

MY SLAYER SYSTEM: RISE TO SUPREMACY

Chapter 301 Enough!

Every single human were currently tuned to 'Bubble's News' as he had informed his viewers that there was something brewing in the human world earlier so they had tuned in early to see the war between the Fang hunters and the iron fist guild.

Bubble, the owner of the news firm had people in different places that act as informants to him giving him the necessary updates he needed. It was hard to get people into the Fang hunters, but he was able to get some in the iron fist guild and that was how he found that the Fang hunters were going to attack anytime soon.

But what he and the rest of the world didn't expect, was that the leader of the iron fist guild was a werewolf and not just any werewolf, but one of the second in commands to the Alpha; a Beta werewolf.

Even Head General Humfree and the core members and even all the members and students of the guild were tuned into Bubble's news channel and they were all on the edge of their seats from the start of the battle and now with Jake facing off against the werewolf slayer, Kate felt her heart thumping louder and memories of that day kept flooding her mind.

Remembering Vynn's dead body, she saw his face that was devoid of any emotions and closed shut before the image shifted to that of Jake in that position. Steeling her resolve, she kept watching in anticipation.

"Wait! The werewolf slayer is a kid?" Someone tuned in to the chanel from the academy asked in surprise.

"And it feels like I recognize him too." Sebastian said as he looked at Jake's face over and over again before it finally clicked in his head.

"Oh shit! That's Jake!" He shouted.

"Jake who?" A friend of his asked.

"The same Jake that defeated me so easily during the tournament and also went toe to toe with my brother; Harry." Sebastian replied feeling some sort of tension and nervousness wash over him.

"Wh... what if with his power, he later comes after me for what I did to him?"

"Do you think he still remembers you? After all, he is practically the leader of a guild now so I don't think he will waste his time coming after you." His friend reassured him.

"I just hope so." Sebastian said.

There was nobody that weren't shocked by how young the werewolf slayer was after all, they had envisioned him as someone older or in his mid twenties or so. But the one in front of them, didn't look much older than nineteen.

But what they couldn't deny was that, he had power. Powers beyond their imagination even the Big three now were blown out of their minds as they all could see puffs of smoke appearing all around the werewolf slayer before copies of him all appeared.

Blip wasn't too shocked after all, he had seen something like this earlier in the room so it wasn't really surprising but he was still weary. After all, if the clones were as strong as the real deal, then Blip was sure he would have a hard time dealing with them.

Your journey continues with My Virtual Library Empire

"It's time we got rid of filth from this world!" All the Jakes shouted out at once.

And like as if their minds were connected and linked together, they all activated {Step shift} and they were suddenly in front of Blip who was stunned a little.

Like the speed of light, they all threw a punch towards Blip's abdomen sending him skidding back from the strength of their hit. Not letting up, the real Jake dashed forward and swung his leg from the side towards Blip's head therefore performing a roundhouse kick.

But the Beta werewolf managed to grab the leg easily and was about to retaliate when dozens of Qi projectiles crashed into him forcing him to let Jake go and he jumped backwards before twisting his hands around in the air weirdly in a circular motion.

Thrusting his hands forward, Blip felt something coming for him from the air and clenching his claws like a fist, he threw it forward crashing with something in the air that later got dispersed.

What he had crashed with was Jake's invisible Qi fist. He made an invisible fist out of Qi then he released it towards Blip who managed to disperse it with only his fist.

"Time to go for the attack." Blip mumbled and then like a flash, he was already in front of Jake.

'What tremendous speed!' Jake screamed in his head when he saw a fist heading for his face. 'Shit! I won't be able to avoid this on time, I'm going to get hit!'

But before the fist crashed into Jake, one of the clone had activated {Step shift} again and he got in front of the fist.

Then coating its hands with Qi, it threw his own hands forward to meet Blip's own and they met in the middle causing a loud bang to be heard and the clone dispersed into a puff of smoke.

All the clone did was slow the hand down which gave Jake enough time to also perform Step shift to get away from the fist causing the Beta werewolf's fist to crash into the air and a heavy gust of wind to crash into those at the side causing them to skid an inch.

'He is also tremendously powerful, if that had hit me, I would have been injured drastically and I need to avoid that.' he thought then he twirled his fingers around before swinging it out releasing a stream of lightning bolt towards Blip who was unable to avoid it in time causing it to crash into him burning his fur slightly.

"Bingo!" Jake said and then he nodded to his clones and like as if their minds were connected as usual, they all clasped their hands together like as if they wanted to clap but they were clapping.

Before Blip could move, the clones along with Jake moved back quickly and then shooting out of their clasped hands were streams of lightning that crashed into the werewolf.

They kept moving across the field like lightning themselves causing Blip to fail in keeping track of them but what was consistent was the bolts of lightning that was hitting him around his fur causing it to become scorched slightly and burn.

The continuous stream of lightning and movement from all the Jakes, kept on causing smoke and dust to appear around Blip not letting his whole body be shown only his outlined figure.

"Enough!" Blip shouted and then slammed the ground heavily with all his might causing a huge slab of the ground to get lifted up and slamming his palm on it, he sent it in a general direction of where he thought the clones would be in.

"Shit!" Jake said as he saw the slab heading his way.

Chapter 302 Surpass my limits!

"I guess been unconscious has made me recover my Qi." He mumbled.

"What are you doing? Get rid of the werewolf already!" Peter shouted and he slowly stood up.

"Right." Alex said then he turned around taking a stance with his fiery Qi blazing around the sword brighter and even his body was been coated by the fiery Qi that was visible to the others.

"Since those annoying drones aren't here anymore, I guess I can go all out now!" He said and then he exploded towards the werewolf while sending a tile Peter's way from the strength of his legs.

"That darned Alex!" Peter shouted and then he punched the tile away before he saw Alex in front of the omega werewolf.

Swinging his sword to the right, it almost crashed into the werewolf but it had jumped back just in time to avoid it before sending a Qi fist towards Alex but he was able to deflect it with his sword.

Thrusting his sword, the werewolf avoided it again and sent a Qi fist again towards Alex but he still deflected it easily.

"What's wrong? Won't you go on the attack?" Alex asked as he pushed off towards the werewolf before swinging his sword from below towards it.

The speed with which Alex swung the sword, was too much for the werewolf to handle as it threw its head back in an attempt to avoid the downward slash but the sword still manage to graze its fur burning it slightly.

Swinging its legs from below, it crashed into Alex's head flinging it backwards and throwing his body across towards Peter who was still off to the side.

"What are you doing? Fight like you mean it darn it!" Peter shouted.

"If you are really impatient, then why don't you come and fight it?!" Alex shouted back in annoyance.

"Tch." Peter just scoffed and kept on watching Alex take a stance with his sword in front of him while gripping it with two of his hands.

'Why hasn't it attacked properly since? It just kept avoiding and dodging my attacks. And if I'm not mistaken, I can sense Qi around it and it can even use Qi unlike those werewolves we faced off against during the tournament.

So what's stopping it from using a large scale Qi attack?' Alex wondered as he saw the werewolf clenching its face where Alex's sword crashed into.

Before it narrowed its eyes looking at Alex with evident anger on its face then it lifted its claws up and began swinging it around rapidly.

Alex's eyes widened as he saw dozens and dozens of claw strikes made of Qi heading his way.

"Shit! I thought too soon." He said and began swinging his sword rapidly and precisely crashing against the claw strikes and causing them to disperse.

Alex was currently showcasing swordmanship that Peter never thought him of. As to everyone, Alex was just like a brute that hardly used his sword only when it's important or his fist couldn't do the job.

And even though he used the sword, it wasn't as skillful as what Peter was seeing currently. Pivoting sideways, he clashed with a claw strike and then he jumped back avoiding one.

Before going forward again and began hitting and clashing with the claw strikes again. But they kept coming and slowly, the claw strikes were beginning to hit Alex on his body.

First his arms, then his legs, then his face, then his abdomen. He was doing a good job by hitting the strikes that were aimed at somewhere vital.

But he was being overwhelmed slowly.

'Shit! Isn't it running out of Qi yet?' he screamed in his head still swinging his sword.

"Alex!" Peter shouted and was about to move when Alex turned to him and shook his head stopping him in his tracks.

"I don't need your help." He said then he turned back to the werewolf that was still grinning and swinging its claws rapidly.

'I can feel something in me moving around and shaking, it's still moving and trying to be unleashed.' he thought with a grin on his face when he realized what was going on.

"I think it's finally time to surpass my limit!" He shouted and right on cue, his body blazed bright yellow like a flame of some sorts but it wasn't like a normal flame, this was Qi flames hence the colour.

'I can feel it, my body, my Qi has stretched beyond its limits. Which means...' he thought with a smirk on his face.

And he exploded towards the werewolf with tremendous speed than he had ever done and he was now in front of the werewolf with still a smirk on his face.

"I have just gotten stronger and faster!" He said and then swinging his sword, it crashed into the werewolf's abdomen sending him flying into the wall where Blip's desk and chair was earlier.

The wall cracked a lot and even looked like it was on its breaking point. But the werewolf was still seen standing up with a trickle of blood dripping down its jaw.

"I almost forgot that your lot were resilient!" Alex shouted as he was seen in front of him and with a swing of his sword towards the werewolf head.

It managed to avoid it but it still crashed in its chest and the werewolf was sent into the wall breaking it apart and causing a loud noise to be heard as the wall broke and the werewolf was seen hitting the ground where the battle between Blip and Jake was going on with a thud.

Chapter 303 A General's Qi won't lose out!

While every other person was handling one werewolf each, Wilfred was currently facing off against two and he was doing quite well, the only part he was struggling with was their Qi usage.

He was trying his best against them and having enough of being overwhelmed, he snapped.

Jumping up, with his sword still blazing yellow, he smashed it into the werewolf's head slicing its head down and then he felt something hit him in the air causing him to fall down with a heavy thud cracking the flooring beneath him.

Standing up, he could see the other werewolf standing where the dead werewolf lay with its eyes glowing bright yellow.

Wilfred chuckled while lifting himself from the ground. "I guess someone's pissed. What happened? Was it related to you in a way?"

The werewolf didn't reply and instead, it began dashing towards Wilfred who was gripping his sword tightly while looking around to see all of Jake's clones dispersed.

'Huh? Did they all get killed already or what?' he thought and then he could see the werewolf in front of him trying to take a swing at him and in response, he used his sword to block causing a ringing noise to be heard and he was slightly pushed back a bit.

'I guess it wasn't even trying hard earlier, and now I think it has taken me serious and is using its qi.' Wilfred thought as he flipped backwards just in time to avoid a kick to his ribs.

Then the werewolf clapped its claws loudly sending a wave of Qi Wilfred's way. But stabbing his sword into the ground, Wilfred also clapped his hands loudly causing a wave of Qi to cancel out the werewolf's own.

Not relenting, the werewolf swung its claws out and dozens upon dozens of visible shards appeared around it.

'Shit! Visible attacks are much faster and stronger.' he thought and then putting his hand on his sword, it glowed brightly. Stay updated through My Virtual Library Empire

The werewolf swung its claws sending the shards towards Wilfred who now stood up and waved his hands from below upwards.

"Qi wall!" He called out a yellow, transparent like wall rose up in front of him and instantly, the shards crashed into the wall one after the other but the wall held out.

"You might have been an A rank adventurer earlier, but I'm a General and my Qi won't lose out to you!" Wilfred shouted and then the Qi shards barrage stopped.

"My turn." He mumbled and then the wall in front of him condensed down and turned into a long snake of some sorts but without a head.

Only there was a sharp end where the head was supposed to be but the body was wriggling about like a snake.

'My Qi will keep draining fast the more advanced moves I use. But I hope this finishes it off!' he thought and then thrusting his palm outwardly, the snake Qi moved forward at incredible speed.

While the werewolf tensed its biceps and its furry arms glowed a little then crossing it like an X in front of its head, the snake crashed into it hard while going a little deep and drawing blood.

The werewolf coughed out a mouthful of black blood but the snake was still seen moving into the werewolf's arm. Then all of a sudden, it coiled around the furry arms of the werewolf while it did everything it could to throw it off but it stayed tight to its limbs.

Wilfred just smiled and then snapped his fingers causing the snake to glow yellow before a small explosion occurred on the werewolf's arms and then its limbs got cut as they fell limply to the ground.

Looking at its limbs on the floor and the stump on its arms, the werewolf was stunned and then it looked up at Wilfred who was down to a knee with blood trickling down his mouth.

Looking around, the werewolf sighted the remaining three core members of the iron fist guild that were just rooted there watching in horror at the fight taking place all around and they failed to notice the omega werewolf's stare.

And before they did, the werewolf dashed towards them at incredible speed that by the time they noticed, it was already in front of one of them. Kicking the adventurer on its head, he went tumbling and hitting the ground hard with his head caved in.

"What the hell?! He just killed Kim! Aren't we on the same side?" An adventurer screamed in shock when the werewolf suddenly appeared in front of him kneeing him in his abdomen and causing the air to get completely knocked out of his mouth.

Wilfred who was still on his knees, was confused about what was going on and why the werewolf was taking out the core members of its own guild.

Turning around, it sighted the last adventurer who now gripped his sword tightly and then swinging it, a crescent slash was seen heading towards the werewolf who easily avoided it and appeared behind the man.

Using its head, the werewolf headbutted the adventurer hard causing his head to cave in also and he fell on his knees before hitting the ground hard with a thud.

Grinning widely, it looked at the adventurers on the ground before it turned back to Wilfred who was still the more confused.

Lifting its stump, it pointed it at Wilfred who gripped his sword tightly expecting an attack but there was none as the werewolf was seen keeping it's stump back and walking towards the first adventurer that had his head caved in.

Then the werewolf knelt in front of the body.

'Has it lost a screw or what?' Wilfred thought then his eyes widened in shock seeing what the werewolf was about to do.

Standing up with all the strength he could muster, he tried to move when he found out that he couldn't as he was suddenly stuck to the ground unable to move.

Then it hit him as to what the werewolf had done earlier when it lifted it's stump at him. It had used its Qi to restrain Wilfred not allowing him to move while Wilfred watched with horror at what the werewolf was doing as it ripped a big chunk of flesh with its jaws on the dead adventurer in front of it and it's stump healed partly while Wilfred felt a loud thump in his chest.

Chapter 304 I need to become the Alpha!

"Enough!" Blip shouted and then slammed the ground heavily with all his might causing a huge slab of the ground to get lifted up and slamming his palm on it, he sent it in a general direction of where he thought the clones would be in.

"Shit!" Jake said as he saw the slab heading his way.

But coating his hands with Qi, he punched the slab hard causing it to break into pieces but then in front of him, was Blip. Unleashing a powerful uppercut to Jake, he was seen flying upwards.

{-15 HP}

But before he flew away, Blip grabbed him back by the legs and proceeded to slam him into the ground breaking it and causing a huge crater to form beneath his feet.

{-10 HP}

Jake coughed out blood as he felt his legs being grabbed again and then he could see the cloud and he was about to be slammed again when he swirled all his Qi to his feet and twisted around causing Blip to lose footing and let go of one leg.

Then Jake slammed his foot that was brimming with Qi into the werewolf's jaw causing him to go tumbling and crashing away while Jake quickly swirled his Qi back to his body just in time before he hit the ground.

"Darn that werewolf!" Jake said as he stood up with gritted teeth while the werewolf was seen getting up and the clones quickly surrounded Jake.

'I took a glance at this when Kron was doing it and I hope it works. Since whatever I do, my clones can do it, this should work.' he thought and then lifted his hands pointing it towards the werewolf like as if it were a pistol of some kind.

"Clones! All at once!" He shouted and they all complied then shooting out of his hands, were bullets of Qi being shot towards the werewolf at incredible speed.

"You forgot I could also use Qi." Blip smirked and then raised a wall of Qi in front of him blocking the bullets of Qi easily.

"No I didn't!" Blip heard a voice saying behind him and then a heavy, powerful punch landed on his head sending him flying towards where the clones stood.

And all the clones at once clenched their hands into fists and when the werewolf's body was almost upon them, they all slammed their fists into the werewolf sending him back to the ground hard causing another shockwave and crater to erupt out.

Those watching from their different places, were all cheering loudly after seeing what the werewolf slayer was doing and they were certainly impressed by his versatile use of abilities, skill and strength.

Even Rex while watching and seeing the werewolf slayer land a successful hit, cheered loudly at the screen in excitement as he continued watching.

"You seem happy all of a sudden." Rivock commented.

"Why won't I? The werewolf slayer is doing what I wanted to do myself. After that day we were unable to kill that Beta werewolf, I lived with this anger that I couldn't complete a task.

And now, a Beta werewolf is here but I can't go out and teach it a lesson cause of you all but now, the werewolf slayer is doing just that. Helping me kick it's arse!" Rex smiled widely.

"Well, I'm certainly impressed that he could even last this long and he is so young." Bane said.

"At least he has strength, and that is what I care about not his age." Rex said.

Even the phoenix guild's leader was watching with his mouth agape.

"Now do you think you could handle him?" The vice leader asked.

"I could go toe to toe with him but I certainly won't last long." The leader replied.

"What I'm even confused about is why didn't Blip try to take the number spot and title of the whole independent Guilds? He has the strength especially in his werewolf form but he didn't do that." The vice leader said.

"Who cares? He knows that if he had revealed his werewolf form earlier, the Big three would step in so probably that's why he decided to stay on the low." The leader replied and then he went back to watching the fight.

Standing up from the crater with black blood dripping down his head and mouth, Blip smirked after wiping it and then he turned towards the werewolf slayer who was getting ready to charge in again.

"More! Give me more! I need to surpass my limits and become the Alpha so fight like you mean it!" Blip shouted with a dangerous glint appearing in his eyes.

"Too bad you won't become the Alpha as you would be buried here!" Jake shouted as he performed the {Step shift} again to get in front of the werewolf and then he threw a straight jab towards his face.

But his fist was grabbed with the werewolf not moving an inch while the ground beneath their feet cracked from the force of the two hands crashing.

"My turn also!" Blip smiled and threw a quick punch towards Jake's ribs but as if anticipating it, he quickly lifted his legs that was being strengthened with Qi to block the attack causing another shockwave to spread out from their collision.

Jumping back, he didn't waste a second more before dashing back in and began throwing punches at the werewolf. Like as if they both decided to take things into the next level, nobody was able to keep track of them again.

As they began moving around the battlefield throwing punches at each other that were being blocked causing shockwaves and dust to erupt out.

Each time one of them threw a punch, it was always countered by the other and their fist always cancelled each other out causing more and more banging noises to be heard.

'Our speed and strength are currently even, but I know how to fix that!' Jake thought and then he turned to his system to activate a skill.

{Rampage (lv2)}

Immediately, Jake's speed increased and he began landing successful hits one after the other while Blip was hardly able to keep up. Only blocking hits to his vitals.

'This skill lasts for just 12 seconds but it is enough time for me to cause terrible damage!' he screamed in his head while his hand began glowing yellow all of a sudden and then slamming it into the werewolf, it coughed out a mouthful of blood before it got flung across the battlefield towards where the huge mansion was; around 15 metres away.

{Rampage has ended}

The system announced and Jake just wafted the screen away and was about to dash towards where he sent the werewolf to. Continue your saga on My Virtual Library Empire

But then, all of a sudden around the battlefield, a huge pressure was mounted on everyone to the extent they all fell face flat on the floor. Those that weren't strong enough, were easily killed while those that were strong were just laying on the floor unable to move.

Even Jake's clones all exploded into a puff of smoke like how they were summoned earlier and Jake was seen hitting the ground with his knees hard causing it to crack badly.

"What's is going on? I think I...I have felt... something like this before." He mumbled and then he looked up to see a humongous size of Qi that was made to look like a fist.

The Qi fist was huge like a small car and it hung above the battlefield causing everybody to feel the gravity and Jake was seen gulping loudly at this.

Chapter 305 Rex Slade's Son!

The battle between Jake and Blip was currently being destructive as shockwaves, craters and more were being created. Due to some of the shockwaves, some buildings got destroyed and now, Blip has decided to go all out.

As he created the trademarked Qi fist all high ranking members of the guild used as a humongous yellow fist made out of Qi hung above the battlefield with those that were weak getting killed and those much stronger unable to move.

In the process, all of Jake's clones dispersed into a puff of smoke while Jake fell to the ground with his knees smashing the ground deeply creating a crater beneath his feet.

"I told you right? You are weak, and do you even know my position in the werewolf world?" Blip asked as he made his way to the kneeling position of the werewolf slayer who was trying his best to get out of his kneeling position.

"I'm one of the strongest Beta werewolf there is. You see, I was weaker than the other Beta werewolves earlier and was always put down. But when we attacked the human world, everything all changed.

I was the same Beta werewolf that attacked a town alone and your so-called big three decided to gang up on me. They showed me the devastating power of Qi and their wits." Blip explained while Jake was still twitching trying his level best to move while at the same time being immersed in Blip's tale.

"After I barely escaped, I was fascinated with the power termed 'Qi' and I decided to learn it so I came to the human world as a human and then formed a group that later became a guild while still trying to learn Qi. And finally! I succeeded and my guild became part of the top guilds in the world.

I became so powerful in the werewolf world and human world and my word became law without anybody defying it until you came! The so-called werewolf slayer came and defied my words. Not only that, you decided to attack me and my guild thinking you could win."

"You... you attacked me first! You attacked my guild first!" Jake shouted with his teeth gritted while glaring at Blip.

"True... true! I did and that is because I saw potential in your guild and land. I wanted to turn you all into werewolves! That is our goal, to turn all human race into werewolves and rule the whole Earth!" Blip replied.

"But my goal is different, it's to become so powerful that I would rival the Alpha and become an Alpha too."

"Well, my own goal is to rid this world of you filthy werewolves!" Jake shouted.

"Big talk for someone who is on his knees." Blip said then he kneed Jake in the face sending him flying and crashing into another building while crashing out of it.

"I! I will rule this world and no one, absolutely no one not even the big three would stop me!" Blip shouted with his claws raised up.

"Will you shut up already!" A voice was heard shouting behind Blip and then before he could turn around, he felt a strong hit in his face sending him skidding for more than an inch.

"Strange, I thought with me surpassing my limits, I would have been able to send you flying like how Jake does." An individual walked forward with his sword sheathed behind his back and his hands in his pocket.

"Who are you?" Blip asked with a low growl.

"I'm your nemesis. Earlier, I was worried about what he would say when he saw me attacking a guild without his consent but now that a werewolf is involved, I don't think he would mind anymore." Alex said as he stared into one of the drones with his mask still on his face but partly cracked.

"How... how aren't you affected?" Blip asked as he could still see the Qi fist hung upon the battlefield.

"Did you think your Qi would be stronger than the Slade's? After all, it was my dad who was the first Qi user!" Alex said and then his whole body lit up burning bright yellow.

Rex who was still watching was now shocked as he could see his second son on the battlefield.

"Did you send him out there knowing you can't partake?" Rivoock asked.

"No way! I didn't even know he was still with the academy after the take over. But now I'm relieved he is there, I would finally be able to see what he has achieved during his stay in the academy." Rex smirked.

"Your dad founded Qi? Are you saying you are Rex Slade's son?" Blip asked with a growl.

"So what if I am?" Alex asked with a shrug while the viewers were going crazy watching the show and then they took to the online forum created by Bubble's news channel which was somewhat like an internet and they began commenting.

"Woah! I can't believe that the someone could talk with the werewolf like this."

"Is that all you managed to get in what was being said? Didn't you hear that his father founded Qi?"

"Which means his father is part of the big three."

"Yes, you dingus!"

"Hey! Who you calling a dingus?"

"Can you guys just calm it down and let us enjoy what is being said?"

"Enjoy? The fate of humans is on the line and you want to enjoy watching?"

"Are you dense? Don't you understand irony?"

The online forum was going crazy just with the appearance of Alex who was calmly standing in the battlefield with his fiery yellow Qi surrounding him and the Beta werewolf standing a few feet away from him.

"Since you are Rex's son, then I have to avenge myself. I would take revenge of the sins of the father from the son!" Blip smirked then he bent his feet.

"I welcome you!" Alex said and then he took a stance with his sword unsheathed from his back while it glowed bright yellow.

With a push, the ground beneath its feet broke and the werewolf was seen speeding towards the human.

Chapter 306 Send you to hell!

Earlier on when Alex was fighting against the Omega werewolf, he had blown it across the room while sending it outside causing it to crash into the ground hard causing dust to get thrown up and the ground cracked a little.

Stepping on the edge of the hole made in the room, Alex looked out to the battlefield to see a werewolf standing there while a humongous size of Qi was hanging over the battlefield and everybody were seen on their knees including Jake.

"This is bad." He mumbled as he remembered that something like this has occurred twice and he experienced it first hand.

One from the B rank adventurer sent to eliminate them and then from the vice leader of the iron fist guild and he knows the effect first hand.

Looking at his hand, Alex clenched it in and out while putting away his visual Qi around his body and then turning back to glance at the fight going on between the core members of the guild and the omega werewolves.

"I'm running out of Qi slightly, although I can still fight with my visual Qi again, I'm not confident in my strength of defeating the Beta werewolf." He mumbled as he could see the werewolf standing there and ranting on while Jake was twitching on his knees.

"Jake is still restricted cause of that Qi fist and I can probably fight against it with my own Qi but how am I going to get Jake to fight it off. I want to buy him time but I wonder if I can last long." He thought with a sigh when he saw the werewolf heading towards Jake.

'I need to get there now! The others can probably handle themselves!' he shouted out in his head and then coating and surrounding his body with Qi, he pushed off from the hole and was seen heading towards the battlefield.

Immediately he landed softly because of his Qi surrounding his feet, he saw the werewolf hit Jake away sending him crashing into the buildings behind him and he began laughing.

Surrounding his hand with Qi, Alex quickly exploded towards the werewolf and made a sneak attack hitting it in its heading sending it skidding.

'Shit! I thought surpassing my limits would allow me to do more than pushing it an inch away.' he thought in his head when the werewolf took a stance.

"Since you are Rex's son, then I have to avenge myself. I would take revenge of the sins of the father from the son!" Blip smirked then he bent his feet.

"I welcome you!" Alex said and then he took a stance with his sword unsheathed from his back while it glowed bright yellow.

With a push, the ground beneath its feet broke and the werewolf was seen speeding towards Alex. Swinging its clawed hand towards his face, Alex had quickly blocked with his sword but his hand trembled from the strength of the werewolf and he was still sent skidding.

Without wasting time, the werewolf pushed off towards Alex while swinging its hand from above but he had quickly jumped back avoiding the hit but the werewolf wasn't relenting as it came attacking from different points but Alex was able to avoid them although slightly narrowly.

"What happened? Is that all you can do? To be on the defensive? At least the other one was more useful and stronger than you!" Blip scoffed and he pushed off again.

"Do you think your taunts would affect me?" Alex asked and he flipped backwards again avoiding a swing to his abdomen just in time.

Stomping his foot hard into the ground, a huge slab came off and was seen flying up. Punching it hard, Blip sent it flying towards Alex who was standing a few feet away.

Causally, he unsheathed his sword from his back and let his fiery yellow Qi run wild and swinging his sword, it sliced the slab cleanly but then he could see the werewolf in front of him.

"Gotcha!" the werewolf smirked as he got in front of Alex and threw a punch straight towards his face.

Surrounding his arms with his fiery Qi, he shaped his hand in an X shape in front of his face with his sword in front of him and then the Beta werewolf's hand crashed into him sending him flying into a building behind him.

"Shit! My arms feels broken." He mumbled as he stood up from where he was and was seen coming out of the building with blood trickling down his nose.

'How was Jake able to handle all these hits easily?' he thought while twisting his hands around. 'I can't endure more of these hits for long.'

"You really do have a tough skin you know." Blip smirked as he saw the human with his sword in his hand.

Swinging it around, half of it fell off the hilt falling on the floor.

"What the?! Oh common! I just got this sword darn it!" He shouted in the air while glaring at the werewolf. "Now you have to pay for destroying my new sword!"

"Oh really?! How do you in..." the werewolf stuttered when Alex suddenly dashed towards it and like a blur, he was in front of the werewolf while swinging his partly broken sword from the side towards the werewolf's head.

It was quick to react as it jumped back just in time but Alex didn't relent as he began chasing the werewolf around slashing and swinging his partly broken sword from all the sides but each time, the werewolf always avoided it.

"Woah! Now the werewolf is on the defense." Someone on the online forum commented.

Shooting out dozens of both invisible and visible Qi shards, the werewolf swung its claws hitting and breaking them apart while Alex was seen coming towards it next and throwing a hook to its head from the side, Blip's body was lifted and then crashed a few feet away.

Not wasting time, Alex coated his legs with tremendous amount of Qi while his body was still brimming with his fiery visual Qi. Stomping his foot hard on the ground, it cracked and then something was felt crawling towards the werewolf who was just trying to get up when it felt its legs restricted and burning slightly.

Not relenting, Alex pushed off towards the werewolf with his previous sword that was now turned dagger burning bright yellow towards Blip.

Swinging it towards its face, Blip raised his furry hands and stopped it dead in its tracks not letting Alex move one bit.

"Got to give it to you, you are strong, skillful and use your head more in a fight but at the end of the day, you are not Rex!" He shouted and then moving its legs, it felt that it's movements weren't restricted again and then grabbing Alex by the neck not letting him move, Blips furry hand began brimming yellow.

"I will send you to hell now and after a few months, your dad will accompany you!" Blip said and then swung his furry claws that was coated in Qi towards Alex's face.

"He is not the one going to hell, you are and I will be the one to send you there!" A voice was heard saying and the werewolf's furry claws brimming with Qi was stopped dead in its tracks.

Chapter 307 Atoning for sins

Back at the mansion, Wilfred was still locked in a battle with the remaining omega werewolf who was currently doing something strange by killing its human comrades then eating them.

Earlier, it had done something strange by pointing it's stump towards him before going to take his lunch. Trying to move, Wilfred found out that his movements were restricted.

Then it hit him as to what the werewolf had done earlier when it lifted it's stump at him. It had used its Qi to restrain Wilfred not allowing him to move while Wilfred watched with horror at what the werewolf was doing as it ripped a big chunk of flesh with its jaws on the dead adventurer in front of it and it's stump healed partly while Wilfred felt a loud thump in his chest.

In a minute, the werewolf was done eating the bodies in front of it and now, it's whole hands that was earlier cut off by Wilfred was now fully healed. And not only that, it felt stronger.

"AWHOOOO!" The werewolf howled loudly and the remaining people in the huge room quickly turned around to see the werewolf standing with a smirk on its face while Wilfred was unable to move.

"Darn! It remaining one more werewolf to deal with!" Peter cursed silently then he slowly stood up from his kneeling position while Sophia was too tired to move as she was just twitching in pains while staring at what was to happen.

"It's twime fro ywo to dtie!" The werewolf struggled to say through its large snout and then like a speeding train, it dashed towards Wilfred who gripped his sword tighter.

Jumping up, it was about to bash its hands on Wilfred's head when an axe intercepted the hands and then pushed it away. Standing in front of Wilfred was Peter who held his axes in front of him.

"Thanks Peter!" Wilfred said.

"Don't thank me yet, I'm not sure I would even last long right now." Peter replied.

"Doesn't matter, as I'm here with you." A voice was heard saying while steady footsteps were also heard coming from the door and a handsome young teenage guy was seen walking in with blood trickling down his mouth.

"Andrew?!" Peter said in surprise. "What are you doing here? And why do you want to help me?"

"That's because I feel ashamed of what my dad is doing right now... can I even call him my dad anymore? I want to atone for his sins so I need to help you take down that werewolf!" Andrew replied. Stay connected through My Virtual Library Empire

Peter just scoffed and was about to reply him when General Wilfred interjected.

"We currently need all the help we can get." He said.

"Enwohg of your swilly swentiments!" The werewolf said.

"Enough with the bad grammar already, go get yourself an English teacher darn it!" Peter retorted angrily and the werewolf was seen with its eyes glowing yellow in anger and took a stance looking like it was about to charge forward.

And that was what it did as the werewolf dashed towards Peter and threw an uppercut towards him but he easily blocked it although he was pushed back a bit, he was able to hold his ground.

The werewolf swung its legs out and Peter met it again with a roundhouse kick blocking it. Then he swung his axe towards its furry arm but the werewolf avoided it.

Still Peter didn't relent as he swung it towards its side but pivoting sideways, it managed to avoid it easily then it stomped on the flooring hard and kick dirt towards Peter's face.

Naturally, he crossed his hands blocking the dirt from getting into his eyes when a strong punch hit him in the chest sending him across the room with blood spurting out of his mouth.

Getting up from where he was thrown, Peter was seen with a scrunched up face and he was looking like his face was about to pop in anger.

"I thought you were here to help darn it!" He shouted in anger while the werewolf was confused about what was going on.

"I am here to help you dingus and I was doing just that until you interrupted me!" Andrew shouted back.

"How is your standing there like a stature helping me at all?!" Peter asked angrily when he saw the werewolf dash towards him with a kick to the head.

Ducking, Peter swung his axe hitting the werewolf in its side sending it skidding. Shooting out Qi shards, the werewolf was now occupied with hitting them away. Pushing off towards the werewolf, Peter jumped up and smashed the hilt of his axes into the werewolf's face causing to fly towards Andrew who was still standing there.

"I'm finally done!" Andrew shouted and then he did a backflip in time to avoid the werewolf who had its body crashing into where he was.

"Now!" he shouted and suddenly, the werewolf was unable to move as it felt something like gravity crash into it with a lot of pressure not allowing it to move and was trying to force it to the ground.

Knowing what it was, the werewolf looked to see a big Qi fist in the air hung above it. Then hearing running steps, the werewolf looked down to see Peter in front of it and then jumping up quickly while coating his axe with all his remaining Qi.

He swung it quickly towards its neck slicing it open causing black blood to spurt out of it and hitting Peter in the face. With a thud, the werewolf fell down and so did Peter as he had pushed himself beyond his limit.

Immediately the werewolf died, Wilfred was now able to move as he quickly grabbed Peter safely from hitting the ground.

"I just hope the werewolf slayer is okay." Wilfred mumbled as he looked towards the hole where Jake had been sent in earlier.

Chapter 308 Second Chance

After getting hit by the werewolf to the extent he crashed into a building and popped out the other end, Jake was seen laying down on the hard ground with blood trickling down his mouth and nose but he was still alive as he stared at the sky while seeing the humongous yellow fist made out of Qi in the distance.

"Jake! I hate to say this but you are still not strong enough to handle Blip. Don't get me wrong, you are definitely stronger than that Beta werewolf that attacked Aurora that time but Blip is on a different level right now." Zee said.

"I know." Jake replied while coughing out blood in pain. "But what can I do? I can't abandon my comrades at all and I still need to take revenge."

"Look at you! You are unable to get up and you still want to fight? You are in no condition to do so!" Zee shouted.

"It saddens me to know that you are right, I'm weak. But I still want to kill that werewolf so bad!" Jake shouted in the air before he went into a coughing fit.

{Ding! Notification alert}

{Host wishes to get rid of the Beta werewolf known as Blip but he is too weak to. For his strong desire to get rid of the werewolf, the system wants to help host}

"Huh?" Jake said in confusion as he stared at the notification screen in front of him.

{For his strong desire to eradicate the Beta werewolf, the system wants to grant host some help by pulling all his skills from cool down and the user will be back to how strong he was in the previous 24 hours}

{But this privilege will only last for ten minutes before the host is back to his current condition or worse.}

{Does host want this privilege or not? Yes/ No}

"What is this?" Jake mumbled as he read everything word for word until his eyes widened in shock. "Or worse? What does it mean by reduced to a worse condition?"

'But this privilege is tempting but I'm worried about what the worse condition is.' he thought.

{Offer is only available for ten more seconds}

"10..."

"9..."

"8..."

"7..."

"6..."

"5..."

"Screw this!" He shouted and then he clicked yes.

{Is host sure he wants this privilege? Yes/ No}

"Yes!" Jake screamed in his head and the screen left his vision then he felt a warm light envelope him all around his body making him glow slightly. Read exclusive chapters at My Virtual Library Empire

And after a few seconds, he was finally able to move as his body felt lighter than before and he could feel his Qi running around his body while his body ached no more.

{Count down to the end of this privilege starts now}

{10: 59: 00}

"Right! I need to get back now." He said and then looked off into the distance at the building he popped out from.

'This should be faster.' he thought and then clicked on a skill using his mind.

{Blink}

Immediately, he felt like he was going through a portal and like a blur, he was back at the battlefield and could see the werewolf holding onto Alex strongly and its furry clawed hand was brimming with Qi.

"I will send you to hell now and after a few months, your dad will accompany you!" Blip said and then swung his furry claws that was coated in Qi towards Alex's face.

"Darn it! Blink!" He shouted in his head and he suddenly appeared again in the battlefield while his own hand was also brimming with Qi as he had poured everything in his hands.

"He is not the one going to hell, you are and I will be the one to send you there!" A voice was heard saying and the werewolf's furry claws brimming with Qi was stopped dead in its tracks.

Then swinging his hand from below, it crashed into the werewolf's head sending him flying into a building razing it down to the ground.

"Alex! You okay?" Jake asked as he hurried over to Alex who was on the floor coughing.

"Yeah, I will." He replied and then looked up to see the humongous Qi fist hung over the battlefield suddenly dispersed which allowed everybody to move again.

But then Alex's eyes widened as he looked behind Jake. "Incoming!"

Turning around, he could see a huge chunk of wall from a building heading his way and not wasting time, he swung his hand that was still being supplemented with Qi into the wall reducing it to a pile of dust in front of him.

"You this kid don't want to die easy huh? Fine! I will make sure to give you a slow and painful death since you refused to die easy." Blip said as he was causally walking forward.

"Weren't you taught by your Alpha, that you shouldn't be so full of yourself? Especially when the odds of the fight isn't sure." He smiled and then all around Jake, puffs of smoke appeared again and the familiar sight of clones of the werewolf slayer.

"I have just been given a second chance, and I will make sure I use it to the fullest while also sending you to hell and after a few months, your Alpha would tag along!" He shouted and all the clones along with Jake dashed forward.

"Tch! So unoriginal!" Blip scoffed and also dashed forward to meet all the Jakes dead in the centre.

Chapter 309 Your world isn't still safe

"Weren't you taught by your Alpha, that you shouldn't be so full of yourself? Especially when the odds of the fight isn't sure." He smiled and then all around Jake, puffs of smoke appeared again and the familiar sight of clones of the werewolf slayer.

"I have just been given a second chance, and I will make sure I use it to the fullest while also sending you to hell and after a few months, your Alpha would tag along!" He shouted and all the clones along with Jake dashed forward.

"Tch! So unoriginal!" Blip scoffed and also dashed forward to meet all the Jakes dead in the centre.

Two of the clones jumped up at once and delivered a roundhouse kick to the werewolf's head sending it skidding slightly then two more clones dashed forward to deliver a punch to the werewolf but it managed to jump back in time to avoid it.

Activating {Step shift} Jake suddenly appeared behind the werewolf and he delivered a devastating punch to its head sending it flying forward and crashing into the ground.

Before it could stand up, all the clones quickly activated {Step Shift} to get in front of it and began bombarding it with Qi projectiles not letting the werewolf have any chance of getting up.

The werewolf was now seen standing up even when the clones were bombarding it with Qi projectiles but they were just bouncing off its fur and thick body and then swinging its claws, a Qi claw strike appeared and immediately crashed into one of the clones killing it.

"You clones are so annoying!" Blip said as he dashed towards one of the clones and quickly killed it again leaving Jake with three clones.

"Sacrifice the weak and let the strong reign! Isn't that what you werewolves believe in?" Jake asked as he was seen in front of Blip and then he delivered a strong uppercut lifting its body up.

And before it could crash into the ground, Jake grabbed the legs and slammed it hard into the ground creating a huge crater that went several metres around and then he climbed onto the furry body of the werewolf.

"Time for you to feel a world of pain. Strength Surge!" He shouted and immediately without wasting time, Jake began raining punches on the werewolf's face one after the other.

The hits became consistent that Blip wasn't able to find a loophole as Jake kept plummeting it with rains of punches causing blood to spill from Blip's mouth. It initially started with a trickle but then, his furry snout began showing signs of weakness as Jake didn't relent.

{Strength Surge has ended}

Finally! Blip found a loophole as the hits became weaker and wasn't consistent as before. Grabbing one of his hands before it crashed into him, Blip delivered a kick to Jake causing him to fly away from his body.

{-5 HP}

Jumping up, Blip felt a sting in his abdomen. Looking down, he could see a fiery red haired individual with his sword hitting him in the abdomen.

"Did you forget about me?" Alex asked and then he kicked the werewolf away in the path of the three clones who all lifted their hands together and shot out bolts of lightning that crashed into Blip's back burning him slightly.

Immediately Blip regained his footing, he charged towards Alex with full speed that he would soon get to him but then all of a sudden, he lost control of his body and he was heading in another direction.

"What is going on? Why is my body moving away from you?" Blip asked worriedly as he passed Alex and kept moving without being able to control his body.

"For a second there, I was worried that this won't work but I'm glad it did." Jake said as he had activated his skill {Magnet} that attracted all enemy within a metre radius to him.

Readying his fist that was still brimming with Qi, he unleashed a powerful punch towards the werewolf's stomach that caused him to spit out blood and a loud bang resounded while his body crashed into the ground hard cracking the ground slightly.

{Inventory: advanced tier sword}

Right on cue, a sword appeared in his hand while Blip was seen standing up with blood trickling down his mouth and coughing out, a mouthful of blood came out.

"It's not over yet!" Blip shouted and then pouring all his Qi to his feet to give him a speed boost.

'Using that Qi fist from earlier took up more than half of my Qi to cast and now with me pouring all my Qi to my feet leaving next to nothing to protect my body, I hope it is enough to catch him unaware and end this fight.' he thought as he exploded from his position so fast that he was almost like a blur.

Throwing out his clawed fist like as if he was about to punch him, before his fist even connected with Jake, a loud bang already sounded as if Blip's fist broke the sound barrier and was speeding towards the werewolf slayer's face.

Right on cue, before Blip's fist connected with his face, he was suddenly teleported two metres away from him just in time to avoid the hit.

{02min: 30 sec}

'I still have more time on my hands.' he thought as he could see Blip been plummeted by his clones with hits and lightning bolts all around his body.

'It's a good thing I was able to anticipate his move from earlier if not, i would have lost my head by now. I need to finish him off quickly before he decides to eat any bodies to regenerate.' he thought.

With a swat of his claws, all the clones turned into puffs of smoke and Blip was about to move when he saw a bolt of lightning heading towards him followed by an invisible Qi fist.

Crossing his hand in a X shape, the bolt of lightning crashed into him stunning him slightly then the Qi fist crashed into him hard causing him to spit out blood. As if that wasn't enough, more lightning bolts and Qi were seen heading towards the Beta werewolf not letting him move one bit.

The accumulated hit of the lightning bolts was beginning to take a toll on Blip as he wasn't able to lift a foot while the continuous hit of the Qi fist were wearing him down quickly.

Rex who was watching, quickly sat the edge of his seat as he noticed what the werewolf slayer was doing.

'Is he doing what I think he is doing?' he thought as he kept on watching.

{01min: 20sec}

"I don't have much time on my hands again." He mumbled and then the continuous barrage of lightning bolts and Qi fist stopped while Blip was seen bleeding all over and a small smirk played on his lips.

"Haha! I knew that between my thick fur and your weird powers or energy, your energy would lose out." Blip laughed then he took a step when he saw the werewolf slayer take a step back and lift his sword up and then powering it with Qi and coating it with lightning, he threw it at Blip.

The sword was flying towards Blip at breakneck speed that it began breaking the sound barrier continuously while producing loud bangs.

Seeing the sword heading for him, Blip was quick to jump out of the way just in time as the sword narrowly missed him while grazing his fur slightly.

"What happened? Is that a last ditch effort? Have you suddenly grown des..." Blip suddenly coughed out blood and his eyes widened.

"No! It wasn't a last ditch effort, it was all part of my plan." Jake smiled as his hands were held out and the sword he had earlier thrown, was plunged into Blip's furry neck from behind.

Earlier, when he had thrown the sword, he knew that Blip would avoid it and which he did so before the sword lost momentum, he quickly activated his new skill {Attract} a skill that allowed him to draw anything or object towards him but it was limited to its size.

"I told you, it wasn't over till I want it to be. The fight is over, now burn in hell!" Jake shouted as he drew his hand forward and the sword pushed through Blip's neck coming out the other end and headed towards Jake's hand which he caught easily by its hilt.

"Haha! Did you think that mere sword will kill me?" Blip asked a mouthful of blood poured out his mouth.

"No! But the active skill will." Jake smiled and then turned around to head towards Paul who stood confused.

"What do..." Blip wanted to ask when he suddenly grabbed his head with his claws and began clawing at it frantically and also holding his neck which kept spurting out blood.

Slowly, foam began pouring out his mouth along with blood and then he fell to his knees heavily cracking the ground beneath his feet while his transformation began receding. First his snout, then his claws then his body and finally, Blip transformed back into a human before he glared at Jake.

"You... might have defeated me now...b...but...but your world isn't still saf...e" He said and then his eyes shut tight while still on his kneeling position.

Immediately, a burst of pain ran through Jake's body while his eyes became bloodshot then he began coughing out blood and in the next instant, he fell down to his knees unconsciously.

Chapter 310 Wait for the werewolf slayer to wake up

Everybody watching but physically and on screen, were all silent at once as if their minds were linked to become silent as they watched on at what happened.

They all saw the werewolf slayer defeat the Beta werewolf and not just chase him, he killed him. A feat which the big three hadn't achieved yet someone younger than them managed to do it.

Immediately the werewolf fell, everybody on the battlefield, at home and in school watching the fight all cheered loudly at this as they saw the strong Beta werewolf fall to his knees and die.

They were tears of joy trickling down everybody's faces as they congratulated themselves while those living in the iron fist city all heaved a sigh of relief.

But before General Paul could do anything else, everybody all saw the werewolf suddenly stop then blood began pouring from all the pores on his body.

Then he unleashed an ear piercing scream before collapsing to the ground which further shocked everybody as they hadn't expected something like this to happen as they had seen that the werewolf hadn't really dealt a heavy blow to the werewolf slayer yet.

Alex and General Paul quickly dashed towards Jake and lifted him up before taking him into the huge mansion with Emily, Sunny and Berg following along.

The drones didn't push forward as all the owners recalled back their drones except Bubble who had his drone hovering around the city trying to get a view of the destruction caused by the Beta werewolf and the werewolf slayer to the viewers.

Heading up the stairs, they passed through fields of dead adventurers before they got up stairs to a room made for Blip and they laid Jake down.

Peter, Wilfred, Sophia and Andrew quickly rushed into the room and they saw the state Jake was in which surprised Peter.

"He needs a healer now." Peter said as he went towards the bed and could see Jake's body slightly twitching in pain.

"I'm contacting Hailey now, but it will take time before they get here." Paul replied.

"We don't have much time! He is in a critical condition and Hailey knows how to use Qi to cure someone.

"I can try but it wouldn't be as effective as Hailey." Paul said.

"Just go for it, anything is better than nothing." Alex said as he looked at Jake worriedly.

Paul stepped forward and was about to place his palms on Jake when it was suddenly grabbed by Peter.

"If this doesn't work and you mistakenly kill him, just know that you will accompany him straight after." Peter said and then he let go of General Paul's hands.

'What's wrong with this kid, his threat just got me slightly worried. Me? A whole General is scared of a kid's threat?' he scoffed in his mind before he rubbed his palms together and they glowed slightly yellow.

Placing it on Jake's abdomen, they could see he wasn't twitching anymore and his face looked almost relaxed which made Peter relax back and let General Paul do whatever he was doing.

"So what next?" Sophia asked.

"What next? I go ahead and free the Rave lord." Berg said as he turned towards Andrew with a glare. "You! Where's the key to the dungeon?"

"I...it's with the guards that always guards the dungeon. I can get them to free the Rave lord." Andrew replied.

"Good! Because I'm not letting him stay there a second more so let's go." Berg said and he along with Andrew left the room for the dungeon leaving the others in the room.

"I can't believe it huh." Alex chuckled as he stared at the ceiling of the room. "Jake managed to kill a Beta werewolf on his own and took over the number three independent Guild."

"He hasn't really taken over the guild just yet, let him wake up to decide that." Emily said.

"That's right." Alex smiled and then continued to stare at Emily. Read new chapters at My Virtual Library Empire

"What's wrong?" She asked after noticing Alex's stare and her cheeks couldn't help but heat up.

"Nothing, I'm just glad that you are okay. Because I didn't know what I would do if something had happened to you." Alex replied with a small smile.

"You do know that I'm just a little under you in strength right? So nothing could easily happen to me as I'm not leaving you yet, we still have to create a family together." Emily said as she walked over towards Alex and held him tightly.

"Ahem! We are still in the room you know?" Peter said awkwardly and they both disengaged from their embrace. "By the way, when did this happen?"

"It's a long story." Alex replied scratching his head nervously.

"Anyway, I'm happy for you bruh, for you both." Peter smiled and then turned towards Jake who now had his face relaxed while Paul was sweating slightly. "At least one of you both finally realized his feelings."

"Shit! I'm totally out of Qi now." Paul said and then his hands which were glowing began blinking in and out like a led light of some kind before finally going out.

"At least his condition is somewhat better now." Alex said.

"I didn't know how to use the Qi to heal his wounds like Hayley does, but I managed to heal some of his internal injuries. So we still have to patch his external injuries before Hailey gets here." Paul said.

"On it." Wilfred said and then he went out and few minutes later, he was back with a small box and then began pulling out different things from it like bandages, purifiers and the likes.

He began disinfecting Jake's wounds and bandaging it. After a few minutes of careful bandaging, he was finally done.

"Now we just have to wait for Hayley to come do her work while Jake wakes up." Sophia said with a sigh.

"Nurse Hayley is here!" Sunny announced while coming from outside with Hayley behind him.

"That was very quick!" Paul mumbled and then allowed Hayley to begin her work.

"I was already on standby in a nearby town waiting for your signals so I can come down here to treat the injured. I can't believe this kid is the werewolf slayer." Hayley replied as she continued working on Jake's injuries.

"How is he now?" Peter asked.

"He is fine although I think he is totally exhausted so he will sleep for some while but he is totally fine." Hayley replied and Peter heaved a sigh of relief.

"Now we wait for the werewolf slayer to wake up." Alex said.
