Chapter 91 Calligraphy Expert

How many people here in the world are like me?

Kyle's face was serious. It's impossible to write a clean, clear, and beautiful small letters using hairpin without ten years of practice. This is obviously a calligraphy expert, he can write the word using hairpin!

"That's an incredible word!"

"If you pay attention to that work, you will be a blockbuster!"

"That's a good word!"

The reason why Kyle is emotional is not only because the word is good, but also he remembered that he ignored Leon before. If Carlo hadn't mentioned Leon, he would've forgotten the existence of this person!

He questions Leon's medical skills, but he's attention was deeply attracted by Leon's hairpin calligraphy!

And Carlo, he was excited to see Kyle this attracted to one thing.

When he saw the clear small letters on the prescription, he was amazed.

"Leon, you have a talent! This is a talent you cannot hide from the world!"

Carlo is indeed a treasure. Leon knows medicine. He appreciates treasures, and has a good handwriting skills. He had been one of the versatile person in this world

If he can really accept him as a in door son-in-law, it won't hurt the Williams Family.

Carlo was little upset when he saw Martin show his own calligraphy just now.

Now, Leon gives him a straight face, which makes him very happy.

"It's just my hobby to exercise my mind." Leon said faintly.

Today, if they hadn't written a prescription, others wouldn't have known that Leon wrote a small letters using the beautiful hairpin.

Unlike Martin, he intended not show off his calligraphy work, but he is really writing a prescription!

There is no way that his calligraphy has been well-versed in his heart, even if he intended to be ugly, it's still beautiful.

In that work, Leon didn't give his full skills. He just go with the flow, with his fifty percent strength, he was just enjoying his hobby.

At this time Kyle said, "Leon, you are really good. You can't write this word without ten-year practice. If it's really a hobby, it's not easy for you to maintain it, if you have your priorities."

Now Kyle's attitude towards Leon is very different from what it used to be.

Seeing a talented young men who knew calligraphy, Kyle couldn't help expressing his love for a talent.

Leon said, “No, I only used fifty percent of my normal skills for the small letters using hairpin flowers when I wrote the prescription. There is no need to boast so much.”

Martin saw the people praised Leon for his skills, and his grudge towards Leon began to build up.

He felt that Leon had stolen the limelight, and he had been snubbed by Kyle and Carlo.

‘Even writing a prescription for paralysis you can steal the limelight from me. Leon, you are really good at calculating! You scumbag, it turns out that you’ve been putting up with me all this time, just to hold back a big trick for me!’

Martin was so angry that his face reddened. He hated Leon so much that he wanted to pull out his flesh and chop on his bones!

Today is a great opportunity for him to join the Provincial Calligraphy Association.

If Kyle and Carlo are both in the association, if he can win the favour of these two people, they will be able to help him in some matter like this in the future.

Hopefully, Kyle will soon accept him as his apprentice, and he taught Carlo also expressed his affirmation to him, his plan is about to finish, until Leon entered the scene he was set aside because of Leon. ‘Bastard, Leonard!’

‘I swear I’ll get my revenge to you!’

‘ You are a dirt in my life, and you have gone this so far just to insult me!’

In his heart it was stated that he hated Leon so much. He scolded Leon in his mind for three times. If it hadn’t been for Kyle and Carlo, he would have been so angry that he could break all the things that he sees in this place.

In that way can we solve the hatred he was feeling towards Leon!

However, Leon doesn’t have any calculation, there is no plot, and this is just pure Martin’s self-assumption.

As a he grew up in a ruthless place, he had adapted their way of living, so he’d try to deal with an ordinary person? Martin thinks so highly of himself that he is not worth of Leon’s plan.

Martin’s taught were bluntly, his strength is not enough, he wouldn’t blame anyone, if his strength can match with Leon’s, he still won’t be left out in the cold. Martin, regards Leon as the culprit.

“Don’t pretend show your real costume! To write a prescription, you didn’t have to use hairpin to write small letters. In order to attract attention, it can be said that it takes great time and skills to write a prescription in that way. Leon, what a great effort! “Martin can’t control his emotions and stared at him stranged.

“You don’t understand this. In ancient medicine they put the words first, It’s even more important than the medicine.” Leon corrected.

“That’s nonsense! Leon, don’t think like I don’t understand! “Martin retorted loudly.

“You really don’t understand. Do you know why it was important to put good words first? Because most famous doctors attach great importance to the neatness of prescription writing, and the words are the one to first to see of a prescription. The details of the doctor and the exposure of their knowledge and talent. Before, patients see a doctor and they first look at the prescription, which is to read the words. They use this to test the doctor about their academic depth and medical skills!”

Naturally, if it’s from Leon, it will be more authoritative and informative.

His master is Liana, the first female doctor in Italy!

On the other hand, Leon followed his Master to Benevolence Hall, where you can see all medical stuff, with a deep foundation and traditional Western medicine!

“Don’t confuse the public! Then explain why the handwriting of the doctors in the hospital is so messy, you can’t even understand it!”

Martin thought that Leon would be so embarrassed to answer this question. After all, the physical of a doctor is now their big concern. It’s now the typical type of a doctor, which is common everywhere in life.

“It’s very simple. If your father was misdiagnosed when he asked doctor’s opinion, the doctor’s written and illegible prescription will not be used as evidence of misdiagnosis. You can’t even figure this out. You’ve lived for more than 20 years in vain!”

Leon knows that doctors’ notes, or even blind person’s notes are used to prevent medical malpractice. “That’s not true! I think as long as the doctor can cure the illness, it doesn’t matter whether their handwriting is good or not. Besides, no matter how well the handwriting is, it’s not a good doctor if you can’t cure the patient. “Martin retorted.

“Your words are not good enough its nonsense. The foundation of a traditional Western medicine doctor is to read the words first before they proceed. With a good hand, you can see a doctor’s state of mind. If you look at a prescription, if it’s a good word, the patient will eventually read it with their own eyes, and they will think that you are serious. They will respect you and trust you. At this time, that patient is very ill, so he went to set an appointment.”

Martin’s face is denial, Leon took his time and calmly said, “If the words on the prescription are like you just draw a line in every stroke, the patient surely will not understand that, do you think he will be happy reading with that kind of handwritten ?” Will he come again to see a doctor ? It’s a small matter if they don’t come. I’m afraid that because of the handwriting is not good, the pharmacist will make a mistake in handing out a medicine, and thus this will cause a trouble or a loss of life! ”

As soon as this sentence was finished, both Kyle and Carlo nodded in agreement.

“Yes, I think Leon has a point, especially the last sentence, if the pharmacist handed out a wrong medicine because of the note that they couldn’t understand, it will be a big trouble for the person and the pharmacist. This could put human life at risk.” Kyle agreed

“Now, with the gradual decline of traditional Western medicine, there is very little overview in inheriting the traditional western medicine, and few doctors do it according to the rules, but I think we should take a serious action no matter what we do. Leon writes prescriptions in small letters with hairpin, which is no problem at all. Is it normal to write in a twisted lines and being careless on how they write ?”

Carlo looked at Martin, he warned him in a serious tone. “Don’t be close-minded. You can’t see that Leon is giving facts and because of that he was praised, while you are being picky, and standing there watching him and your heart was filled with jealous!”

It’s over!

Martin shouted in his heart that it was over!

What Carlo said to him is meant that his image was shattered and he was labelled as a “villain” in this matter.

From then on, not only was it not favoured by Carlo, but even the provincial calligraphy association he could not get into it.

Sure enough, Kyle plans is to give the quota that they achieved this year to Leon.

“Leon, would you like to be my apprentice? I can guarantee your smooth entry into the provincial calligraphy association. With my recommendation, you will be trained eagerly by the association, and you will certainly have a bright future in the future!”

Kyle officially extended an invitation to Leon.

After comparison, Kyle can certainly see the calligraphy skills level of Leon and Martin, which is the one strong and the other one is weak.

There is only one quota this year, survival of the fittest in line with the rules.

Leon, has no plans to join the provincial calligraphy association.

Kyle wanted Leon to be one of his apprentice? That's incredible!

His book was filled with calligraphy letter and have been taken as a required test for the Conrad calligraphy Association. Did he still care about the calligraphy association in the provincial capital? Leon is doubting himself.

Besides, joining in two meeting is hard for him. How tired he is ah? He was worried and his effort it'll be all worth it? Leon have a family tasks to complete, and his priorities is still clear.

Just when the other three thought Leon would gladly say yes and cherish this great opportunity, Leon shook his head gently.

"No, thank you for your kindness, but I don't like to be bound with my priorities."

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 92

Chapter 92 Calligraphy Association

He have his parents at home who needs him. Is the calligraphy association will take care of him when he go out?

Leon didn't want this kind of life.

Unless, they give him a spare time and do nothing, He can only attend meetings.

When Kyle saw Leon refused, he was surprised.

"Leon, did you know that the provincial calligraphy association only accept one enrollee once a year? Do you know how many people are eying for this place?"

Kyle stared at Leon with a straight face.

Kyle eyes were burning and wanted Leon to be burn through, he almost got crazy.

Obviously, Kyle loved this kind of talent very much.

He can guarantee that as long as Leon joins, he will have a bright future.

“I know, but I’m usually sloppy and I don’t like to be bound from my priorities.” Leon said.

At this time, Martin shouted. “Coward!” It’s just that you don’t appreciate it, but you still put yourself on airs, and no one has ever dared to refuse the master! ”

“What can I do for you ? You have no right to question me! “Leon glared at Martin.

“Master, look, this kid is so ignorant and impolite that he doesn’t deserve to join the Provincial Book Association!” Martin is like an impatient monkey.

However, instead of being angry with Leon, Kyle gave Martin a cold glanced.

Although the quality of calligraphy cannot determine the quality of one’s character, but Martin this angry and questioned everything, really makes Kyle feel disgusted.

He thinks there is nothing wrong with Leon being this passion to his priorities. After all, the calligraphy level is always there, and he hasn’t done anything bad to people.

On the contrary, Martin's skills are not as good as others, and he had the nerve to blame others?

"Martin, we are talking about the internal affairs of the Provincial Book Association. Please avoid being noisy for a moment."

Kyle gave Martin a final order.

Martin was surprised to see that his moves didn't work for Kyle. But when he first met Kyle, he took good care of himself, and their relationship was comparable to father and son.

In fact, Martin himself walked into a misunderstanding.

Why did Kyle treat him well before? Didn't he feel obligated? Didn't he value his calligraphy?

Now that there's a better and more suitable person than him, why should he treat Martin as well as before? Do he know him well? Are they friends?

Martin's heart is completely cold, he seems to have lost his mind. He left the restaurant and he thought that his desire to join the provincial calligraphy association this year was completely ruined! This is all Leon's fault.

Meanwhile, Kyle is still persuading Leon to join the association.

In this way, a high verdict!

People like Martin, who are smug with a little bit of skill, are eager to perform. In fact they are top-heavy.

And Leon is full of talent, good and calm, the Book Association begged him to join and didn't wanted to let him go.

That's the difference between the two!

Kyle saw that Leon couldn't be persuaded by him. Carlo tried and it worked Leon was persuaded by him.

Carlo is naturally happy to see Leon join. After all, this is his son-in-law, the more Leon interact with others, and the more people will know the worthy of his family, the Millers.

Finally, Leon agreed, but he has one condition.

That is, unless there is a meeting and other activities will not be part off and not be taken care by him.

In order to have that talent, Kyle agreed to the request of Leon. Anyway, there are not many activities of the Book Association now. That will be okay.

Before, they had a people with such a nasty behaviour. They did the "ugly book" and "ink injection". This made a lot of noise on the Internet, and the Book Association has suspended all its activities.

Leon joined the Book Association, not for the value of the resources, but to give each other a chance and a step up.

"Mr Williams, Leon and I will stay in Fairmont City for a few more days. I hope we can meet again." Kyle was very polite.

Leon's felt the huge changed in Kyle's attitude.

He knew that he had only used fifty percent of his skills in using hairpin to write a small letters, but that was a rare treasure in the eyes of Kyle.

Despite the fact that Kyle didn't said it directly in his face, he felt warmed in his heart, someone appreciated his worked.

Leon thought that if there's no accident, Kyle may collect this prescription as a calligraphy work.

Sure enough, Kyle carefully put away the prescription and put it in carefully inside his bag.

"Is this prescription all right?" Kyle smiled and said, "I wish diarrhea won't attack on me this time. I'm afraid of running back and forth because of diarrhea."

"It's not a big problem. This medicine is not tough. The ingredients was herbs and it's all belong to sexual temperature. If you pay attention to your diet regular times, your stomach will be okay in half a month." Leon didn't prescribe a medicine that took effect very quickly this time, but a medicine that's make you feel warm and have an energy all the time.

The main reason why Kyle is having a diarrhea is nothing serious, it only needs to work on his diet. The prescription that was gave to him, it will quickly effect on him and has a great side effects.

Carlo looked at Leon and nodded with satisfaction and relief.

Leon's talent is gradually revealed, because of that Carlo was more impressed and appreciated him more.

'My ignorant granddaughter doesn't know that Leon is indeed a treasure. Although he has a poor family background, it will not be hard for people to notice him because of his family background. Moreover, his character is also good. He's a little older and calm. In the future, my family will not be a laughing stock in Sucyanti City, and I will be able to have grandchildren when I graduate from Sucyanti University.'

Carlo thought to himself that he had to find a way to create opportunities for her granddaughter and Leon, and now the spark between the two is obviously not enough.

â€ | â€ |

After he said goodbye to Kyle, Leon and Carlo go back separately.

At that time, Leon doesn't want to reveal his identity, so he will not go back to Beverly Hills with Carlo.

So Leon decided to go for a walk in the park.

People's Park in Fairmont City is the largest park in the city.

There's resort in Fairmont. When the summer hits, citizens can go to that resort, and also the park is surrounded by big trees and other plants. There's also a river, clean and clear water. This is really a good place to enjoy and unwind.

Leon is so bored to take a walk, he is very close to the restaurant where Paul eats, and he can get there immediately if he across the road.

The park is the place whre the older men comes to play chess with each other.

The weather is good. The sun is still high at two o'clock in the afternoon, and there's few old men playing chess and so on.

Leon is going for a walk and after a minute he will leave.

As he walk along the park he saw Mary there, dancing.

He can't believe she did that kind of edge ball dance live in the park!

There is a reinforcement bar in front of her, and her mobile phone was on the bar and she is recording herself and broadcasting her dancing live.

And at the side of the park, there is a big black stereo playing the music. Mary is enjoying the every beat of the music.

She twisted her hips and swung her hips, she's making flirtatious eyes and smile from time to time.

Needless to say, some people really like this kind of dance.

Mainly she was wearing a heavy makeup. With her big eyes, she can really captivated the attention of the people obviously the men.

These people who admired Mary, they gathered around her and jumping excitedly.

Some men didn't cares about the dance, they only care about how short the skirt she is wearing right now.

Leon looked at the scene in front of him and he thought to himself that he hope she didn't catch herself a trouble with those men, otherwise she doesn't need to show off in the park, it'll cause her a trouble.

This dance is too daring for an old man! What would they think?

Leon has never felt anything about this kind of female broadcasting herself in a broad day light. What's the difference between this and selling meat in the market? Pork has a seal!

Leon remembered that Carlo thinks that he will soon be living in Beverly Hills. Why would he leave his current town for Beverly Hills? With that thoughts in his mind, Leon decided to leave the people's Park.

But just then, Mary recognized Leon.

Mary still bears a grudge against what happened at the hot pot restaurant that day.

So she turned off the music with her instigated fans, they will make a trouble with Leon.

A group of men followed Mary, and they are angry at Leon.

"That's the guy. He bullied me. It's up to these guys, they can do what they want!" Mary pointed her finger to Leon, she raised her eyebrows that it can reach the sky.

She didn't think it was enough to incite him, so she induced her so called 'fans' and said, "Guys, there will be a gift later, you know."

Hearing this, those men are eager to mess with him.

However, before Mary's men reach him and beat him, Leon snapped his finger and left.

Whoosh!

Mary's legs were weak and she fell into the stream behind her. She is over all wet.

The river was not that deep so Mary got up hurriedly.

And those old male fans of her were shocked to see Mary's bared face. Her makeup was removed because of the water.

“Oh, my God! This is Auntie, isn't it? ”

“Are you the devil?”

“She's so ugly, the aunt's face is so ugly!”

“Oh, my God! This is Grandma! “

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 93

Chapter 93 I am too hard!

Not to mention that Mary's male fans are not that good. Leon frowned because of the scene.

“Because her face changed, that is their reaction? Where's the men who praised her a while ago, like she is somewhat a goddess? What are these people? What kind of earth species is this? ”

Leon is finally an eye-opener!

Internet celebrities hiding under makeup and beauty lenses are unexpectedly such faces.

Although a good-looking skin is the same and a good attitude is one in a million, it is their fault that people were deceived? They doing that for their selves because they want to feel good. Not for them to entertain their selves.

Everyone has a love for beauty, it's okay for girls to wear makeup, but they didn't need to put too much makeup on their face, because some people are like to mock with others.

Leon saw that one of male fan was already throwing up.

The small change that licks the screen every day turns out to be a not so good appearance, it didn't reach their standard when it comes to beauty..

Leon expressed a deep moment of silence for last night's scene..

He can even talk like this, a real man on the surface!

Mary hurried to clean up the mess, while Leon prepares to go back to his house in Beverly Hills.

But before leaving, Leon saw a group of old men, staring at the two old men playing chess. Their fists were clenched.

This scene is like a group of men watching a boxing match.

As for the lively atmosphere, it is even livelier than the high dance of Mary just now.

The two old men who were playing chess have the same hairstyle, they are both bald.

The one on the left stroked his bald head from time to time and seemed to affect his heart and liver with every move, which was extremely difficult.

It seems that this is the most expensive thing for an old man.

The chess game is needed a focus mind, and indeed a hard game. So this is the activity that keeps people busy.

One by one is a bad chess moved, Leon finally knew that the scene of two old men playing in the rain on Douyin was true.

Obviously, the old man on the right has an advantage.

Leon glanced at the chessboard and found a way to crack it for the old man on the left.

But Leon didn't speak.

It's not because of ' watching chess without talking about it, isn't a real gentleman', but because these retired old men are all smelly chess baskets, they provoking people to keep up with them.

In the end, the old man on the left lost.

The old man on the right smiled happily and said, "Who else is coming ? Does anyone else dare to play chess with me ? Whoever wins my game today, I'll call him old brother! "

The old man is crazy.

It seemed that it's the chess game that dominated this community.

As he listened to old man, Leon learned that the crazy old man really had something to do with the chess king of the whole city of Fairmont.

He participated in the Chess Championship in Fairmont City and he won the championship of the chess group.

In recent years, the Chess King has been playing chess with people in the people's Park every day, and there has been an endless stream of admiring challengers, but in the end they are all defeated by him.

The chess king has not been defeated, he does have crazy capital, and he's very much skilled in chess that really makes people down.

Leon suddenly wants to fight the chess king.

But given the chess king's bet, Leon doesn't want to challenge him.

'If I win, the other party will call me old brother, how can this work? How can I take advantage of the old man?' Leon said to himself and shook his head, feeling irritated.

"What are you whispering about, young man? Come on, Grandpa will taught you to play chess. Young people like you, know that it's no fun to play with masters all day."

The chess king sat down with Leon and taught him to play chess.

Leon is mainly surrounded by a young man, who can be regarded as an alternative.

"Grandpa, you don't have to teach me chess. I know a little about it." Leon said.

"Can you play chess? That's even better. Come on, kill a game!"

The chess king is such a chess fanatic that he won't let go of the young man.

"That's not good." Leon is a little embarrassed.

"It doesn't matter, young man. There's a two-generation difference between you and me. It doesn't matter if you lose. No matter what, you have nothing to lose." The chess king comforted.

“No, Grandpa, I mean you will suffer.” Leon felt that the bet was really unfair.

“Are you kidding me? Hurry up. Let me see that you can hold on for a few minutes!”

The chess king quickly set up the chessboard and couldn't wait to play a game with Leon.

Leon was also very helpless and had no choice but to agree to the chess king.

These old men are addicted to chess, which is almost makes them crazy.

The chess king asked Leon to play chess which in the eyes of other old men, was a bully.

When the chessboard been set, people were already talking about it.

And the chess king himself is also full of confidence, and every step is he feels burning.

For him chess is a pleasure in his life, and no matter how weak his opponent he will show no mercy.

This is a kind of respect.

However, he sensed that something was wrong.

‘Hmm? The young man in front of him is not afraid of me at all!’ He said to himself

Leon was a little nervous, and he was really embarrassed about betting immediately.

Two minutes later.

Leon. “General!”

Chess King. “Get down!”

Leon. “Again!”

Chess King. “Staff Sergeant!”

Leon. “This the last shot!”

The game was so intense and the chess king regretted it so much that he patted his shiny forehead. He was annoyed like a child who didn't finish his homework.

The chess king, who claims to be undefeated, fell into the hands of a young man today. All the men were stunned!

“Oh! How it was nice it was to this car just now!”

“No! I'm wearing a horse's leg! You always lose anyway!”

Leon heard these words from those people who surrounds them.

The chess king looked at Leon with doubts.

“Is this young man pretended that he didn't know chess? When the opponent challenge him, he will beat him like he was the King of the Chess! The first time I lost, I gave it to him! “The bald man thought to himself.

He will not reconciled to it. He can lose to anyone, but he won't convinced himself that he was lost to a young man!

Leon chuckled. He had warned the chess king earlier, but they didn't listen to him at all and forced him to play chess.

“One more set! I don't believe it!”

The chess king crossed his heart and set the chessboard.

“Come! Go on!”

“Are you sure? The bet is not fair to you. “Leon is still a well-intentioned hint.

However, the chess king has a sense of pride and doesn't believe that he will lose.

However, in this set he was lost again.

The chess king helplessly touched his smooth bald head and sighed.

It's too hard!

His state of mind is about to collapse.

Then there were played again for three more sets, but he still lost.

It was a complete loss!

The chess king looked at Leon with annoyance on his face and asked, “What on earth are you going to do, young man? If you don't play obediently, you won't learn how to play chess!”

Looking at the old man's reaction, it seems that he is going to cheat.

“If I have seen too much, I will slowly imprint the number of roads in my heart, and I want to draw it out at any time when I want to use it.” Leon explains it this way.

At the beginning, when Leon studied their tradition with the people of the four famous mountains of Titans often played chess together.

Like go and chess, people in in that mountain have always studied it.

Leon was attentive, watching the master fight, he gradually learn become a master.

At this time, the old men around them were booing.

“Arnold, it’s time to keep your promise!”

“That’s it! The new chess king is a man of his word!”

“The young man has played several games with you, all of them were complete victories. It’s time to take off the title of the chess king in you.”

The chess king was so embarrassed that he blushed and wanted to lift the chessboard.

“What’s the matter with asking my eighty-year-old man to call a young man in his early twenties an ‘old brother’?”

The chess king has a headache, which is even worse than the news that his old house is going to be demolish.

While the chess king was struggling, Leon suddenly received a call from Mawar.

Looks like there’s a new mission for him.

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 94

Chapter 94 Piss Off!

“Young master, this time we need to take over Michelin Real Estate and solve the problems encountered by Michelin Real Estate”

The gentle and delicate voice of Morgan came from the mobile phone.

“Michelin Real Estate? They sound a little familiar.”

Leon remembered that he had heard the name in the news at Fairmont City and it was probably a model local enterprise.

“Master, the founder of Michelin Real Estate is Daniel Walker. And his son Liam, took care of the car for you.” Morgan explained.

“It turned out to be Liam, I told you, this kid is very good at trouble, but I just know that Michelin Real Estate also belongs to our company.”

Leon and Liam have a good relationship. Although they don't see each other very often, they keep in touch with each other all the time on their mobile phones.

“Yes, young master. The founder is indeed Daniel. However, five years ago when the capital chain was broken, their company almost went bankrupt and the ruthless group allocated a huge sum of money, which solved their urgent need. From then on, Michelin Real Estate was owned by Millers Family.”

Morgan told the origin of Michelin Real Estate to Leon, he is a virtuous subordinate who held the first-hand information within the ruthless group.

“So what trouble Michelin Real Estate is facing now?” Leon decided to cut the chase to make a long story short.

“There was a stalemate in bidding for a piece of land with Bertholdt Real Estate. Oh, by the way, Bertholdt Real Estate is a new company. Not long after it came to Fairmont City, it has won many pieces of land one after another.” Morgan informed.

“Just throw the money. With the strength of our family, it’s easy to fix it.” Leon knew very well that the ruthless family is the largest Real Estate Company in the country.

“Master, the group will not interfere in the affairs of a small place. Mr. Millers will leave this matter to you to deal with. Also, he wants to take this piece of land. It is not as simple as spending money. Later, I will write a report and write down the specific reasons on it.” Morgan explained further.

“Write and send me the background and other details of Bertholdt Real Estate.” Leon demanded.

In this way, Leon ended the call with Morgan.

This time, it is quite different from the two previous times.

The problems faced by the enterprises that take over are relatively thorny.

Currently, Michelin Real Estate is in trouble, and neither Daniel nor Liam can solve it.

As he put away his phone, Leon turned to the chess king piece and said “Grandpa, I have something to do first. Even if I forget about the gambling appointment, it will just itch for a while. I didn't think I had to humiliate people."

As long as he will to fulfil the gambling contract, the score is even.

Knowing that Davis is such a treacherous villain, Leon vowed not to show mercy.

The chess king was stupefied, and he was very surprised. He said that the young man did not care about the gambling appointment.

Originally like the chess king, he wanted to cheat.

He wanted to call him the young man "old brother". But then he really can't open his mouth.

But now the other side didn't care which made him very embarrassed.

"This guy is worth playing!"

The chess king sighed in his heart.

Then the chess king said to Leon with a thick face, "Go ahead, young man. We'll continue our game tomorrow."

Leon smiled in response.

It is estimated that in the next few days, he will not be free to come to the park to play chess.

Leon left the People's Park and went straight to Michelin Real Estate.

On his way there, he said hello to Liam in advance.

He knew Liam, but he hasn't met Daniel yet.

The moment he'll arrive at Michelin Real Estate this time, He taught that it is natural to talk to Daniel.

When he went out today, in order to avoid suspicion, Leon didn't drive over.

Therefore, now he can only take a taxi.

Fortunately, Leon has no sense of dependence on luxury cars. When he was at home in Kyoto, the top supercar was the equivalent of a walking car for ordinary people.

Half an hour later, Leon arrived at Michelin Real Estate.

He went directly into the hall on the first floor of the company, then took the elevator to the fifth floor.

Upon arriving in the office at the top of the company, he saw that the office space of other employees are separated in two areas.

With the elevator as the boundary, there is a high-level office area in the east and an office area for ordinary employees in the west.

If somebody wants to enter the high-rise office area, then he must go through a door.

Currently, two security guards stood at the door. They are assigned to look after the door.

When he saw this, Leon smiled softly.

He taught that a Real Estate company, is not a scientific research studio, it does not need to be so strict.

At first glance, it looks a little funny.

As a matter of fact, this is to prevent the malicious attack against the Bertholdt Real Estate.

A week ago, five thugs suddenly rushed in and hurt two company executives. They are suspected to be hired by Bertholdt Real Estate.

Mr. Walker also did this to prevent further injuries.

Recently, the Senior Executives have been beaten up and down inside the company that caused people to panic.

Leon doesn't know the details, but he knew Michelin Real Estate is in big trouble.

Even Mr.Walker can't handle this trouble.

As he walk towards the door, Leon found that he knew the two security guards entrance of the door.

These are the two colleagues he used to work with when he delivered takeout.

Their relationship is not very strong, but there has been no quarrel since it belonged to the rules.

“Bob and Lucas, you've changed your careers to become security guards!”

Leon smiled and really felt happy for Bob and Lucas.

Leon knew that this is not an ordinary security guard, but a private security guard of an agency company, which can be judged by the spirit.

Ordinary security guards earn 2300 dollars a month, which is basically tantamount to dawdling along, so they naturally don't work hard.

On the other hand, private security guards, between professional bodyguards and ordinary security guards, have a higher salary.

There is still a gap in terms of compensation compared with professional bodyguards. But unlike ordinary security guards, they knew how to fight and tried to keep a clear mind when dealing with emergencies.

"What are you doing here? Who sent you?!" Lucas asked with a cold expression.

"I'm looking for Liam. So you need to let me in!" Leon frowned and his eyes suddenly became cold.

He put down his airs to say hello to them, what kind of attitude is that?!

"Shut up! Mr Walker's name is sacred, is that what you can call? You have no right!" Lucas got worse, his eyes full of arrogance and frivolity.

Then, Lucas added. "Leon, you remember, that you are bodyguards, not security guards!"

Lucas seemed to care that he was called a security guard and specially stressed that he was a bodyguard.

However, Leon is not an outsider.

No matter how Lucas emphasized, he is not a bodyguard now. How can a bodyguard wear a security uniform?

Bob, who stood beside, did not speak, but sat on the sidelines.

“I don’t care what you are. What I want to tell you is that you are wearing a security suit!”

Leon does not have any professional discrimination. He only knew that what should be. On the contrary, Lucas himself felt discriminated against the security profession.

When Lucas heard Leon’s words, he was furious.

“Even if I am a security guard, I am better than you who is just delivery man! Fortunately, Bob and I quit our food delivery job a year ago and joined the security company for special training. Otherwise we would have been a delivery dog like you! ”

He doesn’t know where this guy got his sense of superiority. Although being a private security guard is better than delivering food, they all belong to the same class.

There has been no contact between them for more than a year, and the impression left on Lucas by Leon is still at the stage of delivery.

“Piss off!”

Leon’s eyes were cold and he was no longer patient!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 95

Chapter 95 is nothing but bedbugs.

Lucas sudden anonymity is stupid against Leon.

Just because his current job pays a little bit better, he taught that he's great.

As a matter of fact, Leon has seen a lot of such people.

Those people who have just made a small achievement, but can't wait to show off when they meet acquaintances.

They think they're better, and continued bragging to him.

Lucas, on the other hand, is humiliated and mocked Leon.

They think he's very arrogant, but what they don't know is that this scenario will directly lead to the loss of their worth.

There are two options for Leon.

The first option is to call Liam and ask Liam to answer it.

The second is to directly kick the security guard who gets in the way with no mercy!

Just then, a man of the same age as Leon came to the door.

Leon doesn't know about this man.

But the look at Lucas expression, who faked a show of servility, added to their own drama.

"Hello, Mr Parker, Mr Walker is waiting inside. Today, Mr. Walker specially made some preparations. You are a distinguished guest of Michelin Real Estate. Please come in."

In fact, Liam never said he was waiting for the young man whose surname Parker.

In terms of wealth and status, Fairmont is worth waiting for by Liam. Except for Leon, who is his father.

Lucas only saw Liam and asked his secretary to make freshly ground coffee half an hour ago. Liam also took out his treasured imported South American coffee beans, which was unusual.

In the capacity of Liam in Fairmont City, he would not take such pains to entertain his partners at ordinary times, unless he will be receiving a distinguished guest today.

Marcus Parker, who has just arrived, is the young owner of Parker Family Jianye in Fairmont City.

With tha, Lucas speculated that Marcus is the distinguished guest that Liam will receive.

Lucas thinks that he made Liam's mind clear and thorough.

Right at the moment, Marcus picked his eyebrows and showed an unexpected expression.

"Liam was so clever that he knew I was coming in advance!" Marcus was secretly surprised.

Today, Marcus have something to discuss with Liam, but he didn't tell him in advance. After all, it wasn't particularly important. He just wanted to ask Liam to play golf.

On the other hand, Lucas is complacent and felt that he is too smart. With this ability to judge the hour and size up the situation, he will be able to rise step by step in the future.

Standing beside Bob, he opened his mouth slightly and tried to say something but held back instead.

In fact, what Bob really wanted to say is, “Lucas, you really know how to lick? When did Mr Walker told us to entertain distinguished guests?”

I have to say, Lucas has its own way. After he listened to him, Marcus smiled. He patted Lucas on the shoulder and said, “You security guards have worked hard, too.”

With just such a short sentence, it made Lucas’s heart blossomed happily!

“Shit! I can’t believe Mr. Parker cares about me!”

This is a fucking two-faced bitch!

When Leon called him “security” and he never wanted to humiliate Lucas from head to toe, but he felt discriminated

When Marcus called him “security”, but he was extremely happy.

This kind of person has a cheap life!

Tasting the sweetness, Lucas continued to be courteous: “I’ll open the door for Mr Parker, please come in.”

When the door opened, Leon stepped forward and wanted to go in with Marcus.

Lucas was lucky to dodge a bullet. If Marcus hadn't come here, he would have been kicked by Leon by now.

Bang!

However, just as Leon was about to go in with Marcus, Lucas slammed the door shut.

"Mr Parker, just a moment, please. You can go in, but this man cannot. We suspect that he was hired by Bertholdt Real Estate to make trouble." Lucas points to Leon, and explained to Marcus.

Marcus nodded and made no comment.

He also knew that recently, Michelin Real Estate and Bertholdt Real Estate are in conflict.

However, neither side does Marcus wants to take sides and get involved in business.

"Lucas, let Leon in. Why embarrass him? Don't forget that it was not easy for us to deliver food in the wind and rain." Another security guard named Bob, who used to be his colleague, felt a bit of compassion.

"Stay out of this Bob!" Lucas glanced at Bob.

Bob, who had stood on the side-lines before, was now sympathetic.

And as for Leon, he looked at Lucas's self-righteous façade and sneered. "Lucas, you will pay the price for being dumb today!"

"Oh, if you don't say a word when I say Leon, you must be right to listen to me." Bob persuaded.

“Are you threatening me? Ha ha, I am not scared. You are just a delivery man, how can you make me pay the price? I advise you to take it easy. I can't let a man of low status go to see Mr. Walker!”

Lucas once mistakenly repeated the identity of Leon as a delivery man. In fact, it is from the heart of inferiority complex.

Once he was also a member of the takeout army, he had also the experienced of being discriminated so he was against Luca. Now that Lucas works as a private security guard, he taught that he's better than before and in return, he insulted a takeout staff. He is a self-deceiving man!

This time, Leon will not give Lucas another chance.

Between his gaze, the air was cold and he looked directly at Lucas.

“What's the matter? You still want to practice? I'm telling you, I'm a trainer!” Lucas said ostentatiously.

Leon didn't bother to answer again and flew straight away.

Bang!

He hit Lucas in the stomach and kicked him away from the door.

The speed is so fast that Lucas can't react at all.

When he realized it, he was already lying on the ground and could not afford it.

Bob and Marcus who are nearby, were frightened by the scene.

How can people be kicked and punched just like football!

Liam heard the noise and ran out from the office area.

He saw the ruthless man standing at the door and greeted him with a smile.

Marcus thought Liam was coming towards him, so he greeted Liam with a smile. But then, Liam stopped in front of Leon which made him very embarrassed.

At this moment, Marcus is completely messed up.

What's going on here? Didn't the security guard said Liam was waiting for me? They also said that he prepared freshly ground imported coffee. But now, it seems like the situation is very wrong ah! Marcus taught

"Mr. Millers, you are here at last. Did something happened to make you unhappy?" When Liam saw Lucas who laid on the ground and shouting pain, he knew that the security guard was in trouble.

Liam is very sensible and knew that Leon cannot reveal his identity, so he is called "Mr Millers".

He is luckier than the Thompson Family and the Danielle Family.. He is one of the few people in Fairmont who knew that Leon is a ruthless son.

People like Liam will certainly be promoted by Leon in the future and trained him to become a right-hand man.

"Nothing, I just kicked off a bug." Leon said faintly.

"I'm glad you're all right. Come in and have some coffee. It's freshly ground." Liam said with a smile.

Marcus, Lucas and Bob opened their eyes wide and looked at this scene in front of them. They were all very surprised and had a feeling that their world outlook had been subverted.

Especially Lucas, in his eyes, Leon, is so poor that he can barely make the ends meet with tuition fees. He only eats two meals a day, and he will never be able to recover from salted fish in his life.

But why does Mr Walker respects him so much? And even use honorific?

Even so, Liam did not hesitate to put Marcus on the side-lines!

Small potatoes like Lucas are too ignorant to figure out why.

Lucas likes to read his boss's mind. He is happy to show himself, and has an advantage in the workplace.

However, often this kind of person is hardly smart. He's strong in the outside but easy to collapse at a single touch.

Before Leon entered the door, he didn't bother to take another look at Lucas who was sprawled on the ground like a bug.

Instead, he said to Liam. "The next time you must train Bob in order to promote him as Vice Captain of Security. Give him a chance. As for him, it depends on his own nature." He added as he pertained to lucas.

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 96

Chapter 96 Red Rabbit and Horse under the Hip

Bob just stays where he is. He can't believe it!

Fortune suddenly came and hit the top of his head like this!

Bob never expected that he was promoted for the first time in his life because he had kind heart.

“Thank you, Mr. Johnson, for teaching me the truth of being a man. I will always keep it in mind!” Bob bowed deeply to Leon.

And at this time, Lucas ‘s stomach turns upside-down. He cannot believe what’s happening.

Although he doesn’t know where Leon came from, he is definitely different.

Now, it is useless to say anything, the fate changes in an instant.

As for Leon, he cannot dominate fate, but he can change another person’s fate!

Liam turned around and said to Marcus, “Sorry, Mr. Parker. I have something urgent to deal with. Why don’t you wait in the parlor and we’ll talk when I’m done.”

Liam has no choice but to let Marcus wait because the next thing on the agenda, he and Leon needed to talk about the Michelin real estate’s interests, naturally it is important that Marcus would not know about it.

To put it bluntly, it’s okay for him to play with Marcus, but he can’t lay all the cards in front of him.

Marcus’s face frowned.

In the past, Liam would entertain him politely when he’s around but today’s somethings not right that made him very uncomfortable.

Liam called the secretary to assist Marcus but Marcus felt neglected.

Liam has no regards for thoughts of Marcus. Today, as long as he entertains Leon well, it would be perfect.

When Leon came to Liam's office as he sat down Liam brought up freshly ground imported coffee.

"how about a taste of the coffee, young master?" Liam said with a smile.

Leon took a sip and nodded with satisfaction: "Not bad, let's talk about the problem encountered by Michelin Real Estate."

On the way to Michelin Real Estate, Leon have read the detailed report sent by Bernard.

"OK, young master, let me talk about the main problem below. Five hundred meters to the south of the Park, there are a piece of land very suitable for the construction of the commercial square. It is a village in the inside the city, Berthold Real Estate and our Michelin Real Estate value this piece of land and fight for it. But the main problem, there are many small households in this land, which can no longer be solved through competitive bidding. Now who has the ability to persuade these households to sell their land title? Whoever can take this land gains advantage. "Leon got it.

The main trouble now is to persuade these households to sell their land.

Michelin and Berthold these two companies, if one of them can take down the households, they will occupy vast initiative of the city.

"Money! Give them enough money!"

Leon doesn't want to see the demolitions happen.

"Young Master, it's not just a matter of money. The clan consciousness of the families in this village are too strong. Qin, the oldest member of the village, would not be torn down easily and so other villagers. How to persuade Qin, are the key." Liam explains.

"I see. I happened to passed at that village today. It is very close to the people's Park and it's very convenient specially in transportation. It is really a good place."

Leon recalled that when he came out of the restaurant this afternoon, he passed through the village in the city and arrived at the people's Park.

"Sir, are there anything you can do? My father and I are helpless. If Berthold are able to get of it, we will lose a lot of money!" Liam asked helplessly.

"Don't panic, we must do a better job in the ideological work of the villagers and let the villagers know that these are not malicious demolition but for the sake of urban development and villagers' convenience. This piece of land is closed to the district government, old houses affect the appearance of the city. The demolition and transformation could achieve win-win results. And the demolition money is so attractive that they won't believe it."

Leon said while Liam took notes.

Liam has never looked down Leon, from the day he saw Leon at the delivery services and supercar club, he knew that this ruthless son is the pride and hope of those people.

Very few of the rich second generation have endured humiliation and have been honed by the world for so many years, not to mention that it is not easy for them to be the heirs of the first family in China.

Leon continued: “As far as I know, there are no ancient buildings with historical and cultural value in that village, which are good news for us developers. The villagers’ resistance to demolition is untenable both legally and morally, and these are our breakthrough.”

“Sir, do you mean that we threatened the villagers with this?” Liam looked up and asked.

“Of course not. threats only aggravate the conflict between the two sides, and it is useless. We should use both mind and heart to understand the needs of the villagers and understand their thoughts, so we can take down the wall that separates them to us!” Leon said.

Next, Leon went on to discuss several responses with Liam.

At the moment, Leon has not yet gone to the village in the city to communicate with the villagers, so it will take time to resolve the matter.

Leon looked at his watch. Two hours had passed.

I just talked to Liam, but I haven’t seen Daniel yet.

“Where is your father? Aren’t you in the company?” Leon looked at Liam, and asked.

“Master Hui, unfortunately today my father is on a business trip. If he knew you were coming this afternoon, he would have put off all his schedule.” Liam said with some embarrassment.

Liam knows very well what a ruthless son he is.

Had it not been for the fact that the ruthless son needed to experience the world, he would never have the chance to meet the future head of the group headquarters.

And this ruthless son's visit is supposed to be a great honor for him to be Family Walker, and he must welcome him respectfully.

It's a pity that Leon made a sudden visit and didn't tell him earlier that's why Daniel didn't know about it.

"There's no need to put off his schedule, or to delayed his work, Michelin Real Estate is facing the Berthold, we must not be careless."

At this stage, Leon still needs to test Mr. Walker, but everything is focused on the business of the ruthless family.

"Thank you for your understanding." Liam was touched by the fact that he didn't think he was wrong and that the ruthless son was different from other rich kids.

"Since your father are not here, we'd better wait for him to come back and discuss the handover of the company." That's what Leon said.

Family Johnson's property is controlled by the future heir, but not necessarily by himself.

The training and appointment of talents he trusts are also a very important part of the experience task.

In the evening, Liam wants to invite Leon to dinner, but Leon can't make it.

Because Rachel just called him and invited him at dinner.

Rachel got a job by her own efforts and is going to invite Leon and her colleagues to a dinner tonight.

It is impossible for Leon to refuse.

He is gratified that Rachel has gradually become confident and strong.

“Master, let me take you there.” Liam proposed.

So far, Liam has been with Leon for more than two hours.

In the meantime, Liam has forgotten about Marcus and left him behind.

In fact, Marcus left Michelin Real Estate angrily an hour ago.

“No, I’ll just take a taxi.”

Since we are having dinner with Rachel colleagues, Leon doesn’t want to make himself too high-profile, mainly for the sake of Rachel.

He doesn’t want Rachel’s colleagues to think that Rachel are chasing the rich people.

“Master, why don’t we ride the car that you gave to me and take you to dinner.” Liam had a whim.

“Car? Did I ever give you a ride?” Asked Leon, puzzled.

With regards to the car which he earns through sweat and blood the BMW, Leon has a total of nine cars in the Scott family’s racecourse.

However, he remembered that he never sent a car to Liam at all.

Liam smiled and explained: “Young master, it is a small electric car, I gave it a pet name, it is called ‘Red Rabbit and Horse’.”

Liam has regarded the electric car from Leon as the most precious gift he has ever received since he first met him at the supercar club.

Leon felt speechless. It turned out that this was the case of the Red Rabbit and Horse.

“Whatever you named it, take me to the western restaurant on Ocean Street in Pacific District.”

As a result, the two young masters of the rich and powerful families rode a small electric vehicle and hit the road.

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 97

Chapter 97 The life of the rich is often so low-key

“Shit! You are a good driver? ”

Leon feels that the small electric is wobbly and its center of gravity is unstable.

“The young master can rest assured that I have been riding this’ red rabbit horse wherever I have traveled.” Liam said seriously.

He are not a good driver, but he is very fast.

In this way, forty minutes later they arrive at the restaurant.

After Liam dropped Leon off, he rode off on his “love ride”. Leon, feels that this little electric is well maintained and can ride well, and it hasn’t broken for four years.

Walking into the western restaurant on Ocean Street in Pacific District, Leon saw Rachel and her three colleagues sitting at the table by the window.

Two women and a man, both new colleagues.

Leon walked over and said hello with a smile.

Leon is also polite to Rachel's colleagues.

Two of Rachel's female colleagues glowed when they saw Leon.

I have to say, Leon is a handsome guy when he plunges onto the crowd.

On the other hand, the male colleague was neither hot nor cold, and even did even smile back.

"Leon, please have a seat. I'll pay the bill today and order anything you like."

Rachel smiled like a blooming flower.

Rachel with confidence are far more beautiful than ever.

Leon sat down knowing that Rachel has a job with decent pay.

When it comes to ordering time almost all the menu was western.

Everyone's preferences may be different, so it is better to order individually.

Leon believes that this western restaurant are not that high-end compared to the western food items in Grand prince hotel.

However, it can be regarded as a good western restaurant.

With these specifications the compliance with Western dining etiquette are different to business banquet you just order from the menu.

In addition, this meal was treated by Rachel. A little girl who has just found a job and doesn't have that much money.

So, in order her to save money Leon wanted to order a simple steak.

In fact, with Leon's financial ability, it is not a problem to buy this western restaurant, but he doesn't want to show too high profile at the moment.

"Just give me a steak." Leon said to the waiter.

The three colleagues of Rachel looked at each other with a mocking smile on the corners of their mouths.

Among them, only the male colleague looked at Rachel and said proudly, "Rachel, your friend doesn't seem to like western food. He only orders steak while there are so many western food, but since I was young I have a special fondness for the western food. I think western food is basis of aristocratic culture, not as old-fashioned as Chinese food."

The words of this male colleague are full of hostility to Leon and are probably interested to Rachel.

There is no way, that Rachel a school beauty and at the job place is one of the most beautiful women in the company, she must have a lot of suitors.

Moreover, the male colleague who just spoke must be a dumb, senseless guy.

He ate western food and had a sense of superiority!

Does Chinese food are worse than western food ?

We should really pay attention to the Chinese food and pay more attention to etiquette and culture rather than the western food itself.

This man thinks that western culture is far more important than anything else and does not understand the real Chinese culture.

Naturally, Leon could tell that the man was not only dumb and senseless but also ridiculous.

In an instant, Leon looked directly to him coldly.

The other party was still showing off, raising his face high and looking at the chandelier overhead.

“Western food and Chinese food are just cultural differences between the West and the East. There are no difference between pros and cons, and Western food has nothing to show off. I don’t know where your sense of superiority comes from. Aren’t you Chinese? Are you a hybrid? ”

Leon sneered and asked Rachel’s male colleague.

For Leon’s counterattack, the male colleague was shocked for a moment and could not find a reason to refute it.

Because, he is not a mixed blood, but a pure Chinese who greatly worship the western culture.

“Since you are not of mixed race, have you left your Chinese nationality and become a Western one?” Leon asked again.

” Why should I tell you? Why do you care?! ” Rachel’s male colleague frowned and looked embarrassed.

“Yes, then why do you care when I order?”

How could Leon not understand this little trick?

The other party just thinks that Leon is ignorant. He only knows that there is steak in western food, but he doesn't know any other food.

And the male colleague, still frowning thought to himself, “I have been tricked by this man. This country bumpkin is very smart!”

His main purpose is show that he is more superior and compete with Rachel in front of Leon.

Just now when he saw Leon, being carried by an electric car, he felt a sense of superiority.

He believes that he is better and to prove that he has aristocratic temperament contrast with this country bumpkin.

Therefore, he will not be ashamed to be called foreign so he can have a stronger sense of superiority.

“Don't mind if I say something. In fact, you can see a person's status, family conditions, income, and education by ordering a meal. Five minutes ago, I saw you sitting in the back seat of an electric car. He looks a little like you. I hope it's not you.”

This male colleague of Rachel is absolutely racist!

Obviously, all of these are sarcastic words.

” Yes, that's me and I am not afraid to admit it. it's not shameful!” The momentum of Leon rises all of a sudden.

“Oh, it’s really you. Through the way you travel, I’m sure your monthly income will not exceed % 3500 and you’re not ashamed, which shows that you are a person who doesn’t know how to make progress and doesn’t want to make progress. Such person is not worthy for the title bachelor at all!”

The man finally couldn’t help it and was going to have a showdown.

“Who dictates that people who ride electric bikes cannot eat western food? According to you? When people come to dinner with Western restaurant, they all sit on a Rolls-Royce, and they don’t drive cause they have driver. ” Leon sneered.

Rachel was very embarrassed. She didn’t realize that her male colleagues had so much fuzz that it was wrong to ride an electric car.

In fact, Leon can obviously drive one but he doesn’t want to be too high-profile.

Is it wrong to keep a low profile in this society? Do I have to write “I have money” on my face?

Rachel was about to speak for Leon, but two female colleagues enter the conversation.

When the two learned that Leon came by electric car, their affection for Leon plummeted.

Society is really realistic, more realistic than that described in film and television and literary works.

The speed at which people change their faces is faster than that of the Opera!

“Rachel, you haven’t decided on your boyfriend yet. I’ll introduce you to one with good financial status in a few days.”

“I have a cousin. I know Liam, the young owner of Michelin Real Estate, who is handsome and rich. He runs a supercar club. Mr. Walker will love it because you are so beautiful has a good figure m.”

There was a sneer at the corners of Leon’s mouth.

Hehe, Liam ?

Besides, what you call Mr. Walker, just rode a small electric car, which is more enjoyable than a fucking pony!

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 98

Chapter 98 Please stop pretending just for once!

The life of the rich is really hard for ordinary people to imagine.

If you drove up the street with a supercar today, you may experience life on a tricycle tomorrow.

“I happen to know Liam, the one you’re talking about.” Leon’s face was written with calmness.

As soon as he finished uttering these words, the female colleague of Rachel could not help laughing: “Don’t be ridiculous, it’s impossible, how can you know the handsome and rich Mr. Walker!”

Female colleagues only think that Leon is just show off.

If you know the young owner of Michelin Real Estate, how can you come to the western restaurant by electric car? even if you don't have a car, you can always take a taxi.

And for that it's time to ask Liam.

It was on a whim that he proposed to ride an electric car, and Leon also wanted to experience the feeling of riding an electric car that time.

Liam admires any item of Leon, and from his opinion, it is a treasure that cannot be bought by money in this world.

That small electric car, which has been rode by Leon for four years still has the essence of a ruthless son.

Liam, as a fan of the him cherished the gift given to him by Leon, even though Leon already throw it off.

"Why is it impossible? the young master of the Wu family, in your words, is the man who drove me here on an electric bike." Leon smiled faintly.

"Cone on, don't brag. According to my cousin, Mr. Walker is super handsome. He's definitely not the one riding the electric car!" The female colleague shook there head hard.

The reason why he's handsome because by sitting on the supercar you can feel handsome, you can let Liam go to the construction site and let Tommy to compete, to see who are handsome on those two.

Another female colleague also chimed in and questioned Leon, "If you and Mr. Walker know each other, you must also be a high-class people. I have never met a rich man who ordered only one steak in western food!"

Leon did not answer.

Ordering only one steak is to save money for Rachel.

“I don’t bother to explain whether you believe it or not.” Leon sneered.

“Let’s not argue any more. Today is my first day on the job, and I hope that i can have a happy time.” Rachel is distressed that Leon, doesn’t like the chain of disdain of his colleagues.

At this time, the male colleague felt that he did not have enough action in this scene, so he suggested: “Today’s western food is on me. I have just received my bonus and my income are very good. Even if I eat western food twice a week, it is easy me.”

“how can I not be embarrassed? I’m not rich, but I can treat.” Rachel shook his head.

The male colleague was eager to show himself and shook his wallet: “I’ll do it. I’m ex static today. When have I ever been short of money?”

Rachel, you are more than welcome. I am making 20,000 a month, you think it’s a joke? ”

Showing off the salary to tempt a new girl like Rachel.

After all, a salary of 20,000 is already a high salary for newcomers to the workplace.

Real rich people would not show off like this, even with a monthly salary of 20,000 yuan. The imagination of the poor is lacking!

Today’s meal course was the treat of Rachel’s male colleague.

The male colleague glanced proudly at Leon, 's face brimming with joy of victory.

However, he did not know that the ruthless son looked down on such a small amount of money, and even the gas money for his super car was not enough.

The male colleague of Rachel, did not see the depth of Leon boasted to Leon and said, "Boy, it's my treat today, do you understand?" Why don't I order you a ten-point steak to kill you? All you know is steak for the rest of your life! "

"I simply ordered a steak to save money for Rachel. Since it's your treat today, I can have more." Leon sneered.

"That's a good reason, but let me remind you not to pretend that you are not at the same circle. we are all well-paid white-collar workers and is it difficult for you to admit that you are just a countryman?"

By this time, the male colleague had completely boastful and was full of arrogance.

On the other hand, Leon, has always shown no mercy to the hopeless people.

A faint chuckle appeared on the corner of his mouth: "Then I would like to ask the menu, are you sure you're willing to treat this dinner tonight?"

"Of course! I'll pay for it tonight!" The male colleague patted his chest with a proud look on his face.

"Well, I'll have two French-baked snails. make sure the snails are alive, because recently many domestic restaurants are used to using scallops as snail meat; I'll have two steaks, French shredded Limassol, with little felix, not Felix. Although the two tastes similar they are more tender and I want a medium when they are ripe; and a jin of French black truffle with a bottle of 2000 Pomalo red wine.”

Leon spoke calmly, then looked at the waiter and asked, “Do you remember?”

“Remember everything, sir.” The waiter nodded.

At the moment, the rest of the people present looked confused and had not yet recovered.

“You ordered so much? Can you eat it?” the male colleague thought that Leon only knew steak, but he didn't expect Leon to be so well versed.

“I would share it with Rachel. What, is it too much?” Leon asked with a faint smile.

“No. No, not much, not much at all!” The male colleague hurriedly shook his head in denial, looking very worried.

his heart is actually dripping blood!

“It is said that the French black truffle costs 10,000 per kilogram, and even he himself have never eaten it. In addition, he had never heard this kind of steak. It seems that this are very expensive.”

He looked at the menu and roughly calculated that the food ordered by Leon cost 20,000!

Something even more surprising are.

“Wait. What. The bottle of wine costs 10,000!”

Seeing the price of the wine, he almost vomited blood.

When he calculated it all it cost more than 30,000 was needed for Leon and Rachel alone, his heart thumped!

He did not expect that Leon was so knowledgeable and fastidious about western food and ordered expensive ingredients.

Just a bottle of wine, it will cost more than 10,000 yuan, he would drink blood for it drink blood!

He roared inside, but on the outside, he needed to be calm!

“Well, are you happy?” Leon asked with a smile.

Since you want to pretend, I’ll play along, let see if you have the guts to stay in the game.

“Happy, it’s just a penny.” The male colleague pretended be okay and waved his hand even with tears.

“Well, in that case for the remaining ladies, I highly recommend the French black truffle with Pomaro red wine, and if you prefer white truffle, go with a bottle of aged Reese.” Leon suggests.

At that moment, the male colleague felt deep despair!

Half a year’s worth is all fucked up in one night!

Chapter 99 Bad Beast!

If you don't have the capability, don't pretend.

This male colleague of Rachel is a example of a great pretender by that Leon played the game well

He despises no one, nor should he despise Leon.

You're are a ruthless monster!

"Then. Give me a Vegetables Salad. " The male colleague hesitated and said to the waiter.

Just one dinner cost him more than half a year of his salary and bonus, and he could only save himself.

"What's the taste of Vegetables Salad? when you can order anything special when we are at the western restaurant you will just a order Vegetables Salad?" Leon asked with a sneer.

"Who said that? Give me another bottle of. A bottle. " Rachel's male colleague almost couldn't help it, but he gritted his teeth and swallowed what he had said. He was still drinking a cheap red wine, but he needed to save himself from embarrassment.

"A glass of service water!"

"Well, sir, we don't serve service water here." The waiter forced himself to laugh.

"they don't serve here service water; what place is this a money farm?" the young man uttered.

Even the waiter felt embarrassed for him.

“How about a glass of soda, sir?” the waiter recommended

“Whatever, that’s it.” The male colleague always blushed.

Then, the male colleague forcibly explained to Leon, “I am a vegetarian recently in a diet I do not eat high-calorie food, salad and soda are good healthy alternative, green and healthy.” And Leon, raised the corners of his mouth and smiled coldly.

He could naturally tell the weight of the other party.

Losing weight is just an excuse.

In particular, the interpretation is really funny.

There’s is no need for a fat man with a swollen face.

Leon shook his head.

Today, that male colleague paid too much for pretending to be such a rich guy in front of Rachel.

Speaking of which, he should feel lucky.

mid-range western restaurants like this are not that very expensive.

The red wine ordered by Leon are not that high-end at all.

Although it is already the most expensive red wine in this restaurant, it is only a mid-range in the red wine industry.

If you have a bottle of Kandi or Lafite, you can lose a year’s salary.

Rachel felt much better when he witnessed all this and watched his male colleague be cheated by Leon.

In terms of relationship of course she is close enough to Leon.

As for her colleagues, there is certainly no deep friendship on the first day of employment.

The male colleague thought that if he was treating them today, he would be able to get into relationship with Rachel.

“I’ve put a lot of effort into this! it should be very effective, maybe I can get Rachel tonight!

And the man next to her is so stingy that he doesn’t pay for a dinner with a girl. This person must be single all his life!”

The male colleague sneered in his heart this helps him comfort to himself.

However, throughout the meal, Rachel was sharing food with Leon.

The two were sitting close together their shoulders are touching each other and their manners were intimate.

Although there was no act of excessive intimacy, but in the eyes of both sides, there are a special place for each other.

In particular, Rachel’s bright and clear eyes seem to be all over Leon.

When his male colleagues saw this, they felt like an outsider!

This western meal treat is for nothing!

At 10:00 in the evening, Leon and others came out of the restaurant.

Leon called a taxi and planned to take Rachel home first.

As they depart, Leon stroked Rachel's hair and told her, "If you have any trouble at work, call me immediately. Don't worry I'll be at your side instantly."

Rachel nodded and replied earnestly, "OK, I will rest well and work harder."

Rachel sets Leon as her goal strives to improve his ability, and decided to make a confession to Leon after narrowing the gap with him.

When Rachel was sent home safely, Leon returned to Beverly Mountain House.

Everyone around him doesn't know that his residence was the most luxurious and honorable villa in Quan Fairmount City.

He did a good job of keeping his secrets.

In addition of paying attention to his privacy, the community property also helps him kept this secret.

At least for now is not the time to be exposed.

Before leaving Fairmount, Leon does not want his identity to affect the progress of his task.

On the third day.

Leon came to the construction site early to check the progress of Tommy's work.

Tommy is so obedient to Leon that he will carry out Leon's orders.

Being fat was miserable but after the hellish training of Leon, he is about to develop his abs.

At this time, Tommy was drenched with sweat and decided to have a five-minute break.

He sat directly on the dusty ground, regardless of the image of his second young master Family Dani.

Leon nodded with satisfaction.

At that time, that street bully was about to be reborn the training of lifting bars in the construction site has achieved results.

“The re-engineering plan on the construction site has worked very well, Tommy. Let me ask you, are you happy now?”

Leon stood in front of Tommy looking down at him.

Tommy directly took a towel, wiped his sweaty face, and replied without hesitation: “Happy!” I am very happy to be in this group!”

Tommy dared not say “No”. It is tiring to sell coolies at the construction site, but it is also better than nothing.

In fact, Tommy is still very grateful to Leon from the bottom of his heart. During this period of time, he finally lost weight, and the fat that he could not lose by various methods in the past has now been thrown off.

It’s really hard, but compared before, this whole person’s character has taken a new look.

“As long as you’re happy, you can do anything. How about I give you a nick name let us call you Hammer?” Leon looks down at Tommy.

“Good! Nice! I like it!” Tommy nodded hurriedly.

“When your brother gets out of the hospital, I’ll give him one, too. You two can form a team.”

“I’m sure my brother will like it, too!”

Again, Tommy doesn’t dare to say he doesn’t like it.

Just then, a Hummer H2 drove into the construction site and stopped in front of Leon and Tommy.

The dust raised by the Hummer wheels cast a “thick fog” over the surrounding area.

At this time for some reasons there was no wind in the air, but the flying dust was dispersed by it air.

This subtle change is not noticed by the others at all.

At this moment, a one-eyed man came down from the Hummer H2.

It is the young master of Jerry, from Dani family.

Tommy shouted, “Brother, you are out of the hospital today!”

“Mm-hmm, Tommy Grandpa told me that you were at the construction site, and I didn’t believe it at first. Why do you think you have become so sloppy?” Jerry asked in surprise.

“It’s nothing. I think I am good now.” Tommy said, “what’s wrong with this? Grandpa sweeps the streets all day.”

“You look like a bear, you really put Family Dani to shame!” Jerry shouted angrily at his brother, then turned to look at Leon.

When he looked at Leon, his face was as gloomy as water:

“asshole!” What kind of drugs did you give to my brother? Today, I Jerry was discharged from the hospital your death is coming, I was taken away, I must take it all back! ”

When Jerry was blinded his left eye, he didn’t know what had happened to Family Dani.

And he hasn’t obeyed Leon, and is still thinking about revenge.

“monstrous beast! Get down on your knees! ”

Leon’s eyes, has been filled with coldness.

With a flick of his finger, Jerry knelt down in front of him.

Chapter 100 Loving care from the elders

Jerry got weak on his knees and knelt on the ground.

He tried to stand up, only to find that he could not control his legs at all.

“You! What did you do to me?! “Jerry roared at Leon like a mad lion.

“Used a little trick.” Leon glanced at Jerry, and said faintly.

This bizarre scene, in Jerry's view, are simply unbelievable.

A strong pressure was oppressing him, even making it impossible for him to look up.

“Why is that? What on earth have you done to me?!”

The hysterical shouts were interspersed with Jerry's fear of Leon.

“A little bit of love and care from the elderly.” Leon looked down at Jerry, with a faint sneer.

“You asshole! What an elder, who the fuck are you! I'm from Dani family, and I'm here to kill you!”

Jerry's right eye stared while the empty left eye are in sharp contrast, looked terrifying.

However, this is just a useless tiger.

Now, he can't even stand worst of all he can only talk.

Tis time, Leon held out his hand, pinched Jerry's neck and lifted it up half a meter above the ground.

The lifted Jerry's legs were limp, like two rotten noodles.

“How are you different from ants?”

Leon looked coldly at Jerry, the so-called young master of Family Dani.

The wealth of Family Dani is vast however it. Was all given, by the Johnson Family Without his family, there are no Family Dani today.

Boom!

With a slight wave of his hand, Leon saw Jerry flew more than five meters away as if he had been thrown into rubbish.

In an instant, Jerry's face was covered with blood, mixed with sand and covered with mud.

And his trouser has been soaked in urine.

“Well, it's a wet rubbish.”

Leon shook his head in disappointment.

He didn't expect that Jerry would pee his pants.

It seems that Leon are going to help Jerry to grow up next!

Jerry has completely lost his will to fight, and his heart is occupied by fear.

Strong! Too strong!

In front of him, I am as weak as ants! Jerry was amazed.

The hatred of losing his left eye is gone at that moment, and all he can think of is to apologize to save his life.

Just then, Tommy suddenly stepped forward.

Of course, he didn't fight Leon, but interceded for his brother.

“Master, please let my brother go. My brother has just been discharged from the hospital and doesn’t know what happened to our Family. Please give him a chance!”

Tommy are very sensible and sincere.

Even Jerry himself was “thoroughly enlightened” at this moment.

Dragging his weary body, he knelt in front of Leon and bowed several times.

“Please Master forgive me and spare my life, and I’ll be at you gratitude forever!”

In the face of danger, Jerry has no regard for his dignity as a Master Dani family he is willing to put down anything as long as he can save his life.

Of course, Jerry not only chose to surrender to Leon because of fear but also worshipped the strong!

He felt too weak in front of Leon, and Leon easily dealt with him as trampling on an ant.

Although you he can’t be as strong as Leon, he finally found a master.

“Jerry, do you know what’s wrong?” Leon gave a cold shout.

“I apologize for my mistakes! I knew I was wrong! I was the one who slandered you in the hospital that day. I was worse than a pig or a dog!”
Jerry nodded again and again.

“If you hadn’t brought it on yourself, your left eye would have been saved!” Leon said with certainty.

“Yes, now I have paid the price for my evil deeds, and I will follow you wholeheartedly in. You are my master in my heart and mind!”

Jerry said this from the bottom of his heart, not because he was afraid of Leon.

“I’ll give you a nickname, and I’ll call you Sickle. the rougher the name, the easier it is to feed!” Leon then gave Jerry a name.

Please, his little parody.

One is called Hammer, the other is called Hammer, this is called Hammer and sickled combined.

“The name is so funny. ” Jerry couldn’t help laughing.

“Oh, is that all right? only with a dog in your name can you reflect the kindness and care of your elders.” Leon smiled faintly.

Then Leon changed his face and solemnly warned: “From. now on, you and Tommy should never to do one more evil, or you will be like this brick!”

Leon picked up a brick and gently pinched it in his hand. The original solid brick turned into a pile of powder.

Upon seeing this scene, the two brothers Jerry and Tommy were deeply shocked!

“Master, we will listen to you!”

“Master, we would like to work hard!”

A gentle pinch from brick instantly turns into powder, which is in the eyes of the brothers, it is simply the existence of God!

“All right, you two go on with your voluntary work and I'll go for a drive and come over to check the results before evening.”

With these words down, Leon left the construction site in the Jerry's Hummer H2s.

Driving, Hennessy Viper GT, is so conspicuous in a city like Fairmount but driving a Hummer H2 almost means it.

The news of the two young masters of Family Dani going to the construction site for voluntary work are buzzing in Fairmount City.

Master Family Dani, who is usually arrogant and domineering, has recently become very low-key and even volunteered to do good deeds.

It's definitely a breaking news!

This has made headlines all over the city.

In fact, the two young masters of Family Dani went to the construction site to move bricks, even Dani are sweeping the street, such a comparison is really nothing.

When Dani sweeps the street, he wraps himself up so he cannot be easily recognized by others.

If they would be recognized, the whole city of Fairmount will be in a sensation.

Leon is the real behind-the-scenes player, now Family Dani is under his control.

Driving a Hummer H2 running on the road like a grumpy rhino.

Leon is going for a cold drink. It's really a good day to hang out.

Today's weather is particularly hot, he let Jerry his slave on the construction site to practice, not accepting defeat leaves a bitter taste on the mouth. But right here, there are a Porsche Palamera, forced to overtake Leon's hummer.

Then suddenly.

The rear of the Porsche collided with the bumper of the Leon's Hummer.

Since Hummer are known for their sturdiness Leon Hummer H6 is fine, but the malicious Porsche rear lights were broken.

Leon has a big look in his eyes, he hates people who don't know how to drive cars.

Before Leon got out of the car, he saw a woman wearing a lot of make-up coming down from the Porsche Palamera.

The woman walked angrily to the window of the Leon, slapping the glass and swearing as she stepped out.

"How do you drive on a car? Are you blind? I'm in a hurry to go to the beauty salon for cosmetology.

Do you have eyes or none? "
