Chapter 351 Copy cat!

The world just witnessed the domineering power of the leader of the thunderbolt guild and they couldn't help but comment on it.

"How can a middle aged man move so fast and quick? He even managed to best some of the core members of the Fang hunters singlehandedly!" Someone commented.

"This is unbelievable!" Another person commented.

"I'm really short of words and I'm shocked literally. Lol."

"The big three should just change this duel to the duel of monsters because these people are on a whole different level!"

"Lol! I really feel sorry for the werewolves now. Earlier we didn't have much power on our side and now, with these few years of break, we managed to gather these monsters. If they were to attack, they would really be digging their own graves."

"True! Not only do we have the big three that would soon be the big four, we now have these monsters on our team." Another person replied.

"Let's see what would happen next." Someone said.

"Th..." Bane stuttered as he caught himself losing composure due to what he saw but he quickly regained his composure and continued speaking. "The thunderbolt guild wins!"

"Next round please!" He said. And the holographic display appeared shuffling on some teams before finally stopping.

"Next teams! Team A from the phoenix guild vs team B from Daisy guild." Bane commented and the two teams stepped forward.

On the phoenix guild, they had Gray, the Katana user known as Ethan, the giant known as Grodd while the Daisy guild had three females that were really not well known.

"Don't worry ladies! We already know that they are monsters so just do your best okay?" Linda cheered as the females were seen walking onto the platform with their different weapons in hand.

"I'm sure you both can handle them right? I need to conserve my strength for someone." Gray smiled as he looked up to see Jake staring at the fight with a slight frown while the public managed to pick up the words said by Gray and his sight.

"Why does it feel like the leader of the phoenix guild just wants to pick a fight with the leader of the Fang hunters!"

"Probably to prove who is stronger and the best." Another person replied.

The countdown clock appeared again and it began ticking down until it hit 0 and the teams were about to dash forward with Gray standing behind.

"Oh! Grodd! I know you have a monstrous amount of strength, just kindly go gentle on the ladies will you? I don't want you hurting their delicate bodies." Gray shouted while licking his lips.

"Will do to remember!" Grodd said as they could see the females charging right at them with full speed and then they swung their weapons at the men with the Katan user clashing against one of the females that used a sword.

Making a slash from the side, she jumped back just in time to avoid the slash and then swung her sword in the air several times sending Qi slashes towards Ethan who precisely and skillfully struck the slashes breaking them totally.

And then he moved quickly towards the female and made a thrust towards her stomach but she brought her sword in time to block it before retaliating.

"I can't believe she is holding her own against that monster." Linda mumbled.

Meanwhile Grodd was facing off against two females with one using a dagger and the other a whip.

"You know, you being a giant makes you an easier target." The whip user said as she swung her whip towards Grodd who raised his hand to block and the whip wrapped around his arm.

While the dagger user charged right at him from the side and swiftly jumped up to strike him but swatting his hand, a huge wave of Qi came out and hit her sending her flying and crashing into the platform while coughing out blood and going unconscious.

"What the hell?! I knew he was a monster but just by swatting his hand, he knocked her unconscious!" Peter commented in shock.

Meanwhile the whip user tried her hardest to tug at the whip trying to drag him back but it wasn't working as Grodd just lifted his hand causally and the whip user was raised dangling above the ground while struggling to drag her whip.

"What were you saying about me being a target?" Grodd asked as he just flung his hand sending the whip user flying and crashing into the sword female that was charging up an attack towards Ethan and the two went flying off the platform.

"Tch! They are so weak." Grodd mumbled.

"Grodd! What the hell?! I was having fun with that female and you just threw her off the platform?!" Ethan shouted.

But Grodd just walked off the platform nonchalantly with a shrug while Gray chuckled.

"Grodd come here darn it!" Ethan shouted as they all left the platform leaving the world stunned.

"The next match, is between the Fang hunters team A and the thunderbolt team B!" Bane announced after the holographic display shuffled a bit.

Stepping onto the platform was Jake, Peter and Kate while on the opposite side were some men that all wielded swords each with a smile on their face.

"I will leave you two to handle them. Gotta conserve my strength for someone else!" Jake said and the online forum went crazy.

"He is a copy cat! Isn't that the same words the phoenix guild leader said?!"

"Yup it sure is! Which means they both are ready to have a go at each other." Another person replied as the countdown clock appeared again and in a flash, it struck o.

Without wasting time from where she was, Kate took out her bow and arrow and got ready to shoot.

"Oh! Kate! Peter! End this quickly please, I'm tired." Jake commented and Peter smiled as he got his fists ready.

"They aren't even worth me using my weapons on." Peter said as he dashed forward while Kate infused her arrows with as much Qi as she could.

Peter dashed towards one of the sword user that swung his sword towards the incoming Peter who swiftly pivoted sideways sharply avoiding the swing then he unleashed a swift roundhouse kick on his head sending him skidding hard almost falling off the platform.

Meanwhile another sword user appeared behind him as was about to hit Peter with his sword but then letting her arrow loose, Kate's arrow smashed into the sword breaking it into pieces while Peter turned around and grabbed the attacker by the head before kneeing him hard in the stomach causing the air to be knocked out of his mouth and then grabbing him with one hand, he smashed him into the ground totally knocking him out.

And then the second person that had almost fallen off the platform was seen heading towards Peter with full speed while the second person was coming from the other side.

"Kate!" Peter smiled.

"On it!" She said and then she let two Qi infused arrows loose as they were seen spinning rapidly drawing a small tornado at their bottom and was heading towards the men who all raised their swords to block but when the arrows slammed into it, it broke it to pieces and sent the men skidding when Peter appeared in front of them and slammed his hands in their faces sending them flying off the platform.

"Team A of the Fang hunters win!" Bane announced and the fang hunters watching from their screens and the base cheered loudly.

"And now, let's see the next fight!" Bane said as the deciding factor appeared again and began shuffling until it stopped on some teams.

"Now this is a surprise." Bane smiled and the world too were shocked and at the same time excited. "The next match would be between the Fang hunters' team A vs the phoenix guild's team A!"

Chapter 352 Become the supreme system user!

"Team A of the Fang hunters win!" Bane announced and the fang hunters watching from their screens and the base cheered loudly.

"And now, let's see the next fight!" Bane said as the deciding factor appeared again and began shuffling until it stopped on some teams.

"Now this is a surprise." Bane smiled and the world too were shocked and at the same time excited. "The next match would be between the Fang hunters' team A vs the phoenix guild's team A!"

Immediately the shuffling stopped and Bane announced the next teams to fight, the whole online forum went crazy in excitement.

"Finally! A fight between two monsters!"

"I wish I was there right now, I would have kissed the holographic thingy."

"It's like the holographic thingy knows what we wanted to see." Another person commented and seeing the comments pouring in, Erin turned to the camera with her microphone.

"Seeing the next match up, the whole world are excited! And truth be told, I'm also excited to see what the next contestants have to offer." Erin announced and hearing what she said, Bane smiled.

"Now I can't wait for that phoenix guild leader to take care of the werewolf slayer's attitude." Rivock commented with a chuckle.

"I'm not sure about your comment, what if it's the other way round?" Rex asked.

"Are you kidding me? Did we watch when Gray took over the planet? He practically toyed around with the legendary tier beast and didn't even use Qi." Rivock replied.

"Even the werewolf slayer toyed around with his own beast and mind you, he had the mysterious power to tame it." Rex said.

"Wanna place a bet on who would win?" Rivock asked.

"Guys! Can you just cool it and act mature? Why are guys planning on betting?" Bane asked as he looked at the others that scoffed. "Why are you all betting without me huh? 2000 credits on the werewolf slayer winning this fight."

"Bane you sneaky bastard!" Rex smiled. "5000 credits on the werewolf slayer winning this fight easily."

"And I bet 10,000 credits on Gray winning this match." Rivock added.

"Woah! That's a lot you know? Are you comfortable with losing 10,000 credits?" Rex asked with a chuckle.

"Who is talking about losing here? I'm positive I will eat up your credits." Rivock said and that was when they heard Erin's commentary.

"It suddenly seems like a betting poll has been created. They are two betting polls created, one on who would win the fight between the werewolf slayer and the Phoenix guild leader while the second poll is on who would win the duel in total and claim the seat of the big four." Erin commented and Bane raised an eyebrow.

"Did you do this?" Rex asked Bane.

"Do what? Did you see me with my computer or anything?" Bane asked.

"Then who did?" Rivock wondered and Bane just shrugged.

Inside the Fang hunters' Aeroglide, in a private cabin, Jade could be seen in front of a computer with a wide smile on his face.

"It wasn't easy creating the poll as I had to hack a lot of things but I finally did it. One thing Jake doesn't know about me is that I'm a hacker too along with a tech guru. This is also my thank you and support for you to win this match and duel altogether. No matter what they bet on, the money would be going into the Fang hunters' account." Jade smiled as he could see the bets rolling in.

"Woah!" Erin shouted down the camera. "The public have begun aggressively betting as they are betting on Gray to win this match and the thunderbolt guild on winning the match together. For the match up, Gray is in the lead with the werewolf slayer a little behind." Find exclusive stories on My Virtual Library Empire

"For the whole duel altogether, the phoenix guild are at the top with the thunderbolt guild next and the Fang hunters' next. The people are aggressively betting." She commented when Bane commented.

"Alright! Will all teams please step forward for the match?" Bane said and the two teams stepped forward with a smile on Gray's face.

Jake just folded his hands with a slight frown on his face.

"You know, I have been meaning to meet and talk to you for so long as I have a lot of questions to ask you which you have to answer." Jake said as he stepped forward in front of Peter and Kate.

"Oh yeah?! Truth be told, ever since I saw you take over the iron fist guild and fight against Blip, I have also been meaning to ask you some questions." Gray said as he stepped with a smile plastered on his face.

"I have questions to ask and so do you." Jake sighed as he unfolded his hands and placed them in his pants' pockets. "So how about this, the loser of this match gets to answer the winner's every question honestly."

"That is actually a fair deal for me especially considering that I'm the most favorite to win." Gray said.

"Being the most favorite to win doesn't mean that you will win." Jake said.

"So how about this, let's make this a match between us?" Gray asked.

"Was already planning on doing that." Jake said and then he turned around to look at Kate and Peter. "Kindly stand down."

"But Jake..." Kate was about to say when Peter placed his hands on her shoulder holding back.

"Guys! Stand down too. I have business to sort out with him." Gray said.

"Go crazy." Grodd said.

"Was planning to." Gray replied and then the countdown clock appeared as the two of them stepped forward on the centre of the platform a few feet away from each other.

When it hit 0, they didn't dash forward like the others did as they stood there with the same expression on their faces. "Confusion!"

They both stared in front of them as if reading something which caused the onlookers to be confused unknown to them that the two participants had received a notification from their systems at the same time.

"I guess the system also wants us to do this huh." Gray said with a chuckle but he was surprised as Jake didn't reply.

And that was because of the conversation he was having with Zee.

When Zee saw the system notification, he was shocked.

"Th...this can't be right! How does he have a system too?" Zee shouted in Jake's head.

"Huh?! What do you mean? What is going on?" Jake asked.

"Gray shouldn't have a system! Yours was supposed to be a one of a kind." Zee replied.

"What do you mean!" Jake asked and then he heard Zee sighing.

"You know what, focus on your match right now. The time is ticking. I promise when you win this fight, I will tell you everything. Everything about the system and myself." Zee said.

"Now this is more reason for me to win." Jake said as he was wondering what secret Zee had to spill. Read latest chapters at My Virtual Library Empire

"What's wrong? Got the same notification?" Gray asked.

"Yeah and now I just got more motivation to win as I can't lose this system." Jake replied.

"Me too. So I'm sorry I have to go all out now." Gray said and the next second, his Qi was now overflowing from his body rising around like visual Qi but it was more invisible as everybody close to him were suddenly being pushed back slightly to the extent they were thrown off the platform as if a huge gust of wind hit them.

"Such powerful aura!" Bane commented.

"Yeah! I guess I also need to get serious and go all out since you aren't holding back." Jake said and then a huge pressure descended on the platform that almost felt suffocating to those standing behind Jake and they were been pushed away from the platform.

"I guess they don't want us interrupting their fight huh." Peter said and then both he and Kate were flung from the platform as they hit the ground.

"Now I know that this fight would be epic!" Someone commented on the online forum.

Immediately, the clock hit 0, Jake and Gray dashed forward from their position as they met in the centre with a bang when their knuckles hit one another's and a huge shockwave rippled out everywhere hitting those in the stadium and almost throwing Druig's drones out of the sky.

"Impressive!" Gray said as he jumped back and so did Jake.

And at the same time, they pushed off forward again at tremendous speed and they were about to hit each other in the centre when all of a sudden Jake pivoted on one foot swiveling around Gray before unleashing a lightning fast roundhouse kick towards his head but he lifted his hands just in time to block and was to retaliate back.

When Jake pushed off from the ground using his other leg as he was seen in the air releasing an axe kick on Gray's hands that was blocking his roundhouse kick sending another round of shockwave to ripple out again.

"Such level of strength! They aren't taking it lightly on each other." Erin commented as even the hot air from the shockwave was hitting her from where she was.

Jumping back, Gray smirked as he twirled his hands around and could see Jake taking a stance.

"What happened? Why aren't you using the power of the system?" He asked.

"I could ask the same thing about you too." Jake replied as in front of everybody, a pair of advanced tier gauntlets appeared on his hand as he clenched it with a smile.

"Wouldn't be fair if I also don't use a weapon right? Good thing I also have a pair of gauntlets." Gray said a pair of gauntlets appeared on his hands like how Jake's did.

"Ready?" He asked.

"That's my line!" Jake said as he pushed off towards Gray and so did he as they met at the centre with a bang again sending another round of shockwaves everywhere before Gray threw a hook towards Jake's head but he had swiftly activated {Step shift} to get away just in time.

"Nice! Now you are using the system more." Gray said as he bent his feet forward ready to dash forward but before he could, Jake had already close the distance.

But Gray was still fast enough to avoid the cross coming towards his neck and then he swung his arm forward. The strength from his swing broke countless sound barrier as it was about to connect when Jake took a step back just in time and then pivoted sideways to avoid a kick to his head.

In a flash, he pushed off towards Gray and he swiftly unleashed a powerful punch on his shoulder sending him skidding more than an inch with a smile on his face.

"Skillful and strong." Gray commented.

"Just shut the fuck up and let's fight!" Jake shouted as he activated 'step shift' again appearing in front of Gray when he threw a punch towards his face but surprisingly, there was no weight behind his hit as his hand continued forward producing a gust of wind.

"Looking for me?" Jake heard a voice call out directly from his left side and he quickly jumped back but then a swift kick landed on his face sending him flying but flipping backwards, he landed smoothly on the ground with his face slightly red from the kick.

"Did you think you were the only one who could use step shift?" Gray asked and then he saw Jake chuckling before turning into a full laughter.

"Ever since my stats crossed the ninety numbers, I haven't seen anybody that could contend with me in a battle of strength and speed except Blip then. But I just found one and who knew I would have so much fun fighting right now." Jake chuckled.

"You just said your stats crossed the ninety? Well which means you are not a match for me!" Gray said and then he dashed forward at tremendous speed that he looked like a blur.

"You forgot I have another power except the system!" Jake shouted as Gray was now incredibly close when a huge fist made of Qi appeared in front of him as it slammed into him sending him flying and crashing into the hard diamond surface.

Chapter 354 Clash of the System users {2}

The fight between the two system users was destructive as each of them unleashed powers and strengths that was enough to cause shockwaves after shockwaves to ripple out hitting those in the spectating stands.

Even the big three could feel the impact the fight had as their viewing booth shook slightly whenever the two fighters collided with a strong hit. The way the fight was going, no one was sure of who would win at this pace.

But that all changed when Jake decided to use his Qi in the fight and turn the tides.

"You forgot I have another power except the system!" Jake shouted as Gray was now incredibly close when a huge fist made of Qi appeared in front of him as it slammed into him sending him flying and crashing into the hard diamond surface.

Walking forward with measured steps, Jake suddenly halted as he could see Gray standing up slightly from the ground while chuckling and his cape fluttering in the wind.

"I guess I have been taking things lightly huh." Gray said and then he grabbed his cape by the side. "Let's see if you can keep up with me level of speed." He said and then ripped his cape off throwing it to the ground.

Before the cape could hit the ground, Gray was seen in front of Jake as he unleashed an uppercut sending him flying backwards but before he could even hit the ground, Gray jumped up high and then came falling back with his hands clutched together as he hammered it into Jake's stomach sending him crashing into the ground at tremendous speed that a more bigger shockwave hit the crowd and one of the drones fell off the sky.

"Damn it! How strong was that punch to cause my drone that is able to withstand a shockwave from two high king tier beasts fighting?" Druig shouted in shock and the public could hear it loud and clear as they turned to their keyboards.

"If it was the shockwave that threw the drone of the sky, imagine what it would feel like experiencing the main hit." Someone commented.

"Now I'm feeling slightly sorry for the werewolf slayer."

"It is actually good for him. His arrogance is the cause of his downfall and I won't be surprised if he never gets up after that hit." Another person replied but then they were shocked as they could see Jake standing up with a smirk on his face.

"Surprised?" Jake asked.

"Not in one bit." Gray said as he stood a few feet away from Jake. "I knew something like that won't be enough to defeat you."

'Good thing I had activated Shield of will on time to protect me from that hit otherwise, my bones would have gotten broken.' Jake thought with a frown on his face as he took a step forward.

"You managed to hit me away using Qi, so how about I pay you back." Gray said drawing Jake out of his thoughts and then he could see a hundred Qi shard surrounding Gray which caused him to take a step back.

'My gauntlets can't block all that.' Jake thought and then he equipped his sword and also activated a skill.

{Adrenaline rush: a skill that temporarily increase his speed and agility by 2 percent for 2 minutes}

'2 percent might not sound as a lot right now, but for me it isn't little.' he thought as he could see the smirk on Gray's face growing wider and wider.

"Die you inferior System user!" Gray shouted as he swung his hands forward sending the shards towards Jake at tremendous speed.

'The difference between visual Qi and invisible Qi is that the former is stronger and faster than the latter.' Jake thought as he bent his feet forward with his sword in front of him and then when the shards were close, he exploded forward.

Swinging his sword and moving like a blur that the public except the big three and high level fighters were unable to see was Jake as he jumped up and sideways hitting the shards precisely breaking it apart even though it was a little bit hard.

Jake was moving like a blur as in a minute, he was done dealing with the shards as he landed on the ground huffing and panting before he smiled and dashed forward towards Gray at tremendous speed.

'Good thing I still have a minute left before AR runs out.' he thought as he caught Gray unaware and swung his sword so fast that most people won't be able to keep up.

"Adrenaline Rush!" Gray shouted and in a flash, he managed to escape Jake's swing in the nick of time by the skin of his teeth.

'Damn! I forgot he had that skill.' Jake thought as he was caught skidding on the floor stopping himself from moving forward.

"I need to commend you as you have been through your own sheer of battles which makes you versatile and fast but you are no match for the ultimate system user!" Gray shouted with his hands in the air.

"Why do you like talking too much? Enough yapping, more fighting!" Jake shouted as he activated {Step shift} and he was in front of Gray before unleashing a swift powerful roundhouse kick that lifted Gray from the ground.

Then Jake pushed off from the ground before kicking Gray in the stomach sending him flying and crashing into the hard ground causing another shockwave to ripple out while the hard diamond ground slightly cracked a bit.

But even with this, Gray was seen standing up slowly with a trickle of blood on his mouth as he was about to talk when he looked up to see a shadow cast over him.

"You wanted to overwhelm me with Qi shards, so let me do the same." Jake said as he pointed his hands to the sky and a hundred Qi sword were seen floating above the ground and their tips pointed towards Gray who gulped loudly.

And then swinging his hands back, the hundred swords were seen heading towards him at neck breaking speed that it would be hard for some people to avoid but not Gray as he swiftly jumped up in time equipping his sword at the same time before he came back down.

With a swing of his sword, a dozen Qi sword shattered to the ground before he swirled his Qi to his feet and dashed towards the other incoming swords. And then everything became a blur as he was moving all around clashing with the swords.

Each clash was sending gust of wind out hitting the spectators but it wasn't much as he kept on jumping around hitting, breaking and shattering the swords into pieces.

And in two minutes, he was done as he could be seen landing on the ground smoothly while his face was drenched in sweat but the smile still didn't leave his face as his sword was seen glowing.

"Should we kick it up a notch?" Jake asked with a smirk on his face when the commenters took their keyboards.

"Wait! Are they not fighting at full strength or what is Jake saying?" Enjoy more content from My Virtual Library Empire

"Kick it up a notch?! What notch are you guys kicking it up to? I can feel my screen vibrating watching you all fight."

"I still wonder who can contend with the two. Even the big three would surely struggle against the two of them."

"What is this one saying? You just called them the big three and you think they can't handle these twigs?!"

"Who is this one calling twigs?! Remember that one of these twig chased a Beta werewolf away and killed another one. Have your so-called big three accomplished that?"

"He killed the Beta werewolf known as Blip... true but what was his condition after? I'm sure if one of the big three were to try the same, they won't end up in the same state." someone replied.

Gray on hearing Jake's words stood upright and smiled.

"I thought you would never ask." Gray said and then the bright place suddenly got dark, dark and darker to the extent it almost looked like it was nighttime while the drones in the air were shaking and trying their best to move away.

Then all around Gray, visual Qi burst out spreading around his body like a shroud of some kind flapping around in the wind like his cape and then the whole place got brighter that it seemed like the sun had descended onto Earth causing some of the spectators to close their eyes.

"Visual Qi!" Gray said as he took a step forward with a smirk on his face while his fiery yellow Qi was floating and flapping in the air. "It is such an interesting concept and it took a lot of time for me to learn it as it is quite difficult. Until I finally grasped it and ever since then, no one has ever been able to defeat me except the big three."

"No one would have known about this but I battled against Rex Slade privately and I lost horribly." Gray said and everybody gasped while Rex smiled.

"Now I know where I have seen him before." Rex said with a smile while the others looked at him.

"He is speaking the truth?" Rivoock asked.

"Yeah! We fought when he was still an eager youngling trying to take my seat from me. So he challenged me to a duel and lost horribly although he did entertain me quite a bit which was why I personally taught him how to use Qi and all the stages I knew." Rex said.

"And you betted against him?" Rivoock asked.

"That was before I remembered who he was... you do know we have a lot on our plate so I couldn't remember." Rex said with a shrug.

"Which means if it's true, then the werewolf slayer is done for." Rivock chuckled.

"Don't count him out yet, if he suggested to kick things up the notch, then it means he has an ace up his sleeves." Bane said.

"Only time will tell who will win." Rex said.

"The public doesn't know this but when you learn visual Qi and shape it into whatever you want, like old man Kai with his lightning Qi and Rex Slade with his fiery Qi, you can't change it to take another shape as you are stuck with it." Gray continued speaking and he stood about four feet away from Jake. "And having visual Qi around you makes you stronger and faster. So how do you want to contend against me now?"

Jake just smiled before it turned into a chuckle. "How do I want to contend with you? Well for the answer," he said as his whole body erupted into a burst of energy. "With my own visual Qi."

Chapter 356 The werewolf slayer is in trouble!

Jake just smiled before it turned into a chuckle. "How do I want to contend with you? Well for the answer," he said as his whole body erupted into a burst of energy. "With my own visual Qi."

And immediately Jake said his words, tendrils of darkness enveloped him with only his blue eyes staring at Gray who took a step back in fright. Even the public and those watching could feel their hearts thump louder as they looked at the darkness enveloping Jake and after a few seconds, it settled giving him a black darkness filled cloak coating his body.

The cloak wasn't fluttering like Gray's, instead he's stayed frozen in one place as if it wasn't moving at all or time stopped for it. Your next chapter awaits on My Virtual Library Empire

"Wh... what... what type of visual Qi is that?!" Gray shouted in fright as all of a sudden, Jake's eyes began glowing fierce blue with his dark visual Qi cloak frozen in a spot.

Head General Humfree who was watching the fight from the Fang hunters' base, had a smirk on his face when Jake revealed his visual Qi and then his mind went back to when he was training Jake and Kate to master the art of visual Qi.

"I remembered that day, I was just teaching them how to manipulate the Qi around their body to produce visual objects of things when Jake dove deeper and unlocked this type of visual Qi which is also known as soul Qi weapon. Even I haven't been able to unlock this type of Qi only those powerful enough like the big three and powerful powers of the world could." Humfree mumbled while watching and his mind flashed to the state of the room when Jake unlocked this soul weapon.

In less than two minutes, the room had holes poking out of it, the equipment that were staying on their own a few metres away all got destroyed and the punching bag in the room was torn to pieces and even Head General Humfree was injured slightly trying to help Jake control it.

"I'm sorry Gray, but at this point, you don't stand any chance again." Humfree chuckled when he continued watching Jake as he walked forward slowly and coldly without any hint of expression or emotion on his face.

The whole arena was silent as if it was a graveyard as they couldn't believe their eyes seeing Jake look like a grim reaper with the dark cloak, glowing eyes and his sword resting on his shoulder.

"The system has given me a quest." Jake spoke coldly as he pointed his sword at Gray. "And I have to do everything in my power to complete it and also get to the top. My system isn't only a werewolf slaying one, it would also slay whoever stands in my path of reaching the top!" He said as in a flash, he was suddenly in front of Gray.

'What the hell! I didn't even hear him move and he is suddenly in front of me?!' Gray thought as he saw Jake swing his sword and in a flash, it was about to crash into him but he managed to turn around bringing his Qi cape in front of it blocking the strike but was still sent skidding a few metres away.

'His strength has grown exponentially?! How?!' Gray thought as he could see Jake take a step again. 'He is about to move!' he thought as he gripped his own sword tightly and baited his breath waiting for Jake when he saw Jake's cloak raise up more and then a dozen dark swords appeared.

"But...but he used a technique like this last time, how is he able to use it again so soon?" Gray mumbled in shock.

'My visual Qi is a blessing and also a curse at the same time. In this form, I can use all the Qi I want and do more things but I have a time limit and when it reaches the limit, this cloak will disappear and all my Qi would be depleted.' Jake thought as he raised his hands calmly.

"So I have to finish this fight as soon as possible!" Jake shouted and the dozen dark swords were sent flying towards Gray at double the speed of the hundred sword from earlier.

"Curses!" Gray said as he twirled around like a tornado of some kind and then shooting his sword forward, a huge yellow ball of fiery Qi came out and swallowed the swords whole.

He was about to move when he suddenly saw Jake coming through the fiery Qi and unleashing a strong uppercut that sent him flying up to the clear hard dome that covered the arena.

"So... strong!" Gray said as he could suddenly see Jake up above him looking as if he was floating in the sky and then he swirled all his Qi to his fist and hammered it into Gray sending him crashing back towards the ground at terrifying speed that in less than a split second, he hit the ground hard breaking the hard diamond surface while coughing out blood.

Landing a few metres away from him, Jake smiled coldly while looking at Gray stand up slowly with blood pouring down his mouth.

"I thought that cape of yours had a special power, why aren't you using it?" Jake asked as he saw Gray smirk.

"It does but you didn't give me a chance to use it. But thank you for just standing there as I finally have a chance." Gray smiled and then grabbing his cape, he threw it on the floor.

'Using visual Qi and now this, my whole Qi reserve will be depleted in a minute but I hope this would be enough to finish him up!' he thought with a smile when the cape suddenly rose up in front of everyone and began taking shape.

Within a minute, the former cape suddenly took the shape of a phoenix with its body burning brightly yellow while brimming with energy.

"Oh! The werewolf slayer is in trouble now." Rex laughed maniacally.

Chapter 357 357: Wolf hunter's identity revealed!

"I thought that cape of yours had a special power, why aren't you using it?" Jake asked as he saw Gray smirk.

"It does but you didn't give me a chance to use it. But thank you for just standing there as I finally have a chance." Gray smiled and then grabbing his cape, he threw it on the floor.

'Using visual Qi and now this, my whole Qi reserve will be depleted in a minute but I hope this would be enough to finish him up!' he thought with a smile when the cape suddenly rose up in front of everyone and began taking shape.

"Oh! The werewolf slayer is in trouble now." Rex laughed maniacally.

"One thing people don't know is the amount of time you can use your visual Qi for is determined by how vast your Qi pool is. And luckily for me, my pool is vast enough to do this." Gray said as the phoenix opened up its mouth with an orange glow beneath it.

"Die you inferior System user!" Gray shouted and then a burst of yellow fiery Qi was shot at Jake at immense speed that he was unable to do anything when it crashed into him and flung him across the platform almost falling off of it but he infused the tip of his fingers with Qi and stabbed it into the hard diamond surface stopping him before he fell off.

"Hahah! You feel that? That is the power of the supreme system user! My power which no one can do not even Rex Slade!" Gray shouted as he laughed maniacally and then he saw Jake standing up with a chuckle.

"Too bad you are going to lose that power when I defeat you right here and now." Jake said as a piece of his visual Qi cloak about half of it fell to the ground and covered the whole platform making it a dark surface.

Before the darkness touched him, Gray along with his phoenix jumped up fearing that it was a type of attack.

"You can't stay up there for long you know!" Jake laughed as a dozen Qi sword appeared in the air half of it directly above Gray and his phoenix while the remaining half were pointed in front of them.

With a click of his fingers, he sent the swords flying towards them at tremendous speed while the Qi phoenix could be seen opening up its mouth and shooting out flammy Qi burning and causing the Qi swords heading towards it at once.

While Gray was seen with his sword in front of him as he took a stance while still standing in the air which surprised people as per their knowledge, it wasn't possible to stand mid air. But what they didn't know was that he was condensing his Qi beneath his feet forming a Qi platform similar to General Paul's own.

Taking the stance and seeing the swords coming at him from above, he swung his sword that was glowing yellow with Qi and a huge slash came out hitting the swords and breaking them apart.

'My Qi keeps draining rapidly from all these high moves I'm doing. If something is not done soon, I will lose.' Gray thought and then he heard Jake laughing loudly.

"You think that's all?!" He shouted with his eyes still glowing bright blue and then another dozen sword appeared directly above Gray while another dozen appeared in front of the phoenix. "If you don't come down here, you will have to keep facing off against the swords and for your information, I can do this all day long."

'That was a total bluff!!!' Jake screamed in his head but didn't let it show in his face. 'I can't do this for long. Although I can use an infinite amount of Qi in this state especially considering my vast pool, the time is ticking fast as it only lasts about ten minutes and we have been fighting with me in this state for five minutes now.'

'Shit! If he is right, then the best choice would be for me to go down but I don't know what those dark things below are.' Gray thought and then he heard Jake clicking his fingers again and the swords were propelled towards him at immense speed.

Taking the same stance, he swung his sword twice getting rid of the swords but the explosion from the two attacks colliding sent him flying back to the ground while his phoenix finished dealing with its own set of swords before heading back down too.

"Good boys!" Jake smiled as Gray's feet touched the dark pool on the ground but he found nothing happening and he raised an eyebrow in confusion.

'Was this a bluff?' He thought.

"Okay! Time to go for the attack!" Gray shouted and then a hundred Qi shards appeared around him while his phoenix opened up its mouth preparing to shoot a Qi flame at him. "Dodge this!"

He shouted and sent the shards while the flame too was shot at Jake at break neck speed and then an explosion occurred with smoke covering everybody's view.

"It is over!" Gray said as he looked at Erin and Bane waiting for them to announce the end of the match.

"True! It is over but for you!" Jake said as he was seen rising from the ground in front of a stunned Gray.

Without wasting time, he activated two system skills. {Stun strike} and {Strength Surge} immediately, Gray felt like he got paralyzed as he was unable to move at all.

'What's going on? Why can't I move? Is it because of fear?' he thought.

"Since it worked, it means you are weaker than me not that I doubted it one moment!" Jake said as his right leg went back and then he flexed his muscles as he felt strength surge doing its work by increasing his strength causing the sleeves of his shirt to rip away and bending his feet forward, the dark shadows beneath his feet moved away.

And then exploding forward even though he was directly in front of Gray, he unleashed a devastating punch that totally broke the sound barrier as it felt like everybody's ear was going to bleed by the strong sound that sounded like as if a cannon was shot.

And then Jake's fist made impact on Gray's gut causing him to pour out a load of blood mixed with spit and then he was lifted off the ground and was flung off the platform while he lay on the floor unconsciously and his Qi phoenix was seen disintegrating from view.

"I... I did it! Not like I doubted it one bit. And it's just in time." Jake mumbled as he fell to his knees while the shadows beneath his feet receded and so did his cloak as the whole arena suddenly got brighter like how it was before.

The whole world, the public, competitors, and big three were unable to say anything as they watched the tough fight between Jake and Gray leaving their mouths agape at what they saw from the start to finish of the fight.

"Th... this is totally unbelievable! All... all what we saw from start to finish is still shocking and the result is not what we expected! Team A of the Fang hunters win!" Erin commented with a shout that jolted the big three from their shock.

"Yes! Team A from the Fang hunters win!" Bane said and immediately, the Fang hunters both home and in the arena cheered loudly even those in the Aeroglide were cheering as the whole coliseum was shaking from the massive shout.

"That's my man! That's Jake!" Peter shouted at the top of his lungs. "Although I'm still slightly pissed from him throwing me off the arena but I'm happy man!"

"It's not as if it was only you he threw off the platform so quit whining." Kate said.

"I knew you could do it and you went beyond my expectations!" Sunny added.

"That was an impressive display from the werewolf slayer I must say." Kai added.

'Fa... father just acknowledged Jake?!' Harry thought and then he saw Sebastian shivering.

'I... I can't believe I messed with him when we were still first years and now... he has grown into a beast! I... I hope he doesn't still hold grudges against me.'

Sebastian thought.

From the fight, one person was the most shocked especially from the last move that Jake pulled as he couldn't believe his eyes which could be seen from his wide open mouth.

"Th... that is the same move he used then! The werewolf slayer is the wolf hunter!" Raze said shocked.

Chapter 358: A fight to the death!

Immediately Bane announced the team that won, the usual commenters took to their keyboards.

"This is the f*cking first time I'm seeing something as awesome as this!"

"This fight was peak and I was hooked from the very beginning. Dude, didn't you notice I didn't comment as usual?"

"Who knew they could display this level of awesomeness?!"

"This werewolf slayer has just gotten a new fan after that awesome display. Now I know that the werewolves are truly doomed after this duel."

"That werewolf slayer's form from earlier has now become my new screen saver. Because that form was peak."

"True! Thought it was only me. Lol!"

"I actually saved that phoenix pic, it was beautiful."

"Well after this fight, I don't think there's any other duel that will match up to it."

"True!"

"Fact!" Everybody were agreeing to the earlier statement as they continued typing while Jake was seen kneeling while looking directly in front of him as if reading something and he really was reading something.

{Quest Completed!}

{Host's opponent defeated and rewards will now be granted.}

{Level up! +10,000 XP, +10 in all stats and a new title.}

"System! Bring up my status screen!" Jake called out and his status screen was brought up in front of him.

<Status>

<User: Jake Lucas>

<Level: 23>

<Title: Supreme System User>

<Combat level: Master>

<Skill level: Expert>

<XP level: 92,750/20,000>

<HP: 100/100>

<Strength: 102>

<Agility:102>

<Endurance: 92>

<Stamina: 92>

<Free stat points: 5>

"Huh?! I still have some free stat points?" Jake mumbled as he looked at the screen. "I totally forgot about those. Gotta distribute them right away. But to what? I like my stats well rounded but I need to increase something. Strength, I already have a lot of that especially with Strength Surge.

But I always lack in the speed area especially today whereby I was hardly keeping up with Gray's speed and attacks. I was avoiding them by the skin of my teeth. So speed it is then." Jake said and then he allocated his free stat points and brought up his status screen again.

<Status>

<User: Jake Lucas>

<Level: 23>

<Title: Supreme System User>

<Combat level: Master>

<Skill level: Expert>

<XP level: 92,750/20,000>

<HP: 100/100>

<Strength: 102>

<Agility:107>

<Endurance: 92>

<Stamina: 92>

"I can feel the pure strength and speed bubbling inside me." Jake said as he clenched his hand weakly. "But I'm exhausted after using all the Qi in my reserve. Wonder when my next stats cap would occur." He said as he looked up and then glanced at the screen in front of him.

"Right! I need to see what this title is all about." He said as he clicked on the screen with his mind and it changed.

{Title: Supreme System User; this title when activated by the host and it is in effect, the system would max out all the host's skills and stats. Note! This title needs a special condition to be unlocked by the user.}

"Huh?! Then what the hell is the use of the title when it needs a special condition to be unlocked darn it?!" Jake shouted which confused everyone as they began looking at him strangely but he didn't notice. "Tch! It's just a waste then."

He was about to leave the platform when he heard footsteps heading his way looking up, he could see an injured fellow with blood dripping down his mouth and his fist were clenched.

"Yo... I can feel and see it, I no longer have my system with me." Gray said as he stopped in front of Jake who stood up with his sword suddenly appearing in his hand.

"So what? You saw the quest, the loser gets their system erased from existence. So how is it my fault?" Jake asked.

"I... I f*cking lost the powers I managed to accumulate over the years because of you darn it! My Qi phoenix, my system skills, all gone. I'm only left with my normal strength from training, human skills and Qi." Gray said as he fell to his knees.

"Not my problem though. If I had lost, the same thing would have happened to me too so tough luck." Jake shrugged.

"You should at least show some sympathy darn it!" Gray said as he stood up and glared at Jake who just shrugged again.

Gray just sighed and then walked forward more standing directly in front of Jake who gripped his sword tighter preparing for an attack.

"The way I am now... if my guild should be left alone with me being in my current condition and strength, we would get taken over by those weaker than us." Gray said.

"And it is my problem how?" Jake asked and Gray sighed again.

"I hate to say this, and I hate that you are making me say because I lost to you." Gray said with his hands clenched and his teeth grit. "Rather than letting my guild get taken over by those weaklings, I would rather have you take over it and become the leader of the phoenix guild like you did with the iron fist and Raven wing's guild. The phoenix guild have practically lost this duel so after the whole thing, I want you to take over."

Gray's words took Jake aback slightly but then regaining his composure, a small smile played on his lips.

"I will gladly take you up on that offer as I need all the power and strength I can get to rid the world of the werewolves!" Jake said and Gray smiled painfully as he walked away from Jake while he also wanted to leave the platform when a loud shout interrupted him.

"So it's you!" Jake heard a loud shout coming from the viewing booth of the big three and Druig directed his drones towards the place.

"Isn't the the older son of Rex Slade?" Erin commented as the viewing booth opened and surrounding his body with Qi, Raze was seen flying towards the platform and in a flash, he crashed into it while glaring at Jake.

"Hey! What is his deal?" Peter shouted out loud for Raze to hear and then Raze turned around to glare at him.

"I'm sorry, do I know you?" Jake asked with a raised brow while Alex who was in the stands was feeling nervous.

'What does brother want with Jake? I hope they don't fight because I can tell Jake would lose in his current condition as he is weakened greatly.' he thought.

"Rex! Won't you stop your son?" Bane asked.

"Hold on a bit, I want to see where this is headed." Rex said as he continued watching what was going on.

"You...you don't remember me?! How bad!" Raze said as he took a step back while his red hair was fluttering in the wind.

"I only know that you are Rex's son and Alex's brother, isn't that what you are?" Jake asked.

'I need to thread carefully right now. If a fight was to occur, I would struggle a lot.'

"You don't remember the VR game? The red dragon!" Raze said and Jake's eyes widened in surprise.

'How could I forget.' he thought as he felt like slapping his forehead. 'I found out then that Raze was Alex's brother but I completely forgot about the fact that I might see him here especially considering my rude behavior then.'

"I made an offer to you and you rudely said no while leaving me hanging and you are here? Who knew that you were the werewolf slayer huh?!" Raze chuckled as he looked at his hands.

"In the VR world, we can't fight at full strength but that is different here in the real world and now that I have seen you, I'm not letting you go so easily. We have to fight right here and right now! A fight to the death!" Raze declared and his coat was flung to the side revealing a sword in its sheath which he drew out.

Chapter 359: You are lucky my dad is pissed!

"I made an offer to you and you rudely said no while leaving me hanging and you are here? Who knew that you were the werewolf slayer huh?!" Raze chuckled as he looked at his hands.

"In the VR world, we can't fight at full strength but that is different here in the real world and now that I have seen you, I'm not letting you go so easily. We have to fight right here and right now! A fight to the death!" Raze declared and his coat was flung to the side revealing a sword in its sheath which he drew out.

'Of course he is Alex's brother! They are battle maniacs and would want to fight any strong being they see. I wonder if that's how Rex is.' Jake thought as he took a step back when he saw Raze taking a stance with his visual Qi erupting and surrounding him.

"Okay this has gone on long enough! Raze come back here now!" Bane shouted and Raze turned around to stare at Bane.

"I don't take orders from you so quit ordering me around you oldie. I do as I please!" Raze retorted back.

"How..." Bane was about to say when he felt a hand on his shoulder and turning around, he felt an immense pressure descend in the booth and not only the booth, the whole coliseum felt the same pressure that hit them causing them to break out in sweat including Jake who took a step back.

'Is that...I thought I was finally on par with them but it feels like there is still a gap.' Jake thought while gulping hard. 'I guess Alex was partly right.'

"Raze! Don't... make... me... come... down there... bring your f*cking ass back here right this instant!" Rex shouted and a shockwave erupted cracking the dome covering the coliseum while Raze skidded on the ground slightly.

'I...it wasn't me the threat was directed at and I can feel my heart thumping so loud that it feels like it will jump out of my chest this instant. I... I could probably put up a fight against him but might not last long.' Jake thought as he saw Raze shaking in his boots.

In a flash, Raze's sword was sheathed back and he bent his knees looking as if he was going to jump but before he did, he turned around to look at Jake.

"You are lucky my dad is pissed and I'm unlucky he is pissed but just know that I won't let you off next time." Raze said as he jumped up out of the coliseum heading for the booth.

"Sorry for that everyone, the duels will continue now." Bane said and Jake walked back towards the stand with Alex patting him on his back and so did Peter who did it with a slight frown.

"I'm still pissed from you throwing me out the platform you know but after you kicked that arrogant Gray's arse, I have forgiven you." Peter smiled.

"Thank you guys. Now if you will excuse me, I need to meditate in order to recover my lost Qi." Jake said as he went to take an empty seat in the stands that was devoid of people and there were a lot of those considering the little amount of people that came.

And then he sat down cross legged preparing to mediate.

'My reserve takes about thirty minutes to become full again considering the fact that I have a large Qi pool. Using that visual Qi of earlier drains me of all my Qi after usage so I can't use it lightly. If I was in a serious fight, I wouldn't have time to recover before I would be swiftly killed. So I need to do something about this Qi depletion issue and use that visual Qi as a last resort.' Jake thought and then he began mediating.

'I wish the next teams good luck.'

"Now for the next teams to fight." Bane said as the holographic display began shuffling around for a few seconds before stopping on the teams.

"Team A from the thunderbolt guild vs team A from the daisy guild!" Bane announced and without wasting time, the two teams filed out onto the platform while the girls from the daisy guild had a nervous expressions on their faces.

'I saw the way that old man from earlier took out those strong Fang hunters' guild members, if he is participating, then we have practically lost so it's better to forfeit than lose humiliatingly.' Linda thought and was about to say the word when she heard Kai speak.

"I'm trying to conserve my strength for now, so you two, you are up. Go crazy!" Kai said and then he took a step back while Harry along with Sebastian stepped forward.

'Thank goodness! Now we can try our best.' Linda thought as she took a stance with her sword in hand while peach banged her shield several times and Ivy rolled her daggers in her fingers waiting for the countdown clock to appear.

It didn't take long for it to appear as it began counting down and after a few seconds, it hit 0. And without wasting time, the three girls were seen charging towards Sebastian and Harry who took a stance with their swords in hand.

Sprinting forward was Ivy with her two daggers in hands and it didn't take long for her to get in front of Sebastian as she pushed off and came towards him with a stab from the side but anticipating her moves, he quickly blocked with his sword.

"I was part of the top twenty students in my first year until that monster took it from me. Then struggling hard, I finally occupied the top ten spot. Do you think you can defeat me easily?!" Sebastian said as the Qi surrounding his feet suddenly intensified making him explode forward and then swung his sword from the side but Ivy managed to block albeit by the skin of her teeth.

"The real world isn't some shitty academy!" Ivy said as he pushed off towards Sebastian.

"True! And that's why I have been training hard!" He said and his sword began glowing brightly and then his hands began electrifying striking his sword.

Meanwhile Ivy was in the air coming in with a strike to his head.

'I'm not like dad or Harry, I can only use this on my hands but it should be enough.'

"Weren't you told?" Sebastian asked as he raised the sword above his head while seeing Ivy coming in powerfully and strong and then swinging his sword, an electrical yellow slash was seen coming out as it crashed into Ivy throwing her out of the air onto the ground.

Before she could stand up, Sebastian was seen running forward and then he stood in front of a kneeling Ivy. "You can't dodge while in mid air." He said before whacking her in the head with the butt of his sword.

Turning around, he could see that Harry was finishing up with his fight as the two females Linda and Peach were seen huffing and panting while Harry looked like he hadn't broken a sword.

And then in the blink of an eye, they were seen on the floor out cold.

'No matter how hard I train, there are still some monsters and beasts stronger than me taking the spotlight.' Sebastian thought.

"Team A Thunderbolt guild wins!" Bane commented.

Chapter 360: Last match of the day!

"Team A Thunderbolt guild wins!" Bane commented.

Erin turned to the camera again.

"We have been seeing interesting and compelling fights from the start till now but I don't know why it feels like something is missing." She said.

And the online forum began discussing.

"True! Ever since when the werewolf slayer and the leader of the phoenix guild fought, the remaining fights aren't as fascinating again."

"Yeah! I still can't get that fight out of my head."

"Who knew Qi could do so much?"

"And who saw what Raze tried to do? I didn't know he had beef with the werewolf slayer."

"Yeah! He mentioned something like meeting in VR game and the wolf hunter."

"Yeah! I don't know why but that name sound so familiar."

"Hold on! VR game, wolf hunter! Oh shoot! The werewolf slayer is the wolf hunter from Reality X VR game!"

"Wait!?! And Raze is the red dragon?!"

"Now it's starting to come together. The wolf hunter and Red dragon fought twice and each time ended in a humiliating defeat for the latter."

"Now I know why Raze is pissed."

"True! If it was me, I would also be pissed."

"Can't believe how easily Rex Slade managed to calm the situation down though."

"Right! It felt like my screen shook slightly when he shouted earlier."

"For real?! I thought it was only me. Lol."

"Anyway, let's see what the remaining guilds have to offer. I wonder if they can top the show Gray and Jake put up."

"Very unlikely."

"So everyone, we are nearing the end of this duel as each guild have only a match left before the fight is over." Bane announced. "And I can't wait to find out who would win since I can see that the thunderbolt guild and the fang hunters are in a tie and the last match they will have, would determine who would win."

Hearing that, Jake just opened up one of his eyes before he closed it back up again with a sigh.

"Alright! The next fight is between..." Bane said as he saw the holographic display shuffling and finally, it was done.

"Team B from the phoenix guild and team B from Daisy guild." Bane announced.

"Which means the last match of the day would be between..." Harry mumbled as he looked up to see his father fold his hands nonchalantly as if not bothered by who they were to duel with next.

"Will the teams kindly make their way forward?" Bane said and both teams stepped forward onto the platform.

'Last time, I lost to some annoying females, but now will be different.' Jim said as he clenched his hands tightly.

'Doesn't matter if we win or lose after all, we will lose but I will make sure we win and not lose to these women.' Greg thought.

Immediately, the countdown clock appeared and began counting down while Lucy drew out her whip with a stern look on her face.

'I can't believe that a proud number one independent guild like us would lose the position of the big three and I knew what Gray said to that werewolf slayer.' Lucy thought and then the timer hit 0.

Without wasting time, Lucy charged forward leaving Greg and Jim behind which surprised them as she was seen heading towards the females.

"Doesn't Lucy usually stay back and support us? Why is she charging forward?" Greg asked.

"I think this whole situation have frustrated her to the core and so have I. C'mon, let's back her up." Jim said and then he along with Greg quickly dashed forward.

Lucy being the first to move, had already gotten her whip in front of her as she swung it countless times sending slashes the females' way but they skillfully used their weapons to hit and break the slashes.

"I'm not done yet!" She shouted as she jumped up while swinging her whip which caught one of the females by her hand and then lifted her up.

She was about to slam her down when the other female jumped up using her sword to slash the whip cutting the part holding onto her teammate's hand.

Lucy landed back down and was about to dash forward again when she felt a touch on her shoulder.

"Let us." Greg said and then Qi began surrounding his legs strengthening it and without wasting time, he was seen coming fast towards the sword user.

Meanwhile Jim stabbed his spear to the ground while strengthening it with Qi and then using it as a pole, he was propelled forward and before he went forward, he pulled the spear out of the ground and swung it as a javelin of some kind at the other female who naturally lifted her weapon blocking it.

But she forgot that Jim had been propelled earlier as his feet hit her in the face sending her off the platform while Greg was seen going at it with the female sword user who was blocking each and every of Greg's hit.

"I thought you would be wise to realize this." Greg said as he stopped attacking and then lifted one of his Sai up and the female took a stance.

"I have just been toying with you all day." He said and then swung it forward.

Coating her sword with Qi, she hit the Sai sending it back at Greg but he was nowhere to be seen as he suddenly appeared in front of her after dashing forward.

Then without wasting time, he grabbed her by the neck. "I don't like to hurt beautiful females so I would suggest you forfeit yourself." He said while squeezing her neck causing her to choke up.

And then through the struggle, she managed to say the word. "I forfeit!"

"Good girl." He said as he swung her away while turning around to see that Lucy had just finished taking care of the last female and that was how they won their match.

"Team B from the phoenix guild has won this match but too bad that they and daisy guild have lost the opportunity to join us at the top." Bane announced as Greg could be seen with his teeth grit.

"Darn it!" Jim said.

"Without using the holographic display, we already know who the last match of the day is between." Bane smiled and the whole audience and world baited their breath. "Will Team A from the Fang hunters and Team A from the thunderbolt guild please step forward to have the last match of the day that would determine who would become apart of the world leader's table?!"
