take the girl named Bonnie into a police car and take her away.

At this moment, Leon shook his head gently.

“She’s just an artist. where does she get a sense of superiority? People like Bonnie are just toys of tycoons and directors.”

When Leon was in the capital, he was no stranger to these rules in the circle.

Now that they have arrived in the provincial capital; it is estimated that the system is about the same.

No matter how famous movie stars are, they can’t compete with the power of the capital’s most influential people.

Leon grabbed Rachel’s hand and left the security check.

He wanted to fly first class, but Rachel thought it was too wasteful and finally chose the economy class.

Rachel went to the bathroom and Leon continued to line up.

The treatment of the economy class cannot be compared with that of the first class. Long queues alone are troublesome, but the fares are really cheap.

Suddenly, a familiar girl passed by.

The girl, with light makeup on her face, deep eyes, high nose, and tall stature, was wearing a long-printed dress with her slim waist and a pair of bright silver high heels.

After passing by Leon, the girl suddenly turned back.

She held her face high, turned her eyes, and took a quick look at Leon.

Then there was a slight arc in the corner of her right mouth, with a hint of mockery.

And Leon just recognized the girl.

Winnie!

I'm pretty sure it's her.

Leon's ex-girlfriend!

It was she who humiliated Leon with her mother Melanie at the birthday party.

She spent 20,000 dollars of the hard-earned money of Leon without his consent, and arrogantly refused to repay it.

It was she who made commotion at the dean and colluded with Gerald at that time to squeeze out the number of places for Leon to enter the highest university in the provincial capital.

In the twinkling of an eye, more than two months have passed, but what Leon didn't expect is to meet her again at the airport.

"Leon, it's really you! So what? Still, have the money to fly? If you look so upset, it must be your first time on a plane!"

When Winnie spoke, she was still so mean.

Speaking of which, Leon has never been to such a small airport before.

Whenever he travels, he will also board on the Gulfstream G650.

To such sarcastic remarks as Winny, Leon responded with a straight face. “It’s none of your business!”

“I didn’t expect to see you again two months later, but the gap between us is becoming more and more obvious. Do you know what kind of luxurious life I am living now?” Winny said with her arms folded in a haughty tone.

“I’m not interested in knowing!”

Leon no longer cares about this woman.

Leon believed that Winny’s character is greedy. To be able to live a luxurious life in a short period must be her way through selling her body.

Leon was absolutely right.

Winny tried every means to enter the highest university in the provincial capital using the university as a springboard and a platform. She utilized her body and squeezed into the circle of the rich second generation in order to know and mingled with the rich boys in the school and sell her flesh.

‘Of course, when you are with your boyfriend, how can you say you can sell it? It’s called getting what you need.’

“It turns out how wise my choice was! Now I’ll go back to the provincial capital in first class, and you can only afford the economy class. I can board the plane directly, but you have to wait in line. This is the gap between our status!”

Winny’s father died and she went back to Fairmont for a funeral, she boarded the plane in first class.

Leon felt very annoyed to see how childish and ridiculous Winny is by showing off her first class.

It is an indisputable fact that there is a gap between first class and economy class, but this is the first time he has seen anyone show off so blatantly.

“Childish!” Leon scanned her eyes faintly.

‘I have seen those who show off vaguely in WeChat’s moments, but I have never seen Winny show off like this.’ Leon thought.

Even with this kind of behavior, she is not destined to be really rich, and the work style of the nouveau riche can be seen at a glance.

“You called me childish? In fact, you just envy me. Thanks to my mother’s persuasion and my wise choice, I can have a happy life today. Are you angry?”

Winny is domineering and has a sense of superiority all over her body.

“I don’t envy you at all. In my eyes, there is not much difference between first class and economy class. The most important thing is who you sit with and experience with.” Leon shook his head gently and said calmly.

“Oh! What’s the use of saying that? It’s just self-consolation. I’m relieved to see that you’re doing worse than me today!” Winny sneered.

“It seems that your cousin Gerald hasn’t contacted you for more than two months, otherwise you wouldn’t have been so ignorant,” Leon said faintly.

“He’s just a distant cousin. I don’t even bother to contact him. Even if he runs a hotel at home, now that he sees me, he has to be respectful to me.”
Winnie said proudly.

Leon thought that Winnie really doesn’t know how to be grateful.
Although Gerald was a jerk at the beginning, he always helped Winnie.

Without Gerald, Winnie, it would be impossible to squeeze out the quota of Leon.

Now, however, Winnie has a new dependence, so he doesn’t take Gerald seriously.

Leon doesn’t want to have much contact with such a snake-hearted woman.

A long time ago, he have feelings for her in his heart.

Today, Winnie thrashed him.

“No more talking. When Rachel comes over, we will board the plane immediately.”

Leon turned around and looked at his Patek Philippe’s wristwatch. It was almost time.

Winnie, on the other hand, is still full of sarcasm.

“Rachel? Which Rachel? The Rachel? Don’t dream with your eyes open. Rachel is a school beauty. How can she travel with you? Toad wants to eat swan meat, you need to wake up from your big!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 170

Chapter 170 There is No Money

But at this very moment, Rachel appeared.

Winnie's eyes slightly squinted, and his face was frozen as if she were facing an archenemy.

Rachel wore a white dress. She looked fresh and elegant, such a hibiscus flower.

She does not wear any pricey apparel. She is plain and simple, but she has her own fairy temperament.

As you can imagine, if one can wear delicate light makeup, she must be beautiful.

This is the biggest difference between schoolgirls and class girls.

The beauty of Rachel can brighten people's eyes and leave a deep impression.

Aside from that this thing, she is born natural beauty. She acquired a good characteristic that doesn't need much to cultivate. She was born with a beautiful quality that is difficult to forget for a long time.

As for Winnie, she has big eyes but no spirit, she lacks aura under her good-looking appearance.

A woman like Winnie will naturally have a strong sense of crisis and insecurity when she meets a beautiful woman who is even prettier than her.

This woman who accompanied Leon is the school's top beauty. In their school, she will always be a steady competitor that pressured Winnie!

What surprised Winny, even more, was that what Leon had just said is actually true.

Will Rachel travel with a poor man like Leon? Did she just read it right?

“Leon, it’s fine. When did you catch Rachel?” Winny has a cynical look on her face.

However, Leon didn’t answer Winny.

He didn’t want to talk to this woman, just like he didn’t want to take one more look at the shit on the side of the road.

“I think you are just a follower of Rachel. How can you catch up with the school beauty who is just like you, a poor man?”

Winny was surprised at first, but soon she thought it was impossible.

Rachel is the school beauty, at least she has to find a rich second generation who drives four wheels to be his boyfriend. Poor people like Leon who ride two wheels are not even qualified for her to be a spare tire.

At this time, however, Rachel frowned and looked unhappy.

Leon is the person she likes and the man she pursues. Winny’s sarcastic remarks have caused her inner discomfort.

“Winny, I don’t know what happened to you and Leon before, but please don’t insult him in front of me!”

Rachel looks weak, but she won’t allow others to vilify her in this matter.

“Rachel, I know what you mean. You just want to tie up Leon as a spare tire, leave him around to run errands, and help you do the dirty work, but I’m sure it won’t take more than a month for Leon to be abandoned by you!”

Winnie recalled once.

In the beginning, she pretended to be a good girl in front of Leon. Her acting moved Leon. With her fake behavior, she then used Leon as a long-term ATM.

In this way, Winnie usually lets him run errands and do the dirty work, all of which are left to Leon to do.

Every holiday, she forced him to give her gifts, which is tantamount to finding a long-term job with no pay.

However, Rachel is not a materialistic girl.

She felt that Winnie lived a miserable life.

Indeed, this way does not violate the law, but if a person does not even have basic morality, he is an animal.

“Winnie, I hope you don’t insult Leon like that again. He deserves to be loved by a better girl.” Rachel clenched her teeth and said this with a serious look on her face.

At ordinary times, Rachel seldom quarreled with others, but she couldn’t stand it today.

“Don’t pretend to be righteous in front of me. When my cousin chased you, why did you refuse so many times? It is to catch a better rich second generation! Did some rich second generation gave you a Hermes bag?"

Winnie glanced at Rachel's handbag and sneered at the corners of her mouth.

She thought she saw through everything.

"Leon gave it to me."

Rachel's earnest voice sounded.

"You're lying! A poor man like Leon can't afford it!" Winnie didn't hesitate and shook her head to deny what she just heard.

But everything Rachel said is true.

At this moment, Leon took Rachel by the hand and whispered. "Rachel, Winnie is a crazy woman. Ignore her. Let's board the plane."

Rachel nodded cleverly without hesitation.

Winnie looked at the two figures' back and flashed a trace of disdain in the corner of her eye. She said to herself. "This play is very good. Rachel will let Leon hold her hand. It seems that Leon will have to be a cow and horse for her for a while. Otherwise, with the status of Leon, how can he be in close contact with the school beauty? This must be a deal!"

In her eyes, Leon is a poor man, doomed to mediocrity in life, and deserves to be a dog all his life.

But she didn't know that Leon got along with Rachel as an ordinary person just to experience earthly sufferings.

She looked down on Leon, and Leon looked down on her, too. She's just a piece of shit by the side of the road.

At 05:00 in the afternoon, the flight taken by Leon and Rachel landed at the Pearl Airport in the Provincial Capital.

Since Winny boarded in high class, when Leon and Rachel got off the plane, Winny had already walked out of the airport.

Which is good, so as not to affect their appetite and mood.

On the first day Leon came to the provincial capital, he temporarily found a place to settle down.

The two came to the reserved hotel, put down their suitcases, and planned to look for a house when they were free tomorrow.

Since Rachel is going to work in the provincial capital, she must live there often.

When they came out of the hotel, Leon took Rachel to find a place to eat.

As a newcomer, they were not familiar with the provincial capital. The two of them searched the Internet and chose a nearby seafood restaurant.

The restaurant that they chose is a relatively high-grade seafood restaurant. Also, it is very close to the hotel where the two of them stayed.

After they settled down on a table, the waiter brought the tablet and asked Leon and Rachel to choose.

Rachel looked carefully at the various seafood meals on the menu but hesitated because the price of each dish is about 1000 dollars.

Usually, the monthly meal cost of Rachel is only more than a thousand dollars.

What made her hesitate is the price of the food. They are here to eat but a casually braised seafood costs thousands of dollars.

To tell you the truth, Rachel is really distressed.

“Rachel, you can order whatever you want. Don’t be shy.” Leon saw Rachel’s concerns because Rachel always urges him to be frugal and save money.

“A thousand dollars for a dish are really too expensive. Why don’t we order another dish?” Rachel looked at Leon and spoke.

Although it’s a bit shameful to say this, Rachel thought that what she wanted to say is to help Leon saves money to start a business.

She also believes that the two of them should support each other, and even if she can’t give Leon much help now, she can do her part by helping him to save an extra penny.

“This is the first day you went to the provincial capital, you let go a little and don’t be uptight. We can save water, but it doesn’t matter today.” Leon said with a smile.

But Rachel is still serious and cautious.

She patiently flipped through all the dishes on the menu and then chose two dishes on the last page.

“Let’s take two courses, hibiscus shrimp and Sauteed Crab in Hot Spicy Sauce.” Rachel pointed and said.

These two courses are the cheapest on the menu, 800 dollars for hibiscus shrimp and 700 dollars for Sauteed Crab in Hot Spicy Sauce.

At the moment, the waiter standing by suggested. “Miss, the restaurant highly recommends the Imperial Crab recipe which is made from the Australian imperial crab. Each of which can reach 5 kilograms and the bigger one is 8 kilograms as well as French Peron oysters and Australian lobster. It’s a good choice.”

Rachel nodded politely but did not intend to eat this imported seafood. She just wants to eat local food, imported is too expensive.

The Australian Imperial Crab recommended by this waiter costs thousands of dollars, Rachel felt that it is really wasteful for herself.

She remembered that her father worked at a construction site, sweating in the heat of nearly 40 degrees Celsius during the day that peeled his face in the sun, Rachel’s eyes were discouraged from the word “imperial crab”.

“No, thank you. I’ll have hibiscus shrimp and Sauteed Crab in Hot Spicy Sauce.” Rachel shook her head gently.

However, the waiter’s face suddenly darkened.

He didn’t laugh directly, but when he turned his back to Leon and Rachel he whispered. “There’s no money for seafood! At first glance, I thought they came from a high status. Instead of going to the fly restaurant, they came to the seafood restaurant to join in the excitement, causing me to waste my breath to introduce them to our specialty!”
