

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1931-1940

Chapter 1931

The people of the Long family had long heard the commotion inside, but no one dared to approach.

Long Yuan smiled bitterly as he looked at the courtyard which was full of potholes and a mess, and was also quite helpless.

With a pig's head on his head, Long Yuan stood next to Long Kai Tian, and did not dare to be the first to speak.

Long Kai Tian frowned, his fingers gently tapping on the table, knocking out a sharp and disorganized sound, although looking at Long Kai Tian look calm, but this miscellaneous? The sound of the tapping was a mixture of sounds. The chaotic tapping sound is enough to show the true heart of the other party.

'Grand Elder, come over here with your ear.' Long Kai Tian beckoned towards the Eldest Elder and muttered a lot in the Eldest Elder's ear, Long Yuan's originally crying face gradually changed, only quite hesitant: 'This, will it work?'

'No need to say more, do as I instructed.' Long Kai Tian's tone was cold as he got up expansively and headed out, 'Hurry up and do it, I'm going to meet with that old thing Xu Bu Wei.'

It was only the next day that public opinion began to reverse.

Qingyang Pharmaceutical as well as the Yunfeng Hotel chain had hired a team of well-known lawyers to defend them on bail and to sue the Tianhai Group!

All sorts of news came out and the heat was so high that although netizens still didn't really want to believe it, the herd mentality was at work and people with a heart deliberately brought the rhythm, so more and more people joined the battle of public opinion!

The Yunfeng Hotel Chain Group said that the rip-off was secretly authorized by the Tianhai Group, and even showed some chat records, and some experts even assured with conviction that these chat records, there was no trace of PS.

The news of Qingyang Pharmaceutical was also endless, there were authorization documents from Tianji Pharmaceutical as well as formulas on it, the content and formulas were provided by Tianji Pharmaceutical, Qingyang Pharmaceutical was only responsible for the production.

In short, the backlash was that the matter had nothing to do with them, they had all been authorised by the Tianhai Group, and the two sides started a lawsuit.

A lawsuit is something that can continue to be pulled even if it is not justified, and it may even win.

It's okay to involve each other, but when you do that, then there's a problem, a problem with word of mouth on the internet.

So far, the official media has not come down, but rather a war of opinion between the two sides, with the Tianhai Group being so influential that it has started to constantly control public opinion, as well as clarify it.

Even a lawyer's letter was sent to a group of big V's who were bringing the rhythm around, but the other side was determined to do the same, and had no intention of stopping.

Although there was no winner in this battle, and both sides lost, the damage to the Tianhai Group and its subsidiaries was more serious, while Qingyang Pharmaceutical and Yunfeng Hotel Group became famous, and the situation became more and more uncontrollable.

The doubts about the Tianhai Group gradually increased, but the real killer of the Tianhai Group was still not used.

Vermilion Bird called Lin Hao over.

After listening, Lin Hao indicated that he was aware of the situation, and then hung up the phone carelessly.

‘Does it mean that the chief already knows all about it? No wonder the chief said he wanted to donate these industries to the country, so that’s what’s going on!’

‘Is the accumulation of capital overseas hitting the share price of the Tianhai Group? Oh, as long as this group is donated upwards, Tianhai Group will be state-controlled from now on, with China standing behind it, trying to pry up Tianhai Group’s share price is simply a fool’s dream!’

The admiration of Lin Hao rose to a huge level, and at the same time, he began to urge the donation of the group, and a series of evidence, the stone hammer has arrived in the hands of the various official media, the group and the branches of the various public relations departments, the same are holding back the big move.

The Lin family compound.

‘Daddy, when will you be free to take me out to play ah, so boring ah, bear two also want to go out to play, Xiaoshi more.’ Lin Ruoshi cocked her head and looked at her father in a very cute way.

‘Ho! The bear people will never be slaves, unless’

Bang!

Lin Hao was so angry and amused that he directly kicked the giant panda out, ‘Go away, find yourself a bamboo forest to take away the damage.’

Chapter 1932

If your own daughter wants to go out shopping, forget it, what's the point of you summoning a phantom spirit to join the fun?

'Dad, don't bully Xiong Xiong like that, okay? Although Xiong Er is a little bit second-rate, he's also Xiao Shi's pet.' Lin Ruoshi beamed, her eyes slightly reproachful.

'You're right, it's indeed quite two.' Lin Hao shook his head helplessly.

When Xiong Er, who had just run back, heard this, his black and white panda face, all black, ah, even if this master's master scolded him for being two, his dearest master actually said he was two too!

'Roar!'

Bear Two hammered his chest and roared towards Lin Hao: 'Duel! Scum human!'

'(∇ ~)

Che~~'

Lin Ruoshi and Lin Hao simultaneously rolled their eyes disdainfully towards Bear Two, then with their small hands holding their big hands, they ran off to go shopping.

‘Ho ho, wait for me! I’m wrong, can’t I?’ Bear two look not happy ah, rolling and crawling to catch up, that round panda? The panda’s round body is not only a good one, but also a good one. A round of wild chase, simply do not be too cute, naive and lovable appearance, on the road to turn back is really too big.

Lin Hao also did not stop bear two to follow, but now the illusion spirit master is still basically very rare, illusion spirit is even less.

So Lin Hao asked Xiong Er to shrink a bit and not be too shocking, and also not to spit in front of outsiders, otherwise he would be responsible for the consequences!

Although Xiong Er was not happy, he agreed.

Lin Ruoshi then rode on Bear Two’s neck and let Bear Two carry her to go shopping, happy as can be.

‘Scary, what’s this guy’s background, he’s actually using a giant panda as a pet to sneak around! The director of the zoo?’

‘F*ck off, the director of the zoo doesn’t have the authority to do that either. This is a panda on the street.’

Even though Lin Hao and the others had kept a low profile, they still exploded on the street, with countless people running around, taking pictures and talking about it!

Lin Hao felt that he and the others had become monkeys in a zoo and were being exhibited

‘I feel ah, this must be a certain big man, you think ah, people foreigners, but keep such fierce beasts as lions and tigers as pets ah.’ One of the young men with glasses frames and a svelte face excitedly recorded the video.

A fat man next to him slapped the gentle young man on the head: ‘Are you a pig? This is a giant panda, a national treasure! Can big brothers just keep pandas?’

‘Cough cough, actually this isn’t a giant panda, it’s a giant black lion dog, dyed by me to look like this.’ Lin Hao coughed awkwardly, ‘Can’t help it, my kids just love pandas.’

‘Dad, this isn’t a panda, it’s obviously Bear Two, okay.’ Lin Ruoshi beamed, very unhappy, a good child couldn’t just lie.

On the contrary, Xiong Er was very understanding and barked twice, following the example of the dog.

It dawned on the people around, haha, so it was really a dog, but how could it still look like a panda?

But the good thing is that there are fewer people around, and they even have nothing to tease Lin Hao.

Lin Hao couldn't take it anymore, so he took Lin Ruoshi and Xiong Er and ran to a deserted corner.

Lin Hao's face was full of depression: 'Xiao shi, let Xiong Er go back to rest, otherwise we won't be able to shop.'

'Why?' Lin Ruoshi looked at Xiong Er's pitiful appearance and was a bit intolerant.

'Roar! The bear people will never be slaves! If you can't go shopping, your bear life is incomplete!' Bear Two was also waving his paws in a rush to protest.

Then was then picked up by Lin Hao with one hand, limbs dangling in the air with a pitiful face, simply exactly the same as the panda expression bags that were particularly popular on the internet before.

‘Master’s master, I’m wrong, put me down.’

The second wimp can be okay.

‘It’s not that I don’t want to take you, the main thing is that this national treasure look of yours, the turnaround rate is really too high ah.’ Lin Hao couldn’t help it wasn’t.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1933-1934

Chapter 1933

‘Told you so! Ow!’ Bear Two leaned up to the sky and wolf-whistled as his size slowly began to change, eventually becoming a husky of similar size to him, still with about the same fur as the giant panda, a black and white husky, still topped with two black eyes.

But this time the most people saw meant a dyed husky, not a panda.

Lin Hao was all amazed: ‘This is even possible? What else can you turn into?’

Lin Ruoshi shook her head gently, indicating that there was nothing more, and that was it, each summoned illusionary spirit could only replace two looks, and since Bear Two had turned into a husky, then in the future it would either turn into its original look, or be this look of a husky.

What a waste!

After hearing Lin Ruoshi's explanation, this was Lin Hao's first reaction, it was too wasteful!

Since there was only one chance for two forms, what's wrong with you turning into a family demolishing husky.

Wouldn't it smell good to change into a qilin, or a dragon or something?

'So you guys are here, you made me search for a while.'

At this moment, a familiar voice rang out.

Lin Hao lifted his head in surprise, how did Xu Linglong come back? Wasn't she in charge of protecting the Heaven Sent Justice team to go?

'Wow, how come this husky is so beautiful and so big!'

Xu Linglong noticed the huge husky the next moment, it wasn't much obvious compared to Lin Hao, but when compared to the petite and delicate little cutie Lin Ruoshi, it was very obvious.

Xu Linglong happily squatted down and tried to pet Bear Two.

As a result, Xiong Er directly showed his teeth and was mean to Xu Linglong, as if he was going to pounce on her the next moment.

'Ah, so fierce, this dog.' Xu Linglong was so frightened that she hurriedly took several steps back.

Although she was a Grand Master, this Xiong Er was so fierce that she still caused Xu Linglong to take several steps backwards.

'No fierce sister.' Lin Ruoshi snapped at Bear Two's head in anger before she climbed onto Bear Two's back and smiled at Xu Linglong, 'Sister, don't be afraid, Bear Two doesn't bite.'

'Good for little Shi, he's gotten so big in the blink of an eye.' Xu Linglong looked at Lin Ruoshi rather emotionally and stroked Lin Ruoshi's head.

In the blink of an eye, Lin Ruoshi was already three years old.

Then she glanced at the husky again, always feeling a little odd: ‘Why do I feel like this dog is so smart, what’s with that wisdom-filled look?’

Lin Hao pulled Xu Linglong over and quietly whispered a few words, Xu Linglong’s mouth grew wide in shock and looked at the husky Lin Ruo Shi was riding with incomparable horror, ‘No, it’s not?’

‘Brother Lin Hao, why do I feel that Xiaoshi is going to be even more perverted than Lei Ling in the future?’

‘Nonsense! My master is the best, who can compare to that!’ Husky Bear II had a face of disdain, in his opinion, his master was the unique and most powerful being in the world.

‘Say say speak!’

‘This dog that was summoned can still talk!’

Xu Linglong stumbled words incomplete, feel the world view are going? Shan zero ground to cover Yi er zero? collapse.

It couldn’t be helped that the cultivation methods of Illusionary Spirit Masters had been passed on, but there were basically no Illusionary Spirit Masters who had actually revealed themselves at the moment, all having been hidden away by the major powers.

Even the Dragon Sect hadn't gone into detail about this, they were all feeling their way across the river.

Therefore, Xu Linglong was really shocked when she saw Xiong Er open his mouth.

Lin Hao took Xu Linglong and her daughter to find a quiet place to eat, the other party looked dusty, probably just returned from abroad.

Xu Linglong had indeed just returned and had first gone to the Lin family before coming over to look for Lin Hao.

Now Xu Linglong was no longer considered a member of the Xu family, her parents had been expelled from the Xu family and then bailed out by the Lin family and settled in the Lin family.

As she ate, Xu Linglong always looked at the panda sitting next to her, in a chair, with some curiosity, even suspicion of life.

It was true that pandas were omnivores, but why was this panda so humane, sitting on a chair like a second master, holding a pig's trotter and gnawing on it.

Chapter 1934

Especially when the husky turned into a panda, Xu Linglong's brain got stuck at that moment.

It was only after Lin Hao explained that Xu Linglong could barely get used to it, and looked at Lin Ruoshi with an expression of unspeakable envy.

‘I so want to own an illusionary spirit.’ Xu Linglong’s pretty face was filled with envy.

Lin Hao gave Lin Ruoshi a piece of tomato, but Lin Ruoshi picked up the spoon and plucked the tomato away, only to eat the egg, looking at the tomato with a disgusted look on her face.

‘No picky eating, tomato and egg together, and celery, eat more green vegetables to be able to grow, know it?’ Lin Hao looked at Lin Ruoshi with a slight frown.

‘No, this celery and tomatoes are not good at all! Celery also has a strange smell.’ Lin Ruoshi wrinkled her pretty face and shook her head like a rattle.

‘Fine, I’ll go back later, I won’t take you to play.’ Lin Hao had a stern face, little brat how old are you and you’re such a picky eater!

Lin Ruoshi heard, pouting? Xiwu Yi Er Di zero Lu Shan? The tomatoes were picked up with a frown, but she hesitated several times.

The tomatoes were obviously very tasty, but in her eyes, it was like eating Chinese medicine.

In the end, Lin Ruoshi ate it, but when it came to the celery, Lin Ruoshi hesitated many times but did not dare to eat it.

‘Eat quickly, if you eat slower than us, we will leave first and leave you here alone.’

Lin Ruoshi’s brow furrowed even more, gritting her teeth, she put the celery into her mouth, her whole little face twisted, the sourness, it was unbelievable!

Those who knew thought the girl was eating celery, those who didn’t thought the little girl was undergoing some kind of torture.

‘Alright little shi, if you really can’t eat it, just spit it out.’ Looking at Xu Linglong all felt a burst of heartache while looking at Lin Hao speechlessly, ‘In you, I feel like I see my parents’ figure When I was a kid, my parents nagged me the same way, true on earth!’

‘No, I want to hurry and finish eating, Xiaoshi is a good child who listens.’ Lin Ruoshi forced himself to endure the pain, plopped down a large mouthful of rice, frowned a little, will be celery tomatoes, all eaten up.

Lin Hao smiled and didn’t say anything.

He was the one who was most distressed to see his daughter suffering so badly, but children, nutrition should be balanced.

‘Dad, I’m done eating, let’s go play.’ Lin Ruoshi was the first to put down her rice bowl, wiped the corner of her mouth with a napkin and raised her head, looking at Lin Hao with a face full of expectation.

Lin Hao doted on Lin Ruoshi and picked her up, ‘Come on, let’s go play.’

Lin Ruoshi happily laughed in Lin Hao’s arms, her laughter clear and pleasant.

‘Right, brother Lin Hao, I came back because I have an important matter to tell you, something happened over at the Skyfall Justice Team.’ Only then did Xu Linglong react to her main business of coming back this time and almost forgot the whole thing.

‘Chen Tianyue and their team has quietly moved back to Jinling from overseas, although the manipulation of the overseas market is, slightly, troublesome, but the situation is okay. Only’

‘It’s fine, just say it directly.’ Lin Hao was also a little surprised, something that could make even Chen Tianyue find it troublesome, then things could really be quite troublesome.

As for where this team relocated to, Lin Hao didn't care.

According to what Chen Tianyue told Xu Linglong, it was that it seemed that overseas lobbyists had entered the Tianhai Group's stock market and were frantically scavenging the chips of the retail investors, fearing that they wanted to sit on the market, and that the amount of capital of the other party was not small, with a preliminary estimate of at least a hundred billion, or even two hundred billion!

You know, in the stock market, catching up is very scary!

If used properly, it can leverage ten times or even tens of times, which is very terrifying.

Against the Tianhai Group?

This is not surprising at all, the current situation of the Tianhai Group is somewhat troublesome, Lin Hao has also paid some attention, negative news began to appear constantly, this time to enter and then pry the market.

It is reasonable to say that under the current situation, the other party has one or two hundred billion dollars of capital, then want to pry the Tianhai Group's stock market, then it is really possible.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1935-1936

Chapter 1935

‘It’s alright, first go shopping with my daughter, we’ll talk about this later, you tell Chen Tianyue that he’ll also enter the market together, this time I’ll be running the show myself instead.’ Lin Hao suddenly became interested, it was idle anyway.

Lin Hao had personally formed this team, and that Chen Tianyue was even Lin Hao’s only disciple, so learning that Lin Hao was going to personally run the show almost didn’t make these team members go crazy with joy.

After shopping around for a while, when Lin Ruo Shi had had enough fun, Lin Hao took Lin ? The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. Ruo Shi went home, there was no way out, Lin Hao thought about the painful expression on the little girl’s face when he made her eat her vegetables during dinner, which made Lin Hao feel quite guilty.

After sending Lin Ruoshi back, Lin Hao drove with Xu Linglong to an upscale villa area in downtown Jinling.

‘Greetings, Taishan Fujun!’ The entire Skyfall Justice team was at the door to greet them, and when Lin Hao got out of the car, all of them greeted each other excitedly.

Especially the other members, this was an existence that was even more boss than Chen Tianyue!

‘No need to be formal, everyone, get back to work, next, have a good time with each other.’ Lin Hao waved his hand to the crowd, while the others went to work individually, the three of them went to Chen Tianyue’s office.

In the office Lin Hao called Zhuque, asking him to hold off on donating the group to China, while asking the other party to cooperate with his actions.

‘Copy that!’ Zhu Que hung up the phone excitedly, had the chief started to act?

She had already received a report from Yunruo that there were lobbyists entering the Tianhai Group’s stock market, that meant that the other party wanted to make a move!

Mo Tianji and their few branches, at Lin Hao’s suggestion, they didn’t go public, instead they couldn’t attack directly, they could only target their company through offline conventional means.

Pah!

Chen Tianyue lit a cigarette and handed one to Lin Hao: ‘Boss, have one?’

Lin Hao took it and pinned it to his ear but didn’t smoke it: ‘How’s it going? How’s the other side’s advancement?’

‘Probably almost eighty billion dollars already!’ As soon as he said the business Chen Tianyue came to life: ‘Now Tianhai Group has a slight problem with its reputation, but the stock is trading very heavily, but it hasn’t dropped much, this is the reason why the other side is frantically scouring the retail investors and continuously injecting funds.’

Lin Hao was a bit speechless, 'They shouldn't be trying to use the almost 200 billion to just try to short-sell, right?'

Shorting aka smashing the market!

It was an attempt to completely play dead the stock price of the Sky Ocean Group.

'Boss, want us to go in and play a few hands with him? Now we are also rich and powerful, we are able to mobilise a trillion dollars out at any time, sell off the rest of the board, and directly fight with them for real.' Chen Tianyue was excited, since it was the boss himself, that was all the money taken out for Lin Hao to lose, he didn't even bring any heartache.

'Not so much, not so much!' Lin Hao was very amused, 'We'll follow suit and help him smash it, we'll eat as much as he throws out!'

'What? Boss, you, how much do you hate the Tianhai Group, smashing your own plate? Is there such a game?' Chen Tianyue was dumbfounded, what was this all about? Before, he said he wanted to destroy the Tianhai Group, but now that the group was in trouble, instead of trying to solve the problem, the boss wanted to smash the market! 'Yes, smash the plate!'

Lin Hao had a meaningful smile on his face, 'When I get mad, I beat myself up!'

'Tianhai Group is nothing, smash, smash to death!'

Chen Tianyue looked at Lin Hao with uncertainty, Xu Linglong though didn't quite understand looked at Lin Hao: 'Lin Hao, although I don't know much about this stock thing, but if this crazy smash together, what will be the consequences? Bankruptcy ah!'

'The other party isn't thinking of cutting a wave of leeks, but they want to smash this thing down, or even acquire the Tianhai Group and make it bankrupt ah.' Xu Linglong was puzzled: 'Aren't we lifting with the other party? If the other party wants to smash it down, we will stabilize the stock price or even lift it up ah.'

'If it's the other party that is running for shorting, then smashing all the way down, Tianhai Group will go bankrupt.'

Chapter 1936

'Yes, it will go bankrupt, but we follow a piece of smashing, do you really think that the shares in their hands will be able to surpass us?' Lin Hao grinned, as long as he occupied more than sixty percent of the shares to qualify for the compulsory acquisition.

'Enter together and start acquiring the shares in the hands of the retail investors, take as many as you can and raid them all.' Without any hesitation, Lin Hao contacted Mo Tianji, Jun Wuhuo and Gu Yue at the same time.

These three branches were not listed, and although they would suffer more from the Tianhai Group's stock turmoil, but not to the extent of breaking their bones, so Lin Hao demanded that they squeeze out all the cash flow in the shortest possible time, to be used at all times!

Although Mo Tianji didn't understand, they knew that it looked like Lin Hao was about to make a big move.

As for Vermilion Bird's side, Lin Hao didn't even bring it into contact, as far as Vermilion Bird's god-tier brain mending ability was concerned, he would probably make a move.

As expected, Vermilion Bird contacted Yun Ruo and secretly stopped the injection of funds into the Tianhai Charity Fund, while even the remaining funds of the Tianhai Charity Fund, which were not used for the time being, were injected into another account of the Tianhai Group.

The auditing of the Tianhai Charity Fund began to intensify, and the pace of grant distribution began to slow down.

At the same time Zhu Aizen Aifu Lu Yi'er covered? The bird got a report from his men that the three branches were gathering a large amount of cash flow, and Zhu Zhu also began to have the Tianhai Group begin an industrial contraction, with some unnecessary industries simply abandoned, and began to gather cash flow quickly.

Even before the banks reacted, they began to lend in large quantities. For such big customers, the banks there were naturally happy to do so and began to lend money to the Tianhai Group.

Together with the identity of Zhuque in, as soon as he stepped in, the banks took the initiative to open up their silos and release the food.

It can be said that from the very beginning of this battle, the Tianhai Group was already invincible.

The reason why he did this was because Lin Hao wanted to cut a wave of leeks, and by the way, he wanted to find out how many people were trying to stab him in the back!

Three days had passed and there was a lot of negative news about the Tianhai Group, but the share price was very stable and even trending upwards, and the upward trend was still very obvious.

Those retail investors who had originally left the market also found out and regretted it. After all, retail investors are existences who smell the wind and are convinced of those so-called gossips in particular.

It's just that these so-called gossips are actually put out by the real traders.

‘Boss, there is already a lot of capital coming down right now, and according to the investigation, the first to enter the market is estimated to be the capital gathered overseas by the Xu family and the Long family.’

‘There are at least four capitals that have entered in succession, not counting us.’ Chen Tianyue’s face became a little ugly, the scene was gradually getting out of control, this was not a good sign.

This was not a good sign. The other side was rampant and had a lot of money, so they were not playing around.

Lin Hao, however, was winning and didn’t make any moves. Now the whole team, under Lin Hao’s order, four hundred billion dollars, had all been smashed in, and under the negative news, this stock surprisingly stayed high, froze and did not go down, but went up a lot.

‘Boss, this is surrounded by wolves, it’s not easy to get.’ Chen Tianyue also wanted to circle Lin Hao, they shouldn’t have entered with these guys in one piece, otherwise, the subsequent situation would be really bad.

Now they were in a dilemma, right now, if they left the market, they were already making a lot of money, but once they left the market, then Tianhai Group’s share price would plummet.

True. Crazy up themselves to fight.

What if they don’t back out? What would be the consequences then? Not only the Tianhai Group, including the four hundred billion dollars that had been smashed in, would all evaporate.

Unless they mobilised the five hundred billion dollars at full strength, plus on the part of the Tian Hai Group, at full strength, the situation was bad!

Lin Hao looked at the computer display, the trend that was drifting red all the way, and stretched out, 'Prepare for action, once the market opens, sell the maximum limit, make sure to sell all the chips in the shortest time again!'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1937-1938

Chapter 1937

'Boss, this will blow up.' Chen Tianyue are silly.

But Lin Hao has long ago taken Lin Ruo Shi away, the rest is basically Chen Tianyue this team to death, Lin Hao every day nothing to take Lin Ruo Shi to a trip.

The feeling one gets is that the Tianhai Group has nothing to do with him and the hundreds of billions this team has thrown in have nothing to do with him, just like a pile of scrap paper.

Chen Tianyue became slightly suspicious of even Lin Hao, was he really going to beat 'himself'? And still the first to do it!

It was like a person who, knowing that a group of people around him were going to beat him up, first slapped himself twice and then shouted at the others, 'Come on, I've already done it myself, why don't you guys get on and beat me up?'

Chen Tianyue sat in his office with a complicated look on his face.

‘I believe him.’ Xu Linglong’s cold voice rang out, and Chen Tianyue looked up expressively, meeting Xu Linglong’s gaze.

Chen Tianyue met Xu Linglong’s unwavering gaze, Chen Tianyue could not wait to slap himself in the face, how could he doubt the judgement of Taishan Fujun Lin Hao?

Chen Tianyue rushed out of his office: ‘Everyone! All of you, move! As fast as you can, throw out all the chips you have! Make a fortune!’

The Qin family in the capital, the Wang family in the southern city (the family controlled by the Yuehai clan), the Long family in Jinling, and the Xu family, the people in charge of these four major families, were all in a secret room, and in each of them, there were countless instruments and equipment, as well as a group of financial manipulators who were constantly reporting the situation.

These clans also got the news at the same time that at least the five great clans had entered!

The South City Wang Family was on the scent of the news and did not contact the Jinling side, but on the contrary, Long Kai Tian, took the initiative to contact the Qin Family for joint action.

Xu Buwei and Long Kai Tian met alone.

In the study.

Xu Buwei was the first to speak, 'Master Long, three of the forces have already been clarified, as for the other two, it is still unclear, I am afraid it is not quite right to make a move at this time.'

'Proper, what's not proper?' Long Kai Tian smiled, 'Our three families have gathered more than a trillion dollars, enough to completely swallow this huge piece of cake, the Tian Hai Group! As for the other two forces, one of them doesn't have much money, it's like a hundred billion, not enough to be feared.'

'As for that one strand, with around four hundred billion dollars of lobbying capital, I dare to conclude that it must be the means of the Tianhai Group, the three major branches recently, the Tianhai Group is converging cash flow in a frenzy, indicating that they already want to fight against us.'

'Indeed.' Xu Buwei nodded, that was true. It was just that the leverage of the stock market was terrifying, and the cash flow gathered by the three great families was enough to knock the Tianhai Group out of the sky and into the dust, with no possibility of a turnaround ever again!

'Since that's the case, let's follow the plan, starting tomorrow, throw out those pressurized items and start preparing for the sell-off, leading those retail investors to start smashing the market! After Long Kai Tian finished speaking, Xu Bu Wei and Long Kai Tian both had smug smiles on their faces.

After the Tianhai Group truly fell apart and was forcibly acquired by them, I wonder what the expression of Lin Hao and the Lin family would be?

Not to mention taking over the Tianhai Group at an extremely low price, and then making a wave of clarifications when the time came, it was all self-directed anyway, on top of the Tianhai Group, it was a matter of minutes for the stock to pick up, it wasn't just a blow to the enemy, it was also a vicious profit!

'No, it's not good family head!' Long Yuan wiped his cold sweat and ran in in a panic not knowing what to do.

Shan Pao Zero Shan Xi Deng Xi Zero? Boom!

A terrifying and incomparable aura violently erupted from Long Kai Tian's body, the mighty pressure of a half-step Xuan Master was not a joke.

Poof!

Under the terrifying pressure, Long Yuan's face turned pale as he spat out a mouthful of blood furiously and flew backwards.

Long Kai Tian said coldly, 'What's the sense of panic, the sky isn't falling down!'

A strange look flashed across Xu Buwei's wrinkled face, and after a serious stare at Long Kai Tian and the raging aura on his body, a flash of scorn flashed across Xu Buwei's face.

Chapter 1938

Long Yuan climbed up with difficulty, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and walked to the door, knocking gently on the door, 'Family Head, Grand Elder Long Yuan requests to see you, he has something important to report.'

'Come in.' Long Kai Tian's face was indifferent? 西零爱意西意拂陆?

'Report to the family lord, someone has suddenly sold off a large amount of chips, causing a small trend down.' Long Yuan wiped his cold sweat and spoke cautiously, looking at Long Kai Tian with a look full of scorn.

Today's Long Kai Tian was no longer the same dude he was back then, and now Long Yuan was full of scruples and apprehension when facing this young man.

'Eat it all, throw as much as you can, and don't rush to throw until it's time to act.' Long Kai Tian spoke breezily, picking up his tea and taking a gentle sip.

'Yes, Family Head.' Long Yuan retreated, but when he saw the way Long Kai Tian was strategizing, Long Yuan was not worried anymore.

Thus, the next thing that happened was that Chen Tianyue's team frantically sold off, and these few families, all of them, ate it all up without hesitation.

The four hundred billion chips, including those retail investors who were sniffing around, all the chips that were sold out, were all eaten up by these three big families.

The end result is that after this wave of eating, there is not much money left in the three big families, basically they are all trapped in it.

They weren't worried, as they would be selling off soon anyway.

The next morning, the negative news about the Tianhai Group began to spread all over the place, and it was impossible to suppress it, and it seemed that the Tianhai Group had no intention of suppressing the negative news.

Some of the negative news was even put out by Chen Tianyue's team personally, and all of them were talking about this matter in the universal highlands.

This was even passed on directly to overseas, leaving those overseas shareholding capital dumbfounded.

However, they quickly reacted to the fact that there had been negative news before, but Tianhai Group's shares were still flying high.

So, the sell-off began!

The three big families also started selling like crazy, selling off their shares to the maximum extent.

South City, the Wang family!

This family was originally controlled by the Yuehai clan and wanted to get a piece of the pie, so they naturally followed suit and kept selling!

Originally, the stockholders were still very confident and honeyedly confident in the Tianhai Group, after all, there was a small fluctuation yesterday, but it still recovered and has been staying high.

Even with the negative news flying around now, people still believe that Tianhai Group will not fall.

But today, it still fell, precipitously!

From all the way in the red to all the way in the green!

The stockholders panicked and started selling, but the predators inside were selling to the maximum, directly blocking the way back for these retail investors, so they couldn't grab the opportunity to sell at all!

Lin Hao was teasing Lin Ruoshi and chatting with Shen Xiyan in the Lin family compound when he received a call from Chen Tianyue: 'Boss, it's green, they've started selling like crazy and have completely blocked the retail investors, they don't give them a chance to escape.'

'Oh? Is that so?'

'Isn't that normal, what about the sell-off?' Lin Hao didn't feel any surprise.

'There should be a sequential withdrawal, I'm afraid we'll have to withdraw all the funds before we give the retail investors a chance.' Chen Tian Yue's face was furious, these bastards! What a desperate move!

In the past, even if he was ruthless, he would open an opening and leave a few minutes to give the retail investors a chance to escape, but as a result, these guys now, totally want to block all these retail investors and pull out all the leek roots.

'Hmm, got it, by the way, how much did we make this time when we made the first move?'

‘Eh??’ How could Chen Tianyue not expect that Lin Hao would actually have the heart to care about this.

‘Five, more than fifty billion this way.’ Chen Tianyue sighed, throwing in four hundred billion, making fifty billion in just a few days, an absolute windfall.

Only, once he thought that this group was created by Lin Hao, Chen Tianyue felt a headache.

‘Alright, next, continue to spread gossip, no entry without my order, meanwhile, continue to gather cash flow.’ After saying that Lin Hao directly hung up the phone.

Chapter 1939

While Chen Tianyue on the other end of the phone was in a state of windy confusion, Lin Hao acted as if nothing had happened.

‘Lin Hao, it’s the matter of the Tianhai Group, right?’ Although Shen Xiyan no longer cared about the Tianhai Group, she was still concerned about it, and probably knew what was happening these days.

‘Well, the stock has dropped like crazy, and it was me who took the lead.’ Lin Hao laughed heatedly.

‘Jie Jie Jie’ Lin Ruoshi, the quirky girl, was beside herself with an incomparable matching eerie laugh.

Pah!

Lin Hao slapped Lin Ruo Shi’s head with no good grace, ‘Starting to skin again aren’t you? Go and play with your little aunt.’

‘Ouch, that hurts! I’m not smart in the first place, and you’re still hitting me on the head, what if you hit me silly!’ Lin Ruoshi beamed, her face full of aggression, incomparably cute, holding her head and squatting in defence.

‘Little Shi, this child has been smart since she was little.’ Shen Xiyan looked at Lin Ruoshi in good humour and amusement.

The corners of Lin Hao’s mouth twitched, he didn’t expect Shen Xiyan to know the stigma of being smart since she was a child.

‘Got it, got it, you guys falling in love is God’s will, and my appearance is the accident that happened when you fell in love.’ Lin Ruoshi puffed up and hugged Xiong Er and left, her young heart taking tons of damage.

Looking at Lin Ruoshi’s back as she bounced away with Bear Two in her arms, the Lin Hao couple’s two eyes were filled with dotting smiles.

‘I feel ah, Xiao shi will be smarter than that girl Ling’er in a few years.’ Shen Xiyang’s face was filled with pride.

Lin Hao raised his eyebrows, ‘That’s right, don’t even look at whose daughter it is.’

Shen Xi Yan was angry and amused, but there was no way to refute her, after all, it was her own daughter.

Shen Xi Yan wanted to ask Lin Hao about the Tian Hai Group, but Lin Hao told Shen Xi Yan to leave it alone, there was no need to waste that thought, mainly because it would not help.

This time, Lin Hao is using the last vestiges of the Tianhai Group to play a game with those who are hostile to him, and after this, the Tianhai Group will really have little to do with him.

When Lin Hao said this, Shen Xi Yan could not say anything.

The negative news is still going on, the four big families are selling like crazy, all the way down, down every day, occasionally slightly floating, but all to no avail!

This is due to the operation of the four great families, who are playing under their leadership, together with the negative news and the thoroughly panicked retail investors who are pushing the envelope.

They blocked the key to the retail investors' escape, who simply could not escape until after they had finished their retreat.

But the four big families turned around and used low prices to eat up all the chips thrown out by the retail investors, so the Tianhai Group did not have the slightest upward momentum, instead the four big families hand ? The four big families are the only ones who have the chips. The chips in the company are getting bigger and bigger, already approaching 40 percent of the shares.

The game to the back, but the opponent is gone, which makes the Long Kai Tian they some headache, playing the opponent disappeared, then there is no point ah!

'How could this happen?' Long Kai Tian was very puzzled, the forty percent of shares controlled by the Tian Hai Group now, dead set on not throwing it out!

And for the first time, the other side had gathered so much cash flow, but they had only just started to withdraw after just one wave, or they were the first to retreat.

Are they afraid ?

Or did they want to liquidate a wave and just leave the market ?

However, a message came from the Qin family in the capital: keep smashing!

Long Kai Tian gritted his teeth and ordered down, continue to smash, even if the Tian Hai Group is dead set on not selling out those chips, we still have to eat up all the retail chips, as long as it reaches 60% of the shares, we can still propose a compulsory acquisition!

At this point, the prestige of the Tianhai Group is no longer there, and there are even more curses.

How long has it been?

It's only been a short week, and the share price has fallen to an unbearable level.

You need to build up your reputation over time!

But it took the blink of an eye for the reputation to crumble.

‘See Xiyan, maintaining word of mouth is such a difficult thing, crumbling up is a blast in a flash, why do we bother with something so tiring.’ Lin Hao chuckled, looking at the curses on the internet and couldn't help but feel emotional.

Chapter 1940

Rather, he had been plucked out of the Sky Ocean Group for over three years and no one had linked it to him.

‘Therefore, you’re still planning to destroy it.’ Shen Xiyan didn’t care too much anymore.

‘Well, that’s hard to say, I’ll go out.’ Lin Hao drove to where Chen Tianyue and his team were.

At the moment, the entire team’s office was filled with smoke and sad clouds.

They felt that this was already powerless ah, utterly powerless, either follow a piece of the smashing to share the pie, want to bring the share price back, unless the gods come down to earth!

‘Boss!’

Lin Hao walked into the office and saw this scene in front of him and frowned: ‘What are you doing? Where’s the mourning? I’m not dead yet!’

‘No, Boss this has run out of ideas.’ Chen Tianyue was speechless.

Lin Hao rolled his eyes, ‘What I said from the beginning was to smash the market, ah, do you understand shorting? Now there is someone to help us short, we pick the fruit, it does not smell good?’

‘Start doing it, we will eat as many chips as they put in, and will not sell another chip to the public!’ Lin Hao ordered directly.

The crowd came to life and began to act quickly, although they didn’t know why, this was his group in the first place, yet they had to use this shorting tactic to toss the Tianhai Group.

No matter what, it felt a bit strange!

Chen Tianyue had wanted to retort by asking why Lin Hao was doing this?

They were all clear about how huge the Tianhai Group was, and now in order to destroy it, the financial team on this side, they were also spending so much money to lose in.

The money, which was scavenged by the entire team day and night overseas, the effort they had put in, was just going to be ruined?

Chen Tian Yue was not willing to do that!

Thus the lofty respect for Lin Hao, the confidence of the invincible had suffered a shake at this moment.

‘Everyone, do as the boss says.’ Chen Tianyue once again gritted his teeth and gave the order, then looked at Lin Hao, the other party still had a natural expression, even a little cold.

‘Boss, go to my office.’ Chen Tianyue entered his office with a stifled breath.

Lin Hao followed closely behind, and after the two of them entered the office, the members of this team began to murmur.

‘Why do I get the feeling that Boss Chen is a little suspicious?’

‘Shut up and do what we need to do!’

‘No, this is the money we’ve spent countless hours getting, I’m starting to wonder, is it really just beating ourselves up? Why don’t we just think of another way out.’

‘Yeah, with what we have, we can just play how we want to for the rest of our lives ah.’ The second-in-command in the team was also deeply sceptical.

The others were also in their own minds, they were already beginning to doubt themselves and even felt unworthy for Chen Tian Yue.

In the office.

Chen Tianyue and Lin Hao sat on opposite sides, Lin Hao looked at Chen Tianyue with a bland gaze, but it was Chen Tianyue who had a somewhat complicated look on his face.

‘Have you thought about what you want to do in the future?’ Lin Hao was the first to speak.

Chen Tianyue was silent.

The muscles on his face twitched and his hands, which were placed under the table, gradually clenched into fists.

‘You are given a day to think about it, including your team... Either return to the field, disband your team and go back to your retirement, or, continue to pick up your weapons and keep galloping.’

Chen ? Closed service dyeing Shanwu picking up the service ? Tian Yue continued to be silent, not knowing what to say.

Lin Hao, however, had already departed, and it was just two simple words, with no further words.

This game, too, had come to a complete end. The wind accompanied the song of the dawn.

Ringing the bell of destiny.

It is the lamp of the night that does not go out.

The star is twinkling, breaking free from the darkness of the fallen

The song lingers in the courtyard, Lin Hao is in the darkness of the swing, gently swinging, the courtyard is silent, only the vines of the swing make a soft sound.

At this moment, it was as if Lin Hao had completely merged into the thick darkness.

The courtyard was dark and there was not a hint of light.

‘Ma Ma, what’s wrong with Daddy today?’ Mother and daughter were curled up under the covers in the darkened room, the silent night, with only that song lingering, when Lin Ruoshi took the lead in breaking the silence.
