"I didn't ..." How could Tang Xiao Ai dare to have such thoughts? She never thought of using Zhong Yuqing as a backer. Shen Mo's lesson would be enough to make her suffer for the rest of her life.

"Really?" Qin Gaoning sneered, "Now that you've signed the contract with me, think about your future. If you violate the contract and do something, you should know the consequences."

"There won't be a next time!" Tang Xiaoyi thought back to the fact that Zhong Yuqing had taken her leave of absence from school and would never return to school, so she immediately made a promise.

"Originally, I wanted to let you become Li Xiyi's MV female lead, but it looks like you don't even know how to be an artist ..." Qin Junning stared at Tang Xiaosi, observing the changes in her expression. If it were any other artiste, even if they didn't have enough brains, they would still understand the meaning behind his words. They would still think of ways to obtain such a role.

One of the best ways for a minor artist to rise to the top was to use the glory of other celebrities to become famous overnight.

In this way, countless fame and fortune would follow.

However, Tang Xiao Yi had let Qin Junning down. Her expression was the same as before, as if she didn't understand what the great star Li Xi Yi represented.

"Think about it. Think about how you're going to pay your debt." Qin Junning was angered by her silent and clear eyes. How was he going to compete for the position of an artiste in the entertainment industry in the future?

Thus, Qin Junning could only give her financial pressure. After he finished speaking, he stood up and walked out.

Upon hearing the debt, there was a change in Tang Xiao Yi's expression. She even had a debt of two hundred thousand yuan. To a top celebrity, a business show was enough to earn two hundred thousand dollars, but to her, it was a huge sum of money.

Furthermore, Li Xiyi's female lead would receive a reward of 100,000 yuan. At that time, she had already advanced the 100,000 yuan, so she never thought of changing the female lead.

"Oh right, your father called you. It seems like two hundred thousand isn't even enough to deal with him ..." After walking a few steps, Qin Junning stopped and said.

"What?" This time, Tang Xiao Ai did not have an indifferent expression. Her phone calls had all been picked up by the company, so a few days ago it was like an army closed off life with very little contact with the outside world.

"I got some money from you. If you want to reunite with your family during the new year, you'd better contribute to the company. I'm not going to raise an artist who will only make the company lose money." As soon as his hand touched the doorknob, a smile appeared in his eyes.

Her family and financial situation were the worst weaknesses.

"Chairman Qin, it's all my fault. Please give me another chance!" Tang Xiao Yi had already jumped off the bed and rushed towards him. She grabbed his arm, not wanting him to open the door and leave like this.

Qin Junning turned around, the smile in his eyes vanishing as his angry expression remained on his face, "The opportunity is given to the prepared person. If you keep on wanting to be an otherworldly expert and live in seclusion here, then I will let you have your wish come true ..."

"I'm ready. Please think about it again. I will do my best, until you are satisfied." Tang Xiao Ai no longer cared about her underwear and forcefully blocked the door. Just like what Qin Jin Ning said, when she took pictures of her underwear, she was often pointed out by the photographer, so she didn't need to be that shy.

"Satisfy me?" Qin Junning rubbed his chin, looking at her eager appearance in front of the door, suddenly wanting to test her bottom line.

"Yes, I will do my best." Tang Xiao Yi felt that there was something strange with his gaze. It was as though he was looking at her upper body, causing her to want to put on her clothes first.

"That MV is under my personal supervision. Do you know how many female celebrities wish to hook up with Li Xi Yi?" A trace of a smile appeared on Qin Junning's lips as he slowly inched closer to her, his body exuding an undisguised, evil aura. "Or rather, how many people would want to catch up to me? They've been trying their best to climb into my bed ..."

"Qin..." Mister Qin, please behave yourself. " Tang Xiao Yi didn't even bother to call out to Chairman Qin. He moved so close to her that it made her hair stand on end. Behind her was the door, and she couldn't even retreat if she wanted to.

You are a newcomer without any background. If you want to have such a good start, you have to pay a price." As if he had not heard her words, Qin Junning placed a hand on her shoulder, which she wanted to avoid, and lowered his head. His lips lightly touched her earlobes, and he spoke in a low, hoarse voice.

Tang Xiao Ai's face was pale and pale. This was the first time she had encountered such a situation; her heart was filled with fear and disgust.

Even though she was kissed by Shen Mo Qiang before, Shen Mo was someone whom she had secretly fallen in love with for three years.

What was Qin Junning to her now? Although it was just a timely moment in her predicament, Qin Junning would never make a loss in his business. Wasn't the purpose of signing her over just to squeeze even more benefits out of her in the future?

Although this young director was popular among female artists and had a good body, Tang Xiaoyi only felt that he was very scary. Especially when she thought about how he was involved with countless other artists, Tang Xiaoyi, who grew up in a small town and had a conservative mindset, felt that he was like a plague.

"I... I can give my all and work hard, but... "But it doesn't give up its body."
Tang Xiao Ai did not want to be involved in any unwritten rules. It was only the beginning, and if she was dragged down into the endless abyss, even if she gained fame and fortune in the future, she might not be able to find him.

"Oh?" Qin Junning raised his eyebrows and slightly moved away from her, looking at her face up close. This was the first time since he had stepped into this circle that a woman had clearly rejected him.

"If I really can't get this character, I can wait for the next opportunity ..."
Tang Xiao Ai tilted her head, trying to distance herself from him.

"What if we don't have another chance?" "You have a very good figure, so you need to bring it out to use. Women's youth is always very short, so you don't need to use it now. In ten years, when you want to use it, you'll find that the man has gone to the side of a younger girl."

"So I never thought of eating with my youth." Tang Xiao Ai trembled from his touch and said in a trembling voice, "To me, the real deal is not my body."

"What is that?" Thought? Wisdom? "Brain?" Qin Junning hooked up her corset belt and suddenly loosened it, the elastic strap striking back against her shoulder, producing a crisp sound. "Then use your brain to think about how you're going to pay your debt."

With that, he pushed Tang Xiaoyi to the side, opened the door and walked out.

"Little Zhang, rearrange the female lead for the MV. Send me the list of names for the previous talent show once again..."

Tang Xiao Yi listened to the distant sound of Qin Jun. She slowly squatted down on the ground and realised that she could not contradict his words. He was very angry and might have hidden it away for three years, but what could she do? Sacrifice? She did not want to be reduced to a pitiful means of survival. She wanted to live well, to enjoy all the pleasures of life, just like how she had lived in the past. Even if it was suffering, she had lived happily.

"Little love? Can I come in?" Xiaoxi's voice came through the crack in the door. He knocked on the door and asked.

The door was never closed, so when he knocked on it, a bigger crack appeared immediately.

"Give me a minute." Tang Xiao Ai reached out her hand to the door, afraid that others would see her current appearance.

After putting on a sweater, Tang Xiao Yi opened the door and smiled at Xi. "Didn't you say you were going to practice the zither in the afternoon? Why is he still here?"

"Just now ..." Are you okay? " When Xiaoxi heard Qin Junning's phone call, he seemed to be arranging a list of the MV's female lead. There was a hint of anger in his voice, telling him to come over quickly and check out the situation of his' neighbor '.

"I'm fine." Tang Xiao Ai revealed a confused expression, "Why do you look so nervous?"

In the afternoon, the supervisor came to find us and ask where you were. Following that, Chairman Qin came over. I saw him entering your room at the peephole.

"It's nothing. I just went out to get some fresh air and got caught." After all, they were the weaker group. If you added in the fact that they had no power or influence, it would be even harder for them to ascend the heavens, so they could only unite a bit, so they could help each other out if anything happened.

C32

Seeing her calmly say that she was caught sneaking out, Xiaoxi was shocked, "How did you get out?"

"I got a ride." Tang Xiao Yi let Xi come in and sit down while she found her clothes.

"That's a good idea! If I don't get a job in a while, I'm going to sneak out and take a look. " Although Xiao Xi had only known Tang Xiao Yi for a few days, he had already considered this girl, who was very reliable and did not talk much, as a friend. He even told her about this 'secret 'matter.

"You want to be caught too?" Tang Xiao Yi found a few pieces of clothing and stood up, looking at Xiao Xi who was sitting on the chair.

"I'm not a very important person to observe, and I won't be notified so as long as I can sneak out, no one will notice me." Xiao Xi said with a smile.

"I'm going to take a shower first. Think about it carefully. If you get caught, you're dead for sure." Tang Xiao Yi took the clothes and walked into the washroom while giving Xiao Xi advice.

Tang Xiao Ei was soaking in the bathtub, thinking about what had happened today when she suddenly heard an earth-shattering knock on the door.

"Little sister love, I heard that you've been caught today ..." KIKI was indeed a musician. His voice was so loud that it made the soundproofed room vibrate.

Tang Xiao Ai revealed a wry smile. 'This really is a Nazi concentration camp!'

As the days passed leisurely, Tang Xiao Yi did not receive any notice of training nor did she see Qin Jun again in the past three days.

If they were in school, it would be soon the end of the exam. Everyone would be so excited that they would be returning home to celebrate the new year.

But to Tang Xiaoyi, there was only endless distress.

It was as if she was imprisoned in this building. If she wanted to contact anyone outside, she would have to obtain permission.

Standing in the self-service hall on the third floor, there were still different levels to the dining room, but it wasn't as strict as the dormitory. Because as long as they had money, even a minor celebrity could go to District A for a meal.

There were three other artists as poor as her, KIKI, Xiaoxi, and a straightforward Northeast girl.

Xiaoxi had been a graphic model before and had a bit of savings, but since she signed in here, she had never received a job, so she ate sparingly. She also ate in the E Block with Tang Xiaoyi and KIKI.

Actually, the buffet's food was also very sumptuous. However, because they were in the E District, the newbies here would always be looked down upon by other celebrities.

Therefore, many newbies or young masters and young ladies with good families would rather spend money to eat in other districts than to eat here free of charge.

"It's getting quieter and quieter here." KIKI held the plate and looked around. There were only a few people sitting around, including the three of them. There were only about a dozen people and they looked very depressed.

"There weren't many newcomers this year anyway." Little Xi comforted herself.

"Yeah, it's just that we've always been newbies." Tiantian wasn't a model, she was just a small role model. She only took on jobs twice, and she couldn't even be compared to those extras.

"There are more than 20 people who have entered the company with us, but more than half of them have received jobs and are starting to run off to report. They also have their own little fan club. They dress brilliantly every day and come into contact with all kinds of rich and powerful society figures ..." The more KIKI spoke, the more discouraged she became. The person that she had gone to so much trouble to talk to was actually a driver!

"Didn't you say the other day that you would be satisfied just by eating and drinking?" Tang Xiao Yi couldn't help but smile. It seemed like KIKI wasn't without pursuits.

"Do you get bored occasionally?" KIKI sighed. She sometimes wanted a better life.

People were always lacking in greed, and compared to the past when he was a keyboard player in a bar, his current life was much more comfortable. However, when he saw the artists next door smiling and chatting with red wine, he wanted to become even better.

"Today's fruit salad is very fresh." Xiao Xi changed the topic.

"Fruit salad is always fresh." Tang Xiaoyi shook her head. It was as if they had become extremely close friends.

In the past, Tang Xiao Ai worked as a laborer when she was not studying. Unlike now, when she was free and had nowhere else to go, she slowly got to know a few friends.

At first glance, her personality seemed too lacking in character, but anyone who was willing to come into contact with her would like her calm and steady character. It would be extremely comforting, like a tree hole, never betraying it.

"Xiao Ai, are you sure you won't take the initiative to look for Director Qin?" KIKI suddenly asked.

"Don't talk while we eat." Xiao Xi immediately glared at KIKI. He was much more meticulous than the casual KIKI. He knew that even though Tang Xiao Ai looked indifferent on the surface, her heart was definitely in pain.

The reason was that it was hard to buy a famous actress like Li Xiyi's MV actress. If she lost such a good opportunity, anyone would want to die.

In addition, in the past two days, he could see that she had been completely 'idle' since she had been neglected by him. She had even withdrawn some basic training, making him look very angry.

"But I think we should try and get it. Li Xiyi's new album is going to be fully released on Valentine's Day. It's only the fourteenth of January, and there's still a month left." KIKI dreams every day that she can be Li Xiyi's keyboard player, but she knows it is impossible.

If Tang Xiao Ai really had some sort of mysterious relationship with the upper echelons of the company, perhaps he might be able to pull her along in the future.

"I feel the same way. Besides, Chairman Qin seems to treat you in a very special manner ..." Sweets agreed.

"Can I sit here?" A delicate voice sounded from behind Tang Xiao Ei.

"Of course." Tang Xiao Yi turned her head and saw a beautiful woman around the same age as them. Her voice was very gentle.

"My name is Zhu Jing and I live on the 19th floor. Seeing that it's very lively here, I wanted to come and join in on the fun." It just so happened that this table was for six people. Zhu Jing sat next to Tang Xiaoyi and introduced herself to everyone.

"I'm also on the 19th floor. Are you a singer or ..." KIKI didn't have much of an impression of her.

Perhaps it was because if someone here wore makeup, their recognition would not be very high. Coupled with the trend of cosmetic surgery, they would not be able to distinguish a person with just a little bit of makeup with their large eyes and awl face.

After everyone introduced themselves, they began to chat without end.

"It could be a singer at the moment, but I don't know what the higher-ups will do." Zhu Jing looked gentle and graceful, the exact opposite of Tiantian and KIKI.

"Ai, we're a bunch of people who don't know where the future holds ..."
Tiantian sighed and ate the steak furiously.

"Eat less. If you get fat, you won't even be able to run away from the dragon cage." He had been a model before, and he knew the importance of body shape.

"Hmph, I might even play the butcher!" Even though Tiantian said that, she put down her knife and fork. Even an artist had to take care of themselves. Eating and drinking would indeed obstruct their future.

"After dinner, we'll go to the gym!" KIKI's face was also a mask of pain. She had recently grown two catties of flesh, and although she didn't rely on her face or body to eat, she had to shake off the excess flesh.

"I can't stand all of you." Tang Xiao Ei shook her head. Because her mother's health was not good, she knew that health came first. The real source of health was not youth, but health.

"Hey, hey, hey, look!" Tiantian suddenly grabbed Little Xi's hand and shouted nervously.

Ah!" KIKI's voice was louder and he looked like he was about to faint.

"Did you see a ghost?" Xiaoxi was about to laugh at them when he turned his head and looked as if his jaw was about to drop.

"Little Love, hurry up, go fight for the female lead ... The chance is right in front of us! " Tiantian was the first to react. Amidst the gasps, she whispered to Tang Xiaoyi, "I can even see Boss Zhong up close!"

It turned out that the two big bosses, who usually busied themselves very hard, had come to have dinner together today, although they didn't know where the sun was rising.

If he didn't have to go abroad or go to other places, he wouldn't have come to the restaurant himself, even if he was working at the Rookie International. He had a chef, a professional nutritionist, to cook for him.

C33

Although Qin Junning appeared occasionally, it was still difficult for them to meet even if they wanted to. This was because they had their own special passage and restaurant, so it was rare for them to cause such a commotion while passing through the main hall.

"I heard that these two can only be seen at a grand party. Today was really lucky ..." Zhu Jing, who seemed so gentle, also revealed an envious gaze.

Tang Xiao Ai did not feel lucky at all. She even wanted to disappear as soon as possible because she had injured Zhong Yuqing and his chariot. She had also angered Qin Junning to the point where he wanted to change the female lead.

"I'm full. I'll go back and rest first. See you in the afternoon." She waited for them to walk past her and head towards Area A. Tang Xiao Yi prepared to slip away first.

"Little big sis Ai, this is such a good opportunity, how could you miss it!" KIKI grabbed onto Tang Xiaoyi and said, "Just say a few good words to Director Qin!"

"That's right. This is something that can be achieved with a single opening and closing of his mouth. Why not give it a try?" Tiantian also advised, "Don't you feel that Chairman Qin still has feelings for you? "At the very least, I will at least deliberately leave you idle ..."

"Don't spout nonsense, that's because... In any case, Chairman Qin has already changed the female lead, I ... I like having a buffet with you and I don't want to leave here. " Tang Xiao Ai quickly stopped them. She could not say that it was because she was in debt to Qin Hanning. These people did not know about the depressing matters of her family, and she did not want them to know too much about her private matters.

"Little Love, I'm so touched." Little Xi wiped away her tears before standing up and dragging her along with KIKI. "Quickly go and fight for it! We were hoping that after your rise to fame, you would invite us to the A District for a feast! Make us proud! "

Zhu Jing looked at them with a stunned expression as she savagely wanted to drag Tang Xiaoyi away. She didn't expect that these little artists still had a true relationship with each other, but it could also be because they saw that Tang Xiaoyi's future was boundless. That was why they gathered by her side with evil intentions, hoping that she would help them after she became a superstar.

"This is not that I can't live up to my expectations. It's that he has already made his decision. There's no way to change it. I will wait for the next opportunity ..." "Next time, I will definitely work hard ..." Tang Xiaoyi helplessly grabbed Zhu Jing's wrist. It was too embarrassing for her not to be pushed over.

Zhong Yuqing and Qin Junning were walking along when they suddenly stopped and said, "It's been a long time since we've had a buffet in E District. I wonder if the quality of the dishes today is the same as it was two years ago."

"You want to feel the food of the lowly scum?" Qin Junning was also a venomous tongue, but many times he would hide it, only erupting when his work was vexed.

"I've eaten too much of the big fish and too much meat. I'd like to try some porridge side dishes." Zhong Yuqing smirked. When he stepped into the hall, he had noticed the "tramp three" in the corner.

The tranquil and tranquil aura of Tang Xiao Yi's body captivated him from afar.

"I was afraid you'd be in a bad mood eating in that hall, did you see those women? I can't wait to hook you up. " Although there was a smile on Qin Junning's face, he still felt a bit of goosebumps in his heart. The moment he walked into the hall, he also discovered Tang Xiaosi.

The big fish, big meat, and small porridge that Zhong Yuqing had mentioned just now, it couldn't be that he was referring to Tang Xiao Ai, right?

"Yeah, they should be Director Qin, right? Tick me, it's useless. " Zhong Yuqing smiled blandly. He still looked perfect on the outside.

From the look in his eyes to his smile, they were all perfect.

"If I really hook up with you, fifth brother of the Diamond clan, then you don't need to rely on me to rise to the top in your entire life. You would have already looked down on filming and would be better off marrying into a rich family." Qin Jun said with a light smile.

"My family is not some wealthy family. Even if I were to marry into them, I would still be a maid." Zhong Yuqing said with a bit of self-mockery.

"No matter what, she's a housewife, she won't be reduced to a maid ..."
Before Qin Junning could finish his words, a dark cloud flashed in his eyes.

The E District had always been deserted. Now that several people were discussing something in whispers, it was rather sudden. It was difficult not to notice it even if they did not want to.

"Quick, they're back ..." When Tiantian saw the two men turn around, she let go and sat back down nervously.

Although she was a bold and straightforward girl from Northeast China, her legs couldn't help but go soft when she saw Zhong Yuqing and Qin Junning. She was flustered and exasperated, just like the teacher she feared the most when she was young.

"Little Big Sis Ai, seize this opportunity!" Not only her, but KIKI also sat back down with a plop. It seemed that as long as it was a woman facing those two evildoers, their hands and feet would go soft.

Xiao Xi was the most immune to it all. However, when he held Tang Xiao Ai's hand, he felt a heavy gaze coming his way and couldn't help but loosen his grip. The big BOSS's aura was indeed different from the small shrimps. Right now, only Tang Xiaoyi was still standing. Although she didn't look behind her, the two figures in front of her were reflected in the black glass. She wanted to hide as soon as possible.

"Sit here?" The conversation between the two gradually became clearer and entered Tang Xiao Ai's ears.

She quickly sat down as well. In that instant, the once lively table turned deathly silent.

Zhong Yuqing chose a good place. He could see the whole hall. He had always liked the feeling of being in control, as well as being interested in the director Qin Junning, and also looking for the best angle to shoot.

Among friends who have a good relationship, there must be many similar interests and similar personalities.

Zhong Yuqing and Qin Junning were just like this. They had known each other for 12 whole years, and there were almost no secrets between them. They were brothers in school, and once they left school, they would start a business.

However, the biggest difference between Zhong Guoqing and Qin Jun. was that Zhong Guoqing's family was ordinary, but he was very good at planning his own life, and Qin Hanning's family was very good, but he had always been a drunken flower young master.

So, when they went abroad to study together, Qin Junning played "selfie" with all kinds of hot girls, participated in all kinds of parties, mixed up in the upper class society, laid the foundation for the interest of the future. Zhong, on the other hand, studied groups of boring data on the computer, analyzed domestic business opportunities, set up a Chinese forum, and discussed the future trend of business development.

By the time Qin Junning started playing with expensive video cameras and shooting some school scenes, Zhong had already started on the rudiments of the shopping web. Due to the lack of funds, he had taken on various roles, including a programmer to maintain the web, a publicist to increase the visibility of the web site, and a salesman to contact all the major merchants. When Qin Junning was done playing and ready to graduate and go back to play a small entertainment media, Zhong had already started to formalize his website in the United States.

As for Qin Junning, whose family had always been wealthy and didn't need to eat or drink, because his parents didn't support his idea and didn't plan to invest a single cent, he felt anxious for the first time. However, with his natural social skills, he was very good at investing, and even so, it was still difficult for Esco to do anything about it.

Today, Zhong Yueqing's shopping network that he planned for investment in the country was also very successful, but very few people knew that the shopping network that he tried out in the United States sold at sky-high prices two years ago, invested in stocks, and multiplied several times. Simply put, the biggest difference between the two men that were close to each other was that they had a calm mind and a fanaticism.

Qin Jun often said that he was engaged in "art", while Zhong Yueqing was a true business maniac, so there shouldn't be any interaction between them.

However, the two of them were like brothers. After being together for so long, even the things they liked became similar.

For example, food was placed in front of the two of them in almost the same manner.

"That man has good conditions." Zhong Yuqing ate his lunch gracefully, ignoring the gazes from all around and those people who were secretly taking photos. He suddenly spoke with an unknown meaning.

"Which man?" Qin Gaoning pretended to be blind. There was only one man in the restaurant, Xiao Xi, who had been a model.

"The quality of the rookies we've recently picked seems to be pretty good." Zhong Yuqing remained calm as he saw him pretend to be stupid.

C34

"Of course, if it gets worse and worse, how can I face the majority of the shareholders?" From the moment Qin Junning discovered Zhong Yuqing's attention on Tang Xiaoyi, his mood had become gloomy.

When he had signed Tang Xiao Ai, Zhong Yuqing had said that he had nothing to do with this woman. He also promised that when he was training new people in the future, he would not interfere, but now, Qin Jin Ning always felt that Zhong Yuqing would go back on his word.

He did not want a woman to give them any contradictions in their feelings.

This was also the reason why before he signed with Tang Xiao Ai, Qin Zheng tried his best to probe him.

"A model?" Zhong Yuqing would always keep a tight hold on the topic at hand. His main focus was still on Little Xi.

"Her figure is very good, and her facial features are more solid. The only flaw is her temperament." Qin Junning leisurely said, "The imperial concubine likes to hang out with women all day long. I don't like being a good sissy sister, so I'll first hang out for a while and see if I can't find a bit of MAN after training."

Xiao Xi clearly did not know that she was being discussed by the two top BOSSes. He continued to look at Tang Xiao Ai and said in a low voice, "Ten steps. As long as you walk ten steps, you will become the Star of the Day. You will never come to this place to eat again ..."

"You don't need to wear such old-fashioned clothes. Your entire body is covered in luxury goods sponsored by international brands. A alloy watch costs hundreds of thousands, and a bag costs millions. There will be bodyguards leading the way wherever you go. Oh my god, what a sight!" As KIKI spoke, he happily closed his eyes, as if that person was himself.

"Little love, don't hesitate. In the future, you have to fight for it yourself. You can only wait there and one day, you will be forgotten." Although Tiantian and Tang Xiaosi hadn't known each other for as long as Little Xi, they knew each other very well. They also knew that Tang Xiaosi's personality was too indifferent. Being friends was very good, but how could she ignore fame and wealth when she wanted to compete in the entertainment circle?

In fact, Tang Xiao Ai also knew that she should fight for him. This time she was forced into a corner, but now she couldn't!

Because there was still Zhong Yuqing. If there was only Qin Kuangning, she could still go over and ask for his help.

"I will find a chance to fight for them. It's better not to disturb them for dinner now." Tang Xiao Ai was nervous for no reason. She could only blame herself for bringing so much trouble to Zhong Shuangqing that day. Right now, she felt as though she had let down the guy she was talking to.

If it were any other person, she might have come over to express her concern and ask how the injury was, but facing Zhong Yuqing ... He always felt that he was just an elementary school student in front of the old professor. Maybe it was because the distance between them was too big, he wanted to stay away from them.

Zhu Jing, who had been silent all this time, suddenly stood up and walked over to that table not too far away. "I'll help you ask around."

"No!" Tang Xiao Ai couldn't hold her and watched Zhu Jing walk towards that direction. At that moment, her face was completely red, she really wanted to find a hole to hide in.

"Eh, a dog that doesn't bark really knows how to bite. Zhu Jing is actually so loyal." KIKI's metaphor is a bit indecent, but fitting.

"Who knows, I might even want to talk to them. It's not easy to get to know each other in front of them." Tiantian said coldly.

"Indeed, this opportunity is too rare. Should we go over and introduce ourselves?" Xiao Xi also nodded in agreement.

"I'll be leaving first. You guys take your time." Tang Xiao Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry. She seemed to have made a bunch of bad friends.

She wanted to slip away as soon as possible, as she didn't want Zhong Liangqing to see her begging for an opportunity.

"Little Love, come here quickly." Zhu Jing shouted over to her. Her gentle eyes were now brimming with excitement, unable to conceal her joy.

"Hurry up and go. If you can't, don't come back." Xiaoshi and KIKI pushed her at the same time.

Even if she wanted to escape, it was too late because she felt a sharp gaze land on her back. She could only take a deep breath, slowly turn around, and squeeze out a stiff smile. Slowly, she walked to the corner where everyone was looking at.

"Tang Xiao Ai." Qin Junning's eyes carried a sharp light, as if he wanted to cut her into pieces. However, his voice was much gentler, and he squeezed out a few words from between his teeth.

"Chairman Qin ..." Good afternoon. " Tang Xiaoyi still carried the courtesy and etiquette of an academic. After greeting him, she hesitated for a few seconds before bowing to the smiling and taciturn Zhong Daqing, "Hello."

"Truly an ancient era." Whispers of discussion seemed to be coming over, mocking Tang Xiao Ai's actions.

She was indeed a bit of an ancient person. Her tradition of being low-key and quiet was a bit stubborn. She was incompatible with the hustle and bustle of today's society.

"Little Love, you guys take your time. I'm going back first." Zhu Jing immediately pushed Tang Xiaoyi in front of them and whispered in her ear, "Do your best."

"What's the point of talking about it during work hours? Don't you know it's rude to disturb others while they're eating?" Qin Gaoning was very unhappy. He saw that Zhong Yuqing seemed to have taken an interest in Tang Xiao Ai, and hoped that the silly girl would not do anything out of line to attract his attention. However, her group of idiotic friends caused everyone's eyes to be focused on them.

"Sorry ..." "Because you are usually too busy to see anyone, so ..." Tang Xiaoyi was inexplicably nervous. Perhaps it was because Zhong Yuqing was by her side, but even her voice was trembling slightly.

"Wu, so you've thought about it. Prepare ..." Qin Jin Ning suddenly stood up, and with a mischievous smile on his lips, he went close to Tang Xiao Ai's ear and asked in a low voice, "Sacrifice for a career?"

His voice was not loud, just loud enough for Zhong Yuqing, who sat at the side, to hear him clearly. After he finished speaking, without waiting for Tang Xiaoyi's reaction, he immediately put his arm around her shoulders: "Okay, I don't mind having some dessert before lunch."

"Eh? "Ugh ..." Tang Xiao Yi's reaction was very slow today. It was probably because she had been distracted this entire time and was nervous that Zhong Yuanzhong would suddenly mention something about medical fees, so it wasn't until Qin Zheng put his arm around her shoulders and pushed her to the entrance of the restaurant that he said with a flushed face, "No ..." Not... Chairman Qin, you misunderstood, I am ... "

"How could I misunderstand? It's this circle of reality that you should be able to think through. " Qin Junning's hand strength was great, causing Tang Xiao Yi's shoulder to feel pain. He pushed Tang Xiao Yi out the door and walked in front of the private elevator. Forcefully pushing her in, his originally smiling face instantly became gloomy.

"Tang Xiao Ei, don't you see that I'm eating with a friend? "Even if you can't wait for me to order you around, you should still wash your face and get ready to lie on the bed ..." "Look at you now, from head to toe. What is it that's worth me to dive into?"

"Right... "Sorry, I didn't mean to disturb you, it's just ..." She looked at the mirror in panic. The young girl's lips were red and her teeth were white, her appearance couldn't be considered peerless, but her facial features were very distinct. Her delicate and pretty face exuded a gentle and elegant scholarly aura.

"But you did disturb me, and made me very angry!" Qin Junning spoke into her ear word by word.

"I really ..."

"If you really want to pick up the job, go with the crew to Africa at eight o'clock tonight. "Oh yeah, I'm not going to shoot an external scene. It just so happens that the production crew is lacking a small assistant, so you can grab your bag and water to run errands for them." After Qin Junning finished speaking in a single breath, the elevator door opened and he pushed Tang Xiaoyi outside. He was still standing in the elevator with a gloomy expression on his face as he pressed the close button.

"Chairman Qin, how much is the service fee?" Tang Xiao Yi suddenly asked before the elevator door closed.

Anything is fine, as long as there is a service charge.

Furthermore, she wasn't a newbie that the company was prepared to support. Without her pampered personality, she could only wash dishes and wash dishes as a nanny when she went back to her previous job. Qin Gaoning's expression was somewhat twisted.

C35

He actually asked for the service fee?!

The people who worked as laborers for the filming crew even dared to face their superiors and boldly ask about the labour fees!

Qin Junning was so angry that he almost exploded. He even wanted to ask the crew to throw Tang Xiao Ai into the cannibal tribe in Africa and never see her innocent face again.

Zhong Yuanzhong, on the other hand, was still leisurely eating his meal. When Qin Junning came back with an ashen face, he said lightly: "I thought you weren't coming back."

"Do you really think you can sneak in on her? I'm not interested in that kind of woman!" Qin Junning was still angry at Tang Xiaosi's last sentence. How could he sign such a stubborn artist?

Oh, right, he didn't sign it. It was because the man beside him asked for it. Eh? In that case, did he say something wrong?

"Cough ..." Zhong Yuqing coughed lightly. His good friend's words seemed to be directed at him, but that night ... The memories were truly beautiful.

Her body was young and compact and soft, and her drunken reaction was lovely.

Thinking of this, Zhong Yuqing suddenly felt a warm feeling in his lower abdomen. He immediately held up the water and took a sip. What was going on? He actually thought of something that he shouldn't have in the afternoon. Could it be that he had been too busy working recently and hadn't found a woman to relax his body and mind?

"The service fee, what a weirdo!" Qin Kuangning didn't notice the subtle changes that had occurred just now. He bitterly whispered to himself.

"What service fee?" Zhong Yuqing asked leisurely.

"It has nothing to do with you." Qin Kuangning was too angry, even when he was talking to Zhong Yuqing he was not in a good mood. He did not want Zhong Yuqing to meddle in the affairs of his own artists, so he immediately interrupted, "Are you going to play golf in the afternoon?"

"I have other arrangements. You can pick any female star to be your ball boy." Zhong Yuqing rejected him half-jokingly. He really wanted to know what had happened just now that could cause Qin Junning to have such a terrible complexion, yet it would be inconvenient for him to ask about it.

Even though he had nothing to say to Qin Jun, Zhong Yuqing still retained a lot of words to say to Tang Xiao Ai.

He did not explain to Qin Junning what had happened that night. He had originally thought that he and Tang Xiaosi would be strangers, but with a thought, he paved an embroidered path for her.

Today, when they bumped into each other occasionally, they actually had a special feeling.

Perhaps it was because she didn't know who the man from that night was, or perhaps it was because of her quiet personality, or perhaps it was because her eyes were too clear, or perhaps it was because Zhong Guoqing had never met a girl that treated him so indifferently.

In short, he felt that she was very special. Perhaps one day, she would be able to transform into a chrysalis into a butterfly and shine with extraordinary splendor under the influence of Qin Jun.

"Little sister in love, are you sure you want to go to Africa to be a bag carrier and not a female lead?" KIKI looked at Tang Xiaoyi who was packing her bag and asked in disbelief.

Right now, everyone was gathered in Tang Xiao Ei's dorm room. Even Zhu Jing had come over to listen in on the gossip.

However, when they saw the flustered and exasperated expression on Qin Junning's face, they guessed that Tang Xiao Yi must have offended the boss.

Only KIKI, a single cell with thick lines, was still being questioned in disbelief.

"The female lead." Tiantian pouted and said.

"Do any of you know how much it costs to travel to Africa?" Tang Xiao Ai only wanted to pay her debts.

"Is there a mistake? You're still thinking about the service fee? "As long as I don't leave you there, I'll be thankful. How dare I ask for a service fee when I'm pissed off by my boss?" Xiaoxi was helping Tang Xiaoyi pack her things. He was very meticulous and formed a strong contrast with the careless KIKI.

"Going to Africa for a week doesn't cost a lot for a small assistant. All the subsidies added up to only about three to four thousand yuan, and some things can't be reimbursed." Zhu Jing seemed to have some experience as she replied.

"Then it's about five hundred yuan a day?" Tang Xiaoyi didn't mind the lack of money at all. On the contrary, she was very happy. If she could travel a lot, she could only be an assistant to her purse and earn a lot of extra money.

If he could travel every day, he would have to pay off his debt in exactly two years.

It's hard to be a staff member anyways. You don't have to pay a lot of labour fees, and you might even be bullied around by the higher-ups every day." Zhu Jing was slightly better than them. She was no longer considered a newcomer. She had occasionally received a notice and had come into contact with a lot of people outside. No matter what, she could still be considered a C-list celebrity.

"Little Big Sis love, how about ..." Say you can't find your passport? " KIKI felt that this time Tang Xiaoyi was sent so far away, they were responsible because at that time everyone was encouraging them, but they never thought that the Qin would be angry.

"Then she will die an even more miserable death." Tiantian interrupted KIKI's unreliable thoughts, "Just take a look at the scenery, the treasured sword's edge will be sharpened and the plum blossom fragrance will come from the bitter cold."

"Africa is terrible." KIKI felt that if Tang Xiaosi were to go there, she would definitely be suntanned until she returned home.

"It's terrible for you everywhere." In fact, Tiantian and KIKI got to know each other earlier. They had both entered the company before Tang Xiaosi came, so they talked even more brazenly. While saying that, they rolled their eyes at KIKI, signalling her not to speak any more nonsense. Then, they turned to Tang Xiaoyi and said, "I don't want you to find an African chief to elope with me. I can't even find Boss Qin if I want to."

The Northeast girl's joke was obviously not popular. At least, no one had a trace of a smile on their face. A few seconds later, Tang Xiao Ai gave a dry laugh.

"Who would elope with the sheikh these days? We have to get the oil tycoon!" Little Xi immediately tried to salvage the situation.

"In Africa, there's only the director of the zoo, and the beast tamers are about the same ..." KIKI shrugged, his mind full of the savannahs of Africa.

"Alright, you guys can all go back and rest. I'm going to take a nap as well. I have to catch up with the crew later on." She didn't care where she was going, as long as she had the service fee.

She didn't even have any living expenses right now. If her brother had any needs while he was reading, she wouldn't be able to help him at all.

Furthermore, he even had to deal with such a grumpy boss. How unlucky.

This was the first time Tang Xiao Ai traveled so far.

She had only flown twice in her life, and this was the third time.

The first two times, because of her excellent grades at school and the special prize she won, she was allowed to go listen to famous old professors and participate in global English competitions, so she was able to get on a plane. But when she came back, it was always during the day, and the layers of clouds beneath the plane were like huge cotton candy, shocking her. As the plane flew through the clouds, her heart tightened and she couldn't help but close her eyes, as if she was floating in the clouds.

And now, the stars that filled the sky, as if passing through the plane's cabin, and covered by a layer of yellow muslin, the moon was so big, so gentle, so beautiful, just like mother's face, so soft that people unconsciously thought of home. Tang Xiao Ai held her cheeks and foolishly looked out of the window, suddenly realizing that she hadn't been home for a long time.

It had been almost a year since school started at the beginning of the year. She could have gone back to visit her parents during the summer vacation, but since she had to prepare for her brother's tuition for entering university in September and her mother's medical expenses, she had been working.

She thought that now that her brother had gone to university, he would be able to relax a little. As long as she worked harder and brought back some money, they would be able to have a warm and comfortable New Year. Who knew that from the moment the New Year's bell rang, her BlackBerry would ring ... No, her year of blackberries would be here.

After receiving so many setbacks and changes, Tang Xiaoyi almost thought that she couldn't hold on any longer. She didn't expect that after losing her virginity and first love, facing the signing of an overlord treaty, high loans, and the dramatic withdrawal from school, she was still able to have such a calm attitude. She really didn't know how to describe herself.

Should she say "too much debt does not weigh on the body", or was she mentally numbed by a series of blows?

Tang Xiao Yi stared blankly, not knowing how Shen Mo was doing. In her gloomy life, the only bright color was Shen Mo.

However, he did not expect that emotions were like certain flowers. The more tender and beautiful they were, the easier they would wither and they would not be able to bear even the slightest bit of rain or dew.
